JOURNAL OF THE PROCEEDINGS OF THE CONVENTION

St. Paul's Pro-Cathedral,
Los Angeles, January 26, 1921.

The Twenty-sixth Annual Convention of the Church in the Diocese of Los Angeles opened with the Celebration of the Holy Communion in St. Paul's Pro-Cathedral, Los Angeles, at 10 a. m. on that day.

The Celebrant was the Bishop, the Right Rev. Joseph H. Johnson, D.D. He was assisted by the Very Rev. Dr. MacCormack, as Epistoler, and the Rev. Dr. Dotten as Gospeller, and in the administration of the Sacred Elements by the Right Rev. William Bertrand Stevens, Ph.D., the Bishop Coadjutor.

At the close of the service the Convention was called to order for business, the Right Reverend, the Bishop, taking the chair.

The Secretary announced that more than one-third of the Clergy had deposited attendance slips and more than one-third of the Parishes and Missions had signified that they were represented by the attendance slips of their Lay-Delegates.

A constitutional quorum of both orders being present, the Chairman declared the Convention ready for business.

On motion, the reading of the Order of Business was dispensed with.

On motion of the Rev. J. Arthur Evans, the Rev. Alfred Fletcher was nominated as Secretary.

There being no further nominations, on motion, the Assistant Secretary cast the ballot of the Convention and the Rev. Alfred Fletcher was declared elected.

The Secretary appointed the Rev. R. L. Windsor as Assistant Secretary.

The Bishop delivered his annual address (Appendix 1).

The Bishop Coadjutor delivered his first annual address to the Convention (Appendix 2).

On motion the Convention adjourned to meet at 2 o'clock.

On reassembling at the hour named, the Bishop in the chair, the following appropriations were presented and referred to the Finance Committee:

Registrar office expenses	$ 50.00
Expense of fitting office of the Bishop Coadjutor.....	277.00
Master of Ceremonies, for Convention service.....	50.00
Historiographer, office expenses.....	10.00

Secretary, Printing Journal.....	600.00
“ Printing Book of Canons.....	160.00
“ Printing Forms of Report.....	60.00
“ Extra Printing ordered by Convention.....	100.00
“ Office expenses	50.00

The Chair announced the regular and special committees appointed by him (Pages 4-6).

The Rev. A. G. H. Bode moved that the Committees on the Diocesan Endowment Fund and the Central Diocesan Fund be discharged. Adopted.

The Rev. R. L. Windsor moved a suspension of the Order of Business that a resolution of importance might be presented. Adopted.

Chaplain Hubbard offered the following resolution with preamble:

Whereas, It is credibly reported, that on Saturday, the 22nd of the present month, the Reverend Baker P. Lee, a priest canonically connected with this diocese, did officiate at the marriage of Alfred I. DuPont and Jessie D. Ball, and in so doing acted in contravention of the provisions of Paragraph iii, Canon 42, of the Canons of the Protestant Episcopal Church, the said Alfred I. DuPont being divorced from a former wife on grounds not recognized as valid by this Church; and,

Whereas, This is a matter of grave concern to the Church in this diocese; therefore be it

Resolved, That should the Bishop of this diocese determine to take such action under the provisions of Section 207, Canon XXXIII, Canons of the Diocese of Los Angeles, as may afford the Reverend Baker P. Lee ample opportunity to exonerate himself from blame, and at the same time vindicate the authority of the Church in this most important question, he is assured of the sympathy and support of the members of this Convention.

Adopted.

The Rev. G. F. Weld moved the following resolution:

Resolved, That the sum of $200 be appropriated and placed at the disposal of the Treasurer of the Diocese, who shall from it pay the railway fares to Convention of the Missionary-in-Charge and one Lay-Delegate from such Missions as may be one hundred or more miles distant from Los Angeles.

On motion of the Rev. W. E. Maison, this resolution was referred to the Board of Missions.

The Treasurer reported the list of delinquent Parishes and Missions as follows: The Missions at Bostonia, Carlsbad, Carpinteria, East San Diego, Fallbrook, Huntington Park, Imperial, Lompoc, Oceanside, San Luis Rey, Santa Maria; and the following Parishes: Church of the Holy Faith, Inglewood; St. Athanasius', Los Angeles; Christ Church, Los Angeles; St. John's, San Bernardino; St. Paul's, Ventura.

The Rev. P. H. Hickman presented the following resolution:

Whereas, Christ Church, Los Angeles, is merely a nominal parish; therefore,

Be it Resolved, That the Finance Committee be requested to advise the Convention what action should be taken with reference to assessments on that parish.

Adopted.

The Rev. George F. Weld presented the following resolution from the Convocation of Santa Barbara:

Whereas, St. Andrew's Mission, Carpinteria, has had laid upon it for 1920 a diocesan assessment of $31.00 and a missionary assessment of $40.00; and

Whereas, St. Andrew's Mission has had no Sunday services during 1920; and

Whereas, It has paid to the Treasurer of the Diocese one-third of each of these assessments; and

Whereas, St. Andrew's Mission has asked no financial aid from the Diocese for more than five years; therefore

Be it Resolved, That this Convocation, through its Rural Dean, shall respectfully petition the Committee on Membership of the next Annual Convention of the Diocese, that, in consideration of the above facts, it will remit the unpaid balance on these assessments, and admit St. Andrew's Mission, Carpinteria, to representation at the Annual Convention of the Diocese for the year 1921.

The Rev. Mr. Weld moved that the amount of arrears due from St. Andrew's, Carpinteria, be remitted; and that it be admitted to representation in Convention. Adopted.

The Rev. Dr. Learned presented the report of the Committee on Canons:

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON CANONS

To the Twenty-sixth Annual Convention of the Diocese of Los Angeles:

The Committee on Canons begs to submit the following report:

(1) In place of the proposed amendment to Canon VII, Section 47, referred back to the Committee by the last Convention:

"Provided further, That whenever, in the opinion of the Finance Committee of the Diocese, any Mission or Parish becomes incapable of meeting its diocesan assessment, such assessment for the ensuing year shall be decreased or omitted;

"That, also, whenever, in the opinion of the Board of Missions, any Mission or Parish becomes incapable of meeting its diocesan missionary assessment or its general missionary apportionment, such assessment or apportionment for the ensuing year shall be decreased or omitted";

the Committee recommends the adoption of the following:

"Provided further, That whenever the Convention shall decide that any Mission or Parish is incapable of meeting its assessments such assessments for the ensuing year shall be omitted."

On motion, the recommendation of the Committee was adopted.

(2) A proposed amendment to Section 21, Article VI, of the Constitutions, offered by Rev. P. H. Hickman and re-submitted to the Committee: Strike out the word "male"; so that the section shall read, in the first paragraph, "The Lay Members shall consist of Delegates, not exceeding five, from each Parish and Mission in union with the Convention."

The Committee recommends the adoption of this proposed amendment—on the ground that, as it is a matter not of ecclesiastical order, but of expediency, the Convention, in its judgment, should not restrict the power of Parishes and Missions in the selection of their representatives to Convention.

The Rev. J. D. H. Browne moved the following resolution as a substitute for the recommendation of the Committee:

Whereas, The question of female representation among the delegates to the Annual Conventions of the Diocese, on a resolution submitted to a previous meeting, is now before us; and

Whereas, It is most desirable that in a matter so affecting the women of the Diocese they should themselves be heard, and their judgment secured; therefore be it

Resolved, That before further action is taken by this body the following question shall be submitted to the women's organizations, societies and guilds, of the Diocese and the Parishes and Missions: "Do you desire that women shall be admitted as delegates from the Parishes and Missions to the Diocesan Convention?"; and that their answers shall bring the question again before Convention at its next annual meeting.

The resolution was adopted, and further consideration postponed until the next Annual Convention.

(3) The Committee offers, and recommends the adoption of, the following proposed Canon on the Executive Council:

SUGGESTED CANON ON THE EXECUTIVE COUNCIL

1. This Council shall consist of sixteen members. The Bishop, the Bishop-Coadjutor, the Deans of the Convocations, and the Treasurer of the Diocese shall be members of this Council, ex officio.

The Bishop shall appoint one representative from each of the following boards: The Finance Committee of the Diocese, the Board of Missions, the Board of Christian Education, the Commission on Philanthropy and Social Service, and the Executive Committee of the County and City Mission Society—to be members of the Council.

The remaining four members of the Council shall be elected by ballot at each Annual Convention.

The Bishop shall be the chairman, ex officio, or in his absence the Bishop-Coadjutor.

A quorum shall consist of four clergymen and three laymen.

The Bishop shall have the power to fill vacancies occurring in the Council.

2. There shall be seven committees of the Executive Council as follows: Finance, General Missions, Diocesan Missions, County and City Mission, Christian Education, Social Service, and Nation-Wide Campaign.

Membership on these committees shall not be limited to members of the Council.

The Committee on Diocesan Missions shall be the Board of Missions as determined by the Canons of this Diocese.

The Committee on Christian Education shall be the Diocesan Board of Christian Education as determined by Canon.

The Committee on Social Service shall be the Commission on Philanthropy and Social Service as determined by Canon.

The Committee on Nation-Wide Campaign shall be appointed by the Bishop. The Treasurer of this committee must be a member of the Executive Council and shall be appointed by the Bishop.

The other committees shall be appointed by the Bishop and shall consist of not less than five members.

All budgets for the work of these committees shall be submitted to the Executive Council for its approval. No assessments shall be laid upon the Parishes and Missions except as provided elsewhere by Canon.

3. The Executive Council shall meet as soon after the adjournment of each Annual Convention as practicable and elect a Secretary. The Treasurer of the Diocese shall be Treasurer of the Council, ex officio. The Council shall meet monthly and at such other times, on the call of the Bishop or any three members, as may be desired.

4. The Executive Council is hereby authorized to undertake and to supervise all ways and means to obtain funds for the maintenance of the missionary work of the Diocese and also of the Church outside the Diocese.

It shall be the duty of the Council to determine any quotas to be laid upon the Parishes and Missions of the Diocese for Missionary purposes and to furnish a budget of such quotas; provided that all assessments, included in such quotas as provided by Canon, shall be approved by the Annual Convention before becoming operative.

It shall also be the duty of the Executive Council to appropriate to the several objects in the annual budget such funds as shall be received by the Treasurer of the Council.

5. It is hereby provided that all funds raised for missionary purposes (except those received toward the Diocesan Missionary Assessment, which shall be sent to the Treasurer of the Board of Missions) shall be sent by the Treasurers of the Parishes and Missions to the Treasurer of the Nation-Wide Campaign Committee.

Number (3)—with accepted changes in the wording; the four members of the Council to be elected by Convention to be "two clergymen and two laymen"; "a quorum shall consist of a majority of the members of the Council," instead of "four clergymen and three laymen"; and "The Board of Missions as determined by the canons of this Diocese shall be the Committee on Diocesan Missions," instead of as stated in the report—with these changes (3) was adopted provisionally for one year, to be presented for amendment or ratification at the next Annual Convention.

(4) The Committee recommends the adoption of the following canon, proposed by Chaplain Hubbard:

In compliance with Canon 6, General Convention 1919, the Bishop shall nominate to the Diocesan Convention four presbyters to act as Examining Chaplains, one to serve one year, one to serve two years, one to serve three years, one to serve four years. At the expiration of the respective terms of office the successor shall be nominated for the term of four years. The Bishop may at his discretion demand the resignation of any Examining Chaplain.

Vacancies occurring when the Diocesan Convention is not in session shall be filled in compliance with Canon 6, General Convention 1919.

(5) Canon XVII, Section 126, sub-section 2; substitute the words "to be confirmed" for the words "who shall be appointed."

The Committee recommends the adoption of this proposed amendment.

(6) Amendments proposed by the Rev. P. H. Hickman:

Amend Sections 13 and 14, Article V, of the Constitutions, by substituting the phrase "Special Meeting of the Convention" for the phrase "Special Convention."

Amend, in the same way, sections 52 of Article XX, 1 of Canon I, 2 and 3 of Canon I, 9 of Canon III, 13 of Canon IV, 20 of Canon V, and 22 of Canon V.

The Committee recommends that, in view of the fundamental changes which are implied by this proposed amendment, the consideration of it be postponed to another Convention.

(7) Canon XXVII, Section 169, proposed by the Rev. P. H. Hickman:

Amend by striking out the words at the close, "and an extra assessment of ten per cent. shall be levied upon each Parish and Mission which fails to send, within thirty days from the fixed date, its assessment for the Diocesan Fund."

The Committee recommends the adoption of this proposed amendment.

(8) Canon VIII, Section 67—amendment proposed by the Secretary of Convention:

"When a Mission shall have ceased to hold services (and, having no register of communicants or list of contributors in accordance with the terms of Section 61 of this Canon, it is therefore incompetent to elect Lay-Delegates to any Convention of this Diocese)—an asterisk (*) shall be placed before the name of such Mission, denoting that it is inoperative; and it shall be removed by the Bishop from the voting list of Parishes and Missions—such disability to be withdrawn and the name of the Mission to be restored on the voting list, when it shall have resumed holding services and shall have come again under the terms of Section 61 of this Canon."

The Committee recommends the adoption of this proposed amendment.

Numbers (4) and (5) were adopted; number 6, recommendation of committee that consideration be postponed to another Convention was adopted; numbers (7) and (8) were adopted.

(9) Canon VIII, Section 65. The Committee recommends the insertion of the following proposed amendment at the end of Sub-section 1:

"In the event of circumstances arising which make it desirable to sell said property or any part thereof, the canonical officers of the Mission shall make written request to said Diocesan Corporation, to which not less than two-thirds of the members of said Mission shall signify their consent in writing, that said property or any part thereof be sold, then, in its discretion, the said Diocesan Corporation, trustee, with the consent of the Bishop and Standing Committee of the Diocese, as provided in Article IV of its by-laws, may execute a deed of sale in the usual form; provided, however, that the proceeds of such sale shall be used exclusively for the acquisition of other property to be held for the use and benefit of said Mission—on conditions similar to those under which the property sold, together with improvements thereon, had been previously held.”

Number (9) was adopted as amended by the two provisos following:

Provided, that such sale shall be permitted by the Articles of Incorporation of the Corporation of the Diocese;

Provided, further, that in case the Articles of Incorporation do not authorize the execution of a deed of sale of the property of any Mission, the Convention now instructs the Corporation to secure such amendment of its Articles as shall permit and authorize the execution of such deed of sale.

(10) Rule of Order, No. 17, was referred to the Committee for the purpose of making its meaning more clear; the following amendment is recommended:

“In all elections required to be made by concurrent votes of both orders, the ballots of the Clerical Order shall first be counted and the list of the person or persons elected by said order shall be declared; the ballots of the Lay Order shall next be counted and the list of the person or persons elected by said order shall be declared. Any person or persons whose name or names shall appear on both of the said lists of persons elected shall be declared elected by the Convention, and no person shall be declared elected by the Convention unless he shall have been so elected by the vote of each order considered separate and apart from the other order.”

(11) Order of Business: The Committee recommends that among the nominations on the first day there be added the words, “Four members of the Executive Council”; and, after (15) on the same day, the words, “Report of the Executive Council.”

Respectfully submitted,

LESLIE E. LEARNED, Chairman.

Numbers (10) and (11)—the recommendations of the Committee were adopted; and, on motion of Dr. Learned, the report of the Committee, as amended, was adopted as a whole.

It was moved by Mr. H. E. Brett, that the Committee on Canons report to the next Annual Convention such amendment to the Canons as will permit women to serve upon vestries; in the event that a recommendation favorable to the election of women as Lay-Delegates to the Convention shall be presented. Adopted.

Mr. H. E. Brett moved that Article XX, Section 54, of the Constitutions of the Diocese, referred to the Committee on Canons at last Annual Convention, be again referred to the committee to report to the next Convention such revision as shall be desirable to simplify the procedure and make more definite the intention of the said article. Adopted.

The Chair appointed the following gentlemen as ushers, to assist in distributing the literature in Convention: the Rev. S. C. Clark, Rev. Martin D. Kneeland, Mr. W. G. Hara, Mr. Henry Damerel.

The Bishop spoke in advocacy of the Bishop Rowe Endowment Fund, which is to be commemorative of Bishop Rowe's splendid administration during his twenty-five years' service in Alaska.

The Rev. Dr. Davidson moved that the Secretary be authorized to post to date and to have printed the Constitutions and Canons of the Diocese. Adopted.

The Rev. Dr. Dotten presented the following report of the Committee on Admission of Parishes and Missions into union with Convention:

The Committee on Admission of Parishes and Missions into union with the Convention begs to report that it has received application from St. Andrew's Mission, Elsinore, and St. Thomas' Parish, Hollywood, Los Angeles.

Finding that the canonical requirements have been complied with in each case, the Committee offers a resolution that this Mission and this Parish be admitted into union with the Convention.

MILTON C. DOTTON,
C. E. C. HODGSON.

The Rev. P. A. Easley seconded the resolution. Adopted.

The Committee on Credentials reported that thirty-seven Parishes and twenty-three Missions had sent certificates of Lay-Delegates and that all such were entitled to representation, provided the diocesan assessments had been paid. Received.

Seventy-nine of the Clergy registered as present, and one hundred and thirty-eight Lay-Delegates registered as representing the thirty-six Parishes and twelve Missions that were entitled to representation.

The Secretary moved that a committee of five be appointed to deal with the matter of printing necessary blank forms of parochial report for next year, the Committee to consist of the Secretaries of Convention, the Treasurer of the Diocese, the Rev. Dr. Learned, Chairman of the Executive Council, and the Rev. F. U. Bugbee. Adopted.

The Rev. R. L. Windsor moved that the Committee be instructed to use the form provided by the General Convention, thus obviating the need of further action on the part of the Committee. Adopted.

The Rev. R. B. Gordon presented the report of the Standing Committee. Received. (Appendix 3.)

Mr. W. C. Mushet presented the Treasurer's report. The Rev. Dr. Learned moved that it be received and that a cordial vote of thanks be extended to the Treasurer for his valuable services. Adopted. (Appendix 4.)

The Rev. R. L. Windsor presented the Registrar's report. Received. (Appendix 5.)

The Rev. P. H. Hickman presented the Historiographer's report. Received. (Appendix 6.)

The Bishop Coadjutor, at this point, asked for an opportunity to make an important statement to the Convention.

A telegram, just received, regarding the election of Bishop, which was taking place on this day in the Diocese of New York, stated:

"Dr. Manning elected Bishop on third ballot."

The Convention gave way, for a few moments, to spirited applause; and, on motion, the Secretary was instructed to wire felicitations to Dr. Manning on his election.

The following telegram was sent:

523 S. Olive Street,
Los Angeles, Cal.

The Rev. William T. Manning, D. D.
187 Fulton St., New York City.

Convention by resolution asks me to wire you heartiest congratulations on election. Bishop adds personal felicitations.

ALFRED FLETCHER, Secretary.

Mr. F. C. Valentine moved that when this Annual Convention of 1921 adjourns, it shall adjourn subject to the call of the chair, upon such notice as he shall deem adequate. Adopted.

The Rev. Dr. Learned offered the following:

Resolved, That the assessments for Christ Church Parish, Los Angeles, shall be omitted for the ensuing year because of the inability of such Parish to meet such assessments. Adopted.

The Rev. S. C. Clark moved that the Chair be requested to appoint a Nominating Committee to suggest the members of the Board of Christian Education. The Chair appointed the following gentlemen: The Rev. R. L. Windsor, C. T. Murphy, S. C. Clark and F. U. Bugbee.

REGISTRAR

The Rev. R. L. Windsor.

The Rev. T. C. Marshall moved that Mr. C. T. Hoag be nominated as representative of the Convention to be on the Board of Directors of the Hospital of the Good Samaritan. Adopted.

The Committee on Dispatch of Business moved that, immediately after the first ballot at tomorrow's session, the Special Order of Business shall be the hearing of Dean Weld's report of the Committee on Property Holding; and, after that, the consideration of No. (22) of the Order of Business. Adopted.

On motion, Convention adjourned to meet at 9:30 a. m. tomorrow.

Thursday, January 27, 1921.

After Morning Prayer, Convention opened at 9:30 a. m.; Bishop Stevens in the chair.

Minutes of yesterday's proceedings were read, and, corrections being made, were approved.

On motion, Convention returned to unfinished business—Reports and Elections.

The Chair appointed Mr. H. Ivor Thomas as Judge of Elections; the Rev. E. S. Lane and Mr. E. A. Gilbert as tellers for the clerical vote; the Rev. R. A. Kirchhoffer and Mr. J. P. Mee, tellers for the lay vote.

The Rev. P. H. Hickman moved that the Secretary cast the ballot of the Convention for the Rev. R. L. Windsor as Registrar. The ballot was so cast, and the Rev. Mr. Windsor was elected.

The Rev. R. L. Windsor moved that the Secretary cast the ballot of the Convention for Mr. C. T. Hoag as representative of the Convention on the Board of Directors of the Hospital of the Good Samaritan.

The ballot was so cast, and Mr. Hoag was elected.

The Bishop nominated the following gentlemen to serve on the Board of Examining Chaplains: Chaplain Wm. F. Hubbard, to serve one year; the Rev. J. Arthur Evans, two years; the Rev. R. B. Gooden, three years; the Rev. R. L. Windsor, four years.

On motion, the nominations were confirmed.

The Nominating Committee for the Board of Christian Education suggested the following names: The Rev. C. T. Murphy, R. B. Gooden, E. T. Lewis, S. C. Clark, P. A. Easley, Mr. Wm. J. Currer, G. W. Sanborn, C. M. Gair. On motion the Secretary cast the ballot of the Convention and they were elected.

The Bishop appointed to serve on the Board of Christian Education: The Rev. W. L. H. Benton, Irving Spencer, W. N. Pierson, A. G. H. Bode, Ray O. Miller, F. U. Bugbee and Mrs. Ethel Clizbe.

On motion, the Secretary cast the ballot of the Convention for the four laymen nominated as delegates to the Synod of the Pacific, and the following gentlemen were elected: Mr. Wilfred Smith, W. C. Mushet, C. E. C. Hodgson, A. C. Leigh.

The chair welcomed to the floor of Convention the Rev. H. I. Oberholtzer, Secretary-elect of the Board of Religious Education of the Missionary District of Spokane.

After the casting of the first ballot Convention proceeded to the Special Order of Business—the Report of the Committee on Property Holding.

Dean Weld presented the report, which, on motion, was received and ordered printed in the Journal. (Appendix 7.)

A part of the report was the following:

PROPOSED PLAN FOR THE ENLARGEMENT OF THE CORPORATION

The Board of Directors of the Corporation shall consist of fifteen members, who shall be elected by Convention.

Before the first election of the Directors of the enlarged Corporation the nomination for the office of Director of the Corporation shall be made at the canonical time appointed for receiving such nominations, and as follows:

The Chairman of Convention shall appoint a nominating committee who shall present the names of eight persons, one of whom shall be the Bishop.

The Bishop shall be requested to nominate three persons.

Each Convocation shall be requested to place in nomination the name of one person.

Any five members of Convention may put the name of one person in nomination.

All such nominations shall be presented in writing over the signature of the person or persons authorized to make such nominations.

Every member of Convention present at the time for voting shall have the right to vote for fifteen of those duly nominated.

The fifteen names receiving the largest number of votes shall be declared elected.

The Secretary of the Convention shall choose by lot from among those declared elected the names of five Directors who shall serve for one year, five directors who shall serve for two years, and five Directors who shall serve for three years.

At each Annual Convention subsequent to the primary election five persons shall be elected who shall serve for three years.

Nominations for these five offices may be made as follows:

1st. By a nominating committee appointed by the chair.

2nd. By the Bishop.

3rd. Any Convocation not at that time represented on the Board of Directors.

Of the persons so nominated the five receiving the largest number of votes shall be declared elected.

4th. By any five members of Convention.

Should any parish, with the consent of the Corporation, transfer to the Corporation title to its entire real property, such parish shall be requested to nominate one representative on the Board of Directors.

Such representative should be nominated by the Vestry of the Parish and shall be voted on by the Convention next following such nomination.

Provided, however, that no parish shall be entitled to nominate a Director if a member of said parish be already a Director of the Corporation.

All parish property transferred to the Corporation shall be held by and be managed by the Corporation for the sole use and benefit of the parish making such transfer.

Any religious or other organization, or corporation, which shall transfer its entire property to the Corporation of the Diocese shall be entitled to nominate a Director of the Corporation upon the same terms as here set forth relating to a parish.

The Board of Directors of the Corporation may elect from its membership an Executive Committee of at least five members.

The Board may appoint a Secretary who may receive a salary.

The Treasurer of the Corporation shall be.....

Dean Weld, continuing, said: To bring this subject before the Convention for discussion, I move the adoption of the following resolution:

Resolved, That the Committee on Canons be, and hereby is, instructed to prepare and present to this or to the next Convention a new canon on the Corporation of the Diocese, which shall contain such suggestions, contained in this report of the Church Property Committee, as shall meet with the approval of the Committee on Canons.

Mr. Wilfred Smith, in amendment, moved that the words, "or Bishop Coadjutor," be added to the third clause of the "Proposed Plan."

The Rev. P. H. Hickman offered the following substitute motion:

Resolved, That the report submitted by the Rev. Mr. Weld, as an amendment to Canon XXII, be referred to the Committee on Canons for report to the next Annual Convention.

Substitute motion adopted.

The Rev. T. C. Marshall presented the report of the Hospital of the Good Samaritan. Received. (Appendix 8.)

Deaconess Wile presented the report of the Church Home for Children. Received. (Appendix 9.)

The Rev. P. H. Hickman, on receiving unanimous consent, moved that the proposed amendments to the Constitution of the Church, submitted to this Convention by the Secretary of the House of Deputies, and the proposed amendments to the Book of Common Prayer also submitted, be referred to the Deputies to the General Convention, to report to next Convention. Adopted.

The Rev. R. B. Gooden presented the report of the Harvard School. Received. (Appendix 10.)

In lieu of a report for the Bishop's School for Girls, the Bishop spoke of the admirable work of the former Headmistress, Miss Marguerite Barton, whose recent death was greatly deplored by himself and the promoters of the school. He stated that the school had made marked progress under her wise and efficient administration, and drew the attention of the Convention to the great influence which both of the schools exercised in instilling the principles of the Church.

The Rev. J. D. H. Browne, on behalf of the Directors of the Home for the Aged, presented the following report:

During the year a Board of Directors has been incorporated and has entered upon the direction of the business of the Home. The receipts have amounted to $9,522.60—less disbursements for taxes, etc., $157.36; leaving a balance on hand and in bank of $9,365.24. This amount includes the value of the property of the Judd bequest. There is in addition a bequest from the Da Cuna estate, which will realize about $20,000; and property in land worth, perhaps, $10,000 more. A Board of Management, with Mrs. W. A. Holt as president, is actively interested in establishing as early as possible the beginning of the work.

The Rev. A. G. H. Bode presented the report of the Seamen's Institute. He was followed by the Rev. C. E. Spalding, Charles L. Barnes and T. J. Oliver Curran. Each speaker emphasized the facts of the ever-widening scope of the opportunity and the urgent need of enlarged equipment, in attempting to care for the great number of seamen who frequented both the Los Angeles and the San Diego ports.

The Rev. Dr. Davidson offered the following resolution:

Resolved, That the War Commission of the Diocese be discharged, and that whatever balance is in its treasury be turned over to the Diocesan Commission on Seamen's Work—for the purpose of enabling them to carry on their work among seamen; the same to be equally divided between Los Angeles and San Diego. Adopted.

The Bishop read the following telegram, received from the Rev. Dr. Manning, Bishop-elect of New York:

New York, January 27, 1921.

523 S. Olive St., Los Angeles, Cal.

Kind message from Convention and yourself received through Mr. Fletcher. Most deeply appreciated. Thank you, with all my heart.

WILLIAM T. MANNING.

The Rev. Dr. Learned presented the report on behalf of the Neighborhood Settlement. Received. (Appendix 11.)

Mrs. William B. Stevens, president, presented the report of the Girls' Friendly Society. Received. (Appendix 12.)

The Rev. T. C. Marshall presented the report of the Board of Missions. On motion the report was received and the recommendation of the Board, that $16,500 be set as the missionary assessment for the current year, was adopted. (Appendix 13.)

Mr. Wm. F. Knight presented the Treasurer's report, and Rev. F. U. Bugbee the Secretary's report of the Nation-Wide Campaign. Received. (Appendix 14.)

The Rev. G. F. Weld offered the following resolution:

Resolved, That the chairman of the Convention be, and hereby is, requested to appoint a committee of five persons who shall be instructed to endeavor to secure the passage by the State Legislature of a statute which shall prevent the alienation of church property without compliance with canonical requirements and restrictions. Adopted.

The Chair appointed as such committee: The Rev. George F. Weld, Mr. F. C. Valentine, E. A. Gilbert, W. F. Knight, George H. Wigmore.

The Rev. R. L. Windsor presented the report of the Committee on the Church Pension Fund. Received. (Appendix 15.)

The Rev. Vernon D. Ruggles presented the report of the County and City Mission Society. Received. (Appendix 16.)

After the casting of the second ballot for the elections, Convention, on motion, took recess until 2:30 p. m.

On reassembling at the hour named the report of the Judge of Election was received for the second ballot.

The Rev. R. L. Windsor, with unanimous consent, moved that in preparing the Constitutions and Canons for printing, the Secretaries be instructed to make the Order of Business conform to the present procedure of the Convention; substituting the word "Tellers" for "Secretary" in (3) paragraph five, on page 69, and omitting (2) and (3) on Second Day. Adopted.

The Rev. Dr. Learned gave a report of the Executive Council, explaining the nature and purpose of the Council and the character of its work.

The Assistant Secretary read the report of the Bishop's Guild. Received. (Appendix 17.)

The Bishop spoke of the great work of the Bishop's Guild, which has been achieved under Mrs. Sampson's administration; and of the benefit of the large amount of the private fund which was placed at his disposal, for the relief of exigent situations.

The Rev. Dr. Dotten presented the report of the Jerusalem and East Mission Fund. Received and ordered printed in the Journal.

The Rev. J. D. H. Browne presented the report of the Church Extension Society. Received. (Appendix 18.)

The Rev. Mr. Browne moved that the following gentlemen be appointed to be the Directors of the Society for the ensuing year: The Bishop, the Very Rev. Dr. MacCormack, Rev. Dr. Dotten, Alfred Fletcher, J. D. H. Browne, Mr. H. E. Brett, L. S. Porter, C. M. Gair, M. A. Albee. Adopted.

The Rev. C. T. Murphy presented the report of the Board of Christian Education. Received. (Appendix 19.)

Mr. W. C. Mushet presented the report of the Finance Committee. The committee recommended that the Committee on Canons prepare a canon authorizing the employment of a certified public accountant to make the annual audit of the Convention funds' accounts under the direction of the Auditing Committee; and that $250 be appropriated for the purpose.

The Rev. W. E. Maison moved that the item of $200, appropriated for the traveling expenses of delegates to the Diocesan Convention, be struck out. Adopted.

Mr. Mushet moved that the report, as amended, be adopted.

On motion the report was adopted and the recommendation referred to the Committee on Canons. (Appendix 20.)

The report of the fourth ballot was received.

DIRECTORS OF THE CORPORATION OF THE DIOCESE

The following gentlemen were elected by individual vote—being the seven of those nominated who received the highest number of votes: The Right Rev. J. H. Johnson, D. D.; the Right Rev. W. B. Stevens, Ph.D.; Mr. A. W. Morgan, W. C. Mushet, H. Ivor Thomas, C. S. Byington, J. E. Jardine.

The Bishop reappointed Mr. F. C. Valentine as Chancellor; and, in doing so, spoke of the great obligations which the Church and Diocese, and which he personally, were under to Mr. Valentine for his very valuable legal services during the past year.

The Rev. C. Rankin Barnes presented the report of the Commission on Philanthropy and Social Service. Received. (Appendix 21.)

Mr. C. S. Byington presented the report of the Directors of the Corporation. Received. (Appendix 22.)

Mr. H. E. Brett presented the report of the Auditing Committee; together with vouchers from a certified public accountant, relative to the several funds which were audited. On motion these were received and ordered printed in the Journal. (Appendix 23.)

The Rev. Robert B. Gooden offered the following resolution, which was seconded by the Rev. J. Arthur Evans:

Whereas, The Bishop's School for Girls has been greatly bereaved in the death of its beloved Headmistress, Miss Marguerite Barton, M. A.;

Be it Resolved, That this Convention hereby expresses, by a rising vote, its sense of the serious loss which the cause of Christian education in this Diocese has suffered; and

Be it further Resolved, That this Convention, through its Secretary, shall send to Miss Barton's sister an expression of sympathy for the sorrow that has come to her.

The Convention rose in its unanimous adoption of the resolution.

The Rev. Alfred Fletcher moved a resolution expressing the sorrow of the Convention and its sense of loss in the removal, by death, of three of our brethren of the clergy, the Rev. William H. Wotton, the Rev. Frederick A. Juny, and the Rev. Alford A. Butler, D.D., two of whom had rendered many years of valuable service to the Church in this Diocese, the third having rendered signal service to the Church at large; and that a memorial page be dedicated to their memory in the Journal. Adopted.

The Rev. R. L. Windsor moved that the reading of this day's minutes be dispensed with, and that they be certified by the chair. Adopted.

On motion Convention adjourned, subject to the call of the chair, on such notice as he shall deem adequate, the Bishop pronouncing the blessing.

JOSEPH H. JOHNSON.

President of the Convention.

Attest: ALFRED FLETCHER, Secretary.

APPENDIX 1

THE BISHOP'S ADDRESS

1921

My dear Brethren of the Clergy and Laity:

Before beginning my address to you today, let me, as is my custom, recall the names of the members of my own Order who have passed to their rest within the last twelve months.

The Right Reverend William Forbes Adams, D. D., for many years the Bishop of Easton, was one of the very few men who were prominent in the episcopate of this Church at the time of my consecration. Originally, in the year 1875, he had been consecrated Bishop for the Missionary Jurisdiction of New Mexico and Arizona; from which jurisdiction, owing to personal reasons, he retired to parish work the following year. Later, in the year 1887, he undertook the episcopal work in Easton, which he faithfully performed until this, the ninetieth, year of his life. His work had been effective, inasmuch as he was a scholar and a man of such quaint, interesting, personality as would have won for him a considerable following wherever he might have happened to be.

Of the death of the Right Reverend Charles Sumner Burch, D. D., we are today sadly mindful, inasmuch as his consecration and his death have both taken place at such recent dates. The loss of Bishop Burch will, for many reasons, be a serious one to his Diocese. He seemed to possess certain temperamental qualities which are so essential in the administration of the work which had been committed to his care. While I had known him but for a comparatively short time, yet I had known him long enough to believe that his personality was such as would make a strong impression upon the men and women with whom he had to deal, and the unbroken testimony is that my impression was correct.

After I had finished this address, the Associated Press advises us of the death of the Right Reverend Rogers Israel, D. D., Bishop of Erie. The actual years of his episcopate had been comparatively few, although he had been consecrated for nearly a decade. A great personal grief necessitated his absence from Erie shortly after his consecration. At that time he went to the other Continent for rest, but his zealous nature counselled service in the War Zone in France, and there he won for himself the affection and commendation so richly deserved for work well done. Not only in the Diocese of Erie will he be mourned, but the members of the American forces to whom he ministered will, throughout these United States, call him blessed.

In the month of March, after a long and painful illness, most patiently borne, the Rev. William H. Wotton, priest of this Diocese for many years, passed to his reward. Mr. Wotton had served during the greater portion of his ministry in the Diocese of Michigan where, during my own rectorship of Christ Church, Detroit, we had stood in the relation of closest friendship to each other. So soon as he could he came to be with me in this new field. Here for these many years he, with his fine intellect, his careful culture, his devotion, has labored assiduously with affection and intelligence, helping many souls up into the higher life, and drawing about him a great circle which in the truest sense he knew to be his friends. His is a blessed memory for which we may thank God with the assurance that a great reward has been accorded to him.

On May 25th, 1920, there passed out of this life one who had been my personal friend since the very early years of my ministry. Dr. Alford A. Butler, during my incumbency of St. Peter's Parish, West Chester, was the rector of a neighboring Church in the City of New York. During that time, and since he came to the Diocese of Los Angeles, I had known him intimately and valued him highly as a devout Christian man, a careful scholar and a most enthusiastic priest in the Church of God. His declining years were labored and, because of physical infirmities, he was unable to do much work, but from the first to the last he bore his witness in the finest way to the great truths of the Gospel.

Another devoted priest of this Diocese, the Rev. Frederick A. Juny, was called to his rest on the sixth day of this last September. Only a few years of his beautiful life had been passed with us in California, but they were years full of delicate service that endeared him to many friends who with affection now pray that light perpetual may shine upon him.

At midnight on January 18th, in the Hospital of the Good Samaritan, there passed away into life eternal, Marguerite Barton, M. A., who for more than two years had been Headmistress of the Bishop's School at La Jolla. While the incumbent of the office which she held, she lifted the school into an enviable position in the educational world. Her success was wholly due to the fixedness of her ideals, the natural brilliancy of her intellect and a wide and deep culture. Undoubtedly, anticipating the event which transpired she, like a wise executive, had prepared for the contingency that occurred. Consequently, she lives on in an active influence upon all within the School whose life she touched. May God grant to us, upon whom the responsibility of appointment rests, wisdom in the selection of the one who in the coming years will undertake the task which in His providence He has asked this wonderful woman to lay dawn.

May God grant eternal rest to all of these faithful souls who have been called from the life of the Church Militant on Earth to the life of the Church Expectant in Paradise.

We have reached, in the history of this Diocese, the turning point toward which we have been looking for a number of years. In His providence, God had given to us the assistance that effectiveness in our work demanded, and I believe that I am speaking advisedly in saying that, in this gift to us of the one who has been chosen to be the Second Bishop of Los Angeles, God has signally blessed its first Bishop and every soul committed to his care. The record of three short months has shown to us all that our Coadjutor Bishop is a man splendidly equipped for the performance of his duties and that we have reason to rejoice at his presence with us today. In spite of my physical limitations, until the Consecration of Bishop Stevens in October, I had been able to provide for the episcopal work of my jurisdiction. You of the Clergy and Laity were generous enough to acquiesce in the adjustments which my limitations rendered necessary. With such adjustment, as in the case of the several Missions served by our beloved General Missionary, the Rev. Robert Renison, together with the assistance of the Bishop of San Joaquin, the imperative needs of the Diocese had been met, and in passing over to Bishop Stevens the work for which he is to be responsible, so far as I can see, I was able to do so without asking him to assume tasks over-weighted with arrearages of a burdensome character. Of course, there are and were, as there always will be, problems in such a field of effort, but our Coadjutor has courageously faced them and he is wisely planning for their solution. May God's wishes for this work be made clear to him, and that he may grow into the consciousness of God's presence and power to help him to achieve the Divine ideal is my earnest prayer. Of all this he will speak to you later on.

Since my own labor, apart from the advisory work, which as Senior Bishop I am expected to do, will relate largely to the Institutions of the Diocese, I want this morning to say something to you about them. And let me remind you that they are Institutions of the whole Diocese for which you and those you represent are responsible. Sometimes I have felt that very few of the people of our congregations fully appreciated this fact. From the necessity of the case I, as the Bishop, have had to take the initiative, providing the means to meet the needs that were more obvious to me than to any one else. When, for instance, any one has happened to realize that some one should provide for the Church's sick, for the education of her youth, for the care of her orphans, for the aged, or for social uplift in some of its many forms, the affirmation and the appeal invariably have been made to me. This, of course, was due to the fact that I stand in this community as the Church's Diocesan head, and therefore that I unquestionably am the proper person to whom the need should be made known. In view of this fact the obligation that rests upon the whole Church had at the outset to be thrown upon my shoulders, and in that way I have been given a work to do which it is always the privilege of the first Bishop of a Diocese to undertake, and I have rejoiced in doing it, but I want to state here as emphatically as I can, that I have done so only as the God-appointed-leader, and the very word "leader" implies the fact I desire to emphasize, viz—the existence of a body of men and women who are to follow him who bears the title and who, after all, must not only follow the leader but must help him carry on the work that the whole body has been commissioned to do. Hitherto I have been merely testing the policy and the methods that I conceive should underlie your work, the work for which God will hold the whole Church of the Diocese responsible. In the past it has seemed wiser for me as an individual to inaugurate the scheme that was then being practically tested, but always I have assumed that diocesan interest would be aroused and stimulated when I should have been able to show that my propositions were not chimerical but were wholly within the realm of what is actually attainable and which, in a measure, had already been attained. Now the time has come when this is acknowledged to be true and, for the good of the Diocese, I must bring home to every baptized person in Southern California his accountability to God in this vital matter and set at work measures to secure from him his sympathy and co-operation. I am perfectly aware that not a single institution of the Church is ideally perfect. That is as true elsewhere as of the institutions of this Diocese. No one better than I knows how much is needed in our Schools and Homes and Hospitals to make them perfect, but after all I believe that they are far more worthy of praise than of blame. Such as they are, they have been built up at the expense of much thought and much effort, and they represent a considerable sum of money secured somehow and from somewhere. When then I have heard their faults and defects unkindly and unfairly criticized, as occasionally I have, (I am thankful however that that has only been occasionally true) I have asked myself whether loyalty to the Church should not have made some of our people a little kinder in their estimate and a little more forceful in their backing of some of the work that the Church, under serious handicap, is trying to do. Our Institutions should welcome constructive criticism, and this each one of our several Institutions does; but, after a fierce struggle in the face of difficulty to begin and maintain a work, some occasional destructive criticism seems hardly just and hearts are always made to ache because of it. Churchmen everywhere should have in mind that we, here, in this field, have been trying to build up institutions which from the outset would be self-supporting. We could have been indifferent to that principle, but in that event, in case of any impending disaster, we would have been forced to turn to the several congregations of the Diocese to make good our deficits or make a weary and humiliating journey to men and women of wealth in the East in search of required funds to pay our debts; but our principle has been a different one. It has been rather to do only such educational and philanthropic work as money actually or prospectively in hand would justify us in undertaking.

And the result has been that our Institutions today are assets and not liabilities.

Now, this leads me to a point which I want to make this morning. The Church people of this Diocese should learn to use the first person possessive pronoun "Our" more than they do. This thought was anticipated yesterday in an address to the Woman's Auxiliary. When some well-intentioned Churchman, in deference to my own personal activity in connection with any one of the Schools of the Diocese, refers to one, for instance, as "Your School at the Corner of Western Avenue and Sixteenth Street" in this City, or to another as, "Your School at La Jolla," I always want to stop the conversation and interject a short dissertation upon the fact that the Schools, the Hospital, the Homes, are in no sense whatever "mine" but "ours." They are the property of the whole Church, and I want to cultivate a mental attitude in every Churchman of Southern California that will be full of a sensation of proud ownership of and of keen responsibility for them. I want the Church people of Southern California to think of the Schools, the Hospital, the Homes and other Institutions as theirs, and not mine; and, my friends, I believe that you will be glad to do this. I believe that you will be proud of these Institutions when you know more about them, as I propose that you shall during the coming year.

Here, for instance, is but one fact which means much for us all. Not a single Institution of this Diocese closed its fiscal year with a deficit for current expenses. The thing that critical business men are always talking about has occurred. "We have in every Institution cut our coat according to our cloth." For this I personally can take no credit, and so I may speak of it. Each Institution has its Board of Directors who really direct, and to them is the credit due. My only claim to distinction is that I practically selected these men for their work, but my claim can cover no other distinction than that. Now, I rejoice in such a record as this that our Boards have made—you will notice my use of the pronoun "our"—because the record means intelligent and thoughtful, conservative management.

Then, I am sure, you will be pleased to learn that our Educational Institutions are acquiring a national reputation. This year, pupils from Seattle, Minneapolis, Colorado Springs, Denver, Chicago, New York; even from the far North East, Bar Harbor, Maine, are registered in our Schools; and it may interest you to know that to secure admission to either of them, this coming year, application should be made immediately. Unless our Schools had been worthy of patronage, they would not have secured it. That means that our equipment and our teachers are at least measurably commensurate with the needs.

Further, certainly our Hospital, the Good Samaritan, has an enviable place in the estimate of the community. It is hampered because it lacks accommodations and equipment, but within its own sphere it has in efficiency no superior upon this Coast.

Again, you are aware that the Church Home for Children, the Neighborhood Settlement, are already in their way such notable achievements that I need do no more than allude to them. And at this time the Church Home for the Aged is just about coming into life with the backing of a new Board of wise, conservative and aggressive helpers, and a substantial contribution to the endowment has already been made.

Now, when I court your frequent and continued use of the possessive pronoun "our," I am merely asking you to accept the responsibility for Institutions which, to meet imperative demands, have had to be brought into existence and which evidently carry with them the seal of God's grace and benediction. Unfortunately local civic pride is not infrequently a serious barrier to progress of Church work. Several years ago a well known man in this city, and a Churchman, refused to give even a small contribution toward the School at La Jolla simply because the School was not here in Los Angeles rather than in the South. My appeal to his Churchmanship was fruitless. In my appeals for the Good Samaritan Hospital, our only Church hospital, I have largely ceased to approach Churchmen who live up on the circumference rather than at the center of the Diocese. And yet, and this is important, Churchmen upon the Diocesan circumference and Churchmen here at the Diocesan center, who up to that moment have had no sense of their ecclesiastical responsibilities or duties alike, are often importunate for hospital courtesies or scholarships when they want their fractured bones set or amputated, or when they desire their daughters and sons to be educated. Such applicants are types of not a few to whom

I have appealed in vain for assistance in building up our Institutions.

Now, my friends, I am merely stating this that you may understand the situation. For twenty-five years we have been building up a Diocese; but, as but few of us have so far broken the ties that connect us with our old homes that we do not feel constrained to continue in some measure at least to support the Institutions in the East—linked as they are to our lives by sweet tradition—it has been hard to make the Church's incoming constituency realize its obligations in this new Country; consequently our material resources have been meager and, such as they have been, they have had to be turned in purely Missionary directions. We have had primarily to possess the land but, while we have been doing this, there has been impressed upon the minds of some of us of the need there is here, as on the Eastern Coast, for eleemosynary agencies, and we have been dotting the ecclesiastical landscape with Institutional stakes, and it is for them I appeal. Therefore, I want every Churchman in the Diocese, after this present time, to say everywhere, that the Harvard School is Our Church School for Boys; that the La Jolla School is Our Church School for Girls; that the Hospital of the Good Samaritan is Our Church Hospital; that the Church Home for Children is Our Church Home for Children; that the Neighborhood Settlement is our Social Service Institution and that the Home for the Aged which, with the others, will soon demand the recognition that implies ownership, is our Church's practical effort to provide for her wearied ones who are worn out with the struggle to live. All of these Institutions are "going" ones. They are self-supporting, but each one carries a debt. Let the Church people remember this at Festival Seasons or when they are making their wills. Not long since a physician who had recently returned from the other Coast spoke to me quite impatiently, because in its congested condition our Church Hospital could not immediately upon application receive gratuitously every patient for whose admission he had made a request, pointing his irritation with the statement that in the East he had never at such a time met with a refusal. "No," I replied, "in the East there is no need for refusal, as for several generations the rich men and women have already endowed rooms and beds in their local Institutions for the indigent, but worthy sick." "Now, my rich young friend," I continued, "the time is ripe for you to set the pace and do the same thing for Institutions in the West." I did not say, as I might have said, that the honor of inaugurating such a policy had already been won by generous men and women in Southern California, but it is true that within the last year fully one hundred and thirty thousand dollars have been added to the several endowments which have already been established by men and women who have caught the vision that I am seeking to disclose. To be sure, that is but a drop; but it shows a latent consciousness of a need and, as well, it indicates a drift, and that is the point. Our people are beginning to appreciate that, if the Church is to educate and deal with the sick gratuitously, it (the whole Church) must supply the means which, when properly invested, will enable it to pay its bills and meet expenses, and I am thankful for that fact, and it is to give it emphasis that at this time I ask Churchmen to subsidize the Schools and Homes and Hospitals by bequests in wills and memorial gifts and offerings at Festivals when, in return for mercies received, the opportunity is offered to them to make grateful return to God who has bestowed them. Not many people are able to do much; but, my dear brethren, it is possible for everyone to do something. Certainly it is possible for every Churchman loyally to make known what the ideal is, and also loyally to announce the Church's policy in maintaining it and, finally, however insignificant our Institutions may be, we may rejoice in them for what they are actually worth. Nothing helps more than genuine, sympathetic appreciation. I want to reach the heart of every man and woman I can touch with this message. I want the fact to be recognized that these Institutions should be helped to do a gratuitous and an increasingly better work by large endowments. In the East, such Institutions have millions behind them where we as yet have but thousands. We must keep the million figure before us as the one in accord not only with our civic tradition, but also our achievement, and so the proper ideal for the Church to contemplate and to work for.

In closing my address, let me say just one thing more. All this question of finance and method and policy is one that forces itself upon me every day, and yet I believe I am reluctant even to seem to over-value it, as it may be thought that I am doing in this address. I, as well as any one here today, am aware that primarily the Church was not established to build Hospitals and Homes, nor to create Educational Institutions, if the one or the other are merely to be Institutions in which men are to be made more comfortable physically or to be given larger material opportunities in life than they enjoy at the present time. To be sure, it is immensely important that men should be made more comfortable when they are in need or necessity. No one can deny that, and it is highly essential that men's minds should be broadened and well furnished: that, also, unquestionably is true, but the responsibility to confer such benefits rests with every member of the community. Actually to do this is primarily a civic rather than an ecclesiastical obligation, but the Church should take the lead. The Church should always be setting the example in acknowledging the responsibilities incumbent upon each and every man alike. Every Christian Hospital, every Christian School, every Christian Asylum is therefore an object lesson. It says to the World,—the Christian Religion inspires its devotees to be among the very first to watch over the sick and weary and the wretched; to be the very first to train the young to think, and to be the very first to supply our youth with food for thought—and what a glorious fact it is that all that is true. Our Religion does force us to take that stand, and so the Church becomes a tremendous factor in the land when it grasps this conception and exemplifies it, but when all this has been said, one other great and supreme thing must follow. First, last and always, and above and beyond all this, the Church has a Mission to make the name of her Master known as the One who comes with loving desire and pleasing power to bring His benediction to every man who cries for succor; to every man who needs the light; and she must use these Institutions with the spiritual end in view. These are all alike the cups of cold water for spiritual bodies and lips that are famished and parched, and I love these Church Institutions because they are practical ways of making the name of Jesus known and revered and loved every minute of every hour of every year. They are the daily messages of the Risen, Ascended Lord. This it is that leads me to speak to you of them; to tell you of the opportunities they offer and to bespeak for them your large and generous support. It is through them the Church is always delivering her message that points to Christ as the World's Saviour and the World's Beneficent King.

THE BISHOP COADJUTOR'S ADDRESS

In a recent book, Dr. Fosdick analyzes the present division of opinion within the Christian Church on the question of service. "A lamentable feud," he says, "exists between the partisans of personal and social Christianity. 'I believe in personal Christianity,' says one. 'I believe in preaching the Gospel of Jesus to individuals. The sole business of the Church is to proclaim the evangel of divine forgiveness and regeneration until those who accept it are soundly saved and inwardly transformed.' On the other side, another cries: 'I believe in social Christianity. I seek the application of the principles of Jesus to our economic and international order. I am a patriot for the Kingdom of God upon the earth, and only as our social wrongs are righted does that Kingdom come.' So do the devotees of personal and social Christianity confront each other. The dilemma, however, on which they impale themselves is false. The full truth, as so often happens, flies like a bird with two wings, and maimed in either by our partial thinking, it flutters a crippled creature on the ground."

The truth of the foregoing is apparent. There is a similar false dilemma, too, with regard to the missionary obligation of the Church. There are those who assume an antithesis between what we used to call "home" and "foreign" missions, between intensive and extensive missionary endeavor. One says: "All we have of money and energy is needed for the work at home. Let us meet every possible responsibility in the parish and in the diocese before we assume outside responsibility." Another says: "Forget the home field where we have clergy and churches enough and to spare and seek primarily to illuminate the appalling darkness of heathendom." Here again, to use Fosdick's analogy, truth flutters like a bird maimed in either wing. The position of the one must be counteracted by the other if the Church is to continue healthy. But no matter how well an institution may function, balanced by counteracting tendencies, it cannot attain a perfect unity within itself until all its members are moved by a common purpose and ideal. Thus, in the Church, there must be a common recognition of the various lines of duty which our commission and the world's need have put upon us. The time has come when it is imperative that every member of Christ's Body shall recognize and accept the social and general missionary features of the Church's program as well as the local intensive obligations. The Diocese of Los Angeles has always stood in the forefront in the various departments of the Church's life. But what a marvelous increment of power will be ours when every last member sees a vision of "the whole Gospel for the whole world."

It may be of interest to you to know something of the impressions and hopes along these lines resulting from three months of active life within the Diocese. The social or institutional work lies outside my province. But I cannot refrain from telling you how deeply I have been impressed with the self-sacrificing labors of the Bishop of the Diocese in behalf of the institutions which he has been instrumental in creating. I know already how much the parochial and missionary duties of the Diocese demand of one's time and I can, therefore, thoroughly appreciate what it has meant to add to the devoted performance of those duties the creation and maintenance of great institutions like ours.

In connection with the social work of the Diocese may I urge upon you, (either as a Diocese or as Convocations), the importance of prompt and adequate action to lay the foundations for work among seamen in the ports of San Pedro and San Diego. It is no exaggeration to say that the eyes of the Church are upon us in this matter. San Pedro is becoming more important every day. San Diego has developed into one of the great naval centers of the country. Seamen's Church Institutes with resident chaplains are operated by our Church in New York, San Francisco, Newport, Norfolk, Va., and Port Arthur, Texas. Other work is projected. The great ports of Los Angeles and San Diego cannot be neglected. I am convinced that, in any plans we may make, we can count on the assistance of the National Seamen's Church Institute. But the problem is ours and we should initiate the plans to meet it.

The general missionary obligations of the Diocese have been fixed by the quota of the Nation-Wide Campaign. It will be of interest to you to note that the Diocese has overpaid its pledges of last year by nearly eight thousand dollars. As to our last canvass, judging by the financial standard set for us, it cannot be said to be a complete success. But no effort is a failure if it points to ultimate success as our canvass undoubtedly does. Seven parishes and missions have raised in pledges their entire quota or over. The honor of pledging the largest amount, belongs to All Saints' Church, Pasadena, $15,558.00. Two parishes have raised 75% of their quotas or over. Thirteen parishes have raised 50% of their quotas or over. The total amount pledged to date for both the general and diocesan quotas is $74,508, or 48% of the quotas. It may be asked as to whether the Church can keep up the pace set for it in the Nation-Wide Campaign or as to whether organized Christianity in general can stand the pressure of constant drives. An article by one Dr. Sperry has appeared in a recent issue of the Atlantic Monthly protesting against the ceaseless round of movements and campaigns. One can sympathize with the writer. We must remember this, however, that forces inimical to all that Christianity stands for are waging ceaseless campaigns of destruction beside which the campaigns of the Churches at their best are but feeble things. It is characteristic of every age to think of itself as a little worse than any other. One of the oldest fragments known to man,—a cuneiform fragment from the lowest, most ancient stratum of Babylon, begins "Alas! Alas! times are not what they were!" Nevertheless it is difficult to escape the conviction that it is a mad world we are living in, a world that needs today the Gospel of Jesus Christ as it never needed it before. The Nation-Wide Campaign is a constructive attempt to provide the inspiration, workers and means to give the world the Gospel in a big way and, because it is so, it must be adopted by every portion of the Church as a normal part of its program. ✓

Already the Campaign has done much for the missionary work of the Diocese. The Executive Council has been enabled to give assistance to meet immediate crucial needs. As time goes on, it can do more. The missionary opportunity and responsibility in the Diocese of Los Angeles are bewilderingly great. Perhaps nowhere in the whole world have communities grown so rapidly into permanent well-built cities. It is almost unbelievable that cities whose inhabitants number thousands; whose splendid buildings are of brick and stone; whose streets are broad and well paved, did not even exist ten years ago. The Church must work and work hard to keep pace with the growth of Southern California, and it cannot wait for the Church people of each community to take the initiative in establishing missions. Such pioneer work as is done around Los Angeles by Mr. Renison should be done in every county in the Diocese. There are great communities of five, six or seven thousand people; communities which have sprung up almost over night, needing and demanding the ministrations of the Church. One thing must be emphasized, however; the problem of new work is far greater than providing financial support. The fundamental need is to get the right kind of men. Los Angeles, perhaps, is better supplied with clergy than most dioceses, but the need for young, vigorous, footfree men for work in new and perhaps obscure communities is obvious. Our hope for meeting this need lies in the development of our own boys and young men.

May I review certain facts in the last and very interesting report of the "Commission on Recruiting, Training and Admitting Men to the Ministry." In the one hundred years preceding 1916, the ratio of deacons ordained to the total number of communicants has dropped from 1 to 234 to 1 to 2,035. One hundred years ago, every 234 communicants, on an average, produced one man for the ministry in every three years of the Church's life. In 1916, (before the effects of the war were felt), it took nine times as many communicants to furnish the one man. A study of ordinations by periods of fifteen years shows these facts. Each such period from 1812 to 1901 shows without exception marked gain over its predecessor; the average gain for each period being no less than 74%. The period, 1902-1916, shows for the first time a decrease; the number of ordinations recorded being less by 6.6% than in the preceding fifteen years. This, note, was before the effects of the war became marked. The enrollment of students in our Church seminaries this year is 32% less than in 1915-1916, and this in spite of the fact that the decrease in all non-Roman seminaries is only 3%. These are depressing facts, but they must be faced if they are to be corrected.

The Commission has requested the Bishops of the Church to bring the question before the clergy and laity of their dioceses. It makes this wise suggestion: That every rector or priest-in-charge call his congregation together in conference early in Lent and lay before them the facts as to the number of men they have provided for Holy Orders, and for the maintenance of the worship and work of the Church; that the clergy at these conferences ask their people why their sons do not offer themselves; that they get in touch privately with parents and secure their co-operation in interesting their own sons in the work of the ministry. Every Bishop in the Church is urged to call upon every priest in his Diocese "to summon his people to pray every day this Lenten season that young men apt and meet in their congregations and from all over the land may offer themselves for the ministry."

The Diocese of Los Angeles has the men, men of consecration and intellectual equipment. May we all feel the responsibility of finding them and encouraging them to prepare for the Sacred Ministry of Jesus Christ.

Let us pray:

"Heavenly Father, Lord of the harvest, have respect, we beseech Thee, to our prayers, and send forth laborers into Thine harvest. Fit and prepare them by Thy grace for the work of their ministry, and grant that both by their life and doctrine they may show forth Thy glory, and set forward the salvation of all men; through Jesus Christ our Lord." Amen.

APPENDIX 3.

REPORT OF THE STANDING COMMITTEE

The Standing Committee elected at the 25th Annual Convention, consisting of the Rev. Dr. M. C. Dotten, the Rev. J. Arthur Evans, the Rev. Dr. Leslie E. Learned, the Rev. Robert B. Gooden, Mr. C. D. Adams, Mr. H. E. Brett, Dr. J. E. Cowles, and Mr. W. F. Knight, met for organization on February 3, 1920. The Rev. Dr. M. C. Dotten was elected president, and the Rev. Robert B. Gooden was elected secretary. The Bishop was present at this meeting. It was resolved to issue a call to elect a Bishop Coadjutor at a special meeting of Convention to be held on April 7, 1920. A letter from Father De Garmo asking for consent to the changing of the name of Christ Church, Redondo Beach, was referred back to the writer. Permission was given to the congregation and priest of St. Thomas' Mission to organize as a parish, with definite parish bounds. The Committee also met representatives from St. Stephen's Parish, Los Angeles, and the proposed St. Thomas' Parish, Los Angeles, to discuss the question of parish bounds.

The second meeting was held on April 16, 1920. The Committee sat as listeners with the Committee on Canons and the Bishop. It was resolved to send a night letter to the Rev. Dr. Stevens, stating that the canonical regularity of his election to be Bishop Coadjutor of Los Angeles had been questioned and asking him to make no decision for the present, one way or the other. Mr. M. D. Kneeland, a candidate for Holy Orders, was recommended to the Bishop for ordination to the diaconate.

The third meeting was held on April 20, 1920. The Committee met with the Bishop, the Rev. Alfred Fletcher and Mr. F. C. Valentine. It was decided to hold an adjourned meeting of the Diocesan Convention on May 6, 1920, to confirm the legality of the election of the Bishop Coadjutor. A committee was appointed to state the reasons for calling this adjourned meeting.

The fourth meeting was held on April 29, 1920. Dr. Dotten read a draft of the proposed procedure at the coming Convention.

The fifth meeting was held on May 26, 1920. Dr. Dotten read a letter from Bishop Tuttle, outlining the procedure which must be followed before the consecration of the Bishop Coadjutor-elect. Mr. Edward M. Bruce, postulant for Holy Orders, was recommended to the Bishop to be admitted a candidate for Holy Orders.

The sixth meeting was held on July 12, 1920. The Bishop was present at this meeting. It was resolved that the books of the Diocese be audited for a period covering the last four years and that the Bishop be authorized to secure the services of a competent auditor. Consent was given to the Diocese of South Carolina to elect a Bishop Coadjutor because of the extent of diocesan work. Consent was given to the election and consecration of the Rev. George William Davenport to be Bishop of Easton. Consent was given to the election and consecration of the Rev. Henry Herbert A. Fox to be Suffragan Bishop of Montana. Consent was given to the election and consecration of the Rev. David Lincoln Ferris, B.D., to be Suffragan Bishop of Western New York.

The seventh meeting was held on October 8, 1920. Consent was given to the election and consecration of the Rev. Philip Cook to be Bishop of Delaware. Mr. Brett reported that the books of the Diocese had been audited and everything found in proper order. Consent was given to the election and consecration of the Rev. Granville Gaylord Bennett to be Bishop Coadjutor of Duluth. Dr. Dotten reported that enough consents from Standing Committees and Bishops had been received to the election and consecration of the Rev. William Bertrand Stevens, Ph.D., to be Bishop Coadjutor of Los Angeles and that Bishop Tuttle had taken order for the consecration; date, October 12, 1920; place—St. Paul's Pro-Cathedral, Los Angeles, California; consecrators—Bishop Johnson of Los Angeles presiding, Bishop Nichols of California and Bishop Parsons, Coadjutor of California; preacher—Bishop Capers of West Texas; Bishop Thurston of Oklahoma and Bishop Moulton of Utah. The Committee authorized the Bishop to choose a physician to examine candidates for Holy Orders as required by the new canons.

The eighth meeting was held on October 20, 1920. Consent was given to the election of a Bishop Coadjutor for the Diocese of Colorado for the reason of extent of diocesan work. Consent was given to St. John's Mission, Sawtelle, to sell the lot on which the church building stands in order to purchase another lot situated more suitably.

The ninth meeting was held on December 17, 1920. Consent was given to the election and consecration of the Rev. Theodore Momolu Gardiner, D.D., to be Suffragan Missionary Bishop of Liberia. Consent was given to the election and consecration of the Rev. John Dominique LaMothe to be Missionary Bishop of Honolulu. Consent was given to the election and consecration of the Rev. Robert H. Mize to be Missionary Bishop of Salina. Consent was given to the Diocese of West Virginia to elect a Bishop Coadjutor for the reason of extent of diocesan work. A letter from Trinity Parish, Los Angeles, asking for an extension of the parish bounds, was laid on the table until the next meeting, until other parishes affected had been heard from. Mr. A. H. Dexter, a postulant for Holy Orders, was recommended to the Bishop to be received as a candidate for Holy Orders. Mr. W. Wilberforce Newton was recommended to the Bishop to be received as a candidate for Holy Orders.

The tenth meeting was held on January 22, 1921. The request from Trinity Parish for extension of the parish bounds was postponed until further information could be secured. The Committee gave general approval of the plan to sell the church building at Imperial to the Methodists, subject to further investigation and report by Bishop Stevens. Mr. Arthur P. Stembridge, a postulant for Holy Orders, was recommended to the Bishop to be received as a candidate for Holy Orders. The Rev. Martin Dwelle Kneeland, deacon, was recommended to the Bishop to be ordained to the priesthood; also the time of his diaconate was shortened. This action is dated back to October 20, 1920. The Committee then sat as a council of advice to Bishop Stevens.

Respectfully submitted,

ROBERT B. GOODEN, Secretary.

REGISTRAR'S REPORT

The Registrar reports that the usual files of the Diocese have been kept complete. During the year valuable donations to the Diocesan Library have been received from Mrs. M. M. Moore of Santa Barbara, who sent us the library of her husband, the late Rev. M. M. Moore; and from Chaplain Hubbard, who gave us a complete file of Living Church Annuals. The Journals and the library have been removed to the third floor of the Parish Hall, where there is space for a very convenient arrangement when the readjustment is completed. The Prayer Book and Hymnal distribution was 275 Prayer Books and 175 Hymnals. Confirmations reported were 744,—234 male, 510 female, representing 75 classes. Printed elsewhere in the Journal will be found the list of Lay-Readers holding Diocesan Licenses. Office expenses were this year, owing to some extra expenses connected with the removal of the Registrar's Office, $44.91.

Respectfully submitted,

ROBERT LLOYD WINDSOR.

APPENDIX 6

REPORT OF THE HISTORIOGRAPHER

During the year 1920, the two events of striking importance to this Diocese were the election and consecration of the Bishop Coadjutor—evidence of the growth and strength of the Diocese.

Briefly, that strength is evidenced by the growth of the Diocese from the census year, 1900,—when it numbered 4263 communicants—to the census year, 1910, when the Diocese reached the number of 7068 communicants—almost double; and in the third census year, 1920, numbered 12,214 communicants—threefold the number of communicants of the year 1900.

This satisfactory result becomes less satisfactory when the growth in the number of communicants is compared with the growth in population.

I regret to report that the growth in the number of communicants is not keeping pace with the growth of population.

In the census year 1900, the ratio was 1 communicant to 71.4 persons resident in the Diocese. Ten years later, in the census year, 1910, the ratio had fallen to 1 communicant to 106.3 persons—a loss of 50 per cent. in the ratio.

This last census gives a ratio of 1 communicant to 110 residents. The ratio thus decreases 1—71.4; 1—106.3; 1—110.

Respectfully submitted,

P. H. HICKMAN.

APPENDIX 7

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON PROPERTY HOLDING To the Bishop and the Members of the Twenty-sixth Convention of the Diocese:

At the meeting of the Convention held in Los Angeles in January, 1918, the following resolution was presented and passed:

"Resolved, That the Bishop be, and he hereby is, requested to appoint a committee, including the Chancellor of the Diocese; which committee shall report to the next Annual Convention upon the question of a uniform plan or system for the holding to titles to parish and mission real property in the Diocese, either by the vesting of such titles in a Diocesan Holding Corporation or otherwise, to the end that transactions involving such real property and titles may be simplified as far as is consistent with safety. Adopted."

The Bishop appointed the following Committee, which represents every section of the Diocese: Wheeler J. Bailey, San Diego; Willis H. Booth, Los Angeles; W. A. Bowen, Los Angeles; Patrick C. Campbell, Los Angeles; Wm. Norman Campbell, Santa Barbara; E. M. Cope, Redlands; E. A. Gilbert, Santa Barbara; W. F. Knight, Pasadena; Gen. John McClellan, San Diego; W. C. Mushet, Los Angeles; Gen. Charles Reeve, Coronado; E. D. Roberts, Los Angeles; F. C. Valentine, Chancellor of the Diocese; Rev. George F. Weld, Chairman, Montecito; George H. Wigmore, Los Angeles.

Your Committee proceeded to study the methods of holding property as practised in 76 other dioceses in the United States. This study disclosed the fact that there are five methods in general use. (1) Some dioceses are incorporated and hold property as a corporation. (2) In other dioceses church property is held largely or in part by a holding corporation. (3) In other dioceses property is held by a corporation sole, such corporation sole always being the Bishop. (4) In others some of the church property is vested in the Bishop. (5) In others practically all parish and some mission property is held by the parishes and missions themselves.

Your Committee then investigated the methods used in this Diocese and found that here five different methods are in use. There is the Corporation of the Diocese, there is a Holding Corporation called the Church Extension Society, there is a Corporation Sole, the Bishop holds title to some property, and the parishes hold title to their own property. It would seem that the Bishop had good reason for requesting that some uniform system for holding Church property be proposed for your consideration.

Any proposed change in existing conditions must offer at least five things. These are simplicity, efficiency, security, attractiveness to donors, and it must be representative.

No one would presume to suggest that our present methods are either inefficient, or insecure. On the other hand, no one can say that they are simple or that they offer the maximum of attractiveness to those who wish to make gifts to the Church, or to those now holding church property to put such property under the control of another organization, or that they are representative.

Your Committee has formulated a suggestion which it believes combines these five essentials, simplicity, efficiency, security, attractiveness, and representative of the whole Diocese. It is simple, because it is in accord with the best principles of modern business. It is secure, because it has thrown around it the legal safeguards of the canons of the Church and the laws of the State. It is efficient, because, owing to the composition of its membership the men who compose it can be the ablest business men of the Church. It is attractive to those who may wish to leave or give their property for the use of the Diocese, because it offers these three essentials; and it should be attractive to any present corporation, parochial or otherwise, because no other group of men is likely to be composed of persons having the prestige of the whole Diocese, the same business ability, nor be governed by the same safeguards. And the whole Diocese will share in it.

Your Committee, therefore, and after due consideration of the above facts, would make to you the following proposal:

One final word in explanation and reiteration. The chief reason for selecting the Corporation of the Diocese as the central organization for holding all Diocesan property is that this Corporation, and only this Corporation, is directly responsible to and under the control of this Convention, and that for this reason no other Corporation can command the same confidence.

It is inconceivable that this Convention should elect any but the ablest men to administer the large trusts which as time goes on will be committed to their charge. It is inconceivable that this Convention should suddenly decide to elect men as members of the Corporation who would jeopardize the interests of those who have put their property under its control. But even if this inconceivable contingency should arise and this Convention, under stress of some temporary excitement, should choose men unfitted for this office no real harm could be done because this danger has been guarded against by the provision which allows only about one-third of its members to be elected in any one year.

Your Committee does not presume to assert that this plan cannot be found fault with, or that it is impossible to improve on it. It does believe that it provides a workable solution of the pressing problem of how to centralize and safeguard the administration of Church property.

Respectfully submitted for the Committee,
GEORGE F. WELD, Chairman.

REPORT OF THE HOSPITAL OF THE GOOD SAMARITAN

The item of greatest interest to the Diocese in the year's history of the Hospital is the fact that this institution has acquired during the year 8,957.5 additional shares of the stock of the Columbia Hospital Association, making a total of 48,359 shares now in our possession. Steps are being taken to disincorporate the Columbia Hospital Association, which will both simplify very much the business organization of the institution and make it in name as well as in fact an institution "not for profit." This consummation of more than eight years of difficult administration will place the institution in a position to do a larger amount of service in the interest of the sick who are unable to pay full hospital prices, and also to receive the gifts and legacies of those who wish to devote their benefactions to charitable work for the sick. At the same time that this change in the business arrangement of the hospital is being made, its medical work is being reorganized in accordance with the ideals of "hospital standardization" advocated by "The American College of Surgeons." A staff of physicians and surgeons is being formed; new systems of records and histories have been installed and a technician for laboratory work has been added to the present staff.

The outlook for the future was never brighter. The great and, in fact, imperative needs are for a new nurses' home with modern equipment to take the place of the present inadequate home in rented property; also an additional wing to house the ever-increasing number of patients and provide wards for free work and the care of patients at moderate cost.

The following selected statistics will show the present volume of work being done:

APPENDIX 9

CHURCH HOME FOR CHILDREN

In counting over our blessings, we have many things to be thankful for, not the least of which was the uniform good health of the children, with the exception of the visitation of two epidemics of whooping cough and chicken-pox. In the spring a little "new boy" brought us a most unwelcome gift (it is always the "new children" who cause things to happen) in the form of chicken-pox, and we had thirteen cases in the family. Fortunately most of them had a light attack, but they required the constant care and attention of a trained nurse for several weeks, and a number of well children who had not had it were kept home from school. We feel that this experience in its anxiety, extra work, general inconvenience, etc., forces upon us two imperative needs,—that we have a place of detention for "new children," that is a place where they could be cared for during the first two or three weeks after their arrival, so that any disease to which they had been exposed would develop and not be a menace to the entire family. And we need an Infirmary for those who do come down with any sickness. The Infirmary could be made to serve these two needs. If we could put up the "South Wing" of the Administration Building (for which we have a nucleus in hand) we could easily make the second story serve as a temporary Infirmary.

Easter was a peaceful, happy time. After a six weeks' siege of chicken-pox we all greatly enjoyed the privilege of attending the church services. It seemed as if friends knew that the children had themselves gladly offered to forego their usual breakfast of "Easter Eggs," that the amount thus saved might be added to the fund we had been busily gathering all Lent for our little Armenian brothers and sisters, for while our children happily carried out their little plan, friends saw to it that the usual "Easter Eggs" were on the table.

Through the kindness of Bishop Johnson and the School authorities, the entire family spent nine delightful weeks at La Jolla, arriving on Saturday, June 26, and remaining until the middle of August. It was a delightful experience to step into a comfortable auto at one's door and out at La Jolla, and this is what we were able to do, thanks to the following friends: Dr. Marion Law. Mr. R. C. Hodge, Miss Maud Brough, Mr. and Mrs. Thornley and Mr. and Mrs. Cartmill. On the return trip we were indebted to Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Liversidge for the use of two cars. This year we were not in the Main Building at all, but were cozily located in the four cottages just behind the School. We are more thankful than we can express to all who made it possible for the children to enjoy the comforts and pleasures of a summer at the beach.

We have had many things to be thankful for during this past year, but most of all for "our friends." So it was a great shock to us when one of our very dearest, one of our own Board of Directors, Mr. A. Campbell-Johnston, was very suddenly, on the eve of All Angels' Day, called home,—home, to that "sweet and blessed country" where we shall hope to renew our friendship where "partings are no more."

On the afternoon of November 20, a welcome was given Bishop

Stevens to the C. H. C. We wished for this opportunity to show him over the plant and have him meet our Board of Directors.

Our Annual Ingathering Day (the Sunday before Thanksgiving) was widely kept and the children were generously remembered. In the order of their valuation, the first five on the list were as follows:

1. All Saints', Pasadena.
2. St. John's, Los Angeles.
3. St. James', South Pasadena.
4. Church of Our Saviour, San Gabriel.
5. St. Stephen's Mission, Beaumont.

(Though it is only fair to note that if the fall offering of fruit could be considered at this time, St. Mark's, Pasadena, would come very near the top of the list.)

All Saints', Pasadena, always so generous to us, this year (in addition to a large offering of groceries) made us the splendid gift of $1000 for our "Bread and Butter Fund" for the months to come. Such neighbors are worth while!

A long-felt desire that somewhere in our grove of live oaks there should be a little "house in the woods," in which, away from the strain of things, our workers, in their hours of rest, could gain new strength and inspiration for "the common round, the daily task," was fulfilled when our friend, Mr. M. E. McLin, interested a friend of his, and together they provided our "little house."

In glancing over the names on the "Twelve Times a Year Circle" and the "Inasmuch List" we are deeply thankful,—particularly to those who have made gifts of "time" and "self."

During the year three children have been baptized, and three presented to the Bishop for confirmation.

In relation to this Home the prophecy of Isaiah has been singularly fulfilled, "Fear thou not; for I am with thee. Be not dismayed, for I am thy God; I will strengthen thee; yea, I will help thee."

EVELYN WILE, Deaconess.

APPENDIX 10 REPORT OF THE HARVARD SCHOOL

The Harvard School on the Emery Foundation, the Bishop's School for Boys in this Diocese, is now in its 21st year. School opened on September 21st, 1920, with a full enrollment. The total enrollment up to date has been 310, representing 31 states and countries. A very large proportion of old boys returned, as has become the custom, so that the vacancies were comparatively few in number and the school was full several months before the opening day; consequently we had a long waiting list. The graduating class of 1921 numbers 41 boys. If they all graduate this will be the largest class ever graduated from the school.

The faculty this year consists of 22 members. Thirteen colleges in different parts of the country are represented. Taking them altogether, this year's faculty is the best we have ever had. About one-fourth of the faculty have been teaching in Harvard School for ten years or over. There is an element of permanence about our teaching force, which is of great value for the life of the school. Former pupils like to come back to the school and find their old teachers there.

The scholastic standing of the boys keeps at a high average. A good number of the boys are on the honor roll each month for scholarship. In this connection it is interesting to note that 34 out of 38 boys, graduated in 1920, entered college.

Interest in activities outside the school-room is very marked. The school paper, the Sentinel, was never better edited nor managed than it is this year. There is a good debating society and also a junior literary society. This latter society expects to present Shakespeare's "Twelfth Night" before very long. The school has teams in all outdoor sports. It is especially proficient this year in basket ball and tennis. There is also a gym team.

The military department recently received a very complimentary notice from the War Department. Apparently the efficiency of the R. O. T. C. of this school was never so good as it is at the present moment.

The religious life of the school is wholesome and, without any doubt, acts as a real leaven in the whole life of the school. The early Eucharists are well attended and all the services of the Chapel are very hearty. We venture to say that Harvard School Chapel services are unique on this whole coast for the character of the congregation, the heartiness of the singing, and the reverence shown on the part of practically everybody. The influence of the Church atmosphere and the Church services on the lives of these boys is invaluable.

We bespeak the interest of the Church people of the Diocese on behalf of the Bishop's School for Boys and we ask them to send us all the good boys who are looking for a school such as this is.

We might add that financially the year promises to be a highly prosperous one. Two hundred and seventy feet of real estate has been purchased on Western Avenue, with two houses and preliminary plans have been drawn up by Mr. Reginald Johnson for new buildings for the school. As a diocesan institution Harvard School occupies the unique position of never having asked anybody for a cent and of having maintained itself entirely unaided throughout its diocesan history.

Respectfully submitted,

ROBERT B. GOODEN, Headmaster.

APPENDIX 11.

REPORT OF THE NEIGHBORHOOD SETTLEMENT

Contrary to custom the report this year will briefly summarize the life of the Settlement, its efforts in behalf of the neighborhood, co-operation with volunteer workers and existing agencies, and the results obtained.

The volunteer worker is exceedingly valuable, for without her the work of the Settlement would be decidedly limited, and to her is due in a large measure the social recreation necessary to the life of any neighborhood. The residents contribute more by their actual presence, their living—day in and day out—in close contact with those among whom they work, and by carrying on the actual work involved in the organized classes. The resident is able to offer that sympathy and understanding which can only come from an intimate knowledge of the community's needs. She is part of the neighborhood.

The ten persons in residence at present include the salaried workers and the few who are sufficiently interested in social work and the foreigner to live in the neighborhood, and who give generously of their time.

The activities of the Settlement fall naturally under the following headings: Health, Education, Recreation, Social Case Work and Religion.

HEALTH

Contributing to the health of the community are the Children's Open Air Clinic and Corrective Exercises, the Dental Clinic, Nutrition Class and Summer Camp.

Dr. Philip King Brown, President of the State Tuberculosis Association, together with a large party of interested persons, visited the clinic during the year. Dr. Patrick, who is in charge, reports that Dr. Brown was delighted with the work that is being done, and pronounced it by far the best in the city. He signified his intention of quoting Neighborhood Settlement Clinic as a model.

The children's summer camp at Santa Monica was, as usual, abundantly worth while. It was kept open for eleven weeks as against four or five in preceding years, opening,—partly from necessity because of the housing problem, on the 12th of June, and closing on the 28th of August. The majority of the children were the undernourished that could be helped to enter school with less handicap. About 200 children and thirty adults were the guests of the camp. This number does not include the 352 that attended two picnics, neither does it include the staff.

In addition to the money raised at the concert given by Manazucca for the summer camp, over one thousand dollars was contributed by friends. This met the increased expenses due to high prices and the greater number of children. It also enabled us to add to our equipment.

EDUCATION

The educational work is carried on by means of organized classes, such as kindergarten, sewing, etc., and the library. The library is open four times a week and circulates over 500 books a month.

A deposit from the Public Library, together with hundreds of books that are given by friends, offer a wide variety of reading. The Church Periodical Club has furnished many books and yearly subscriptions to magazines which are eagerly sought after.

RELIGION

From the beginning it has been the purpose of the Settlement to make the religious work the center around which all the activities revolve. This has been more difficult from the fact that problems have to be worked out on the spot and can never follow the beaten track of the Church School. It is largely for this reason that there is no regular yearly confirmation class, since the opportunity is lacking for thorough instruction. Young people are confirmed only after very special instruction and examination. Some of the more intelligent strike out from their surroundings into the city churches for confirmation instructions.

The Daily Offices of the Church, which are held in the House Chapel, are for the benefit of the family and the guests of the house.

Through the interest and faithfulness of Father Dodd, chapel services for the neighborhood go steadily on,—not alone the weekly Eucharist, but on the great Festivals and Holy Days throughout the year. Attendance at these services constitutes all the Church life some of the children and young people of the neighborhood have ever known. Several, grown to manhood, who have moved away from the neighborhood, showed their faithfulness by coming back for their Christmas Communion.

In 1920 for the first time there was an Easter Service on Easter Day in the Settlement Chapel. Flowers and music added greatly to the service and were appreciated by an unusually large number.

The first midnight Christmas service was also well attended, there being as many present as would have been in any small church of a similar seating capacity. In addition to this, a Communion service at 10:30 Christmas morning called out a goodly number.

During the year there have been five baptisms in the Chapel and one wedding.

From the above it will be seen that every phase of parish life is represented in the religious life of the Settlement through the Chapel, and through the organized classes. Although the classes are not called guilds or any of the other familiar terms of the Church, nevertheless fundamental truths, as well as Church life and its forms, are taught, beginning with the simplest prayers in the kindergarten, and in the older classes taking the form of special training for Christmas and Easter.

DEACONESS MARY, Head Worker.

APPENDIX 12.

REPORT OF THE GIRLS' FRIENDLY SOCIETY

The Girls' Friendly Society has seven active Branches in this Diocese in the following Parishes:

St. Paul's, San Diego; St. Luke's, Long Beach; St. John's, San Bernardino; St. Matthias', Whittier; St. John's, Los Angeles; St. Athanasius', Los Angeles; Grace Mission, Los Angeles.

The last named, Grace Mission, has devoted itself to candidates' work and has a splendid class. Not only have the candidates a Mission Study Class, but they have worked for Missions; in sending a box, valued at $27.00 to Alaska, another to the Indians, and one to the Church Home for Children. They have also given toward the St. Luke's bungalow, at Phoenix, Arizona. I am glad to make special mention of this Candidates' Class, because I believe other classes like it should be started all over the Diocese, for from them will grow strong branches.

The total membership of the G. F. S. in this Diocese is 132, divided as follows: Members 51; candidates 14; working associates 32; honorary associates 19; diocesan working associates 16.

During the past year, a goodly sum has passed through the Treasurer's hands. It is gratifying to see how much of this has been for objects outside the Branch expenses, or the gifts to the individual parishes.

The following service has been rendered: Contributing money to the Near East Relief; Serbian Relief; vacation fund of Neighborhood Settlement; support of French War Orphans; furnishing a solarium in a local hospital; donating by practically all Branches to the tubercular cottage at Phoenix; boxes to Alaska, to the Indians; making stocking dolls and baby clothes for the Council of Community Service; filling stockings for Christmas; and collecting old clothes for the Bishop's Guild.

The total value of missionary boxes was $84.15; the total for St. Luke's bungalow fund, $129.47; total for social service work, $295.42.

The Girls' Friendly Society is working very hard for two great objects: the establishing of a Holiday House, for which there is now on hand a fund of $600.00, and three Liberty Bonds,—and the opening in Los Angeles of a Lodge. There is in the bank for the latter purpose the sum of $2298.21. I would bespeak for the Lodge your earnest interest and prayers, for it is a crying need in this great city. The hope of the committee is to secure a building which will accommodate at least 75 girls, with adequate living rooms, baths and especially a laundry. If we could open this building now, I feel confident that it would immediately be filled, and in a short time be self-supporting, as all G. F. S. Lodges are required to be. Girls need, and should have, a comfortable, homelike, restful place in which to live, where there is a chance to entertain friends, where they may get good food, where there is the kindly, friendly, Christian atmosphere that you may find in a G. F. S. Lodge.

Respectfully submitted,

VIOLET B. STEVENS, Diocesan President.

REPORT OF THE BOARD OF MISSIONS

The special problems with which the Board of Missions has been occupied and the present outlook for the missionary work of the Diocese are presented in the reports of the Rural Deans of the several Convocations.

CONVOCATION OF SANTA BARBARA

The Nation-Wide Campaign has shown this Convocation to itself. At the two Convocation dinners held in Santa Barbara this autumn more than three hundred Churchmen and Churchwomen recognized each other's interest in the Church, and at the same time discovered the Convocation. From this discovery we have the right to expect great things.

The Diocese can take pride in the work done by the Church in Ventura County. All Saints' Mission at Oxnard, St. Paul's Parish at Ventura, and the State School for Girls are all under the pastoral care of the Rev. Thomas P. Swift. This field has had its most successful year. At St. Paul's, Ventura, an awakened interest in the Sunday School, a vested choir, and the prospect of financing a much-needed parish house testify to the local response to the efforts of the missionary. Oxnard never was more alive. The members of the Mission are working together with fine zeal; the services have been well attended; a group of fine men, representative of the best element in the city are loyally behind the missionary, and the Church is taking a position of leadership in the community.

The Missions at Santa Paula and Fillmore, in spite of intermittent pastoral care, since the departure of Chaplain Wood in June, were never in better spiritual and more satisfactory financial condition. A new missionary, the Rev. M. D. Kneeland, a priest who is the product of our own Diocese, comes to Santa Paula especially well equipped to lead these Missions forward. His service in France as Director of the Foyer du Soldat, the French Y. M. C. A., during 1918 and 1919, where he was stationed with the French army on the Somme front, the Aisne, and Chauny, gave him experience with men which fits him peculiarly well to win the confidence of the whole community. The prospects for the coming year are particularly bright.

In Santa Barbara County a new start is about to be made in a field which, due to the difficulty of finding just the right sort of missionary, has been dormant for over a year. As the result of the Nation-Wide Campaign the Board of Missions is able to guarantee the salary of a missionary who will give his whole time to the very important Santa Maria field covering 160 square miles. Under the proved leadership of the Rev. Mr. Chester, who is about to become the resident missionary, the coming year is sure to see a deepening spiritual life develop throughout this section.

Men are awakening to a realization that the social changes the new order are forcing upon us hold possibilities for good only if those changes are guided in their course by the ideals conserved and taught by the Church. Men are ready to support the Church wherever she shows capacity for leadership. In the clergy of this Convocation there is this capacity in ample measure. We look forward with hope and expectation.

It has been a particularly busy year for the Rural Dean. The changes in the missionaries, and lack of missionaries have necessitated much traveling and correspondence and financial responsibility. He has had to travel more than four thousand miles; he has written more than 170 letters; and he has raised funds to meet expenditures for salaries amounting to $820.00 in addition to what has been paid them by the Board of Missions and the Missions in which they served.

GEORGE F. WELD, Rural Dean.

CONVOCATION OF SAN BERNARDINO

During the past year there have been held six Convocational gatherings and in all of them there has been a very marked spirit of interest.

Two Church School Rallies have been held; the first in Trinity Church, Redlands, held the Sunday before the Diocesan Rally, where the record for highest per capita Easter offering and highest average attendance went to the Church School of St. John Baptist's Mission, Corona. At this rally two banners were promised to the Convocation; one, the Dean's Banner, to be presented to the school having the highest per capita Easter offering, and the other, the Convocation Banner, for the highest average attendance. These are to be presented at the next Spring Rally. The Fall Rally was held in St. John's Church, San Bernardino, with 160 in attendance.

Two meetings have been held in the interest of the Nation-Wide Campaign: the first at Riverside in September, when we were addressed by the Rev. Louis G. Wood, when there were 58 present at the luncheon, and the second in San Bernardino, under the direction of Dr. Patton and Bishop Stevens, with 82 present. As far as the present reports show, an amount of $5,172.30 has been raised in the Convocation for the Nation-Wide Campaign.

Two regular meetings of the Convocation have been held, the Spring meeting in Riverside; and the Fall meeting on November 19, in Beaumont, where we were addressed by Bishop Stevens and the Rev. Mr. Easley.

Last April the Rev. Mr. Chester and the Rural Dean traveled through the Convocation—from Riverside to Mecca, in the Coachella Valley; from there to Blythe; from Blythe to Needles, and from there back across the desert along the line of the Santa Fe,—looking up scattered families. The families thus found have been kept in touch with and sent Church papers.

The Rural Dean has preached in Beaumont, Hemet and Elsinore; and has traveled about 1600 miles in the interests of the Convocation.

A good deal of forward work has been accomplished during the past year. The Mission of the Good Shepherd, Hemet, has been cleared of debt, and the Church was consecrated by Bishop Johnson on December 19th; $150.00 has been paid on the debt of St. John Baptist Mission, Corona; All Saints' Parish, Riverside, cleared of all former indebtedness; and St. Mark's, Upland, has a Parish House under construction.

R. A. KIRCHHOFFER, Rural Dean.

CONVOCATION OF SAN DIEGO

All the stations in the San Diego Convocation have been faithfully served by the Missionaries, during the past year, and every credit is due them. With the appointment of a new man for Imperial Valley; for St. James', San Diego, together with the opening of several fresh fields, it is hoped that a policy of expansion will be supported by the Diocese. It can not be long deferred without serious loss to the Church in this section.

CONVOCATION OF LOS ANGELES

To be very brief, we have had a year of marked progress. Another Mission, Burbank, is rejoicing in a church building. The General Missionary has 572 communicants under his care in smaller centers round Los Angeles. His nine Missions report an increase in members and pledges to the Nation-Wide Campaign. San Fernando Valley has 80 families and needs a resident Missionary. The Convocation has held large meetings for the Nation-Wide Campaign, and thirteen successful preaching missions. The present Dean has asked to be relieved on account of the enlarged work of his Parish, and the Rev. J. Arthur Evans has been chosen to take his place.

A. G. H. BODE, Rural Dean.

With reference to the retirement of Rev. A. G. H. Bode as Rural Dean of the Convocation of Los Angeles, the Board wishes to give expression to its sense of the debt of gratitude which the whole Diocese owes to Dean Bode for the years of faithful, intelligent service rendered so invariably in that gracious spirit that has endeared him to all of his co-workers; and its regret that he has felt unable to continue in the discharge of the responsibilities of this important office.

The Board recommends that the amount of the missionary assessment for the year 1921 be $16,500.00.

THOMAS C. MARSHALL, Secretary.

NOTE

In addition to the $16,554.09 forwarded by the Nation-Wide Campaign Treasurer to Lewis B. Franklin, Treasurer, the latter has reported $6,454.14 received direct, making the total sent by the Diocese of Los Angeles to New York, $23,008.23. Inasmuch as we are not in receipt of the December, 1920, statement from New York, it is fair to presume this total will be increased.

The first year of the new system has naturally caused some misunderstanding as to where the Nation-Wide Campaign funds should be forwarded.

It is practically impossible for the Diocesan Nation-Wide Campaign Treasurer to make the correct credits and to maintain the proper percentages between New York and the Diocese, as decreed by the Executive Council, unless all N. W. C. funds except the Diocesan assessments pass through his books.

Respectfully submitted,

William F. Knight, Nation-Wide Campaign Treasurer.

Los Angeles, January 15, 1921.

NATION-WIDE CAMPAIGN SECRETARY'S REPORT (2)

The Executive Secretary of the Diocesan Nation-Wide Campaign Committee begs leave to report as follows:

The report this year will be confined almost entirely to the financial side of the campaign. It is regretted that a proposed questionnaire, seeking information as to the degree to which the congregations in the Diocese, along other lines, entered into the campaign, was not sent to the various Parishes and Missions, but it was thought hardly worth while to do this, in view of the dislike which persons have for making out detailed reports. As it was, many failed to send in the postal Preliminary Financial Report card issued by the Presiding Bishop and Council, and but 38 have sent in more or less fully made-out white Diocesan Financial Report cards. Others have given in the barest report, orally or by letter. It is to be noted that 85 Parishes and Missions will be considered the 100% record for the Diocese. The congregations omitted are as follows: Los Angeles, Christ Church and Ephphatha; Carpinteria, Barstow and Torrance. (Note.—A note of regret was received from the one interested family in Torrance; and, subsequently to reading his report, the Secretary was informed that St. Andrew's, Carpinteria, did make the canvass, independently of All Saints', Montecito. No financial returns, however, have been received.)

It is difficult to say exactly how many Parishes and Missions entered into the campaign. Doubtless there were varying degrees of "entering in."

As far as known the following 19 Parishes and Missions failed, as per request, to send in names of local N. W. C. committees: Convocation of Los Angeles:—*Inglewood; Los Angeles,—Angels', *St. Luke's, *St. Paul's Pro-Cathedral, St. Peter's (San Pedro), St. Thomas'; *Ocean Park, *San Gabriel, *Sierra Madre. Convocation of San Bernardino:—Needles, San Bernardino, *Upland. Convocation of San Diego:—San Diego, St. James; El Centro, Imperial, Brawley, Holtville. Convocation of Santa Barbara:—*Oxnard, Ventura. But of these 19, 9 made financial reports (marked with asterisk); 6 of the 9 reported pledges, viz., Los Angeles,—St. Luke's, St. Paul's Pro-Cathedral; San Gabriel, Sierra Madre, Venice, Oxnard.

Five others, reporting, or having reported for them, N. W. C. local committees, virtually, it is believed, did nothing on the campaign,—i. e., Los Angeles, St. John's, Grace; Santa Maria, Lompoc, Santa Paula. (Note.—Grace Mission, Los Angeles, however, pledged its full quota through one person.)

On the other hand, of the 15 Churches noted as not having reported as yet, 8 appointed, or had appointed for themselves, local N. W. C. committees: Los Angeles, St. Philip's; Culver City, Tujunga, Van Nuys, Lompoc, Santa Maria, Bostonia, Fallbrook.

It is to be regretted that every Parish and Mission did not "play the game," at least to the degree of making the effort and doing the minimum asked—i. e., appoint a local committee, distribute the literature into the homes of the people, and make the financial canvass. Probably between 20 and 25 churches failed to undertake the campaign in any adequate way.

Out of 85 Parishes and Missions in the Diocese, 70 have made some sort of a report; 61 of these had been assigned quotas; 5 more, all but one, Missions under the General Missionary, and not assigned quotas, yet pledged; while 4 more, although they at least replied to inquiry, reported no financial returns. The first five are: Burbank, Eagle Rock, San Fernando, Watts, and St. Mary's Japanese Mission, Los Angeles; the last four—the Missions at Glendora, Brawley, Lompoc and Santa Maria. The 15 churches not as yet reporting are as follows: Convocation of Los Angeles:—Los Angeles, St. Philip's, St. Thomas, St. Peter's (San Pedro); El Toro, St. George's; Culver City, St. Mary's; Tujunga, Ascension; Van Nuys, St. Mark's. Convocation of San Bernardino:—San Bernardino, St. John's; Needles, St. John's. Convocation of San Diego:—Bostonia, St. John's; Fallbrook, St. John's; El Centro, St. Paul's; Imperial, St. Matthias'; Holtville, St. Mark's. Convocation of Santa Barbara:—Ventura, St. Paul's.

It is to be noted before reporting returns, that, in order to show as near an approach as possible to the total quota for the Diocese, in the case of 15 Parishes and Missions it is assumed justifiable that the amount of the Diocesan assessment should be added to the amount noted as pledged. These 15 churches are in Alhambra, Anaheim, Los Angeles,—All Saints', Good Shepherd; Orange, Pomona, Venice, Whittier, Beaumont, Elsinore, Hemet, San Jacinto, Coronado, Escondido, Santa Barbara.

Furthermore, in the case of 10 Parishes and Missions it is assumed that at least the total of the Diocesan assessment and Diocesan missionary assessment for 1921, and the old general missions apportionment for 1920, would be met during 1921. In the case of the three which pledged, of the ten, the amount of the reported pledges did not equal this sum, and the difference was added. (These three marked with asterisk.) These ten congregations are as follows: Inglewood, Los Angeles,—*St. Athanasius, St. John's, Trinity; *Redlands, Upland, East San Diego; San Diego, St. James; *Oxnard, Santa Paula.

Now, from 65 Parishes and Missions in the Diocese, whose combined quotas amounted to $154,614, there has been pledged the total amount of $75,370.75, or 49% of their quotas, or 43% of the total quota for the Diocese.

Pledges from 65 Parishes and Missions.....	$75,370.75
1921 assessments and 1920 general missions apportionment from congregations not reporting.....	2,126.00
Additional amounts likely to be received from 17 con- gregations	2,644.84

or 46% of the total quota for the Diocese. However, it is to be noted that from these churches not reporting, last year, but $575.29 was received on assessments and apportionment.

On the Parish side, 40 Parishes and Missions, 31 of them reporting a total budget of $128,866, pledged a total of $101,545.44.

Thirty-nine Parishes and Missions in the Diocese reported 3,468 pledges to the N. W. C., a total increase of 549 over the previous year from 27 of them. In only one instance was there a decrease reported, and in that one to the number of but 2.

Thirty-six Parishes and Missions in the Diocese reported 3,751 pledges to Parish expense, a total increase of 305 over the previous year from 22 of them. Three congregations reported a total decrease of 32.

N. W. C. REPORT BY CONVOCATIONS

Los Angeles—Quota $111,612; 41 out of 50 reporting, or 82%; pledged, $53,835.23, or 48%; pledges, 2312; increase, 330.

San Bernardino—Quota $13,110; 9 out of 11 reporting, or 82%; pledged, $5,956.63, or 45%; pledges, 359; increase, 61.

San Diego—Quota, $13,962; 11 out of 17 reporting, or 65%; pledged, $7,197.44, or 52%; pledges, 529; increase, 99.

Santa Barbara—Quota, $15,930; 4 out of 7 reporting, or 57%; pledged, $8,381.45, or 53%; pledges, 268; increase, 59.

Totals—Quota, $154,614; 65 out of 85 reporting; pledged, $75,370.75; pledges, 3,468; increase, 549.

Notes:—St. Andrew's Mission, Los Angeles, sent in a report of a total amount of $1,426.00 pledged, apparently for all purposes, but the Secretary has not been advised of how this amount is to be divided. St. Mark's, Van Nuys, also, I believe, sent in a report to the missionary-in-charge, but it has not yet come to the Secretary.

The Secretary would ask the churches whether the above reported pledges toward the N. W. C. include all three amounts—the Diocesan assessment, the Diocesan missionary assessment, and the N. W. C. quota proper—as helping to reach the total quota asked of a Church? Please inform him if they do not, because they have been so counted.

Any mistakes made or injustice done in this report—please report to Secretary for correction through the Los Angeles Churchman.

Respectfully submitted,

FRANKIN U. BUGBEE, Executive Secretary.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON CHURCH PENSION FUND

Your Committee on the Church Pension Fund congratulates this Convention on the splendid condition of the pension system in the Diocese of Los Angeles. There is a most gratifying cooperation on the part of the Parishes and Missions that exceeds even the most sanguine expectations entertained of the Fund at the time of its inception. There is practically only one Parish in the Diocese that is delinquent at the present time.

So regular and systematic has the operation of this wonderful institution become that one finds it difficult to believe that the Pension Fund is not yet four years old.

The gratifying feature is that the situation which exists with us obtains practically in every Diocese and jurisdiction of the Church. Quite recently Mr. Monell Sayre wrote your Committee that—"in the year 1920 the pension assessments received from the whole Church amounted to the great sum of $772,000. This is $107,000 more than pension assessments received in 1919. The difference is almost entirely due to the gratifying increase in salaries of over one million dollars."

The October Bulletin issued by the Church Pension Fund Commission of New York, contains a most interesting and illuminating financial statement: The yearly pay roll at the present time amounts to something over $367,000. That is a little more than a thousand dollars a day. Three hundred and seventy-three of the clergy are receiving old age pensions, 45 are receiving disability pensions, 272 widows and orphans are receiving assistance ranging from $300.00 a year to $750.00 a year. This latter amount was granted to the widow of one of the clergy of the Province of Sewanee and includes the allowance for the orphan minor children of the deceased clergyman. This in view of the high cost of living may seem a small amount, but so far as is known it is larger than any grant ever made by a similar organization in the Episcopal Church, even to a clergyman.

There is every reason to believe that before long the minimum of $600.00 now granted to clergymen who have reached the age of 68 will be raised to $1000.00. At the last General Convention Mr. Monell Sayre made the statement—that, had it not been for the unexpected drain made upon the financial resources of the Pension System by the General Clergy Relief Fund, it would now be possible to raise the minimum amount from what it is to the amount just mentioned.

At the close of last year the National office in New York City sent out certificates to all the clergy for whom all pension assessments have been paid between March 1st, 1917, and December 31, 1919. Soon after March 1st of this year supplemental certificates will be sent out for the year 1920, and thereafter the certificates will be sent annually. The fundamental theory of the Church Pension Fund is that the laity, as represented by the Parishes, etc., pay the pension assessments; that the pension system is an addition by the laity to the support of the clergy. For this reason the clergy themselves do not have evidence of the payment of pension assessments in their possession, and it is thought that the issuance of these certificates will be appreciated by them, as placing in their hands evidence of the participation of themselves and their families.

During the past year your Committee has been able to secure for the widow of a deceased clergyman of this Diocese a pension of $300.00, with an additional allowance for a minor orphan child. This particular clergyman had been ordained in the Church of England in Canada, and had only been canonically connected with this Diocese a comparatively short time. Under the initial ruling of the Pension Fund Commission this widow was not entitled to the minimum usually granted to the widows of clergy ordained in the Episcopal Church of the United States. However, a special ruling was made in her case and by the payment of an assessment of something over $1100.00 she was granted a yearly pension of $300.00, with an additional allowance for her child.

We mention this because it illustrates the splendid financial condition of the system, that they are able to care for these exceptional cases. The officials of the Commission have done not only all that they hoped and promised to do, but very much more. As a consequence of the success of this enterprise the Trustees find themselves in a position where they can be vastly more generous in the administration of their Trust than in their most sanguine moments they supposed would ever be possible.

But it illustrates another feature, which we believe is worthy of emphasis. A close scrutiny of this transaction, as well as a number of others similar to it, reveals the fact that the men who are responsible for the management of the affairs of this remarkable corporation have a heart as well as a head. To some that perhaps will come as a surprise. But in view of the criticism—much of it unjust—which has been heaped upon the heads of the officials of the Pension Fund, it is only fair that we call attention to their willingness, whenever the conditions permit, to administer their Trust with the largest measure of generosity commensurate with that degree of safety which they believe to be fundamental in the system.

During the past year there has been forwarded to New York by our Treasurer, Mr. Colin M. Gair, the sum of $8,729.35.

Your Committee believe that this report would be incomplete without a word of appreciation of the Treasurer for his valuable services. Under extremely trying circumstances he has cheerfully performed a very arduous piece of work in a way to win the gratitude and commendation of us all, and we wish to place upon record our genuine sense of indebtedness to him for the very careful and business-like way in which he has discharged the duties of his office.

WILLIAM MACCORMACK, Chairman

APPENDIX 16

REPORT OF THE COUNTY AND CITY MISSION SOCIETY

The work of the Society during the past year has shown a steady growth, both in the opportunities of service and in our efforts to meet them.

The principal changes have been as follows:

1. The appointment of Bishop Coadjutor Stevens by the Bishop of the Diocese to take his place as president of the Society.
2. The election and appointment of the Rev. V. D. Ruggles as Chaplain, to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of the Rev. A. F. Randall.
3. The appointment of the Chaplain to present the story of the Society's work to congregations and Church societies.
4. The election of an Executive Committee with power to act in place of the Board of Directors during the intervals between regular meetings.
5. The award of $2,000.00 a year to the Society by the Executive Council of the Nation-Wide Campaign.
6. The incorporation of the Society.

Outstanding evidences of growth are:

1. A steady increase in the number of our workers at the County Hospital. We are gaining an average of one a week.
2. A better representation of our parishes and missions at the monthly meetings.
3. A large increase in the attendance at the services and instructions at the County Hospital and Farm.
4. A rapidly increasing number who are showing their interest by providing vocal and instrumental music at the County Hospital and Farm.
5. More generous donations of money and gifts for providing "Christmas cheer for the cheerless." About 800 people were cared for in this way.

The schedule of services in the various institutions is as follows:

Los Angeles County Farm: Second Sunday of alternate months at 2 p. m. First and Third Tuesdays at 10:30 a. m. (Holy Communion, followed by Workers' Conference.)

Los Angeles County Farm: Second and Fourth Sundays at 10:00 a. m. Alternate Fridays at 2:30 p. m. (Singing and instruction.) There is also a monthly celebration of the Holy Eucharist.

Los Feliz Hospital: Third Sunday at 10:30 a. m.

Eastside Jail: Every Sunday at 1 p. m.

The introduction of regular Celebrations at the County Hospital has done much to emphasize the spiritual side of the work, making the Altar the center and inspiration of all our efforts. The conference of chaplain and workers has helped largely to co-ordinate the work and make it more intelligent and more efficient. The attendance at the Holy Eucharist has already grown to 35.

The Sunday afternoon services at the County Hospital have been largely helped by arranging with different rectors and priests-in-charge to provide the choir and also helpers to wheel the patients to the chapel from the wards. The attendance has thus grown to 125. The Church of the Redeemer, St. Athanasius' and St. Luke's, Los Angeles, have already responded in this way. St. Andrew's has promised for February and St. Luke's, Long Beach, for April. A number of individuals have promised in the same way for the Farm services. In every case, without exception, these visitors go away filled with enthusiasm for the work and most of them come again.

In addition to the distinctively spiritual work, our visitors go through the wards day by day—gladdening the patients by cheering words, by little gifts of various kinds, by writing letters and performing many helpful offices. They also prepare the way for the visits of the chaplain and follow up his work. They are a most devoted band of workers and go about the Lord's business in a quiet, unostentatious way that is very effective and has a wholesome influence. So on seven days of the week we are trying to put into practice the Christian religion. "They don't know what good they do," was the comment of one patient.

Our plans for the coming year and our needs:

1. The establishment of an adequately-equipped office to assist men and women leaving hospital or jail to return to normal life. This is imperative. Calls of this kind are constant and cannot be properly attended to with our present equipment.

2. The extension of our jail work to the other prisons. At present we limit our regular work to the Eastside Jail, visiting the others only for special calls.

3. Representation of every parish and mission in the county at our monthly meeting at St. Paul's Parish House at 2 p. m. on the first Tuesday of the month. Each is entitled to three delegates. Once people come into personal touch with this most Christ-like of all Christian work they give of their time and money liberally and find a wonderful joy in the giving.

The officers of the Society are as follows:

The Right Rev. William Bertrand Stevens, Ph. D., President.

The Rev. F. U. Bugbee, 1st Vice-President.

The Rev. Neal Dodd, 2nd Vice-President.

W. L. Thompson, Treasurer.

George M. Wiley, Secretary.

Wilfred Smith, Chairman of the Executive Committee.

The Volunteer workers are:

COUNTY HOSPITAL: Charles Beamish, Mrs. F. J. Carwile, Mrs. William Dunlap, Mrs. Mabel Evans, Mrs. Eustis, Mrs. G. D. McVittie, Rev. A. F. Randall, Mrs. A. H. de Renault, Deaconess Steiger, Miss Edith Sterling, Mrs. M. R. Studd, Mrs. G. W. Sweezy, Mrs. E. E. Tarbox, George A. Webb, Mrs. Ida Weeks.

COUNTY FARM: Deaconess Steiger, Mrs. Sweezy, Mrs. Janvier, Mrs. Weeks.

LOS FELIZ HOSPITAL: Miss I. N. Palmer (organist).

EASTSIDE JAIL: Charles Beamish, T. V. Robinson, W. L. Thompson, George A. Webb, George M. Wiley.

V. D. RUGGLES, Chaplain.

REPORT OF THE BISHOP'S GUILD

The Bishop's Guild submits the following simplified report: 2,562 garments made for children from scraps; 56 pairs of shoes for children; 6 new suits for boys; wool and corduroy trousers for all needy boys; many coveralls and overalls.

$15.00 per month for milk for the Seventh Street School; $25.00 per month for the Church Home for Children; $25.00 per month for the Diocesan Home for the Aged; $25.00 per month is spent for the inmates of the incurable ward of the County Hospital.

At Christmas 67 families were fed. Throughout the year nourishing food and fuel was given the old people and the needy.

Our gardens for the comfort of the settlement people have been carried on as usual and a great benefit to the worthy families.

52 of our own Parishes have helped in this work, but we have had wonderful support from Churches of other denominations; over a hundred dresses being made by them.

APPENDIX 18

REPORT OF THE CHURCH EXTENSION SOCIETY

The Board of Directors of the Church Extension Society, a corporation in union with Convention, respectfully reports that it continues to occupy a place of special usefulness—limited, unfortunately, by the small amount of its funds—in helping needy Missions and, in some cases, Parishes, in various places in the Diocese.

It has made small loans to several Missions during the year, but has been obliged for want of funds to refuse other deserving applications which appealed very strongly for financial aid.

In addition to its own funds, as the distributor of the interest money of the Keating Fund,—besides paying the Board of Missions $1500 for work in Imperial County for the past year, it has made a gift of $200 to a Mission in San Diego County. It has also agreed to meet the request of the Bishop for a grant for a second missionary in Imperial County, and is holding a considerable balance awaiting the Bishop's call; and also to provide further clerical assistance, should it be required—now that oil has been discovered in the county—to meet the needs of a rapidly increasing population.

The Treasurer's statement is herewith appended. All of which is respectfully submitted.

REPORT OF THE BOARD OF CHRISTIAN EDUCATION

During the year the Board has held six well-attended meetings. In order to make its work more effective, at the June meeting the Board formed five standing committees to be responsible for special fields of work. These are, namely, Church Schools, Life Work, Adult Work, Church School Service League, and Teacher Training.

In the Spring the Board decided to issue a monthly "Bulletin" to inform the Church people of the work and needs of religious education in the Diocese. Three issues were published, and it is planned to continue the publication at an early date.

The annual Church School rally was held in Los Angeles on May 16th, and the week previous three religious rallies were held. Reports made at this time showed an increase of over 500 in growth for the year, and of more than $600.00 in the Easter offering. The Bishop's banner for attendance was awarded to St. Mary's (Japanese) School. In the fall several of the Convocations held rallies again.

During the summer the Board co-operated with the other Dioceses of the Province in the Mills College Conference at Oakland, advertising it extensively, and paying our financial quota. A number of representatives from the Diocese were in attendance.

In June and July the Board took charge of the Diocesan Summer School at Santa Monica. It was the most successful held in many years, both in the matter of attendance, and also in the value of the courses given.

The principal work of the Board in the fall was along the lines of recruiting for the Ministry. At the request of the General Board of Religious Education, and following the wishes of both of our Bishops, the Board did all it could to have the matter of recruiting for the Ministry preached and presented on the Third Sunday in Advent. It also offered the clergy copies of the new "Guide for Candidates for Holy Orders."

The Board has been happy in welcoming Bishop Stevens to its chairmanship, and feels itself much strengthened by his able leadership. It also gives grateful thanks that means have been promised for the employment of a full-time Field Secretary, and it eagerly awaits his appointment. Until the time of his coming, the scope of its work must necessarily be limited. We feel, however, that conditions are ripe for a fine response to trained leadership, and that with the coming of the Secretary the work of religious education in the Diocese will go forward rapidly.

For the work of the Board during the coming year we would ask the Convention for an appropriation of $300.00 for general expenses, feeling it most important that our work be carried on as in the past.

Respectfully submitted for the Board.

STEPHEN C. CLARK, JR., Secretary.

REPORT OF THE FINANCE COMMITTEE

The Convention of January, 1920, referred the recommendation of the Auditing Committee (see p. 55 of Journal "that the services of a Certified Public Accountant be employed to make the annual audit under its direction or provide for expert examination in some other way—a suitable appropriation being made to cover the expense")—to the Finance Committee to report to this Convention its recommendations, etc.

We recommend that this request be granted and that the Committee on Canons be, and they are hereby, asked to submit a Canon to the next annual Convention covering the matter.

We further recommend that the Auditing Committee be, and they are hereby instructed to make such arrangements as they deem expedient until the adoption of a Canon covering the matter, and that the sum of $250—or so much thereof as may be necessary, be held subject to their order for this work.

Your Finance Committee regrets that, owing to the neglect of certain Parishes and Missions to send in a copy of their parochial report to the Treasurer as required by Canon, it has been unable to prepare the usual schedule of assessments; but, inasmuch as the method of calculation is fully set out in the Canons, the same will be calculated as soon as all the parochial reports are received and all Parishes and Missions will be notified by mail.

In preparing the budget for the year 1921, your Committee finds that the requirements for the coming year will be as follows:

Salary for Bishop	$2,000.00
Salary for Bishop Coadjutor	6,000.00
Allowance for expenses of Bishop.....	500.00
Allowance for expenses of Bishop Coadjutor.....	500.00

REPORT OF COMMISSION ON PHILANTHROPY AND SOCIAL SERVICE

Rather than attempt a survey of the general field of social progress your Commission desires this year to direct the attention of the clergy and the people of the churches to a single phase of the social problem, the alarming and perplexing prevalence of crime.

Everyone is talking of the crime wave that is evident not only in the communities of our state, but in all the cities of the country from which we have any news on the subject. The readiness with which murder is committed; the shocking brutality that accompanies burglaries and holdups that are a nightly feature of our city life; the kidnappings of girls and assaults on women; the criminal disregard of life that underlies so large a percentage of our traffic accidents, all are symptoms of a social condition that requires the most careful analysis and calls for radical treatment. It is easy to dispose of the whole problem by saying that it is a post war condition which in a few years will right itself. Admitting the aggravating influence of the mental, moral and economic disorganization of the war, it must be remembered that crimes of violence against property and persons have for many years been on the increase and that in the prevalence of such crimes the United States stands out in appalling contrast to the countries of Europe. The truth of this statement is vividly illustrated by a few quotations from one of the most recent books on criminology, Raymond Fosdick's "American Police Systems" published in 1920.

"Police statistics show that crime is far more prevalent in American cities than in the cities of England, France or Germany." "London in 1916, with a population of seven millions and a quarter had nine premeditated murders. Chicago, one-third the size of London, in the same period had 105, nearly twelve times London's total." "In the year 1916, indeed, and it was no exceptional year, Chicago with its 2,500,000 people, had twenty more murders than the whole of England and Wales put together, with their 38,000,000 people." "In 1917 Chicago had ten more murders than the whole of England and Wales, and four more murders than all England, Wales and Scotland." "Los Angeles, one-twentieth the size of London, had two more homicides in 1916 than London had for the same period; in 1917 she had ten more than London had." "In 1917 New York had four times as many burglaries as London and approximately the same number as occurred in England and Wales." "In 1915 New York City had more burglaries than occurred in all England and Wales in 1911, 1912, or 1913." "New York City in 1915 reported 838 robberies and assaults with intent to rob where London had 20 and England, Wales and Scotland together had 102." "Los Angeles in 1916 had 64 more robberies than all of England, Wales and Scotland put together; in 1917 she had 126 more than these three countries."

The Chicago Tribune Paris Edition is quoted as saying in an editorial of January 31, 1919, "There is probably more undisciplined, egotistic, mischievous force in the United States than in any country of first rank in the world."

Speaking more guardedly but to the same effect Mr. Fosdick says, "With all its kindness and good nature, the temper of our communities contains a strong strain of violence. We lack a high instinct for order. We lack a sense of the dignity of obedience to restraint which is demanded for the common good. We lack a certain respect for our own security and the terms upon which civilized communities keep the peace."

We commend therefore as a special subject of study this year the causes of the abnormal criminality which is characteristic of American life and intensified by the conditions of a post war period. Certainly no subject is more directly the business of the Church.

Suggested as causes of criminality are the following:

The materialistic attitude towards life in an age of tremendous economic expansion; the disintegration of home life; the unintelligent treatment of prisoners in jails and penitentiaries; the menace of feeble-mindedness and borderline insanity, inadequately cared for in our communities; the constant suggestion of crime and sensuality in the motion pictures which are the daily food of our children; the general attitude of irreverence and disrespect for persons and institutions that constitutes to the rising generation the proof of its superiority; the all too general lack of that sense of personal responsibility to God which in past ages has acted as the most powerful deterrent to sin and crime.

Suggested as practical remedies are the following:

The assimilation of foreign groups of population to our American ideals, as distinguished from many of our American practices; the transformation of our penal institutions from merely punitive to remedial agencies; providing wholesomely for the play time of children and the leisure time of adults; removing causes that stunt child life, such as poverty and malnutrition, unsanitary and crowded housing conditions, child labor; intelligent interest in the tremendous and difficult problems of the public schools; the restoration of the Christian family life adapted to modern economic conditions; the segregation and humane care of the feeble-minded; the emphasis of the work of the Church especially in its church schools and organizations for the social and spiritual life of young people.

So intimately is the problem of crime linked to other social problems that it may be made the point of approach to a study of social problems on the part of a parish group.

Specifically we would urge the earnest support of every clergyman and of every man and woman in the church in behalf of a bill which is before the present legislature, providing for the creation in any county of sufficient size of an industrial farm to which all persons convicted of misdemeanors and certain other crimes, particularly desertion, may be sentenced; where they will be compelled to work and may receive a certain amount of industrial training, at the same time being free from the health and character destroying influences of our city and county jails. It is the intention of the Supervisors of Los Angeles county to establish such an industrial farm if the enactment of this necessary legislation can be secured. To this farm may be sent the prisoners not only from the county jail but from the jails of every incorporated city in any county which shall establish such a farm.

Recognizing that the element of restitution cannot be omitted from an adequate consideration of the problem of reformation, and realizing that the penal law concerns itself mainly with expiation and good conduct, we recommend to the clergy and people of our parishes the serious consideration of a modification of our laws regulating parole, pardon and probation, which shall emphasize, as a manifestation of true penitence, some genuine effort upon the part of the wrong-doer, to make personal restitution to the individual or individuals whom he has injured by the commission of the crimes of which he has been convicted. In other words, we recommend that parole and pardon boards and commissions and courts, having probation jurisdiction, shall make evidence of a sincere attempt or desire to make personal restitution for wrong done, a strongly determining factor in the consideration of appeals for clemency.

We would call especial attention to the prevalent injustice in the treatment of prisoners held for trial, but still unconvicted of crime. Approximately fifty per cent of prisoners brought to trial are acquitted and are thus technically at least innocent of the charges brought against them. Yet when confined in jails awaiting trial they are subjected to the same treatment as convicted criminals; in fact in some jails the worst quarters are reserved for the men thus being held. Postponement of hearings and prolonged trials often leave these men for months confined with the lowest types of criminals, exposed to physical and moral contamination, under conditions most abhorrent to any decent man. It is difficult to see how any man can go out from confinement in a jail, if conscious of his innocence, without a burning sense of having been wronged by society. Such treatment is making confirmed criminals and haters of society of hundreds of men whose greatest fault is that they have been suspected of wrong-doing or have been unfortunate in some of their friendships or enmities. The commission proposes to continue its consideration of this subject this coming year.

In conclusion we would urge upon our clergy, laity and parish social service groups, the careful study of the report of the Joint Commission on Social Service (now the Social Service Department) to the General Convention of 1919. We are convinced that the present industrial unrest and radicalism often running into violence and crime, is in large part the price which society is paying for long neglect of its unfortunate and handicapped elements; its failure to enter sympathetically and intelligently into their problems, the practical, if not intentional denial of social justice.

This report dealing as it does with problems of immigration, unemployment, trades unions, and migratory labor, and having the imprimatur of the Church is a most suitable and valuable text book for social study. It can be procured from the Department of Social Service, Presiding Bishop and Council, 281 Fourth Ave., New York.

Interest on Ontario Power Co. bonds paid to Jan. 1, 1921.
Interest on Delta Farms Recl. Dist bonds paid to Jan. 1, 1921.
Interest on Liberty and Victory Loan bonds paid to last date due.
Interest on Deposit in First Natl. Bank paid to Jan. 1, 1921.

It will be noted that the indebtedness created by the Board of Christian Education, some four years ago, of $3,000 has been liquidated, relieving the Diocese of this liability and interest payments thereon, with return to the Corporation of the securities pledged to secure payment of this debt.

One overdue loan has been collected in full, practically placing the entire assets of the Corporation earning interest, payable at regular intervals, with no existing arrears.

C. S. BYINGTON, Secretary.

APPENDIX 23

REPORT OF THE AUDITING COMMITTEE

A short time prior to the consecration of the Bishop Coadjutor, the Bishop of the Diocese requested your Auditing Committee to have an audit made of the books of the Corporation of the Diocese, and also of the books of the Treasurer of the Diocese, by a certified public accountant.

This audit was made by Mr. John A. Simmers, of the firm of Simmers and Paeske, certified public accountants. Reports were prepared by Mr. Simmers covering the period of the year to July 31st, 1920, and showed that the accounts above named were correct and that the assets of the Diocese were properly accounted for. These reports were placed in the hands of the Bishop of the Diocese.

In view of the fact that the books of the Corporation, and of the Treasurer, of the Diocese were so audited for the major portion of the past year; and in view of the recommendation made by your Committee in its last annual report, that the annual audit of these books should in future be made by a certified accountant, your Committee, with the approval of the Bishop of the Diocese, has employed Mr. Simmers to complete the annual examination. The Committee herewith submits the report of Mr. Simmers as to the accounts stated.

Agreeably to the wishes of the Committee on Church Pension Fund, the Auditing Committee has examined the accounts of the Treasurer of that fund, Mr. C. M. Gair, finding them correct; and that all money received has been promptly remitted to the Church Pension Fund in New York.

Your Committee has also examined the accounts of the Nation-Wide Campaign for the Diocese of Los Angeles, at the request of Mr. Wm. F. Knight, Treasurer. It finds all in good order, with receipts and disbursements duly accounted for; also that the report of the Treasurer to this Convention is in agreement with his books.

Respectfully submitted.

HENRY E. BRETT, Chairman.

ROBT. H. LINDSAY,

C. J. WALKER,

January 26th, 1921.

January 24, 1921.

*To the Twenty-sixth Annual Convention of the Diocese of Los Angeles,
Los Angeles, California.*

Dear Sirs:

I have examined the books of the Corporation of the Diocese of Los Angeles for the period beginning January 17, 1920, and ending January 17, 1921, and beg to send you herewith the following Exhibits:

Exhibit 1—Balance Sheet as at January 17, 1921.

Exhibit 2—Income Statement, January 17, 1920, to January 17, 1921.

Exhibit 3—Statement of receipts and disbursements, January 17, 1920 to January 17, 1921.

Exhibit 4—Summary of investments.

BALANCE SHEET

ASSETS—EPISCOPATE ENDOWMENT FUND

During the period, mortgage loans to the value of $8,800.00, and bonds and treasury certificates to the value of $5,092.00 were realized, and Liberty Bonds to the value of $16,874.00 were purchased. The investments made were greater than the investments realized by $2,982.00. This increase consisted of new capital received $277.38, and cash drawn from bank $2,704.62, the bank balance at the beginning of the period $2,781.69 being reduced thereby to $77.07 at the close of the period.

The securities of the corporation were examined by me and found in order. A summary of the investments now held will be found in Exhibit 4. The cash in bank was verified by the bank statement.

LIABILITIES

During the year, the Episcopate Endowment Fund was increased by $263.13, consisting of:

The annual collection	$243.38
Profit on Mortgage Guarantee Co. note.....	34.00
	$277.38
Less loss on sale of Liberty Bonds.....	14.25
	$263.13

INCOME STATEMENT

The income statement shows an increase in the income of 1920 over 1919 of $2,220.58, due principally to the collection of overdue interest on the Central Milling Co. loan. There was no income overdue at January 17, 1921.

STATEMENT OF RECEIPTS AND DISBURSEMENTS

All moneys received were lodged in bank, and vouchers and cancelled checks were examined by me for all disbursements. I compared the transfer of funds to the books of the Treasurer of the Diocese and found the same accounted for.

Having fully audited the books, I now certify that the Balance Sheet herewith is in my opinion properly drawn up so as to show the true financial position of the Corporation at January 17, 1921, and that the Income Statement, the Statement of Receipts and Disbursements and the Summary of Investments are fairly and correctly stated.

Yours very truly,
JOHN A. SIMMERS.

I have examined the books and vouchers of the Treasurer of the Diocese of Los Angeles for the period from January 17, 1920, to January 17, 1921, and have prepared therefrom the foregoing Statements. All funds received were properly vouched and have been paid into the Treasurer's Bank Account, and vouchers or cancelled checks have been produced in support of all disbursements. The amount paid to the Treasurer of the Diocese by the Corporation of the Diocese as shown on their books agreed with the amounts shown on the books of the Treasurer of the Diocese. The balance in bank at January 17, 1921, reconciled with the statement of the First National Bank of Los Angeles, was $15,781.01, applicable as follows:

Diocese of Los Angeles	$ 1,433.07

CLERICAL REPORTS

St. Mary's Chapel,
The Bishop's School for Girls,
La Jolla, California.

*The Right Reverend Joseph H. Johnson, D.D.,
Bishop of Los Angeles:*

The undersigned, as Chaplain of the Bishop's School for Girls, La Jolla, respectfully reports as follows for the year 1920:

Daily Evensong has been conducted during the School year (with the exception of Saturdays); Holy Communion on the First and Third Sundays at 7:30 A. M. Special Morning Service on the first and last days of each term.

Five of the pupils were baptized and thirteen confirmed.

The exemplary deportment of the pupils of this institution at the services of the Parish Church and in the Chapel of the School has been a subject of no little favorable comment during the year.

Respectfully submitted,

WILLIAM BEDFORD-JONES, Chaplain.

January 1, 1921.

Cedar-Pine Lodge,
Grossmont, San Diego Co., Cal.,
February 9, 1921.

*The Rt. Rev. Joseph H. Johnson, D.D.,
Los Angeles, Calif.*

Rt. Rev. Bishop:

Making my annual report for year ending January 1st, would state that during the past year I have been acting as Chaplain for the Sisters of the Order of the Incarnation at Grossmont, as my strength has permitted. I have not accepted any invitations to officiate at churches, wedding, or funerals, with one exception. Some months ago I resigned as father-general of the said Order and was appointed Chaplain-General by the Mother Superior, thus relieving me of much extra work.

Respectfully yours,

ALFRED K. GLOVER, Chaplain.

414 North Monterey Street.
Alhambra, Cal., Jan. 25, 1921.

*The Right Rev. Joseph H. Johnson, D.D.,
Los Angeles, Cal.*

Dear Bishop Johnson:

During the year 1920, I have assisted at the celebration of Holy Communion fifteen times and at five other services at Holy Trinity Church, Alhambra; assisted at one morning service, Sunday, July 11, at Chapel, County Farm; and assisted at one marriage at the Church of the Angels, Los Angeles,

Have been able to attend most of the services at Holy Trinity Church, Alhambra, during the year; help in the Church School and the Brotherhood of St. Andrew.

Sincerely yours,

ISAAC HOLGATE.

Los Angeles, Cal., January 10, 1921.

To the Rt. Rev. Joseph H. Johnson, D.D.,

Bishop of Los Angeles.

My Dear Bishop:

I beg leave to submit my report of services rendered by me during the Convention year ending December 31, 1920.

ST. STEPHEN'S CHURCH, LOS ANGELES

Holy Communion	31
Baptism	1
Other services	53

In addition to the above-named services I officiated at a marriage in Kansas City, Mo., June 26th. On the Sixth Sunday after Trinity I celebrated the Holy Communion at Grace Church, Chicago. On the following Sunday I offered the Holy Eucharist at Chiloway, N. Y., at the home of a family isolated from church privileges. On the Ninth Sunday after Trinity I preached and celebrated the Holy Eucharist at Grace Church, Earlville, N. Y.

Very respectfully,

W. F. HUBBARD,

Chaplain U. S. A., Retired.

San Rafael Heights, Pasadena,

January 21, 1921.

The Rt. Rev. Joseph H. Johnson, D.D.,

Bishop of Los Angeles.

My Dear Bishop:

By the ordering of a kind Providence my residence in your hospitable Diocese has been continued during the past year.

I have administered the Holy Communion three times, to the sick, have baptized one infant, have solemnized two marriages, and have assisted nearly every Sunday in services at the Church of the Angels.

Respectfully yours,

C. W. LEFFINGWELL.

1304 Curson Ave., Hollywood,

Los Angeles, Cal., Jan. 25, 1921.

The Rt. Rev. Joseph H. Johnson, D.D.,

Los Angeles, Cal.

My Dear Bishop:

I beg to submit the report of services rendered by me during the canonical year 1920. I have celebrated the Holy Communion twenty-six times; read Morning Prayer five times and assisted once; preached twenty times; marriages, two; baptisms, one; funerals, one, and assisted twice. These services were rendered at Eagle Rock, Culver City, Torrance, Van Nuys; Redeemer, Los Angeles; St. Thomas' Church, Los Angeles; St. Peter's, San Pedro.

Sincerely yours,

DUNCAN F. MACKENZIE.

2838 North Griffin Avenue,
Los Angeles, Cal., February 5, 1921.

The Right Rev. Joseph H. Johnson, D.D., S.T.D., Bishop of Los Angeles.

My Dear Bishop:

During the past canonical year I have officiated at Christ Church, Ontario, and at the Neighborhood Settlement, St. Matthias' Church and the Church of the Epiphany, Los Angeles, and at St. Stephen's Church, Hollywood. I also conducted one funeral which is included in the report of services at St. Paul's Pro-Cathedral, Los Angeles.

Respectfully submitted,

TIMON E. OWENS.

Sept. 6, 1920.

*The Rt. Rev. Joseph H. Johnson, D.D.,
Los Angeles, Cal.*

Dear Bishop Johnson:

I herewith tender my report of services rendered for the period since January, 1920, as follows:

SUGGESTIONS AS TO GIFTS, BEQUESTS OR DEVISES TO DIOCESAN INSTITUTIONS AND CHARITABLE AND RELIGIOUS PURPOSES UNDER THE AUSPICES OF THE CHURCH

The Diocesan Corporation, known in law as "The Protestant Episcopal Church in the Diocese of Los Angeles," is the Trustee under the Canons of all the permanent invested funds of the Diocese, that is:

The Episcopate Endowment Fund;

The Diocesan Missionary Endowment Fund.

The Diocesan Corporation is also the Trustee to which should be conveyed all property for the benefit and use of the organized Missions of the Diocese under the trusts provided in the Canons.

The Bishop of the Diocese is incorporated as a corporation sole under the name of "The Bishop of the Protestant Episcopal Church in Los Angeles" present incumbent, Joseph Horsfall Johnson, and is authorized to receive and administer the respective funds and property, for the use and benefit of the Church in the Diocese which may be intrusted to him, including all religious, benevolent or educational objects connected therewith. All gifts, bequests or devises for the establishment of the Cathedral, or of schools under the auspices of the Church, will be received and held by the Bishop, as corporation sole, until the incorporation of the several and appropriate corporations authorized to receive and administer the respective funds and property.

"The Hospital of the Good Samaritan" is the corporate title of the hospital organization, which is organized and conducted under the auspices of Church people, and is officially connected with the Diocese.

Free beds in perpetuity may be endowed in the hospital upon the payment of $10,000, or gifts, bequests or devises for the benefit of the hospital may be made to the Corporation.

"The Church Extension Society of the Diocese of Los Angeles."

The Bishop's School for Girls (upon Scripps foundation), La Jolla.

The Harvard School for Boys (upon Emery foundation), Los Angeles.

The Church Home for Children, Los Angeles.

The Neighborhood Settlement, Los Angeles.

The County and City Mission Society, Los Angeles.

The Seamen's Institute, San Pedro.

The Girls' Friendly Society, Los Angeles.

The Church Home for the Aged, Los Angeles.

ORDER OF BUSINESS OF THE CONVENTION OF THE DIOCESE OF LOS ANGELES

(1) The Secretary, under the direction of the Chair, shall announce that he has received attendance slips from one-third of the Clergy entitled to seats and votes in the Convention; and if he shall have received less than one-third of such slips, then and in that case he shall call over the names of the Clergy entitled to seats and votes.

(2) The Secretary shall announce that he has received attendance slips from one-third of the Parishes and Missions entitled to representation, and, if he shall have received less than one-third of such attendance slips, he shall then call over the Parishes and Missions entitled to representation, and shall submit the certificates of the Lay-Delegates-elect from such Parishes and Missions to the Committee on Credentials; and all irregular and defective certificates, together with all certificates and documents relating to contested seats, shall be reported by name or title only, and laid aside until the appointed place in the Order of Business.

(3) A quorum being present, the presiding officer shall declare the Convention organized for business.

(4) In the case of a vacancy, the election of a presiding officer as provided by the Constitutions of this Diocese.

(5) The election of a Secretary and the appointment of an Assistant Secretary.

On the third day, and any subsequent day, after Morning Prayer, THIRD DAY
the Order of Business shall be:

- (1) The reading and approving of the minutes.
- (2) Reports not presented before.
- (3) Miscellaneous Business.

Before the rising of the Convention, the minutes of the last day's meeting shall be read and approved, and the presiding officer shall then bid the Convention to such closing devotions as he shall deem appropriate.

Note:—When it is desired that an evening meeting of the Convention shall be held, a resolution to that effect must be adopted before 5:00 o'clock in the afternoon of that day.

RULES OF ORDER OF THE CONVENTION OF THE DIOCESE OF LOS ANGELES

MOTIONS

No motion shall be considered as before the Convention until seconded and stated to the Convention by the presiding officer. If not presented in writing, the President, or any member of the Convention, may require the motion to be reduced to writing before being presented to the Convention. After a motion is in possession of the Convention the mover cannot modify or withdraw it without the consent of the Convention.

OF ORDER MOTIONS

When a question is before the Convention, no motion shall be received but to lay it upon the table, to take a vote thereon at a certain time, to postpone to a certain time, to postpone indefinitely, to commit or to amend; which motions shall have precedence in the order named. The motion to take a vote at a certain time shall be decided without debate.

AMEND- MENTS

When a motion is under consideration, a motion to amend, a motion to amend that amendment, and a motion for a substitute for both amendments shall be in order. These motions shall be considered and voted upon in the reverse order in which they are received.

RULE 4

NON- DEBATABLE MOTIONS

The following motions shall not be debatable: to adjourn (which shall always be in order when no member is speaking), to lay on the table, to take from the table, to close debate, to extend the limits of debate, an objection to the consideration of a question, a call for the order of the day, to reconsider an undebatable question, to fix the time of adjournment, to postpone to a certain time, to permit the withdrawal of a motion, and to suspend the rules. If a motion to lay an amendment on the table be carried, the matter before the Convention shall be proceeded with as if no amendment had been offered.

RULE 5

DIVISION OF QUESTION

If a question under consideration contains several distinct propositions, the same may be divided on the request of any member, subject to the decision of the presiding officer that the division proposed can be made. If objection is made to such division, a motion to divide may be put before the Convention. When a motion for a division is made, the mover must specify the manner in which he desires the question to be divided. A motion to strike out and insert shall be indivisible.

RULE 6

SPEAKING

No member may speak more than once on the same question, nor longer than fifteen minutes. By consent of three-fourths of the members the Convention may grant leave to a member to speak a second time on the same question, but no longer than ten minutes. A Chairman of a Committee, or the mover of a resolution, presenting a report, shall be permitted an opening and a closing speech on every question submitted for action, but not to exceed ten minutes for each speech, unless special leave be given by the Convention to extend the time.

A member may speak for not longer than two minutes, when nominating a candidate for election to any office.

A member desiring to make a nomination shall rise and receive the recognition of the Chair before naming his candidate.

RULE 7

Every member present shall vote, whenever a question is put, unless excused by the Convention on account of his being personally interested in the result, or for other cause.

MEMBERS MUST VOTE

RULE 8

The vote shall be taken by ayes and noes, or by orders when called for by five members, and shall, in such case, be entered on the minutes.

MANNER OF VOTING

RULE 9

In taking the vote by orders it shall be the right of any member of the delegation, who may dissent from the vote of the majority of the delegation, to have the fact of his dissent recorded in the minutes.

INDIVIDUAL VOTE MAY

RULE 10

In all questions decided numerically, a motion to reconsider must be made by one member, and seconded by another, who voted in the majority. In all questions decided by a vote by orders, a motion to reconsider, if made by a Clergyman voting in the majority, must be seconded by a Lay-Delegate voting in the majority; and if made by a Lay-Delegate, it must be seconded by a Clergyman voting in the majority. A motion to reconsider must be made within twenty-four hours after the vote was taken. When a motion to reconsider a vote prevails, the question is again before the Convention as if no vote had been taken upon it. No question shall be reconsidered more than once.

RECONSID-ERATION

RULE 11

All Special Committees shall be appointed by the President, unless otherwise ordered.

SPECIAL COMMITTEE

RULE 12

The reports of all Committees shall be in writing. If a report is received by the Convention when presented, it may at once be acted on, or laid on the table for future consideration. The reception of a report by the Convention does not adopt it or its recommendations. If it is desired that a report, or its recommendations, shall become the action of the Convention, a resolution or resolutions to that effect must accompany it. When the report of a Special Committee is acted upon by the Convention, the Committee ceases to exist.

REPORTS OF

When a member is called to order by the President, or by another member rising to a point of order, he shall immediately take his seat unless permitted to explain. All questions of order shall be determined by the President; but any member may appeal from the decision of the Chair, and on such appeal no member may speak more than once without leave of the Convention.

POINTS OF ORDER

RULE 14

The prescribed Order of Business shall not be departed from, nor shall any Rule of Order be suspended or changed, unless by a vote of two-thirds of the members present. Nor shall any Rule of Order, or Order of Business, be changed without one day's previous notice to that effect, except by unanimous consent, provided that a motion to suspend the Rule of Order, in order to direct the Secretary to cast the ballot of the Convention, shall require the unanimous consent of the Convention.

CHANGING RULES

RULE 15

The majority of a quorum shall always be required to elect an officer.

RULE 16

The President of the Convention may appoint a Standing Committee on Rules of Order. All proposed changes in the Rules of Order shall be referred to such Committee, if appointed, for consideration and report. When questions of order are raised, which are not provided for by these rules, the President, if he so desires, may refer such questions to the Committee on Rules for their opinion. "Roberts' Rules of Order" shall be the parliamentary guide in all cases not provided for in the foregoing rules.

RULE 17

In all elections required to be made by concurrent votes of both orders, the ballots of the Clerical Order shall first be counted and the list of the person or persons elected by said order shall be declared; the ballots of the Lay Order shall next be counted and the list of the person or persons elected by said order shall be declared. Any person or persons whose name or names shall appear on both of the said lists of persons elected shall be declared elected by the Convention, and no person shall be declared elected by the Convention unless he shall have been so elected by the vote of each order considered separate and apart from the other order.

RULE 18

All resolutions carrying appropriations shall be presented during the first half hour of the afternoon session of the First Day.

RULE 19

All printed reports shall be delivered to the Secretary for distribution at the opening of the afternoon session on the First Day, and five minutes only shall be allotted for hearing a summary of each printed report when called up: This provision is not to apply to the Report of the Committee on Canons, or the Report of the Finance Committee.

RULE 20

Contemplated resolutions likely to involve debate shall be filed with the Committee on the Dispatch of Business before the opening of any session so that provision may be made in the Calendar for their consideration.

In Memoriam

WILLIAM HENRY WOTTON,
ALFORD AUGUSTUS BUTLER, D.D.,
FREDERICK AUGUSTUS JUNEY, Priests

William Henry Wotton passed to his rest on March 21st, 1920, in this city, after a lingering illness most patiently borne for many years.

The Rev. Mr. Wotton was born in Worcester, England, and at an early age removed to Canada; where, while a candidate for Holy Orders, he was engaged in most successful work for three years as principal of the Church of England Indian Homes at Sault Ste. Marie, Ontario.

Removing to Detroit, Michigan, he was ordained deacon in 1887, by Bishop Harris and, two years later, was ordained priest by Bishop Worthington. Engaging in missionary work for five years, he became rector of St. John's Church, Grand Haven, in 1892, and from 1893 to 1899 was rector of Trinity Church, Janesville, Wisconsin.

Coming to this Diocese in 1898 he served at St. Paul's Pro-Cathedral, and later at St. Athanasius' and then at St. Luke's Church, Los Angeles. In 1900 he became rector of the Church of the Messiah, Santa Ana, where he continued until 1912. Called in that year to the rectorship of St. James' Church, South Pasadena, he did a notable work in the enlargement of the Church. After more than six years' successful work he was seized with an incurable illness, which eventually led to his resignation and retirement.

More than twenty years of his faithful ministry in the Church of God had been spent in this Diocese; and, coming in the earlier years of Diocesan life, he had a large part in laying the foundations; which shall endure—when the faithful laborers have been called to their rest in the Paradise of God.

Dr. Alford Augustus Butler, having retired from active service for many years because of increasing infirmities, died in Redlands on May 27th.

Dr. Butler was born in Portland, Maine, in 1845, and was educated at Griswold College, Davenport, Iowa. He was ordained priest in 1874; and was rector, successively, of Grace Church, Cedar Rapids, Iowa; Trinity Church, Bay City, Michigan; the Church of the Epiphany, New York; and Christ Church, Red Wing, Minnesota.

His most notable work, however, was educational; and, in 1894, he became warden of Seabury Divinity School, occupying the chair of Liturgics, Homiletics and Religious Pedagogy, for eleven years, when failing health forced his retirement.

Removing to Southern California in 1908, he continued his educational work as health permitted, and was the author of many standard works for the training of young people in Scriptural truths, and for use in the Church School. His services to the Church, as an educator, have been valuable and will endure.

In the death of the Rev. Frederick Augustus Juny, which occurred in Los Angeles on September 6th, the Church of the Diocese has lost one who for many years faithfully served the Church in Trinity Mission, Escondido, until ill health compelled his resignation and retirement.

Mr. Juny was ordained deacon by Bishop Quintard, of Tennessee, in 1883; and priest by Bishop Gailer, of the same Diocese, in 1887.

After ministering in several Eastern Dioceses, Mr. Juny removed to Southern California in 1908, first having charge of St. Michael's Church, Anaheim. In 1911 he was appointed to Trinity Church, Escondido, where he rendered faithful service until the conclusion of his active ministry in 1918.

"Grant them, O Lord, eternal rest,
And let light perpetual shine upon them."

Adopted 1897 to 1921 inclusive

THE CONSTITUTIONS OF THE Diocese of Los Angeles

As Adopted 1896

And Added to or Amended 1897 to 1921
Inclusive

ARTICLE I.

The Title and Territory of the Diocese

§ 1. This Diocese shall be known and distinguished as the "Diocese of Los Angeles;" and its territory shall embrace that portion of the State of California comprised within the Counties of San Bernardino, Ventura, Los Angeles, Santa Barbara, Riverside, Orange, San Diego and Imperial.

ARTICLE II.

Acceding to the Constitution of the General Convention

§ 2. The Church in the Diocese of Los Angeles accedes to the Constitution of that branch of the Holy Catholic Church, known in law as the Protestant Episcopal Church in the United States of America, and recognizes the authority of the General Convention of the same.

ARTICLE III.

The Authority of the Diocese

§ 3. The authority of this Diocese is vested in and exercised by its Bishop (and Bishop Coadjutor, if there be one), its Conventions, annual and special, and its Standing Committee, acting under and in subordination to the Protestant Episcopal Church in the United States of America, its General Convention, Constitution, Canons and Regulations.

ARTICLE IV.

The Bishop

§ 5. The Bishop is the Ecclesiastical Authority of this Diocese.

§ 6. The Bishop is the Chief Pastor thereof, and can officiate in the offices of the Church within any Mission or Parish, or elsewhere in this Diocese.

§ 7. The Bishop is the ordinary of all religious or benevolent organizations of the Church within this Diocese, and as such may attend and preside at any of their meetings, and has appellate jurisdiction over their proceedings, so far as is consistent with the law of the State.

§ 8. Whenever the Bishop shall issue a Pastoral Letter, it shall be the duty of every Minister in charge of a congregation, on the Sunday succeeding its receipt, to read said letter to his congregation at Morning or Evening Prayer.

§ 9. All controversies between the Rectors of two or more Parishes, or between a Parish, or its Vestry, and its Rector; or between persons adversely claiming to be Vestrymen of a Parish, shall be referred to the Ecclesiastical Authority for determination.

ARTICLE V.

Annual and Special Conventions

§ 12. The Church in this Diocese shall assemble in Convention on the Wednesday next following the twenty-fifth day of January of every year, at such place as the previous Convention shall appoint.

§ 13. The Bishop shall have power to call a Special Convention; and if he be incapable of acting, or the Episcopate be vacant, the Special Convention shall be called by the Standing Committee. The time, place, and purpose of a Special Convention shall be designated by the Ecclesiastical Authority calling it, and no business other than that stated in the call shall be transacted, except by unanimous consent.

§ 14. Thirty days' notice shall be given of the meeting of every Annual or Special Convention, by the Secretary of the Convention or, in case of a vacancy in this office, by the Secretary of the Standing Committee. The mode of notice shall be a circular, addressed to every Clergyman, and to the Clerk of every Parish and Mission of this Diocese.

§ 15. For satisfactory reasons, the Ecclesiastical Authority may change the time and place of Convention, in accordance with the foregoing section of this Article.

ARTICLE VI.

The Members of the Convention

§ 18. The Convention shall be composed of Clergymen and Laymen.

§ 19. The Bishop and the Bishop Coadjutor, if there be one, shall have a seat and a vote in the Convention.

§ 20. Every Clergyman in regular standing, who is canonically connected with the Diocese, shall be entitled to a seat in the Convention; but the right to speak and vote shall belong only to such Clergyman in regular standing as shall have been for six months actually and canonically a resident of this Diocese; provided, that at the time of the Convention he shall be actually settled as Rector or Assistant Minister, or shall be recognized as a Missionary by the Bishop or Ecclesiastical Authority of the Diocese, or shall be engaged as an instructor in some seminary or college under the auspices of the Church, or shall be a Chaplain in the army or navy of the United States. A Clergyman's canonical residence shall date from his ordination within the Diocese, or from the date of acceptance of his letter of transfer by the Ecclesiastical Authority of the Diocese.

A Clergyman once entitled to a seat and a vote shall not be deprived of these privileges because disabled from the functions of his office by age or infirmity, or by being temporarily without charge; provided, that the latter reason shall not apply to a Clergyman exclusively engaged in secular work.

§ 21. The Lay Members shall consist of male Delegates, not exceeding five, from each Parish and Mission in union with the Convention. The Lay Delegates from each Parish shall be chosen by the Vestry thereof, and the Lay-Delegates from each Mission shall be chosen by the members thereof; provided, that no person shall be competent to serve as a Lay-Delegate, unless he has been a qualified voter of the Parish or Mission he represents, during the six calendar months next before his election. Each Parish and Mission may at its discretion elect Alternate Delegates.

§ 22. No person under Ecclesiastical censure or process, whether Clergyman or Layman, shall be allowed a seat in the Convention.

ARTICLE VII.

The Opening of the Convention

§ 24. Every Convention shall be opened with the celebration of the Holy Communion, and a sermon. The Bishop shall appoint the celebrant and the preacher, unless the Bishop shall himself elect to officiate or preach, or deliver a charge. In case of the incapability or absence of the Bishop, or of a vacancy in the Episcopate, the celebrant and the preacher shall be appointed by the Standing Committee.

ARTICLE VIII.

The President of the Convention

§ 25. The Bishop of this Diocese is ex officio President of the Convention. In the absence of the Bishop, the Bishop Coadjutor, if there be one, shall preside. In case the Bishop and the Bishop Coadjutor, if there be one, shall be absent or incapable of acting, a President pro tempore shall be elected from among the Presbyters of the Convention.

ARTICLE IX.

The Secretary of the Convention

§ 27. At each Annual Convention a Secretary shall be elected from among the Clerical Members thereof, who shall continue in office until a successor be appointed. The duties of the Secretary shall be those prescribed in Section 14 of these Constitutions, and in the Canons of this Diocese, together with such other duties as may devolve upon him by resolution of the Convention.

§ 28. The Secretary shall appoint an Assistant Secretary from among the members of the Convention.

§ 29. In the absence of the Secretary, his duties shall devolve upon the Assistant Secretary, if there be one; if not, upon the Secretary of the Standing Committee.

ARTICLE X.

The Treasurer

§ 31. The Treasurer of the Diocesan Corporation shall be ex officio Treasurer of the Diocese.

§ 32. The duties of the Treasurer of the Diocese shall be those prescribed by the Canons of this Diocese, together with such other duties as may devolve upon him by resolution of the Convention.

§ 33. When not a delegate to the Convention, the Treasurer shall be entitled, ex officio, to all the rights and privileges of membership, except that of a vote.

ARTICLE XI.

The Registrar of the Diocese

§ 34. At each Annual Convention, a Registrar shall be elected from among the Presbyters thereof, who shall continue in office until a successor be appointed. The duties of the Registrar shall be those prescribed by the Canons of this Diocese, together with such other duties as may devolve upon him by resolution of the Convention.

ARTICLE XII.

The Chancellor of the Diocese

§ 36. At each Annual Convention the Bishop shall appoint a Layman, a communicant of the Church, who shall be known as the Chancellor of the Diocese and shall be the adviser of the Bishop in all legal affairs.

ARTICLE XIII.

The Historiographer of the Diocese

§ 37. At each meeting of the Convention after the triennial meeting of the General Convention, an Historiographer shall be elected from among the Presbyters thereof, who shall continue in office until a successor be appointed. The duties of the Historiographer shall be those prescribed in the Canons of this Diocese, together with such other duties as may devolve upon him by resolution of the Convention.

ARTICLE XIV.

The Standing Committee

§ 38. At each Annual Convention there shall be elected by the concurrent votes of both orders, Clerical and Lay, a Standing Committee, to consist of four Presbyters and four Laymen, who shall continue in office until their successors are appointed.

§ 39. When the Diocese is without a Bishop, or in case of the inability to act of the Bishop and Bishop Coadjutor, if there be one, the Standing Committee shall be the Ecclesiastical Authority for all purposes declared in the General and Diocesan Canons; and in case of the absence from the Diocese of the Bishop and the Bishop Coadjutor, if there be one, the Standing Committee, if authorized so to act under the Episcopal hand and seal, shall in like manner be the Ecclesiastical Authority.

§ 40. The Clerical members of the Standing Committee must be qualified members of the Convention, and the Lay Members of the Committee must be communicants of the Church in this Diocese.

§ 41. The powers, functions, and duties of the Standing Committee shall be those prescribed by the Canons of the General Committee of the Protestant Episcopal Church in the United States of America, and by the Canons of this Diocese.

ARTICLE XV.

The Deputies to the General Convention

§ 43. At the Annual Convention next preceding the triennial session of the General Convention, there shall be elected by the concurrent votes of both orders, Clerical and Lay, four Clerical and four Lay Deputies, who shall represent this Diocese in the said General Convention, and who shall continue in office until their successors are appointed. The Clerical Deputies shall be Presbyters canonically connected with this Diocese, and the Lay Deputies shall be resident communicants of some Parish or Mission within its limits, in union with the Convention or recognized by the Ecclesiastical Authority.

§ 44. At the same Convention there shall be chosen, in the same manner and with the same qualifications as prescribed in Section 43 of this Article, four Clergymen and four Laymen, who shall serve as Alternate Deputies.

§ 45. The Ecclesiastical Authority shall designate one or more of the Alternate Deputies, as the case may require, to fill any vacancy or vacancies which may in any way occur in the representation of this Diocese.

ARTICLE XVI.

Mode of Election

§ 46. The mode of election of all officers provided for in these Constitutions, save the Chancellor of the Diocese, shall be by ballot.

ARTICLE XVII.

The Transaction of Business

§ 47. In all matters which shall come before the Convention, the Clergy and the Laity shall deliberate in one body; and in voting by orders the Clergy shall vote as individuals, and the Laity by Parishes and Missions, the delegation from each Parish or Mission being entitled to one vote and no more; and when voting jointly, a majority of the votes of the members present shall be decisive, except as otherwise specified in these Constitutions; provided, that in any case where it shall be demanded by five votes (Clerical or Lay, or both), the two orders shall vote separately, and their concurrence shall be necessary to constitute a decision.

ARTICLE XVIII.

The Admission of Parishes and Missions

§ 48. A Parish may be admitted into union with the Convention, on motion, by a majority of votes; provided, it shall have presented to the Convention a certificate from the Bishop of this Diocese, or, if there be no Bishop, from the Standing Committee, stating that he or they approve of the organization of such Parish; also a Constitution subscribed by the Wardens, in which such Parish expressly accedes to the Constitution, Canons, doctrine, discipline and worship of the Protestant Episcopal Church in the United States of America, and to the Constitutions and Canons of the Church in the Diocese of Los Angeles; also, satisfactory evidence that it is regularly organized, with not less than five Vestrymen nor more than eleven, of whom two shall be Wardens; also, that the Parish is able to support a Rector without Missionary aid.

§ 49. A Mission may be admitted into union with the Convention, on motion, by a majority of votes; provided, it shall have presented to the Convention a certificate from the Bishop of this Diocese, or, if there be no Bishop, from the Standing Committee, stating that such Mission is duly organized.

ARTICLE XIX.

The Forfeiture of Privileges

§ 50. Whenever any Parish in union with the Convention shall neglect, for three successive years, to make a Parochial report to the same, no Missionary report being made in its behalf, or during a like period shall neither have employed a Clergyman as its Parish Minister, nor requested of the Ecclesiastical Authority the services of a Missionary, or whenever any Parish in union with the Convention shall have persistently disregarded or refused to conform to any of the Canons of the Protestant Episcopal Church in the United States of America, or of the Church in this Diocese, due notice of such violation of Canon law having been given to such Parish by the Bishop, such Parish may be suspended from representation in the Convention, or its connection with this Diocese may be wholly dissolved by a two-thirds vote of each order, Clerical and Lay. Whenever in the opinion of the Bishop any Parish shall be liable to such forfeiture of privileges, he shall signify the same to the Convention in his annual address, and the Convention may thereupon proceed to suspend or dissolve such Parish, as the case may require.

ARTICLE XX.

The Election of a Bishop

§ 52. The election of a Bishop, or of a Bishop Coadjutor, for this Diocese shall be made in either an Annual or a Special Convention; provided, due notice of said election be given, as hereinafter provided.

§ 53. The call to elect a Bishop, or a Bishop Coadjutor, shall emanate from the Standing Committee, who shall give, through their Secretary, at least thirty days' written notice of such election to every Clergyman, Parish and Mission of this Diocese.

§ 54. The election shall be made in the following manner: The Clergy and the Laity shall vote by orders, and the election shall be by ballot. If two-thirds of all the Clergy entitled to vote be present, and two-thirds of all the Parishes and Missions entitled to vote be represented, then a majority of each order present shall determine a choice. If such two-thirds of the Clergy, Parishes and Missions be not present, then two-thirds of the votes of each order present shall be necessary to determine a choice; provided, that in all cases of the election of a Bishop or of a Bishop Coadjutor, no Clergyman shall be entitled to vote (Article VI of these Constitutions to the contrary notwithstanding) unless he shall have been, for at least six months immediately preceding the election, personally and canonically resident in this Diocese, and during all that time entitled to a seat and vote in the Convention of the same.

ARTICLE XXI.

Assessments

§ 55. The Convention shall have power to raise money by tax or assessment on the Parishes and Missions of this Diocese, by Canon or by Special Vote (for an assessment not provided for by Canon) for the regular expenses of this Diocese, and for such other purposes as the Convention may from time to time approve and direct; provided, a Special Vote shall be a two-thirds vote of each order, Clerical and Lay. The Convention shall also have the power to impose such penalty as may be deemed fit for neglect to pay such assessments when imposed.

ARTICLE XXII.

Authentication and Preservation of Canons

§ 56. The Secretary of the Convention shall procure and keep a suitable book, entitled "Constitutions and Canons of the Diocese of Los Angeles," in which shall be recorded these Constitutions, with the certificate of their adoption. All Constitutions, Canons, and additions thereto, hereafter adopted by the Convention, shall be certified to by the President and Secretary of the Convention, as having been duly adopted, and shall, with the certificate of adoption, be recorded in the said book, and the said book shall be taken and regarded as prima facie evidence of the due adoption and correctness of all papers recorded therein under this Article.

ARTICLE XXIII.

Alterations and Amendments

§ 58. These Constitutions may be altered, or amended, or added to, in the following manner: Any proposed alteration, amendment, or addition, which shall have been introduced in writing, setting forth the Article as amended, and duly considered and approved at an Annual Convention, shall be referred to the next Annual Convention for final consideration and action; and if then approved and adopted by the Convention, by a majority of both orders, voting separately, and concurred in by the Bishop, it shall become law, and these Constitutions shall be held as altered, amended, or added to, accordingly; provided, that the proposed alteration, amendment, or addition may be amended before its adoption by a two-thirds vote of the Convention to which it was finally submitted.

ARTICLE XXIV.

Incorporation

§ 60. The Church in this Diocese shall be incorporated under the laws of the State of California, under the name and title of "The Protestant Episcopal Church in the Diocese of Los Angeles."

ARTICLE XXV.

Repeal

§ 62. All previous Constitutions of this Convention and Diocese are hereby annulled and repealed.

In accordance with Article XXIII of these Constitutions, I hereby concur in the foregoing Constitutions, as adopted by the First Annual Convention, and amended by subsequent Conventions.

JOSEPH H. JOHNSON.

We, whose names are hereunto subscribed, do certify that the foregoing is a true and correct copy of the Constitutions of the Diocese of Los Angeles, as adopted in and by the First Annual Convention of said Diocese, held in St. Paul's Church, Los Angeles, on the 26th, 27th and 28th days of May, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and ninety-six; and as added to, or amended by, the Annual Conventions of 1897 to 1921, inclusive.

Witness our hands this first day of February, A. D., 1921, in the City and County of Los Angeles.

JOSEPH H. JOHNSON

President of the Convention.

ALFRED FLETCHER,

Secretary of the Convention.

THE CANONS
OF THE
Diocese of Los Angeles
As Adopted 1896

And Added to or Amended 1897 to 1921
Inclusive

THE CONVENTION

CANON I.

A Quorum

§ 1. No business shall be transacted at any Annual or Special Convention of the Diocese of Los Angeles unless a quorum be present; a quorum shall consist of one-third of the Clergy entitled to seats and votes in the Convention, together with one-third of the Parishes and Missions entitled to representation in the same.

§ 2. No business shall be transacted by any Standing or Special Committee of an Annual or Special Convention unless a quorum of such Committee shall be present, and said quorum shall be a majority of its members.

§ 3. In case a quorum is not present at any Annual or Special Convention, it is competent for the members present to adjourn from time to time, and, when a quorum of any Committee of any Convention is not present, a like course may be adopted.

CANON II.

Rules of Order

§ 5. In addition to the provisions of the Constitutions and Canons of this Diocese, further regulation of legislative action shall be by Rules of Order, which having been once adopted, shall continue in force until the same, in whole or in part, shall have been amended or repealed.

* For Order of Business see Appendix (Page 76).

CANON III.

The Clerical Members

§ 9. One week before the meeting of any Annual or Special Convention of this Diocese, the Bishop shall prepare, or cause to be prepared, a list of all the Clergymen of the Church canonically resident in this Diocese; annexing the names of their respective Parishes, Missions, or Chaplaincies, or of the institutions of learning in which they may be engaged; or, in the case of those who are not engaged as herein stated, their places of residence only; and such list shall be laid before the Convention on the first day of the meeting and be prefixed to the Journal. In the said list of Clergy, or in a list appended thereto, shall be declared the names of those Clergy entitled to seats and votes in the Convention, and such declaration shall be taken as presumptive evidence of the right of those who shall be thus indicated and of the right of none others.

§ 10. In case the Episcopate be vacant, or in case the Bishop be absent or incapable of acting, the duty of preparing the list of Clergy and list of clerical members of the Convention shall devolve upon the Standing Committee of this Diocese.

§ 11. When the right of any Clergyman of this Diocese to a seat in the Convention is claimed or disputed, either question shall be determined by the Convention, in accordance with the provisions of the Constitutions of this Diocese.

CANON IV.

The Lay-Delegates

§ 13. The appointment of Lay-Delegates to any Annual or Special Convention shall be certified in writing by the Rector or Clergyman in charge of the Parish or Mission of which they are the representatives, or, in his absence, by a Warden or by the Clerk of such Parish or Mission. Every certificate of the appointment of Lay-Delegates shall be substantially in the following form:

To the Convention of the Diocese of Los Angeles:

We hereby certify that, at a duly convened meeting, the Vestry of.....Parish (or the congregation of.....Mission), in....., County of....., held on the.....day of....., A. D. 192.....

[Here insert the names of Delegates] were duly elected to act as Lay-Delegates in the forthcoming Convention, and the following were elected, as Alternate Delegates:

We certify, further, that the said Delegates-elect are now and have been during the six calendar months next before their election connected with and qualified voters of the said.....Parish (Mission), and that they are not under ecclesiastical censure or process.

Witness our hands { Rector
this.....day of..... { Warden
A. D. 191..... { Clerk

And no other certificate or evidence of the appointment of any Lay-Delegate or Delegates than such as is herein required shall be allowed or received.

§ 14. The certificates of election of Lay-Delegates shall be forwarded to the acting Secretary of the Convention at least one week previous to the time appointed for its meeting, and from these certificates the Committee on Credentials shall prepare a list of the Lay-Delegates entitled to seats and votes in the Convention.

§ 15. No Parish or Mission which shall fail to pay its quota of the assessments provided, whether by these Canons or by a two-thirds vote of each order, Clerical and Lay, shall be entitled to representation in the Convention of this Diocese. But when the name of any delinquent Parish or Mission shall be read, as provided in the Order of Business, the Delegate or Delegates from such delinquent Parish or Mission may be admitted to a seat by vote of the Convention, upon the payment in full of the existing delinquency; or by vote of the Convention (after reference to the Committee on Finance for recommendations) the arrears may be remitted and the Delegate or Delegates seated. Any such penalty of forfeiture of seat or seats in the Convention shall terminate with the Convention at which the delinquency was reported.

§ 16. It is the duty of Lay-Delegates to attend the sessions of that Convention of which they are elected members, and to act for and in the name of the body delegating them, and their acts shall be binding upon the Parish or Mission which they represent.

CANON V.

The Officers of the Convention The Secretary

§ 20. In addition to the duties prescribed in the Constitutions of this Diocese, the Secretary of the Convention shall send to the Rector or Clergyman in charge of each Parish or Mission in union with this Convention blank certificates for the election of Lay-Delegates in the form prescribed in Section 13 of these Canons, at least thirty days prior to the time appointed for the meeting of any Annual or Special Convention of this Diocese; provided, that, if any such Parish or Mission be without a Clergyman, said blanks shall be sent to a Warden of the Parish or Mission.

§ 21. The Secretary of the Convention shall also take minutes of the proceedings of the Convention, and when approved he shall enter them in a proper book; he shall preserve the Journal and Records, attest the public acts of Convention, and faithfully deliver to his successor all books and papers which may be in his possession, relating to the affairs of the same. He shall also send annually a printed copy of the Journal of the Convention to each Bishop of the Church in the United States, to the Secretary of the House of Deputies of the General Convention, to each of the Secretaries of Diocesan Conventions, to each Clergyman canonically connected with the Diocese of Los Angeles, and to each Lay-Delegate of the Convention of the same, and he shall furnish to each Clergyman, upon his canonical admission to the Diocese, a copy of the Constitutions and Canons of the same. He shall also furnish a list of the members of every Committee, appointed ad interim, to the Chairman of such Committee, with a copy of the resolutions providing for it. He shall also send to the Registrar of the Diocese a correct and certified copy of the proceedings of that Convention for which he is elected, and fifty copies of the printed Journal of the said Convention, together with all Journals of other Diocesan Conventions and documents bearing upon the history of the Church at large, which he shall have received as Secretary during the year.

§ 22. The Secretary of the Convention shall also within thirty days after any Annual or Special Convention shall have adjourned, sine die, furnish to the Treasurer of the Diocese a certified statement of all accounts allowed by the Convention; he shall examine and certify to the Treasurer the bills for printing and other expenses of the Journal, and for any other official work which may be committed to him.

§ 23. The Secretary of the Convention shall also send to each General Convention a certificate of the appointment of Clerical and Lay-Deputies; and he shall perform such other duties as may be from time to time required of him, by authority of the General or Diocesan Convention.

The Treasurer

§ 26. The Treasurer of the Diocese shall have charge of all current funds belonging to the Diocese, as declared by the Canons, and pay them out only on warrants drawn by the Canonical authorities.

§ 27. The Treasurer shall give satisfactory security for the faithful discharge of his duties, in an amount to be fixed by the Finance Committee, to the Diocesan Corporation for the benefit of the Diocese, which bond shall be in addition to and separate from any bond which may be required of him in his capacity as Treasurer of the Diocesan Corporation.

§ 28. The Board of Directors of the Diocesan Corporation is hereby authorized and empowered to make such rules and regulations for the Treasurer of the Diocese to follow, as in their judgment shall seem just and necessary, and designate the depositaries and investments of the funds of the Diocese.

§ 29. The Treasurer of the Diocese shall present at each Annual Convention a written statement of his account with the several funds for the previous year. He shall close his several accounts twelve days before the meeting of the Annual Convention.

§ 30. The Treasurer of the Diocese shall notify the Treasurers of the several Parishes and Missions of their several assessments, within one month after the close of the Annual Convention, and also at least thirty days before the meeting of the next Annual Convention shall notify them of their respective dues and arrearages.

§ 31. The Treasurer of the Diocese shall present to the Board of Missions a monthly statement of the balances on hand, and such other reasonable information as it may desire.

§ 32. The books of the Treasurer of the Diocese shall always be open to the inspection of the Auditing Committee of the Convention, and of the Committees charged with the management of the several funds of the Diocese.

§ 33. The Auditing Committee of the Convention shall, twice in the year, viz., in the month of June, and during the twelve days before the meeting of the Annual Convention, and at such other times as they may deem advisable, make an examination of the books and accounts of the Treasurer, and shall verify the amount of funds received, disbursed, and held by him, and shall make an annual report of their findings to the Convention.

§ 34. The Treasurer of the Diocese shall receive a salary to be fixed annually by the Convention.

§ 35. The Secretary's Journals and records and the Treasurer's books shall be open at all times to the inspection of the Bishop, of the Standing Committee, and of the Convention or any Committee thereof.

CANON VI.

The Business of the Convention

§ 38. At the opening of each Annual Convention, after Divine Service, the Bishop, or, in case of his absence or inability to act, or of a vacancy in the Episcopate, the Senior Presbyter present in the Convention, shall take the chair, after which the procedure shall be according to an *Order of Business, which, having been once adopted, shall continue in force until the same, in whole or in part, shall have been amended, suspended or repealed.

CANON VII.

The Regular Committees of the Convention and Limitation of Authority of All Committees, Commissions, Boards, Officers and Agents

§ 43. (1) No regular or special committee, commission, board, officer, or agent, elected, appointed, or constituted by the Annual Convention of this Diocese, shall have authority to incur any financial obligation binding upon the Convention or the Diocese, in excess of the appropriation voted by the Convention to such regular or special committee, commission, board, officer, or agent, unless such authority be expressly given by the ecclesiastical authority of the Diocese, in writing, and approved, in writing, by the Finance Committee, specifying the amount and cause for which such financial obligation may be incurred; and the incurring of such financial obligation be thereafter authorized at a regularly held meeting of the members of the particular committee, commission, or board for whose benefit such authority is being sought.

(2) Every regular or special committee, commission, or board, elected, appointed, or constituted by the Annual Convention of this Diocese, shall, at its organization meeting, cause to be entered upon its Minutes a resolution limiting the authority of its members and officers in accordance with the provisions of paragraph (1) of Section 43 of this Canon.

§ 44. The Regular Committees of the Convention shall be as follows:

§ 45. A Committee on Credentials; to which may be referred all claims affecting the right to a seat or representative privilege in the Convention; to consist of the Secretary of the Convention and two Laymen.

§ 46. A Committee on the Incorporation of Parishes and organized Missions, and their admission into union with the Convention; to consist of one Clergyman and two Laymen.

§ 47. A Committee on Finance; to consist of five Laymen. It shall be the duty of this Committee to report to the Annual Convention a schedule of assessment upon the various Parishes and Missions of the Diocese for the Diocesan Assessment Fund in an aggregate amount sufficient to pay the salary of the Bishop and the Bishop Coadjutor, if there be one, for the ensuing year, and to meet the necessary expenses of the Convention.

Whenever, from special circumstances existing in any Parish or Mission, the assessment, computed on the regular basis, shall appear unduly burdensome, the Finance Committee may recommend such reduction in the assessment upon such Parish or Mission as shall appear just; provided, further that, whenever the Convention shall decide that any Mission or Parish is incapable of meeting its assessments, such assessments for the ensuing year shall be omitted.

The amount assessed upon each Parish and Mission shall be arrived at as follows:

(a) The total amount of the budget, or estimated amount needed, shall be determined, from which shall be deducted the estimated revenue of the Diocese.

(b) A flat assessment of $4.00 shall be levied upon each Parish and Mission.

(c) The balance needed to be raised shall be based upon the average current expenses, being the amount paid for ministerial and other salaries, organist, choir, sexton, lights, heating, and all other current parochial expenses incurred for conducting and maintaining the services, the care, preservation, ordinary repairs, and expenses of church buildings and parsonages and grounds, exclusive of interest paid and amounts paid on account of mortgage, funded debt, or for permanent improvements, as shown by the Annual Report of each Parish and Mission filed for the past three years, upon the following sliding scale:

- Class 1—Up to $500.00. The minimum percentage.
Class 2—$500.00 to $1,000.00. The minimum percentage, plus 1 per cent.
Class 3—$1,000.00 to $2,000.00. The minimum percentage, plus 2 per cent.
Class 4—$2,000.00 to $3,000.00. The minimum percentage, plus 3 per cent.
Class 5—Over $3,000.00. The minimum percentage, plus 4 per cent.

Provided, that if any Parish or Mission shall fail to furnish the Finance Committee of the Diocese with a copy of the financial part of its Annual Report filed that year, in the form provided in Canon XIII, Section 108, then the Finance Committee shall arbitrarily fix the amount of the assessment of each Parish or Mission. The Bishop, or in his absence, the President of the Standing Committee, shall appoint this Committee at least one week before the Annual Convention from the delegates thereto already chosen.

Whenever an annual contribution is made towards the expenses of any Parish or Mission by any one person or any one family in an amount exceeding $300, the Finance Committee, on request of said Parish or Mission, shall reduce the gross amount of annual expenses returned by said Parish or Mission by an amount equal to such excess, and the assessment on said Parish or Mission shall be based on the amount thus reduced.

(d) The Diocesan Missionary assessment upon each Parish and Mission shall be assessed by the method appointed in Section (c) of this Canon for the assessment; and the apportionment for Domestic and Foreign Missions shall be determined in the same manner.

It shall be the duty of this Committee:

1. To maintain general supervision of the financial affairs of the Diocese; to secure simplicity and accuracy in collection and disbursements of all funds, and co-operation between the various officers, trusts, and boards of the Convention; for which purpose it shall establish its own rules and keep a record of its meetings, all of which shall be submitted annually to the Convention.

2. To act as advisor of the Bishop in financial matters; and, upon request, as advisor to individual parishes within the Diocese or district.

3. To perform such other duties relating to the business affairs of the Diocese or district as may be referred to it.

§ 48. A Committee on Auditing; to consist of three Laymen to be appointed before or after the adjournment of the Convention by the Bishop or presiding officer of the Convention. This Committee shall sit during the recess of the Convention, and it shall be its duty to audit the accounts of the Treasurer, and of others having charge of funds belonging to the Diocese, as required by Canons or Resolutions of the Conventions.

§ 49. A Committee on Canons; to consist of three Clergymen and three Laymen, to which may be referred all proposed amendments or alterations of the Constitutions and Canons of this Diocese.

§ 50. A Committee on Christian Education; to consist of three Clergymen and two Laymen, to which may be referred all matters concerning educational work in this Diocese.

§ 51. There shall be a Commission of the Diocese to be known as the Commission on Seamen's Work, which shall be appointed by the Bishop, and shall consist of not less than three members, one of whom shall be a clergyman canonically resident in the Diocese.

It shall be the duty of the Commission to devise means to maintain work among seamen similar to the Seaman's Church Institute of America, and to submit a detailed report of its work to the Convention each year.

§ 52. A Committee on the State of the Church; to consist of two Clergymen and one Layman, to which may be referred all matters appertaining to the extension of the work of the Church in this Diocese, not specially assigned to any other Committee.

§ 53. A Committee on Unfinished Business; to consist of one Clergyman and two Laymen.

§ 54. The Bishop shall have the right to appoint any of the Regular Committees in advance of the meeting of the Convention, if occasion should require.

THE MISSION AND THE PARISH

CANON VIII.

The Mission

§ 60. The Bishop shall supervise and control all Missionary work within this Diocese. He shall, with the advice of the Board of Missions, establish and organize Missions, appoint all Missionaries, and transfer, suspend, or remove such Missionaries when not inconsistent with the General Canons of the Church.

§ 61. It shall be competent for any number of male adults, resident in any village, town, city, district, or ward, not within the limits of a Mission or Parish already organized, to be organized as a Mission, with the consent and under the authority and direction of the Bishop of this Diocese: (a) provided, that the Bishop may, with the consent of the Standing Committee, accept a cession of territory from any Parish and erect a Mission therein;

(b) And provided, further, when the increase of population in any Parish does, in the judgment of the Bishop, require the establishment of a Mission, he may, with the consent of the Standing Committee, detach from the Parish such an area as will provide, in their joint judgment, by means of the Parish Church and a new Mission, for the spiritual necessities of the said population, and erect a Mission therein.

And the Secretary of the Standing Committee shall notify the said Parish of the proposed detachment of territory, and any objections thereto shall be made in writing to the Bishop, and by him shall be laid before the Standing Committee for consideration. Within sixty days of the issuance of said notice by the Secretary, the Bishop and the Standing Committee shall make known their joint decision and, if it shall be in favor of detachment of the territory, the Bishop shall proceed to organize the Mission.

The organization of such Mission shall be effected by the appointment, by the Bishop, of a Warden, a Clerk, a Treasurer; and, thereafter, such officers shall be elected at the Annual Meeting of the Mission to be held on the Tuesday after the last Sunday in December, or as soon thereafter as possible, and at such meetings any person of lawful age, an attendant upon the services of the Mission, who for the previous sixty days shall have been registered a communicant, and any person of like age who shall have been a member of the congregation for a like period and shall have regularly contributed to the support of the Mission, the minimum amount of subscription to be prescribed by each Mission itself, shall be entitled to vote.

And in case of the death, removal, or resignation of any of the said officers during the term for which they have been elected, the Bishop shall fill such vacancy by his appointment.

§ 62. Upon the election of the officers of a Mission a certificate shall be promptly forwarded to the Bishop by the Clerk of the Mission, which shall set forth the names and addresses of the officers-elect, and also the sum of money which the said Mission is prepared to pledge monthly for the support of a Missionary.

§ 63. The members of each organized Mission shall, through their Treasurer, forward, on the Monday following the last Sunday of each month, to the Treasurer of the Diocese such sums as they shall have agreed to pay toward the stated salary of their Missionary, whether in their certificate to the Bishop or upon any subsequent occasion, and in case of failure the Board may withdraw the Missionary.

§ 64. Every Missionary of this Diocese shall be required to submit an annual report to the Bishop and to the Board of Missions a week before the first day's session of each Annual Convention, setting forth the condition and prospects of the Mission or Missions under his charge. He shall also keep a register of the Mission in all respects, so far as practicable, as provided in regard to the keeping of Parish Registers by Canon XII, Section 104.

§ 65. The title to real estate given to or purchased or in any way acquired by any Mission, for Church purposes, shall be vested in the Diocesan Corporation upon the following trusts and with the following powers:

(1) To hold the said property for the use of the said Mission so long as it shall continue to exist under the Canons of the Convention of said Diocese of Los Angeles; provided, that the said Mission shall make provisions for and pay all taxes, insurance, and other expenses pertaining to the care and preservation of such property and of the improvements thereon.

(2) In the event of circumstances arising which make it desirable to sell said property or any part thereof, the canonical officers of the Mission shall make written request to said Diocesan Corporation, to which not less than two-thirds of the members of said Mission shall signify their consent in writing, that said property or any part thereof be sold; then, in its discretion, the said Diocesan Corporation, trustee, with the consent of the Bishop and Standing Committee of the Diocese, as provided in Article IV of its By-Laws, may execute a deed of sale in the usual form; provided, however, that the proceeds of such sale shall be used exclusively for the acquisition of other property to be held for the use and benefit of said Mission—on conditions similar to those under which the property sold, together with improvements thereon, had been previously held; provided, that such sale shall be permitted by the Articles of Incorporation of the Corporation of the Diocese; and provided, further that, in case the Articles of Incorporation do not authorize the execution of a deed of sale of the property of any Mission, the Convention now instructs the Corporation to secure such amendment of its Articles as shall permit and authorize the execution of such deed of sale.

(3) Whenever the Canonical Officers of the Mission shall make written request to said Diocesan Corporation, to which two-thirds of the members of said Mission shall signify their assent in writing, that the said premises be mortgaged to secure money borrowed and advanced for the improvement of said premises for Church purposes; then, in its discretion, the said Diocesan Corporation, trustee, with the consent of the Bishop and Standing Committee of the Diocese, as provided in Article IV of its By-Laws, may execute a mortgage in usual form, covering said premises so held by it, to secure the payment of such loan; but all mortgages so made shall contain an express stipulation that said Diocesan Corporation shall not incur any corporate liability for the money so borrowed and received by said Mission, and that upon the foreclosure of such mortgage no judgment for deficiency shall be entered against said Corporation, trustee.

(4) Whenever the said Mission shall be erected into and become a Parish, in accordance with the provisions of the Constitutions and Canons of the said Diocese of Los Angeles, and shall be duly admitted as a Parish into union with the Convention of said Diocese, and shall be incorporated as a Religious Corporation, in accordance with the provisions of said Constitutions and Canons and under and by virtue of the laws of the State of California; then said trust shall terminate and said property shall vest in and belong to said Religious Corporation of such Parish; and the said Diocesan Corporation, trustee as aforesaid, shall execute a grant deed of conveyance of the said property to the said corporation of such Parish as evidence of and for the better assurance of Title.

(5) If the said Mission shall cease to exist and be dissolved in accordance with the provisions of the said Canons, and no Parish organization shall be effected and incorporated under said Canons and Laws as the successor of said Mission, and within the limits of its canonical boundaries, within the period of one year after said dissolution; then to hold, manage, control, sell, and convey the said property, and apply the same, or the proceeds thereof, to and for such beneficial use of the Protestant Episcopal Church in said Diocese of Los Angeles, as said trustee shall deem for the best interest of said Church, in accordance with the purposes and powers set forth in its Articles of Incorporation.

§ 66. The failure of the people of a Mission to fulfill any of its pledges made to the Bishop shall warrant him in withdrawing the Missionary and dissolving the organization, in which event he shall become the custodian of all the property of the Mission not held as provided in Section 65 of this Canon.

§ 67. When a Mission shall have ceased to hold services (and, having no register of communicants or list of contributors in accordance with the terms of Section 61 of this Canon, it is therefore incompetent to elect Lay-Delegates to any Convention of this Diocese)—an asterisk (*) shall be placed before the name of such Mission, denoting that it is inoperative; and it shall be removed by the Bishop from the voting list of Parishes and Missions—such disability to be withdrawn and the name of the Mission to be restored on the voting list, when it shall have resumed holding services and shall have come again under the terms of Section 61 of this Canon.

CANON IX.

The Parish

§ 69. Whenever the members of a Mission shall desire to organize as a Parish, notice of the date and place of a public meeting of the members of the Mission, at which the proceedings for organization are to be taken, shall be given at the time of Divine Service at the customary place of public worship in that Mission, on the two Sundays preceding the proposed date. At said meeting the officers of the Mission shall be directed, by a vote of at least fifteen members of the Mission qualified to vote at the Annual Meeting, to sign and address to the Bishop of the Diocese an application in the form following, which shall also be signed by at least fifteen members of the Mission voting for said organization:

....., California,
 A. D. 19.....

Reverend Father in God:

We whose names are hereunto affixed, being officers and members of.....Mission....., do hereby respectfully ask your consent to associate and organize ourselves and others as a Parish, in , County of....., in the Diocese of Los Angeles, under the name and title of....., the territorial limits of said Parish to be (here insert the boundaries of the proposed Parish). And we hereby solemnly promise and declare that the said
 Parish shall be forever held under the Ecclesiastical Authority of the Bishop of Los Angeles, and of his successors in office, and in conformity with the Constitution and the Canons of the Church now known as the Protestant Episcopal Church in the United States of America, and the Constitutions and Canons of the Diocese of Los Angeles, the authority of which we do hereby recognize and bind ourselves to make part of the Constitution of said Parish, and to whose liturgy, doctrine, discipline, rites and usages, we promise at all times, for ourselves and our successors, corporate obedience and conformity.

Your obedient children in the Church of God.

(Here shall follow the signatures, in ink, of the persons desiring to organize the Parish.)

§ 70. Whenever fifteen or more adult communicants of any Parish, or of contiguous portions of two or more Parishes, or of any community outside the boundaries of any Parish or Mission, shall desire to organize as a Parish, being permanently resident in the territory or district comprised within the boundaries of the proposed Parish, notice of the date and place of a public meeting of the said communicants, at which the proceedings for organization are to be taken, shall be given at the time of Divine Service at the customary place of public worship in the said Parish or Parishes, on the two Sundays preceding the proposed date, or, in a community outside any Parish or Mission, by two weekly publications prior to the date of the meeting.

At said meeting the communicants desiring to organize a Parish shall sign and address to the Bishop of the Diocese an application in the form following:

....., California,
....., A. D. 19.....

Reverend Father in God:

We whose names are hereunto affixed, being communicants of the Church in the Diocese of Los Angeles, do hereby respectfully ask your consent to associate and organize as a Parish in....., County of....., in the Diocese of Los Angeles, under the name and title of....., the territorial limits of said Parish to be (here insert the boundaries of the proposed Parish). And we hereby solemnly promise and declare that the said Parish shall be forever held under the Ecclesiastical Authority of the Bishop of Los Angeles, and of his successors in office, and in conformity with the Constitution and the Canons of the Church now known as the Protestant Episcopal Church in the United States of America, and the Constitutions and Canons of the Diocese of Los Angeles, the authority of which we do hereby recognize and bind ourselves to make part of the Constitution of said Parish, and to whose liturgy, doctrine, discipline, rites and usages, we promise at all times, for ourselves and our successors, corporate obedience and conformity.

Your obedient children in the Church of God.

§ 71. Upon receipt of the above application, the Bishop of the Diocese shall submit the same to the Standing Committee, and if he and a majority of said Committee approve the organization of the proposed Parish, they shall submit their joint consent in the following form, a duplicate of which shall also be spread upon the minutes of the Standing Committee:

Diocese of Los Angeles.

The organization of a Parish in.....
•County of....., to be bounded and to be known as the Parish of..... having been duly considered and approved by the Standing Committee of this Diocese, I do hereby give my Canonical consent to the organization of the said Parish.

Given under my hand this..... day of....., in the year of our Lord....., and of my consecration the.....

.....
Bishop of Los Angeles.

Attest.....

Secretary of the Standing Committee.

§ 72. In case the proposed Parish, or any territorial portion thereof, shall lie within the territorial limits of any existing Parish or Parishes, the Secretary of the Standing Committee shall notify the said Parish or Parishes that application for the organization of the proposed Parish has been made, and any objections to the organization of the proposed Parish shall be made in writing to the Bishop, and by him shall be laid before the Standing Committee for consideration. Within sixty days after the issuance of such notice by the Secretary, the Bishop and the Standing Committee shall make known their joint decision, and if it be in favor of the organization of the proposed Parish they shall issue the formal consent, as provided in Section 71 of this Canon; and such permission shall not take effect until the boundaries of the new Parish shall have been prescribed and defined by the authority granting the permission.

§ 73. Upon receipt of the formal consent of the Bishop and the Standing Committee, as set forth in Section 71 of this Canon, the persons interested may proceed forthwith to organize the proposed Parish. This shall be done at a public meeting, of which one week's written notice shall be sent to each person signing the application asking the consent of the Bishop to the organization of the proposed Parish; and at the said meeting a Clergyman appointed by the Bishop shall preside. The proposed Parish shall organize (1) by adopting a Constitution, which shall specifically set forth the promises made in the application to the Bishop, together with the manner of electing Vestrymen; and (2) by the election of Vestrymen—not less than five nor more than eleven—from whom shall be chosen two Wardens; and the name and title by which the said proposed Parish shall be legally known, shall be: “The Rector, Wardens and Vestrymen of.....Parish.”

§ 74. Upon complying with all the provisions of the foregoing sections of this Canon, a Parish may become incorporated under the statute law. The Rector of the Parish shall be ex officio a member of the Board of Trustees, and (subject to the provisions of Canon XXXVII, Section 224, Article 4) its President; and it is recommended that the Articles of Incorporation and the By-Laws shall so provide, and shall also generally provide that the Constitution and Canons of the Protestant Episcopal Church in the United States of America, and also the Constitutions and Canons of the said Church in the said Diocese of Los Angeles, as the same now exist, or as they may hereafter be changed or amended, shall be a part of said By-Laws; and whenever said Constitutions or Canons, or any of them, shall conflict with any of the provisions of said By-Laws, they shall, in such respects, and to that extent, override, supersede and effect the repeal of the said By-Laws.

§ 75. In the case of an established Parish seeking to change its boundaries, the Bishop and Standing Committee shall have power to determine the new boundaries, or to change the boundaries of any contiguous Parishes affected by such change, subject to the same conditions of notification, provisions for objection, and time for decision as provided for in Section 72, and the said determination of the Bishop and Standing Committee shall be made known to the petitioning Parish in such manner as they shall see fit.

CANON X.

Mission and Parish Boundaries

§ 80. The bounds of a Parish or Mission shall be the limits of any village, town, city, county, or section of a county, as fixed by law, which may have been recognized by the Bishop in the organization of the same. If there be but one Parish or Mission within such village, town, city, county, or section of a county, it shall be deemed the spiritual cure of the Clergyman having charge thereof. If there be two or more Parishes or Missions therein, it shall be deemed the cure of the Clergymen thereof. In the organization of a Parish within the territorial limits of an existing Parish or Mission, or of existing Parishes or Missions, the bounds shall be those defined in the formal consent of the Bishop and the Standing Committee, as provided in Section 71, Canon IX. In the organization of a Mission within the territorial limits of an existing Parish or Mission, or of existing Parishes or Missions, the Bishop shall define and limit the bounds of the said Mission.

§ 81. The boundaries as set forth in this Canon shall be held as legally fixed, for all purposes of these Canons, until they shall be changed or modified by the same authority which created them.

§ 82. For the purpose only of private or domestic pastoral ministrations, the residence, wherever situated, of each registered parishioner of any Parish or Mission shall be deemed a part of the Parish or Mission in which such parishioner is registered.

§ 83. Any Diocesan or Non-Parochial Church Institution, apart from the regularly established Parishes and Missions of the Diocese, in which, by the appointment of the Bishop, a Clergyman of the Diocese officiates as Chaplain, and any secular Institution in which the ministrations of the Church are to be provided by or under the appointment of the Bishop, may be designated as the special cure of the Clergyman officiating therein, or in charge thereof, for purposes of ministering to the inmates, pupils, patients, and employees thereof, and for those purposes only.

CANON XI.

The Vestry

§ 90. At an annual Parish meeting, to be held on the Tuesday after the last Sunday in December, or as near that date as practicable, each Parish of the Diocese shall elect — to manage its temporalities — a Board of Trustees and Vestrymen, or Directors and Vestrymen, who shall be males of 21 years of age, qualified to vote for Vestrymen in the Parish which elects them, the number of which shall be governed by its Articles of Incorporation; and it is recommended, for better assurance of conformity to the law of the State, that the Rector be counted in making up the number of the Trustees and be regularly elected to that office. In all new Parishes the number shall comply with the statute law of corporations of the State.

§ 91. In every Parish the Vestrymen and Trustees, or Vestrymen and Directors, shall be the same number and the same persons.

§ 92. If, from any cause, there be no election on the Tuesday after the last Sunday in December, as provided in Section 90, the Vestry shall call an election as soon thereafter as practicable; provided, that in all cases where the Articles of Incorporation of a Parish may conflict with the provisions of this Canon, the statute law shall be followed.

§ 93. The Vestry shall have power to fill any vacancy or vacancies in their own body, and shall continue in office until their successors are elected.

§ 94. Notice of the election of a Vestry shall be given during Divine Service on the Sunday preceding the day upon which an election is to be held; and on the Sunday following, during Divine Service, the names of the Vestrymen elected shall be announced.

§ 95. The election for Vestrymen and Trustees shall be by ballot. The following shall be qualified electors:

(a) Any person of lawful age, an attendant upon the services of the Parish, who for the previous sixty days shall have been registered upon the Parish Register as a communicant of that Parish.

(b) Any baptized person of lawful age, an attendant upon the services of the Parish, who for the previous sixty days shall have been a pledged contributor to the support of the Parish, and whose name as a regular contributor shall have been for that period entered upon the books of the Treasurer of said Parish;

Provided, That each Parish may, in its By-Laws, determine the minimum amount of subscription which shall qualify a voter under the provisions of the above sub-section (b).

(c) No person shall be permitted to vote by proxy, unless he shall have filed with the Clerk of the Vestry, not less than five days previous to the date of the meeting at which said proxy is intended to be used, a proxy in writing designating the person who shall be authorized to cast his vote; provided, that the person so designated shall himself be a duly qualified voter, and that no person shall be permitted to vote at any meeting upon more than one proxy; and provided, further, that in Parishes not incorporated, and in Missions, voting by proxy shall not be allowed.

§ 96. From the members of the Vestry shall be chosen a Senior Church Warden, and a Junior Church Warden, both of whom shall be communicants of the Church. In case the Parish is without a Rector, or in case of the organization of a new Parish, both these officers shall be elected by the members of the Vestry. In all other cases the Rector shall appoint the Senior Church Warden, and the members of the Vestry shall elect the Junior Church Warden.

§ 97. In case a Parish be without a Rector, or the Rector be absent or unable to act, the Wardens, according to seniority in office, shall preside at all meetings of the Vestry and of the Parish. No meeting of a Vestry shall be valid in which there shall not be present either the Rector or one Warden.

§ 98. A Clerk and a Treasurer, who may or may not be members of the Vestry, shall be elected annually, and shall serve until their successors in office are chosen.

CANON XII.

The Rector

§ 100. Whenever the Rectorship of a Parish shall become vacant by resignation or otherwise, the Vestry shall, within five days, make written communication of the fact to the Ecclesiastical Authority, which may appoint a Clergyman to such vacancy, pending the election of a Rector. Before proceeding to an election, however, the Senior Warden shall, within not less than ten nor more than thirty days after such communication to the Ecclesiastical Authority, call a meeting of the Vestry, giving ten days' written notice thereof, and stating the purpose of the meeting to be the selection of a Rector. He shall at the same time notify the Bishop, if there be one, of the time and place of such meeting, and invite him to be present thereat. And twenty days after such meeting, the Senior Warden shall call a meeting of the Vestry, giving five days' written notice thereof, and stating the purpose of the meeting to be the election of a Rector; but such meeting may be adjourned from time to time; provided, that the election be made within ninety days from the date of the creation of such vacancy. In electing a Rector an affirmative vote of a majority of the full number of Vestrymen shall be required. If the person selected should not be elected, or being elected should decline, the same procedure shall be followed, until an election and acceptance shall be secured; provided, that the Bishop may, in his discretion, and on request of the Vestry, suspend the above procedure and permit the immediate election of a Rector, or the postponement of the same to a specified time.

§ 101. Upon the election of a Rector the Church Wardens of the Parish shall give immediate notice of such election to the Bishop of this Diocese, or, if there be no Bishop, to the Standing Committee, whereupon the person elected may enter upon the duties of his calling.

§ 103. The Rector, subject to the Bishop of this Diocese, shall have exclusive charge of all things pertaining to or affecting the spiritual interests of the Parish. It shall be his duty and right to give order concerning public worship, together with all that appertains thereto. He shall at all times have access to the Church building or buildings, and shall have the custody of the keys of the same. He shall have the spiritual direction and control of all associations of the Parish and shall preside, with right to vote, at all Parish and Vestry Meetings, and, also, at all meetings of the Board of Trustees of the incorporated Parish, when a regularly elected member thereof.

§ 104. The Rector shall keep a Parish Register to be furnished by, and which shall be the property of, the Parish, in which he shall keep the following records:

(1) Records of all baptisms, marriages and burials at which any Clergyman of the Church has officiated within the limits of the Parish; (2) a list of the persons confirmed therein; (3) a list of all communicants within his cure. He shall from time to time enter on the list of communicants, (a) the names of all persons confirmed in his Parish who have received the Holy Communion; (b) the names of all who have been received by letters of transfer from other Parishes; (c) the names of those who, being regular communicants in his Parish, he finds, after diligent inquiry, are not registered elsewhere. He shall from time to time, and at least annually, within one month before the meeting of the Diocesan Convention, revise such list and place an asterisk, or other appropriate symbol, opposite the names of all persons who have died, or received Holy Orders, or taken letters of transfer to other Parishes, or been excommunicated or suspended, or who have formally renounced the communion of the Church, or who, having removed from his Parish without notice, cannot be traced after reasonable time and due effort. At the time of making such revision of the list of registered communicants, the Rector shall enter upon the register opposite the names which he has noted, as above provided, the cause and date of his action, and such persons shall henceforth cease to be reckoned as registered communicants of the Parish; it being, however, distinctly understood that such action shall in no wise effect the relations of any communicant of the Church at large, or his rights as a non-registered communicant.

The Parish Register shall at all convenient times be open to the inspection of the Bishop or other Ecclesiastical Authority of the Diocese, of the Wardens and Vestrymen, and of the qualified voters of the Parish.

When a communicant in good standing, removing from any Parish or Mission, fails to apply for a letter of transfer, the Rector or Priest-in-Charge shall send such letter to the Rector or Priest-in-Charge of the cure where the said communicant becomes resident (or, should there be no cure, to the Rural Dean of the Convocation in which said communicant becomes a resident), who shall, on receipt of the letter, register the communicant and notify the registration to the Clergyman sending the letter.

CANON XIII.

Financial and Parochial Reports

§ 108. On or before the seventeenth day of January of each year, each Parish and Mission shall file, in duplicate, with the Secretary of the Convention a statistical and financial report. The Secretary shall deliver one copy thereof to the Committee on Finance for the next Annual Convention, to be used in preparing a schedule of assessment for Diocesan and Convention purposes. Any Parish or Mission failing to furnish an annual report, as provided herein, shall be liable to an arbitrary assessment by the Finance Committee.

§ 109. Every financial report of a Parish or a Mission, before being filed with the Secretary of the Convention, shall be audited and approved in writing by an Auditing Committee appointed by the Vestry of the Parish or by the officers of the Mission, as the case may be; said approval to be attached to or endorsed upon the report.

§ 110. The form of the annual report of each Parish shall be substantially as follows:

Obligation in Default of Representation

§ 112. If, for whatever cause, a Parish or Mission of this Diocese is not represented in any Convention of the same, or in any of the sessions thereof, such Parish or Mission shall nevertheless be bound by all acts of such Convention.

CANON XV.

Mission and Parish Guilds

§ 113. If any persons, members of a Mission or Parish, desire, having the approval of the Missionary or Rector, to organize a Guild or other similar Society for Church work within such Mission or Parish, provision shall be made that the regular members of such Societies, with right to vote and hold the offices of President, Vice-President, Treasurer or Secretary, shall possess the qualifications laid down for membership in Missions and Parishes, respectively, in Sections 61 and 95 of these Canons. Other persons may be admitted as honorary members; provided, that the provisions of this section (113) shall not apply to Guilds or Societies known as "Junior Societies," being those whose membership is chiefly composed of persons under age.

§ 114. In the case of any Mission or Parish Guild, or similar association of members of a Mission or Parish, acquiring by purchase, donation or otherwise, real property for the benefit and uses of such Mission or Parish, the title thereto shall be vested, in the case of a Mission, in the Diocesan Corporation, upon the trusts and with the powers provided in Section 65 of these Canons; and in the case of a Parish, in the Parochial Corporation.

CANON XVIII.

The Board of Missions

§ 127. At each Annual Convention of the Diocese there shall be elected by the concurrent votes of both Orders, Clerical and Lay, four Clergymen and four Laymen, who, with the Bishop, the Rural Deans, and one Layman chosen from each Convocation, shall constitute the Board of Missions, of which the Bishop shall be, ex officio, chairman. In the absence of the Bishop from any of its meetings, the senior Rural Dean present shall preside. A quorum of the Board of Missions shall consist of three Clergymen and three Laymen. The Board shall have power to fill vacancies occurring in its own body at any regular meeting of the Board; provided, written notice of such contemplated action has been mailed to each member of the Board at least ten days previous to such meeting.

§ 128. The Board of Missions shall meet as soon after the adjournment of each annual Convention as is practicable, and elect a Secretary. The Board may meet at such other times, on the call of the Bishop or any three members, as may be desired; provided, that there shall be at least one meeting every quarter.

§ 129. It is hereby declared to be the duty of the Board of Missions to devise means to awaken interest in the Missionary work of the Diocese, and to secure liberal offerings for the same; to make appropriations for the support of the Missionaries appointed by the Bishop, according to the recommendation of the Convocations, so far as the income of the Board permits. Every Mission shall be required to make four offerings a year for the Mission Board and in other ways to contribute to the best of its ability towards the Missionary funds of this Diocese.

The Board shall make no permanent alterations in the appropriation to any mission station until the proposed change has been submitted in writing by the Secretary of the Board to the Dean of the Convocation in which the work or mission station is located, and a report received from the Convocation or its Executive Committee; which report shall receive due consideration by the Board in determining its action.

§ 130. No organized Parish shall receive financial aid from the Board of Missions, except on written application of the Wardens and Vestry thereof, approved by the Bishop, and on condition that the Rector of said Parish shall perform such Missionary work outside of his Parish, as may be ordered by the Bishop.

§ 131. The Board of Missions shall make a full report of its doings to each Annual Convention of this Diocese.

CANON XIX.

Convocations

§ 132. To facilitate the Missionary work of the Church, this Diocese shall be divided into districts to be known as Convocations. For the present, all territory within the Counties of San Diego and Imperial shall be known as the Convocation of San Diego; all territory within the Counties of Riverside and San Bernardino as the Convocation of San Bernardino; all territory within the Counties of Orange and Los Angeles as the Convocation of Los Angeles; and all territory within the Counties of Santa Barbara and San Buenaventura as the Convocation of Santa Barbara.

§ 133. At all meetings of the Convocation, of which there shall be at least two annually, every Clergyman canonically resident within its district shall be entitled to a seat and a vote, as shall also three male and two female delegates from each Parish and Mission qualified to vote at the annual Parish Meeting. The Lay Delegates shall be elected at the annual meeting of the Parish or Mission or, in the inability of these persons to attend, alternates shall be named by the Rector or Minister in charge. In all matters which shall come before the Convocation the Clergy and Laity shall deliberate in one body, but in any case when it shall be demanded by five votes, clerical or lay, or both, the two orders shall vote separately, and their concurrence shall be necessary to constitute a decision.

The annual meeting shall be held in December of each year, at which time the Officers and the Lay member of the Board of Missions shall be elected, and the budget of Missionary stipends shall be adopted, subject to the approval of the Bishop, and be forwarded to the Board of Missions immediately thereafter for revision and approval.

In furtherance of the Missionary work of the Diocese every Clergyman having charge of a Mission within a Convocation shall, at each meeting thereof, give a written statement of the condition of his work, and shall suggest where, in his opinion, new work may be profitably undertaken. It shall also be the purpose of the Convocation meetings to bring the Clergy and Laity together in fraternal intercourse, and to promote their spiritual and intellectual life.

Each Convocation shall make its own rules, subject to the approval of the Bishop.

1. The Bishop of the Diocese, who, when present, may preside at all meetings.

2. A Rural Dean of each Convocation, to be confirmed by the Bishop upon the nomination of the Convocation at a regular meeting thereof, and whose term of office shall be two years. The Rural Dean shall preside at the meetings of the Convocation, in the absence of the Bishop, and shall perform such other duties as may be assigned him by the Bishop, or shall be prescribed by Canon; which duties shall include the visitation of the weaker Missions, and of places where the Church has not yet secured a permanent organization.

The expenses incurred by the Rural Deans in discharging the duties of their office under direction of the Bishop shall be repaid by the Treasurer of the Diocese upon warrant of the Board of Missions.

3. A Secretary, who shall be elected at each annual meeting of the Convocation from the members thereof. The Secretary shall keep all minutes of all meetings of the Convocation and of the Executive Committee; shall keep all records of the Convocation; and shall perform such other duties as may properly devolve upon such an officer.

4. A Treasurer, who shall be elected at each annual meeting of the Convocation. The Treasurer shall receive and account for all moneys raised by the Convocation, in addition to Diocesan apportionments or assessments, for work within its jurisdiction, paying out such sums as he shall be authorized to pay by a regular meeting, or by the Executive Committee. He shall also notify, periodically, the proper officers of each Parish or Mission of any deficit in their various assessments or apportionments.

5. An Executive Committee, of which the Rural Dean shall be chairman, composed of the aforesaid officers of the Convocation and four other members who shall be elected at the annual meeting of the Convocation from its own membership; and the Executive Committee shall have power to fill any vacancy or vacancies occurring in its own body. It shall be the duty of the Executive Committee to prepare plans for the regular meeting of the Convocation; and, with the approval of the Rural Dean, to act upon all questions pertaining to the Convocation as cannot be deferred until a meeting of the Convocation.

It shall prepare and present to the annual meeting of the Convocation, a list of the amounts to be paid to the respective Missionaries within its limits. It shall meet upon the call of the Rural Dean.

CANON XX.

The Registrar of the Diocese

§ 135. It shall be the duty of the Registrar to procure all journals, papers, reports, pamphlets, and other documents, manuscript or printed, relating to the history of the Church in this Diocese; as also such other journals, histories, and records of the Church in the United States as belong, or shall hereafter belong, to the Convention of this Diocese, to put them in order and preserve them in some safe place.

§ 136. It shall also be the duty of the Registrar to solicit, in the name of the Convention, donations of the journals and other Church documents of the several Dioceses in the United States, and by the exchange of duplicates, or otherwise, to provide for the increase of the collection.

§ 137. The Registrar shall also present to each Annual Convention of this Diocese a full and accurate report of all collections of journals, etc., made, and all official acts done by him during the year, and the said report shall be published in the Journal of the Convention.

CANON XXI.

§ 140. A Clergyman of the Diocese shall be elected Historiographer of the Diocese for the term of three years and until the election of his successor. It shall be his duty to obtain, prepare, and preserve all special, historical, and biographical matter pertaining to the Diocese, its Parishes, Missions, institutions, and undertakings; and report each year to the Convention an index or list of the topics covered during the previous twelve months.

§ 141. He shall, also, from time to time as may be directed by the Bishop or by the Convention, furnish material or data to be used for purposes that will further the interests of the Church and will assist in the preparation of papers, etc.

§ 142. He shall, with the approval of the Bishop, have power to appoint an Assistant, who shall be a communicant of the Church, and may be a layman or laywoman. When a vacancy shall occur in the office of Historiographer during the recess of the Convention, it may be filled by the Bishop for the unexpired term.

CANON XXII.

The Diocesan Board of Christian Education

§ 145. There shall be a Diocesan Board of Christian Education composed of the Bishop, who shall be, ex officio, President; four Clergymen and four Laymen elected by the Convention, and seven other persons appointed by the Bishop; and the Board shall elect its officers from its own members.

§ 146. Duties. It shall be the duty of the Board to study the problem of religious instruction and Church training in connection with the Sunday School, to investigate the needs of the Sunday Schools of the Diocese, to adopt such measures as the Board may deem advisable for promoting their greater efficiency, especially the formation of a Sunday School Association; provided, further that nothing in this Canon shall be so construed as to diminish the authority of each Clergyman within his cure, nor his responsibility for the religious instruction of the Parish. The Board shall submit a report of its work to the Convention each year.

§ 147. The expenses necessary to carry on the work of the Board shall be met by contributions from the Sunday Schools of the Diocese and by an appropriation made in advance by the Convention.

§ 148. Vacancies in the Board occurring between the sessions of Convention may be filled by appointment by the Bishop.

CANON XXIII.

Examining Chaplains

§ 149. In compliance with Canon 6, General Convention 1919, the Bishop shall nominate to the Diocesan Convention four presbyters to act as Examining Chaplains, one to serve one year, one to serve two years, one to serve three years, one to serve four years. At the expiration of the respective terms of office the successor shall be nominated for the term of four years. The Bishop may at his discretion demand the resignation of any Examining Chaplain.

Vacancies occurring when the Diocesan Convention is not in session shall be filled in compliance with Canon 6, General Convention 1919.

CANON XXIV.

Diocesan Trustees

§ 150. At each Annual Convention of this Diocese there shall be elected seven persons, who shall serve as the Board of Directors of that Corporation known in law as "The Protestant Episcopal Church in the Diocese of Los Angeles," as required by the Articles of Incorporation and By-Laws of the said Corporation, and by the provisions of Section 604 of the Civil Code of the State of California.

§ 151. The election of the Directors of the Corporation shall be taken by individual vote, and the seven persons receiving the highest number of votes shall be declared elected.

CANON XXV.

City Mission Societies

§ 152. In the discretion and under the direction of the Bishop of the Diocese, City Mission Societies may be organized for the purpose of ministering to such classes and conditions as are not reached by ordinary parochial agencies. All by-laws or rules drawn up for their government shall be subject to the approval of the Bishop, and to the authority of the Canons of the Diocese. The Clergyman who shall be appointed by the Bishop to the charge of any such Society shall present to the Bishop at each Annual Convention of the Diocese a detailed report of its work, and its receipts and expenditures.

CANON XXVI.

Commission on Church Architecture

§ 153. There shall be a Commission of the Diocese to be known as the Commission on Church Architecture, which shall consist of the Bishop, together with two Clergymen, and two Laymen, to be appointed annually by him.

§ 154. It shall be the duty of the officers of every Mission of the Diocese to lay before this Commission the plans of any new Church, or Chapel, or of proposed changes in the construction of any existent Church or Chapel; and no such work of erection or material change shall be undertaken until the said plans have received the approval of the Commission.

§ 155. It is earnestly recommended that every Parish, by its Rector, Wardens, and Vestrymen, shall confer with this Commission for its counsel and advice before the plans of any new Church or Chapel, or the plans of any proposed material changes in any existent Church or Chapel, are adopted; and it is further recommended that no contract for such work of erection or change shall be signed before such conference.

CANON XXVII.

Commission on Philanthropy and Social Service

§ 156. There shall be a Commission of the Diocese to be known as the Commission on Philanthropy and Social Service which shall be appointed annually by the Bishop and shall consist of not less than five and not more than fifteen members, at least one-third of whom shall be Clergymen canonically resident in the Diocese and the others active communicants of the Church in the Diocese. The Commission shall have power to elect its own officers.

§ 157. The duties of this Commission with reference to Church philanthropy shall be:

To visit the various philanthropic institutions of the Diocese in order to study their work and their needs;

To study conditions of destitution and need calling for philanthropic effort and to consider the Church's duty with reference to the same;

To make recommendations to the Bishop and to the Convention with regard to—

(1) The formation of new organizations or institutions for charitable or social work;

(2) The expansion and increased efficiency of the organizations and institutions of the Church already existing;

(3) The co-ordination of these institutions and organizations with one another and with other institutions and organizations for the furtherance of unity of plan in the Diocese and in the community.

§ 158. The duties of this Commission with regard to Social Service shall be:

(1) To study all social and civil movements which have a bearing upon public morality and social conditions and to report at each Annual Convention on such of them as the Commission shall deem pertinent;

(2) To carry out the instructions of the Convention with regard to any specific measures or plans for the improvement of social conditions or the enactment of social legislation;

(3) To take action on such subjects as may be referred to it by or with the approval of the Bishop.

§ 159. The Commission shall have authority to promote the formation of Parish Committees or general organizations of persons interested in philanthropy and social service, for the purpose of discussion, the diffusion of interest and knowledge, and the securing of co-operation in carrying out the plans of the Commission.

§ 160. An annual appropriation shall be made by Convention to facilitate the work of the Commission.

§ 161. The Commission shall make an annual report to the Convention.

THE FUNDS OF THE DIOCESE

CANON XXVIII.

The Episcopate Endowment Fund

§ 164. There shall be an Episcopate Endowment Fund, the interest of which shall be appropriated to the support of the Bishop of this Diocese, and of the Bishop Coadjutor, if there be one. The principal of this fund shall be invested in the name of, and remain under the control of, the Corporation of the Diocese.

§ 165. The Episcopate Endowment Fund shall consist of such donations and contributions as shall be made thereto from private and public sources, together with the proceeds of a collection to be made annually in each Parish and Mission of this Diocese, and it is recommended by the Convention of this Diocese, that the said annual collection be made on the morning of Whitsunday, or as soon thereafter as possible.

CANON XXIX.

The Diocesan Assessment Fund

§ 167. There shall be a Diocesan Assessment Fund, the proceeds of which shall be applied to the payment of the salary of the Bishop of this Diocese, of the Bishop Coadjutor, if there be one, of the expenses of the Convention, and contingent expenses of this Diocese.

§ 168. The Diocesan Assessment Fund shall be derived from interest received from the Episcopate Endowment Fund, from such contributions and donations as may be made thereto, the collection at the opening service of each Annual Convention. and from an annual assessment upon each Parish and Mission of this Diocese, the amount of which assessment shall, in each case, be fixed by the Committee on Finance, and reported to each Annual Convention of the Diocese.

§ 169. Each Parish and Mission of this Diocese shall pay to the Treasurer of the Diocese one-fourth of its assessment for the Diocesan Assessment Fund on or before the first day of April, July, October and January of each year.

§ 170. The Treasurer of the Diocese shall each month pay to the Bishop and Bishop Coadjutor, if there be one, all moneys pro rata of their salaries, in his hands belonging to the Diocesan Assessment Fund.

§ 171. All contracts for printing or other supplies in excess of $10, and which have not been specifically provided for by the Convention as to amount, shall be under the supervision of the Auditing Committee.

§ 172. No appropriation of money for Convention or contingent expenses shall be made unless it has first been referred to and reported on by the Committee on Finance.

CANON XXX

The Missionary Fund

§ 177. There shall be a Missionary Fund to sustain the operations of the Board of Missions of this Diocese.

§ 178. The Missionary Fund shall be derived from the following sources: (a) From the monthly contribution of each organized Mission of this Diocese, as provided in Section 63 of these Canons; (b) from a collection to be made quarterly in each Parish and Mission of this Diocese, the full amount of which collection shall be paid over to the Treasurer; (c) from any appropriation to this Diocese by the General Board of Domestic Missions; (d) from donations; (e) from the collections made at any general or special Missionary service held in this Diocese; (f) from any collection or collections made at the sessions of the Convocations of this Diocese; and (g) from the contributions of branch Missionary societies.

§ 179. The Missionary Fund, and all moneys due or accruing thereto, shall be paid to the Treasurer of the Diocese, who shall pay no money from the said fund, except upon a warrant authorized by the said Board.

§ 180. The Treasurer of each organized Parish and Mission within this Diocese shall forward to the Treasurer of the Diocese on the Monday following the last Sunday of each month, one-twelfth of the amount apportioned or assessed to it for Diocesan Missions, or so much thereof as may have been collected.

CANON XXXI.

The Disabled Clergy Endowment Fund

§ 182. There shall be a fund for the relief of disabled Clergy of this Diocese, to be known as the "Disabled Clergy Endowment Fund."

§ 183. The Disabled Clergy Endowment Fund shall be derived from donations and contributions, and from an annual collection to be made in each Parish and Mission of this Diocese; and it is recommended by the Convention of this Diocese that the said annual collection be made on the morning of Christmas Day, or as soon thereafter as possible.

§ 184. The principal of this fund shall be invested in the name of, and remain under the control of, the Corporation of the Diocese, and only the revenue from the invested fund and contributions specially designated for current use shall be used for the relief of beneficiaries or for expenses. The Treasurer shall have charge of the revenue of this fund, and shall disburse the same only upon warrants of the Board of Missions, which is charged with the distribution and application of said revenue.

§ 185. The income of the Disabled Clergy Fund shall only be used for the relief of those Clergy, in good standing, who are canonically connected with this Diocese, and have been actively engaged in ministerial labors in this Diocese for five consecutive years.

CANON XXXII.

The Widows' and Orphans' Endowment Fund

§ 189. There shall be a fund for the relief of the widows and orphans of Clergymen, to be known as "The Widows' and Orphans' Endowment Fund."

§ 190. The Widows' and Orphans' Endowment Fund shall be derived from donations and contributions, and an annual collection to be made in each Parish and Mission of this Diocese; and it is recommended by the Convention of this Diocese that the said annual collection be made on the morning of Ash-Wednesday, or as soon thereafter as possible.

§ 191. The principal of this fund shall be invested in the name of, and remain under the control of, the Corporation of the Diocese, and only the revenue from the invested fund and contributions specially designated for current use shall be used for the relief of beneficiaries or for expenses. The Treasurer shall have charge of the revenue of this fund, and shall disburse the same only upon warrants of the Board of Missions, which is charged with the distribution and application of said revenue.

§ 192. The income of the Widows' and Orphans' Fund shall be used only for the relief of the widows and orphans of those Clergymen, in good standing, who were canonically connected with this Diocese and resident in the same at the time of their death, and had been actively engaged in ministerial labors therein for at least five years; provided, however, that if at any time the whole of such income be not required by such beneficiaries, relief may be granted therefrom from month to month to the widows and orphans of Clergymen who may have served for a lesser period than five years.

CANON XXXIII.

The Bishop's Fund

§ 195. At every service in each Parish and Mission of this Diocese at which the rite of Confirmation shall be administered, an offering shall be made, the proceeds of which shall be promptly remitted to the Treasurer of the Diocese, who shall pay the same over to the Bishop, to be used by him at his discretion for emergency work within the Diocese, and to be known as the Bishop's Fund.

CANON XXXIV.

The Church Pension Fund

§ 196. In conformity with the legislation adopted by the General Convention of 1913, setting forth the principles upon which a Pension System for the Clergy of the Church and their dependents should be constructed, pursuant to which the corporation, the Church Pension Fund, has been created to carry these principles into effect, the Diocese of Los Angeles adopts the system of the Church Pension Fund.

§ 197. The Ecclesiastical Authority of the Diocese shall appoint annually, a committee, to be entitled the Committee on the Church Pension Fund, and to consist of two Clergymen and two Laymen. The duties of this committee shall be as follows:

(A) To furnish annually to the Church Pension Fund a list of the clergy canonically connected with this Diocese, together with a statement of the stipends received by each from any Parish or Mission or other organization connected with this Diocese.

(B) To receive from the Church Pension Fund annually a statement of the premiums necessary to be paid by each Parish, Mission, or other organization connected with this Diocese in order that the clergyman in receipt of such stipends from such Parishes, Missions, or other organizations connected with this Diocese may be entitled respectively to pensions.

(C) To inform the authorities of each Parish, Mission, or other organization connected with this Diocese of the premiums payable by it, and of the time and manner of payment thereof.

(D) To elect a Treasurer, who may or may not be a member of the said committee, who shall be required to give a bond satisfactory to the committee, and whose duty it shall be to receive from all of the Parishes, Missions, or other organizations connected with this Diocese, the aforesaid premiums and to transmit the same to the Treasurer of the Church Pension Fund; and it shall also be his duty to receive from the Corporation of the Diocese the annual interest accruing on the investments held by said Corporation belonging to the Widows' and Orphans' Fund, and to the Disabled Clergy Fund, and to transmit the same to the Treasurer of the Church Pension Fund, to be applied for the benefit of clergymen canonically connected with this Diocese entitled to the benefit of the Church Pension Fund and their widows and orphans; such application to be subject to and in accordance with the provisions of Section 201 herein.

(E) To inform the Church Pension Fund from time to time of the clergy, and the widows and minor orphans of clergy who may be entitled, in respect to this Diocese, to receive pensions or annuities from the Church Pension Fund.

(F) In general to inform the clergy and laity of the Diocese regarding the Church Pension System created by the General Convention and committed by it to the operation of the Church Pension Fund, whereby the clergy of the Church are assured of pensions, as of right to themselves in the event of old age or disability and, in the event of death, to their widows and minor orphans, and to do all things that may be necessary or advisable in the premises, to the end that the moneys necessary to be paid by the Parishes, Missions, and other organizations connected with this Diocese may be fully and systematically paid.

§ 198. It shall be the duty of the Finance Committee of the Diocese to provide for, and of the Treasurer of the Diocese to make, the annual payment to the Treasurer of the Committee on the Church Pension Fund of the premiums payable on behalf of the Bishop of the Diocese and Bishop Coadjutor, if there be one.

§ 199. It shall be the duty of the Board of Missions of the Diocese to pay to the Treasurer of the Committee on the Church Pension Fund the premiums payable by it on the apportionment to all clergymen receiving stipends from said Board.

§ 200. It shall be the duty of the Finance Committee of the Diocese to authorize the Treasurer of the Diocese to pay to the Treasurer of the said Committee on the Church Pension Fund the premiums payable on account of all stipends paid by the Diocese to clergymen as officers of the Convention, and to make all necessary arrangements to provide for such premiums.

§ 201. It shall be the duty of the Corporation of the Diocese to transfer and deliver to a Trust Company, to be named by the Church Pension Fund Committee, all of the securities and invested principal funds, held by the Diocese, belonging to the Disabled Clergy Fund, and the Widows' and Orphans' Fund; provided that the Church Pension Fund shall first enter into a contract to assume, and continue to pay, the grants for pensions or annuities to the beneficiaries at present receiving the same from such Funds, until all such obligations are fulfilled, and the same terminated by the death of the several beneficiaries or by the action of the Trustees, and further,

To credit, pro rata, annually the amount of the annual net income derived from such Funds upon the annual assessments of the Parishes and Missions of the Diocese of Los Angeles for the purposes of the Church Pension Fund.

§ 202. It shall be the duty of every Clergyman as aforesaid, receiving a stipend or stipends, and the duty of every Parish, Mission, or other organization connected with the Diocese as aforesaid, paying such stipend or stipends, to furnish a statement of such stipend or stipends to the Committee on the Church Pension Fund whenever the said committee shall, in writing, ask for such statement.

§ 203. It shall be the duty of the Finance Committee of the Diocese to incorporate into the annual budget of Convention an appropriation to cover the necessary expenses of the Committee on the Church Pension Fund of this Diocese in carrying out its duties.

§ 204. This Canon shall take effect when the Secretary of the Convention of this Diocese shall receive notification from the Church Pension Fund that a Reserve Fund of $5,000,000 for the purposes of the Church Pension Fund has been established to enable the system to go into operation.

§ 205. When this Canon shall become operative the offerings now designated by Canon for the Disabled Clergy Fund and the Widows' and Orphans' Fund shall be applied to the payment of the premium of the clergy of the Parish or Mission in which such offerings are made.

§ 206. The Committee on Canons is instructed to bring all existing Canons into conformity with the provisions of this Canon.

DISCIPLINE

CANON XXXIV.

Trial of a Clergyman Not a Bishop

§ 207. Whenever any Minister of this Diocese, not being a Bishop thereof, shall become "liable to presentment and trial," under the provisions of any Canon of the General or Diocesan Convention, the mode of proceeding in this Diocese shall be as follows:

The trial shall be on a presentment in writing, addressed to the Bishop of this Diocese, specifying the offense or offenses of which the accused is alleged to be guilty, with reasonable certainty of their time, place and circumstances. Such presentment may be made by the majority of the members of the Vestry of any Church of which the accused is a Minister, or by any five members of a Mission of which he may have charge, or by any three Presbyters of this Diocese entitled to seats in the Convention, or as herein-after mentioned. Whenever from public rumor or otherwise the Bishop shall have reason to believe that any Clergyman is under the imputation of having been guilty of any offense or misconduct, for which he is liable to be tried, and that the interest of the Church requires an investigation, it shall be his duty to appoint a Court of Inquiry of five persons, of whom three at least shall be Presbyters, to examine the case, a majority of whom may make such examination; and if there is, in their judgment, sufficient ground for presentment, they shall present the Clergyman accordingly.

§ 208. A presentment being made in any one of the modes above described, the Bishop, if the facts charged shall not appear to him to be such as constitute an offense, may dismiss it; or, if it allege facts, some of which do, and some of which do not, constitute an offense, he may allow it in part, and dismiss the residue, or he may permit it to be amended. When it shall be allowed in whole or in part, the Bishop shall cause a copy of it to be served on the accused; and shall also nominate twelve Presbyters of this Diocese entitled to seats in the Convention, and not being parties to the presentment, and cause a list of their names to be served on the accused, who shall, within thirty days after such service, select seven of them, and notify their names in writing to the Bishop; and if he shall not give such notification to the Bishop within the said thirty days, the Bishop shall select seven, and the Presbyters so selected shall form an Ecclesiastical Court for the trial of the accused, of which the Bishop shall appoint the President and Recorder, and it shall meet at such time and place as the Bishop shall direct, and shall have power to adjourn from time to time and from place to place (but always within this Diocese).

§ 209. A written notice of the time and place of their first meeting shall be served, at least thirty days before such meeting, on the accused, and also on one of the persons making the presentment.

§ 210. If, at the time appointed for the first meeting of the said Court, the whole number of seven members shall not attend, then those who do attend may adjourn from time to time; and if, after one adjournment or more, it shall appear to them improbable that the whole number will attend within a reasonable time, then those who do attend, not being less than five, shall constitute the Court, and proceed to the trial, and a majority of the members shall decide all questions.

§ 211. If a Clergyman presented shall confess the truth of the facts alleged in the presentment, it shall be the duty of the Bishop to proceed to pass sentence; and if he shall not confess before the appointment of a Court for his trial, as before mentioned, he shall be considered as denying the allegations in the presentment.

§ 212. If a Clergyman presented, after having had due notice, shall not appear before the Court appointed for his trial, the Court may, nevertheless, proceed as if he were present, unless for good cause the Court shall see fit to adjourn till another day.

§ 213. When the Court proceeds to trial, it shall hear such evidence as shall be produced, which evidence shall be reduced to writing and signed by the witnesses respectively. If, on or during the trial, the accused shall confess the truth of the charges, as stated in the presentment, the Court may dispense with hearing further evidence, and may proceed at once to state their judgment to the Bishop as to the sentence that ought to be pronounced.

(a) The Court shall select and appoint a Lay Communicant of this Church, learned in the law and, if possible, having had judicial experience, as its Assessor, who shall act as its legal advisor; and the Court shall be bound to consult their Assessor on all points of procedure before deciding the same.

(b) Before proceeding to trial the Court may adopt and declare Rules of Procedure which shall govern the conduct of the trial.

§ 214. Upon the application of either party to the Bishop, and it being made satisfactorily to appear to him that any material witnesses cannot be procured upon the trial, the Bishop may appoint a Commissary to take the testimony of any such witness. Such Commissary may be a Clergyman or a Layman, and the party so applying shall give to the other at least six days' notice of the time and place of taking the testimony. And if the person on whom the notice shall be served shall reside more than forty miles from the place of examination, an additional day's notice shall be given for every additional twenty miles of the said distance. And both parties may attend and examine the witness, and the questions and answers shall be reduced to writing and signed by the witness, and shall be certified by the Commissary, and enclosed under his seal, and transmitted to the Court, and shall be received by it as evidence.

§ 215. The Court, having deliberately considered the evidence, shall declare in writing, signed by a majority of the members, its decision on the charges contained in the presentment, distinctly stating whether the accused is guilty or not guilty of such charges, respectively, and also stating the sentence which, in its judgment, should be pronounced; provided, that any member of the Court, not concurring in the decision of the Court, may write and append to such decision a dissenting opinion; and a copy of such decision shall be, without delay communicated to the accused, and the original decision, together with the evidence, shall be delivered to the Bishop, who shall pronounce such canonical sentence as shall appear to him to be proper; provided, the same shall not exceed in severity the sentence recommended by the Court; and such sentence, shall be final. Before pronouncing any sentence, the Bishop shall summon the accused, and any three or more of the Clergy, to meet him at such time as may, in his judgment, be most convenient, in some church to be designated by him, which shall, for that purpose, be open at the time to all persons who may choose to attend, and the sentence shall then and there be publicly announced by the Bishop. But the Bishop, if he be satisfied that justice requires it, may grant a new trial to the accused, in which case a new Ecclesiastical Court shall be appointed, the proceedings before which shall be conducted as heretofore directed.

§ 216. All notices and papers contemplated in this Canon may be served by a summoner or summoners, to be appointed for the purpose by the Bishop, and whose certificate of such service shall be evidence thereof. In case of service by any other person, the fact should be proved by the affidavit of such person. A written notice or paper delivered to a party, or left at his last place of residence, shall be deemed a sufficient service of such notice or paper.

§ 217. The defendant and the presenters may have the privilege of appearing by counsel.

§ 218. When there is no Bishop of this Diocese, or in his absence, if authorized to act as the Ecclesiastical Authority of this Diocese, the Standing Committee shall act in the place of the Bishop, for all purposes declared in this Canon.

§ 219. The expenses of every trial contemplated by this Canon—(which shall include the expenses of the accused clergyman, in case of his acquittal) ; shall be paid out of the Convention Funds, by the Treasurer of the Diocese, when the same has been authorized or approved by the Court and the Standing Committee.

MISCELLANEOUS

CANON XXXVI

The Bishop to Become Corporation Sole

§ 222. The Bishop of this Diocese shall become a Corporation Sole under the laws of this State, by the title of "The Bishop of the Protestant Episcopal Church in Los Angeles" (a corporation sole) ; for the administration of such temporalities and the management of such estate and property as may be granted or in any manner committed to him for the uses, purposes, or behoof of this Church, that is to say, the Church known as "The Protestant Episcopal Church in the United States of America," or any Diocese, Dioceses, or other subdivisions or institutions of the said Church ; or any religious, benevolent, or educational objects connected therewith.

CANON XXXVII

The Bishop and the Pro-Cathedral

§ 224. The Bishop may, from time to time, and until a Diocesan Cathedral shall be established upon a proper and permanent foundation, and with the consent of the Rector, Wardens, and Vestrymen, and the Board of Trustees, select a Parish Church in the city of Los Angeles as the Bishop's Church, which may also be known as the Pro-Cathedral and Parish Church of (here insert the name of the Parish.)

The Bishop may enter into such stipulations in writing with the Rector, Wardens, and Vestrymen and Board of Trustees of such Church, touching his rights in the use of the Church buildings and in parochial affairs, as may be agreed upon, and it is expressly provided that the following provisions, hereinafter set forth and designated as Articles first, second, third, and fourth, vesting certain rights and powers in the Bishop and the Rector, and limiting in certain respects the canonical and corporate rights and powers of the Rector, Wardens, and Vestrymen and members of the Parish in their canonical capacity, and the Board of Trustees and members of the Religious Corporation, shall, when so expressed in said agreement and in the By-Laws of said Religious Corporation, be valid, lawful, and binding, and shall override and supersede the general provisions in those respects made and provided by the Canons of the Diocese, so far as they are in conflict with the same.

First. The Clergy of the Pro-Cathedral and Parish Church shall be the Bishop, the Rector of the Parish, who shall also be ex officio Dean of the Pro-Cathedral, and the Assistants, who may also be designated Canons of the Pro-Cathedral.

Second. (1) The Bishop shall have the right of nominating to the Vestry the Rector and the Assistants or Canons serving outside the Parish limits. He shall also have the right, in conjunction with the Rector, of nominating the Assistant Ministers engaged in the work over which the Rector has jurisdiction, and for which he is personally responsible. (2) He shall have the right to the use of the Church at his discretion for all Episcopal acts or for Diocesan meetings; and upon written notice of three days to the Rector of his intentions so to do, he shall have the right to use the Pro-Cathedral for celebrating or preaching; and shall have the general direction of the services in the Pro-Cathedral at all times through the constituted officers thereof.

Third. The Dean, under the direction of the Bishop, shall designate to the Clergy affiliated with the Pro-Cathedral and Parish Church such work as they are to perform within the Parish.

Fourth. The Bishop and the Rector shall always be ex officio members of the Vestry and of the Board of Trustees and of the Religious Corporation. The Bishop shall be ex officio Chairman of the Vestry and President of the Board of Trustees, and of the Religious Corporation. In the absence of the Bishop, the Rector shall be ex officio Chairman of the Vestry and shall also be ex officio Vice-President of the Board of Trustees, and of the Religious Corporation.

CANON XXXVIII

Deputies to the General Convention

§ 230. It shall be the duty of the Deputies-elect to the General Convention from the Diocese of Los Angeles to signify to the Bishop of this Diocese, in writing, at least thirty days before the meeting of the General Convention, their acceptance of the appointment and intention to perform its duties, in default of which the Bishop shall designate, by certificate, in writing, so many from those of the Alternate Deputies as may be necessary to represent this Diocese.

CANON XXXIX

Amendment and Enactment of Canons

§ 235. (a) These Canons may be altered or amended by an affirmative vote of the majority of those voting.

(b) No proposed amendment, or addition to the Canons, shall be considered or affirmatively acted upon by any Convention (otherwise than by referring the same to a Committee to report thereon to the succeeding Annual Convention) unless duplicated copies of such proposed amendment, or addition, shall have been filed with the Secretary at least twenty days before the meeting of the Convention.

(c) The Secretary shall deliver copies of all proposed amendments or additions to the Canons, so filed with him, to the Chairman of the Committee on Canons, appointed under Section 49 of these Canons, and such Committee shall report thereon on the first day of the Convention, under Order of Business, Section (10).

(d) Amendments or additions to the Canons may be considered on the report of the aforesaid Committee, or of any Special Committee to which such amendments or additions, or the subject matter thereof, may have been referred at a previous Convention.

(e) The Committee to which any amendment or addition may have been referred, as in this Section provided, may in its judgment report a substitute for, or change, any proposed amendment or addition, and shall report such other amendments to other Sections of the Canons as may be required in order to make the Canons homogeneous, if the proposed amendment or addition should be adopted..

(f) If any cause should arise, which in the judgment of the Convention shall require the adoption, by the current Convention, of amendments or additions which have not been filed as provided in Section (b), then the Convention may, by unanimous consent, receive such amendments or additions, and refer them to the Committee on Canons, or to a special Committee, with instruction to report before final adjournment; and, when reported, the said amendments or additions may be considered and acted upon at once, in the same manner as if they had been filed as provided in the aforesaid Section (b).

(g) The Secretary shall have copies of all proposed amendments or additions printed for the information and use of the Convention; and at the close of the Convention shall have all amendments, etc., which have been adopted, printed on slips and a copy sent to every Clergyman and six copies to the Clerk of every Parish and Mission; together with a like number of any proposed amendments to the Constitutions and Canons as may have been committed to any Special Committees or referred to the Committee on Canons by the preceding Convention.

CERTIFICATE TO CANONS

We, whose names are hereunto subscribed, do certify that the foregoing is a true and correct copy of the Canons of the Diocese of Los Angeles, as adopted by the First Annual Convention of said Diocese, held in St. Paul's Church, Los Angeles, on the 26th, 27th and 28th days of May, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and ninety-six, and as added to or amended by the Annual Conventions of 1897 to 1921 inclusive.

Witness our hands this first day of February, A.D. 1921, in the City and County of Los Angeles, State of California.

JOSEPH H. JOHNSON,
President of the Convention.

ALFRED FLETCHER,
Secretary of the Convention.

CANON XVII

The Executive Council

1. This Council shall consist of sixteen members. The Bishop, the Bishop Coadjutor, the Deans of the Convocations, and the Treasurer of the Diocese shall be members of this Council, ex officio.

The Bishop shall appoint one representative from each of the following boards: The Finance Committee of the Diocese, the Board of Missions, the Board of Christian Education, the Commission on Philanthropy and Social Service, and the Executive Committee of the County and City Mission Society—to be members of the Council.

The remaining four members of the Council shall be elected by ballot at each Annual Convention, two Clergymen and two Laymen.

The Bishop shall be the chairman, ex officio, or in his absence the Bishop Coadjutor.

A quorum shall consist of a majority of the members of the Council.

The Bishop shall have power to fill vacancies occurring in the Council.

2. There shall be seven committees of the Executive Council as follows: Finance, General Missions, Diocesan Missions, County and City Mission, Christian Education, Social Service, and Nation-Wide Campaign.

Membership on these committees shall not be limited to members of the Council.

The Board of Missions as determined by the Canons of this Diocese shall be the Committee on Diocesan Missions.

The Committee on Christian Education shall be the Diocesan Board of Christian Education as determined by Canon.

The Committee on Social Service shall be the Commission on Philanthropy and Social Service as determined by Canon.

*Adopted in Convention, 1921, "provisionally for one year—to be presented for amendment or ratification at the next Annual Convention."

The Committee on Nation-Wide Campaign shall be appointed by the Bishop. The Treasurer of this committee must be a member of the Executive Council and shall be appointed by the Bishop.

The other committees shall be appointed by the Bishop and shall consist of not less than five members.

All budgets for the work of these committees shall be submitted to the Executive Council for its approval. No assessment shall be laid upon the Parishes and Missions except as provided elsewhere by Canon.

3. The Executive Council shall meet as soon after the adjournment of each Annual Convention as practicable and elect a Secretary. The Treasurer of the Diocese shall be Treasurer of the Council, ex officio. The Council shall meet monthly and at such other times, on the call of the Bishop or any three members, as may be desired.

4. The Executive Council is hereby authorized to undertake and to supervise all ways and means to obtain funds for the maintenance of the missionary work of the Diocese and also of the Church outside the Diocese.

It shall be the duty of the Council to determine any quotas to be laid upon the Parishes and Missions of the Diocese for Missionary purposes and to furnish a budget of such quotas; provided, that all assessments, included in such quotas as provided by Canon, shall be approved by the Annual Convention before becoming operative.

It shall also be the duty of the Executive Council to appropriate to the several objects in the annual budget such funds as shall be received by the Treasurer of the Council.

5. It is hereby provided that all funds raised for missionary purposes (except those received toward the Diocesan Missionary Assessment, which shall be sent to the Treasurer of the Board of Missions) shall be sent by the Treasurers of the Parishes and Missions to the Treasurer of the Nation-Wide Campaign Committee.

APPENDIX

Note:—When it is desired that an evening meeting of the Convention shall be held, a resolution to that effect must be adopted before 5:00 o'clock in the afternoon of that day.

RULES OF ORDER OF THE CONVENTION OF THE DIOCESE OF LOS ANGELES

RULE 1

MOTIONS

No motion shall be considered as before the Convention until seconded and stated to the Convention by the presiding officer. If not presented in writing, the President, or any member of the Convention, may require the motion to be reduced to writing before being presented to the Convention. After a motion is in possession of the Convention the mover cannot modify or withdraw it without the consent of the Convention.

RULE 2

ORDER OF MOTIONS

When a question is before the Convention, no motion shall be received but to lay it upon the table, to take a vote thereon at a certain time, to postpone to a certain time, to postpone indefinitely, to commit or to amend; which motions shall have precedence in the order named. The motion to take a vote at a certain time shall be decided without debate.

RULE 3

AMEND- MENTS

When a motion is under consideration, a motion to amend, a motion to amend that amendment, and a motion for a substitute for both amendments shall be in order. These motions shall be considered and voted upon in the reverse order in which they are received.

RULE 4

NON- DEBATABLE MOTIONS

The following motions shall not be debatable: to adjourn (which shall always be in order when no member is speaking), to lay on the table, to take from the table, to close debate, to extend the limits of debate, an objection to the consideration of a question, a call for the order of the day, to reconsider an undebatable question, to fix the time of adjournment, to postpone to a certain time, to permit the withdrawal of a motion, and to suspend the rules. If a motion to lay an amendment on the table be carried, the matter before the Convention shall be proceeded with as if no amendment had been offered.

RULE 5

If a question under consideration contains several distinct propositions, the same may be divided on the request of any member, subject to the decision of the presiding officer that the division proposed can be made. If objection is made to such division, a motion to divide may be put before the Convention. When a motion for a division is made, the mover must specify the manner in which he desires the question to be divided. A motion to strike out and insert shall be indivisible.

DIVISION
OF

RULE 6

No member can speak more than once on the same question, nor longer than fifteen minutes. By consent of three-fourths of the members the Convention may grant leave to a member to speak a second time on the same question, but no longer than ten minutes. A Chairman of a Committee, or the mover of a resolution, presenting a report, shall be permitted an opening and a closing speech on every question submitted for action; but not to exceed ten minutes for each speech, unless special leave be given by the Convention to extend the time.

SPEAKING

A member may speak for not longer than two minutes, when nominating a candidate for election to any office.

A member desiring to make a nomination shall rise and receive the recognition of the Chair before naming his candidate.

RULE 7

Every member present shall vote, whenever a question is put, unless excused by the Convention on account of his being personally interested in the result, or for other cause.

MEMBERS MUST VOTE

RULE 8

The vote shall be taken by ayes and noes, or by orders when called for by five members, and shall, in such case, be entered on the minutes.

MANNER
OF VOTING

RULE 9

In taking the vote by orders it shall be the right of any member of the delegation, who may dissent

INDIVIDUAL
VOTE

from the vote of the majority of the delegation, to have the fact of his dissent recorded in the minutes.

RULE 10

RECON-SIDERA-
TION

In all questions decided numerically, a motion to reconsider must be made by one member, and seconded by another, who voted in the majority. In all questions decided by a vote by orders, a motion to reconsider, if made by a Clergyman voting in the majority, must be seconded by a Lay-Delegate voting in the majority; and, if made by a Lay-Delegate, it must be seconded by a Clergyman voting in the majority. A motion to reconsider must be made within twenty-four hours after the vote was taken. When a motion to reconsider a vote prevails, the question is again before the Convention as if no vote had been taken upon it. No question shall be reconsidered more than once.

RULE 11

COM-MITTEES

All Special Committees shall be appointed by the President, unless otherwise ordered.

RULE 12

REPORTS
COM-MITTEES

The report of all Committees shall be in writing. If a report is received by the Convention when presented, it may at once be acted on, or laid on the table for future consideration. The reception of a report by the Convention does not adopt it or its recommendations. If it is desired that a report, or its recommendations, shall become the action of the Convention, a resolution or resolutions to that effect must accompany it. When the report of a Special Committee is acted upon by the Convention, the Committee ceases to exist.

POINTS
ORDER

When a member is called to order by the President, or by another member rising to a point of order, he shall immediately take his seat unless permitted to explain. All questions of order shall be determined by the President; but any member may appeal from the decision of the Chair, and on such appeal no member may speak more than once without leave of the Convention.

RULE 14

The prescribed Order of Business shall not be departed from, nor shall any Rule of Order be suspended or changed, unless by a vote of two-thirds of the members present. Nor shall any Rule of Order, or Order of Business, be changed without one day's previous notice to that effect, except by unanimous consent; provided, that a motion to suspend the Rule of Order, in order to direct the Secretary to cast the ballot of the Convention, shall require the unanimous consent of the Convention.

CHANGING

RULE 15

The majority of a quorum shall always be required to elect an officer.

QUORUM

RULE 16

The President of the Convention may appoint a Standing Committee on Rules of Order. All proposed changes in the Rules of Order shall be referred to such Committee, if appointed, for consideration and report. When questions of order are raised, which are not provided for by these rules, the President, if he so desires, may refer such questions to the Committee on Rules for their opinion. "Robert's Rules of Order" shall be the parliamentary guide in all cases not provided for in the foregoing rules.

COMMITTEE ON RULES
OF ORDER

RULE 17

In all elections required to be made by concurrent votes of both orders, the ballots of the Clerical Order shall first be counted and the list of the person or persons elected by said order shall be declared: the ballots of the Lay Order shall next be counted and the list of the person or persons elected by said order shall be declared. Any person or persons, whose name or names shall appear on both of the said lists of persons elected shall be declared elected by the Convention, and no person shall be declared elected by the Convention unless he shall have been so elected by the vote of each order considered separate and apart from the other order.

ELECTION
BY CONCURREN-
T VOTES

RULE 18

APPROPRI-ATIONS

All resolutions carrying appropriations shall be presented during the first half hour of the afternoon session of the First Day.

RULE 19.

PRINTED
DISTRIBUTED

All printed reports shall be delivered to the Secretary for distribution at the opening of the afternoon session on the First Day, and five minutes only shall be allotted for hearing a summary of each printed report when called up: This provision is not to apply to the Report of the Committee on Canons, or the Report of the Finance Committee.

RULE 20

RESOLU-
TIONS
FILED

Contemplated resolutions likely to involve debate shall be filed with the Committee on the Dispatch of Business before the opening of any session so that provision may be made in the Calendar for their consideration.

ARTICLES OF INCORPORATION
OF THE
PROTESTANT EPISCOPAL CHURCH IN THE
DIOCESE OF LOS ANGELES

Know All Men by These Presents, That the Protestant Episcopal Church in the Diocese of Los Angeles, is hereby incorporated under the provisions of Section six hundred and four (604), Title twelve (12) of Part four (4) of "The Civil Code" of the State of California.

And we hereby certify :

First. That the name of the said Corporation shall be "The Protestant Episcopal Church in the Diocese of Los Angeles."

Second. That the purposes for which it is formed are: To take, receive, acquire, hold, manage, and administer property, funds, and money of and for the use of said Church, and of and for the use of its constituent Parishes, Missions, and Congregations, whether such property, money, or funds be acquired or held for the use of Churches, parsonages, hospitals, schools, colleges, orphan asylums, homes, cemeteries, or for other religious, benevolent, or educational purposes.

Third. That the place where its principal business is to be transacted is the City and County of Los Angeles in the State of California.

Fourth. That the term for which it is to exist is fifty years from and after the date of its incorporation.

Fifth. That the number of its Directors is seven and the names and residences of its Directors who have been elected for the first year are as follows, to wit:

Joseph Horsfall Johnson.....	Pasadena
B. W. R. Tayler.....	Los Angeles, Cal.
J. F. Towell.....	Los Angeles, Cal.
T. L. Winder.....	Los Angeles, Cal.
A. G. L. Trew.....	Los Angeles, Cal.
H. T. Lee.....	Los Angeles, Cal.
J. E. Cowles.....	Los Angeles, Cal.

Sixth. That pecuniary profit not being its object, it has no capital or capital stock.

Seventh. That the said Protestant Episcopal Church in the Diocese of Los Angeles is now, and was, on the 25th day of May, 1898, a Church and religious association in this State, composed of more than two constituent Parishes and Missions, having a common representative legislative body, to wit: an Annual Convention. That on the said last-named day, the said Annual Convention of said Church was regularly convened and organized at St. John's Church, in the City and County of Los Angeles, State of California, with the undersigned Joseph Horsfall Johnson as its Presiding Officer and the undersigned Milton C. Dotten as its Secretary.

That the said Convention, being so organized, did then and there elect, and by resolution duly determine, to incorporate the said Church under the provisions of Section 604, Title XII, Part IV, of "The Civil Code," and that the name of the proposed corporation should be "The Protestant Episcopal Church in the Diocese of Los Angeles," and that the purposes for which it was formed were to take, receive, acquire, hold, manage, and administer property, funds, and money of and for the use of said Church, and of and for the use of its constituent Parishes, Missions, and Congregations, whether such property, money, or funds be acquired or held for the use of Churches, parsonages, hospitals, schools, colleges, orphan asylums, homes, cemeteries, or for other religious, benevolent, or educational purposes, and that the place where its principal business was to be transacted was the City and County of Los Angeles, in the State of California, and the term for which it was to exist was fifty years, and that the number of its Directors should be seven.

That the said Convention did then and there elect seven Directors of said Corporation to serve for the first year, and that the following persons were elected as such Directors, viz.:

Joseph Horsfall Johnson

H. T. Lee

A. G. L. Trew

J. F. Towell

B. W. R. Tayler

J. E. Cowles

T. L. Winder

That the said proceedings of said Convention were duly had in accordance with the Constitution, Canons, Rules, and Regulations governing the other proceedings of said Convention, and a majority of the members of said Convention voted for the said Directors; that the election thereof was by ballot, and the persons above named were duly and regularly elected. That the undersigned as Presiding Officer and Secretary of said Convention were then and there, by a resolution thereof, directed to cause to be prepared and to sign and acknowledge Articles of Incorporation and to take all necessary, proper, and legal steps to accomplish the due incorporation of said Church as a religious corporation under the provisions of Section 604, Title XII, Part IV, of "The Civil Code" of California.

Witness our hands at Los Angeles this 25th day of May, 1898.

(Signed) Joseph Horsfall Johnson, President.

(Signed) Milton C. Dotten, Secretary.

Corporate Powers

The corporate powers, business, and property of this Corporation shall be exercised, conducted, and controlled by a Board of Seven Directors, each of which shall be at the time of his election a communicant of the Church in the Diocese. Four directors shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business.

ARTICLE II

Election of Directors

The Directors shall be elected by ballot during the session of the Annual Diocesan Convention, to serve for one year and until their successors are elected. (And qualified.)

The Secretary of the Convention shall notify the Directors personally, or by mail, of their election, and shall at the same time notify them that a meeting will be held at a time and place named in the notice to effect an organization of the Board.

ARTICLE III

Organization of Directors

At the time and place mentioned by the Secretary of the Convention in his notice to them of their election, or at a time and place agreed upon by the Directors, they shall meet and organize by the election of a President, Vice President, and Secretary (who must be Directors) and a Treasurer, who need not be one of their number. At the same meeting, they shall by resolution fix the place in the City of Los Angeles which shall be the principal place of business of the Corporation and where the meeting of the Directors shall be held. They shall likewise determine the number and times of their regular meetings, one of which shall be on the Saturday next before the day appointed for the meeting of the Annual Convention. Any vacancy occurring in the Board of Directors shall be filled by the Board at a regular meeting thereof, or at a special meeting called for the purpose.

Duties of Directors

The Directors shall enter upon, take possession of, receive, hold, and administer for the use of the Protestant Episcopal Church in the Diocese of Los Angeles, and subject to its Constitutions, Canons, Rules, and Regulations, all property which the said Church now owns or may acquire or become entitled to, excepting such property, money, or funds as are now, or may hereafter be, otherwise provided for or disposed of under the Constitutions, Canons, Rules, and Regulations of said Church, or held by others upon trusts created by the donors thereof, or by operation of law. For purposes of investment, all the Permanent Funds of the Diocese may be consolidated into one in order to give to each of the Permanent Funds more diversified investments than would be possible if the same were invested separately, the interest earnings thereon to be paid, pro rata, to the several funds; and any profits of accumulations arising from such investment of said consolidated fund shall be credited on the books of the Corporation to the several funds, pro rata, and any loss or shrinkage of such investments shall be charged on the books of the Corporation, likewise pro rata, to the several funds. And they shall likewise enter upon, take possession of, receive, hold and administer for the use of Parishes, Missions, and Congregations of said Church, and subject to the Constitutions, Canons, Rules, and Regulations of said Church, all property granted or entrusted to the Corporation for the use of such Parishes, Missions or Congregations, whether such property, money or funds be acquired or held for the use of Churches, Parishes, hospitals, schools, colleges, orphan asylums, homes, cemeteries, or other religious, benevolent, or educational purposes; provided that before accepting deed of property in trust for any Mission, or Congregation, the Directors be furnished with a satisfactory certificate or abstract of title, showing good title in the grantor; and provided, that said Corporation shall not mortgage or alienate any real estate held for any of the purposes aforesaid without the consent of the Bishop and Standing Committee, and provided, further, that all Churches held by the said Corporation shall be used exclusively for the worship and religious services of the Protestant Episcopal Church, and according to the Constitutions, Canons, Rules, and Regulations thereof. They shall cause to be kept a complete record of all their acts and proceedings, and shall present to the Annual Convention a report and full statement of their acts and proceedings, and of the property acquired, received, disposed of, and held by them.

ARTICLE V

The Secretary of the Board shall notify the Bishop of the Diocese of every special meeting of the Board, in the same manner as he does the Directors, and the Bishop shall be entitled to attend all meetings and shall have a voice in the consideration of all matters coming before the Board.

ARTICLE VI

The President

The President, or, in his absence, the Vice President shall:

1. Preside over all meetings of the Board.

2. Call special meetings of the Directors whenever he may deem it necessary, or whenever he shall be requested to do so by two members of the Board.

3. He shall, with the Secretary, sign and acknowledge all instruments affecting real property made by order of the Board.

4. He shall sign all checks for money drawn upon the Treasurer by order of the Board.

5. He shall discharge such other duties for and on behalf of the Board as they may authorize.

ARTICLE VII

The Secretary

It shall be the duty of the Secretary:

1. To sign and serve or cause to be served all notices of meetings of the Directors, provided for in the By-Laws or called by the President, personally or by mail, at least ten days before the time of meeting.

2. To keep minutes of the meetings of the Board and a record of all its acts and proceedings and a record of all property received by the Board, and, if disposed of, the disposition thereof: also an accurate account of all moneys ordered to be paid by the Board.

3. To countersign all checks drawn by the President upon the Treasurer in pursuance of orders of the Board.

4. To sign and acknowledge all instruments affecting real estate made by order of the Board and attach thereto the corporate seal, of which he shall have the custody.

5. To discharge all other duties pertaining to his office and such as may be prescribed by the Board.

In case of his absence or inability to act, the President shall appoint some other member of the Board to act as temporary Secretary.

ARTICLE VIII

The Treasurer

The Treasurer shall receive and keep all funds and money of the Corporation delivered to him by or under the direction of the Board of Directors and pay them out only on checks of the President, countersigned by the Secretary. He shall give bonds in such sum and manner as the Board of Directors shall prescribe. He shall keep accurate accounts and report quarterly to the Board of Directors.

ARTICLE IX

Corporate Seal

The Directors shall procure a Seal for the Corporation and adopt the same by resolution. It shall bear upon it the words: "Diocese of Los Angeles. Incorporated. 1898," and such device as the Board of Directors may adopt.

ARTICLE X

By-Laws, Etc.

The Secretary of the Convention shall furnish to the Secretary of the Board of Directors a certificate of the election of Directors by the Convention, a copy of these By-Laws, certified by him to be correct, and also a certified copy of the resolutions of the Convention providing for the incorporation of the Church; and whenever amendments, alterations or additions shall be made to these By-Laws the Secretary of the Convention, in which such amendments, alterations, or additions are made, shall furnish certified copies thereof to the Secretary of the Board. The Secretary of the Board shall preserve the same and enter in a book kept by him for that purpose the said resolutions of the Convention providing for such incorporation, these By-Laws and all amendments, alterations, and additions thereto, and the Articles of Incorporation and Certificate of Incorporation filed in the office of the County Clerk and issued by the Secretary of State, respectively, and a certificate to be furnished annually by the Secretary of the Convention of the election of Directors for the ensuing year.

FORMS for INCORPORATING A PARISH

Canonical consent must first be obtained from the Bishop in the manner provided by Sections 70, 71, and 72 of the Canons—which see.

It is then necessary in all cases to employ an experienced Notary to attend the meeting called for the purpose of incorporating the Parish; and it is advisable, if possible, to have also the assistance of a competent attorney.

The Civil Code, Section 290, prescribes a general form of Articles of Incorporation for all corporations.

The Civil Code, Section 594, requires some additional facts to be set out when incorporating religious corporations.

The Civil Code, Section 599, permits religious corporations to make important, special provisions “either in their By-Laws, Ordinances, Constitutions, or Articles of Incorporation.”

And the Canons of the Diocese, Sections 73 to 114, prescribe that, in certain matters, the internal management of all Parish corporations shall be uniform.

The following form has been carefully designed to satisfy the requirements of both the Statutory and Canon Law, and to obtain all the special privileges conferred by Statute on Religious Corporations. Accordingly, no departure should be made from this form without in the first instance communicating the reasons for the proposed change to the Bishop in order that he may obtain the advice of his counsel.

Directions for executing and filing the Articles of Incorporation are given at the foot of the form,

of

THE RECTOR, WARDENS, AND VESTRYMEN

in

We, the undersigned persons, residents of the State of California, being associated together for the purpose of maintaining a religious association, do hereby incorporate ourselves as a Religious Corporation under and in pursuance with the laws of the State of California.

We do therefore hereby certify:

First. That the name of said corporation shall be: The Rector, Wardens, and Vestrymen of..... Parish, in.....

Second. That the purposes for which the said corporation is formed are:

(a) To establish and maintain a Parish, which shall form a constituent part of the Diocese of Los Angeles in that branch of the Holy Catholic Church now known as the Protestant Episcopal Church in the United States of America; and so that the Constitution and Canons, Rules, Regulations, and Discipline of the Church in the United States of America, and the Constitutions and Canons of the said Church in the Diocese of Los Angeles, for the time being, shall, unless they be contrary to the laws of this State, always form a part of its By-Laws, Ordinances, Constitution, and Articles of Incorporation, and prevail against anything therein contained that may appear repugnant to said Constitutions, Canons, Rules, Regulations, and Discipline.

(b) To hold all property of the Association owned prior to incorporation and such as may be acquired hereafter in any manner; to transact all business relative thereto; and generally to do, perform, and transact any and all acts and business, and to exercise any and all powers and privileges in any wise permitted or granted by the laws of the State of California to Religious Corporations and required by or not contrary to the Constitution and Canons, Rules, Regulations, or Discipline of the said Church in the United States of America, and the Constitutions and Canons of the said Church in the Diocese of Los Angeles.

Third. That the place where the principal business of this corporation is to be transacted is.....

Fourth. That the term for which this corporation is to exist is fifty years.

Fifth. That the number of the Directors or Trustees of this corporation shall be subject to be increased or diminished as permitted by law.

Sixth. That the purposes of this corporation not being for pecuniary profit of its members, there is no capital stock.

Seventh. That a meeting of the members of this Association for the purpose of holding an election for the first Directors or Trustees of the corporation hereby formed was held at.....

Directions for Executing and Filing the Articles of Incorporation and Completing the Organization of the Incorporation

1st. The Articles of Incorporation must be signed by three or more persons, a majority of whom must be residents of this State (but not necessarily of the county in which the Parish Church is situate.)

2nd. Each of the persons who sign the Articles must acknowledge his or her signature before a Notary Public. (See Civil Code, Section 292.)

3rd. The Notary Public must attach a certificate that the Articles were acknowledged by all the subscribers, and the certificate must bear his seal.

4th. The Tellers of election must also sign the oath attached to the Articles of Incorporation, and this oath must also be signed by the Notary. (See Civil Code, Section 594.) It is no objection if the Tellers of election also act and sign as Incorporators, but they should not be elected Directors.

5th. When the Articles are signed by the Incorporators and by the officers of election and certified to by the Notary with his seal, two exact copies should be made omitting nothing contained in the original.

6th. File the original Articles in the office of the Clerk of the county in which the Parish Church is situate and obtain from him a certificate to each of the two copies that it is a true copy of the original filed in his office.

7th. Send the two certified copies to the Secretary of State, in Sacramento, and request him to file one in his office and return the other with a certificate attached that it is a true copy of the one remaining on his files.

8th. On receiving the certified copy from the Secretary of State, file it in the office of the Clerk of the county in which the Parish Church is situate. And, if the Parish possesses or shall thereafter acquire any real estate in any other county, an additional copy must be obtained from the Secretary of State and filed in each such county. (See Civil Code, Sections 296 and 299.)

9th. When the certified copy of the Articles of Incorporation obtained from the Secretary of State is filed in the office of the County Clerk, then a deed or deeds should be executed conveying to the corporation by its correct corporate name any real property that may be intended for the Parish. Those deeds should be prepared by a competent attorney and recorded in the Recorder's office of every county in which any part of the land conveyed is situate.

10th. Within one month after filing the Articles of Incorporation the corporation must adopt By-Laws. Those By-Laws must be kept in the office of the corporation (the Vestry Room) in a Book of By-Laws, and be always "open to the inspection of the public." (See Civil Code, Sections 301 and 304.)

Directions for adopting By-Laws and a form of By-Laws are given below:

Directions for Adopting By-Laws

The Statute Law of the State provides for this by the Civil Code, Sections 599, 301 and 304.

There are two ways of adopting By-Laws (see Civil Code, Section 301), viz.:

1st. A majority of the members may adopt them at a meeting called for the purpose; and in the event of such meeting being called, two weeks' notice of the same, by advertisement in some newspaper published in the county in which the Parish Church is situate, or if none is published therein, then in a paper published in an adjoining county, must be given by order of the acting President.

In cases of Parishes with large membership this is apparently the most convenient method of adopting By-Laws.

2nd. The written consent of two-thirds of the members is effectual to adopt By-Laws without a meeting for that purpose.

This can be obtained by getting the requisite number of signatures to the engrossed copy.

By-Laws

Pursuant to the authority conferred by Section 599 of the Civil Code of the State of California the following are hereby adopted as the By-Laws of the corporation known as..... and all other By-Laws of this corporation, if any, are hereby repealed.

ARTICLE I

The qualifications of members and the terms of admission to membership in this corporation are such as are prescribed by the Canons of the Diocese of Los Angeles for election of Vestrymen and Directors.

ARTICLE II

To entitle a person who is not registered as both an attendant upon and a communicant at the services of the Parish to be admitted as a member of this corporation, such person must be registered by the Vestry as both a member of the congregation and a regular contributor to the support of the Parish of a minimum amount ofper month.

ARTICLE III

.....members shall constitute a quorum at any meeting of the corporation, and an election of officers of the corporation by a meeting so constituted shall be as valid as if made at an election at which a majority of the members of the corporation were present and voted.

ARTICLE IV

The Rector of the Parish of.....in.....for the time being shall be ex officio a member of this corporation and shall be elected a member and President of the Board of Trustees, Directors, Vestrymen, or other body entitled by Statute and Canon Law to manage the business of the corporation.

ARTICLE V

Ecclesiastical censure pronounced against any member of this corporation, according to the discipline of the Protestant Episcopal Church in the United States of America, shall ipso facto terminate the membership of such person in this corporation. In case of the removal of censure a censured person may be restored to membership in this corporation on complying with any conditions that may be attached both to the removal of censure and the terms of admission required of new members.

ARTICLE VI

Non-payment of dues for sixty days immediately preceding any election of officers of this corporation or any meeting of the membership thereof shall ipso facto terminate the membership of the person so in default unless he or she shall have been registered for six months preceding such election or Parish meeting as both an attendant upon and communicant at the services of the Parish Church.

ARTICLE VII

The Board of Directors or Trustees of this corporation shall be known as the Vestrymen thereof, and shall be organized in the following manner: The Rector of the Parish of.....shall be ex officio a member and President thereof, and the remaining members shall be elected on the day and in the manner prescribed by the Canons of the Diocese of Los Angeles.

ARTICLE VIII

The number of Directors or Vestrymen shall be, which number may be increased or diminished at a special meeting of the members of this corporation called by the Vestry, in the manner prescribed by the Canons of the Diocese of Los Angeles, within the limits as to the number prescribed by Section 593 of the Civil Code of California.

ARTICLE IX

No indebtedness, sale, conveyance, mortgage, or contract whatsoever, except receipts for donations or contributions to the property of this corporation, shall be incurred, made, or entered into by, or be valid or binding against, this corporation, unless each and all of the following proceedings are regularly had and taken, that is to say:

1. A resolution to incur the indebtedness or make the contract must be adopted at a regular meeting of the Vestry at which two-thirds of the Vestrymen shall be present and vote in favor thereof.

2. Such resolution must specify exactly, if it relate to a proposed indebtedness, the amount of such proposed indebtedness, and the purpose for which it is to be incurred; or if it relate to a sale, conveyance, mortgage, or contract, the exact terms of the same.

3. Such resolution must be fully spread upon the minutes, and the minutes signed by all the Vestrymen who vote in favor thereof.

ARTICLE X

The regular meetings of the Vestrymen shall be held on.....of each month, the meeting to be announced at Morning Service on the preceding Sunday. A majority of the Vestry shall constitute a quorum at such meetings, and shall have power to transact any business except such as requires the consent of a greater number, according to the provisions of these By-Laws. Any meeting at which all the members are present shall be deemed a regular meeting, however called. Special meetings may be called at any time by notice given in writing by the Secretary.....days prior to such meeting at the request of the Rector or any two Vestrymen.

ARTICLE XI

The Constitution, Canons, Rules, Regulations, and Discipline of the Church in the United States of America and the Constitutions and Canons of the said Church in the Diocese of Los Angeles shall, unless they be contrary to the laws of this State, always form part of the By-Laws, Ordinances, Constitution, and Articles of Incorporation of this corporation, and prevail against anything therein contained that may appear to be repugnant to such Constitutions, Canons, Rules, Regulations, or Discipline.

ARTICLE XII

The Corporate Seal shall have engraved upon it

ARTICLE XIII

These By-Laws may be altered or amended, except as to the provisions of Articles V, IX, and XI, at any regular meeting of the Vestrymen, by an affirmative vote of not less than..... Vestrymen, notice of said amendment having been given at a previous regular meeting.

In Witness Whereof, we, the undersigned members of the religious corporation known as.....
.....do hereby set our hands.

Certificate to By-Laws

We, the undersigned being a majority of the Directors and the Clerk of the corporation known as the Rector..... of Parish in....., do hereby certify the foregoing to be the By-Laws of the said corporation, and that the same were regularly adopted by the written assent of two-thirds of the members of the said corporation, or by a majority of the members at a meeting regularly called.

In Witness Whereof we have hereunto set our hands this.....day of.....in the year of our Lord one thousand nine hundred and.....

FORMS

for the

ORGANIZATION OF A MISSION

First procure and read carefully Canon VIII, of the Canons of the Diocese, especially Sections 60 to 67.

Then prepare an application to the Bishop after the form following, and send it to the Bishop :

To the Rt. Rev. the Bishop of the Diocese of Los Angeles :

Reverend Father in God :

The undersigned male adult persons residing within (insert the name of the town or describe intelligently the district, or city or county in which the proposed Mission is desired) do hereby respectfully apply to you for the organization of a Mission in the above described locality ; and we do declare our readiness to undertake the duties and obligations implied in such organization.

Signed : _____

Dated : _____

By-Laws for a Mission

(Note.—The organization of a Mission being a very simple one, without incorporation, few By-Laws will be necessary. The following are set forth as a guide; and will ordinarily be found sufficient.)

I. The Missionary in charge of this Mission or, if there be no Missionary in charge, then the Warden of the Mission, shall appoint the hour and place of the annual meeting required by Section 61 of the Canons of the Diocese, by public notice at the next preceding Sunday services. And if for any cause such meeting or the elections thereat be not held, a meeting shall be called for the purpose as soon thereafter as practicable by the Missionary, or by the Warden if there be no Missionary in charge.

II. The Board of Officers shall hold regular meetings (specify how often, and the time and place), and special meetings may be called at any time by the Missionary in charge or, when there is no Missionary, by the Warden. Three members of the Board shall constitute a quorum.

III. The Board of Officers shall provide for the maintenance of the Mission by collecting a sufficient revenue therefor; shall see that the amount to be paid monthly to the Board of Missions is regularly and promptly sent to the Treasurer of the Diocese; shall regulate the current and other expenses of the Mission, and shall see that other obligations under the Canons of the Diocese are observed.

IV. All offerings at the public services of the Mission and all pledges and contributions not designated by the donors for a specific purpose shall be deemed the revenue or funds of the Mission, excepting "the Alms and Contributions, not otherwise specifically designated, at the Administration of the Holy Communion on one Sunday in each calendar month, and other offerings for the poor, which shall be deposited with the Minister" of the Mission, and provided that canonical contributions shall be regularly made and applied to the purposes for which they are made.

V. The Treasurer shall pay out no money from the funds of the Mission, except by stated or special authority from the Board of Officers.

Forms of Bequest

FORM 1

Form of devise or bequest of any kind of property when it is desired to leave the disposition of the property to the discretion of the governing body of the Church:

I give, devise, and bequeath to "The Protestant Episcopal Church in the Diocese of Los Angeles" (a corporation), the following described property:

(Here describe the real property with reasonable certainty; or specify the amount of money or the nature of the personal property given.)

FORM 2

Form of bequest of personal property only when it is desired to create or increase a permanent fund or foundation for a special purpose:

I give and bequeath to "The Protestant Episcopal Church in the Diocese of Los Angeles" (a corporation:)

(Here specify the amount of money or the nature of the personal property given:)

in trust to invest and re-invest the same *  and apply the interest and income therefrom toward the support of:

(Here indicate the object which it is desired to benefit. For example):

The Board of Missions

or The Church Home for Children or The Church Home for the Aged or The Support of the Episcopate or Such other objects as it may be desired to benefit.

OR

If it is desired to benefit more than one object, state the proportion of the income to be given to each. For example stop at the word "same" and then say:

"and to apply the interest and income therefrom in equal parts to the support of:" (Naming the several purposes.)

OR

"and to apply the interest and income therefrom as follows:"

One-sixth to the Board of Missions

Two-sixths to the Church Home for Children

Two-sixths to the Church Home for the Aged

One-sixth to the Support of the Episcopate.

OR

express such other proportions and such other objects as may be desired.

FORM 3

Form of devise of real property only.

When it is desired to create or increase a permanent fund or foundation for a special purpose:

I give and devise to "The Protestant Episcopal Church in the Diocese of Los Angeles" (a corporation), the following real property:

(Here describe the same with reasonable certainty:)
in trust to hold the same and apply the rents, issues, and profits thereof towards the support of:

(Here indicate the object which it is desired to benefit as in the case of a bequest of personal property—Form 2—and then add) or to sell the said real property and invest and re-invest the proceeds and apply the interest and income from such investments to the same purpose (or purposes as the case may be.)

Devise or Bequest to the Bishop

FORM 4

If it is desired to leave the disposition of the property to the discretion of the Bishop:

I give, devise, and bequeath to "The Bishop of the Protestant Episcopal Church in Los Angeles," present incumbent, Joseph Horsfall Johnson (a corporation sole), the following described property:

(Here describe the real property with reasonable certainty; or specify the amount of money or the nature of the personal property given, and add:)

"with power, however, to said Corporation Sole at "any time in his discretion to resign the said trust
"and substitute and appoint as trustee in his place
"and stead any corporation having power to hold
"and care for property of the beneficiary to which "said Corporation Sole may appropriate this bequest
"or devise."

FORM 5

If it is desired to create or increase a permanent fund or foundation for a special purpose, follow, for a bequest of personal property, Form No. 2, and for a devise of real property, Form No. 3, simply substituting the words "The Bishop of the Protestant Episcopal Church in Los Angeles," (a corporation sole), Joseph Horsfall Johnson, present incumbent, for the words "The Protestant Episcopal Church in the Diocese of Los Angeles" (a corporation,) and in either case after declaring the nature of the trust as in those forms indicated, add: "with power, however, to said Corporation Sole at any 'time in his discretion to resign the said trust and 'substitute and appoint as trustee in his place or 'stead 'The Protestant Episcopal Church in the Diocese of Los Angeles,' a corporation, or any corporation having power to hold and care for property 'of the beneficiary.'"

FORM 6

Devise or Bequest to Incorporated Charity

JOURNAL OF THE PROCEEDINGS OF THE CONVENTION

St. Paul's Pro-Cathedral,
Los Angeles, January 25, 1922.

The Twenty-seventh Annual Convention of the Church in the Diocese of Los Angeles opened with the Celebration of the Holy Communion in St. Paul's Pro-Cathedral, Los Angeles, at 10 a. m. on that day.

The Celebrant was the Bishop, the Right Rev. Joseph H. Johnson, D.D. He was assisted by the Very Rev. Dr. MacCormack, as Epistoler, and the Rev. Dr. Dotten as Gospeller and in the administration of the Sacred Elements by Dean Barnes and the Rev. R. L. Windsor.

At the close of the service the Convention was called to order for business, the Right Reverend, the Bishop, taking the chair.

The Secretary announced that more than one-third of the Clergy had deposited attendance slips and more than one-third of the Parishes and Missions had signified that they were represented by the attendance slips of their Lay-Delegates.

A constitutional quorum of both orders being present, the Chairman declared the Convention ready for business.

On motion of the Rev. R. L. Windsor, the Rev. Alfred Fletcher was nominated as Secretary.

There being no further nominations, on motion, the Assistant Secretary cast the ballot of the Convention and the Rev. Alfred Fletcher was declared elected.

The Secretary appointed the Rev. R. L. Windsor as Assistant Secretary.

The Bishop delivered his annual address (Appendix 1).

The Bishop Coadjutor then delivered his annual address to the Convention (Appendix 2).

The Committee on Dispatch of Business recommended (1) that the report of the Board of Christian Education be placed in the Order of Business immediately after the report of the Board of Missions; (2) that the report of the Social Service Commission be placed in the Order of Business immediately after the report of the Board of Christian Education; (3) that Nos. 19, 21 and 22 of the present Order of Business be transferred to No. 5 of the Order of Business for the Second Day; (4) that reports of Diocesan Institutions not completed on the First Day (under No. 25) be the Order of Business included in No. 5 on the morning of the Second Day.

On motion it was so ordered.

On motion the reading of the regular and special committees was dispensed with; the committees being practically the same as those of last year. The several changes were noted and read. (Pages 4-6.)

On motion the Convention adjourned to meet at 2 o'clock.

On reassembling at the hour named, the Bishop in the chair, the following appropriations were presented and referred to the Finance Committee:

Registrar, office expenses	$ 50.00
Registrar, removal of Diocesan Library	50.00
Registrar, removal of Bishop's office	200.00
Secretary, Printing Journal	600.00
Secretary, extra printing required by Convention	100.00
Secretary, office expenses	50.00
Master of Ceremonies, for Convention Service	52.35
Historiographer, office expenses	10.00

The Treasurer reported the list of delinquent Parishes and Missions: The Missions at Bostonia, Carlsbad, East San Diego, El Centro, Elsinore, Huntington Park, Oceanside and San Luis Rey, and the following Parishes: St. Athanasius', Los Angeles; St. Peter's, Los Angeles; St. John's, San Bernardino.

Dean Weld moved that, in view of the conditions attending St. Andrew's Mission, Carpinteria, that Mission be admitted to representation on payment of one-third of the total amount due.

Adopted.

The Rev. Dr. Dotten presented the report of the Committee on the Admission of Parishes and Missions into Union with the Convention:

Your Committee begs to report that it has received applications from St. Simon's Mission, San Fernando; St. Jude's Mission, Burbank, and Grace Mission, Glendora.

All canonical requirements having been complied with, your Committee offers a resolution that these Missions be admitted into union with the Convention.

M. C. DOTTEN,
C. E. C. HODGSON,
C. A. ROCKWELL.

Adopted.

The Rev. R. B. Gooden presented the report of the Standing Committee. Received. (Appendix 3.)

The Rev. Dr. Learned presented the report of the Committee on Canons:

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON CANONS

To the Twenty-seventh Annual Convention of the Diocese of Los Angeles:

The Committee on Canons begs to submit the following report:

(1) Amendments proposed by the Rev. P. H. Hickman:

Amend Sections 13 and 14, Article V, of the Constitutions, by substituting the phrase, "Special Meeting of the Convention," for the phrase, "Special Convention."

Amend, in the same way, Sections 52 of Article XX, 1, 2 and 3 of Canon I, 9 of Canon III, 13 of Canon IV, 20 and 22 of Canon V.

The Committee recommends the adoption of these amendments.

(2) Resolution by Mr. H. E. Brett:

That the Committee on Canons report to the next Annual Convention such amendment to the Canons as will permit women to serve on vestries; in the event that a recommendation favorable to the election of women as Lay-Delegates to the Convention shall be presented.

Postponed; as the condition referred to has not been certified to as fulfilled.

(3) Proposed by Mr. H. E. Brett:

That the Committee report such revision of Article XX, Section 54, of the Constitutions, as shall be desirable to simplify the procedure and make more definite the intention of the said Article.

The Committee on Canons considers that the new Section 67, of Canon VIII, has removed the ambiguity regarding the phrase, "entitled to vote"; and that, in other respects, the section has been carefully framed to safeguard the "election of a Bishop"; consequently, that no proposed revision is advisable.

(4) Referred by the Rev. P. H. Hickman:

Dean Weld's "Proposed Plan for the Enlargement of the Corporation"—page 48 of the Journal; will be presented by the Chairman of the Committee verbally.

(5) Proposed by Mr. W. C. Mushet:

That the Committee prepare a Canon authorizing the employment of a certified public accountant to make the annual audit of the Convention funds' accounts under the direction of the Auditing Committee.

To meet this—the Committee recommends the insertion of the following clause at the end of Section 33, Canon V: "Such an examination shall also be made of the books and accounts of the treasurer of the Board of Missions, the treasurer of the Executive Council, the treasurer of the Church Pension Fund Committee and the treasurer of the Nation-Wide Campaign Committee. A certified public accountant may be employed where necessary."

(6) Canon XVII—"The Executive Council"; adopted provisionally for one year—to be presented for amendment or ratification at the next Annual Convention.

The Committee recommends the continuance of this Canon for another year; when, after this further extended trial, it shall be submitted to the next Annual Convention for amendment or ratification.

(7) Canon XXXI—"The Disabled Clergy Endowment Fund" and Canon XXXII—"The Widows' and Orphans' Endowment Fund":

The Committee recommends that these be repealed and struck out from future editions of the Canons.

(8) Canon XVIII, Section 129:

The Committee recommends the insertion, at the end of this section, of the following clause: "The Board may also appropriate funds for land or buildings needed for missionary development."

Respectfully submitted,

LESLIE E. LEARNED, Chairman.

On motion, No. (1) of the report of the Committee was adopted. No. (2) was postponed; unless the larger measure of the delegation of women to the Convention should be adopted, in which case it would be resumed. No. (3); no action was taken. No. (4) on resolution of Dean Weld was postponed until next Convention, and referred back to the Committee. No. (5) on motion was adopted with the following changes: Instead of at the end of Section 33, Canon V, the amendment was placed at the end of Section 48, Canon VII; the words "the treasurer of the Diocese" were inserted before the words "the treasurer of the Board of Missions;" instead of the concluding sentence the following was substituted, "A certified public accountant shall be employed." Numbers (6), (7) and (8); the recommendation of the Committee was adopted.

The vote of the women's organizations throughout the Diocese was called for—on the question which was submitted to them by a resolution of the last Annual Convention, "Do you desire that women shall be admitted as delegates from the Parishes and Missions to the Diocesan Convention?"

The Secretary stated that he had sent the inquiry through the Clergy to all of the Parishes and Missions in union with the Convention, and to the diocesan women's organizations; that he had received replies from 28 Parishes and Missions, 12 voting in the affirmative, 16 in the negative; that, in these 28 Parishes and Missions, 40 societies had voted, 16 for and 24 against; that of the diocesan women's organizations replying the Bishop's Guild voted for it; and, of the 57 chapters of the Woman's Auxiliary, 23 voted for it and 12 against it, the others not recording a vote. Such of the Chapters of the Daughters of the King as voted did so through the Parishes and are counted there rather than through their Diocesan Secretary, because of indefiniteness.

The Rev. Dr. Davidson moved that, in view of the insufficient interest manifested in the proposed measure by the women's organizations in the Diocese, the matter be laid on the table.

Adopted.

On motion, the report of the Committee on Canons was then adopted as a whole.

On motion of the Rev. P. H. Hickman the following proposed amendments were referred to the Committee on Canons to report at next Convention:

Add before the words "of this Diocese," in the first sentence of Section 9, Canon III, the words, "or any adjourned or special session thereof;"; also,

Add at the conclusion of the first sentence of Section 13, Canon IV, the words: "Lay-Delegates shall serve until the next annual meeting of the Parish or Mission."

The Rev. P. H. Hickman presented the Historiographer's report. Received. (Appendix 4.)

Mr. Henry Damerel reported for the Committee on Credentials that thirty-nine Parishes and twenty-six Missions had sent certificates of Lay-Delegates, and that all such were entitled to representation—provided the Diocesan assessments had been paid. Received.

Seventy-nine of the canonical clergy registered as present, and one hundred and fifty-seven Lay-Delegates registered as representing the thirty-five Parishes and fifteen Missions—sending delegates—that were entitled to representation.

The Rev. Dr. Learned, Chairman of the Finance Committee of the Executive Council, presented the following report:

REPORT OF DISBURSEMENTS MADE THROUGH THE EXECUTIVE COUNCIL FOR THE YEAR 1921

TOTAL DISBURSEMENTS.....		$17,532.03
Total Gifts Authorized but not paid.....		1,500.00
		$19,032.03
Board of Missions.....	$3,000.00
City Missions.....	2,300.00
Seamen's Institute.....	1,086.50
Church Home for Children.....	1,193.50
Religious Education and Social Service.....	1,380.00
Neighborhood Settlement.....	120.00
*Land, Buildings, etc., (additional to Board of Missions).....	6,532.57
N. W. C. Expenses.....	1,319.46
Treasurer's Salaries	600.00
Fund held for Beverly.....	1,000.00
Fund held for Hemet.....	500.00	$19,032.03

* The following places received aid from this sum: Burbank, East San Diego, Van Nuys, Lompoc, Sawtelle, Epiphany, Watts, Downey, West Adams, St. Athanasius', Imperial Valley, Holtville, Calexico, Ojai, Wilmington, Japanese Mission.

Dr. Learned drew a comparison between the receipts of 1921 and the receipts of the year 1917. The receipts for diocesan missionary purposes during 1921 were $35,000 as against $11,200 in 1917.

The Bishop emphasized the contrast, and testified to the marvelous financial development effected by the Nation-Wide Campaign—by recalling the fact that, in the first year of his episcopate, 1895, the total contributions in the Diocese for Missionary purposes were $1,800.00.

The Chair appointed as ushers—for the distribution of the printed reports of committees: the Rev. S. C. Clark, the Rev. C. H. Boddington, Mr. Charles Beamish and Mr. Otto J. Zahn.

The Rev. F. U. Bugbee presented the Secretary's report of the Executive Council, and of the Nation-Wide Campaign; and Mr. Wm. F. Knight the Treasurer's report of the Nation-Wide Campaign. Received. (Appendix 5, and 6.)

The total receipts of the Nation-Wide Campaign canvass for the year, as gathered from the reports of the Treasurer of that fund and the Treasurer of the Diocese, seem to be: $80,359.58, distributed as follows: $19,212.40 for purposes of the Executive Council, chiefly in aid of new missions; $15,868.42 for Diocesan Missionary Assessment; $11,591.49 for Diocesan Assessment; $33,687.27 sent to New York.

The Rev. Stephen C. Clark presented the report of the Board of Christian Education, and asked that the privilege of the floor be given to the Rev. Charles B. Scovil, the newly-appointed Executive Secretary of the Board.

Mr. Scovil was invited to speak, and gave a further extended report and outline of the work. Received. (Appendix 7.)

Under a suspension of the Order of Business, the Bishop welcomed to the floor the Ven. Archdeacon E. J. Dennen, of Boston, Mass., who gave an address on the Order of Sir Galahad—an organization for boys—one chief purpose of which, the Archdeacon stated, is to effect for the Church what the Boy Scout organization is achieving for the nation—the cultivation of a clean, honorable and upright youth and manhood which will qualify for the best citizenship—with the added advantage in the Order of Sir Galahad of a Church training and discipline.

The Rev. Dr. Learned moved that the Order of Business be referred to the Committee on Canons for revision, and that the Woman's Auxiliary—a notable Diocesan institution—be included among the Diocesan Institutions to report to Convention.

On motion the matter was so referred.

The Rev. Dr. Davidson moved that the reports from Diocesan Institutions be made the order of the day tomorrow at 10 o'clock. Adopted.

The Rev. T. C. Marshall presented the report of the Board of Missions. On motion the report was received and the recommendation of the Board, that $16,500 be set as the missionary assessment for the current year, was adopted. (Appendix 8.)

The Rev. C. Rankin Barnes presented the report of the Commission on Philanthropy and Social Service. Received. (Appendix 9.)

The following resolutions, submitted by the Commission, were, on motion, severally adopted:

1. Resolved, That it is the mind of this Convention that the highest form of Christian Social Service is the establishment of justice, that is to say, of a condition of life wherein the fruits of industry are so distributed that every human being shall have a chance to live a full human life, with due opportunity for the preservation of bodily health, the cultivation of mental powers, and the exercise of spiritual faculties; and, further, that no merely ameliorative or charitable activities can ever take the place of this fundamental duty. Adopted.

2. Resolved, That it is the duty of the Diocesan Commission on Philanthropy and Social Service to stand for law and order and to express its mind on any problems deemed to affect social welfare. Adopted.

3. Resolved, That this Convention deploras the growing indifference to law and order as evidenced by the disregard of part of the Constitution of the United States, and many acts of mob rule in various parts of the country; that it goes on record as in favor of prompt law enforcement; and, further, that it calls on all Christian people to stand for the existing law of the land and for properly constituted order. Adopted.

4. Resolved, That this Convention requests the Deans of the four Convocations to include in each Convocation program some social service topic to aid in educating our people in the application of the principles of the Kingdom.

5. Whereas, The Department of Christian Social Service of the Presiding Bishop and Council has prepared in its winter and spring program for parish discussion groups on social service, and that these plans have been duly approved by the Presiding Bishop and Council; therefore, be it

Resolved, That this Convention considers it the duty of every parish in the Diocese to have a discussion group on the text-book, "The Social Opportunity of the Churchman," organized and in action before Easter, 1922. Adopted.

The Rev. Dr. Davidson was given the floor and invited the Convention to hold its next annual session in St. John's Parish House in the event of St. Paul's Parish House not being available for the purpose. The invitation was gratefully accepted.

The following resolution, offered by Mr. H. Ivor Thomas and amended by Dr. Learned, was accepted by the chairman of the Church Pension Committee:

Resolved, That the entire matter of clearing up the record of the Diocese be referred to the Church Pension Committee with instructions to study the matter during the present year and report their findings with recommendations to the Convention of this Diocese which meets in January, 1923.

Provided, further, that power be given to the Church Pension Committee in conjunction with the Executive Council to secure such funds as may be necessary to meet any emergency arising between January 1st, 1923, and the meeting of the Diocesan Convention.

Adopted.

On motion, Convention adjourned to meet at 9:30 a. m., tomorrow.

On Wednesday evening the Convention Dinner was participated in by some 400 enthusiastic men and women assembled from the various parishes of the Diocese—it being an open meeting of the Diocesan Men's Club, given in honor of Bishop and Mrs. Johnson and of the Bishop Coadjutor and Mrs. Stevens.

Bishop Johnson spoke of the great assistance and relief to him that has been occasioned by the coming of Bishop Stevens to the Diocese, and of the warm place which his Coadjutor had won in his affections; and, on his rising to respond, Bishop Stevens was accorded an extended and enthusiastic reception.

The Bishop introduced three speakers—to give information regarding three of the prominent institutions of the Diocese: the Rev. R. B. Gooden, who spoke in relation to the Harvard School; the Rev. T. C. Marshall, who explained the enlarged scope and the promising future prospects of the Hospital of the Good Samaritan, and the Rev. Wm. Bedford-Jones, who emphasized the wide influences of Christian culture, which is being disseminated by the instructed alumnae of the Bishop's School for Girls at La Jolla.

The Bishop Coadjutor also introduced three speakers to represent the great opportunities for missionary development which are afforded by the vast areas of the diocese: the Rev. Mortimer Chester, presenting the needs in the Santa Barbara Valley, the Rev. Francis M. Wilson, describing the opportunities in the Beaumont district and the Rev. George W. Dunlap, in an humorous and dynamic address, representing the Escondido Valley.

Thursday, January 26, 1922.

After Morning Prayer, Convention opened at 9:30 a. m.; Bishop Stevens in the chair.

The minutes of yesterday's proceedings were read and approved.

ELECTIONS

The Chair appointed Mr. H. Ivor Thomas as Judge of Elections; the Rev. P. A. Easley and Mr. S. J. Cornell as tellers for the clerical vote; the Rev. R. A. Kirchhoffer and Mr. H. L. Edwards as tellers for the lay vote: assistant tellers, the Rev. C. H. Boddington and Mr. Otto J. Zahn, the Rev. M. D. Kneeland and Mr. W. W. Pope.

On motion of the Rev. P. H. Hickman, the Secretary cast the ballot of the Convention for the four gentlemen nominated as Alternate Lay Deputies to the General Convention; and Mr. C. N. Burton, Ralph Isham, John L. Bacon and C. S. Byington were declared elected.

On a similar motion, the Secretary cast the ballot of the Convention for the four clerical nominees for the Standing Committee; and the Rev. L. E. Learned, D.D., R. B. Gooden, J. Arthur Evans, M. C. Dotten, Ph.D., were declared elected.

On a similar motion, the Secretary cast the ballot of the Convention for the four nominees to be elected by Convention as members of the Executive Council; and the Rev. Dr. Learned, Rev. A. G. H. Bode, Mr. Wm. F. Knight and Mr. F. C. Valentine were declared elected.

On similar action, the four laymen nominated as members of the Board of Missions, Mr. A. W. Morgan, C. M. Gair, S. J. Cornell and W. C. Mushet, were declared elected.

On similar action the following five gentlemen—having been nominated, severally and singly, to the various boards or offices indicated—were declared elected: The Rev. C. Rankin Barnes, on the Provincial Board of Social Service; the Rev. Charles B. Scovil, on the Provincial Board of Religious Education; the Rev. George F. Weld, on the Provincial Board of Missions; the Rev. R. L. Windsor, as Registrar; Mr. Chester T. Hoag, on the Board of the Hospital of the Good Samaritan.

On a similar motion, the Secretary cast the ballot of the Convention for the seven gentlemen nominated as Directors of the Corporation of the Diocese; and the Right Rev. J. H. Johnson, D.D.; the Right Rev. W. B. Stevens, Ph.D.; Mr. A. W. Morgan, H. Ivor Thomas, W. C. Mushet, J. E. Jardine, M. A. Albee, were declared elected.

On similar action, the eight nominees for the Board of Christian Education—the Rev. C. T. Murphy, R. B. Gooden, E. T. Lewis, S. C. Clark, P. A. Easley; Mr. William J. Currer, C. M. Gair, Randolph Miller, were declared elected.

The Bishop appointed to serve on the Board of Christian Education: the Rev. W. L. H. Benton, Irving Spencer, W. N. Pierson, A. G. H. Bode, Ray O. Miller, F. U. Bugbee, Mrs. Ethel M. Clisbe.

The Bishop reappointed as members of the Executive Council—to represent, severally, in the order named: The Board of Missions, the Board of Christian Education, the Commission on Philanthropy and Social Service, the Executive Committee of the County and City Mission Society, and the Finance Committee—the Rev. George Davidson, D.D., the Rev. C. T. Murphy, Mr. C. N. Burton, the Rev. F. U. Bugbee, Mr. C. M. Gair.

The following telegram was received from the Annual Council of the Diocese of West Texas:

“The Eighteenth Annual Council of the Diocese of West Texas in Christ Church, San Antonio, assembled, sends fraternal greetings to you and the Diocese of Los Angeles. In sending this message, the Council wishes to assure you of its pride in you as a son of this Diocese.

L. B. RICHARDS, Secretary.”

On motion, the Secretary was instructed to reply, as follows:

The Rev. L. B. Richards,
Christ Church,
San Antonio, Texas.

"The Twenty-seventh Annual Convention of the Diocese of Los Angeles gratefully acknowledges your greetings. My affectionate greetings and good wishes to you all." W. BERTRAND STEVENS.

The first ballot for elections was taken.

The Rev. T. C. Marshall presented the report of the Hospital of the Good Samaritan. Received. (Appendix 11.)

Deaconess Wile presented the report of the Church Home for Children. Received. (Appendix 12.)

The Rev. R. B. Gooden presented the report of the Harvard School. Received. (Appendix 13.)

Mr. Gooden stated that the twenty-first year of the school—its tenth as an institution of the Church, had been the best year in its history. The enrollment of boys has reached 317, representing twenty-seven states and countries. The faculty numbers twenty-three, representing fifteen colleges. The graduating class this year is fifty-three, the largest in the history of the school. New features of interest are the accession, by purchase, of five more lots and two buildings, making the total holdings about eleven acres, in one of the most desirable parts of the city; also, the erection of a new dining hall and kitchen, at an approximate cost of $40,000.

The Rev. A. G. H. Bode presented the report of the Seamen's Church Institute.

On motion of Dr. Davidson, the Rev. Harold H. Kelley—the newly-appointed Superintendent—was given the privilege of the floor, and spoke of the opportunities and needs of the Institute.

The Rev. C. L. Barnes offered the following by way of suggestion:

Whereas, There remains in the appropriation for Marine work, from the War Commission of the Diocese, for work in San Diego Harbor, a remainder of about $370.00, the clergy and laity of San Diego desire to place themselves on record, as being quite willing to temporarily lend such supplies to the work of the Seamen's Church Institute at San Pedro.

It was moved by the Rev. R. L. Windsor that the generous suggestion of the Rev. C. L. Barnes be accepted and acted upon.

Adopted.

The Rev. Wm. Bedford-Jones presented a report on behalf of the Bishop's School for Girls. He stated that the school was achieving a high standard of scholarship and Christian culture among the one hundred and twenty boarders and day-scholars who are attending the school; and that, in his work as Chaplain, he thought the services of the Church were of great benefit in extending the Church's influence.

The Bishop also bore testimony to the excellence of the School, and stated that Miss Ellen Scripps had added to her former acts of generosity—the gift of $100,000 as an endowment fund.

The Assistant Secretary read the report of the Neighborhood Settlement. Received. (Appendix 14.)

The Assistant Secretary read the report of the Bishop's Guild. Received. (Appendix 15.)

The report of the Girls' Friendly Society was presented by Mrs. W. Bertrand Stevens. Received. (Appendix 16.)

Mr. V. J. North presented the financial report of the Church Home for the Aged, as follows:

V. J. NORTH, Treasurer.

The Bishop reappointed Mr. Frederick C. Valentine as Chancellor of the Diocese; and, in speaking of his personal obligations and the obligations of the Diocese to the Chancellor for his continued services, he laid special emphasis on the accurate legal scholarship which had guided him and the Diocese safely through many a devious course.

The Rev. R. L. Windsor moved that a standing vote of thanks and appreciation be extended to Chaplain Hubbard—who was retiring from the Board of Examining Chaplains—for his many years of faithful and valuable service on the Board.

The Bishop spoke to the motion, and expressed his great personal appreciation of the Chaplain's devoted, long-continued and scholarly attention to the important duties of that office, and of the intimate relations it had occasioned between them.

The motion was adopted unanimously, with manifest cordiality of feeling.

The Bishop nominated the Rev. C. Rankin Barnes as Examining Chaplain to serve four years.

The Rev. R. L. Windsor moved that the nomination be confirmed. Adopted.

Mr. W. C. Mushet presented the report of the Treasurer of the Diocese. Received. (Appendix 17.)

The Judge of Election reported the result of the first ballot. (Recorded on pages 53 and 54.)

A question being raised as to the eligibility of St. Andrew's Mission, Carpinteria, to cast a vote, the Rev. P. H. Hickman moved that that Mission, being in union with the Convention, be requested, through its Lay-Delegates, to record its vote in elections as such—though it be now associated with All Saints' Church, Montecito, as a Parish Mission.

Adopted.

On the second ballot being taken, Convention adjourned to meet at 2 p. m.

On reassembling at the hour named—Bishop Stevens in the chair—the report of the Judge of Election was received for the second ballot; and, from time to time, for the subsequent ballots.

Returning to unfinished business on the calendar, the Rev. R. L. Windsor presented the report of the Registrar. Received. (Appendix 18.)

The Rev. J. D. H. Browne presented the report of the Church Extension Society. Received. (Appendix 19.)

The Rev. Mr. Browne moved that the following gentlemen be appointed the Directors of the Society for the ensuing year: The Bishop, the Very Rev. Dr. MacCormick, the Rev. J. D. H. Browne, Dr. Dotten, Alfred Fletcher, Mr. H. E. Brett, L. S. Porter, C. M. Gair, M. A. Albee.

Adopted.

Mr. M. A. Albee presented the report of the Directors of the Corporation. Received. (Appendix 20.)

The Rev. Vernon D. Ruggles presented the report of the County and City Mission Society. Received. (Appendix 21.)

The Rev. Dr. Dotten presented the report on the Jerusalem and East Mission:

Mr. W. C. Mushet presented the report of the Finance Committee.
Received. (Appendix 22.)

Mr. H. E. Brett presented the report of the Auditing Committee.
Received. (Appendix 23.)

The Rev. Edwin S. Lane offered the following resolution, occasioned by a reference in the annual address of the Bishop Coadjutor and embodying an extract therefrom:

Whereas, Almighty God has put it into the heart of the President of the United States to call a conference of the nations in the interest of disarmament and world peace; therefore be it

Resolved, That this Convention of the Episcopal Church, in the Diocese of Los Angeles, assembled in St. Paul's Pro-Cathedral on January 26th, 1922, hereby endorses the results so far attained by the Washington Conference, believing them to be a long step forward toward the removal of international misunderstandings and the attainment of international peace and good-will; and

Whereas: The Bishop Coadjutor in his Convention address referred to the "International Ideals of the Churches," as set forth by the Federal Council of the Churches of Christ in America, to-wit:

"The Department of Social Service of the Presiding Bishop and Council has asked our prayerful consideration of the 'Declaration of Ideals and Policy Looking Toward a Warless World' adopted by the Federal Council of Churches. I would be remiss if I did not commend it to you and urge you to preach and teach the Christian ideals therein expressed. One of the best ways of expressing our thankfulness to God for the Conference on Limitation of Armament is to bear witness to the ideal of peace in our own sphere of influence. 'We realize,' says the Declaration, 'that as Churches it is not for us to define in detail the political methods and institutions by which the scourge of war shall be banished forever from civilized and Christian nations. The determination of such details must be left to statesmen, jurists and legislators.

“ ‘But we maintain with firm conviction that it is the right and the duty of the Churches to declare in no doubtful terms the moral principles that are involved in international life, and to insist that our law-makers and all those who represent our nation in its international relations shall observe these principles with utmost care. We insist that the main issue shall be neither evaded nor obscured by discussion of details.’

“These are the ideals:

“1. We Believe that nations no less than individuals are subject to God's immutable moral laws.

“2. We Believe that nations achieve their welfare, greatness and honor only through just dealing and unselfish service.

“3. We Believe that nations that regard themselves as Christian, have special international obligations.

“4. We Believe that the spirit of Christian brotherliness can remove every unjust barrier of trade, color, creed and race.

“5. We Believe that Christian patriotism demands the practice of goodwill between nations.

“6. We Believe that international policies should secure equal justice for all races.

“7. We Believe that all nations should associate themselves permanently for world peace and good-will.

“8. We Believe in international law, and in the universal use of international courts of justice and boards of arbitration.

“9. We Believe in a sweeping reduction of armaments by all nations.

“10. We Believe in a warless world, and dedicate ourselves to its achievement.”

Therefore be it further

Resolved, that this Convention heartily endorses these ideals and urges the clergy of this Diocese to present them to their people.

And, finally, be it

Resolved, That a copy of these resolutions be sent by the Secretary to the President of the United States, the Secretary of State and the two senators from California.

The above resolutions were adopted unanimously.

The result of the elections, for which extended balloting was taken:

DEPUTIES TO THE GENERAL CONVENTION

The following Deputies to the General Convention were elected by concurrent vote: The Very Rev. Dr. MacCormack, Rev. Dr. Learned, Mr. C. M. Gair, W. C. Mushet, A. W. The Rev. George F. Weld reported on behalf of the Special Committee appointed by the last Convention in re the State Legislature and the alienation of Church property—and asked that it be continued.

On motion it was so ordered.

The Very Rev. Dr. MacCormack, chairman of the Special Committee—to which the matter was referred by the last Convention—moved that this Convention of the Diocese of Los Angeles give its consent to the changes proposed and adopted by the General Convention of 1919, in the Constitution, The Order for Daily Morning Prayer, the Order for Daily Evening Prayer, and in Prayers and Thanksgivings. Adopted.

The Rev. T. C. Marshall offered the following resolution:

Whereas, The Tragedy of Armenia, which has shocked the civilized world, has made effective appeal to the American people; and

Whereas, A continuance of this relief work is imperative, if all that has been done is not to be in vain; and

Whereas, The Near East Relief Corporation, chartered by Congress to provide relief for the suffering and persecuted people of Armenia until a responsible government is established for that country, is now conducting a campaign to provide food, clothing, and medicine for 128,000 orphan children in Near East Relief Orphanages who are exposed to the danger of death from starvation during the coming winter unless the American people continue their support; therefore be it

Resolved, That the Annual Convention of the Diocese of Los Angeles goes on record as endorsing the work of the Near East Relief and the appeal for funds which it is making to the American people, and that it commends this worthy cause to the support of individuals and organizations able to render assistance thereto.

Adopted.

The Secretary, advising the Convention that a resolution of the Convention of 1919—which required the Secretary to notify in writing every member of every committee—was not in his judgment necessary or practicable; and that it was otherwise sufficiently provided for by canon—moved that the resolution be repealed.

Adopted.

The Secretary asked for instruction regarding the form of parochial report to be used in this Convention year—the form in use last year, that issued by the General Convention, not being found to be of general acceptance.

The Rev. Dr. Learned moved that the matter be referred to a committee—to consist of the Secretaries, the Treasurer of the Diocese, the Chairman of the Finance Committee of the Executive Council, and the Rev. F. U. Bugbee.

Adopted.

Mr. John S. Akerman moved that the Convention return to the old form previously in use in this Diocese, with such amendments as the Committee shall deem it wise to make.

Adopted.

The Rev. P. H. Hickman moved that the matter which, by resolution of the Rev. Dr. Davidson, had been laid on the table—the question of women as delegates to the Diocesan Convention—be taken from the table.

Lost on division: Ayes, 34; noes, 35. ✓

The Secretary moved a resolution expressing the sorrow of the Convention and its sense of loss in the removal, by death, of three of our brethren of the clergy: the Rev. T. J. Oliver Curran, rector of St. Peter's Church, San Pedro; the Rev. George Eley, formerly a missionary of this Diocese; and the Rev. John W. Thursby, a retired priest of the Diocese, through ill health; and that a memorial page be dedicated to their memory in the Journal.

Adopted.

On motion of Mr. H. E. Brett the following proposed amendment was referred to the Committee on Canons:

Amend Canon XI, Section 90, in the sixth line: omit the words, "Males of." The line will then read, "Vestrymen who shall be 21 years of age."

The Rev. R. L. Windsor moved that the reading of this day's minutes be dispensed with, and that they be certified by the Chair.

Adopted.

Before bringing the proceedings to a close, the Bishop—who had resumed the chair—spoke of the strong ties of affection, even in relation to the places of assemblage with which he had been associated, and many of those present, during all these happy years of progress and development. He recalled the memory of many of those who might be termed founders of the Church—certainly in the parish of St. Paul's, and also in the Diocese—Mr. Henry T. Lee for many years the valued Chancellor of the Diocese and his legal adviser, and Mr. James F. Towell, a wise counselor in the department of finance. To these and many others the Diocese owed a great debt of gratitude for the high spiritual standards they had established—which it had been our aim in the intervening years as a Diocese to live up to and promote. But regarding the past as an inspiration for the future, he looked forward with great joy and hope to the new era of development which was opening out before them. Change was a necessary preliminary to progress. The movements that were taking place now were prophetic of a greater St. Paul's—a greater Pro-Cathedral; greater, that is, in the sense of enlarged opportunities for God and for Christ—in the up-building of His Church and the promotion of true, Christian citizenship in the community.

On motion Convention adjourned, sine die, the Bishop pronouncing the blessing.

JOSEPH H. JOHNSON,

Attest:

President of the Convention.

ALFRED FLETCHER, Secretary.

APPENDIX 1

THE BISHOP'S ADDRESS

1922

My dear Brethren of the Clergy and Laity:

During the past twelve months three Priests who for many years had been affiliated with this Diocese have been called to their reward. John W. Thursby, a British subject, who had been known to me long before I came to live in California, closed his ministerial life under my jurisdiction. The time had come when, because of failing health, he had to withdraw from active service, and then for reasons which commended themselves to himself, to his family and to me, his Bishop, he returned to Canada, where in the days of his vigor he had assiduously and effectively labored.

The Rev. George Eley entered the ministry shortly after I came to be the Bishop of the Diocese. He was a singularly fine man and he had been a most efficient shepherd of souls. His heart was full of zeal and love and, wherever God called him to labor, he drew about him a faithful band of earnest followers. Every Parish and Mission which he had served was distinctly richer for his presence because he was so essentially a man of God.

Thomas J. Oliver Curran came to this Diocese practically at the close of his life. Though for a few months he ministered in Orange, yet virtually the few years of his service in California were passed at San Pedro. When his death came, it seemed premature to all who knew him. His strong, sturdy physique betokened to most of us a much longer career than was allotted him. His ancestry had transmitted to him virility and strength. His policies were always well defined and they were invariably applied with persistence and determination. Such a man was sure to have many admirers and friends—a fact to which witness was borne by the services which took place on the day when his body was reverently carried to his final resting-place.

Before I begin to speak of the things with which throughout the year I have been especially concerned, I wish officially to extend a welcome to the clergy and the laity who for the first time have a place upon the floor of this Convention. Of course, I have met you formally, but I want you to know that the doors of the Bishop are never closed when he is at home, and I trust that as time goes on you will realize by experience that the Bishop desires to be your friend. I have reason to believe that the clergy and laity of the Diocese generally have long since appreciated that the Bishop wishes them to know that his office is their home. I have always tried to make it a place where confidences could be exchanged within its walls. Indeed, I have learned much from the hundreds who have sat with me in friendly conference. Of course, a man set apart must at times be aware of his segregation. I, however, have never been lonely in my episcopate, if by loneliness is meant desolation due to lack of friendship. For a quarter of a century I have honestly welcomed to my study in yonder building every man, woman and child who had a message for me or who may have thought that in some emergency I might have some message for them, and in those conferences I have had the closest possible fellowship with friends. And now, to you to whom for the first time I speak from this pulpit, let me say that I trust the day will never come when there will not be a time for a fellowship behind the Bishop's door when fellowship is needed.

What I have grown to call the pastoral work of the Diocese will, without doubt, be spoken of by the Bishop Coadjutor later on. I may restrain myself as I sit with pen in hand to-day, but I will not pledge to restrain myself when later on in Convention I am moved to speak of the Bishop Coadjutor and his work. My dear co-worker has lifted the burden from my shoulders, and I need not say to anyone here that he has effectively taken up his labor and that faithfully he has met every claim upon him for service.

During the last year I have found my hands fairly full in caring for our Diocesan Institutions. Of course, a Bishop can never divest himself of his apostolic obligation to guide souls. I am pledged to the performance of my priestly and episcopal office so long as life shall last. Consequently it rarely happens, now that we have reached the working basis of our diocesan life, that I do not on Sundays and upon other days, if need there be, administer Confirmation and preach. Sunday visitations in Southern California are almost essential to the work, but in view of climatic conditions in a great community, admittedly composed very largely of people who have come here either for health, rest or diversion, one man alone cannot meet the demands. Therefore, while the Bishop Coadjutor is charged with the pastoral care of these eight lower counties of California, he will, I am sure, be glad to have me share his duty as far as I am able to do so.

My own personal work must, however, be in the Institutions which have assumed such huge proportions. I wonder whether you realize what the scope of that obligation is. Let us take a school as an instance. Fortunately, at the schools we have as heads two of the most efficient directors I have ever known and, if they are successful as placed, the credit is wholly due, under God, to themselves. Recall for a moment what a headmaster of a school must do. First: he must select a faculty, and the members of the faculty of a private school should have been specially trained for their work. They, like all principal high school teachers, must be prepared to train boys and girls to enter any college of the country, and that in itself is about the most exacting piece of work that a man can undertake to do, but, in addition to that, the teachers in a private school must be ready to share in the work of creating the proper home-life of their charges for the twenty-four hours of every day. It is a serious task to select such a faculty, and often mistakes are made in the selection, and a misfit in a school is a disaster. You fathers and mothers who have worried over the table manners, the bedroom habits and the amusement-life of the family know how difficult it is to secure even one to share with you the responsibility for the training of the child or two who, with you, make up your home circle. Think just for a moment what must be the anxiety of the principal of a school, of from fifty to three hundred pupils, who is selecting not one but fifteen and twenty to share such responsibility with him.

Then, too, in these days when calories and proteins and carbohydrates mean so much, someone must be selected for the school staff who can look after the choice and the preparation of food. The housekeeper must be a skilled and practical dietitian. If she is not, the children pass quickly to the care of the trained nurse in the hospital. Then, bear in mind that the headmaster must secure and oversee the delicate and the unremitting work of dozens of other co-workers. The task is, as you see, a tremendously heavy one. Now, to be sure, while a headmaster does not attend to the detail, he has to select the one who does; and then he has to be sure that his deputy does it. These tasks alone are colossal and endless, but ask the headmaster or mistress of any school whether I have done any more than touched the outside of this subject.

Now, you will ask, what is the relation of all this to the Bishop. The Bishop replies, Much, that is, if he is the President of the School's Board of Trustees and therefore is responsible for the well-being of the school. He selects the executive of every institution in the Diocese—the schools among them—and, if he makes a mistake in such a selection, the whole structure suffers. All machines run easily for a time but, when emergencies occur, something is likely to happen, and emergencies are constantly arising in a school during the ten months of its session, and the Bishop becomes naturally the Council of Advice and, if he is to advise wisely and intelligently, he must know all about the school's component parts and the conditions essential to effective work. He must have his occasional trial-balance well in hand and he must be familiar with the state of the food market if the school is to be kept out of debt. In addition to all this, he must plan for the future—for new equipment, new branches of work, new pedagogical methods.

But, my dear friends, how insignificant all this would seem were I to stop just here. A Bishop through his school must, at close range and at every offered chance, touch souls. He must see that through his school young boys and girls are being trained to think and act as Christian men and women. He is to be ceaseless in his efforts through all this great agency to see that these children realize every day more thoroughly that each one is a member of Christ—a child of God, who is going out into the world to bear witness by his life to these great facts. This, at least, should be the Bishop's ideal.

So much for the schools. Now, turn to the hospital. A hospital to-day is one of the most complex institutions I know of in the world. Of course, suitable buildings are essential. And their equipment must be of the most exact character, and therefore they can only be purchased at the expense of much thought, time and money. And then, when one considers the question essential in the managing staff which cares for the household, trains the nurses and overlooks the food, the demand is for a man or woman of very rare character. Then, once more, when one contemplates the possibilities of friction between officials, from the president down to the kitchen boy and the nurses and the doctors and the patients and the public, surely the hospital is a complex institution. Indeed, I wonder that anyone ever has the courage to undertake hospital work. The Church, however, has a hospital and doubtless it may be open to much criticism. I am willing to admit it; but it is full to the doors and it must be enlarged. And this fact shows that, whatever may be its shortcomings, its value is recognized by a large body of our fellow citizens. To be sure we, the managers, are not able to receive instantly all who apply for admission to our wards, nor are we able to retain our patients for a long period of time, as much as we would like to do so; but I can easily show you that for lack of endowment that is not our fault. It is our misfortune.

There was a time when hospitals were left to the capricious devices of their officers to work out their own schemes which meant disaster to the public. Unfortunately for the hospitals, however, but fortunately for the public, now the State has taken a hand in the business. The medical profession has also stepped in and is demanding reform, which means everything for the sick throughout the country. All this is quite right. We are told just what sort of structures we should build; what provision should be made for patients; what training must be given to nurses. These combined forces—the state and the doctors—insist and, by the way, wisely, upon laboratories, history and chart-room, diet-kitchen and a whole host of other things quite unknown in old hospitals, but now deemed essential. Well, again, what has the Bishop to do with all this? Again I say, Much, if he is President of the Board of Managers. To be sure, I did not start the Hospital of the Good Samaritan, but it was here when I came, and, ex officio, the Bishop of Los Angeles is President of the Governing Board, and I could not in honor to the Church let it pass out of existence. I have simply been forced to help it maintain its position so that the Church's hospital should be abreast of the times. I have believed that only so would it be a credit to the Church and I further believe that, with all its imperfections, it is that. In keeping up to our standard, the Bishop in the performance of his duties, therefore, becomes something of a student of finance, hygiene and therapeutics. He is forced to acquire a good deal of general information that he may be sure that the hospital is on the right track and I confidently think that our hospital is. At least, our hospital is the simple "cup of cold water," such as it is, which we are giving to thirsting men, as far as we are able to meet the need. It is restricted; but its sphere is gradually being enlarged. It is small; but I believe that it will be larger before many years shall have passed, and thank God, and this I say with peculiar satisfaction, we have funds in hand to place in that larger institution a chapel with its altar; where, perpetually, will be pleaded the merits of the all-atoning sacrifice of our Saviour, Jesus Christ.

I do not propose to do more than mention the Church Home for Children, the Home for the Aged and the Neighborhood Settlement; because such mention is all that is needed to enable me to draw your attention to one single fact that will disclose to you what the managements of these various institutions must be aware of, if they value the security of their work. The reformer is abroad in the land. It is fortunate that he is, but reformers of several kinds have organized and I am glad that they have, but here is the wholesome but saddening fact. The social service reformers are peering into every closet and kitchen and pantry and bedroom and cellar of every eleemosynary institution in the country. They can tell you how often your charges take their baths, how much butter and eggs and salt they consume. In fact, their reports form a compendium of statistics about everything vital to the welfare of every person for whom we are responsible. That is a serious fact, and yet it is a splendid one; but it makes the work of the house-mother in a children's home, or the matron of a home for the aged, or the overseer of a settlement immensely greater than it ever has been before. And, let me tell you, if anything goes wrong with the goats on the farm, or if supplies in the settlement fall short, or if domestic disharmony prevails, these important facts sooner or later reach the Bishop's ears. The fact is soon brought to the upper chamber in the building just at the rear of this one in which we are sitting to-day. So you see where the Bishop finds work of many different kinds to arrest his attention. The old institutions, with slipshod methods and easy-going ways, were often in former days the offspring of vapid emotion which had no higher purpose than to make unfortunate people comparatively comfortable. The social service reformer of to-day, however, seeks to lift up and improve men and, if possible, cure prevalent evils. This was Christ's method, and the Bishop, if he has the Master's ideal in mind, must and will see that his institutions are working along Christ's method of reform.

My brethren, I am not making this statement to give the impression that I am an over-worked man. I am just one man with one man's tasks. I have as much and no less to do than many an executive of any other considerable institution. I have sufficient to keep me busy for at least eight of the working hours of the day, and I have said what I have, because I want to be able to give you a correct idea of what a Church institution is. I want you to appreciate the scope of the work which is outlined by the necessities of the case for you to do. A Church institution is an organization through which the whole Church may function toward a certain end, and my work hitherto has been to provide the machinery and to keep it oiled for its service. The Church's great mission is to build up society, to correct social evils, to encourage and lift men up. And institutions are the agencies through which you, the Church, not alone the clergy, but the whole aggregation of the baptized Christian world, can give expression of their desire to make our civilization worthy of the name Christian, which we claim for it.

Now, you ask me, what can we do to help. Let me tell you. Every institution in this Diocese is prosperous and paying its debts, but every one is incomplete. The schools need more dormitories and classrooms, the Children's Home needs an administration building, the Home for the Aged must have immediate help for maintenance, the Hospital should be quadrupled in size, the Neighborhood Settlement is cramped for equipment and must have it. Here are some of the things which Christians may provide if they are disposed to do so, and can do if they wish. Then, these institutions all need endowments. Not an institution but is working to the extent of its ability. Unless tuition is paid by parents we cannot educate and care for girls and boys without endowments. One lady, last year, saw that after a week's thought; and gave to our La Jolla School one hundred thousand dollars; which, in time, will enable us to receive as pupils ten or fifteen young girls at reduced rates or gratuitously. Another lady, this last year, left me in her will five thousand dollars toward the endowment fund of the Hospital. A former Los Angeles lady has recently placed in my hands ten thousand dollars in bonds toward the same fund; which, thank God, is now beyond the one hundred thousand dollar mark. It ought to be a million dollars to meet our need. So the work goes on. If you, the real Church, want to shield a homeless child, or protect an aged friend or encourage a bright, capable boy or girl yearning for an education; or if you want to give clinical aid to young mothers or to tuberculosis patients; or training to mothers and defective children; these several institutions just here at your door are the means through which you may function to the betterment of humanity and to the glory of God. Your Bishop's constant effort is to protect, maintain and make effective these various agencies which the good God has brought into existence and for whose welfare God has asked him to care. Your Bishop has no desire for the mere glory of the Church to build up organizations, but he seeks to provide the agencies through which the urge of a love of our Saviour Christ, which you and I profess, will find the opportunity for expression in lives which through their instrumentality have been made noble and sane.

During the last three years the Episcopal Church, at large throughout these United States, has, I believe, taken a great step forward in its organized work. Hitherto, we have been bound by custom that had ceased to meet the needs of a new day. Our missionary and social service work were alike the victims of a very desultory method and no one person was to blame. The system was wrong. With intelligence and courage, at Detroit, this old system was uprooted by the General Convention. The Church reorganized under the rather cumbersome title of "Presiding Bishop and Council." This body, composed of important men from every part of the country, sits by representatives continuously and at stated intervals as a body at the Church House in New York. This Council has entire charge of the missionary, educational, social and financial work of the entire Church. A tremendous burden has been placed upon the shoulders of the Council; but, by centralization of the interest of these peculiarly capable men, the Church, it seems to me, has secured an efficiency of service which fully justifies her departure from the old methods. What the entire Church has done, many of the different dioceses, our own among them, have also been doing, and with results that are very gratifying. I do not intend to outline these results, but I would like to emphasize the fact that practically the heart of this Diocese is composed of its Bishop and the Executive Council; that the committees formerly known as the missionary, educational, social and financial committees are now tied to each other and to this central body by canonical act; that in this way each Standing Committee and Commission functions, not only alone, but by and with the co-operation of representatives of every other authorized worker in the Diocese; and, further, that not only is such co-operation offered, but by our legislative action as well, every Committee and Commission must, with monthly reports, keep the Bishop and the Executive Council fully informed as to its plans and work. This system has worked well for the year, and experience has shown to us that it is a wise one and calls for earnest support.

Just a word and I shall have finished. By a happy coincidence this, the last official functional service, is held in this edifice which many of us love so well—upon this great feast of the Conversion of St. Paul to which it is dedicated. Every year, for more than a quarter of a century, I have presided within the Church building over the sessions of this Diocesan Convention. Not many months will have passed when St. Paul's Church edifice will be no more. Everyone here knows of the changes that are to occur. I am glad that the counsel prevailed that will carry St. Paul's to a site not far removed from the present one. This Church building has filled a noble place. It is true that, compared with present standards, much is left to be desired in it; but in the beginning, thirty-five years ago, St. Paul's was comparatively a noble structure and its dimensions and lines are so dignified that upon entering within the porch one has always had the consciousness that it was none other than the House of God. This tradition will, I am sure, be carried with it wherever this Parish may find its new abiding place. To my mind, and to yours, at this time, comes an unbroken line of memories of kindness, love and devotion; and we instinctively yearn for the "touch of the vanished hands" which were always so cordial and friendly. We yearn for the stilled voices because they were always so sweet and just and fair. As this Convention goes on to another home, let us take this memory with us. Let us carry with it its noble tradition of Harmony, Love and Truth.

One cannot agree with Mr. Roger Babson in all that he writes, but we cannot help being interested in his "Religion and Business." He says, "The Church represents the greatest industry in the world to-day, as well as the oldest. It is estimated that there are invested in Church property at the present time about eighteen hundred millions of dollars; that there are about two hundred and fifty thousand paid preachers and about five hundred thousand lay workers. . . . Yet, from the business man's point of view, this industry is the most inefficiently operated of any industry in the world. . . . The methods of work are slack and unbusinesslike. The Sunday School, which should be the great training ground for the Church, is most inefficiently operated. Religious education is twenty-five or fifty years behind other education. . . . The business man cannot understand how the Churchmen can believe that religion is the most important thing in the world and yet give less time to our children's religious education than we give to teaching them dancing and foreign languages. . . . He knows that no factory or other industry could survive if operated only a few hours a week or if carried on in such a slipshod and indifferent way."

Efficiency has become an objectionable word to me. In Church work it is used too frequently as the antithesis of the loving, Christian, patient spirit. In our parish work we are obliged to consider a number of factors which big business disregards. By our profession we must work in patience, enduring rather trying qualities in people for the sake of ends much greater than mere efficiency. At the same time, there is much in what Mr. Babson says; and there is nothing in the vices of wastefulness, laziness, indifference, timidity, lack of vision and selfishness within the Church, that makes them less objectionable than they are in business or any other department of life. We must do what we can to eliminate them. The Nation-Wide Campaign has that as its object, and I believe that we are all agreed that in this Diocese it has done much towards that end. In the missionary work of the Diocese, there has been a perceptible advance; due, I believe, to the influence of the campaign as a spiritual dynamic.

DIOCESAN MISSIONARY WORK

The Nation-Wide Campaign has enabled the Board of Missions to increase the support given to a number of stations in the Diocese. The question of diocesan support is an important one—important from several points of view. It is essential that there be funds by which we can inaugurate work in the rapidly-growing communities of the Diocese. The money invested in new fields by Mission Boards of other Christian bodies is amazing. For the present at least we cannot hope to approximate their gifts in amount, but we may well emulate their statesmanlike policy of generous assistance to new fields. But there is another side to the question. How long should diocesan assistance continue? Of the missions of this Diocese, 19 are receiving more than fifty per cent of their priest's salary from the Board of Missions. With two or three exceptions, there have been no substantial increases of the mission's share, and in these cases the increase has been accompanied by an even larger amount from the Board of Missions given to provide a larger stipend for the missionary. I know, perhaps better than anyone except the Bishop of the Diocese, how great are the difficulties of some of our missions; and, yet, is it not the duty of every congregation to look forward to a larger degree of independence and to have a definite plan of campaign for that purpose? The Board of Missions does not wish to take the initiative itself. May I venture to call to your attention the plan of one mission of the Diocese. This mission is responsible for one-third of the rector's stipend, this year. Next year, it is to provide one-half; the third year, two-thirds, and, the fourth year, it assumes his entire support.

Would it not be possible for every mission to aim to relieve the Board of Missions of a certain percentage of its contributions each year—ten per cent, or twenty per cent, or thirty per cent?

The suggestion has been made that the Board adopt a downward scale. That would be unwise. Conditions differ in every field. It would be better if every congregation could voluntarily adopt a plan of its own. We shall be obliged to open up more and more new fields as time goes on. Estimating our receipts from the Nation-Wide Campaign as generously as possible, our diocesan funds will not enable us to keep pace with our opportunities if a certain number of our Mission Stations are not putting themselves on a self-supporting basis each year.

Since the last Convention the following clerical changes are recorded: The Rev. Francis M. Wilson has taken charge of the Beaumont-Banning field; the Rev. Frederick C. Miller is the new Missionary at Hemet and adjacent stations. The Rev. Mortimer Chester, who was in charge of both of these fields, is now the General Missionary of Northern Santa Barbara County. The Rev. Thomas B. McClement has been for nearly a year in charge of the work in Imperial Valley, and will relinquish charge in February. St. Jude's Mission, Burbank, has now a resident minister in the person of the Rev. Waldo D. Parker, one of our recently-ordained Deacons. St. Polycarp's Church, Colton, has been reopened—thanks to the co-operation of the Church Extension Society and the Board of Missions—and will be in charge of the Rev. Thomas R. Yates. The Rev. T. P. Swift has been transferred from Oxnard and Ventura to Wilmington. The Rev. Allan Burses has been appointed to Oxnard. The Rev. C. E. Maimann has resigned the charge of the work at Corona to accept the rectorship of St. John's Church, San Bernardino, to succeed the Rev. W. A. Cash; and the work at Corona has been taken by the Rev. Harlan Bailey. The Rev. C. E. Spalding, for many years Rector of Christ Church, Coronado, has become the Archdeacon of Marquette. The Rev. Francis H. Stephenson has been in charge during the autumn and winter of the work in Orange, vacant because of the resignation of the Rev. H. V. Harris. The Rev. Charles H. de Garmo, who has served so long and efficiently at Redondo and Hermosa Beach, has retired and has been succeeded by the Rev. Adelbert J. Smith. The Rev. Mr. Smith, who was formerly at Monrovia, has been followed by the Rev. George E. Swan. The Rev. Anthony H. Dexter, formerly Lay-Reader at St. Simon's Mission, San Fernando, has become Deacon-in-charge. The Rev. Romeo C. Gould has taken charge of Grace Mission, Glendora. The Rev. B. T. Trego has resigned the care of St. Clement's Church and will be succeeded by the Rev. Harry G. Gray.

New missions have been opened during the year at West Adams Park, Wilmar, Downey, Fullerton, Lynwood, Torrance, Beverly Hills, Ocean Beach and La Mesa. Services have been held at new points in Northern Santa Barbara County, in the Coachella Valley and in the desert about The Needles. In addition to St. Polycarp's, Colton, the missions at Lompoc and Wilmington have been reopened. The Mission at Van Nuys will shortly begin the erection of a new building. In accordance with the canons, St. Matthias' Mission, Imperial, has been dissolved. The vacancy at St. Peter's Church, San Pedro, caused by the death of the Rev. Mr. Curran, will be filled by the Rev. H. H. Kelley under a special arrangement with the Seaman's Church Institute.

THE NATION-WIDE CAMPAIGN

It may be said that the Nation-Wide Campaign canvass for 1922 has shown a marked advance both in enthusiasm and in pledges. Most encouraging is the unanimous testimony as to the general quickening of life in the parishes and missions as a result of the campaign. The campaign has justified its claim to be something more than a drive for money. You will be interested, however, in a few outstanding facts regarding the December canvass. Out of 52 parishes and missions reporting, the approximate increase in pledges over last year is $10,080. These 52 parishes and missions in their reports record their expectation of receiving additional pledges to the total of $3,918. The pledges and estimates from the 52 parishes and missions total $85,470.42 or 49 per cent of the quota of the Diocese. In the 1920 canvass 13 parishes and missions pledged 50 per cent or more of their quota. In the last canvass this number was increased to 19. As time goes on the Nation-Wide Campaign figures of real significance will be those of the Treasurer in his report of the preceding year. Already this is true. The report of the Campaign funds for last year indicates that we did better on the financial side than the reports of the canvass and the estimated pledges indicated. This is healthful. In some cases only a small part of the amount pledged has been collected, however. This is not healthful, and the reason therefor should be ascertained by the rector and vestry. One other matter I mention with some hesitation. What I say is by way of information rather than criticism. In one or two cases treasurers and perhaps vestries have considered it their prerogative to divert money contributed to missions to other purposes. Money given through the red side of the duplex envelopes is given in trust. It cannot be diverted and it is bad financing to borrow from one fund to another. ✓

RELIGIOUS EDUCATION AND SOCIAL SERVICE

I know that the Diocese at large feels as much satisfaction as do the Bishops in the presence and work of the Rev. Mr. Scovill, the Secretary of Christian Education and Social Service. It was a difficult task to find the right man, but our careful search has been rewarded. Under Mr. Scovill's leadership we shall do fine things along these two lines of endeavor. It is not easy to combine a secretaryship in this way; and success is contingent, not merely upon Mr. Scovill's personality and industry, but upon the co-operation of the entire Diocese. In Religious Education his program will aim at the standardization of the Church Schools of the Diocese. I bespeak your careful attention to the plan of action which he will present to the Convention. Two things germane to this subject should be brought to the notice of the Diocese. First, the need of work among boys and girls. The Girls' Friendly Society and the Brotherhood of St. Andrew are too well-known to require comment. They are the Church's official organizations, with new, strong programs for advance work; and, as such, should be introduced wherever conditions warrant. For work among boys, as a supplement to the Brotherhood of St. Andrew, I wish to commend the Order of Sir Galahad, an organization combining so many valuable features as to make it almost ideal as a social instrument for Church boys. The Archdeacon of Boston, who was the founder of this society, will address the Convention for a few moments upon the scope and purpose of the Order. I know that he would be glad to arrange conferences with anyone who is interested.

Second, I would suggest the possibility of organizing young people's groups in every parish and mission. Throughout the Church this need is becoming increasingly apparent. The "Young People's Fellowship" plan aims to reach boys and girls and young men and young women of from sixteen or seventeen to twenty-five. Already, in the Diocese of California, it has assumed a diocesan character. At our young people's meeting, in connection with this meeting of Convention, we hope to work towards the same end. The importance of establishing a nexus between the Church and our boys and girls of school age cannot be over-estimated. With this thought in mind, I have devoted some thought and time to our student problems, especially at the universities. There are, in greater Los Angeles, twenty-five thousand high school students. Within a comparatively short time, there will be fifteen thousand university students here. The University of Southern California and the Southern Branch of the University of California both number students in the thousands. We have active Church clubs in both of these institutions. Trinity Church, Los Angeles, by reason of its proximity to the Southern Branch, will offer in the future an unusual opportunity as a center for student work. The Southern Branch will be—in fact, from many points of view, now is—a full-fledged university. As its equipment is increased, a student body of ten thousand is not at all out of the question. Pomona College is the third institution in the Diocese to organize a Church club. Under the Rev. Mr. Clark's direction it is holding regular meetings. More and more the leaders of thought and civic activity are college men and women. If the increased college enrollment continues, as it has during the past few years, the college-trained man will be the rule. This means that we must do everything possible to keep his interest in the Church during his college course.

The Department of Social Service of the Presiding Bishop and Council has asked our prayerful consideration of the "Declaration of Ideals and Policy looking toward a Warless World" adopted by the Federal Council of Churches. I would be remiss if I did not commend it to you ;and urge you to preach and teach the Christian ideals therein expressed. One of the best ways of expressing our thankfulness to God for the Conference on Limitation of Armament is to bear witness to the ideal of peace in our own sphere of influence. "We realize," says the Declaration, "that as Churches it is not for us to define in detail the political methods and institutions by which the scourge of war shall be banished forever from civilized and Christian nations. The determination of such details must be left to statesmen, jurists and legislators.

"But we maintain with firm conviction that it is the right and the duty of the churches to declare in no doubtful terms the moral principles that are involved in international life, and to insist that our law-makers, and all those who represent our nation in its international relations, shall observe these principles with utmost care. We insist that the main issue shall be neither evaded nor obscured by discussion of details.

"These are the Ideals:

"1. We believe that nations no less than individuals are subject to God's immutable moral laws.

"2. We believe that nations achieve true welfare, greatness and honor only through just dealing and unselfish service.

"3. We believe that nations that regard themselves as Christian have special international obligations.

"4. We believe that the spirit of Christian brotherliness can remove every unjust barrier of trade, color, creed and race.

"5. We believe that Christian patriotism demands the practice of good-will between nations.

"6. We believe that international policies should secure equal justice for all races.

"7. We believe that all nations should associate themselves permanently for world peace and good-will.

"8. We believe in international law, and in the universal use of international courts of justice and boards of arbitration.

"9. We believe in a sweeping reduction of armaments by all nations.

"10. We believe in a warless world, and dedicate ourselves to its achievement."

SEAMEN'S CHURCH INSTITUTE

It is a cause for profound gratitude that a strong, working Seamen's Church Institute is assured. The National Organization sent its Organizing Secretary, the Rev. W. T. Weston, into the Diocese, in July of last year. Laboring under great difficulties, Mr. Weston has been able, with the assistance of the Executive Council of the Diocese, to secure enough support to open the Institute in a big way. The Diocesan Committee has purchased the lot on which our building has stood. The lot has increased in value and will be a great financial asset. With a few alterations on the house, we will have a reasonably good plant to begin work in. As Superintendent the Committee has secured the Rev. Harold H. Kelley, a vigorous young priest for some years identified with the Seamen's work of the Diocese of California. Mr. Kelley is already in residence and within a few days the Seamen's Church Institute of the Port of Los Angeles will be open for inspection.

THE CHURCH PENSION FUND

Every member of the Convention is asked to give careful attention to the report of the Committee on the Church Pension Fund; especially to the new provision made at a recent meeting of the Trustees, giving an immediate payment of one thousand dollars to the widow of any clergyman in active service, dying during this present year. There is one condition that should be noted. All pension assessments must have been paid in the clergyman's behalf. If the plan is to continue after January, 1923, another condition will be made. The appropriation will not be made in any Diocese in which any parish is not participating in the fund or is delinquent. In such a case the money available for the extra gift would be used to cover the delinquency. That means this: that the Church Pension Fund is a plan for the whole Church. It is a group pension system, resting upon the actuarial basis of the adhesion of all organizations. It is for any individual to say whether he cares to accept a pension on retirement, of course; but an individual or parish that declines to participate, or becomes delinquent, is jeopardizing the pension of every possible beneficiary in the Church. There is one year allowed for everyone to come in. May I beg of you to give this your earnest consideration? The parish must do it for its rector; the rector must participate—if not for himself, for his successors; and both parish and rector must “play the game” for the sake of the whole Church.

UNITY OF PURPOSE

Those of us who were in the Diocese of New York during the later years of Bishop Greer's Episcopate were always stirred by his Convention addresses. In 1917, he said, “Ever since I have occupied my present position and office I have been more and more impressed with these two things: first, with the fact of the many non-parochial activities of the Diocese, missionary, educational, charitable and others—exceeding, perhaps, in number and variety, or at least equaling those of any other diocese; and, second, with the further fact that there is, or seems to be, no common nexus tie to bind them all together in one organic whole, and thus to make a Diocesan Unit of them—except as some of them are reported to the Convention, which we know and are conscious of chiefly at Convention times, or know and then forget, as they are afterwards printed in, or buried in, our Diocesan Journals.

“How, then, can we unify and bring them all together and make a Unit of them, a Church Unit of them, a spiritual Unit of them, with a spiritual Unit force?”

“This word, ‘Unit,’ is much in vogue at present. It has come to be in the recent use and application of it almost a new word, with a new meaning in it and a new necessity for it. How, then, can we make an Unit, not theoretically but practically, of all those non-parochial activities of the Diocese, to energeise with a spiritual Unit force?”

The Bishop's answer to the question was—“‘A Cathedral.’” A Cathedral, or a Pro-Cathedral such as ours, will do much to unify diocesan interests.

There are other answers, however. The Council plan to which the Bishop of the Diocese has referred is one. It is generally conceded that our Diocesan Executive Council has functioned effectively. There has not been, however, the close unity between it and diocesan organizations that there should be. The Council has been looked upon too much as a benevolent Santa Claus. Its function is not primarily to dispense funds, but rather to provide a means of unifying all diocesan activities. The reports of the various Boards and Commissions to the Council have not been adequate. It has not been the fault of the Council, but rather a general lack of vision of the Council as the center of the Church's life in the Diocese of Los Angeles.

The Church Service League is another instrument for the attainment of unity. I am convinced that it has a place in the Diocese for the accomplishing, unofficially, of what the Council does officially. It aims to make the work of the Diocese known and to secure in the parish a common interest and aim.

Apart from all machinery, there must be an unity that comes from the heart. The interests of one organization are the interests of every other, and the real Churchman will feel a responsibility for every phase of the Church's life. The intense interest of the Bishop of the Diocese in every last detail of the work of every group ought to be a pattern for us all. I know it is a source of great joy to everyone that he has returned from his European trip with added strength and that he is able to give to the Church's work undiminished interest and energy. “Laus Deo.”

APPENDIX 3

REPORT OF THE STANDING COMMITTEE

The Committee elected at the Twenty-sixth Annual Convention met on January 27, 1921, and organized by the election of the Rev. Dr. M. C. Dotten as president and the Rev. Robert B. Gooden as secretary.

The second meeting was held on March 7, 1921. The Committee sat as a council of advice to Bishop Johnson. Consent was given to the election and consecration of the Rev. William Thomas Manning, D.D., to be Bishop of New York. The Rev. A. F. Randall, rector of Trinity Church, Los Angeles, with delegates, and the Rev. Ray O. Miller, rector of St. James and St. Barnabas' Church, Los Angeles, were present to discuss the proposed change in the boundaries of Trinity Parish. A committee was appointed to secure a map of the city and to determine the bounds of the various city parishes, as at present constituted. The Committee addressed a letter to the Bishop with reference to the re-marriage after divorce of a certain party by the former rector of Christ Church, Los Angeles.

The third meeting was held on May 3, 1921. Mr. Waldo Disraeli Parker was recommended to the Bishop to be received as a candidate for Holy Orders. The candidateship of Mr. Parker and of Mr. Dexter was shortened to six months. Consent was given to the election and consecration of the Rev. Fred Ingley to be Bishop Coadjutor of Colorado.

The fourth meeting was held on May 23, 1921. Mr. Edward M. Bruce was recommended to the Bishop for ordination to the diaconate. The secretary was instructed to write to the authorities of the city parishes to find out what they considered to be their parish bounds.

The fifth meeting was held on June 23, 1921. Consent was given to the election and consecration of the Rev. John C. Ward to be Bishop of Erie; to the election of the Rt. Rev. Arthur S. Lloyd, D.D., to be Suffragan Bishop of New York; to the election and consecration of the Rev. Herbert Shipman, D.D., to be Suffragan Bishop of New York. The secretary was instructed to write a letter to the Standing Committee of the Diocese of New York, expressing the hope that Dr. Shipman would sever all connection with the paper entitled, "The Chronicle," published at Poughkeepsie, New York. The secretary was instructed to write to the authorities of St. Thomas' Parish, Los Angeles, about selling their property without first asking the consent of the Standing Committee as required by canon. Consent was given to St. Paul's Pro-Cathedral Parish, Los Angeles, to sell their property on Olive street.

The sixth meeting was held on September 14, 1921. Consent was given to the rector, wardens and vestrymen of St. James' Church, South Pasadena, to mortgage the property, excluding the rectory, for a sum not to exceed $3100. The action taken about Mr. A. P. Stembridge, a postulant for Holy Orders, at the meeting of January 22, 1921, was confirmed. The Committee then sat as a council of advice to Bishop Stevens.

The seventh meeting was held on November 3, 1921. Mr. A. H. Dexter and Mr. W. D. Parker were recommended to the Bishop for ordination to the diaconate. At the request of Bishop Stevens, the diaconate of the Rev. F. C. Miller was shortened to six months.

The eighth meeting was held November 17, 1921. The Rev. F. C. Miller was recommended to the Bishop for ordination to the priesthood.

The ninth meeting was held November 28, 1921. Consent was given to the extension of the bounds of All Saints' Parish, Montecito, making St. Andrew's Mission, Carpinteria, part of this parish. It is understood that the title to the property of St. Andrew's Mission, Carpinteria, is not to be disturbed, and the action of the Committee in consenting to the extension of the parish bounds of All Saints' is without prejudice to the establishment of other missions or parishes in this territory, should it seem wise in the future.

The tenth meeting was held on December 9, 1921. The secretary was instructed to send a telegram to the Rev. E. M. Bruce, stating that he would be recommended for ordination to the priesthood as soon as he had passed all of the required examinations and that the time of his diaconate would be shortened to six months. The secretary was instructed to ask the authorities of Trinity Church, Los Angeles, for more information about the proposition of leasing a portion of their property for a term of years.

Respectfully submitted,

ROBERT B. GOODEN, Secretary.

APPENDIX 4

REPORT OF THE HISTORIOGRAPHER

The past year has been characterized by a condition that marks a second stage of growth in the Diocese.

The notable feature of this stage is the sale of the old and familiar Cathedral site as the first step towards the erection of a suitable building as a Cathedral of a city of a million inhabitants.

This stage of development is further evidenced in the efforts now making by other leading parishes of this city to provide adequate houses of worship, in beauty and distinction of character, for congregations that have acquired strength, stability and tradition of parochial service and efficiency.

To this goodly company also belongs the leading parish of the south, St. Paul's Church, San Diego. Enlargements of their buildings and the erection of rectories have marked the growth of parishes in the smaller cities.

Respectfully submitted,

P. H. HICKMAN, Historiographer.

APPENDIX 5 (A)

REPORT OF THE EXECUTIVE COUNCIL

The organization of the Executive Council for the year 1921 was perfected at the meeting of the Council, in February, with the election of the Rev. F. U. Bugbee, executive secretary, Mr. W. C. Mushet, treasurer, of the Council; and the appointment by the Bishop of Mr. Wm. F. Knight as treasurer of the Nation-Wide Campaign Fund. Bishop Johnson presides at the meetings of the Council and, in his absence, Bishop Coadjutor Stevens.

There have been held twelve regular meetings of the Council during the year, and one special meeting.

Committees of the Council were called for by the Canon on the Executive Council, namely, Finance, General Missions, County and City Mission, Nation-Wide Campaign, Diocesan Missions, Christian Education, Social Service. The Bishop appointed the members of the first four, the membership of the last three being determined by the wording of the Canon itself, respectively, the Board of Missions, the Board of Christian Education, and the Commission on Philanthropy and Social Service. The chairmen of the first four were: Finance, Rev. Dr. Learned; General Missions, Dean McCormack; County and City Missions, Rev. E. S. Lane; Nation-Wide Campaign, Mr. C. N. Burton.

It was ordered that the committees of the Council name representatives, already members of the Council, who should report the activities of the several committees respectively at the stated meetings of the Council; and that they should make an annual report in December of all moneys received by appropriation of the Council.

It has been customary to receive applications for awards from the Nation-Wide Campaign Fund. It was ordered, in this connection, that all such applications or requests be referred to the Finance Committee of the Council, in turn to be referred back to the Council for final action; such order, however, being understood not to preclude direct action, in any matter, by the Executive Council as a whole.

Mr. C. W. Lee, financial expert, was engaged by the Council to act in an advisory capacity during the culminating weeks of the Nation-Wide Campaign. He met with many small groups and public gatherings in the churches throughout the Diocese. In a report to the Council he made several recommendations for the conduct of the Campaign another year, namely:

1. Organization by Field Director of the parishes and missions of the Diocese, ninety days before the Annual Canvass.
2. Simplification of organization literature.
3. Elimination of Diocesan Assessment from so-called Nation-Wide Campaign Quota.
4. Capitalization of General Conferences.
5. Careful analysis of reports.

A Budget Quota Sheet was ordered issued by the Finance Committee, and was sent broadcast throughout the Diocese during the campaign. In this connection, it was ordered that the quotas for 1921-1922, as printed in this Budget-Quota Sheet, be considered the permanent quota for this year, and that the schedule of assessments to be presented by the treasurer at the Convention, in January, be considered the quotas for 1923.

It was ordered that the proper celebration by the Diocese of the Centennial of the Domestic and Foreign Missionary Society of the Church be given into the hands of the Committee on General Missions. The committee issued a letter to the clergy of the Diocese urging due celebration of this momentous event.

Bishop Rowe, of Alaska, was welcomed at one of the early meetings of the year of the Council. Rev. Charles B. Scovil, the new Field Secretary of Religious Education and Social Service, was invited to speak before the Council; and it was ordered that hereafter the report from Mr. Scovil shall be the order of the day at 3 P. M. at the regular meetings.

At the last meeting of the Council, Rev. Dr. Learned, chairman of the Finance Committee of the Council, reported that only about $3,400 would be available for appropriations for new building projects during 1922! It is hoped that the returns of the recent Every Member Canvass in the Diocese will prove that his estimates are too conservative.

One of the important actions of the Council was taken at the last meeting, namely: that the meeting of the Council next following the Annual Convention shall include the full membership of all the committees of the Council. A committee was appointed to arrange for this meeting.

It is desired to impress upon the membership of the Diocese that the Executive Council is the consultative and deliberative body for the entire work of the Diocese, and not merely for the consideration of financial matters.

It was ordered in the summer that the awards from the Nation-Wide Campaign Fund to a number of churches, to the increase of missionaries' salaries and to the advance work of the Church in the Diocese, from July 1, 1920—July 1, 1921, should be published and sent to every church in the Diocese. This was done.

The total amount of awards, some of them conditional, was $17,894.48, itemized as follows:

For new missionary workers.....	$ 5,620.00
For buildings, purchase of lots, in part.....	4,400.00
To the Boards, Commissions, Institutions, etc., of Diocese....	3,900.00
For loan, interest, reduction of note, assessment.....	1,834.48
For increase in salaries of missionaries.....	1,640.00
For Bishop Rowe Anniversary Fund.....	500.00

$17,894.48

Since July 1, 1921, a total of $7,630 has been awarded to Boards, Institutions, N. W. C., missionaries' stipends, advance work in missions, and reduction of a note.

F. U. BUGBEE, Executive Secretary.

APPENDIX 5 (B)

REPORT OF THE NATION-WIDE CAMPAIGN

The Executive Secretary of the Nation-Wide Campaign reports as follows:

Eighty-eight parishes and missions will be considered the 100% record for the Diocese. The following churches or congregations, listed in 1921 Journal, have been omitted in the count: Los Angeles, Christ Church, Ephphatha; Murrieta, Imperial, Holtville. Two churches, not listed in 1921 Journal, were included in the count: Wilmington, Wilmar.

Of this number, 52 parishes and missions of the Diocese have made N. W. C. financial returns, or 59%; 36 churches in the Diocese failing to do so. Amongst them, it is fair to point out, there are some 8 very small missions. Amongst them also are 9 parishes. It is to be noted that Monrovia reported canvass to be completed January 22; Needles, not yet completed; St. Andrew's, Los Angeles, to send in full report.

These churches have failed to make any N. W. C. financial report:

Convocation of Los Angeles—Inglewood, Los Angeles—Grace, St. Luke's, St. Thomas', St. Andrew's, The Angels; Monrovia, Ocean Park, San Pedro, Huntington Park, Culver City, Glendora, Tujunga, Van Nuys, Watts, Wilmington, El Toro, Hermosa, Lynwood, Wilmar.

Convocation of San Bernardino—Beaumont-Banning, Elsinore, Needles, San Jacinto.

Convocation of San Diego—La Jolla, National City, El Centro, Brawley, Bostonia, East San Diego, Carlsbad, Fallbrook, San Luis Rey, San Diego—St. James'.

Convocation of Santa Barbara—Ventura, Carpinteria. Note: One man, on behalf of Ventura, has pledged $25.00 for the N. W. C. Fund.

It is probable that two of these congregations joined with others in reporting, i.e., Hermosa with Christ Church, Redondo; and Carpinteria with All Saints', Montecito.

About 12 of these churches have failed two years in succession to make a report.

It is fair, again, to say that a number of these 36 congregations had been without rectors or priests-in-charge for some time, several until very recently, such as San Pedro, Huntington Park, Glendora, St. James', San Diego, and, perhaps, Ventura.

Whereas 52 parishes and missions reported this year, there were 65 in 1920. Those failing to make a report this year are 36; last year, 20. Eighty-five was considered the 100% record in 1920. As last year the amount of the Diocesan Assessment and Diocesan Missionary Assessment was added to the amount noted as pledged, in the case of each of four churches; these churches, in all but one instance, noting a total quota short by that much. This is in order to show as near an approach as possible to the total quota for the Diocese. These four churches are as follows: Los Angeles—St. Paul's; Orange, Pomona, Sawtelle.

Thirty-six of these 52 parishes and missions report a total increase of $13,534.25; 13 of them a total decrease of $3,092.08, making a net increase of $10,442.17.

Forty-six of these 52 parishes and missions report a total of 3,510 pledges; 26 of them a total increase of 413 pledges; 16 of them a total decrease of 210 pledges, a net increase of 203 pledges.

Last year, 39 parishes and missions reported 3,468 pledges to N. W. C.—an increase of 549 over the preceding year from 27 of them. There was but one decrease of 2.

PARISH BUDGET REPORT

Of the 52 parishes and missions, 47 of them (42 of these 47 reporting a total budget of $165,535.15) pledged a total of $129,771.53; 30 of these reported a total increase of $11,795.86, 9 of them a decrease of $2,288.05, making a net increase of $9,507.81.

Forty-five of these 52 parishes and missions report a total of 4,524 pledges to budget; 26 of them an increase of 412 pledges; 11 of them a decrease of 131, a net increase of 281.

A matter of interest and importance to the Diocese should be the fact that, as the result of the Patton Conference Dinner in October, some 92 pledges of service in the local Church from laymen were received; 32 of these pledging service to the Diocese. As a consequence, a number of these latter, together with other laymen, went as Information Men to various churches in the Convocation of Los Angeles on Sundays, November 13th and 20th—to 11 churches on November 13th, two in the Convocation of Santa Barbara, and to 14 churches on November 20th, one in the Convocation of Santa Barbara.

As to the "Church at Work"—for the January issue, 28 parishes and missions received all that had been ordered of 3,500 copies, together with 500 of "Exchange of Methods." Some few had to be disappointed because the order was received too late. For future issues we have ordered 3,750 copies of the "Church at Work" for 31 parishes and missions. Of these, 8 will receive their quotas direct from publishers in amounts of 200 or over.

A request from the Presiding Bishop and Council, N. W. C. Department, has been received, asking for information regarding the number of those enrolled as Intercessors and Proportional Givers, two of the aims of the campaign this year.

Respectfully submitted,

FRANKLIN U. BUGBEE, Secretary.

The Diocese is to be congratulated upon the splendid showing made during the past year.

Through a better understanding, very little that should have passed through the treasurer's books has been sent direct, thus enabling him to give the proper credits promptly and at the same time to preserve the correct balance between the Diocese and the Board in New York.

Respectfully submitted,

WM. F. KNIGHT, N. W. C. Treasurer.

APPENDIX 7

REPORT OF THE BOARD OF CHRISTIAN EDUCATION (1)

The work of the Board during the year, 1921, has gone forward steadily under the personal leadership of Bishop Stevens. The method inaugurated, last year, of apportioning the work of the Board to five Standing Committees has proved valuable; and much more has been accomplished by this means with less tax on the time of members. In March, the Board entertained Dr. Gardner of the General Board of Religious Education, and arranged for a series of meetings for him in various parts of the Diocese. The Santa Monica Summer School was held as usual and was most successful. Our Faculty was unusually fine, and special mention should be made of Bishop Moulton, Dr. Bradner, and our faithful and inspiring friend, Bishop Sanford.

Of particular interest is the work being fostered by the Board among the Young People and College students. Two special meetings have been held during the year; one during Dr. Gardner's visit and the other at the time of the Santa Monica Summer School. Three Church clubs have been organized in as many colleges, one having over 125 members.

The outstanding feature of the year, however, is the arrival in the Diocese of our new Field Secretary, the Rev. Charles B. Scovil who is to share his time between this Board and the Commission on Social Service and Philanthropy. Mr. Scovil in his short time here has made the acquaintance of the greater part of the Diocese, and he is best qualified to make suggestions for our program for future work. We therefore leave that part of our report for him to make. Respectfully submitted for the Board,

STEPHEN C. CLARK, JR., Secretary.

REPORT OF THE EXECUTIVE SECRETARY OF THE BOARD OF CHRISTIAN EDUCATION (2)

The main objectives, in recent years in the Church, of the Department of Christian Education have been in the direction of practical purposes rather than in the putting forth of educational theories. With this in mind, I have, at the request of the Board of Christian Education of the Diocese of Los Angeles, outlined a definite program of advance for the year 1922 in this department. I have divided this program under five heads:

I. The Church School: In this branch of our Christian educational work, we are not intending to dictate to the parish clergyman as to how he shall run his Church school. We are simply trying, in a simple and practical way, to place before the several parishes and missions within the Diocese a system which will tend to make our Church schools respected and valuable in the eyes of both children and parents. We earnestly ask that the plans hereafter outlined be given a fair trial and we feel confident that if such trial be given both the school and the Diocese will be the gainer. We need, however, first of all, in such a large Diocese as our own, centers of Christian education throughout the Diocese. The complaint is heard on every hand, outside the city of Los Angeles, that Church school teachers have no chance to come in contact with Christian educational questions, teacher-training courses. We propose to remedy this by the formation of District Church School Unions; that is, to form centers of Christian educational work in various parts of the Diocese. To each District Union will be committed by the Board the working out of a definite program of education within the district. Each district to have its own officers and organization. The work of such District Unions may be:

(1) To form and carry on, with the help of the Executive Secretary, district teacher-training classes, or teachers' institutes.

(2) To hold Church school and young people's rallies during the year within the district.

(3) To hold a life-work dinner or meeting with a view to recruiting for the ministry.

(4) To foster the young people's fellowships or college clubs within the district.

(5) To give an annual scholarship in the Summer School of the Diocese.

In other words, to have active centers in the various parts of the Diocese for religious education.

The Board also recommends, as another step in advance, a Church school standard for the Diocese. The need of such standard will be evident to all those who seriously consider the subject. The question of placing new scholars, the spirit of unity among our Church schools, and the value to the Church schools themselves in holding before them some standard of efficiency—these needs are almost self-evident. What shall this standard be? Who shall set such a standard? You have a Board of Christian Education that has given this matter honest and thoughtful consideration and, after much deliberation and much sifting of evidence, it has recommended the following eight points as having a place in a standard school in this Diocese, and it recommends that such an eight-point school be the standard for the Diocese:

- (1) Graded school.
- (2) Teachers' meetings.
- (3) Parish support of the Church school.
- (4) Principles of Christian nurture.
- (5) Forty-minute lesson period.
- (7) Careful records.
- (8) Lenten offerings.

The Board proposes to designate as honor schools those which have attained six of these eight points, and to issue to such schools the certificate of the Board of Christian Education to such effect. It also intends to issue to schools other than the honor schools certificates covering the points attained by them.

Teacher-training schools are to be maintained by the Board during the year—the Bishop's School for Church Teachers in Los Angeles; and we hope district institutes in the various districts.

II. Recruiting for the Ministry: Those who have read the report of the Committee on Recruiting, under the direction of the Commission on the Training, Recruiting and Admission of Men for the Ministry, cannot help but being alarmed at the decrease of suitable young men presenting themselves for the life and work of the ministry. This important work in the Diocese of Los Angeles has been placed under the Board of Christian Education. Your Board proposes an active campaign, this year, in this department of its work. The program of your Board is based on the program of the General Church:

(1) Letters to the clergy to preach on the life and work of the ministry.

(2) A dinner to boys and young men to present the cause of the ministry.

(3) A dinner to boys and girls to present the opportunity for life-work within the Church.

(4) A program of follow-up.

III. Young People's Fellowships: It has been observed by one who has studied the Church schools of the Diocese that very few of our schools have children over the ages of 15 or 16 years. This is very serious. Your Board wishes to commend the formation of Young People's Fellowships in all our parishes to take care of the young people of from 16 to 24 years. The formation of a Diocesan organization of Young People's Fellowships is heartily endorsed by the Board, and great usefulness is predicted from such organization. This, in addition to the young people's societies in the several parishes and missions, will include the Church clubs in the colleges and universities within the Diocese. As to the younger boys' work, the Board endorses the work of the Junior Brotherhood of St. Andrew, with its new program of boys' camps, and wishes also to call to the attention of the clergy and workers with boys an organization new to the Diocese—the Order of Sir Galahad. This last order is so constituted that it provides co-ordination with such organizations for boys as the Boy Scouts of America and the above-mentioned Junior Brotherhood of St. Andrew.

IV. The Church School Service League: The Church School Service League is again recommended by your Board for your consideration. The work in this department has now been placed under your Board of Christian Education, and Deaconess Reardon is ready to help any parish to put its program into effect.

V. The Every Layman's Study League: A very important part of the educational system of the Church and Diocese ought to be the encouragement of regular and helpful reading. We have in this Diocese an organization which aims to place, in each parish, helpful books on religious and social service subjects. We hope that this will be more widely used this year. Much of the work of this league is expected to be handled through the office of the Executive Secretary.

To sum up: What, then, is our program in Christian education for the coming year? We aim to have centers of Christian education in the various parts of the Diocese, to lift a standard for our Church schools, to train our teachers in all parts of the Diocese, to encourage reading and study among adults; and we need the help of every clergyman and layman in the Diocese of Los Angeles to carry it out.

Respectfully submitted,

CHARLES B. SCOVIL, Executive Secretary.

APPENDIX 8

REPORT OF THE BOARD OF MISSIONS

CONVOCATION OF LOS ANGELES

In this Diocese we have one of the great missionary fields of the country. In the Convocation of Los Angeles alone we have 31 parishes and 30 missions.

Our aided missions aim to achieve self-support; and almost every year there are examples of this aim being realized. Some of the missions have doubled their contributions during the past year.

The Diocese has been built up by helping new congregations at the beginning when extraordinary expenses faced them, such as: the building of a church, or parish house; and, later, by encouraging them to self-support. Several of our largest parishes were at one time aided missions.

I have known mission congregations in this Convocation worshipping in many kinds of buildings, in public halls, woman's club-houses, stores and private houses; some of these missions are now housed in churches or parish houses of their own, and it is encouraging to note that every year the list of such buildings is longer.

We have now two resident clergymen in the San Fernando Valley; and it is quite possible that a third may be placed there in the not distant future.

On Advent Sunday, Bishop Stevens opened the Advent Mission on West Adams Place, in a neighborhood where it is very desirable that the Church should be represented.

At Downey, we have bought a ready-made church from our Baptist brethren, and expect to be in it before Easter.

At Ramona Acres, we have secured a lot which is partly paid for and have pledges secured for the balance.

The mission at Wilmington has been revived and, under the very efficient work of the Rev. T. P. Swift, is now a self-supporting organization. The same energetic clergyman has also revived the mission at Torrance and the outlook there is most encouraging.

On the whole, the year has been a good one and the prospects for the coming year are brighter still.

J. ARTHUR EVANS, Rural Dean.

CONVOCATION OF SAN DIEGO

The missionary fields in this Convocation of San Diego have been faithfully served by our missionaries during the past year. Our greatest need is two men consecrated enough to undertake the difficult and arduous work in the imperial Valley. An associate-mission with headquarters at El Centro would do much for the whole field in that section and would reflect great credit on the whole Church. It would constitute an appeal to the sympathies of the people of that desert land, where everybody endures hardships and everyone instantly recognizes the beauty of self-sacrifice.

Two new missions, as yet unorganized, have been opened near San Diego and are promising excellent results; at La Mesa, Mr. Taylor, with his accustomed energy, has started a work which is undertaken with enthusiasm and zeal on the part of the Church people living there; while at Ocean Beach, under the faithful ministrations of Chaplain Wood, a loyal band of communicants is hoping to have its own chapel before two years shall have passed. Both of these communities are growing and will eventually succeed, so far as the Church is concerned, by reason of the faithful few.

We should also begin with services at Chula Vista, where we have a considerable number of our people, as soon as possible.

CHARLES L. BARNES, Rural Dean.

CONVOCATION OF SANTA BARBARA

This year, there are no closed missions in this convocation. In every mission in union with Convention and in every mission station the services of the Church are being held. The congregations and offerings are larger and more persons are making pledges for the support of the work than ever before.

Remarkable results have been achieved in the Santa Maria-Lompoc mission district in charge of the Rev. Mortimer Chester. St. Peter's Mission, Santa Maria, is making the influence of the Church felt throughout that growing city. Its fine vested choir would be a credit to a large parish church.

A year ago, St. Mary's Mission, Lompoc, was considered dead. The fine church building had been closed for years. Sand blew through its windows and rain came through the roof. Within the year the people in Lompoc have raised $600 and, with some aid from others outside, have completely restored the building. At the opening service the Rural Dean preached to a congregation of over one hundred. This year it has paid all its assessments, was one of the first to meet its N. W. C. quota in full, and in addition is pledging $25 monthly to the Board of Missions.

In the Santa Barbara mission field, the Rev. M. D. Kneeland is building up a strong mission which ought soon to become an independent parish. The condition of this mission field is especially gratifying in the face of the widespread financial unrest. Mr. Kneeland is also holding semi-monthly services in the Ojai Valley, where there have been no Church services for two years.

The Oxnard field and this whole convocation lost much when, last spring, the Rev. Thomas P. Swift gained the recognition due him for his effective and self-sacrificing work, and was called to the important mission at Wilmington.

All Saints', Oxnard, is, however, particularly fortunate in the new priest-in-charge, the Rev. Allan L. Burleson, who entered on his duties October 1. It is planned to make Oxnard the center of intensive work among the small communities along the railroad to Chatsworth and on the Conejo. In this district, which has been too long left without regular ministrations, there are many communicants who have the right to expect the ministrations of the Church.

St. Andrew's Mission, Carpinteria, of which the Rural Dean is the priest-in-charge, in addition to being the rector of All Saints', Montecito, has had a monthly celebration of the Holy Communion. Through its connection with the important Santa Barbara School for Boys it offers a fine opportunity to spread Church influence.

It has been a busy year for the Rural Dean. He has made nineteen visits to the missions in the Convocation—in addition, held many conferences with the missionaries. He has written over 160 letters on Convocation matters, traveled 3,470 miles on Convocation business, and raised $564 for special Convocation purposes.

GEORGE F. WELD, Rural Dean.

CONVOCAION OF SAN BERNARDINO

The year of 1921 has been one of progress for the Convocation of San Bernardino. The missionary work has progressed in all quarters and is in a healthy condition. Early in the year the Convocation lost a valuable worker when the Rev. Mortimer Chester was transferred from the Beaumont-Hemet-Elsinore field to the Convocation of Santa Barbara. Since that time, however, and as one of the concrete results of the Nation-Wide Campaign, two missionaries have been placed in the same field, the Rev. Frederick C. Miller taking up the work in Hemet, San Jacinto and Elsinore, and the Rev. Francis M. Wilson taking Beaumont and Banning. In the fall the Rev. Charles E. Mainmann accepted the call to become rector of St. John's, San Bernardino, and in November the Rev. Harlan Bailey of Tacoma, Washington, took his place in charge of St. John the Baptist's Mission, Corona. So the Convocation now has three missionaries as against two a year ago.

Several definite forward steps have been made from the standpoint of strengthening the missionary work. A grant of $500 has been made by the Executive Council toward the building of a rectory in Hemet, ground has already been broken for a combination Church building and parish house in Beaumont, and the Board of Missions has made provision for a new missionary for Colton, so soon as one can be found.

During the year the Rural Dean has attended eleven meetings of the Board of Missions and Executive Council, has visited all the missions in the Convocation, holding services and preaching once in Beaumont, three times in Hemet and three times in Elsinore. He has celebrated the Holy Communion in Beaumont once (and two private Communions) and in Hemet three times. In November he assisted Bishop Stevens in holding a Preaching Mission at Needles, and in June visited the scattered families of the Coachella Valley, holding one evening service, and one celebration of the Holy Communion. During the latter trip a lot in Thermal was offered for a Church building.

An excellent spirit of co-operation has been manifested in the Convocation this past year. Two splendid meetings of Convocation have been held, the first in the spring at St. Mark's, Upland, and the second on December 1st at St. John the Baptist's Mission, Corona. On October 12th an all-day conference on the Nation-Wide Campaign was held in Riverside, led by Dr. Patton, and two parochial conferences arranged for. A Convocation service was held on the evening of November 6th in Trinity Church, Redlands, in observance of the Centennial of the Board of Missions, and two Church school rallies, at All Saints', Riverside, in the spring, and at Trinity Church, Redlands, in the fall. At the latter there were two hundred teachers and children present. Plans are now being considered to form a Church School Union within the Convocation.

The Rural Dean desires to express his appreciation of the splendid spirit of co-operation manifested in the many members of the various parishes and missions of the convocation which is developing a very real Convocation consciousness.

R. A. KIRCHHOFFER, Rural Dean.

At the meeting of the Board, held January 24, it was voted to recommend to Convention that the assessment for Diocesan Missions be made $16,500.00.

THOMAS C. MARSHALL, Secretary.

APPENDIX 9

REPORT OF THE COMMISSION ON PHILANTHROPY AND SOCIAL SERVICE

Your Commission begs to report that its principal activities during the past year have been four-fold:

1. The effort to increase interest in social questions on the part of both clergy and laity.
2. The endeavor to act as the mouthpiece of the Diocese on social problems.
3. The continued study of the Church's approach to and duty in the field of social service.
4. The effort to create a joint committee from the social service commissions of the Dioceses of California, Los Angeles, Sacramento and San Joaquin to act for the Episcopal Church in California in regard to social legislation at Sacramento.

The Commission wishes to express to Convention its deep appreciation of the impetus given its work by the fact that the Diocese now has an executive secretary for Religious Education and Social Service. The constant and recurring handicap to the work of the Commission in past years has been the lack of a paid secretary who could be assigned to the investigation of proposals and institutions. Now that the Commission has the disposal of half of the time of the Rev. Charles B. Scovil, it can secure necessary detailed information as never before. The Diocese will have a perfect right to expect greater results from the Commission in the future.

Your Commission has never felt called upon to adopt any other attitude toward the institutions of the Diocese than that of sympathetic co-operation. It has felt that so long as these were in the hands of capable boards of directors it should devote its energies to the larger field of education and inspiration. Yet probably few members of the Diocese realize that the majority of these institutions are engaged in social service. Such include:

The Hospital of the Good Samaritan.

The Neighborhood Settlement.

The Church Home for Children.

The County and City Mission Society.

The Bishop's Guild.

The Seamen's Church Institute.

We rejoice that the newest institution of all, the Diocesan Home for the Aged, is about to erect its first building and enter upon a social work for which there has been dire need in the Diocese.

Last June your Commission sent as its representative to the First Annual Conference of Social Service Workers of the Episcopal Church, held at Milwaukee, its secretary, the Rev. C. Rankin Barnes. That Conference, meeting just prior to the National Conference of Social Work, has proven invaluable to the Church for correlating social service in the various dioceses. From it also came the Council of Advice which links the entire field to the office of the National Executive Secretary, the Rev. Charles N. Lathrop. The fact that our secretary, the Rev. Mr. Barnes, was named as one of the twelve members of this Council gives your Commission a particularly close contact with the national department.

From the Church Social Service Conference there emerged several outstanding facts by which our own Diocese could well profit. The first is that the diocese is the logical unit for the organization and stimulation of Christian social service. The province is too large; the parish is too small. And when a state is extensive enough to demand two or more dioceses, there is bound to exist among them a diversity of social needs great enough to make the diocese a more desirable unit of organization than the state. For example, many of the social problems which we must face in the Diocese of Los Angeles do not seriously affect the Diocese of Sacramento. Furthermore, it may be interesting to note that leaders in social service in other communions envy the compactness of our diocesan form of organization.

The fact that the diocese is the logical unit for the organization and stimulation of Christian social service places a wide responsibility upon the diocesan commission. It must aim to do four large things:

1. Educate, in innumerable ways, the members of the Church to their social responsibilities.

2. Study, always with a view to action, the principal social and industrial problems which crave solution.

3. Stimulate organized activities in institutions and parishes.

4. Co-ordinate existing work in the social service field, both as between organizations within the Church and as between Church organizations and secular agencies.

From this list it can be readily seen how a diocesan commission must have at least the part time of a paid secretary if it is in any adequate way to fulfil its task.

The diocese is the logical unit for organization and stimulation of Christian social service, yes; but the parish must be the unit for work. For a number of years opinion has been moving toward this; now it has arrived. That parish social service has seldom been adequately developed in the past is due to the fact that many people think of social service as distinct from the work of the Church. They lose sight of the fact that it really is the Gospel in daily action. Hosts of our Churchmen are doing social service work, but they do not think of it as Church work, perhaps not even as Christian work. Nor are they particularly to blame. Too often the Church has left relief of distress to fraternal orders; questions of unemployment to commercial agencies; friendly visiting to the Associated Charities; and guidance of Christian opinion on social questions to a bought press.

The way out lies in the development in each parish of a social service department or committee. If a parish has a unit of the Church Service League, whether called a Parish Council or not, the development of such a committee may be accomplished through it. Otherwise it may be done independently. Full details are available in Bulletin No. 11 of the Presiding Bishop and Council, entitled "Parish Organization," and your Commission will be glad to supply any parish social service committee with plenty of suggestions for practical work. It is no longer an experiment; it has been done in parish after parish and diocese after diocese.

In fact, the future progress of Christian social service within the Diocese of Los Angeles depends largely upon how many live social service committees are started in its parishes. In this connection the 1921 report of the energetic New York Diocesan Commission stated: "As our program takes more definite form much reliance will be placed upon these local groups and special effort will be made to bring them into direct relation with our various undertakings."

Perhaps some one will protest that social service committees are only feasible in large parishes. Notice, however, an example in a diocese and a community where the Church has not been strong. St. Paul's Church, Richmond, Indiana, has 138 communicants, also a parish social service committee. So effective has been its work that of the 30 social service directors of the city's Social Service Bureau, each representing some one agency, 11 are Churchmen, though Churchmen are outnumbered 25 to 1 in the community, which is largely a Quaker settlement. And those 11 persons all belong to the parish social service committee. In the Diocese of Los Angeles the average communicant strength of its parishes is 276, exactly twice that of the parish mentioned. The opportunity is obvious.

But, regardless of any existing parochial organization for social service, each parish has a definite responsibility for social service education this spring. Our national Department of Christian Social Service has just published an interesting and admirable text-book for discussion groups called "The Social Opportunity of the Churchman," by the Rev. Charles K. Gilbert and the Rev. Charles N. Lathrop. The publication of a leader's manual to accompany it makes it possible for a layman of average education to conduct a discussion group with profit. To stimulate such leadership, however, your Commission has arranged a training class for such key men, to be held in St. Paul's Parish Hall in the near future. We trust that every parish in the Diocese will have such a discussion group, starting not later than Ash Wednesday, to meet on a week-night, for a period of seven weeks, with a layman as leader. If a parish has a social service committee to organize and stimulate the discussion group, so much the better. Your Commission stands ready to advise any rector or parish committee in this regard.

Your Commission has noted that at the root of much juvenile delinquency lies a lack of principle and honor in the delinquent. The boy who should grow into a social asset becomes a liability to his community. He develops without will power for the right. This is to be largely overcome by a daily contact with some form of Christian social work. Every Christian has a responsibility for the social as well as the devotional development of the boys of his parish and community.

Frequently the only approach to their devotional growth is the approach of doing a bit of social work for them through the avenue of their daily problems. The lasting social value of boy's club work is only beginning to be appreciated. We note with interest the fact that the Order of Sir Galahad, the national Episcopal club for boys, aims to build up a real man upon a basis of just these elements of honor, loyalty, reverence and cleanness. The establishment of courts of the Order within the Diocese would have a distinct social value. The entire responsibility, however, can never be shifted from the home to the Church. The father who allows his son to grow up a stranger to him instead of a pal, and the mother who permits her daughter to develop as an unknown quantity to her instead of a chum, are not doing their Christian duty, either individually or socially.

Perhaps never before now has America faced such an outbreak of open violation of law. A new group of men has arisen who claim the privilege of choosing just which portions of the Constitution of the United States they wish to obey. Often those who harp loudest on the theme of loyalty to government and upholding the Constitution are the very first ones to violate the Constitution's latest amendment. We therefore wish to reiterate the warning which was sounded by the Judicial Section of the American Bar Association: "Reverence for law and enforcement of law depend mainly upon the ideals and customs of those who occupy the vantage ground of life in business and society. The people of the United States, by solemn constitutional and statutory enactment, have undertaken to suppress the age-long evil of the liquor traffic. When, for the gratification of their appetites or the promotion of their interests, lawyers, bankers, great merchants and manufacturers, and social leaders, both men and women, disobey and scoff at this law, or any other law, they are aiding the cause of anarchy and promoting mob violence, robbery and homicide; they are sowing dragons' teeth, and they need not be surprised when they find that no judicial or police authority can save our country or humanity from reaping the harvest."

Your Commission has watched with peculiar interest that endeavor for international social righteousness which is called the Conference on the Limitation of Armaments. We thank God for the progress already made toward removing the causes of international conflict. Now that the Conference is nearing its close, there arises the vital necessity for a program of popular education which shall see to it that the vision of the world's leaders shall become the working ideal of the world's masses.

In concluding this report, your Commission begs to submit the following resolutions:

1. Resolved, That it is the mind of this Convention that the highest form of Christian social service is the establishment of social justice, that is to say, of a condition of life wherein the fruits of industry are so distributed that every human being shall have a chance to live a full human life, with due opportunity for the preservation of bodily health, the cultivation of mental powers, and the exercise of spiritual faculties; and, further that no merely ameliorative or charitable activities can ever take the place of this fundamental duty.

2. Resolved, That it is the duty of the Diocesan Commission on Philanthropy and Social Service to stand for law and order and to express its mind on any problems deemed to affect social welfare.

3. Resolved, That this Convention deplores the growing indifference to law and order as evidenced by the disregard of part of the Constitution of the United States, and many acts of mob rule in various parts of the country; that it goes on record as in favor of prompt law enforcement; and, further, that it calls on all Christian people to stand for the existing law of the land and for properly constituted order.

4. Resolved, That this Convention requests the Deans of the four Convocations to include in each Convocation program some social service topic to aid in educating our people in the application of the principles of the Kingdom.

5. Whereas, The Department of Christian Social Service of the Presiding Bishop and Council has prepared in its winter and spring program for parish discussion groups on social service, and that these plans have been duly approved by the Presiding Bishop and Council; therefore, be it

Resolved, That this Convention considers it the duty of every parish in the Diocese to have a discussion group on the text-book, "The Social Opportunity of the Churchman," organized and in action before Easter, 1922.

THOMAS C. MARSHALL, Chairman.

APPENDIX 10

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON CHURCH PENSION FUND

The Committee on the Church Pension Fund hereby presents its annual report. We are glad to assure the members of this Convention that, with the exception of four missions, there are no delinquencies.

During the year the Treasurer, Mr. Colin M. Gair, to whom we owe a great debt of gratitude for his painstaking services, has sent to the Treasurer of the National Commission in New York the sum of $8,712.75, which is more than has been sent any previous year.

At the present time the Church Pension Fund in New York is sending yearly to the clergy and widows and orphans of this Diocese, entitled to the financial assistance of the pension system, the sum of $13,110.31. So far as we have been able to gather, the total sum disbursed to the disabled clergy and the widows and orphans, who were beneficiaries of the Diocese in 1916—the year preceding the institution of the Church Pension Fund—was a little less than $2,000. The comparison of these figures is interesting and suggestive. The report just received from New York discloses the fact that 19 clergymen, 13 widows and one orphan child in the Diocese of Los Angeles receive every month a check from the Treasurer of the Church Pension Fund.

While it is important that the pension system should be working beneficently in our own Diocese, it is even more important that this condition should characterize the operation of the fund in the Church at large. That such is the case the following figures are an eloquent testimony:

PENSIONS IN FORCE JANUARY 1, 1922

	No.	Amount
The Church Pension Fund:
Age Pensions.....	202	$111,404.74
Pensions for Total and Permanent Disability.....	55	32,663.18
Widows' Pensions.....	224	75,806.51
Orphans' Pensions.....	146	16,357.53
Total.....	627	$236,231.96
General Clergy Relief Fund Grants Assumed.....		96,466.82
Grants of "General Convention of 1907 Account".....		17,387.33
Diocesan Fund Grants Assumed.....		61,989.29
Grand Total.....		$412,075.40

In connection with this, and as a commentary on the meaning of these figures, we call your attention to the following illuminating paragraphs from the last annual report of the Trustees of the Pension System of our Church:

"The Church Pension Fund passed one of its landmarks on November 1, 1921. On that day, the pensions in force under the rules amounted to $220,000 a year. Each of these pensions was to a clergyman who had held actively a cure or office in the Church on March 1, 1917, the date when the pension system began, or to a widow or minor orphan of a clergyman who had held such a cure or office on that days. In four years and nine months, the Fund has accumulated this annual distribution of $220,000. There are other grants paid by the Fund, such as to the beneficiaries of the former General Clergy Relief Fund, bringing its total distribution up to almost $400,000 annually, but these other grants were not made to a clergyman who had been in active service on March 1, 1917, or to the widow of such a clergyman.

"This figure of $220,000 in yearly pension distribution made under the rules is an interesting landmark in the history of the Fund. The reason is that in 1913, when an official survey of the entire Church was made, it was reported that up until that time, in all of its previous history, the Episcopal Church had accumulated a distribution to its aged clergy and to the families of deceased clergymen, from all sources, amounting yearly to $220,000.

"It will be immediately seen how much more helpful the Episcopal Church is to its clergy and their families under the systematized order of the Church Pension Fund than under the previous unsystematic arrangements. If, in less than five years under the Fund, the pensions granted equal the entire previous accumulation of grants in fifty years, how many times the old yearly pension roll will be exceeded under the present arrangement before much less than even a generation has elapsed."

Twelve months ago, we dared to assume the mantle of the prophet and predicted that, very soon, the Church, through its pension system, would be able to deal more generously by the clergy and their dependents than hitherto had seemed safe or possible. In part that prophecy has been fulfilled. At the annual meeting of the Trustees of the Church Pension Fund, "it was ordered that, whenever a clergyman died in active service leaving a widow, there be sent immediately to the widow a check for one thousand dollars. The office was instructed to use all possible diligence in obtaining information and in mailing the check. This immediate grant of one thousand dollars is, of course, in addition to the pension which the widow receives and to the pension which is received by any minor children.

"This provision went into effect on the day the Trustees acted—December 20—and is to remain in force until the end of the year 1922. The Trustees fully expect that they will be able to carry this immediate grant of one thousand dollars indefinitely, but it is wiser administration to renew the provision each year, upon a survey of the financial condition of the Fund.

"To avoid discrimination, each widow now upon the pension roll whose husband died in active service between March 1, 1917, the date of the establishment of the Fund, and December 20, 1921, was voted an increase of her pension by sixty dollars a year, this being the income at six per cent on the thousand dollars which she would have received at the death of her husband, if this legislation could have been enacted when the fund began its operations.

"It seems somewhat singular to recollect that apparently, in all the two thousand years of the existence of the Christian community, it has been reserved for the Episcopal Church in the United States to correct a situation which constantly arises. No instances can be recalled of a similar provision having been made by any Church in the past, or of any similar provision in force in any other Christian Church to-day."

During the present year, 1922, this offer remains without any conditions other than this, that the deceased clergyman, when he passed to his reward, was in good standing on the books of the Church Pension Fund. But, beginning with January 1st, 1923, this further condition will be insisted upon, that the record of the Diocese, which is the actuarial basis of computation, shall be clear; that is, that every parish and mission shall have paid all the assessments that, under the pension system, were expected from them. This information was received by your Committee only a few days ago.

As it raises a very serious, as well as a very complex question, we are reluctant at the present time, to make any recommendation to this Convention. We are of the opinion that, if the Pension Fund Committee was permitted to study the question during the present year, we would be prepared next January to speak much more intelligently about the matter. It is quite likely that, at the coming General Convention, some action may be taken that will help to simplify the difficulty that confronts us. We therefore, as a part of this report, offer the following resolution:

Resolved, That the entire matter of clearing up the record of the Diocese be referred to the Church Pension Committee, with instructions to study the matter during the present year, and report their findings with recommendations to the Convention of this Diocese which meets in January, 1923.

Provided, further, that power be given to the Church Pension Committee, in conjunction with the Executive Council, to secure such funds as may be necessary to meet any emergency arising between January 1st, 1923, and the meeting of the Diocesan Convention.

WILLIAM MACCORMACK, Chairman.

APPENDIX 11

REPORT OF THE HOSPITAL OF THE GOOD SAMARITAN

The year, 1921, has been marked by several developments which mean much for the future of the Hospital.

In the first place, the ten-year period of reorganization has resulted in the actual transfer of all the holdings of the Columbia Hospital Association to the Hospital of the Good Samaritan, in July, so that the Hospital is now really a Church institution and a corporation organized not for profit but primarily for charitable work.

In the second place, the Hospital has secured the rating of a Class A hospital from the American College of Surgeons, which means that, in common with a very few other hospitals, it has met the very latest and highest standards of the medical profession and is entitled to be rated as a teaching hospital. It has now a regularly organized staff of 80 physicians and surgeons of first rank in the city; a laboratory equipped to make all kinds of pathological examinations, and a very fine X-ray room.

In the third place, the Hospital Directors have decided upon a policy of expansion and have begun the acquisition of additional property sufficient to provide for the growth of the Hospital for many years to come. Thus, the alternative policy of maintaining a small, well equipped, efficient hospital has been set aside in favor of a comprehensive plan looking to the development of an institution that will take rank in size and volume of services, as well as in efficiency, with the great hospitals of the land.

The next immediate work is the building of a nurses' home, as the lease on our present rented building expires next November. Following that, as quickly as possible, must be the construction of another unit of the hospital itself to provide for a much larger number of patients and, particularly, wards for patients at greatly reduced rates for treatment.

The successful accomplishment of the plans of the Bishop and the Board will, of course, be contingent upon the raising of a considerable fund both for building and for endowment in which the co-operation of the people of the Church and of the community is confidently expected.

The total number of patients admitted during the year was 3,784; the daily average of patients, 123.7; the number of births, 475; the total number of deaths, including babies, 62; the number of operations, 2,144. The total amount of charitable or complimentary work, including discounts and allowances, was $7,256.61. Towards this amount the churches, through the Thanksgiving offerings, contributed $610.36.

THOMAS C. MARSHALL, Secretary.

APPENDIX 12

REPORT OF THE CHURCH HOME FOR CHILDREN

The only building we have done during the year is to erect "Cozy Nook" by putting together two small portable houses in such a way that a large living-room, good-sized bedroom and tiny kitchenette are formed. This is now occupied by a worker and her two small daughters.

The need of "the South Wing" is ever more apparent with us. While the general health of the children has been splendid most of the year, in March came a perfect epidemic of colds,—not just ordinary ones—but the old-fashioned "hard and tight" kind. This made us long for an Infirmary where budding colds and other ills could be popped into bed and kept there until well, and not have the disease spread through the entire family. The upper floor of the south wing of the Administration Building would serve excellently as a temporary Infirmary. The Building Fund for this has been enlarged by several additions during the year. In January we fell heir to a $2,000 mortgage which could be applied to this purpose; in July, the long-looked-for legacy left by our dear friend, Mrs. da Cunha, arrived; this placed us $3,000 nearer the goal; in November came an unexpected gift of $1,000 from "a faithful friend" which it did not take us long to add to the Fund. As this leaves us practically only $2,000 to raise toward the desired amount we feel we're "getting hot." A Building Committee has been formed, our Architect consulted, and working drawings made, and our ardent prayer is that the Fund may be completed and work begun in the near future. Only $2,000!

The Good Samaritan Hospital deserves our sincere thanks and appreciation for the loving care given one of our larger girls during an operation and two periods of "observation."

Never has there been a time in the history of the institution when we have been so besieged with applications as during this past fall, making one realize more and more strongly the necessity of this work.

Some of the cases were most pathetic and we longed to help, but for lack of room could only take in one. But we can comfort ourselves that no child has ever been turned away from this Home on account of financial reasons. As we have no endowment, we must have board money from those relatives able to pay in order to keep running (and pay our bills)! And even so, this amount does not run us for one-half the month—the difference between this and the amount required is our "faith item." In a report to our Board of Directors last June it was found that at that time 25% of the children then in the Home were free (8 out of 32). It is not perhaps realized that a quarterly interest of $200 has to be paid for our land, that there are six workers who require a salary (moderate though this be!) and that our goats and other animals have to be fed, so that frequently our farm expenses are between $100 and $200 per month.

The offerings on Ingathering Day help us tremendously and our harvest this year was a very generous one. The first five on the list are as follows:

(1.) All Saints', Pasadena; (2.) St. John's, Los Angeles; (3.) St. Stephen's Mission, Beaumont; (4.) St. James', South Pasadena; (5.) St. Mark's, Pasadena.

(All Saints', Pasadena, has repeated its wonderful gift of $1,000 and little St Stephen's brought their offering in a truck this time, with Miss Shipp,—a ride of over 200 miles,—to see that they arrived safely, and, as you note, they have crept up from the fifth to the third place on the list. Three cheers for St. Stephen's!)

It would be impossible to even attempt to state the number of fine and generous gifts which have been made to the children during the past year; all we can say it that we feel "rich" in our friends!

But to us has come also a great loss,—an almost irreparable loss,—in the "passing over" of our beloved "Fairy Godmother," known to others as Mrs. C. S. Byington,—she, who made the opening of this Home possible and whose humility forbade us to mention her constant gifts, whose love and interest in the little ones were unfailing, whose faith carried us round many a hard "turn in the road."

"God grant that we, with thee, dear one, Heaven's goal may win, when life is done!"

In looking forward into the coming year there are three objects we should attain that this work may go forward:

1. Building of the South Wing.
 2. Grading our permanent driveway.
 3. The acquisition of a little Ford sedan ("the Kiddie Kar").
- As messages from a central wireless station, our "strong wishes" are going out in the air for these!

DEACONESS EVELYN WILE, Superintendent.

REPORT OF THE HARVARD SCHOOL (MILITARY)

Harvard School began its 22nd year on September 20, 1921, with a full enrollment and a long waiting list. In view of the business depression, it would not have been surprising if the enrollment had fallen off, but it turned out to be the best in the history of the school. The total enrollment up to date has reached 317, representing twenty-seven states and countries. The faculty numbers twenty-three, representing, in the preliminary training for the teaching profession, fifteen colleges, east and west. The school is thus a meeting ground of men and boys from all sections of the country and lands outside.

The senior class, this year, numbers fifty-three and is the largest graduating class in the history of the school; while the average of scholarship in the school and in this class is as good as the best of former years. There is a group of notably good scholars in the class of 1922.

The athletic situation at the school is excellent and wholesome. At the close of school, last June, we had developed an undefeated tennis team in singles and doubles and an undefeated baseball team. This year the football team won every game but one, losing to the Southern California champions only. The outlook is good for the rest of the year.

The military department is excellent, and it is a great delight to see the way the boys perform their duties, down to the humble duty of keeping a clean room and making their beds in a proper manner.

The school is fortunate in having a remarkably good instructor on gymnasium and he has developed some good gymnasts and aroused a lot of interest in the work on all kinds of gymnasium apparatus.

The school possesses a notably fine piece of property and has lately purchased five more lots and two buildings, making the total holdings about eleven acres. The most important new improvement is the erection of a new dining hall and kitchen at an approximate cost, when fully equipped, of $40,000. The building was designed by Mr. Reginald Johnson, and is a splendid building both as regards construction and appearance. It was very much needed because of the crowded condition of the old dining hall and because of the necessity of providing a room for a recreation room. The old dining hall will now be used for this purpose. It is planned to construct a new dormitory, gymnasium and grammar school, according to a plan made by Mr. Johnson, as soon as funds are available. When this work is done, the Diocese will have a boys' school second to none in its material things, as it has a school now second to none in its provision for the development of the whole of boy life.

The chapel services are a unique part of the school life. It is an inspiring sight to see the beautiful chapel thronged daily with young men. The services are hearty, simple, enjoyable, but always Churchly. These services are the means of bringing boys into the Church, each year, without fail and they are an object lesson in church unity for they show that boys of different faiths can worship side by side in the one House of God. It is our belief that not only does the chapel literally produce members for the Church, but it creates a feeling of respect and sympathy for the Church on the part of all.

While the school as yet has not needed to ask for money, it does ask the interest and support of the Diocese.

Respectfully submitted,

ROBERT B. GOODEN, Headmaster.

REPORT OF THE NEIGHBORHOOD SETTLEMENT

The established work of the Settlement goes on, year by year, with but little change except in the personnel of a constantly-changing population, which in the past two years has become almost solidly Mexican. Children themselves do not change, and the playground, the gymnasium, the clubs and weekly parties have a perennial attraction for them.

They come as always to the library, sewing classes, Bible picture-lessons, corrective exercises, baths, clinics and whatever benefit is provided for them.

About three hundred children come for treatments at the various clinics, which has become an essential feature in the life of the people, the parents depending largely upon them in the care of their children's health.

The crowning blessing of eleven years came to us, this year, in the person of a resident priest—our beloved Father de Garmo—to whom we are indebted for the daily celebration of the Holy Communion in our chapel, a service on Sunday for the children and people of the neighborhood, and for many kindly deeds and much helpful counsel.

The most noteworthy extension of the work of the Neighborhood Settlement, in the past year, was the establishment of a permanent summer camp at Redondo Beach. Five lots were secured in a fine location and two permanent buildings erected; one, the staff house, given by Mrs. Charles Howland, contains five rooms for the use of the workers; the other, a permanent kitchen and covered dining room for the children, built by the Association, was of the utmost help and convenience.

The camp was opened on the 27th of June and closed September the 6th. In all, about three hundred different children were entertained for from one to three weeks, besides a picnic for Mexican mothers and small children—making about two hundred and fifty guests for a single day.

The benefit of this outing shows itself throughout the school year in the improved physical condition of the children.

Among the social problems, in the dance that is given one evening a week we are trying to meet the evil of the public dance hall. All the young people are known to the workers personally, one of whom chaperones each party. The club of young men, mostly Italians, under whose auspices the dances are given, is governed by strict rules of conduct—which, be it said to their credit, they hold each other up to faithfully.

Each year we have many generous friends to thank for their Christmas gifts to the neighborhood children, as well as for the beautiful decorations of green and holly berries.

The Chapel was particularly attractive at the Midnight service—and the number who came, some from a long distance, showed their appreciation of this great privilege.

Respectfully submitted,

DEACONESS MARY, Headworker.

APPENDIX 15

REPORT OF THE BISHOP'S GUILD

The Bishop's Guild, of which Bishop Johnson is President, has 70 members, one-third belonging to suburban parishes. There have been held twelve business meetings, with an average attendance of twenty-five and two exhibits of children's clothing, when 750 garments were shown. These were cut out at the sewing rooms, 353 Hellman building, Fourth and Main streets, and made by many different Guilds and Auxiliaries. The store of the Episcopal Clothing Bureau has had a successful year, with $7,777.04 taken in, and $611.36 from papers and magazines. Many hundreds of poor persons buy shoes, clothing and household goods at very low prices; 5 cents, for instance, for a shirt or underwear. These articles are the collections made by truck, given by individuals, and sent in from the sewing rooms. At $1.50 an hour, the drayage bill for the year was $2,714.10. Another large expense was the salaries for employees of the Clothing Bureau, $3,351.52 being paid them. The vegetable gardens, maintained by the Guild, and divided among thirty families, each working one plot, have been very fine, and of great help to these poor people. Cash donations during the year were $383.95.

The Hospital Chapter has been actively at work, members making frequent visits to the County Hospital, County Farm and other institutions, bringing sympathy and cheer as well as material supplies.

The surplus remaining from the running expenses of the work conducted by the Bishop's Guild has been given to Bishop Johnson, to assist in meeting the many demands of a charitable nature made upon him.

At the close of the year, the Social Service Commission sent a letter of commendation to the Guild, and the Publicity Department at headquarters, New York, has become interested in the work, as reported each month in The Churchman and Church Messenger, and asked for a brief account for republication in "Exchange of Methods."

Respectfully submitted,

ANNE J. ROWLAND, Corres. Secretary.

THE HOSPITAL CHAPTER OF THE BISHOP'S GUILD

This Chapter of "The Bishop's Guild" visits the following institutions: The County Hospital, seven wards twice weekly; the County Farm, where there are 900 persons; Olive View Sanitarium for tuberculosis. Many hundreds of patients are cared for by this Chapter of the Bishop's Guild. We provide delicacies for the patients at the County Farm, Hospital and Olive View Sanitarium. The destitute are given money and to those who are in need of clothing we provide what is needed. The Bishop's Guild gives fifteen dollars a month to the Chairman of the Hospital Chapter to be spent where needed. Other members of this Chapter spend several dollars weekly for relief work. The Chaplain of the County and City Episcopal Mission Society looks after their spiritual needs.

APPENDIX 18

REPORT OF THE REGISTRAR

The file of Diocesan Journals, and other records deposited with the Registrar, have been made complete. Three shipments of Prayer Books and Hymnals have been distributed as requested. Confirmation reports for the year show 72 classes with a total of 731, of which 263 were males, 468 females. We wish to acknowledge with appreciation a very large donation to the Diocesan Library of books from the Library of The Rev. Dr. Stilson. Among these were several very rare and valuable historical volumes. We now have under our care 1,370 volumes in the Diocesan Library; 3,187 Diocesan Journals in addition to the files of our own Diocese. These have all been listed, and packed for removal and storage until new quarters are available. Through the generous offer of the Rev. Robert Gooden, the Diocese is to be saved any large expense for the temporary care of the Library and Journals, as room is to be furnished for their storage at Harvard School.

ROBERT LLOYD WINDSOR, Registrar.

APPENDIX 19

REPORT OF THE CHURCH EXTENSION SOCIETY

In presenting the Annual Report of the Church Extension Society to Convention for the past year, it is worthy of note that a good illustration of the value of the Society to the Church of the Diocese has been shown in the case of the Church property at Colton.

Many years ago the Church's ownership of the property was endangered owing to a very large assessment for street improvement; and the Trustees, in whose name the property stood, appealed to the Society to accept title and assume the payments as they should fall due.

This the Society agreed to do and, up to the present, has paid more than $850.00 on that account.

Recently, a portion of the property—in no way affecting the land on which the church stands—has been leased to the Standard Oil Company for a term of years, at a fixed rental of $50 a month, virtually creating an endowment for the Mission to that extent, and enabling the Board of Missions to add an appropriation sufficient to pay the stipend of a settled Minister, and so putting the Church upon a sound basis in this quite large and growing town.

In other directions the Society has been using its funds, so far as they were in hand, to assist Missions and Parishes in establishing new work or in extending work already in existence.

The balance of a thousand dollars, now in hand, has been promised to the Bishop Coadjutor to assist a new Mission in the erection of a hall, which will provide for the beginning of what is destined to become a very important work in the City of Los Angeles.

The Society has also, as the distributor of the interest of the Keating Fund, been supplying the Mission Board of the Diocese with grants to the extent of $1,500.00 a year towards the support of work in San Diego and Imperial Counties.

The large balance on hand awaits the call of the Bishop for an additional Missionary for the great Imperial Valley, and for other anticipated new work in the two counties before named.

The full financial statements of both funds are included in the Treasurer's Report, which is appended.

All of which is respectfully submitted,

For the Directors,

JOHN D. H. BROWNE, President.

APPENDIX 21

REPORT OF COUNTY AND CITY MISSION SOCIETY

The results of our work during the past year have been very gratifying, though the laborers are still too few to enable us to reap the full harvest of opportunities for service in the name of Christ. This service of ministry to His needy children is without doubt the most important and the most Christian of all the Church's activities, and the standard by which we shall be judged in the great day of retribution (see St. Matthew 25). If we wish to be really Christian we must put first things first and not last. The Anglican Church seems to have a special genius for city mission work, the work which best justifies her existence as a separate branch of the Church Catholic.

The Church people in the public institutions come from many parishes and missions not only in this diocese but from all over the country. We are thus doing the work that the parish priests would have to do for their own people except for the fact that we are relieving them in part of this duty. This, however, cannot relieve them of the responsibility of making it possible, by providing financial means and workers, for us to fulfil this solemn trust. Therefore, we ask the co-operation of all our clergy and people.

We are working specifically in six institutions in Los Angeles county:

THE COUNTY HOSPITAL—1250 patients. Average of 40 church people at any one time. 25 visitors. Choral Eucharist every Tuesday at 10:15 a. m. Eight baptisms, one confirmation, 100 private communions, 18,000 visits, 30 follow-up visits in homes, much clothing, literature and other necessities supplied. Hundreds of letters written for the patients. Numerous cases investigated and helped in co-operation with the hospital Social Service Department. A large number prepared for death and given the last rites of the Church. One patient, given up by the doctors, restored to health by prayer and anointing. Musical programs provided. Many patients troubled in mind and spirit helped by mental and spiritual suggestion in realizing the infinite power of the divine life and love within them. So efficient has our work become that we have been asked to train workers for other religious bodies. The Social Service Department of the hospital has requested our co-operation, and we are everywhere welcomed by the officials.

THE COUNTY FARM—1,000 inmates. Ten visitors. Services second and fourth Sundays at 10:00 a. m. Ever-increasing congregation. Instruction and confirmation classes alternate Fridays at 2:30 p. m. Attendance at these instructions has grown to 100. Seven baptisms and confirmations during the year. One of those confirmed had not attended church for thirty years. Large quantities of clothing and good literature have been distributed at the Farm. The people are most grateful and enthusiastic and have developed a wonderful missionary spirit. Most of those baptized and confirmed were brought in by the inmates themselves in response to our "Nation-Wide Campaign," not for money, but for souls. One inmate insists on giving a tithe of everything she receives, surely a modern instance of the widow's mite.

LOS FELIZ HOSPITAL—From 20 to 40 patients. Choral Eucharist every third Sunday at 10:30 a. m. A number of girls have expressed a desire to lead a new life. We are planning to have religious pictures and singing one evening a month.

EASTSIDE JAIL—450 inmates. Service every Sunday at 1 p. m. by Mr. George Webb and Brotherhood men. Much definite work is done among the men and many cases are followed up, men secured work, provided with clothing, gotten into touch with their friends, and influenced to write home.

COUNTY JAIL—Occasional visits are made here by Mr. Webb and the Chaplain.

OLIVE VIEW SANATORIUM—95 patients (tubercular). Service every fourth Tuesday at 3 p. m. This work is growing rapidly.

McKINLEY HOME FOR BOYS—135 boys. When the home removes to Van Nuys there will be almost 500 boys in attendance. Service every Sunday evening at 6:30. We have in training a vested choir of 17 boys for the services. At Christmas they sang carols at the County Hospital and at the County Farm.

Developments During the Year

1. New work undertaken at Olive View Sanatorium and at the McKinley Home for Boys.

2. Workers' Conference established at the County Hospital on alternate Tuesdays.

3. Permanent Relief Committee appointed to co-ordinate the relief work of the Mission Society, the Bishop's Guild and the Girls' Friendly Society.

4. The purchase of a Ford car for the use of the Chaplain.

Our Most Pressing Needs

1. Mission Center for care of needy men and women, especially those leaving the institutions in need.

2. Full-time lay-worker for follow-up work in the homes. This would not only supply a much-needed form of service, but would also help to retain many people for the Church.

3. Generous contributions of clothes and money for relief work. This is an every-day-in-the-year work, and the demands are often very pathetic.

4. Prayer books and good literature, especially devotional and instruction books along religious and other serious lines.

5. Visitors for the County Hospital and other institutions, one or more afternoons a week.

6. Singers for the Tuesday morning service at the County Hospital.

Christmas Cheer

We provided this year for almost 1000 people. The response to our appeal brought in almost $1000, more than double last year. We are most grateful. Many new people and many additional organizations in our parishes have become interested. The spirit of service thus engendered helps the churches and organizations as much as it helps us, for it increases enthusiasm and makes religion real.

Our Plans for the Coming Year

We earnestly hope that our parishes and people will make possible the establishment of the Mission Center and the employment of a follow-up worker. These needs are most imperative. We are investigating the Soldiers' Home at Sawtelle and the Golden State Hospital, where there are many soldiers, as possible fields of work. It is also hoped soon to have an additional chaplain for the work in order to meet the growing needs and opportunities. God grant that our parishes and Church people may see the vision and make possible the realization of these modest plans. To our consecrated workers and the many who have helped so generously in the past we extend sincere thanks in the name of Him Whose work we are trying to do.

APPENDIX 23

REPORT OF THE AUDITING COMMITTEE

Your Auditing Committee respectfully reports:

That it has had the annual Audit made by Mr. John A. Simmers, Certified Public Accountant, of the books of the Corporation of the Diocese, and of the books of the Treasurer of the Diocese.

The Committee herewith submits the report of Mr. Simmers as to the accounts stated.

The Committee, jointly with Mr. Simmers, examined the securities of the Corporation.

The bond of the Treasurer, Mr. W. C. Mushet, is on file.

The Auditing Committee has examined the accounts for the past year of the Committee on Church Pension Fund, Mr. C. M. Gair, Treasurer, and approved the same. All money received has been duly remitted each month to the Church Pension Fund in New York.

Your Committee has also examined the accounts for the past year of the Diocesan Nation-Wide Campaign Committee, Mr. Wm. F. Knight, Treasurer. It finds all in good order, with receipts and disbursements duly accounted for, as set forth in the report of the Treasurer to this Convention.

HENRY E. BRETT, Chairman,
ROBERT H. LINDSAY,
C. J. WALKER.

To the Twenty-seventh Annual Convention of the Diocese of Los Angeles, Los Angeles, California.

Dear Sirs:

I have examined the books of the Corporation of the Diocese of Los Angeles for the period beginning January 17, 1921, and ending January 16, 1922, and beg to send you herewith the following Exhibits:

Exhibit 1—Balance Sheet as at January 16, 1922.

Exhibit 2—Income Statement, January 17, 1921, to January 16, 1922.

Exhibit 3—Statement of Receipts and Disbursements, January 17, 1921, to January 16, 1922.

Exhibit 4—Summary of Investments.

BALANCE SHEET

ASSETS

During the year, bonds of the book value of $6,950.00 were realized at a profit of $50.00, and bonds of the book value of $7,000.00 were purchased therewith. The securities of the Corporation were examined by me and found in order. A summary of the investments now held will be found in Exhibit 4.

LIABILITIES

During the year, the Episcopate Endowment Fund was increased by $243.47, consisting of:

The Annual Collection.....	$193.47
Profit on sale of Victory Loan Bonds.....	50.00
	$243.47

The Keating Fund was increased by $214.75, consisting of:

Cash from Keating Estate.....	$150.00
Interest on a Mortgage Note belong to the Keating Estate.....	64.75
	$214.75

The San Diego Convocation Trust Fund was increased by an allowance for interest on its bank balance amounting to 14 cents.

Diocese Fund.....	$ 22.94
The interest earned by the Diocesan Fund exclusive of the interest earned by the Keating Fund amounted to.....	$3,004.98
The amount actually transferred the Treasurer of the Diocese was.....	2,982.04
Leaving as above.....	$ 22.94

This interest is represented by interest prepaid on the purchase of Glendora Independent Water Co. bonds and will be recovered in March next at the interest period of those bonds and will be included in the interest payable to the Diocesan Fund in 1922.

INCOME STATEMENT

Exhibit 2 shows the income for 1921, and its disposition. There was no income overdue at January 16, 1922.

STATEMENT OF RECEIPTS AND DISBURSEMENTS

All moneys received were lodged in bank, and vouchers and cancelled checks were examined for all disbursements. I compared the transfer of funds to the books of the Treasurer of the Diocese and found the same accounted for.

Having fully audited the books, I now certify that the Balance Sheet herewith is in my opinion properly drawn up so as to show the true financial position of the Corporation at January 16, 1922, and that the Income Statement, the Statement of Receipts and Disbursements and the Summary of Investments are fairly and correctly stated.

Yours very truly,
JOHN A. SIMMERS.

I have examined the books and vouchers of the Treasurer of the Diocese for the period from January 17, 1921, to January 16, 1922, and have prepared therefrom the foregoing Statements. All funds received were properly vouched and have been paid into the Treasurer's Bank Account, and vouchers or cancelled checks have been produced in support of all disbursements. The amounts paid to the Treasurer of the Diocese by the Corporation of the Diocese as shown on their books agreed with the amounts shown on the books of the Treasurer of the Diocese. The balance in bank at January 16, 1922, reconciled with the statement of the First National Bank of Los Angeles, was $17,068.58, applicable as follows:

CLERICAL REPORTS

St. Mary's Chapel,
The Bishop's School for Girls,
La Jolla, California

*The Right Reverend Joseph H. Johnson, D. D.,
Bishop of Los Angeles.*

My Dear Bishop:

As Chaplain for the Bishop's School for Girls, I beg to report as follows for the Convention year 1921.

Evensong has been conducted daily (Saturdays excepted) during the School year.

The Holy Communion has been celebrated on the first and third Sundays of each month.

A special Morning Service is held on the first and last days of each term.

A Memorial Service was held for Miss Marguerite Barton on the day and hour of her funeral in Los Angeles.

A special service was held in connection with the formal introduction of Miss Caroline S. Cummins as Principal of the School.

Three of the pupils were baptized and seventeen confirmed.

An Altar Guild has been formed, with the usual officers, under the direction of the Chaplain, which receives instruction, and is doing satisfactory work in connection with the care of the Altar of the Chapel.

Very respectfully,

WM. BEDFORD JONES, Chaplain.

The Neighborhood Settlement,
Corner East Ninth and Wilson Streets,
Los Angeles, Cal.,
January 25, 1922.

*The Right Rev. Joseph H. Johnson, D.D.,
Bishop of Los Angeles.*

Dear Bishop:

At your appointment, now more than seventeen years ago, I became priest-in-charge of Christ Church, Redondo Beach, and Saint Cross' Church, Hermosa Beach. I tendered you my resignation of that cure in June last, as you know, and retired to the Church pension list. Sister Mary of the Neighborhood Settlement has given me shelter for a while in one of the cottages here, and the privilege of the daily use of the altar in our chapel and of ministering to the spiritual needs of the poor children of this poor section of Los Angeles—a privilege and an opportunity which I greatly appreciate.

Respectfully yours,

CHARLES H. DE GARMO.

Oceanside, California,
January 14, 1922.

The Right Rev. Joseph H. Johnson, D.D.
Bishop of Los Angeles.

My Dear Bishop:

I have to report as follows for the year 1921:

In St. Paul's Church, San Diego:

Celebrated Holy Communion, 4; Conducted Morning Prayer, 3;
Conducted Evening Prayer, 4; Assisted at Holy Communion, 6.

In Oceanside, through the courtesy of the Priest-in-Charge of Grace Mission, I officiated at one burial service and assisted in one other.

In Carlsbad baptized one infant.

Respectfully submitted,

ARTHUR C. DODD.

Alhambra, California, 414 North Monterey Street,
January 17, 1922.

Dear Bishop Johnson:

During the year 1921 I have celebrated the Holy Communion once, and assisted at the Holy Communion thirteen times at Holy Trinity, Alhambra.

Baptized five persons in Holy Trinity, Alhambra—recorded in Parish Register.

Preached once at the County Farm; and assisted at two burials; one at St. John's, Sawtelle; and one at All Saints', Pasadena.

Besides the above, I have been able to attend Morning Services and teach the Bible Class at Holy Trinity Church, and Church School every Sunday during the year; except two Sundays in April, when I was at the County Farm and at Sawtelle.

Sincerely yours,

ISAAC HOLGATE.

Los Angeles, California,
January 13, 1922.

The Right Rev. Joseph H. Johnson, D.D.
Bishop of Los Angeles.

2838 North Griffin Avenue,
Los Angeles, California,
January 30, 1922.

The Right Reverend Joseph H. Johnson, D.D.

Bishop of Los Angeles.

523 South Olive Street.

Los Angeles, California.

My Dear Bishop:

Durling the year, 1921, I have officiated by reading Morning and Evening Prayer, preaching, celebrating the Holy Eucharist, or assisting therein, on 22 Sundays at the Church of the Epiphany, Los Angeles; 13 Sundays at St. Stephen's Church, Hollywood; 1 Sunday at All Saints' Church, San Diego; and 6 Sundays at the Church of St. Augustine-by-the-Sea, Santa Monica. I baptized one infant. This baptism is included in the report from the Church of St. Augustine, Santa Monica.

Respectfully yours,

TIMON E. OWENS.

February, 1922.

To the Right Reverend Joseph H. Johnson, D.D.,

Bishop of the Diocese of Los Angeles.

I respectfully make the following report for the year of January 13, 1921, to 1922:

Number of services, 46; sermons preached, 47; celebrations, 20; number of baptisms, 3; number of marriages, 1.

I have officiated at Redondo, Ocean Park, Long Beach and San Pedro, and also at Carpinteria, during the year.

Respectfully,

LAWRENCE S. SHERMER.

Honolulu, T. H., 1625 Beretania Street,
January 12, 1922.

The Right Reverend Joseph H. Johnson, D.D.

Bishop of Los Angeles.

My Dear Bishop:

Since my resignation of the incumbency of St. James', San Diego, on January 1, 1921, I have officiated in the following churches:

St. Luke's, Long Beach; St. John's, San Bernardino; St. Luke's, San Francisco; The Advent, San Francisco; St. Mary-the-Virgin, San Francisco; St. Andrew's Cathedral, Honolulu; St. Clement's, Honolulu; The Epiphany, Honolulu, and St. Mary's, Honolulu.

I have frequently celebrated the Holy Eucharist. I have also baptized several children, and performed the ceremonies of marriage and burial.

Faithfully yours,

ERASMUS J. H. VANDEERLIN.

SUGGESTIONS AS TO GIFTS, BEQUESTS OR DEVISES TO DIOCESAN INSTITUTIONS AND CHARITABLE AND
RELIGIOUS PURPOSES UNDER THE AUSPICES OF THE CHURCH

The Diocesan Corporation, known in law as "The Protestant Episcopal Church in the Diocese of Los Angeles," is the Trustee under the Canons of all the permanent invested funds of the Diocese, that is:

The Episcopate Endowment Fund;

The Diocesan Missionary Endowment Fund.

The Diocesan Corporation is also the Trustee to which should be conveyed all property for the benefit and use of the organized Missions of the Diocese under the trusts provided in the Canons.

The Bishop of the Diocese is incorporated as a corporation sole under the name of "The Bishop of the Protestant Episcopal Church in Los Angeles, present incumbent, Joseph Horsfall Johnson," and is authorized to receive and administer the respective funds and property, for the use and benefit of the Church in the Diocese which may be intrusted to him, including all religious, benevolent or educational objects connected therewith. All gifts, bequests or devises for the establishment of the Cathedral, or of schools under the auspices of the Church, will be received and held by the Bishop, as corporation sole, until the incorporation of the several and appropriate corporations authorized to receive and administer the respective funds and property.

"The Hospital of the Good Samaritan" is the corporate title of the hospital organization, which is organized and conducted under the auspices of Church people, and is officially connected with the Diocese.

Free beds in perpetuity may be endowed in the hospital upon the payment of $10,000, or gifts, bequests or devises for the benefit of the hospital may be made to the Corporation.

"The Church Extension Society of the Diocese of Los Angeles."

The Bishop's School for Girls (upon Scripps foundation), La Jolla.

The Harvard School for Boys (upon Emery foundation), Los Angeles.

The Church Home for Children, Los Angeles.

The Neighborhood Settlement, Los Angeles.

The Church Home for the Aged, Los Angeles.

The County and City Missionary Society, Los Angeles.

The Seamen's Church Institute, San Pedro.

The Girls' Friendly Society, Los Angeles.

ORDER OF BUSINESS OF THE CONVENTION OF THE DIOCESE OF LOS ANGELES

(1) The Secretary, under the direction of the Chair, shall announce that he has received attendance slips from one-third of the Clergy entitled to seats and votes in the Convention; and if he shall have received less than one-third of such slips, then and in that case he shall call over the names of the Clergy entitled to seats and votes.

(2) The Secretary shall announce that he has received attendance slips from one-third of the Parishes and Missions entitled to representation, and, if he shall have received less than one-third of such attendance slips, he shall then call over the Parishes and Missions entitled to representation, and shall submit the certificates of the Lay-Delegates-elect from such Parishes and Missions to the Committee on Credentials; and all irregular and defective certificates, together with all certificates and documents relating to contested seats, shall be reported by name or title only, and laid aside until the appointed place in the Order of Business.

(3) A quorum being present, the presiding officer shall declare the Convention organized for business.

(4) In the case of a vacancy, the election of a presiding officer as provided by the Constitutions of this Diocese.

(5) The election of a Secretary and the appointment of an Assistant Secretary.

(6) The appointment by the presiding officer of the Regular Committees of the Convention not previously appointed under provisions of these Canons, and the announcement of the names of those comprising the Committees previously appointed, and the filling of any vacancies in such Committees from absence or other cause.

(7) Contested right, or claim to a seat in the case of a Clergy-man.

the Order of Business shall be:

- (1) The reading and approving of the minutes.
- (2) Reports not presented before.
- (3) Miscellaneous Business.

Before the rising of the Convention, the minutes of the last day's meeting shall be read and approved, and the presiding officer shall then bid the Convention to such closing devotions as he shall deem appropriate.

NOTE:—When it is desired that an evening meeting of the Convention shall be held, a resolution to that effect must be adopted before 5:00 o'clock in the afternoon of that day.

RULES OF ORDER OF THE CONVENTION OF THE DIOCESE OF LOS ANGELES

RULE 1

No motion shall be considered as before the Convention until seconded and stated to the Convention by the presiding officer. If not presented in writing, the President, or any member of the Convention, may require the motion to be reduced to writing before being presented to the Convention. After a motion is in possession of the Convention the mover cannot modify or withdraw it without the consent of the Convention.

MOTIONS

RULE 2

When a question is before the Convention, no motion shall be received but to lay it upon the table, to take a vote thereon at a certain time, to postpone to a certain time, to postpone indefinitely, to commit or to amend; which motions shall have precedence in the order named. The motion to take a vote at a certain time shall be decided without debate.

ORDER OF

RULE 3

When a motion is under consideration, a motion to amend, a motion to amend that amendment, and a motion for a substitute for both amendments shall be in order. These motions shall be considered and voted upon in the reverse order in which they are received.

AMEND-MENTS

RULE 4

The following motions shall not be debatable: to adjourn (which shall always be in order when no member is speaking), to lay on the table, to take from the table, to close debate, to extend the limits of debate, an objection to the consideration of a question, a call for the order of the day, to reconsider an undebatable question, to fix the time of adjournment, to postpone to a certain time, to permit the withdrawal of a motion, and to suspend the rules. If a motion to lay an amendment on the table be carried, the matter before the Convention shall be proceeded with as if no amendment had been offered.

NON-DEBATABLE
MOTIONS

RULE 5

If a question under consideration contains several distinct propositions, the same may be divided on the request of any member, subject to the decision of the presiding officer that the division proposed can be made. If objection is made to such division, a motion to divide may be put before the Convention. When a motion for a division is made, the mover must specify the manner in which he desires the question to be divided. A motion to strike out and insert shall be indivisible.

OF QUESTION

RULE 6

No member may speak more than once on the same question, nor longer than fifteen minutes. By consent of three-fourths of the members, the Convention may grant leave to a member to speak a second time on the same question, but no longer than ten minutes. A Chairman of a Committee, or the mover of a resolution, presenting a report, shall be permitted an opening and a closing speech on every question submitted for action, but not to exceed ten minutes for each speech, unless special leave be given by the Convention to extend the time.

SPEAKING

A member may speak for not longer than two minutes, when nominating a candidate for election to any office.

A member desiring to make a nomination shall rise and receive the recognition of the Chair before naming his candidate.

RULE 7

Every member present shall vote, whenever a question is put, unless excused by the Convention on account of his being personally interested in the result, or for other cause.

RULE 8

The vote shall be taken by ayes and noes, or by orders when called for by five members, and shall, in such case, be entered on the minutes.

RULE 9

In taking the vote by orders it shall be the right of any member of the delegation, who may dissent from the vote of the majority of the delegation, to have the fact of his dissent recorded in the minutes.

RULE 10

In all questions decided numerically, a motion to reconsider must be made by one member, and seconded by another, who voted in the majority. In all questions decided by a vote by orders, a motion to reconsider, if made by a Clergyman voting in the majority, must be seconded by a Lay-Delegate voting in the majority; and if made by a Lay-Delegate, it must be seconded by a Clergyman voting in the majority. A motion to reconsider must be made within twenty-four hours after the vote was taken. When a motion to reconsider a vote prevails, the question is again before the Convention as if no vote had been taken upon it. No question shall be reconsidered more than once.

RULE 11

All Special Committees shall be appointed by the President, unless otherwise ordered.

RULE 12

The reports of all Committees shall be in writing. If a report is received by the Convention when presented, it may at once be acted on, or laid on the table for future consideration. The reception of a report by the Convention does not adopt it or its recommendations. If it is desired that a report, or its recommendations, shall become the action of the Convention, a resolution or resolutions to that effect must accompany it. When the report of a Special Committee is acted upon by the Convention, the Committee ceases to exist.

RULE 13

When a member is called to order by the President, or by another member rising to a point of order, he shall immediately take his seat unless permitted to explain. All questions of order shall be determined by the President; but any member may appeal from the decision of the Chair, and on such appeal no member may speak more than once without leave of the Convention.

RULE 14

The prescribed Order of Business shall not be departed from, nor shall any Rule of Order be suspended or changed, unless by a vote of two-thirds of the members present. Nor shall any Rule of Order, or Order of Business, be changed without one day's previous notice to that effect, except by unanimous consent, provided that a motion to suspend the Rule of Order, in order to direct the Secretary to cast the ballot of the Convention, shall require the unanimous consent of the Convention.

RULE 15

The majority of a quorum shall always be required to elect an officer.

QUORUM TO ELECT

RULE 16

The President of the Convention may appoint a Standing Committee on Rules of Order. All proposed changes in the Rules of Order shall be referred to such Committee, if appointed, for consideration and report. When questions of order are raised, which are not provided for by these rules, the President, if he so desires, may refer such questions to the Committee on Rules for their opinion. "Robert's Rules of Order" shall be the parliamentary guide in all cases not provided for in the foregoing rules.

COMMITTEES ON RULES
ORDER OF

RULE 17

In all elections required to be made by concurrent votes of both orders, the ballots of the Clerical Order shall first be counted and the list of the person or persons elected by said order shall be declared; the ballots of the Lay Order shall next be counted and the list of the person or persons elected by said order shall be declared. Any person or persons whose name or names shall appear on both of the said lists of persons elected shall be declared elected by the Convention, and no person shall be declared elected by the Convention unless he shall have been so elected by the vote of each order considered separate and apart from the other order.

ELECTION B
CONCURREN VOTES

RULE 18

All resolutions carrying appropriations shall be presented during the first half hour of the afternoon session of the First Day.

APPROPRIA-TIONS

RULE 19

All printed reports shall be delivered to the Secretary for distribution at the opening of the afternoon session on the First Day, and five minutes only shall be allotted for hearing a summary of each printed report when called up. This provision is not to apply to the Report of the Committee on Canons, or the Report of the Finance Committee.

PRINTED
REPORTS DISTRIBUTE

RULE 20

Contemplated resolutions likely to involve debate shall be filed with the Committee on the Dispatch of Business before the opening of any session so that provision may be made in the Calendar for their consideration.

RESOLUTION TO BE FILED THIRD

CANONS AMENDED—CONVENTION, 1922

1. Sections 13 and 14, Article V, of the Constitutions, were amended by substituting the phrase, "Special Meeting of the Convention," for the phrase, "Special Convention." Sections 52 of Article XX; 1, 2 and 3 of Canon I; 9 of Canon III; 13 of Canon IV; 20 and 22 of Canon V; were amended in the same way.

2. At the end of Section 48, Canon VII, this clause was added, "Such an examination shall also be made of the books and accounts of the treasurer of the Diocese, the treasurer of the Board of Missions, the treasurer of the Executive Council, the treasurer of the Church Pension Fund Committee, and the treasurer of the Nation-Wide Campaign Committee. A certified public accountant shall be employed."

3. Canon XVII—"The Executive Council"—was continued for another year; when, after this further extended trial, it shall be submitted to the next Annual Convention for amendment or ratification.

4. Canon XXXI—"The Disabled Clergy Endowment Fund"—and Canon XXXII—"The Widows' and Orphans' Endowment Fund"—were repealed.

5. At the end of Section 129, Canon XVIII, the clause was inserted: "The Board may also appropriate funds for land or buildings needed for missionary development."

PROPOSED AMENDMENTS TO THE CANONS

1. Before the words, "of this Diocese," in the first sentence of Section 9, Canon III, add the words, "or any adjourned or special session thereof"; also, at the conclusion of the first sentence of Section 13, Canon IV, add the words: "Lay-Delegates shall serve until the next annual meeting of the Parish or Mission."

2. The "Proposed Plan for the Enlargement of the Corporation" was referred back to the Committee on Canons—to report to next Convention.

3. Amend Canon XI, Section 90, in the sixth line, by omitting the words, "males of." The line will then read, "Vestrymen, who shall be 21 years of age."

4. The Order of Business was referred to the Committee on Canons for revision; the "Woman's Auxiliary" to be included among the "Diocesan Institutions" to report to Convention.

In Memoriam

THOMAS J. OLIVER CURRAN

GEORGE ELEY

JOHN W. THURSBY

Priests

On Tuesday, July 19th, the Rev. Thomas J. Oliver Curran passed to his rest at San Pedro, after a brief illness.

Mr. Curran was a graduate of the Western Theological Seminary, and was ordained deacon in 1895 and priest in 1896 by Bishop McLaren. After a brief work at Streator, Ill., he assumed charge of St. George's Church, Chicago. From 1900 to 1908 he was rector of St. Andrew's Church, Wheeling, W. Va., removing thence to become rector of the Church of the Good Shepherd, Terrell, Texas.

Coming to this Diocese in 1914, Mr. Curran served for two years in Trinity Mission, Orange, until he was appointed to the rectorship of St. Peter's Church, San Pedro; where, after more than five years of faithful ministry, he finished his life work and was called to his Eternal Rest.

The Bishops of the Diocese, with a large number of the clergy and a great congregation, attended at the Burial Office in the Church.

The Rev. George Eley, one of the senior priests of the Diocese, died at his home in Glendale, on December 18th, after a lingering illness.

Mr. Eley was ordained by Bishop Johnson; deacon in 1897 and priest in the following year.

He served the Church faithfully at St. Paul's Mission, San Jacinto, from 1897-1900; at St. Mark's, Glendale, from 1901-1907; and at St. John the Baptist's Mission, Corona, from 1908 to 1911; and, in recent years, as his strength and opportunity permitted.

His ministry was characterized by deep earnestness, and the souls of those to whom he ministered were made distinctly richer by his zealous and faithful labors.

The Rev. John W. Thursby died at his home in Vancouver, B. C., on September 26th.

He had been for many years a non-parochial, non-resident priest of this Diocese; his earlier and more vigorous ministry having been passed in the Canadian Church in the Northwest.

Coming to this Diocese, some years ago, he was for a time in charge of the Church of the Ascension, Boyle Heights; but failing health made his retirement necessary, and he returned to the land in which he had labored faithfully in former years.

*"Grant them, O Lord, eternal rest,
And let light perpetual shine upon them."*

JOURNAL OF THE PROCEEDINGS OF THE CONVENTION

St. John's Church,
Los Angeles, January 24, 1923.

The Twenty-eighth Annual Convention of the Church in the Diocese of Los Angeles opened with the Celebration of the Holy Communion in St. John's Church, Los Angeles, at 10 a. m. on that day.

The Celebrant was the Bishop, the Right Rev. Joseph H. Johnson, D.D. He was assisted by the Rev. Dr. Dotten, as Epistoler, and the Rev. Dean Barnes as Gospeller, and in the administration of the Sacred Elements by Deans Evans, Weld and Kirchhoffer, and the Rev. Dr. Davidson.

The Right Rev. Mar Yawalaha, Bishop of the Assyrian Church, was present in the chancel, and later in the Convention occupied a chair beside the Bishops.

At the close of the service the Convention was called to order for business, the Right Reverend, the Bishop, taking the chair.

The Secretary announced that more than one-third of the Clergy had deposited attendance slips and more than one-third of the Parishes and Missions had signified that they were represented by the attendance slips of their Lay-Delegates.

A constitutional quorum of both orders being present, the Chairman declared the Convention ready for business.

On motion of Dean Evans, the Rev. Alfred Fletcher was nominated as Secretary.

There being no further nominations, on motion, the Assistant Secretary cast the ballot of the Convention and the Rev. Alfred Fletcher was declared elected.

The Secretary appointed the Rev. R. L. Windsor as Assistant Secretary.

The Bishop delivered his annual address (Appendix 1).

The Bishop Coadjutor then delivered his annual address to the Convention (Appendix 2).

On motion the reading of the regular and special committees was postponed.

On motion the Convention adjourned to meet at 2:30 o'clock.

On reassembling at the hour named, the Bishop in the chair, the Rev. P. H. Hickman moved a reference of that portion of the Bishop's address which related to Christ Church, Los Angeles, to the Committee on Canons—to report during this session. On motion, it was so referred—by "unanimous consent."

The following appropriations were presented and referred to the Finance Committee:

Registrar, office expenses.....	$ 50.00
Secretary, Printing Journal.....	600.00
Secretary, extra printing required by Convention.....	100.00
Secretary, office expenses.....	50.00
Master of Ceremonies, for Convention Service.....	50.00
Master of Ceremonies.....	10.00
Board of Examining Chaplains, Library.....	100.00
Historiographer, office expenses.....	10.00
Janitor.....	20.00

The Treasurer reported the list of delinquent Parishes and Missions: The Missions at Bostonia, Burbank, Carlsbad, East San Diego, Elsinore, and Oceanside, and the following Parish: St. Luke's, Monrovia.

The Treasurer stated that the arrearages in payment of assessments were considerably less than in any former year; the total sum amounting to about $157.

The Rev. Dr. Learned, on behalf of All Saints' Church, Pasadena, assumed full payment of all arrearages, and the Parish and Missions reported were recognized as eligible to representation in Convention.

The Rev. Dr. Dotten presented the report of the Committee on the Admission of Parishes and Missions into Union with the Convention:

Your Committee begs to report that it has received applications from All Saints' Mission, Brawley; St. Luke's Mission, Calexico; St. Mary's Mission, Culver City and Palms; St. Barnabas' Mission, Eagle Rock, and Ascension Mission, Tujunga.

All canonical requirements having been complied with in each case, your Committee offers a resolution that these Missions be admitted into union with the Convention.

M. C. DOTTEN,
C. E. C. HODGSON.

Adopted.

The Rev. W. N. Pierson offered the following resolution:

Resolved, That, whereas, the Parish of St. Augustine-by-the-Sea has exercised superintendence over St. Mary's Mission, Culver City and Palms, for the past three years, having expended several hundred dollars in gifts, time, service and money; and,

Whereas, said parish intends to continue such superintendence;

It is moved that the Executive Council be requested to allow the amount expended in the support of St. Mary's Mission, Culver City and Palms, as a part of its annual assessment.

Adopted.

Mr. A. R. Evans reported for the Committee on Credentials that forty-one Parishes and thirty-two Missions had sent certificates of Lay-Delegates, and that all such were entitled to representation—provided the Diocesan assessments had been paid. Received.

Seventy-three of the canonical clergy registered as present, and one hundred and fifty-eight Lay-Delegates registered as representing the thirty-eight Parishes and fourteen Missions sending delegates.

The Chair appointed as ushers: Mr. S. H. Jory, W. H. Collins, F. F. Durant and Mr. Schrier.

Mr. H. E. Brett moved that the following proposed amendment to the Canons be referred to the Committee on Canons—to report to this Convention:

Canon V, Section 29, change the word "twelve" to "eighteen," so that it shall read, "eighteen days before the meeting of the Annual Convention." On motion, it was so referred—by "unanimous consent."

The Rev. Dr. Learned suggested that a proposed amendment to Canon XXXVII, submitted to him with the concurrent approval of the Bishops, the Dean and the Vestry of St. Paul's Pro-Cathedral, be referred—by "unanimous consent"—to the Committee on Canons—to report to this Convention:

"The Bishop may, from time to time, and until a Diocesan Cathedral shall be established upon a proper and permanent foundation, and with the consent of the Rector, Wardens, and Vestrymen, and the Board of Trustees, select a Parish Church in the city of Los Angeles as the Bishop's Church, which may also be known as the Cathedral and Parish Church of (here insert the name of the Parish); and that 'Cathedral' be substituted for 'Pro-Cathedral' wherever the latter word occurs in this Canon."

On motion, it was so referred.

The Rev. Dr. Learned presented the report of the Committee on Canons:

Report of the Committee on Canons:

Presenting, first, the three matters referred to it by the unanimous consent of this Convention, to report at this session:

1. The Bishop stated in his address, "Article XIX of the Constitutions of the Diocese provides that 'when any Parish in union with the Convention shall neglect, for three successive years, to make a Parochial report to the same, no Missionary report being made in its behalf, or during a like period shall neither have employed a Clergyman as its Parish Minister, nor request of the Ecclesiastical Authority the services of a Missionary . . . such Parish may be suspended from representation in the Convention, or its connection with this Diocese may be wholly dissolved by a two-thirds vote of each order, Clerical and Lay.'

"The Secretary of the Diocese advises me that for four years Christ Church, Los Angeles, has made no report to Convention; and, so far as reports have come to the officials of the Diocese, for four years no place of worship has been maintained and no services have been held by the Parish.

"The time, therefore, according to the Canon, has arrived when the Church contemplates the discontinuance of the formal organization of the above Parish, and I therefore signify that fact—that this Convention may, as instructed by the above Article of the Constitutions, take such action as it may deem that the case may require."

Acting on the above information, and in accordance with Article XIX, Section 50, of the Constitutions, quoted by the Bishop, the Committee on Canons recommends the adoption by this Convention of the following resolution:

Resolved, That the Parish of Christ Church, Los Angeles, in accordance with the statement made by the Bishop in his Annual Address, be dissolved."

As the result of a vote taken by orders, the recommendation was carried unanimously, and the dissolution of the Parish was effected.

The Rev. Dr. Davidson inquired of the Chancellor what the legal status of Christ Church would be under the action just taken by the Convention.

The Chancellor replied with the following statement:

"Its connection with this Diocese is wholly dissolved. It has no further rights as a Parish. This also means that the former parish boundaries are vacant, so far as Christ Church is concerned.

"It purposes as expressed in its Articles of Incorporation having failed, there is nothing left except its 'legal shell,' so to speak.

"It is therefore practically defunct, but not legally dissolved until the Court has dissolved it by an order.

"This last matter, however, is now a question entirely between the Trustees and the State."

2. The proposed amendment, offered by Mr. H. E. Brett:

In Canon V, Section 29, "Change the word 'twelve' to 'eighteen,' so that it shall read, 'He shall close his several accounts eighteen days before the meeting of the Annual Convention.'"

The Committee recommends the adoption of this amendment.

Adopted.

3. The proposed amendment to Canon XXXVII, relative to the substitution of "Cathedral" for the word "Pro-Cathedral," wherever the latter occurs in the Canon:

The Committee recommends its adoption.

Adopted.

4. Amendments proposed by the Rev. P. H. Hickman:

After the words, "of this Diocese," in the first sentence of Section 9, Canon III, add the words, "or any adjourned or special session thereof"; also, at the conclusion of the first sentence of Section 13, Canon IV, add the words, "Lay-Delegates shall serve until the next annual meeting of the Parish or Mission."

The Committee recommends the adoption of these amendments.

Adopted.

5. "The Proposed Plan for the Enlargement of the Corporation" was referred to the Committee.

The Committee on Canons recommends that it be referred for further consideration to the original Committee in Re Property Holding.

Adopted.

6. Proposed by Mr. H. E. Brett:

Amend Canon XI, Section 90, in the sixth line, by omitting the words, "males of." The line will then read, "Vestrymen, who shall be twenty-one years of age."

The Committee recommends the adoption of this proposed amendment; for the reason that, while it was unanimous in its disapproval of withdrawing the limitation—on the ground of questionable advantage to the Church—it did not feel justified in recommending the withholding of that privilege from any Parish that might desire to exercise it.

The Rev. P. H. Hickman called for a vote by orders. Result: Clergy—Ayes, 29; noes, 25. Lay—Ayes, 15; noes, 24. Lost by non-concurrence in Lay order.

7. On motion of the Rev. Dr. Learned, the Order of Business was referred to the Committee for revision; the "Woman's Auxiliary" to be included among the "Diocesan Institutions to report to Convention."

The Committee recommends that the changes adopted in the procedure of last Convention be adopted, together with such minor changes as are suggested by the Assistant Secretary in the Order of Business which is printed and submitted with this report.

Adopted.

8. By action of the last Convention, the "Executive Council," Canon XVII, was continued for another year—to be submitted to the next Annual Convention for amendment or ratification.

The Committee recommends the adoption of this amendment to Canon XVII: After the words, "to be members of the Council," at the end of the second paragraph, add the words, "provided that, if any Board be already represented on the Council, the Bishop shall appoint a member at large."

Adopted.

9. The Committee recommends that Canon XVII, as amended, be ratified and adopted.

Adopted.

10. Proposed by the Rev. J. D. H. Browne: Amend Article VI, Section 21, by striking out the word, "male."

The Committee recommends that this proposed amendment be not adopted.

On motion, No. 10 was referred back to the Committee on Canons—to report to next Convention.

On motion of the Rev. Dr. Learned, the report of the Committee on Canons, as amended, was adopted as a whole.

DIRECTORS OF THE CORPORATION

The Right Rev. J. H. Johnson, D.D.; the Right Rev. W. Bertrand Stevens, D.D.; Mr. J. E. Jardine, A. W. Morgan, H. Ivor Thomas, W. C. Mushet, Merton A. Albee.

The Bishop nominated the Rev. R. B. Gooden, D.D., to serve on the Board of Examining Chaplains for a term of four years. On motion the appointment was confirmed.

The Rev. Dr. Gooden presented the report of the Standing Committee. Received. (Appendix 3.)

The report of the Executive Council was presented by the Rev. E. S. Lane, Secretary. Received. (Appendix 4.)

Additional reports were given by Mr. W. C. Mushet, Treasurer of the Council, and by the Rev. Dr. Learned, Chairman of the Finance Committee.

From a comparative review of the several financial reports—substantiated by the Treasurer of the Diocese—the report of the Executive Council, the report of the Nation-Wide Campaign, and the report of the Diocesan Treasurer; the sums expended for all Missionary purposes during the year amounted to more than $113,000; while, in addition to that, the sums expended for parochial purposes by the Parishes and Missions amounted to more than $200,000—as ascertained from the Parochial Reports.

The report of the Board of Missions was presented by the Rev. P. A. Easley, Secretary of the Board. The Board recommended that the amount of the Missionary assessment for the current year be $116,500.

On motion the report was received and the recommendation adopted. (Appendix 5.)

The reports of the Deans of Convocations were, on motion, deferred until tomorrow.

The report of the Board of Christian Education was presented by the Rev. C. B. Seovil, Executive Secretary. Received. (Appendix 6.)

The report of the Commission on Philanthropy and Social Service was presented by the Rev. C. R. Barnes. Received. (Appendix 7.)

The report of the Registrar was presented by the Rev. R. L. Windsor. Received. (Appendix 8.)

The report of the Historiographer was presented by the Rev. P. H. Hickman. Received. (Appendix 9.)

The report of the Board of Examining Chaplains was presented by the Rev. C. R. Barnes. Received. (Appendix 10.)

The report of the Committee on the Church Pension Fund was presented by Dean MacCormack. Received. (Appendix 11.)

The following resolution accompanying the report was, on motion, adopted:

Resolved, That power be given to the Church Pension Fund Committee, in conjunction with the Executive Council, to secure such funds as are needed to meet any emergency arising between January 25, 1923, and the meeting of the next Diocesan Convention.

On motion, Convention adjourned to meet at 9:30 a. m. tomorrow.

On Wednesday evening, a large company of the members of the Church and their friends, representing all parts of the Diocese, assembled at the Convention Dinner; it being an open meeting of the Diocesan Men's Club, given as a reception to Bishop and Mrs. Johnson and to the Bishop Coadjutor and Mrs. Stevens.

Mr. Merton A. Albee, President of the Club, deferred to Bishop Stevens, who, at his request, presided.

The Bishop Coadjutor, after speaking most felicitously of the great work which had been achieved by Bishop Johnson for the Church in the Diocese during the long period of his Episcopate—more than a quarter of a century—introduced Mayor Cryer; who, as the first citizen of Los Angeles, naturally spoke of the fine civic influence which Bishop Johnson had exercised over the community during this long term of years.

He was followed by the Rev. J. D. H. Browne, as Senior Priest of the Diocese; Dean Weld and Mr. F. C. Valentine, the Chancellor, each of whom—long resident—emphasized from different viewpoints the extraordinary development which had been effected under Bishop Johnson's direction; due largely, under God, to the Bishop's love of humanity, his love of his work, and to the reciprocal love which the Bishop had engendered in the hearts of all who knew him.

The Bishop, in responding—never so happy as when addressing a great gathering of people, representative of the Church in the Diocese—expressed the deep sense of joy he had always experienced in the exercise of his office, his gratitude to God in seeing the work of the Diocese grow and develop under their united efforts, and the comfort and support it had always been to him—to know and be assured—as he had so repeatedly received assurance—of the love and affection of the people with whom it had been his privilege and happiness to labor for so many years for the extension of Christ's Kingdom.

Thursday, January 25, 1923.

After Morning Prayer, Convention opened at 9:30 a. m.; Bishop Stevens in the chair.

The minutes of yesterday's proceedings were read and approved.

Dean Kirchhoffer presented his report as Dean of the Convocation of San Bernardino; Dean Weld, the report of Santa Barbara Convocation; and, later in the proceedings, Dean Evans presented the report of Los Angeles Convocation, and Dean Barnes that of the San Diego Convocation.

ELECTIONS

The Chair appointed Mr. H. Ivor Thomas as Judge of Elections; the Rev. P. A. Easley and Mr. S. J. Cornell as tellers for the Clerical vote; the Rev. R. A. Kirchhoffer and Mr. S. H. Jory as tellers for the Lay vote; as assistant tellers, the Rev. Mortimer Chester and Mr. M. H. Fitzsimmons, the Rev. Neal Dodd and Mr. C. D. Adams; and, subsequently, the Rev. W. N. Pierson.

On motion of the Rev. P. H. Hickman, the Secretary cast the ballot of the Convention for the four gentlemen nominated as Lay members of the Standing Committee; and Mr. C. D. Adams, H. E. Brett, Dr. J. E. Cowles and W. F. Knight were declared elected.

On motion of the Rev. P. H. Hickman, the Secretary cast the ballot of the Convention for the seven gentlemen nominated as Directors of the Corporation; and the Right Rev. J. H. Johnson, D.D.; the Right Rev. W. B. Stevens, D.D.; Mr. J. E. Jardine, A. W. Morgan, H. Ivor Thomas, W. C. Mushet and M. A. Albee were declared elected.

The first ballot for elections was taken.

The report of the Jerusalem and East Mission Fund was presented by the Rev. Dr. Dotten. Received.

The Bishop, in commending the high standard to which Dr. Dotten had raised the contributions to that important fund, reappointed him as Representative.

The Very Rev. Dr. MacCormack offered the following resolution:

Resolved, We, the members of the Twenty-eighth Annual Convention of the Protestant Episcopal Church in the Diocese of Los Angeles, affirm our conviction in the following propositions:

WE BELIEVE that nations no less than persons are subject to God's immutable moral laws.

WE BELIEVE that nations achieve lasting welfare, greatness, and honor only through just dealing and unselfish service.

WE BELIEVE that nations regarding themselves as Christian have special international obligations.

WE BELIEVE that Christian patriotism demands the practice of good will among nations.

WE BELIEVE in International Law, Courts of Justice and Boards of Arbitration.

WE BELIEVE in a world-wide organization of nations for world-wide peace.

WE BELIEVE in a warless world; and

WE DEDICATE OURSELVES TO ITS ACHIEVEMENT.

Resolved, That a copy of the above statement of belief be sent to the President of the United States, the Secretary of State, Senator Hiram Johnson, Senator Shortridge, and the Secretary of the Federal Council of Churches.

Adopted.

On motion of the Rev. R. L. Windsor, the Secretary cast the ballot of the Convention for the Rev. G. F. Weld as representative on the Provincial Board of Missions; for the Rev. C. R. Barnes, on the Provincial Board of Social Service; and for the Rev. C. B. Scovil, on the Provincial Board of Religious Education.

On motion of the Rev. Alfred Fletcher, the Secretary cast the ballot of the Convention for the Rev. R. L. Windsor as Registrar; for the Rev. P. H. Hickman as Historiographer; and for Mr. Chester T. Hoag as representative on the Board of the Hospital of the Good Samaritan.

The Committee appointed to nominate candidates for membership on the Board of Christian Education reported the following names: The Rev. S. R. Clark, P. K. Kemp, E. T. Lewis, C. T. Murphy; Mr. W. J. Curren, Randolph Miller, S. J. Cornell, Roland Diggle.

On motion, the Secretary cast the ballot of the Convention for these gentlemen and they were elected.

The Bishop appointed to serve on the Board of Christian Education: The Rev. R. B. Gooden, D.D.; F. U. Bugbee, Irving Spencer, E. S. Lane, William E. Patrick, Miss Mary Floyd, Mrs. Ethel M. Clisbe.

The Bishop Coadjutor vacating, the Bishop resumed the chair.

CHURCH INSTITUTIONS

Woman's Auxiliary: In the absence of Miss Magill, the President, Mrs. J. E. Cowles briefly reported satisfactory progress in the work of the Auxiliary.

Church Home for Children: Deaconess Wile gave an interesting report of the progress of the Home and spoke of the three "greater needs" for 1923, and the three "lesser needs." The three greater needs are: An Endowment Fund, Completion of the Administration Building, and a Permanent Infirmary. The three lesser needs are: A moving-picture machine, a radio set, and the improving of the grounds. Received. (Appendix 12.)

Hospital of the Good Samaritan: The Rev. T. C. Marshall, Secretary, presented the report. Received. (Appendix 13.)

Church Home for the Aged: The report was presented by Mrs. W. A. Holt—total receipts, $46,640.97; total disbursements, $44,338.80; cash balance, $2,302.17. Received. (Appendix 14.)

Harvard School: The Rev. Dr. Gooden presented the report: This is the twenty-third year of the School's existence, the twelfth year since the Bishop took it over and incorporated it as a Church institution. It had, then, 106 boys in attendance, 6 buildings, 12 graduates in the class of 1912. It has now 294 boys, 11 buildings, 53 graduates in the class of last year. It has 40 graduates this year; and owns 11 acres in the heart of one of the best residential districts in the city. Received. (Appendix 15.)

The Bishop's School for Girls: In the absence of a formal report, the Bishop spoke of the School as being in a splendid condition, with a fine quality of work. He commended Miss Cummins as a most capable headmistress, who has carried the School to a high degree of efficiency. Its record is very high at colleges and universities; the recognized aim being scholarship and character.

Seamen's Church Institute: The Rev. A. G. H. Bode, Chairman of the Commission on Seamen's Work, referred the report to the Rev. H. H. Kelley, Superintendent. The Rev. Mr. Kelley stated that, during the eleven months since the Institute was opened, there had been 10,982 seamen in attendance; letters received for seamen, 1,855; letters written by seamen, 1,697; money deposited by seamen for safe-keeping, $2,322. The Rev. Charles P. Deems, General Superintendent of the National Seamen's Church Institute, was accorded the privilege of the floor, and gave a spirited address on behalf of seamen associated with the Pacific Coast, including Honolulu and Manila.

Neighborhood Settlement: Report presented by Deaconess Mary, and read, in part, by the Assistant Secretary. Received. (Appendix 16.)

The Bishop's Guild: Report submitted by Miss Anne J. Rowland, Secretary; synopsis by the Assistant Secretary. Received. (Appendix 17.)

Girls' Friendly Society: The report was presented by Mrs. W. B. Stevens, Diocesan President. Among the outstanding features are: A notable increase in the number of candidates, from 62, last year, to 156; an increase of members from 61 to 91; a gratifying development in the G. F. Girl Scouts, of which there are 99 in the Diocese—the total membership of G. F. Girl Scouts being 369. The most interesting advance is the prospective foundation of a G. F. Lodge, which, when completed, will accommodate 50 girls and be self-supporting. All that is needed is the $10,000 or $15,000 with which to start. Received. (Appendix 18.)

County and City Mission Society: Report presented by the Chaplain, the Rev. V. D. Ruggles. Received. (Appendix 19.)

The splendid work of this Society justifies careful reading; as is the case with all the reports.

The Judge of Elections reported the result of the first ballot. (Given later in tabulated form.)

On the second ballot being taken, Convention adjourned for noon recess, to meet at 2:15 p. m.

On reassembling at the hour named, the Judge of Elections reported the result of the second ballot; and, from time to time, that of the succeeding ballots.

STANDING COMMITTEE

The lay members having been already elected, the following clerical members were elected by concurrent vote: The Rev. R. B. Gooden, D.D.; Rev. J. A. Evans; Rev. L. E. Learned, D.D.; Rev. M. C. Dotten, Ph.D.

The Rev. George F. Weld reported on behalf of the Special Committee appointed to deal with the matter of preventing alienation of Church property, and recommended the adoption of the following resolution:

Resolved, That this Convention requests the Bishop of the Diocese to take such action as may be necessary to have a bill presented to the State Legislature now in session; which bill shall have as its object the amendment of Section 598 of the Civil Code of California, so that the said section shall read as follows:

Amend Section 598 of the Civil Code of California by adding thereto the following:

“And provided further that, where the property sought to be sold, mortgaged, aliened, encumbered or granted belongs to a Corporation incorporated under this Title for religious purposes, then upon the application of such Corporation to this Court for leave to sell, or to mortgage, or to alien, or to encumber, or to grant any of its property, it must also be made to appear to the Court that the selling, mortgaging, aliening, encumbering, or granting of such property has been consented to in writing by the Bishop, or other ecclesiastical authority of the Church, or religious denomination, sect, religious community, or organization, under which, or to carry out the purposes of which, such corporation applicant was incorporated.”
Adopted.

The Bishop reappointed Mr. F. C. Valentine as Chancellor of the Diocese; and, in doing so, emphasized the great value to the Diocese of the faithful service he had rendered to the Church during these many years—in addition to the personal obligation the Bishop, himself, was under to the Chancellor for his valuable legal advice.

Mr. W. C. Mushet presented the report of the Finance Committee, with the recommendation that the Diocesan Assessment be set, this year, for the sum of $9,000; the Diocesan Missionary Assessment at $20,000. This would make the amount to be the same as last year for both assessments—$29,000; the only difference being in the allotments. Whereas the Diocesan Assessment, last year, was $12,500, and the Diocesan Missionary Assessment $16,500—the Finance Committee recommended that the allotments, this year, should be $9,000 for the Diocesan Assessment and $20,000 for the Diocesan Missionary Assessment.

Rev. Dr. Learned, on behalf of the Board of Missions, accepted the recommendation; and moved the reconsideration of yesterday's action regarding the amount of the Diocesan Missionary Assessment. Adopted.

He then moved that the Diocesan Missionary Assessment for the current year be set at $20,000. Adopted.

The report of the Finance Committee was then, on motion, received and the recommendation, adopted. (Appendix 20.)

The report of the Nation-Wide Campaign was presented by the Secretary, the Rev. F. U. Bugbee. Received. (Appendix 21.)

Out of 91 Parishes and Missions written to, 55 reported; 36 sent no report. The total quotas of those reporting amount to $97,572. The amount pledged from these 55 Parishes and Missions is $75,356; representing 77 per cent. of their quotas, and 59 per cent. of the total Diocesan quota—$126,000. If the 36 non-reporting Parishes and Missions had reported pledges in like proportion, the Diocesan quota would have been almost reached—lacking little more than $1,000.

The report of the Treasurer of the Nation-Wide Campaign was presented by Mr. W. F. Knight. Received. (Appendix 22.)

The report of the Treasurer of the Diocese was presented by Mr. W. C. Mushet. Received. (Appendix 23.)

The report of the Directors of the Corporation was presented by Mr. M. A. Albee. Received. (Appendix 24.)

The report of the Church Extension Society was presented by the Rev. J. D. H. Browne. Received. (Appendix 25.)

The Rev. Mr. Browne moved that the following gentlemen be appointed the Directors of the Society for the ensuing year: The Bishop, the Very Rev. Dr. MacCormack, the Rev. J. D. H. Browne, Dr. Dotten, Alfred Fletcher, Mr. H. E. Brett, L. S. Porter, C. M. Gair, M. A. Albee. Adopted.

The Rev. R. L. Windsor offered the following:

Resolved, That a Special Committee be appointed by the Chair to consider and report on the advisability of placing Wednesday evening on the calendar as a regular session of Convention and of recommending an Order of Business for such session. Adopted.

The Bishop appointed the Committee on Canons as such committee.

The report of the Auditing Committee was presented by Mr. H. E. Brett. Received. (Appendix 26.)

The Rev. Dr. Davidson moved that the following proposed amendment be referred to the Committee on Canons, to report to next Convention:

Amend Canon XXXIX by the addition at the end—of Section (h):
“(h) At least ten days before the convening of the Annual Convention, the Secretary shall mail to every Clergyman one copy and to the Clerk of every Parish and Mission six copies of any proposed amendments to the Constitutions and Canons as may have been committed to any special committees or referred to the Committee on Canons by the preceding Convention, together with such other proposed amendments as may have been received by the Secretary during the year.”

In this connection, the Rev. P. H. Hickman moved an amendment that Section (b) of Canon XXXIX be amended by changing the word “twenty” in the last line but one to “thirty.”

The amendment was accepted and the motion of reference adopted.

The regular and special committees appointed by the Bishop were read by the Assistant Secretary. (Pages 6-7.)

The Secretary moved that, in addition to the reading in Convention of the names of the members of committees, the publication of such names in the Journal—which is distributed to all delegates to Convention, clerical and lay—be considered sufficient intimation of membership—except in the case of such members of committees as may be appointed ad interim. (Canon V, Section 21.) Adopted.

The report of the Committee on the State of the Church was presented by the Rev. Dr. Deuel:

Your committee find that the data presumably contemplated for this report is, so far as new missions, institutions and advanced work of the Church are concerned, detailed in the various reports made to this Convention; such data as baptisms, confirmations, communicants for the year just passed are not available at this time. Consequently this report can be only very general in its application.

It is highly gratifying to know that the actual and progressive growth of Church interests as shown by these reports is keeping pace with the rapid increase of population and enterprise in most of the communities of the Diocese.

We can but highly commend the effective efforts of the various commissions and committees in developing along most approved and modern lines—the Social Service and Christian Education projects and the missionary spirit which in both large and small communities are making themselves felt, and more than ever before are taking into account our responsibilities for those spheres within our Lord's Kingdom outside of the old-time parochialism.

The reflex of this spirit is already proving the claim that the local parishes and missions will prosper according to the largeness of the vision which is entertained for the whole united work.

Respectfully submitted,

CHAS E. DEUEL, Chairman.
JOHN R. ATWILL.

The Rev. P. A. Easley offered the following resolution:

Whereas, a Committee has been appointed by representatives of many responsible organizations of Los Angeles, for the purpose of communicating to the publishers of the Los Angeles newspapers the wishes of thousands of citizens—constituting the membership of these organizations—to the end that crime and scandal news be not featured in the news columns; and,

Whereas, The Committee has asked for the endorsement of its endeavors by this Convention, too late for a proper consideration of so important a subject; be it

Resolved, That the matter be referred to the Social Service Commission for investigation and possible action.

The resolution was adopted, and the matter so referred.

The Rev. P. H. Hickman moved as follows:

Resolved, That the Committee on Canons be requested to consider the propriety of a change in the date of the assembling of Convention from January to May. Lost.

The Rev. J. D. H. Browne moved that a cordial vote of thanks be extended to the Rector, the Vestry, and the Woman's Guild of St. John's Church for their generous hospitality accorded to the Convention, and for the use of their Church and buildings. Adopted.

The Rev. Alfred Fletcher moved a resolution expressing the sorrow of the members of Convention and their great sense of loss in the removal, by death, of three of the clergy of the Diocese: The Rev. W. G. W. Smith, a retired priest of the Diocese; the Rev. Charles H. de Garmo, for many years a saintly priest of the Diocese, greatly beloved; and the Rev. Harwood Huntington, Ph.D., of national repute for his high character and literary attainments; and that a memorial page be dedicated to their memory in the Journal. Adopted.

The Rev. R. L. Windsor moved an expression of sorrow, on the part of the Convention, for the death of Mr. William Norman Campbell—for many years a valued Lay-Delegate of this Convention—who died in Hongkong just before the opening of Convention; and that the Secretary be requested to write a letter to Mrs. Campbell expressing our deep sense of loss to the Church, and the sincere sympathy of the members of the Convention with her in her unexpected bereavement. Adopted.

The Rev. Dr. Davidson offered the use of St. John's Church and buildings to the Convention for its annual session next year.

The Very Rev. Dr. MacCormack offered the buildings of St. Paul's Cathedral—stating that he expected the construction of the buildings to be sufficiently advanced at that time to accommodate the Convention.

On motion of the Rev. P. H. Hickman, the place of assemblage was referred to the Bishop.

The Rev. C. L. Barnes called the attention of the Convention to the necessity of investigating the renewal, on the part of Parishes and other Church corporations, of their charters of incorporation.

The Rev. J. D. H. Browne moved that the matter of the continuity of the corporate life of Church corporations be referred to the Bishop and the Chancellor. Adopted.

The Rev. R. L. Windsor moved that the reading of this day's minutes be dispensed with, and that they be certified by the Chair. Adopted.

On motion, Convention adjourned—subject to the call of the Bishop—the Bishop pronouncing the blessing.

JOSEPH H. JOHNSON,
President of the Convention.

Attest:

ALFRED FLETCHER, Secretary.

APPENDIX 1

THE BISHOP'S ADDRESS

1923

Dear Brethren of the Clergy and Laity:

Before making my Annual Address, permit me to remind you of the loss which this Church-at-large, and this Diocese in particular, have sustained through death.

On April 23rd of this last year, the Right Reverend Troy Beatty, D.D., Bishop Coadjutor of the Diocese of Tennessee, died at his home city, Nashville, Tennessee. Bishop Beatty had been consecrated but very recently. However, that already he had done a good work, and had endeared himself to his people, has been strongly affirmed by Bishop Gailor, his Diocesan. He had won for himself an exceedingly good report throughout his clerical life as a priest, and his death was deeply deplored by the people whose respect and affection he had secured.

The Right Reverend Cortland Whitehead, D.D., LL.D., who for forty years had been the second Bishop of Pittsburgh, died in the service of his Diocese, September, 1922. Bishop Whitehead had been my personal friend long before I came to live in California. He was endowed with rare charm of manner and had won great respect as a priest before his consecration as a Bishop. He was indeed a beloved and an important member of the House of Bishops. Especially was this so during his chairmanship of the Commission on the Revision of the Prayer Book, which he held from the day of his appointment. The loss to the great body of clergy who had worked with him for so many years will indeed be a serious one for them to bear.

When we come to this Diocese, we must have in mind the recent passing of two men who had meant much in every way to our Diocesan life. The Reverend Charles H. de Garmo was a man of exceptionally high character. As a parish priest he was all that his people could desire. His exquisite temperament gave a color to his parish life that was universally admired. He was devout in the truest and most real sense. Every morning he stood at his altar, and every hour of every day he was ready to give counsel and direction to those who needed it. His sacrifices for his Master and his Church were many and great, for his large heart was filled with love to his Master and as well for the Church which He had founded upon the earth. The Reverend Harwood Huntington, Ph.D., during the few years of his residence in California, had made a very marked place for himself in the Church's life of the entire Diocese. I have never known a man to be more eager to spend himself unreservedly in causes of a high and noble character than he. He was willing almost beyond belief to give of his substance, his intellect and his physical strength that he might advance the interests of the parishes which he was called to serve. I might well speak of him, did I have the time, as a man of fine cultural attainments, but, apart from spiritual and literary work, his great service to the Church was his colossal effort to place the story of the Biblical narrative before the public in such a form that its purpose could be grasped by men of every sort and condition. Money, time and thought were so contributed by him to the accomplishment of this scheme that, even though all of his ideals may never be realized, at least some conception of the earlier chapters of the Sacred Scriptures will always be an open book for the generations yet to come.

In addition to those already mentioned, on the fourth day of September of this last year, the Rev. W. G. W. Smith died at his home in Pasadena. I have known few men in the Ministry who were better equipped for their work than he. Gifted in a very rare way intellectually, he had profited by the unusual opportunities for culture of his early years, so that, until forced by a severe physical disaster to retire from the service, he had done very remarkable work for a long time after his ordination to the priesthood. His life, however, had been such a consecrated one that even his residence in the communities where he had been brought a new blessing to his host of friends.

Of all these splendid servants of God may we say, "Grant to them, O Lord, eternal rest and let light perpetual shine upon them."

Of course, the great ecclesiastical event of the year that has passed has been the meeting of the General Convention at Portland, Oregon. Many of us, before September, had serious misgiving as to its success. The labor agitation, which for a time seemed likely to paralyze the entire railway system of the country, was upon us. Then, too, many of us thought that the great distance from the Atlantic to the Pacific would be a matter of sufficient importance to deter many of our provincial Eastern friends from taking the journey across the continent. When, in addition to these real or fancied obstacles to a great national gathering, we contemplated the perplexities of the financial world which we knew to be very keen, the future seemed clouded with possibilities which were likely to spell disaster to the Convention. On the other hand, in spite of all this, the Portland Convention stands out in my mind as one of the most interesting and stimulating meetings of the General Convention I have ever attended. The very difficulties with which we had been confronted seemed to have shaken out from the delegations that came to us from over the Rocky Mountains all of their hesitancy and temerity. The delegates who had braved the trip were vigorous, strong men who were willing to face the problems presented to us upon the Convention floor, and, when we left for home, I think that generally we brought back with us a large faith in the Church as a vital institution and a large hope for its success in the years that lie before us.

I do not propose to review the action of the Convention. Such as it was you, in a general way, are familiar with. You, in a vague way, through the secular press and the Church papers, know what the Convention did and what it did not do, but, as a fact, that is all that, at the present moment, any one of us can say, and I mention it in as emphatic a fashion as I can for a definite purpose. After these many years of uncertainty as to what ultimately the Prayer Book is likely to become to be as a manual of the devotions of our corporate life, we have reached a time when it seems to me that our service book is treated with scant reverence, and the decorous uniformity of our Church's worship, upon which we have ever prided ourselves, has been largely lost. I am quite aware of the fact, and I am willing to admit it, that in former days our methods were too rigid and, as a consequence, that the Church suffered serious loss in its appeals to great masses of men. Our services were often unyielding to the natural demands of men who in a missionary country had been strangers to her system; but, in these days, the Church has become so plastic that a Churchman is never quite sure of the character which will be given to the services when he enters the Church building. The situation arouses protests and, not infrequently, am I asked to allude to it on occasions like the present one. Therefore, I have carefully considered this whole subject and, after correspondence with the Presiding Bishop, who assents to my judgment about this question, I state my judgment to be as follows: The Church, to stabilize her worship, provides a series of offices for Prayers and Praise. These are in eminent domain for the clergy at all times and in all places. Should at any time relief from the normally fixed rules be needed, the relief is to be found, as provided in Canon law, in the prescription of the Bishop—as the final and ultimate authority so far as the Diocese is concerned. At this present juncture, possibly, the use of services, proposed and presumably adopted by the General Convention, might be authorized by the Bishop; but, even so, to use the Presiding Bishop's words, even so, the wiser course lies in a delayed authorization awaiting the arrival of the official publication which, later on, will come to us in definite form under the seal of the Commission or of the Bishop and the Presiding Council of the Church. I am sure that my judgment will commend itself to the thoughtful men who hear it.

The Bishop Coadjutor will address you upon the subjects related to what I have grown to regard as the pastoral work of the Episcopate.

I shall for a few moments speak to you of the special work which I have reserved as my own charge.

During the autumn and the early winter months I have been speaking to the Church people of the Diocese concerning the institutions which, under the fostering care of the Church, have come into being here in Southern California. At this time, I shall not recall the claims of the Hospital of the Good Samaritan, the Harvard School for Boys, or the Bishop's School for Girls for your support. Indeed, I do not need even to enforce the importance of the Church Home for Children as a useful institution. That fact for years has been admitted. The Home is literally a home; the center of activities that make for fine, strong, vigorous childhood. So obvious is this that one hears of the Home's efficiency everywhere. The beneficiaries speak well of it and its benefactors seem to rejoice in their opportunity to help as a great and rare privilege. It is such an accessible institution that I wish that Church people generally would visit it and visit it frequently.

There are three institutions to which I wish especially to draw your attention:

First, the Neighborhood Settlement. That institution has had a notable career. It began in a very small way to minister to the few people within arm's reach of the home of the Rev. Mr. Marshall, who had taken up his residence in that sparsely-settled portion of the city. Now it is the center of a great work in the midst of a very mixed population—whose object and aim must be the Americanization of the heterogeneous people which surround it. It is recognized that this work is the work of the Church, and our Church is wonderfully equipped to do it. The Settlement has escaped from its mortgage indebtedness, but it needs at this juncture the sympathy, co-operation and support of a fresh lot of workers. It has been carried too long by a few; now we need volunteers to assist in the continuous upbuilding of one of the most interesting works with which I have ever been associated. Tell of this call to work to your young people, to your friends and neighbors, especially your fellow-churchmen. If you want a thrilling experience, take the Huntington Park car east on Seventh Street, and alight at the corner of Ninth and Mateo streets and walk a block west to the property at the corner of Ninth and Wilson streets. You will find clinics and sloyd school, playgrounds and library and a chapel that are actually turning immigrants into American citizens. (elementary manual training)

But another half-hour trip will bring you to the Home for the Aged at Alhambra. Should you feel, as so many of us do, the appealing pathos of helpless old age as the years come on, then those of us, for whom provision has been made, yearn to help those who unfortunately must have some share of our good things if they are to be spared the suffering with which, in the order of nature, they are confronted. Now, a Home for a very few of these, our older friends, has been provided within the suburb of the beautiful city of Alhambra. Gradually we have been able to build, and partially furnish, our new home. A bare house, however, is a forbidding affair; so attractive furnishing will be needed for many months to come. Our great need is for the augmentation of our sustentation fund. We need many gifts that will enable us to buy very common-place, but essentially important, food and other necessities. No gift, however small, will come amiss. I want to get that idea fixed in your mind. We have the house; we have a fair equipment. Did we have a large enough sustentation fund we could care for twenty-six men and women. As the situation stands, we can only care for ten such needy people, but the vacant rooms are there; the applicants are everywhere, but the food with which to feed them alone is lacking. Suppose that I were to ask each one of you here this morning to give the money for the food for one meal for one day of the year for one man or woman; or, better still, the money for the food for three meals for one day for such person or persons; or, better still, the money for a week or a month or a year. I wonder whether my request could be considered exorbitant. I put the appeal in this way that you may appreciate the need and the practical way in which you may help to meet it.

For many years we have had upon the list of our official committees a Commission upon Seaman's Work. Inasmuch as every man upon this Commission has had his hands full of parish duties, with which he was especially charged and for the performance of which he was paid to do, the Commission has been greatly handicapped. It, however, has never ceased to function. It has always been doing something to keep the Church aware of its obligation to those who have gone down to the sea in ships, and have been forced to return to the shore to abide with us for a while. Our Commission has steadily and with determination kept the Church's duty before it, and its persistence has finally been rewarded by the establishment of a Seamen's Institute at San Pedro, with which the seamen's friends of the Diocese have allied themselves. One of the first objects of interest to the Bishop Coadjutor when he came to us two years ago was this important work which, at that time, loomed as a possibility in the near future. Already, several years before his arrival in the Diocese, the Commission had acquired property so favorably situated that, merely as an investment, it will serve as collateral security should we plan for very large things in the future. Under the direction of the Seamen's Institute, a scheme providing dormitories, refreshment rooms with practical club equipment for the sailors of our merchant marine, is shaping itself and can surely be brought into being should it secure the Church's co-operation and support. Of this you will hear more later on. This scheme has had and will continue to have the sympathetic support of the Bishops of the Diocese. I make this pledge in view of what the Seamen's Institute has accomplished. A superintendent of exceptional spirit and ability and three lay workers are upon the ground. A sample equipment of what we are hoping in a large way to establish already offers and, for a year, has continuously offered comforts, privileges and protection to hundreds of seamen who have temporarily come to the land. These fine young men make this Institute a repository for baggage and a receiving point for mail. In the Institute diversion is offered and refreshment at moderate figures is provided, and, to crown it all, a wholesome Christian influence through services and personal contact pervades the home throughout all the days and weeks of the year. I cannot give statistics, but you will hear of them, and you will see that they are wonderful when the superintendent makes his report upon the floor of the Convention.

There is a fourth organization, not yet a full-grown institution, which gives promise of blossoming into maturity very shortly and which deserves mention at this time—the Girls' Friendly Lodge. The establishment of a lodge here in this city is now an assured fact. A large, commodious house has been purchased at the corner of Third and Witmer streets (Crown Hill), and the officers of the Society have been pledged a considerable sum toward its equipment. The Girls' Friendly Society has received a wonderful impetus during the last two years under the fostering encouragement of the wife of the Bishop Coadjutor. During that time it has enlisted the co-operation of sixteen Chapters and has added to its membership about three hundred individuals. Representatives of this, as of all the organizations of the Diocese, will be pleased to give information during Convention to those who may be interested.

Article XIX of the Constitutions of the Diocese provides that "whenever any Parish in union with the Convention shall neglect, for three successive years, to make a Parochial report to the same, no Missionary report being made in its behalf; or during a like period shall neither have employed a Clergyman as its Parish Minister, nor requested of the Ecclesiastical Authority the services of a Missionary . . . such Parish may be suspended from representation in the Convention, or its connection with this Diocese may be wholly dissolved by a two-thirds vote of each Order, Clerical and Lay."

The Secretary of the Diocese advises me that for four years Christ Church, Los Angeles, has made no report to Convention; and, so far as reports have come to the officials of the Diocese, for four years no place of worship has been maintained and no services have been held by the Parish. The time, therefore, according to the Canon, has arrived when the Church contemplates the discontinuance of the formal organization of the above Parish, and I hereby signify that fact, that this Convention may, as instructed by the above Article of the Constitutions, take such action as it may deem that the case may require.

Before closing, may I remind you that the Diocese may well rejoice that one of the best beloved officials of the Diocese, Miss Helen Magill, the President of the Woman's Auxiliary, has in a recent accident been saved from permanent disability. We have reason to believe that her convalescence will be so rapid as to enable her before long to take up her work so splendidly inaugurated and fostered through the last two years. This rare woman, we trust, before many weeks shall have passed, will be well on toward entire recovery, and with her recovery will come a brightness of vision of the work so near to her heart.

My dear brethren, I cannot close my address without a word of appreciation of the service rendered to the Church in Southern California, and to myself personally, by the Bishop Coadjutor of the Diocese. He has shown himself through these two years to be fertile in initiative, persistent in his work and consecrated to his Master's cause. As for his consideration for myself, I cannot say enough. If I were to undertake to tell the whole story I might be tempted to say more than I ought. Should I say less than that, that would be sadly inadequate. May I, however, say that he is my beloved Son in the Faith and that he has my confidence and my affectionate esteem, and my prayer is that God's blessing may rest upon him throughout the coming years.

APPENDIX 2

THE BISHOP COADJUTOR'S ADDRESS

1923

Seventy-five years ago a great Bishop, known on both sides of the Atlantic for his piety and the richness of his labors, in a field of great opportunity in the Middle West, wrote this to a friend: "How we need, how the Church needs, in these days the outpouring of the Spirit, to revive the zeal, the love and faith, and the whole-heartedness of the Apostles' days! How we need to be broken down that we may be raised anew; to have our traditionary sort of religion, which at the best owes so much of its shape to the ages it has passed through, taken to pieces and reconstructed on the simple model of the Scriptures! Can we expect anything like the great victories of the Gospel which are promised, while the piety of the Church is, in many respects, what it is? Must there not, will there not, be a Pentecost upon those who are now in Christ Jesus, to make them as different from what they now are—as the Apostles were made by the Spirit from what they had been before? Oh, valley of bones that we are! Who will prophesy for us to the wind, that it may blow upon us? Come, blessed Spirit, and shed abroad the love of God in our hearts."

That Bishop was confronting problems and opportunities not unlike those which confront us. He was oppressed by a consciousness of spiritual inertia and lack of power in himself and in his fellow-laborers. It was a solemn trust with which he was charged, the responsibility of developing the Church's work in the territory over which he presided. Progress seemed too slow in view of the promises of God.

The whole question of human progress is much to the fore in these days. Is there such a thing or is it true, as Goethe said, that "Man-kind is always advancing, but man" always remains the same"? There are many who hold the latter view. Progress, they say, is only by accumulation and not by inward transformation. There is an appearance of progress, but it is only apparent. Men seem to be wiser and better than their ancestors because they have a store of accumulated knowledge and experience to profit by, but actually man himself remains the same. It is needless to say that such a view is diametrically opposite to everything that Christianity teaches—a divine purpose for humanity, a providential guidance of the life of man, moral growth and, above all else, the work of the Holy Spirit—the continuation of the redemptive process inaugurated by the Incarnation of Christ, the initiation of humanity into the higher spiritual life, for which the whole previous history of the race was a preparation and education. Nevertheless, there is always the possibility of thwarting and delaying God's program; there is always the possibility of quenching the Spirit by our sinfulness and wilfulness; there is always the possibility of overdependence on human agencies and programs.

The Dean of St. Paul's, London, states the situation clearly and truly: "I believe that God has a purpose and idea of the life of humanity as a whole—a scheme of discipline and of gradual progress towards relative perfection which He has designed to be worked out in human history. . . . As individuals may grieve and quench and even blaspheme against the Spirit, so humanity might fall short of the grace of God and disappoint its Creator. But it seems to me a matter of reasonable faith to believe that the great design will as a whole be realized." Says an American devotional writer: "Because men believe in God, they believe that He has great purposes for humankind. The course of human history is like a river; sometimes it flows so slowly that one would hardly know it moved at all; sometimes bends come in its channel so that one can hardly see in what direction it intends to go; sometimes there are back-eddies so that it seems to be retreating on itself. If a man has no spiritual interpretation of life, if he does not believe in God, he may as well give up life and conclude that the human river is flowing all awry or has altogether ceased to move."

Our efforts as a Church in this rapidly-growing section of the country are efforts in behalf of human progress. It is possible that they may not always make for progress. Dependence on our own powers, spiritual arrogance, ecclesiastical selfishness may make them an offence to the Spirit so that they become what Dr. Fosdick calls "back-eddies" in the course of human history. May they not be! But it is not amiss, as we consider our diocesan problems, to regard them not as problems of human efficiency but of spiritual opportunity. May there not be a Pentecost on us to make us different! Who will prophecy for us to the wind that it may blow upon us? Come, blessed Spirit, as we face our responsibilities, and shed abroad the love of God in our hearts.

THE MISSIONS OF THE DIOCESE

There has been a marked and wholesome improvement in the status of the Missions of the Diocese. A year ago, I made an appeal for a concerted movement towards independence on the part of all Missions and assisted Parishes. There was sympathetic interest in the suggestion, but no definite response until recently. We have had the great encouragement of receiving from a number of Missions a voluntary reduction of appropriations from the Board of Missions. The honor list for this year includes Christ Church, Redondo; Trinity, Escondido; Church of the Redeemer, Los Angeles; St. Clement's Church, Huntington Park; Good Shepherd, Ocean Park; St. Mary-of-the-Angels, Los Angeles; Grace Church, Colton; the Santa Maria-Lompoc field; St. James' Church, San Diego. Consecrated leadership and parochial enthusiasm will, I hope, add others to this list.

There are two theories as to the support of Mission work—one that fields should be combined in such a way that the entire support comes from the local group; the other that the outside assistance should be given a field to enable the Missionary to work intensively for a sufficient period to develop a self-supporting work. It is the latter plan that we have followed for the most part in the Diocese of Los Angeles and I think it is a justifiable one. Communities grow so rapidly that only intensive work can accomplish anything. It is the only way to insure the religious future of Southern Californit. We are working for the future and we must take long views down the vista of the years to come. This leads me to a matter which has occupied a good deal of time in the meetings of the Board of Missions and the Executive Council.

A CONSTRUCTIVE MISSIONARY POLICY FOR THE ADVANCEMENT OF LOS ANGELES AND OTHER URBAN COMMUNITIES

Two years' observation as the Bishop Coadjutor of the Diocese has led me to believe that the attention of the Missionary forces of the Diocese should be directed with great intensity for the next year or two towards the opportunities of the City of Los Angeles and other urban communities.

I believe this for two reasons: First, because the growth of the city is more rapid than most of the outlying sections, and, second, because the nature of city life is such that there is less initiative in the development of Church organizations. It is true that the future of any given city neighborhood is uncertain. At the same time we have sufficient data to enable us to determine approximately where the centers of population will extend, and our task is to "buy up" the Church future of this great city.

Our interests should be directed along two lines: First, the strengthening of existing work. I have prepared a map showing the location of the existing Parishes and Missions in Los Angeles. On such a map it is impossible to indicate the size and the importance of the Parish as compared with the neighborhood and the opportunity. A casual glance of the map, however, reveals certain things. For example, at the district known as Boyle Heights is an immense area to be cared for by the Mission of the Redeemer with its present equipment. I do not feel that the time is ripe for the establishment of another Mission in Boyle Heights; but I do believe that the Board of Missions and the Executive Council ought seriously to consider whether something cannot be done to stimulate and assist the Church of the Redeemer in its program for an adequate plant.

On the other hand, a glance at the Hollywood district will show that there are ample Church facilities, or that there will be, when St. Thomas' and St. Mary's secure their new buildings.

A further examination of the map will show a vast area on the south side of the city untouched by the Church; also, that there is a rapidly-developing section in the upper part of Wilshire Boulevard which will ultimately be a fruitful opportunity for the Episcopal Church.

This leads me to my second point. In addition to strengthening existing work, the Executive Council ought to consider buying land in some of the new tracts. From no point of view could we go wrong in acquiring property on Wilshire Boulevard between Windsor Square and Beverly Hills, for example.

The Church in the Diocese of Los Angeles is bound to take its tone in a large degree from the See City. The plans of a number of our leading Parishes to erect new buildings will react beneficially on all of Southern California. If, in addition, we can develop a constructive policy for the development of the Church in the cities, it will be an added incentive to all of our communities to work along progressive missionary lines. I ask, therefore, your consideration of this whole question. Are our parochial and missionary organizations covering the field properly? Are Parishes and Missions, as you know them, ministering adequately to the territory assigned to them?

It is a fact of common knowledge that the missionary policy of the Episcopal Church in most communities has been no policy at all. A group of people get together and decide they would like a church. A lot is offered which is too frequently in an out-of-the-way place. It is accepted and a church is built. Time proves the location to be anything but strategic. The local group or the missionary cannot be blamed for this. They have had to take what was offered. It has been a question of a church or no church. And usually in a small community the mistake can be corrected ultimately. But in a great city like Los Angeles we cannot afford to make mistakes. Nor can we afford to miss the opportunity to acquire property when it is cheap. In ten years from now either we shall be commended for our farsightedness or blamed for our lack of policy.

I want the Executive Council to be able to respond to every legitimate appeal for assistance from Parishes and Missions. Almost without exception the askings from this Council have been justified. And yet we must always take into consideration the possibility of the local group seeing its needs somewhat out of perspective. In any case the Council will do well always to have the whole picture before it in its deliberations.

What I am saying is not new. It has been said by most of you, certainly by the Bishop of the Diocese, many times. Our Executive Council is a comparatively new thing, however. Its success will depend largely, not on its conscientiousness in disbursing funds, but in the largeness and constructiveness of its missionary policy.

With all this in mind the Executive Council and the Board of Missions have authorized the appointment of a Board of Strategy whose task shall be to investigate the relative claims of new fields, both rural and urban. From such a Board, it is my hope, may emanate a constructive plan for the development of our Church life.

THE NATION-WIDE CAMPAIGN

Increasingly the Campaign is being called the General Church Program. The obvious purpose of the change of name is to escape the time element. Our support of the campaign during the year has been a little over the average. We have shown a consistent gain, month by month, in our contributions over the record of the preceding year. In December our gain was the greatest of any Diocese in the Church. That is not so significant as it seems, however, when one realizes that we have been paying only 39 per cent of our quota. ✓ The November canvass promises approximately what was pledged for 1922. The Parishes that have reported have pledged approximately 78 per cent of their quotas or about 57 per cent of the total reduced quota. Seventeen of the Parishes and Missions reporting will meet their quotas. There are twenty-eight still to report. I confess to a feeling of disappointment that so many do not report or even explain their failure to do so, and I am bewildered that so many ignore repeated requests for information. It does not seem unreasonable even in these busy days to expect an answer to a letter on so important a subject. The largest aggregate amount is pledged by All Saints', Pasadena; the greatest gain in amount of money is shown by Trinity Church, Santa Barbara; and the best increase in number of pledges by Trinity Church, Redlands. I bespeak your careful attention to the report of the Executive Secretary of the Campaign, the Rev. Mr. Bugbee.

The Convention will recall that our budget quota for the General Church was $40,000. This is a moral obligation. It cannot be met by the pledges reported. May I ask, therefore, that the clergy make the General Church Program an object of interest throughout the entire year and secure the support and pledges of those who have not responded to the autumn canvass? We must meet our budget quota. And it can be done if those parishes which have not reported will do as well proportionately as those who have.

You will forgive my emphasis on the financial side of the Campaign; it seems to be necessary. I am glad to say that the oft-repeated assertion—that the Nation-Wide Campaign is not primarily for money—has been verified by our diocesan experience. From every side we hear the testimony that it has instilled new life into the Parish or Mission.

IMPROVEMENTS IN CHURCH FABRICS

There have been notable additions to and improvements in the property of many Parishes. New church buildings have been erected in Beaumont, Culver City and Wilmar. A building has been purchased and remodeled at Downey. New parish houses have been erected by St. James and St. Barnabas', Los Angeles; St. Barnabas' Church, Eagle Rock; St. Peter's Church, San Pedro; St. Matthew's Church, National City; St. Matthew's Church, Watts; and the Church of the Ascension, Sierra Madre. The Church of Our Saviour, San Gabriel, has remodeled and added to its building so extensively as to make it practically a new building. New rectories have been secured by St. Thomas' Church, Los Angeles, and Trinity Church, Orange. Extensive alterations have been made in the parish houses of St. John's Church, Los Angeles; St. Thomas' Church, Los Angeles; and St. James' Church, San Diego. New building projects have been put under way by St. Paul's Pro-Cathedral, Los Angeles; St. John's Church, Los Angeles; and All Saints' Church, Pasadena. In addition, a number of parishes and missions have plans for new churches and parish houses and have secured land for building purposes. A great era of building is ahead of us. The time is ripe for it and conditions require it. The laymen of the Church can do useful services in helping to secure lots in strategic locations. The Church at Culver City was made possible by the generous gift of a lot by Mr. Fred Hunt. There have been other generous gifts in the past. I hope there will be more. And are there not some who would be willing to buy lots and hold them for the Church until such time as buildings can be erected? A new community is opened up. Lots are cheap and a wide choice is offered. But by the time the Church has sufficient interest aroused to purchase one, values have increased and desirable locations are few. The proper method would be the establishment of a revolving fund. Meanwhile, a real opportunity is offered some generous laymen to protect the interests of the Church and to safeguard its future.

CLERICAL CHANGES

There have been an unusually large number of changes in our staff of clergy this year. The death of the Rev. Charles de Garmo and of the Rev. Harwood Huntington has been spoken of by the Bishop. Although neither had been in parish work recently they will be sorely missed, for both showed a fine spirit of helpfulness and readiness to serve wherever need arose. New clergy in the Diocese are the Rev. T. R. Yates of Colton, the Rev. R. A. Tuft of Coronado, the Rev. M. K. Crawford of El Centro, the Rev. Philip K. Kemp of Glendale, the Rev. P. W. Clarkson of Orange, the Rev. G. R. Wreford of St. James' Church, San Diego; the Rev. H. H. Kelley of San Pedro, and the Rev. W. E. Patrick of Santa Paula. The Rev. G. R. Messias and the Rev. L. M. Idleman have been obliged to resign their work by reason of ill health. The Rev. A. G. H. Bode has resigned St. Luke's, Long Beach, to accept the rectorship of St. Michael's, Anaheim. The Rev. Harry Gray has become vicar of St. Clement's Church, Huntington Park. The Rev. Ralph P. Smith has gone from Redlands to Menlo Park in the Diocese of California.

He has been succeeded by the Rev. Edwin S. Lane, formerly of the Church of the Epiphany, Los Angeles. The Rev. M. D. Kneeland resigned the work at Santa Paula and has become assistant at Trinity Church, Los Angeles.

We have, I believe, an unusual spirit of unity and harmony among the clergy of the Diocese. It should and must continue to be so. No group of clergy ever faced such compelling opportunities. We can meet them effectively only as a unit. Parochialism, jealousy, unkind criticism, are the foes of true spiritual progress. Until they are eliminated the "great victories of the Gospel" will not be ours. The Bishop of the Diocese has set a wonderful example of large mindedness. If we can follow his breadth of vision and his generosity of mind, we need not fear for the future. Thank God for the work he has done; yes, but—more, thank God for the spirit in which he has done it.

REPORT OF THE STANDING COMMITTEE

The Standing Committee of the Diocese of Los Angeles, elected by the Twenty-seventh Annual Convention, met on January 26, 1922, and organized by the election of the Rev. Dr. Dotten as President and the Rev. Dr. Gooden as Secretary.

The second meeting was held on May 1st, 1922. Consent was given to St. Barnabas' Mission, Eagle Rock, to mortgage their property for $2,000 in order to build a rectory. Mr. Noble, a postulant for Holy Orders, was dispensed from all subjects except the four as in Canon V, Section 4; with the understanding that he is to apply for Deacons' Orders only, and will not apply for Priests' Orders later.

The third meeting was held on June 29th, 1922. Consent was given to the election and consecration of the Rev. Charles Lewis Slattry, D.D., to be Bishop Coadjutor of Massachusetts, and to the election and consecration of the Rev. Edwin Anderson Penick to be Bishop Coadjutor of North Carolina.

The fourth meeting was on September 11th, 1922. Consent was given to the election and consecration of the Rev. George Ashton Oldham to be Bishop Coadjutor of Albany. Consent was given to the sale of Lots 1, 2 and 3 of Block 96 of the Townsite of Imperial to the Trustees of Holt Post No. 107 of the American Legion for the sum of $800. Mr. Arthur C. Dodge, a postulant for Holy Orders, was recommended to the Bishop to be received as a candidate for Holy Orders.

The fifth meeting was on November 9th, 1922. Mr. Henry Edwards and Mr. Arthur Cotter, postulants for Holy Orders, were recommended to the Bishop to be received as candidates for Holy Orders.

The sixth meeting was on November 23d, 1922. Consent was given to the ordination of the Rev. Waldo F. Parker, Deacon.

The seventh meeting was on December 19th, 1922. Consent was given to the election and consecration of the Rev. Alexander Mann, D.D. Consent was given to the Parish of Christ Church, Redondo Beach, to mortgage Lot 31, Block 166, Redondo Beach, for $3,250 in order to build a rectory.

The eighth meeting was on January 24th, 1923. Consent was given to the Mission of St. John, Wilmington, to mortgage their property for $5,000 in order to build a parish house and rectory.

Respectfully submitted,

ROBERT B. GOODEN, Secretary.

APPENDIX 4

REPORT OF THE EXECUTIVE COUNCIL

The Executive Council organized for the year 1922 with the following membership: Bishops Johnson and Stevens; the Deans of the Convocations, Rev. Messrs. Barnes, Evans, Kirchhoffer and Weld; four members elected by the Convention, Rev. Messrs. Learned and Bode, and Messrs. Knight and Valentine; the Treasurer of the Diocese, Mr. Mushet, ex officio; and the representatives of the different Boards as stated in the Canon and appointed by the Bishop, Mr. Gair for the Finance Committee, Rev. Dr. Davidson for the Board of Missions, Rev. Mr. Murphy for the Board of Christian Education, Rev. F. U. Bugbee for the County and City Mission Society, and Mr. C. N. Burton for the Commission on Philanthropy and Social Service.

The first meeting was held February 23, 1922; being at the same time the last in the old office of the Bishop in St. Paul's Parish House. The Rev. F. U. Bugbee was re-elected Secretary and the various committees appointed with substantially the same membership as in the year previous.

The special feature of the meeting was the presence of a large proportion of the membership of the committees of the Council; the purpose being to bring all in touch with the activity of the Council; also to emphasize that all members of committees are welcome to attend any of the sessions.

Eleven meetings were held with excellent attendance.

The following have been among the outstanding features of the year's work, in addition to the conduct of the Nation-Wide Campaign and the expending of $23,801.28; separate statements of which will be found under the reports of the Nation-Wide Campaign Secretary and of the Treasurer of the Diocese.

1. Considerable time and study were devoted, by a special committee under the chairmanship of Mr. Wilfred Smith, to the relation of the Diocese to the Employers' Liability Law of the State. It was determined that all who receive any compensation for any form of work in the parishes and missions come under the provisions of the law, and thus said parishes and missions are liable for any injury sustained by said persons in the employment of their official duties.

A letter to this effect was sent by the Council to the authorities of the parishes and missions, and urging them to take out insurance under the law. In addition, inasmuch as the missionaries' salaries are paid by the Board of Missions, the Council voted the necessary funds to cover all the missionaries of the Diocese.

2. Through the action of individual members of the Council, those in charge of the construction of the proposed new County Jail were interviewed with the object of securing proper provision for a Chapel and for the segregation of juvenile offenders. It is expected that these facilities will be provided.

3. The constantly increasing number of foreign-born Americans in Southern California raises a problem which must be faced by the Church. The Council has been giving this matter attention. It has been in touch with the Division for Foreign-Born Americans of the National Council and, at the present time, Mr. Percy J. Knapp of this Division is resident in the Diocese undertaking a survey of its foreign population. The sum of $225 has been voted towards his expenses; the balance being met by the National Council.

4. In connection with the Nation-Wide Campaign, an extremely valuable meeting was held with Mr. Lewis P. Franklin, the Treasurer of the National Council. He outlined in detail the General Church Program and was most helpful in clearing up some obscurities. Many members of the Diocese attended the two-day Conference which Mr. Franklin held, and the continued interest shown was a visible evidence of the excellent impression which he made.

5. At a recent meeting the Bishop Coadjutor read a timely paper on "A Constructive Missionary Policy for the Diocese of Los Angeles." It was listened to with marked interest and resolutions were adopted to put its proposals into effect. As the Bishop stated that this subject would form part of his address to Convention, and will therefore be printed in the Journal, no attempt at synopsis is here made.

6. Church publicity is of great importance. It has long been evident that there should be some central source where the newspapers might receive officially the news of the Diocese. In this connection Mr. Gordon Jeffery set forth some important considerations at the December meeting; and, on resolution, the Nation-Wide Campaign Committee was divided into two sections, and the Bishop Coadjutor made Chairman of the section on Publicity.

7. The need of a Diocesan House was brought up at one of the meetings. The Council considered the matter and appointed a Committee on Ways and Means to look into the question. This committee reported:

Your committee reports that it has had a conference with a representative from the Vestry of St. Paul's Pro-Cathedral, with the result that it finds that St. Paul's has contemplated, in its new parish house, a room sufficiently large to take care of Diocesan Agencies. Each Diocesan Agency may have its own desk in this room and in this way will be enabled to care for its office needs. It is understood, however, that this room shall be available by the Pro-Cathedral on Sundays and on certain occasions. It was also stated by the representative of the Pro-Cathedral that, in addition to this large room, other rooms of smaller size may be used from time to time by such committee meetings of the Standing Committee, and of the Corporation of the Diocese, as needed.

It is understood that the room above mentioned will be available some time in November, 1923.

The Council received with great regret during the year the resignation of the Rev. F. U. Bugbee as Secretary. In his place, as representing the County and City Mission Society, the Bishop appointed Mr. Wilfred Smith. The Rev. E. S. Lane was appointed Secretary.

Respectfully submitted,

EDWIN S. LANE, Secretary.

REPORT OF THE BOARD OF MISSIONS FOR THE YEAR ENDING DECEMBER 31, 1922

The Board of Missions held ten meetings during 1922. It has made appropriations toward the stipends of 29 clergy and 42 missions. In addition, it has supported one American and one Japanese woman worker at St. Mary's Japanese Mission, Los Angeles, and one woman worker at St. Philip's Mission in Los Angeles. New appropriations were made in 1922 for Chula Vista, Colton, Torrance, Wilmington, and St. James', San Diego. Increases in appropriations were made to Hemet, Huntington Park, Oxnard, the Imperial Valley, and St. Mary's Japanese Mission. The Board has approved a plan to urge upon all missions an annual increase in their pledges, thereby freeing each year monies formerly applied to their support to be used in the development of new fields. A Committee of Strategy has now been formed within the Board to survey the present fields of work and opportunities for church extension in new locations.

Seven thousand dollars more was spent on the missionary work of the Diocese in 1922 than in 1921. New or enlarged appropriations, which went into effect late in the year 1921, resulted in a very largely increased expenditure in 1922. The actual new appropriations of 1922 amounted to $3,000.00. In order to accomplish these increases the Board has reduced its balance by $2,000.00; this being the amount expended above the receipts. Unless the receipts of the Nation-Wide Campaign are materially increased, absolutely no new work can be undertaken in 1923.

The Board recommends that the amount of the missionary assessment for the year 1923 be $16,500.00.

PHILIP A. EASLEY, Secretary.

LOS ANGELES CONVOCATION REPORT

During the year 1922 we have accomplished something in the way of real, substantial growth and development.

On October 22 our two Bishops attended the opening of St. Mark's Church, Downey. This building was bought from the Baptists for $500. It has been removed seven blocks further south, and placed on a new lot one block from the boulevard. It rests now on a solid concrete foundation. The whole interior of the building has been remodeled and improved by adding a chancel, vestry and choir room.

The purchase of the lot, the moving of the building, the putting in of a concrete foundation, the remodeling of the interior and making the pews cost $1,200; and now we have a church which at a modest estimate is worth $6,000.

Downey has the unique distinction of being the only mission in this Convocation that has secured a lot, a church and a Guild hall within a period of thirteen months; and it only carries a very small debt.

Wilmar Mission, situated on the Covina and Pomona line, has also made a good record for itself during the year.

With a gift of $400 raised by the Convocation, and free labor provided by the people themselves, a building has been erected which was opened for Divine Service by Bishop Stevens on the Fourth Sunday in Advent, 1922.

The altar furnishings were supplied by the Altar Department of the Woman's Auxiliary, and the organ, pulpit, altar rail and cushions by St. Thomas' Church, Los Angeles.

El Monte is our latest venture, and already we have had six baptisms. Seven persons have been confirmed, and a high school teacher secured as Superintendent of the Sunday School.

The Mission of the Advent (West Adams Park) is one year old and doing well. There is a good Church School with an enrollment of 50; a boys' Bible Class of 10; a very active Woman's Guild; a very efficient lay reader, Mr. Gibson; a fine lot and a modest chapel, where Bishop Stevens will administer the rite of Confirmation next month.

Eagle Rock, too, has made good progress during the past year and promises in the not distant future to become a self-supporting Parish. Here we own a Parish House (which is also used for a Rectory). This building cost $8,500; is worth today a much larger sum, and the small debt is provided for by the pledges of the people. The work in Eagle Rock was started with a gift of $50 given by a working woman in poor health.

At Tujunga the Church of the Ascension is worth about $5,500 and is entirely free from debt. The place is growing and we are ready for them as they come.

Van Nuys is building a Parish House and Guild Hall which, when completed, will have cost the people $6,000. The building has been well planned and ample provision has been made for both work and worship. It will be ready, we hope, by Palm Sunday, and then the building, fully furnished and equipped, will have a debt of $2,000. The Guild here is a very active one and will undertake the payment of that debt.

Of the work in Orange County you will hear more before you leave this Convention. There, too, there has been remarkable growth and development; new Missions having been established at Laguna and Fullerton.

I have mentioned only some of the things that have been done. Of the things left undone the newly-appointed Board of Strategy will have something to say in the near future.

SANTA BARBARA CONVOCATION REPORT

During the past year, services were held regularly in eight mission stations. The totals of attendance at service, offerings given for the support of the church work, and the number of communions made exceed those of any previous year.

The Convocation has lost the services of the Rev. Martin D. Kneeland, whose pastoral devotion and kindness of heart endeared him to his people. He resigned as Missionary-in-Charge of Santa Paula last June to take up work in the city of Los Angeles. The best wishes of the Convocation follow him.

The Rev. William E. Patrick, the new Missionary-in-Charge of Santa Paula, brings to the service of that mission an experience that should be of great value to this mission field. As rector of a Church in a large manufacturing city in Massachusetts, as army chaplain in active service in France—where, for distinguished conduct in battle, he received the recognition of this Government—and as rector of a parish under the classic shades of Andover, he has demonstrated his devotion to the Master's work. The Diocese is fortunate to have him among its clergy.

The Rural Dean wishes to bring two matters of importance to the notice of Convention:

1. A particularly interesting piece of work is being inaugurated by the Rev. Allan Burleson, the Missionary-in-Charge of Oxnard. Somis is a little village with one church building. This building is owned by the Presbyterian Missionary Board. The Presbyterian authorities have asked the Rural Dean to use this building and to be responsible for religious ministrations to the inhabitants of this village. The Rev. Mr. Burleson is holding regular services there and the people give him cordial support.

2. The Diocese faces a serious responsibility through a condition which has developed in the northern part of Santa Barbara County, where the Rev. Mortimer Chester is the General Missionary. Under his energetic administration of this field the interest in the Church work has grown so fast that he is unable to adequately meet the growing opportunity. Around the city of Santa Maria there is enough work to keep one man busy. He should be free to give to it his entire time.

In the southern part of his present field is the Santa Ynez Valley. This is a district thirty-five miles long, whose inhabitants are served only by a Danish Church at Solvang and Roman Catholic services held in the old Santa Ynez Mission and in the town of Santa Ynez. Here this Church has a splendid opportunity. The people of all denominations have asked for the Church to come in and serve them. They have offered to raise among themselves $1,000 towards the cost of a Church building at the central point of Los Olivos. A Methodist has offered a large lot most attractively located. The Rural Dean also has $1,000 in his hands for the building. The district agrees to contribute $75 a month towards the salary of a priest. This field cannot be served by Mr. Chester in addition to his already exceptionally heavy responsibilities.

The Mission at Santa Maria offers to increase its monthly pledge $15 a month so that a like amount of Diocesan Missionary funds can be released and applied to the Santa Ynez field. Will the Diocese meet this generous challenge? This opportunity will not wait. If the Diocese does not act within the next few weeks it will be lost.

Respectfully submitted,

GEORGE F. WELD, Rural Dean.

SAN BERNARDINO CONVOCATION REPORT

In the Convocation of San Bernardino we have six organized Missions served by four Missionaries. This past year these fields have been faithfully served by the Missionaries-in-Charge.

There are a few outstanding features of the work for the year 1922. In the early part of the year a most attractive Church building was completed by St. Stephen's Mission in Beaumont. After holding services for years in a dilapidated store building, the people are gathering in a Church that would be a credit to any community. The $2,000 borrowed from the Church Building Fund Commission to complete the building has recently been underwritten by twenty pledges of $100 each, to be paid in from two to ten annual payments. And the Nation-Wide Campaign quota has been met in full. The spring meeting of Convocation was held in Beaumont, with the opening service in the new Church, followed by a most enjoyable picnic at the Baulton place in the hills overlooking the valley.

Another outstanding feature is that the experiment which was begun a little over a year ago in Colton is proving successful. The Mission at Colton had been closed for over thirty years. The Board of Missions sent the Rev. Thomas R. Yates there, asking no financial support from the people for the first year, to see if the work could be put on a firm footing. The work is progressing. The people there have made a great many improvements in the building; more people are coming back to their own Church, and regular contributions are now being made to the support of the work.

The Rev. Frederick C. Miller, who has charge of the Missions in Hemet, San Jacinto, Elsinore and Temecula, has done a good work during the past year, and has built himself firmly into the community in which he lives.

Along the lines of Religious Education the outstanding feature has been the organization of a Church School Union, with the Rev. Charles E. Maimann as Director, and the holding of a Teachers' Training Institute for a period of ten weeks. Beginning in the latter part of October, meetings were held every Tuesday evening for ten weeks in Trinity Parish House, Redlands, beginning with a supper served by the women of the Guild. The attendance never fell below forty, and went as high as sixty. The Pomona delegation—two automobile loads nearly every time—drove in all over 750 miles to attend this course of training. We desire to extend our thanks to the people of Trinity Parish, Redlands, for their hospitality, and to the Rev. Mr. Scovil for his untiring labors to make this Institute a success.

In October a special meeting was called in Riverside to hear the Bishop of Jerusalem, and was attended by over 150. And a well-attended fall meeting of Convocation, in connection with the women of the Auxiliary, was held in All Saints', Riverside.

R. A. KIRCHHOFFER, Rural Dean.

SAN DIEGO CONVOCATION REPORT

All of the stations in the San Diego Convocation have been regularly supplied by the missionaries during the past year. The chain of Missions in the Oceanside field have been faithfully served by the Rev. Mr. Hickman, who has called attention to possibilities for missionary work in his immediate vicinity, particularly in the district being opened by the Santa Fe Railway Company. The Rev. G. W. Dunlap has been making heroic efforts to meet his Nation-Wide Campaign quota, and has shown his zeal and earnestness by delivering lectures in order to raise the necessary funds for this purpose. His congregations are large and loyal and he enjoys the perfect confidence of his people. The work under the Rev. Alfred R. Taylor has been enlarged by the organization of a new Mission in the village of La Mesa, which is meeting the enthusiastic support and large attendance of a devoted congregation. This field, to which entrance has hitherto been denied by our brethren without the Church, has now been declared an open field without restriction. This is a most promising Mission. The Rev. Dr. Wallace has, by his kind and thoughtful efforts, continued the good work at Ocean Beach, so auspiciously begun by Chaplain Wood, who was recently called to a new post in Colorado. This Church, as yet unorganized, has purchased a pair of lots upon which it is hoped soon to build. The people here are united and industrious in their endeavors to push the Church forward.

The Convocation cordially welcomes the Rev. G. R. Wreford, who has undertaken the work at St. James' and Chula Vista, with enthusiasm and enterprise. He is highly respected by his congregation and has made many friends both within and without his Church. It would seem that the qualities of perseverance and steadfastness will eventually bring to St. James' that measure of success to which it is certainly entitled. The field is large and somewhat difficult to till, but it is hoped that, with the Church plant as used by Mr. Wreford, he will gradually gather a faithful clientele.

It is to be regretted that the work in the Imperial Valley must continue to struggle with but one man to do the work where there should be two or three. Calexico, on the Mexican border, is growing rapidly and should receive immediate attention. We have there a nucleus of people who greatly desire the services of the Church. All honor is due to the Rev. M. K. Crawford, who, single-handed and half-supported, is seeking to hold the field until reinforcements shall arrive. It is not an easy matter to induce men to take up duties in this district, owing to the rigors of the climate during the summer season. It still calls for the spirit of fine consecration, and it is hoped that some devoted priest may hear the call and choose to cast his lot among an unserved people.

The city of San Diego is now growing in several directions, and the call for missionary extensions begins to be imperative. The time is not far distant when these calls must be heard and the Church begin her response.

CHARLES L. BARNES, Rural Dean.

REPORT OF THE BOARD OF CHRISTIAN EDUCATION

The Board of Christian Education, when it looks back over the past year, finds that its outstanding accomplishment has been in the fact that there seems to be a real interest in all parts of the Diocese in Christian education and a quickening both on the part of the clergy and laity of its sense of responsibility for the care and nurture of the children of the Church.

The development under the direction of the Board has been along three general lines:

I. STANDARDIZATION: This is an attempt on the part of the Board to set a standard for the Church schools—one which can be attained equally well by large and small schools. A questionnaire was sent out by the Executive Secretary asking opinions of the various Parishes and Missions as to the practicability of adopting such a standard. About eighty per cent answered and pledged themselves to work for the attaining of the eight-point standard. Your Board feels that the coming year will see a real increased efficiency due to the adoption of this standard and to the keeping of careful records, which is one of its most important points. Your Board in this connection has issued for the use of such schools as are willing to adopt it a system of simple and practical weekly and quarterly report blanks.

II. TEACHER TRAINING: Your Board during this past year has had as its objective the making possible for Church school teachers in all parts of the Diocese to avail themselves of some courses of training which would help them in their work. The Bishop's School for Church Teachers, which has heretofore confined its scope to Los Angeles and nearby towns, has been enlarged, placing branches in the various convocations. The first branch outside of Los Angeles was a ten-week course in Teacher Training in the Convocation of San Bernardino, centered at Trinity Church, Redlands. The co-operation of the Dean of the Convocation and the people of Trinity Parish, Redlands, is much appreciated by your Board, and contributed to the unqualified success of the school. A ten-weeks' school was also held in Los Angeles which, in spite of having to move three times during its sessions, proved of interest and was well attended. From it a permanent organization of Church School Teachers in Los Angeles was formed and has met regularly each month to discuss questions of religious educational interest. There have also been speakers at these meetings, among whom have been the Rev. Dr. Harry Nichols, Dr. Learned of our own Diocese, and Mr. Percy Knapp of the Foreign-born Division of the National Department of Missions. This group seems to have filled a real need.

The Summer School and Conference of the Diocese was moved last summer from Santa Monica to the Harvard School in Los Angeles. The character of the school was also changed from a three-day conference to a five-day school, in order, first, to conform more to the summer schools in other parts of the Church and, second, to give an opportunity for longer classes of instruction. We were fortunate to have as lecturer on the general subject of Religious Education the Rev. William G. Gardner, of New York, who gave his hearty endorsement to the change from a conference to a school and predicted success for our summer school in the future. We are looking forward to a larger and more efficient school next summer. The summer school ought to be to the Bishop's School for Church Teachers what the college or university is to the secondary schools in secular systems of education, and your Board is asking interest and co-operation of the whole Diocese to make the school the success that it can and ought to be.

III. YOUNG PEOPLE'S FELLOWSHIP: The work of the Young People's Fellowship has been placed under the Board of Christian Education, and nine new fellowships have been organized since November 1st and a hand-book issued. The whole Church is watching this interesting development of its work. A tentative diocesan organization has been effected which is to be made permanent at the Young People's Convention to be held in connection with the Convention of the Diocese.

Your Board reports that much has been done to stimulate the interest in Christian Education throughout the Diocese during the past year. This has been done mainly through the Executive Secretary. He has presented the subject to the congregations of nearly every Parish and Mission in the Diocese and great interest has manifested itself in the many calls that have been made on him for his services, in leading Teacher Training groups, speaking to parish organizations, to parish dinners and teaching in the training schools.

The annual Church School Rally was held as usual in the Spring. St. John's Church was chosen for the place, and Bishop Moulton of Utah was the preacher. The Bishop's banner for the highest percentage of attendance was won by St. John's School, San Bernardino.

At the meeting of the Board in October it was voted to reorganize with standing committees on Church Sunday schools, Teacher Training, Religion in the Home, and a Committee for presenting the call to the Ministry, Survey, and a committee for the Summer School. These committees were instructed to seek out and add to their own membership interested laymen and laywomen not members of the Board, and so enlist for service many in the Parishes and Missions of the Diocese who have not had the opportunity before to serve. Your Board feels that this will be a great help in carrying out its program for the coming year.

In conclusion, your Board wishes to thank all those who have helped it in its work, those who served on the faculties of the Teacher Training Schools, the Summer School, or who made it possible for the Executive Secretary to present the Board's message from the pulpit. Such a spirit of co-operation spells success to the work of the Church in any diocese.

Respectfully submitted,

STEPHEN C. CLARK, JR., Secretary.

CHARLES B. SCOVIL, Executive Secretary.

APPENDIX 7

REPORT OF COMMISSION ON PHILANTHROPY AND SOCIAL SERVICE

The Commission on Philanthropy and Social Service begs to report that during the past year it has endeavored to carry out more fully the duties laid upon it by the Canons of the Diocese. The responsibilities given the Commission relate to two major subject—Church Philanthropy and Social Service.

In regard to Church philanthropy the Commission has visited each of the various social institutions of the Diocese, in order to study their work at first hand and to understand their needs. These visits have proved valuable in that they remind those in charge of each institution that the particular problem they are endeavoring to meet is not the only problem in the social field, and they also enable the members of the Commission to answer the many inquiries which come to them in regard to the policy of our various social institutions. First hand knowledge is the only answer to misunderstandings or inadequate information.

The Commission is familiar with the situation in other dioceses where the social institutions, of all kinds, have tended more and more to drift away from the auspices and control of the Church. This has resulted not only from an independent attitude on the part of boards of trustees, but also from indifference on the part of the Church. That our Diocese may not be accused of official indifference your Commission is developing a plan for a constant living contact between itself and our diocesan social institutions through the regular and intimate visits of appointed members of the Commission.

In the field of Social Service the activities of the Commission have been quite diverse. When the County of Los Angeles began plans for a new jail, the Commission was able to join with the County and City Mission Society in an urgent recommendation to the authorities to include a chapel in the new structure. We have received definite assurance that this will be provided for. The Commission also took action asking the Supervisors of Los Angeles County to set apart a separate floor of the jail for the segregation of young offenders of 17 to 20. These boys are too old to be held in Juvenile Hall, and yet certainly should not be allowed to associate with hardened adult prisoners. We have been promised that a separate floor will be provided to accomplish such segregation.

In accordance with its usual custom of issuing recommendations to voters in regard to those purely social measures which appear on the ballots at the State election, the Commission published a list of recommendations, with brief reasons, on seven separate proposals. These recommendations were also approved by the Social Service Commissions of the other dioceses in the State.

For several years your Commission has been endeavoring to induce the Social Service Commissions of the Dioceses of California and Sacramento, and the District of San Joaquin, to unite in the formation of a central committee on legislation. It is obvious that when the Episcopal Church in California wishes to throw its influence back of proper social legislation, or against adverse social legislation, either at Sacramento or at Washington, it must act as from the Churchmen of the entire State, and not merely as from those of Southern California or the San Joaquin Valley. The plan of a joint state committee has already proved its value in the State of Pennsylvania. Our hopes and endeavors came to fruition on October 20th, when a Central Committee on Legislation was formed at a meeting held in San Francisco. Through a well-informed Churchman, practising law in Sacramento, the four Commissions will be kept informed in regard to the merits of impending measures. This Central Committee will also serve as a clearing-house for information on other social matters.

Last June your Commission sent as its representatives to the Second Annual Conference of Social Service Workers of the Episcopal Church, held at Wickford, R. I., its chairman, the Rev. C. Rankin Barnes, and its executive secretary, the Rev. Charles B. Scovil. The former was also asked to represent the Commission at the National Conference of Social Work at Providence. Both representatives brought back extensive reports. The Rev. Mr. Barnes was re-appointed by Dean Lathrop to the Council of Advice of the National Department of Christian Social Service, which will again keep your Commission in particularly close contact with our national office.

Your Commission has already set before it for 1923 two special objectives. One is the making of a complete survey of the child placing and child welfare situation in Southern California. Work on this is already under way. The second is the endeavor to secure the appointment of a small, but effective, social service committee in every parish and mission in the diocese. Such committees have already been organized in several places.

During the year the executive secretary for social service, the Rev. Charles B. Scovil, has made many addresses throughout the diocese on the social service program of the Church. He has also arranged for social service courses at several of the branches of the Bishop's School for Church Teachers. His choice of the Rev. Lewis N. Taylor, of Roanoke Rapids, N. C., to present the course on "The Social Opportunities of the Churchman" at the Los Angeles Summer School, was a happy one.

In conclusion, your Commission wishes to express publicly its sense of loss in the absence of the Rev. Thomas C. Marshall from its deliberations. He was the framer of the original Canon under which the Commission functions, and served as its chairman from its inception in 1910 till a year ago. At that time he declined re-election because of the pressure of duties in his parish and at the Hospital of the Good Samaritan. Later in the year he felt obliged to resign from the Commission altogether. We miss his fine social sympathy, his abundant technical knowledge and his never-failing good humor.

REPORT OF THE REGISTRAR

The Diocesan Files and the Library have been stored away at the Harvard School, where the Rev. Dr. Gooden very kindly arranged space for keeping them until the new quarters are completed. The Diocese is greatly indebted to Dr. Gooden for saving the great expenses storage elsewhere would have entailed, and we wish to thank him for this and the assistance he secured for us in the removal.

All the current files are complete and these are available for reference in the care of the Registrar. Prayer Books and Hymnals were distributed as authorized from three shipments during the year.

The Lay-Readers' Licenses have been corrected and newly issued for the year.

Confirmations filed for the year were: Male, 345; female, 558; total, 903, comprising 68 classes.

Respectfully submitted,

ROBERT L. WINDSOR.

·APPENDIX 9

REPORT OF THE HISTORIOGRAPHER

The Annual Convention of the Diocese of Los Angeles:

Gentlemen:

The year since our last meeting has been one of steady growth in all four Convocations of the Diocese.

Particular mention should be made of three occurrences:

1. The sale of the former site of the Good Samaritan Hospital for the sum of $300,000.

2. The observance of the twentieth anniversary of his rectorship of the leading Parish of the Convocation of San Diego, St. Paul's, in that city, by the Rev. Charles L. Barnes. For forty years this Parish has been under the care of two Priests only, and its steady growth has been largely due to the length and continuity of these two rectorships.

3. The conduct of a two-days' Conference for the training of the clergy and laity for the promotion of the Nation-Wide Campaign by Mr. Franklin, the Vice-President and Treasurer of the National Council, was a notable achievement, and it sent the clergy and laity home with a sense of confidence and a deepened enthusiasm for the extension of the Kingdom of God.

Respectfully submitted,

P. H. HICKMAN.

APPENDIX 10

REPORT OF THE BOARD OF EXAMINING CHAPLAINS

The Board of Examining Chaplains for 1922 met on February 7th, and organized by the election of the Rev. Robert L. Windsor as chairman and the Rev. C. Rankin Barnes as secretary.

The second meeting was held on February 14th, 1922. It was voted to ask Chaplain W. F. Hubbard to continue to give the Board the benefit of his experience and advice by acting as an unofficial advisor.

The third meeting was held on March 31st, 1922. Mr. Walter A. Noble, Postulant, was given the literary examination for admission to Candidacy for Holy Orders.

The fourth meeting was held on April 3rd, 1922. The Board agreed on certain recommendations of additions to and omissions from the list of theological text-books prepared by the Commission on Recruiting, Training and Admitting Men to the Ministry.

The fifth meeting was held on May 8th, 1922. Mr. Walter A. Noble was given a portion of the examination for Deacon's Orders.

The sixth meeting was held on October 16th, 1922. Mr. Henry Edwards, Postulant, was given the literary examination for Candidacy for Holy Orders.

The seventh meeting was held on November 20-22, 1922. The Rev. Waldo D. Parker, Deacon, was given the examination for Priest's Orders. A list of needed text-books to serve as a lending library for Candidates was agreed upon. The secretary was authorized to request the Diocesan Convention for an appropriation of $100 to purchase these books.

Respectfully submitted,

C. RANKIN BARNES, Secretary.

APPENDIX 11

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON THE CHURCH PENSION FUND

The Committee on the Church Pension Fund of the Diocese of Los Angeles, in presenting its Annual Report for 1922, congratulates the clergy on the splendid financial showing of the past twelve months. A report, just received from the main office in New York City, says that the assessment payments for the entire Church for the year just closed are in excess of those for 1921, showing that the universal support given the pension system, by the various parishes and other organizations in our Church, is continuing in a most satisfactory way.

The annual grants of the Church Pension Fund proper, up to December 1st, 1922, have reached the total of over two hundred and sixty-nine thousand dollars. This figure, added to the total of the annual grants being carried on account of the General Clergy Relief Fund and the other merged funds, makes a grand total of over four hundred and sixty-eight thousand dollars per annum, and of course there will be a slight increase in these figures when the month of December is included.

What will interest the members of this Convention, more even than the foregoing, are the grants to the Diocese of Los Angeles in force January 4th, 1923.

At their meeting on December 12th, 1922, the trustees of the Church Pension Fund renewed for the coming year their resolutions of December 20th, 1921, granting, in addition to the customary annuity, an immediate payment of one thousand dollars to the widows of clergymen dying in active service, whose assessments are fully paid.

During the past year the Church Life Insurance Corporation has been formed under the auspices of the Church Pension Fund. The object of this organization is to offer to the clergy, and to certain classes of lay workers in the Church, various forms of life insurance policies, at the same rates as those of the converted war risk insurance of the United States Government. The authorities of the Church Pension Fund will be very glad any time to answer inquiries in regard to life insurance from any of the clergy or others who might be eligible and are interested.

The situation within the Diocese is even more gratifying than that throughout the Church at large. The Treasurer of the Diocesan Pension Fund Committee, Mr. Colin M. Gair, to whom we owe a deep debt of gratitude for his valuable services, has forwarded to New York the splendid sum of $10,601.21. This is by far the largest amount ever sent from this Diocese since the Church Pension Fund has been in existence.

The delinquencies for 1922 are infinitesimally small, and most of them, no doubt, will be paid within the month.

While the amount of the total delinquencies seems exceedingly small, yet your Committee deem them of such vital importance that they wish particularly to call the attention of the clergy to them.

During 1921 a very pathetic situation occurred in the Diocese. One of the clergy suddenly was overtaken by an illness which practically incapacitated him from further work. When application was made for a grant from the Pension Fund, on the ground of total disability, it was discovered that some of his assessments had not been paid. The trustees of the fund, in New York, declined to accept payment to cover these delinquencies on the ground that it was contrary to the insurance laws of the State of New York, under which the Church Pension System is incorporated.

The clergyman in question has no one to blame but himself. Repeatedly he was importuned by members of the Diocesan Committee to pay his back assessments, but without avail. As a result of his failure, instead of receiving a pension of $600.00, he will only receive an amount that is pro rata on what he has paid.

This is the risk that every clergyman in this Diocese incurs who allows his assessments to remain unpaid. In case of disability he would receive only a portion of what otherwise he would be entitled to, but, in case of death, his widow and minor dependents would be in the same lamentable fix. We believe that it is the very height of foolishness for a man to take a chance like this, but to subject those dear to him to such a loss, unless they are otherwise provided for, is unthinkable.

At the last Diocesan Convention there was referred to your Committee the matter of adjudication of the delinquencies of Parishes and Missions so far as they related to the thousand dollars voted as an immediate payment in addition to the customary annuity.

We have given this matter very careful consideration and, while we have not been able to arrive at a final settlement of the matter, yet, in view of the fact that the present outlook is most hopeful and we have every expectation of making an amicable adjustment, we ask that the Convention allow us to continue the negotiations now pending.

Your Committee believes, in view of the favorable prospect of adjustment, that there is little likelihood of any widow suffering embarrassment from the failure of the Diocese to pay its assessments; yet, in order to be perfectly sure, we ask that this Convention grant to us substantially the same authority as was given a year ago, and therefore submit the following resolution:

Resolved, That power be given to the Church Pension Fund Committee, in conjunction with the Executive Council, to secure such funds to meet any emergency arising between January 25th, 1923, and the meeting of the next Diocesan Convention.

Respectfully submitted,

WILLIAM MACCORMACK, Chairman.

APPENDIX 12

REPORT OF THE CHURCH HOME FOR CHILDREN

This report will begin where last year's left off. In its concluding paragraph we said that there were three objects we should attain in the year facing us that the work might go forward. These were: The building of the south wing of our Administration Building, grading our permanent driveway, and the acquisition of a little car. Through the great goodness of God we have been able to accomplish the first of these, and on this New Year's Day invited interested friends (through the Los Angeles Churchman and the Pasadena papers) to inspect our new building. They found a beautiful little auditorium, "The Sarah Gilbert Judd Recreation Room" (40x33 feet), finished in driftwood gray and soft sage green; the chairs in which have been provided by our Church Home Committees of San Gabriel, Sierra Madre, San Bernardino, Upland, Ventura, Oxnard, Santa Paula, Santa Barbara and Santa Maria. Handsome curtains for the stage have been promised by Miss C. A. Power. The second floor consists of six bedrooms, two bathrooms, small diet kitchen and back porch (with set tubs and hot water heater). We are most thankful to have this upper floor to use as a "temporary infirmary" and thus be able to fulfill the state requirement of having adequate isolation rooms. Eventually these rooms will allow us to take in ten additional girls. These bedrooms have been furnished through the efforts of six different Church Home Committees, each taking a room. Represented among them are All Saints', Pasadena; St. Paul's, Pomona; St. Paul's, Los Angeles; St. John's, Los Angeles; St. James and St. Barnabas', Los Angeles, and All Saints', Highland Park. And each one seems to have vied with the other in trying to make their room the most attractive. We are sincerely grateful for them all.

Our efficient "Grounds Committee," consisting of Mrs. Waldo, chairman; Mrs. A. Campbell-Johnston, Mrs. George Davidson and Miss Zuriel Libby, have consulted with our architect, Mr. Harold Martin, and landscape architect, Mr. Adams, and plans are now under way for improving the grounds by planting, and for grading our permanent driveway (in which Mr. Lloyd Macy is kindly interested).

And as to "a car," we are fortunate enough to have a teacher who possesses one!

As "the three objects for 1921" have been attained, we feel that the work has gone forward!

As to the needs of 1923, we have divided them into "three greater" and "three lesser." Under "the greater" comes first an Endowment Fund." A gentleman who has done much for the Home (a good Methodist brother, by the way) brought a carload of visitors to us the other day and was enthusiastic at the recent improvements. To his question, "How much have you in your Endowment Fund?" the answer had to be, "One $50 Liberty Bond," at which he laughed in derision and went on to say he felt it to be so important for the different institutions which are caring for children to have an adequate endowment, that he was going to devote the rest of his life in an endeavor to increase them by influencing people to make their wills in favor of the children in orphanages and homes. Dear reader, have you yet thought about making your will? And, may we ask, have you in it remembered the little ones at the Church Home? If not, would you consider doing so? We expect this work to go on through generations. Could there be any better place for "a memorial"? It would be remembered through children's children!

The second "great need"—completion of the Administration Building. This will include the administrative rooms—"Mothers' room," where the relatives can see their children; Office, Library, Store-room for clothing, and another for groceries; Kindergarten, Sewing-room, Class-room, and on the upper floor the completion of the rooms of the "Receiving Cottage" (this will accommodate another family group of children and increase our capacity to fifty).

But, used in this way, we would again be without an Infirmary—so our third “great need” is a “Permanent Infirmary.”

In the “lesser needs” we count a moving-picture machine, a radio set, and the improving of the grounds (retaining wall, sidewalks, etc., etc.).

Realizing more and more clearly that, if this Home is to grow and progress, we must have a live organization back of it, with the Bishop’s full consent and approbation, we have endeavored during the past year to form a Church Home Committee (C. H. Com.) consisting of three or more women (appointed by the Rector) in every Parish and Mission of the Diocese. We now have thirty-seven such committees, with several more under way, and we hope soon to have our list complete.

Altogether, it has been a very successful and a very happy year, with our usual summer outing at La Jolla, a most generous Ingathering harvest at Thanksgiving, a joyous Christmas—and, during it all, the general health of the children very good.

And now, facing a new year of service, we hope that in the future, as in the past, your loving interest may support us and make possible this work for the Master.

EVELYN WILE, Deaconess.

REPORT OF THE HOSPITAL OF THE GOOD SAMARITAN

Statistics of the work done by the Hospital in 1922 show but little change from the year 1921, for the reason that the work of the Hospital has reached the limit of its present building and equipment. The total number of patients admitted in 1922 was 3,699, with a daily average of 120.6, as compared with 3,784, with a daily average of 123.7, in 1921. The number of births in 1922 was 455 (475 in 1921). The total number of deaths in 1922 was 76 (62 in 1921), the percentage of deaths as compared with the number of patients admitted being 2.05. The total number of surgical operations was 2,223, as compared with 2,144 in 1921, the daily average of operations being 6.09. As the total capacity of the Hospital is 135 beds, a daily average of 120 patients throughout the year, winter and summer, means that no further numerical growth will be possible until an additional wing or a new building can be provided.

In the internal management of the Hospital the year has brought many problems incident to the fact that this, the thirty-sixth year of the Hospital’s existence, is its first year as a staff hospital. In January, 1921, a staff of about eighty physicians and surgeons was appointed by the Executive Committee, in accordance with the requirements of the American College of Physicians and Surgeons for a Class A Hospital. During the year this staff has held regular meetings, both as a whole and in sections, at which cases and methods of treatment have been discussed, fatalities being given very special consideration; while an advisory medical committee of five doctors, meeting with the President, the Superintendent and the Secretary, has acted as a means of communication between the staff and the administration. It will be readily seen that the new plan promises a higher degree of service for every patient.

In the department of the training of nurses, new problems are continually arising, owing to the steady advance in the standards and conceptions of training. To quote from a recent report of the Superintendent of Nurses:

"Since 1923, when the Bureau of Registration of Nurses operating under the California State Board of Health began to function, many departures from the original apprentice system of nursing have been made. Even the nomenclature shows the trend of the times—the identification of nursing with other educational institutions. We no longer speak of 'training schools', but 'school of nursing'; we do not have 'probationers', but 'preparatory students'.

"The general result of the change is that pupil nurses are less and less available for the care of patients, while more and more time and attention must be devoted to their theoretical instruction. The practical result of the Hospital is a large increase in its operating expenses. In our school it is estimated each student costs the Hospital approximately $70.00 per month, including maintenance and instruction."

The census of the School of Nursing is as follows:

Administrative Staff.....	15
Graduates on general duty.....	24
Students in 1923 class.....	9
Students in 1924 class.....	16

On the business side of the administration of the Hospital the year 1922 has been marked by the number of important real estate transactions. On the one hand three large pieces of property were bought, giving the Hospital ownership of the entire block bounded by Orange, Witmer, Shatto and Lucas streets for hospital buildings, and of the beautiful tract known as the Lyman Stewart place, on the corner of Sixth and Lucas streets, with a fine house which is already being used as the residence of the staff, and ample grounds for the erection of a large nurses' home; all this in addition to two lots on the north side of Shatto Street, which are to be used for a laundry, heating and power plant. Quite recently the old hospital property on Seventh Street was sold for $300,000.00. Part of the proceeds of this sale are to be used in the very near future in the building of the nurses' home.

All of these transactions are in line with the policy adopted by the Board of Directors to lay the foundations for a large institution commensurate with the growth of the community and of the Church rather than to use its accumulated capital in the immediate building of a hospital wing that would meet present requirements but make no provision for future expansion. So far as the acquisition of property is concerned, there is nothing more to be desired. There is probably no hospital property and location on the Coast comparable to ours—ample in size; elevated, with fine views and pure air; comparatively quiet, yet easily accessible. There is only one thing lacking—a new hospital building or a large addition to the present hospital. It is estimated that the facilities for the care of the sick in the city fall at least 1,000 beds short of the actual needs.

The value of free work given in 1922 was $7,109.87. In addition to this, it should be remembered that all of the ward patients are carried at an actual loss to the Hospital; the total loss in care of ward patients in 1922 being $19,412.36, which amount, if added to the $7,109.87, would give a total of $26,522.23, representing the actual value of the Hospital's contribution to the community.

APPENDIX 15

REPORT OF THE HARVARD SCHOOL

The twenty-third year of the Harvard School opened on September 19, 1922. The number enrolled at the present time is 294, representing eighteen different states and countries. There are twenty-six teachers, who are graduates of colleges east and west, making the faculty representative of the educational facilities of the whole country.

It will be twelve years next August since the School was incorporated as a Church school. The enrollment at that time was 106; it is now 294. In our first graduating class as a Church school there were twelve; in the class of 1922 there were fifty-three. In our first year there were five buildings; there are now eleven, with considerable additions to the property.

Approximately 38 per cent of our student body are Church boys; the rest are divided between Christian Science, Methodist, Roman Catholic, Presbyterian, Congregational, Christian, no church, Baptist, Hebrew and Greek Churches, in the order named. The value to the Church of this Church School is very great because, in a quiet and very real way, the atmosphere of the School creates a friendly feeling towards the Church and, in a small way, is not without its effect towards creating a sentiment for Church unity.

The year just past was a prosperous one in every way, including scholarship, athletics and material things.

Respectfully submitted,

ROBERT B. GOODEN, Headmaster.

APPENDIX 16

REPORT OF THE NEIGHBORHOOD SETTLEMENT

Every year we have taken Mr. Renison's advice, lengthened our cords and strengthened our stakes, never having the money in hand to do so, nevertheless always going straight ahead in faith, and never failing to pay our bills promptly.

The budget last year, which includes extension of the work, was $14,000; the year before, about $12,000. The minimum for keeping the work going at its present level, without extension, is $8,000. While a great deal of the work is done by volunteers (and we can use a great many more), the social problems of today require the skilled hand, the trained, well-equipped worker, who should be paid an adequate salary. The colleges are sending out these workers and, to some extent, indirectly, determining the salary. So much for what we call the budget.

The scope of the work most of you know. The clubs, classes, stereopticon Bible pictures, clinics, library, etc., are practically the same as they were a year ago. More time is given to work among the boys and, where they show response, more attention to the individual boy who, if he has any ambition, reaches out for the best we can give. An invitation to a dinner with the household, opportunity to meet and converse with the right man, informal discussions on Church history and why we believe this and that, the privilege of reading and studying in an attractive room rather than in his own dark, sordid home—who can estimate the influence on his life? It is not with numbers but with the individual that our best work is done.

But we have not been standing still in a material sense. The permanent summer camp at Redondo Beach, which was reported last year, shows perhaps the greatest growth. The land upon which the camp is located does not belong to us. It is owned by an interested worker who leases it for a nominal sum. The improvements in the way of buildings, plumbing and cultivation of the ground amount to between four and five thousand dollars. Most of this improvement was completed before the opening of the camp last summer, and the benefit to children and to workers was unmistakable. It is but the beginning of what ought to be the most valuable part of the work.

At the request of the Bishop, the use of the chapel has been given to a congregation of Russians who have their own priest. The Syrians, who use the same ritual, are now combining with the Russians. Another room in the building has been used through the year by a group of colored people holding Church and Sunday School.

Christmas was saddened by the illness and death of Father de Garmo, our resident Chaplain. His loss cannot be estimated or expressed. The daily Eucharist for the residents and the regular services for the neighbors were our greatest blessings. It was his privilege during the year to present ten for confirmation and ten were baptized.

The resignation of Mrs. Isaac Milbank, who has been president of the Neighborhood Settlement Association for four years, is a great loss and one that will not easily be made good. She has been untiring in her interest and most successful in her work for the upbuilding and support of the Settlement. Mrs. Milbank's resignation was caused by the death of her husband, whose advice and counsel are also greatly missed.

For the time being the Bishop of the Diocese is assuming the duties of president. Surely this stamps the work as well worth while. We take this opportunity of expressing our great appreciation.

The Settlement is one of the agencies of the Church in Los Angeles for work among the foreign-born. All Christian Churches are waking up to their responsibility for the foreigner. They are here in our midst and must be reckoned with. Will we do for them as taxpayers, or as Christians?

Respectfully submitted,

DEACONESS MARY.

APPENDIX 17

REPORT OF BISHOP'S GUILD

With its purpose, "To assist the Bishop in his charitable work, and to bring aid and comfort to the poor and needy," ever before it, the Bishop's Guild has been actively at work during the past year. The store and paper department of the Episcopal Clothing Bureau, 2129 East Ninth Street, has kept abreast with its fine record of the past, earning many hundreds of dollars through sale of discarded articles, and giving away a large amount of clothing, provisions and other necessities to needy persons. The free vegetable garden has also been maintained, and the Hospital Chapter has continued its efficient work.

Contributions of discarded clothing and household goods, newspapers and magazines, valued at $7,487.75, have been received from forty different parishes in the Diocese. Total number of packages received, 1,965.

Two exhibits of children's clothing have been held, showing about 700 new garments, made by twenty-six Guilds, Auxiliaries, and Daughters of the King. From the Needlework Guild 531 garments were received. All these have passed through the Clothing Bureau. The cutting and sewing room in the Hellman Building, Fourth and Main streets, with volunteer workers, has prepared many hundreds of garments and sent them to Guilds and Auxiliaries for the sewing.

At Easter, Thanksgiving and Christmas, large numbers of baskets with good provisions were sent to needy families.

The Bishop's Guild has given during the year $205 to the City and County Mission Society, our Hospital Chapter, which is affiliated with it, having the disposal of this sum; to the Church Home for Children, $180; to the Church Home for the Aged, $20; to the Milk Fund of the East Seventh Street School, $150; to the support of an aged clergyman, $125; to assist a needy widow, $60; to the cemetery plot belonging to the Deaconesses, $35; to Bishop Johnson for his charitable work, $500; to Christmas and Easter baskets, $127.

It has been found necessary to vacate the store rooms at 2129 East Ninth Street and, with the guidance and help of Bishop Johnson and Bishop Stevens, the Bishop's Guild will soon have its own building. This is to be a structure 20x70 feet, erected on the grounds of the Neighborhood Settlement, almost across the street from the old location. The expense of running the Clothing Bureau, which amounts to over $500 each month, will be materially reduced, since the sum paid for rent each year will soon cancel the cost of the building, leaving the expense of the truck and salaries of employees the only obligations to be met.

Respectfully submitted,

ANNE J. ROWLAND, Corresponding Secretary,

APPENDIX 18

REPORT OF THE GIRLS' FRIENDLY SOCIETY

The outstanding events of the past year for the Girls' Friendly have been the following:

1. The formation of three new branches, those of Epiphany, Los Angeles; St. Peter's, San Pedro, and the Church Home for Children.
2. A notable increase in the number of candidates, from 62, the figure a year ago, to the present number of 156; also an increase of members, from 61 to 91.
3. A very gratifying development in the Girls' Friendly Girl Scouts. This Diocese now has five troops, which are registered, and two more in process of formation—a total of 99 G. F. S. Girl Scouts. The total membership now of the G. F. S. is 369.
4. The gifts for Missions and Social Service have been very generous, showing a very wide range of interests.
5. A training course for associates was held last summer at the home of the Diocesan President. This is along the line of one of our greatest needs—that of trained workers. We all feel the need more and more for those who can specialize and become experts in their special fields of work.
6. The National Extension Department appreciates the work this Diocese is doing toward making the G. F. S. better known and in the formation of new centers of work, and so not long ago a check was received for $150, which is to be used at the discretion of the Diocesan Head of Extension.

7. The most interesting advance of the year, however, has been in the interest of the Lodge. Three members of the old Lodge Board have remained, but there were added the following members: Miss Louise Upton, Mrs. Charles Turner, Mr. J. W. McKinley, Mr. B. G. Voight and Dr. W. V. Chalmers Francis. Many properties have been investigated during the year, considered carefully and turned down. At last, however, the Lodge Board feels it has secured the best possible piece. It is a part of the Witmer Estate, at 1422 West Third Street, on Crown Hill, in the block between Lucas and Witmer streets. This site is about two blocks from the Clark Home, on the Crown Hill car line, also within easy walking distance of downtown. The price is $40,000, of which $10,000 is to be paid down. The papers are about to go into escrow. The Board has $5,000 on hand, which, however, they wish to keep for alterations and furnishings. There is a large, well-built house, and a large garage, which is to be altered into sleeping quarters. The capacity will then be accommodation for fifty girls.

The Lodge will be self-supporting when filled and running, and will be able to carry its own financial burden. All we need is the $10,000—or $15,000—with which to start.

Respectfully submitted,

VIOLET B. STEVENS, Diocesan President, G. F. S.

APPENDIX 19

ANNUAL REPORT OF THE COUNTY AND CITY MISSION SOCIETY

The past year has been marked by steady advance in our endeavors to minister in Christ's name to His needy children in the public institutions of Los Angeles County. As befits a society representing the Church of the Living God, all our activities radiate from the altar in worship and instruction. "Thou shalt love the Lord thy God. This is the first and great commandment. And the second is like unto it, thou shalt love thy neighbor as thyself." Worship first, Christian service second.

Hundreds of patients have expressed thankfulness and appreciation that their Church has followed them into the institutions. Many indifferent churchmen have been won back to the Church of their early allegiance. Very many have been followed and ministered to in their homes, where in their convalescent condition they often need our care even more than in the institutions.

It would be of interest, if space permitted, to record the scores of letters which our workers have received in response to some friendly act of kindness. These letters bring gladness to all our hearts, for they make us realize that our efforts are not in vain. In addition, hundreds of personal tributes bear eloquent witness to the place that our workers are taking in the hearts and lives of hundreds in the various institutions every year. Surely the Church may thank God for such an opportunity for unselfish service. What can be more worth while in the life of a Christian than to go about doing good as Jesus did, not to be ministered unto but to minister?

The following items may be of interest:

1. The Diocesan Men's Club has guaranteed funds for three years with which to provide an assistant chaplain, who will live at McKinley Home and care for the religious and moral training of the boys, of whom there will be about five hundred when the school moves to Van Nuys in September. A young priest will soon be appointed to this position. Much credit is due the Men's Club for this fine piece of Christian service.

2. A weekly Celebration is now provided on Saturdays at 6 a. m. for the nurses at the County Hospital.

3. The altar at the hospital has been redecorated in white enamel and gold, thus making a worthy center of our worship and a fitting Holy of Holies for the Sacred Presence.

SOME OF OUR NEEDS ARE AS FOLLOWS:

1. A City Mission Social Center with a sympathetic churchman in charge. This should be equipped with an employment bureau to provide for the many who ask us to obtain them work when they leave the institutions. This need is vital and we have hoped and prayed for its consummation for several years.

2. A Convalescent Home for people leaving the hospitals. Frequently they have no home to go to, no friends, no money, and are unable to work until they regain their full strength. We must pay tribute to the splendid work the County Charities is doing along this line, as along so many others, but we feel that the Church has a responsibility also.

3. People able and willing to assist musically in the services and entertainments. How few church people seem willing to devote their æsthetic talents to this beautiful form of service. "Come over and help us" at the County Hospital on Tuesday mornings at 10 o'clock.

4. We can use more volunteer workers and visitors for ward work. Some drop out from time to time. We need to replenish and increase our numbers. Could not every Parish and Mission see that it is represented in this way. It provides a training which will prove useful in the parish itself.

5. There should be more general and more generous subscriptions to our work on the part of individuals. We are most thankful for the $2,500.00 a year which the Nation-Wide Campaign provides through the Diocesan Council, but we cannot begin to keep up with the increasing demands on the Relief Fund. In 1922 this fund was exhausted several months before the end of the year.

FOR THE COMING YEAR

1. We hope, with the Bishops' co-operation, to establish the Guild of St. Barnabas for Nurses at the County Hospital, where there are four hundred nurses in training. The demand has come from some of the nurses themselves. This would open up a very fruitful field of influence.

2. We hope to develop the Healing Mission of the Church as God gives us ability. Several inmates of the County Farm have attributed their healing from lameness and deafness to our ministrations.

3. We hope to interest more people in co-operating in this wonderful work, which is so close to the heart of our blessed Lord. (See St. Matthew xxv.)

4. We hope to extend our work to additional institutions.

5. We shall try to be more faithful than ever to the trust which the Church has reposed in us. May our people everywhere help us to fulfil our purpose.

In conclusion, we quote an excerpt from Bulletin No. 1 of the newly organized Division of City Missions of the Department of Christian Social Service:

"By the City Mission Idea is meant that type of work in the Church, whose function it is to express Christ's love and remembrance to His neglected, forgotten and straying sheep, by bringing the services, sacraments and pastoral ministrations and, where necessary, social welfare aid, to people of our cities and ports of entry, particularly to those who are isolated in public and private hospitals, reformatories and other institutions; to conduct agencies of social helpfulness; to promote social justice; to aid in establishing better conditions of living. . . ."

This Convention has authorized an Assessment for Diocesan Missions of $20,000 which will be calculated and made a part of this report in the Schedule which follows.

Your Finance Committee regrets that, owing to the neglect of certain parishes and missions to send in a copy of their parochial reports to the Treasurer as required by Canon, it has been unable to prepare the usual schedule of assessments, but, inasmuch as the method of calculation is fully set out in the Canons, the same will be calculated as soon as all the parochial reports are received and all parishes and missions will be notified by mail.

APPENDIX 21

REPORT OF THE GENERAL CHURCH PROGRAM ("G. C. P."), OR NATION-WIDE CAMPAIGN FOR 1923

The Executive Secretary reports as follows:

Ninety-one Parishes and Missions will be considered the 100% record for the Diocese. Following Churches or congregations, listed in the 1922 Journal, have been omitted in the count: Los Angeles—Ephphatha, Hermosa, Murrieta, Barstow-Ludlow. Following Churches, not listed in the 1922 Journal, have been included in the count: Beverly, Colton.

Of this number (91), 55 Parishes and Missions of the Diocese have made "G. C. P." financial returns, or 60%. (Last year 52 out of 88, or 59%.) Two of the 55 congregations of this year can hardly be said to have made returns, but are counted. Thirty-six (36) Churches in the Diocese failed to make returns. Of these, 15 are Parishes (10 of them in Convocation of Los Angeles), and 21 are Missions, seven or eight of them very small.

The following Churches have failed to make any "G. C. P." financial report:

Convocation of Los Angeles—Beverly, Burbank, Covina, Culver City, Downey, Glendora, Inglewood, Lynwood, Los Angeles—St. Andrew's, St. John's, Good Shepherd, Grace, St. Luke's, St. Philip's, St. Thomas'; Ocean Park, San Gabriel, Santa Ana, Santa Monica, Sierra Madre, Van Nuys, West Adams Park.

Convocation of San Bernardino—Elsinore, Needles, San Bernardino, San Jacinto, Upland.

Convocation of San Diego—Bostonia, Brawley, Carlsbad, Coronado, Fallbrook, National City, San Luis Rey.

Convocation of Santa Barbara—Santa Paula, Ventura.

Following 17 Churches have been delinquent on "G. C. P." returns for two of the past three years: Inglewood, Los Angeles—St. John's, Grace, St. Luke's, St. Peter's (San Pedro), St. Philip's; Lynwood, Ocean Park, Tujunga, Elsinore, San Bernardino, San Jacinto, Carlsbad, National City, San Luis Rey, Carpinteria, Santa Paula.

Following 11 Churches have been delinquent on "G. C. P." returns for the past three years: Culver City, El Toro, Glendora, Los Angeles—St. Thomas; Van Nuys, Needles, Bostonia, Brawley, El Centro, Fallbrook, Ventura.

Following 13 Churches are delinquent this year for the first time during the past three years: Beverly, Burbank, Covina, Downey, Los Angeles—Good Shepherd, St. Andrew's; San Gabriel, Santa Ana, Santa Monica, Sierra Madre, West Adams Park, Upland, Coronado. (Three of the above have been started within the past year or two—Beverly, Downey, West Adams Park.)

Following five Churches make their first "G. C. P." financial returns this year: Los Angeles—St. Peter's (San Pedro); Wilmington, Wilmar, Carpinteria, Colton.

Churches reporting: 1923, 55; 1922, 52; 1921, 65.

Churches delinquent: 1923, 36; 1922, 36; 1921, 20.

REPORT OF THE CHURCH EXTENSION SOCIETY

The Directors of the Church Extension Society, in presenting their Annual Report to Convention, call attention to the fact that the Society has reached the thirty-seventh year of its existence, antedating the formation of the Diocese by more than ten years.

While able to report a small increase in its funds during the year, the Directors have to lament the fact that opportunities which are so often presented to the Society, for aid towards the building fund of some most worthy struggling Mission, are seriously interfered with by reason of the limited resources at their disposal.

So far as their funds allow, the Directors are always ready to respond to every appeal that comes to them. Both with reference to the Society's own money, and with regard to the interest money of the Keating Fund, which the Society controls, there is always a desire on the part of the Directors to meet the wishes of those who seek their help.

Feeling the inadequacy of the Society's resources for the growing needs of its work, the Directors at this time repeat their former appeal for increased support, and remind their fellow-churchmen that the payment of five dollars as an entrance fee constitutes membership in the society.

During the year the Society has accepted in trust a dwelling-house and land, valued at five thousand dollars, located in Santa Monica, which, when a life interest expires, will become its property for a designated purpose.

The Treasurer's Financial Statement is herewith appended.

All of which is respectfully submitted.

For the Directors,

JOHN D. H. BROWNE, President.

APPENDIX 26
REPORT OF THE AUDITING COMMITTEE

To the Twenty-eighth Annual Convention, Diocese of Los Angeles.

Your Auditing Committee respectfully reports:

By an amendment to Section 48 of Canon VII, adopted at the last Annual Convention, the Auditing Committee was directed to employ a certified public accountant to examine the books and accounts of all treasurers having charge of funds belonging to the Diocese.

Complying with this direction, your Committee has entrusted the examination of such accounts to Mr. John A. Simmers. The statement which that gentleman has rendered to your Committee is incorporated in and made part of this report.

The Committee, jointly with Mr. Simmers, examined the securities of the Diocese at the safe deposit vaults of the First National Bank.

The bond of the Treasurer of the Diocese, Mr. W. C. Mushet, is on file.

Statement of Mr. John A. Simmers, certified public accountant, dated January 23rd, is hereto attached.

HENRY E. BRETT, Chairman.

ROBERT H. LINDSAY.

CLARENCE J. WALKER.

January 23, 1922.

*The Auditing Committee of the Diocese of Los Angeles,
Los Angeles, California.*

Dear Sirs:

I have examined the books and accounts for the year beginning January 17, 1922, and ending January 15, 1923, of the following:

1. The Corporation of the Diocese of Los Angeles.
2. The Treasurer of the Diocese.
3. The Church Pension Fund—Mr. C. M. Gair, Treasurer.
4. The Nation-Wide Campaign—Mr. W. F. Knight, Treasurer.

In each of the above cases I found the Receipts and Disbursements fully vouched and the accounts in order.

Herewith I send you:

Exhibit 1. Summary of Investment of the Corporation.

Exhibit 2. Statement of Receipts and Disbursements of the Church Pension Fund.

Exhibit 3. Statement of Receipts and Disbursements of the Nation-Wide Campaign.

As requested by you, I do not send a Special Report on the Accounts of the Corporation and of the Treasurer of the Diocese, but instead I have attached my certificate to the statements thereof prepared by Mr. Mushet, the Treasurer, which will be printed in the Convention Journal.

May I suggest that the time allowed for closing the books and auditing them, preparing the statements and printing them is too short? All this cannot be satisfactorily done in nine days.

Yours very truly,

JAS:VM

JOHN A. SIMMERS.

CLERICAL REPORTS

St. Mary's Chapel,
The Bishop's School for Girls,
La Jolla, California.

*The Right Reverend Joseph H. Johnson, D.D.,
Bishop of Los Angeles.*

My Dear Bishop:

As Chaplain of the Bishop's School for Girls, I beg to report as follows for the Convention year 1922:

Evensong has been conducted daily (Saturdays excepted) during the school year; the Holy Communion has been celebrated on the first and third Sundays of each month; a special morning service has been held on the first and last days of each term.

There have been three baptisms, one wedding (a former pupil), and twelve pupils confirmed.

Respectfully yours,

WM. BEDFORD-JONES, Chaplain.

January 24, 1923.

La Jolla, California,
January 20, 1923.

*The Rt. Rev. Joseph H. Johnson, D.D.,
Bishop of Los Angeles.*

My Dear Bishop:

I desire to report that, during the past Convention year, I have been engaged in Sunday School work and that I have celebrated Holy Communion, conducted Morning Prayer and Evening Prayer and preached at services of the Church as opportunity afforded.

My work in tutoring has kept me very busy outside of these Church engagements, but I have not failed to assist as often as I was able in promulgating the Gospel of Christ.

Very respectfully yours,

JAMES I. H. CAMERON.

Oceanside, California,
January 22, 1923.

*The Rt. Rev. Joseph H. Johnson, D.D.,
Los Angeles.*

My Dear Bishop:

My official acts during the year 1922 have been as follows:

In Santa Ana, Church of the Messiah: Celebrated Holy Communion, twice; Morning Prayer, 2.

In San Diego, St. Paul's Church: Holy Communion, 5; Morning Prayer, 4; Evening Prayer, 5. Also assisted at Easter Day services.

In Oceanside, by courtesy of the Priest-in-Charge of Grace Mission: Marriages, 2; burials, 2; participating, 2. Also assisting at celebration once and participating in the Good Friday Three Hours' Service.

Respectfully submitted,

ARTHUR C. DODD.

414 North Monterey Street,
Alhambra, California, January 8, 1923.

Dear Bishop Johnson:

During the year 1922, I have celebrated the Holy Communion six times and assisted five other times, at Holy Trinity Church, Alhambra.

Have taught our Bible Class here fifty-three Sundays in 1922.

Had Morning Prayer and Sermon one Sunday at Ascension Church, Sierra Madre, in September.

Was able to be present at least at one Morning Service every Sunday during the year.

Sincerely yours,

ISAAC HOLGATE.

Van Nuys, California,
January 19, 1923.

To the Rt. Rev. Joseph H. Johnson, D.D.,
Bishop of Los Angeles.

Dear Sir:

I beg leave to submit the following report of clerical duties performed by me during the Convention year ending December 31, 1922:

St. Stephen's Church, Los Angeles:

Holy Eucharist	32
Other services	13

St. Simon's Church, San Fernando:

Holy Eucharist	8
Other services	3

St. Mark's Mission, Van Nuys:

Morning Prayer with Sermon	1
----------------------------------	---

In August I removed from Hollywood to my present place of residence, 5396 Kester Avenue, Van Nuys. For nearly fourteen years "had been my greatly prized privilege to render to the Rev. J. Arthur Evans, and to his successor, the present rector of St. Stephen's Church, such clerical assistance as was within my power. With unceasing courtesy they placed the altar at my disposal whenever I desired to offer the Holy Eucharist, and I greatly regret that distance has deprived me of this happiness.

Very respectfully,

W. F. HUBBARD,
Chaplain U. S. A., Retired.

1304 Curson Avenue,
Hollywood, Cal.

The Rt. Rev. Joseph H. Johnson, D.D.,
Bishop of Los Angeles.

My Dear Bishop:

During the year 1922 I performed the following services: Holy Communion, 39; Holy Days, 4; preached, 35 times; Morning Prayer, 9; assisted, 1; Evening Prayer 3.

Official acts: Baptisms, 1; burials, 7; marriages, 3.

These services were held at Eagle Rock, Burbank, Wilmar, Church of the Redeemer, St. Stephen's Church, St. Thomas' and St. Athanasius', Los Angeles.

Faithfully yours,

DUNCAN FINLAYSON MACKENZIE.

2838 North Griffin Avenue,

Los Angeles, California, January 1, 1923.

The Right Reverend Joseph H. Johnson, D.D.,Bishop of Los Angeles,Pacific Mutual Building, Los Angeles.Dear Bishop:

I herewith submit report of services taken by me during the year 1922.

During the year I officiated on 31 Sundays, also on Good Friday. These services were at St. Stephen's, Hollywood; The Epiphany, Los Angeles; St. Mary of the Angels', Los Angeles; The Mission, San Fernando; Christ Church, Ontario; St. Matthias', Whittier; St. James', South Pasadena; St. Mark's, Glendale, and Holy Trinity, Covina.

I also conducted one funeral service, and solemnized one marriage.

Yours very respectfully,

TIMON E. OWENS.

SUGGESTIONS AS TO GIFTS, BEQUESTS OR DEVISES TO DIOCESAN INSTITUTIONS AND CHARITABLE AND
RELIGIOUS PURPOSES UNDER THE AUSPICES OF THE CHURCH

The Diocesan Corporation, known in law as "The Protestant Episcopal Church in the Diocese of Los Angeles," is the Trustee under the Canons of all the permanent invested funds of the Diocese, that is:

The Episcopate Endowment Fund;

The Diocesan Missionary Endowment Fund.

The Diocesan Corporation is also the Trustee to which should be conveyed all property for the benefit and use of the organized Missions of the Diocese under the trusts provided in the Canons.

The Bishop of the Diocese is incorporated as a corporation sole under the name of "The Bishop of the Protestant Episcopal Church in Los Angeles, present incumbent, Joseph Horsfall Johnson," and is authorized to receive and administer the respective funds and property, for the use and benefit of the Church in the Diocese, which may be intrusted to him, including all religious, benevolent or educational objects connected therewith. All gifts, bequests or devises for the establishment of the Cathedral, or of schools under the auspices of the Church, will be received and held by the Bishop, as corporation sole, until the incorporation of the several and appropriate corporations authorized to receive and administer the respective funds and property.

"The Hospital of the Good Samaritan" is the corporate title of the hospital organization, which is organized and conducted under the auspices of Church people, and is officially connected with the Diocese.

Free beds in perpetuity may be endowed in the hospital upon the payment of $10,000, or gifts, bequests or devises for the benefit of the hospital may be made to the Corporation.

"The Church Extension Society of the Diocese of Los Angeles."

The Bishop's School for Girls (upon Scripps foundation), La Jolla.

The Harvard School for Boys (upon Emery foundation), Los Angeles.

The Church Home for Children, Los Angeles.

The Neighborhood Settlement, Los Angeles.

The Church Home for the Aged, Los Angeles.

The County and City Missionary Society, Los Angeles.

The Seamen's Church Institute, San Pedro.

The Girls' Friendly Society, Los Angeles.

ORDER OF BUSINESS OF THE CONVENTION OF THE

(1) The Secretary, under the direction of the Chair, shall announce that he has received attendance slips from one-third of the Clergy entitled to seats and votes in the Convention; and, if he shall have received less than one-third of such slips, then and in that case he shall call over the names of the Clergy entitled to seats and votes.

(2) The Secretary shall announce that he has received attendance slips from one-third of the Parishes and Missions entitled to representation, and, if he shall have received less than one-third of such attendance slips, he shall then call over the Parishes and Missions entitled to representation, and shall submit the certificates of the Lay-Delegates-elect from such Parishes and Missions to the Committee on Credentials; and all irregular and defective certificates, together with all certificates and documents relating to contested seats, shall be reported by name or title only, and laid aside until the appointed place in the Order of Business.

(3) A quorum being present, the presiding officer shall declare the Convention organized for business.

(4) In the case of a vacancy, the election of a presiding officer as provided by the Constitutions of this Diocese.

(5) The election of a Secretary and the appointment of an Assistant Secretary.

(6) The appointment by the presiding officer of the Regular Committees of the Convention not previously appointed under provisions of these Canons, and the announcement of the names of those comprising the Committees previously appointed, and the filling of any vacancies in such Committees from absence or other cause.

(7) Reception and reference to the proper committee of applications from Parishes and Missions for admission into union with this Convention. Report of the Committee on Admission into Union. Admission of Parishes and Missions into union with the Convention, by resolution, upon report of Committee that the constitutional and canonical provisions have been complied with.

(8) Report of the Committee on Credentials. Contested right, or claim to a seat in the case of a Clergyman.

(9) Report by the Secretary of Certificates of Lay-Delegates laid aside as irregular or defective, and action thereon by the Convention.

(10) Reading the names of delinquent Parishes and Missions.

(11) Introduction of matter for the consideration of Committees, and reference to the same.

THIRD DAY

On the third day, and any subsequent day, after Morning Prayer, the Order of Business shall be:

- (1) The reading and approving of the minutes.
- (2) Reports not presented before.
- (3) Miscellaneous Business.

Before the rising of the Convention, the minutes of the last day's meeting shall be read and approved, and the presiding officer shall then bid the Convention to such closing devotions as he shall deem appropriate.

NOTE:—When it is desired that an evening meeting of the Convention shall be held, a resolution to that effect must be adopted before 5:00 o'clock in the afternoon of that day.

RULES OF ORDER OF THE CONVENTION OF THE DIOCESE OF LOS ANGELES

CTIONS

No motion shall be considered as before the Convention until seconded and stated to the Convention by the presiding officer. If not presented in writing, the President, or any member of the Convention, may require the motion to be reduced to writing before being presented to the Convention. After a motion is in possession of the Convention the mover cannot modify or withdraw it without the consent of the Convention.

RULE 2

DER OF
TIONS

When a question is before the Convention, no motion shall be received but to lay it upon the table, to take a vote thereon at a certain time, to postpone to a certain time, to postpone indefinitely, to commit or to amend; which motions shall have precedence in the order named. The motion to take a vote at a certain time shall be decided without debate.

RULE 3

END-
NTS

When a motion is under consideration, a motion to amend, a motion to amend that amendment, and a motion for a substitute for both amendments shall be in order. These motions shall be considered and voted upon in the reverse order in which they are received.

RULE 4

N-
BATABL
TIONS

The following motions shall not be debatable: to adjourn (which shall always be in order when no member is speaking), to lay on the table, to take from the table, to close debate, to extend the limits of debate, an objection to the consideration of a question, a call for the order of the day, to reconsider an undebatable question, to fix the time of adjournment, to postpone to a certain time, to permit the withdrawal of a motion, and to suspend the rules. If a motion to lay an amendment on the table be carried, the matter before the Convention shall be proceeded with as if no amendment had been offered.

RULE 5

VISION
ESTION

If a question under consideration contains several distinct propositions, the same may be divided on the request of any member, subject to the decision of the presiding officer that the division proposed can be made. If objection is made to such division, a motion to divide may be put before the Convention. When a motion for a division is made, the mover must specify the manner in which he desires the question to be divided. A motion to strike out and insert shall be indivisible.

RULE 6

EAKING

No member may speak more than once on the same question, nor longer than fifteen minutes. By consent of three-fourths of the members, the Convention may grant leave to a member to speak a second time on the same question, but no longer than ten minutes. A Chairman of a Committee, or the mover of a resolution, presenting a report, shall be permitted an opening and a closing speech on every question submitted for action, but not to exceed ten minutes for each speech, unless special leave be given by the Convention to extend the time.

A member may speak for not longer than two minutes, when nominating a candidate for election to any office.

A member desiring to make a nomination shall rise and receive the recognition of the Chair before naming his candidate.

RULE 7

Every member present shall vote, whenever a question is put, unless excused by the Convention on account of his being personally interested in the result, or for other cause.

RULE 8

The vote shall be taken by ayes and noes, or by orders when called for by five members, and shall, in such case, be entered on the minutes.

RULE 9

In taking the vote by orders it shall be the right of any member of the delegation who may dissent from the vote of the majority of the delegation, to have the fact of his dissent recorded in the minutes.

RULE 10

In all questions decided numerically, a motion to reconsider must be made by one member, and seconded by another, who voted in the majority. In all questions decided by a vote by orders, a motion to reconsider, if made by a Clergyman voting in the majority, must be seconded by a Lay-Delegate voting in the majority; and if made by a Lay-Delegate, it must be seconded by a Clergyman voting in the majority. A motion to reconsider must be made within twenty-four hours after the vote was taken. When a motion to reconsider a vote prevails, the question is again before the Convention as if no vote had been taken upon it. No question shall be reconsidered more than once.

RULE 11

All Special Committees shall be appointed by the President, unless otherwise ordered.

RULE 12

The reports of all Committees shall be in writing. If a report is received by the Convention when presented, it may at once be acted on, or laid on the table for future consideration. The reception of a report by the Convention does not adopt it or its recommendations. If it is desired that a report, or its recommendations, shall become the action of the Convention, a resolution or resolutions to that effect must accompany it. When the report of a Special Committee is acted upon by the Convention, the Committee ceases to exist.

RULE 13

When a member is called to order by the President, or by another member rising to a point of order, he shall immediately take his seat unless permitted to explain. All questions of order shall be determined by the President; but any member may appeal from the decision of the Chair, and on such appeal no member may speak more than once without leave of the Convention.

RULE 14

The prescribed Order of Business shall not be departed from, nor shall any Rule of Order be suspended or changed, unless by a vote of two-thirds of the members present. Nor shall any Rule of Order, or Order of Business, be changed without one day's previous notice to that effect, except by unanimous consent, provided that a motion to suspend the Rule of Order, in order to direct the Secretary to cast the ballot of the Convention, shall require the unanimous consent of the Convention.

RULE 15

The majority of a quorum shall always be required to elect an officer.

RULE 16

The President of the Convention may appoint a Standing Committee on Rules of Order. All proposed changes in the Rules of Order shall be referred to such Committee, if appointed, for consideration and report. When questions of order are raised, which are not provided for by these rules, the President, if he so desires, may refer such questions to the Committee on Rules for their opinion. "Roberts' Rules of Order" shall be the parliamentary guide in all cases not provided for in the foregoing rules.

RULE 17

In all elections required to be made by concurrent votes of both orders, the ballots of the Clerical Order shall first be counted and the list of the person or persons elected by said order shall be declared; the ballots of the Lay Order shall next be counted and the list of the person or persons elected by said order shall be declared. Any person or persons whose name or names shall appear on both of the said lists of persons elected shall be declared elected by the Convention, and no person shall be declared elected by the Convention unless he shall have been so elected by the vote of each order considered separate and apart from the other order.

RULE 18

All resolutions carrying appropriations shall be presented during the first half hour of the afternoon session of the First Day.

RULE 19

All printed reports shall be delivered to the Secretary for distribution at the opening of the afternoon session on the First Day, and five minutes only shall be allotted for hearing a summary of each printed report when called up. This provision is not to apply to the Report of the Committee on Canons, or the Report of the Finance Committee.

RULE 20

Contemplated resolutions likely to involve debate shall be filed with the Committee on the Dispatch of Business before the opening of any session so that provision may be made in the Calendar for their consideration.

CANONS AMENDED—CONVENTION, 1923

1. Canon V, Section 29, was amended by substituting the word "eighteen" for the word "twelve," so that it shall read: "He shall close his several accounts eighteen days before the meeting of the Annual Convention."

2. Canon XXXVII was amended by substituting the word "Cathedral" for the word "Pro-Cathedral" wherever the latter occurs in the Canon.

3. Canon III, Section 9, was amended in the first sentence by adding the words, "or any adjourned or special session thereof," after the words, "of this Diocese."

4. Canon IV, Section 13, was amended, at the conclusion of the first section, by adding the words, "Lay-Delegates shall serve until the next annual meeting of the Parish or Mission."

5. Canon XVII, "The Executive Council," was amended, at the end of the second paragraph, by adding—after the words, "to be members of the Council"—the words, "provided that, if any Board be already represented on the Council, the Bishop shall appoint a member at large."

Also, Canon XVII, formerly tentative, was ratified and adopted.

ORDER OF BUSINESS

A new Order of Business was adopted, with the inclusion of the "Woman's Auxiliary" among the Diocesan institutions to report to Convention, and with a change in the order of procedure and other minor changes—as printed in this Journal.

PROPOSED AMENDMENTS TO THE CANONS

1. Proposed by the Rev. J. D. H. Browne: Amend Article VI, Section 21, by striking out the word "male." This was referred back to the Committee on Canons.

2. Proposed by the Rev. R. L. Windsor, that a special committee be appointed by the Chair to consider and report on the advisability of placing Wednesday evening on the Calendar as a regular session of Convention, and of recommending an Order of Business for such session.

The Bishop appointed the Committee on Canons.

3. Proposed by the Rev. Dr. Davidson: Amend Canon XXXIX by the addition at the end—of Section (h):

"(h) At least ten days before the convening of the Annual Convention, the Secretary shall mail to every Clergyman one copy and to the Clerk of every Parish and Mission six copies of any proposed amendments to the Constitutions and Canons as may have been committed to any special committees or referred to the Committee on Canons by the preceding Convention, together with such other proposed amendments as may have been received by the Secretary during the year."

Further, that the word "twenty" in the last line but one in Section (b) of the same Canon be changed to "thirty."

In Memoriam

WILLIAM G. W. SMITH
CHARLES H. DE GARMO
HARWOOD HUNTINGTON, Ph.D.

Priests

The Rev. William G. W. Smith, a non-parochial priest of this Diocese, died on September 7, 1922, at Las Encinas Sanitarium, Pasadena.

Born in Philadelphia, in 1847, he took his theological course at the University of the South, graduating in 1875. He was ordained deacon in 1876 and priest in 1878, by Bishop Gregg of Texas.

From 1876 to 1891, he was in charge of St. James' Church, La Grange, Texas, with seven other mission stations. In 1891, he took charge of St. Peter's Church, Rockport, Texas, and missions in seven adjacent towns. Assiduous labors caused his health to break down in 1896, which necessitated absolute retirement from the active ministry.

He then removed with his wife to Altadena in this Diocese, where they lived quietly for more than twenty years. Unable to perform any priestly functions, owing to extreme deafness, he was known to his intimate friends as being possessed of infinite patience and cheerfulness of spirit under many and severe trials.

The funeral service was held at St. James' Church, South Pasadena, of which he had long been a devoted member.

The Rev. Charles H. de Garmo died at the Hospital of the Good Samaritan on December 30, 1922, after a brief illness.

Fr. de Garmo, a native of Louisville, Kentucky, was ordained deacon in 1874 and priest in 1876. He was successively rector of the Church of St. John the Evangelist, Toledo, Ohio, and curate at St. Mark's Church, Philadelphia. He resigned to become rector of St. John's Church, Landsdowne, Pa.

Coming to this Diocese, in 1905, he became priest-in-charge of Christ Church, Redondo Beach, in which charge he continued to serve with self-sacrificing labors, greatly beloved by his people, until his retirement from the active ministry in 1921. Following this, he became chaplain of the Neighborhood Settlement, where he quickly endeared himself, both to the staff and to the neighborhood, by the gentleness and sweetness of his character and the consecration of his life.

A priest of saintly life, of deep devotion to his Master and to humanity, the beautiful simplicity of his character has left its impress on the hearts and lives of many.

The requiem Eucharist was celebrated at St. Matthias' Church on Tuesday, January 2nd, Bishop Johnson, Bishop Stevers and a large number of the clergy and friends being present.

The Rev. Harwood Huntington, Ph.D., known throughout the Church as clergyman, author, lawyer and scientist, died on January 4th at his home in Los Angeles, after an illness of only three days.

Dr. Huntington was born in New Haven, Conn., in 1861, and graduated from Trinity College, Hartford. Specializing in chemistry, he took up graduate work at Columbia University, from which he received the degree of Ph.D. Later he engaged in the study of law and was admitted to the bar in 1895. For a number of years he practised law in New York City, specializing in chemical jurisprudence.

However, Dr. Huntington had come from a long line of clergymen—four successive generations—and he eventually gave up the law in order to study for the ministry and carry on the family tradition. He was ordained deacon in 1906 and priest in 1907. He shortly left for the Orient, where he studied mission work in China, Japan and Corea. From 1913 to 1917 he was rector of St. Luke's Church, Hot Springs, Va.

Removing to this Diocese in 1919, Dr. Huntington supplied the vacant rectorship of the Church of the Epiphany, Los Angeles, for several months. In appreciation of his services the parish gave him the title of honorary associate rector. About this time Dr. Huntington's attention was called to the efforts of certain commercial motion-picture producers to film the Bible story. In an endeavor to save it from incorrect and irreverent treatment, he entered the Sacred Film Corporation in an advisory capacity and gave himself without stint to the task of insuring a proper visual presentation of the sacred story. In this he was eminently successful so far as the work had progressed.

Dr. Huntington's death was extremely sudden, as only the previous Sunday he had preached at the Church of St. Augustine-by-the-Sea, Santa Monica. The funeral was held at St. John's Church on the Feast of the Epiphany. Bishop Johnson officiated, assisted by Bishop Stevens.

Dr. Huntington was the author of three books: Chemical Jurisprudence and The Yearbook for Chemists appearing in 1900, and Cui Bono, a modern apologetic, in 1911.

“Grant them, O Lord, eternal rest,
And let light perpetual shine upon them.”

JOURNAL OF THE PROCEEDINGS OF THE CONVENTION

St. John's Church,
Los Angeles, January 30, 1924.

The Twenty-ninth Annual Convention of the Church in the Diocese of Los Angeles opened with the Celebration of the Holy Communion in St. John's Church, Los Angeles, at 10 a. m. on that day.

The Celebrant was the Bishop, the Right Rev. Joseph H. Johnson, D. D. He was assisted by the Rev. Dean Barnes, as Epistoler, and the Rev. Dr. Davidson as Gospeller, and in the administration of the Sacred Elements by the Bishop Coadjutor and by Deans Evans and Kirchhoffer.

At the close of the service the Convention was called to order for business, the Right Reverend, the Bishop, taking the chair.

The Secretary announced that more than one-third of the Clergy had deposited attendance slips and more than one-third of the Parishes and Missions had signified that they were represented by the attendance slips of their Lay-Delegates.

A constitutional quorum of both orders being present, the Chairman declared the Convention ready for business.

On motion of Dean Evans, the Rev. Alfred Fletcher was nominated as Secretary.

There being no further nominations, on motion, the Assistant Secretary cast the ballot of the Convention and the Rev. Alfred Fletcher was declared elected.

The Secretary appointed the Rev. R. L. Windsor as Assistant Secretary.

The Bishop delivered his annual address (Appendix 1).

The Bishop Coadjutor then delivered his annual address to the Convention (Appendix 2).

On motion the reading of the regular and special committees was postponed; with the exception of the Committees on Credentials and Admission of Parishes and Missions into Union with the Convention, which were read.

The Rev. R. L. Windsor moved that that portion of the report of the Committee on Canons which related to the advisability of having an evening session be received at this time. Adopted.

The Rev. Dr. Learned presented this, it be numbered (2) in the printed report.

2. Proposed by the Rev. R. L. Windsor, that a special committee be appointed by the Chair to consider and report on the advisability of placing Wednesday evening on the Calendar as a regular session of the Convention and of recommending an Order of Business for such session. The Chair appointed the Committee on Canons.

The Committee recommends that an Evening Session be held on Wednesday, that it be incorporated as a regular session of the Convention; and that the Order of Business shall be the hearing of Reports from the Diocesan Institutions.

On motion the recommendation of the Committee was adopted.

The Rev. Dr. Davidson moved that the time of the Evening Session be set at 8 o'clock. Adopted.

The Rev. Charles H. Emmons, Field Director of the Near East Relief, was given the privilege of the floor and spoke of the urgent need of continued contributions for the maintenance of the many thousands of children whom American generosity has rescued from starvation.

The Rev. Edwin T. Lewis presented the following resolution:

Resolved, That the Twenty-ninth Annual Convention of the Diocese of Los Angeles expresses its approval of the great work carried on by the Near East Relief and its admiration for the heroic and efficient manner in which unforeseen emergencies have been met. It urges upon the Parishes and Missions of the Diocese their continued support of this great agency of Christian mercy until such time as the forlorn and destitute Christian peoples of the Near East shall be able to care for themselves, and until this multitude of orphaned children have arrived at the years and the condition of self-support. This both in fulfillment of our Christian duty and in recognition of our American responsibility in the comity of nations. Adopted.

On motion the Convention adjourned to meet at 2 o'clock.

On reassembling at the hour named, the Bishop in the Chair, the following ushers were appointed: Mr. Robert H. Lindsay, George M. Wiley, Wm. Hoogendyk and Jackson Rigby.

The regular and special committees were declared, on motion, to be those as printed in the Journal of 1923, with exceptions noted and read. (Pages 6-7.)

The report of the Committee on the Incorporation and Admission of Parishes into Union with the Convention:

1. Your committee begs to report that it has received an application from St. Clement's Mission, Huntington Park, to be admitted to the Convention with the status of a Parish.

All the constitutional and canonical requirements have been complied with and the application has the endorsement of the Standing Committee of the Diocese. We therefore recommend that the application be granted.

Committee { EDWIN T. LEWIS,
C. E. C. HODGSON,
DAVID SPANGLER.

2. Your Committee begs to report that applications have been received from St. Mark's Mission, Downey, and St. John's Mission, Chula Vista, to be admitted as Missions in union with the Convention.

In each case the proper canonical form has been filed and the endorsement of the Bishop Coadjutor received. We therefore recommend that these missions be admitted into union with the Convention.

Committee { EDWIN T. LEWIS,
C. E. C. HODGSON,
DAVID SPANGLER.

On motion the report of the committee was adopted, and the Parish and Missions named were admitted into union with the Convention.

Mr. W. T. Oliver reported for the Committee on Credentials that sixty-four Parishes and Missions had sent regular certificates of Lay-Delegates, and that all such were entitled to representation, provided the Diocesan assessment had been paid. Received.

This was, subsequently, enlarged to sixty-nine—of which forty-two were Parishes and twenty-seven were Missions.

Sixty-eight of the canonical clergy registered as present, and one hundred and fifty-one Lay-Delegates registered as representing the twenty-nine Parishes and fourteen Missions sending delegates.

The Treasurer reported the list of delinquent Missions—being those at Bostonia, Burbank, Carlsbad, Colton, East San Diego, El Centro, Church of the Angels, Garvanza; Needles, San Luis Rey.

The following appropriations were presented and referred to the Finance Committee:

Registrar, Office Expenses.....	$ 50.00
Registrar, for Moving and Shelving Diocesan Library.....	100.00
Entertainment, to and at Convention.....	200.00
Committee on Arrangements.....	60.00
Board of Examining Chaplains.....	100.00
Historiographer, Office Expenses.....	10.00
Secretary, Office Expenses.....	50.00
Secretary, Printing Journal.....	700.00
Secretary, Extra Printing Required by Convention.....	100.00
Province of Pacific.....	150.00

The Rev. Dr. Learned presented the report of the Committee on Canons:

The Report of the Committee on Canons:

Omitting (1) of the printed report for later discussion,—(2) having been already adopted—the report proceeded with items (3), (4), and (5) as follows:

3. Proposed by the Rev. Dr. Davidson: Amend Canon XXXIX by the addition at the end—of Section (h): “(h) At least ten days before the convening of the Annual Convention the Secretary shall mail to every Clergyman one copy and to the Clerk of every Parish and Mission six copies of any proposed amendments to the Constitutions and Canons as may have been committed to any special committees or referred to the Committee on Canons by the preceding Convention, together with such other proposed amendments as may have been received by the Secretary during the year.”

Further, that the word, “twenty” in the last line but one in Section (b) of the same Canon be changed to “thirty.”

The Committee recommends the adoption of this proposed amendment, with the substitution of the word “thirty” for the word “ten” in the first line, and the substitution of the word “thirty-five” for “thirty” in the last line: also, that in Canon XXXIX (g) the last clause, after the words “Parish and Mission” be struck out.

4. The Committee recommends the adoption of a new Canon, proposed by the Bishop, to be entitled “The Hospital of the Good Samaritan,” and its insertion after Canon XXIV:

The Hospital of the Good Samaritan, Los Angeles, is an Institution of the Church officially connected with this Diocese, and is conducted under its auspices.

The object of the Hospital is to provide, at reasonable charges, ministrations for the sick, irrespective of creed, and so far as its funds will warrant, to provide free beds for such worthy persons as may be nominated by the Bishop. A gift or bequest of fifteen thousand dollars (15,000.00) is considered sufficient to endow a bed in perpetuity. Thirty thousand dollars ($30,000.00) will endow a room in perpetuity.

1. The Hospital shall be under the direction of a Board of Directors, consisting of twenty-one members, of which the Bishop shall be one; and the Bishop shall be President of the Board.

2. One member of such Board of Directors, in accordance with the By-Laws of the Hospital, shall be elected by the Convention of the Diocese, at its Annual Meeting, to represent the Church on the Board.

3. Other members of the Board of Directors, as vacancies may occur, shall be nominated by the Bishop, and shall be elected by the members of the Board.

4. The property of the Hospital shall be vested in the Corporation of the Hospital of the Good Samaritan.

5. The Board of Directors shall, through their secretary, present to the Convention, at its Annual Meeting, a report of the work of the Hospital, the number of patients received, operations, the number of physicians and nurses in attendance, during the year; also a financial statement of the value of the property and of the annual receipts and disbursements.

5. Proposed by Rev. Dr. Hibbard: Amend Canon XXVI, Section 153, line 3, by inserting after the word "Bishop" the words "and Bishop Coadjutor," and in line 4 by changing the words "two Laymen" to "four Laymen"; also in line 5 by changing the word "him" to "Ecclesiastical Authority": so that the Section shall read, "There shall be a Commission of the Diocese to be known as the Commission on Church Architecture, which shall consist of the Bishop and Bishop Coadjutor, together with two Clergymen and four Laymen, to be appointed annually by the Ecclesiastical Authority."

The Committee recommends the adoption of this proposed amendment.

(3)—Was adopted with the recommendations proposed by the Committee—to substitute the word "thirty" for "ten", and "thirty-five" for "thirty" in the last line; and to strike out the last clause of (g) in Canon XXXIX.

(4)—The new Canon, "The Hospital of the Good Samaritan" was adopted as recommended.

(5)—Was adopted as recommended.

Items (6) and (7)—which follow—required no action.

6. The following recommendation adopted by The San Diego Convocation, December 12, and directed to the Bishop and the Standing Committee was referred to the Committee on Canons: "That a recommendation be addressed to the Bishop and Standing Committee of the Diocese that there be a revision of the existing Parish boundaries with a view to the greater efficiency of our Church."

It is the opinion of the Committee that the present Canons, especially Canons IX and X, provide for such action in a clear and satisfactory manner.

7. The following resolution, also adopted by the San Diego Convocation, was submitted to the Committee on Canons:

"Whereas the Convocation of San Diego has requested a revision of the Parish boundaries by the Bishop and Standing Committee;

"Therefore the Convocation requests the Committee on Canons to define at the next Convention the relation of a Parish and its Rector to its Parish boundaries."

The Committee conceives that it is not within its province to offer such a definition.

Respectfully submitted,

LESLIE E. LEARNED, Chairman

On motion the report of the Committee on Canons—exclusive of item (1)—was adopted as a whole.

Item number (1) was then submitted for discussion:

1. Proposed by the Rev. J. D. H. Browne: Amend Article VI, Section 21, by striking out the word "male." Referred back to the Committee on Canons.

The Committee on Canons deems this proposed amendment to be a matter of such importance as to call for the decision of the Diocesan Convention; and therefore refers it to this Convention without recommendation.

After full and thorough consideration and free discussion, a vote being called for by orders, the proposed amendment was lost: the vote of the Clergy being, ayes, 24; noes, 31; that of the laity, ayes, 19; noes, 21; divided, 3.

Lay—Mr. Wm. J. Currer, Randolph Miller, S. J. Cornell, Roland Diggle.

The Rev. Dr. Davidson—with unanimous consent—moved a reference to the Committee on Canons of the advisability of striking out Section 50, Canon VII, relating to a Committee on Christian Education—to report to this Convention. Adopted and so referred.

The Rev. Alfred Fletcher—with unanimous consent—moved a reference to the Committee on Canons relating to two proposed new Canons to be entitled "Harvard School" and "The Bishop's School for Girls." Adopted and so referred.

The report of the Standing Committee was presented by the Rev. Dr. Gooden. Received. (Appendix 3.)

In this connection, Dr. Gooden spoke of the long and faithful and most effective service of the Rev. Dr. Dotten on this Committee, of later years as its chairman; and moved that the Secretary be requested to write a letter to Dr. Dotten, expressing the sympathy of the members of the Convention with him in his illness, conveying the assurance of their loving brotherly regard and their prayers for his complete restoration to health. Adopted.

The Rev. C. Rankin Barnes moved for the unanimous consent of the Convention in referring to the Committee on Canons—the title of the Commission on Philanthropy and Social Service and asking that it be changed to read, "The Social Service Commission."

At this point the Rev. P. H. Hickman called in question the fact of there being a quorum present; in consequence of which the Convention adjourned to reassemble at 8 p. m. for the Evening Session.

Convention reconvened at 8 p. m., Bishop Stevens in the chair; the Order of Business, first in order, being the reports of Church Institutions.

The report of the Hospital of the Good Samaritan was presented by the Rev. T. C. Marshall. Received. (Appendix 4.)

The report of the Church Home for Children was presented by Deaconess Wile. Received. (Appendix 5.)

Pledges amounting to $300 were made by members of the Convention to the Home for building extension.

The report of the Home for the Aged was presented by Mrs. Wm. A. Holt. Received. (Appendix 6.)

The report of Harvard School was presented by the Rev. Dr. Gooden. Received. (Appendix 7.)

The scholars in attendance comprise 159 boarders, 137 day scholars—296 in all, with 25 on the teaching faculty. Forty boys were graduated last year. The valuable property covers nearly eleven acres in one of the most desirable portions of the city.

The Rev. P. H. Hickman moved a reference to the Board of Christian Education of the matter of the Oregon law on disassociated schools which threatens the abolition of private schools; together with a letter from Bishop Sumner, of Oregon, on the subject. He requested that a report be made by the Board to the Convention of 1925. Adopted and so referred.

On behalf of the Principal of the Bishop's School for Girls, Miss Caroline S. Cummins, Dr. Gooden gave a verbal report. He spoke of the definite emphasis which is being placed upon scholarship by the principal of the school; and of the very marked Church influence which is being created by the services of the Chaplain.

In the unavoidable absence of the Rev. H. H. Kelley, the superintendent of the Seamen's Church Institute, the Rev. Dr. Davidson spoke of the fine work for seamen which the enlarged Institute is now equipped to undertake. It is classed among the three best-equipped Seamen's Institutes in the country.

The report of the Woman's Auxiliary was presented by Miss Helen G. Magill. Received.

HELEN G. MAGILL, President.

The report of the Neighborhood Settlement was presented by the Assistant Secretary. Received. (Appendix 8.)

The report of the Bishop's Guild was presented by the Assistant Secretary. Received. (Appendix 9.)

The report of the Girls' Friendly Society was presented by Mrs. W. Bertrand Stevens—the number of branches in the Diocese being 12, and the total membership 312. Received. (Appendix 10.)

The report of the Registrar was presented by the Rev. R. L. Windsor. Received. (Appendix 11.)

The report of the Historiographer was presented by the Rev. P. H. Hickman. Received. (Appendix 12.)

The report of the Board of Examining Chaplains was presented by the Rev. C. Rankin Barnes. Received. (Appendix 13.)

The report of the Church Pension Fund Committee was presented by the Very Rev. Dr. MacCormack.

The following resolution, appended to the report, was moved by Dean MacCormack:

Resolved, That power be given to the Church Pension Fund Committee, in conjunction with the Executive Council, to secure such funds as may be necessary—to meet any emergency arising between January 29th, 1924, and the meeting of the next Diocesan Convention.

The report was received and the resolution adopted. (Appendix 14.)

The Secretary submitted documents received from the Secretary of the General Convention:

Amendments to the Book of Common Prayer proposed at the Convention of 1922, and to be finally acted upon at the Convention of 1925. On motion of the Rev. P. H. Hickman, these were referred to the Deputies to the General Convention—to report to the next Diocesan Convention; and the following proposed amendment to the Constitution was ordered printed in the Journal that it may be brought before the next Convention for consideration:

AMENDMENT OF THE CONSTITUTION PROPOSED AT THE CONVENTION OF 1922, AND TO BE FINALLY ACTED UPON AT THE CONVENTION OF 1925

Resolved, That the following change be made in the Constitution, and that the proposed alteration be made known to the several Dioceses, in order that the same may be adopted by the next General Convention in accordance with Article XI. of the Constitution:

Amend Article VIII. of the Constitution by adding immediately after the Declaration of Conformity the following words: "If any Bishop ordains a Priest or Deacon to minister elsewhere than in this Church, he shall do so only in accordance with such provisions as shall be set forth in the Canons."

On motion Convention adjourned to meet at 9:30 a. m. tomorrow.

Thursday, January 31, 1924.

After Morning Prayer, Convention opened at 9:30 a. m.; Bishop Johnson in the chair.

The minutes of yesterday's proceedings were read and approved.

The Rev. R. L. Windsor moved that the Secretary cast the ballot of the Convention for the election of the Lay-Delegates to the Synod of the Province of the Pacific.

The ballot was so cast, and Mr. Wilfred Smith, Wm. North Duane, W. C. Mushet, C. E. C. Hodgson were elected.

By similar resolutions—severally made—the Secretary cast the ballot of the Convention for the Rev. G. F. Weld to be on the Provincial Board of Missions, for the Rev. C. Rankin Barnes to be on the Provincial Board of Social Service, for the Rev. Edwin T. Lewis to be on the Provincial Board of Religious Education; for the Rev. R. L. Windsor as Registrar; and these gentlemen were severally elected.

The Rev. R. L. Windsor moved that the Secretary cast the ballot of the Convention for the election of the seven persons nominated as Directors of the Corporation of the Diocese. Adopted.

The ballot was so cast, and the Right Rev. J. H. Johnson, D.D.; the Right Rev. W. Bertrand Stevens, D.D.; Mr. A. W. Morgan, H. Ivor Thomas, W. C. Mushet, J. E. Jardine, M. A. Albee were elected.

The Rev. R. L. Windsor moved that the Secretary cast the ballot of the Convention for the election of all the persons nominated for the Board of Christian Education. Adopted.

The ballot was so cast; and the Rev. Edwin T. Lewis, C. T. Murphy, S. C. Clark, P. K. Kemp; and Mr. Wm. J. Currer, Randolph Miller, S. J. Cornell, Roland Diggle were elected.

The Bishop appointed as members of the Board of Christian Education: the Rev. R. B. Gooden, D.D.; the Rev. Irving Spencer, W. E. Patrick, W. N. Pierson, E. S. Lane, Miss Mary Floyd, Mrs. Ethel M. Clizbe.

ELECTIONS

The Chair appointed Mr. H. Ivor Thomas as Judge of Elections; the Rev. A. H. Dexter and Mr. Wilfred Smith as tellers for the Clerical vote; the Rev. F. U. Bugbee and Mr. George G. Entz as tellers for the Lay vote; as assistant tellers, the Rev. A. G. H. Bode and Mr. Gee; the Rev. P. G. M. Austin and Mr. A. H. Halsted; and subsequently, the Rev. P. K. Kemp and Mr. Otto J. Zahn.

On motion of the Rev. Dr. Davidson, nomination for Alternate Delegates to the Provincial Synod was reopened, and Mr. G. W. H. Allen was nominated.

On motion the Secretary was directed to cast the ballot of the Convention for the election of the Alternate Lay-Delegates to the Synod of the Province of the Pacific. The ballot was so cast, and Mr. Ralph Isham, Judge J. J. Hawkins, Mr. Lawrence Moore, G. W. H. Allen were elected.

The Rev. R. H. Gushee withdrew his name from nomination as a Delegate to the Synod of the Province of the Pacific, and the Rev. W. C. Shaw withdrew from nomination to the Board of Missions.

The first ballot for elections was taken.

The report of the Executive Council was presented by the Rev. E. S. Lane. Received. (Appendix 15.)

The report of the General Church Program (N. W. C.) was presented by the Secretary, the Rev. F. W. Bugbee. Received. (Appendix 16.)

The report of the Treasurer of the General Church Program (N. W. C.) was presented by Mr. W. F. Knight. Received. (Appendix 17.)

The Rev. Dr. Learned offered the following resolution:

Resolved, That the Executive Council be instructed to change the method of credits for gifts to Diocesan Institutions, as follows:

Gifts shall be made direct to the Treasurers of the various institutions by the Parishes and Missions. Within ten days after the quarters ending April 1, July 1, October 1 and January 1, the Treasurers of such institutions shall transmit to the General Church Program a statement of gifts listed by Parishes, and credit shall then be given by the General Church Program Treasurer. Adopted.

Mr. W. C. Mushet, the Treasurer of the Executive Council, presented his report of that fund. This was received, and is printed on the last two pages of the report of the Treasurer of the Diocese.

Mr. Mushet wished to express publicly his thanks to God for his restoration to health; his personal obligation to Mr. H. Ivor Thomas for his attention to the finances of the Diocese during the Treasurer's illness; and his sense of gratitude for the influence on his life which thirty years' association with Bishop Johnson had exercised.

The Rev. Dr. Learned, Chairman of the Finance Committee of the Executive Council, stated that the sum of $96,700—comprising amounts for all extra-Diocesan purposes—had been received during 1923, representing an increase of 300 per cent since 1914—with great promise for the year 1924. He further said that the deficit of $4,300 in last year's Diocesan quota for the general work of the Church could, by arrangement, be made up; and in this connection he offered the following resolution:

Resolved, That the sum of $2,500 be appropriated by the Executive Council to meet the deficit of some $4,300 in the Diocesan quota for the General Church Budget of 1923, and that the General Church Program Treasurer (N. W. C.) be instructed to send a telegram to Mr. Lewis B. Franklin, Treasurer of the National Council, that the Diocese of Los Angeles will meet its budget quota for 1923 in full. Adopted.

Dr. Learned stated that the remainder of the deficit was made up by $800—received on account of the 1923 quota since the Diocesan G. C. P. Treasurer's accounts were printed, and by extra gifts from the following Parishes: St. Paul's, Los Angeles, $100; St. John's, Los Angeles, $100; St. James', South Pasadena, $100; Church of Our Saviour, San Gabriel, $100; All Saints', Montecito, $100; Trinity, Santa Barbara, $100; All Saints', Riverside, $50; St. Matthias', Whittier, $25; Trinity, Redlands, $25; All Saints', Pasadena, $300. The Bishop expressed his great gratification that the Diocese had risen so splendidly to a realization of its obligation to the general work of the Church, and called upon the Convention to express its thanks to Almighty God by singing the Doxology.

The Rev. Benjamin T. Kemerer, formerly of the Field Department of the National Council, and now Auxiliary Secretary and Rector of St. Clement's Church, El Paso, Texas, was, by resolution, given the privilege of the floor.

The Rev. Mr. Kemerer congratulated the Diocese on its fine sense of responsibility for the general work of the Church, and spoke of the substantial progress made by the Diocese of Los Angeles. He then described the financial policy of the General Board—the necessity of retrenchment and cutting down the budget. Probably no addition to the deficit will be made. If the Diocesan quotas pledged during the next three years are paid the deficit of $800,000 will be paid.

The greater objective of the Program—of the Forward Movement of the whole Church—is, however, to be regarded rather than the payment of the budget, necessary as this is.

He stressed the necessity of early preparation in the year—throughout the whole year—for the November canvass to make it successful. The great purpose is to bring all the points of power, i. e., the individuals in the Parishes throughout the Church—by organization, and by the addition of units—to the exercise of the full power of the whole body of the Church, the Body of Christ.

The recommendation of the National Council is to begin your work now—by literature and by organization.

The Rev. Theodore Kemp, Associate Secretary of the Commission on International Justice and Goodwill, of the Federal Council of Churches, was, by resolution, given the privilege of the floor.

He urged upon Christians of every name in every possible way—by organization and by the dissemination of Peace literature—to eliminate the possibility of war. He especially emphasized the need of the participation of this nation with other nations in the World Court.

The Bishop called the Convention to prayer.

The following resolution was offered by the Rev. Edwin S. Lane and was adopted:

Resolved, That this Convention, believing war to be contrary to the spirit of Christ, approves in substance the Bok Peace Prize

Award, and that the following letter of appreciation be sent to Mr. Edward W. Bok for his efforts in behalf of international peace; and Resolved, further, That this Convention urges upon the Senators from California their whole-hearted support of the program contained in the Bok Plan, and especially that they make every effort to secure the entrance of the United States of America into the Permanent World Court.

Mr. Edward W. Bok:—

Dear Sir:

The Convention of the Protestant Episcopal Church in the Diocese of Los Angeles, assembled on January 31, 1924, heartily commends your efforts to achieve International Peace and assures you of its greatest sympathy and support in the face of senatorial investigation. A copy of the resolution adopted by the Convention is enclosed.

The Judge of Elections reported the result of the first ballot.

The Rev. Dr. Learned withdrew his name from nomination on the Standing Committee. Mr. C. M. Gair was appointed teller for the clerical vote.

On the second ballot being taken, Convention adjourned for the noon recess, to meet at 2 p. m.

Convention reassembled at the hour named, Bishop Stevens in the Chair.

On motion of the Secretary, Article V, Sections 13 and 14, and Article XX, Section 52, of the Constitutions—which were amended in the Convention of 1922 by the substitution of the words, “Special Meeting of the Convention” for the words, “Special Convention”—were submitted to the Convention for approval. This required a vote by orders; and, on calling the roll of the Clergy and Parishes, the vote in each case was unanimous for approval; and the adopted amendments were approved.

The Rev. P. H. Hickman moved a reference to the Committee on Canons of a proposed amendment—to omit the words “or Special” from Canon V, Sections 20 and 22—to report to next Convention. The resolution was adopted and so referred.

The Secretary submitted a letter received from the Bishop of Missouri in relation to the proposed Bishop Tuttle Memorial and Endowment Fund.

A resolution expressing the sympathy of the Convention with the projected memorial and its readiness to co-operate when the plans are matured was adopted together with a request that the Secretary—in conjunction with the Bishops—shall send an appropriate letter to the Bishop of Missouri informing him of our action and expressing our appreciation of the great life-work of Bishop Tuttle which it is proposed to commemorate.

The report of the Board of Christian Education was presented by the Rev. S. C. Clark. Received. (Appendix 18.)

The report of the Board of Missions was made through the Deans of Convocations. Received. (Appendix 19.)

The Bishop reappointed Mr. Frederick C. Valentine as Chancellor of the Diocese; and, in doing so, expressed his great personal gratification that Mr. Valentine was willing to continue his valuable service—now of so many years’ duration—to himself and to the Diocese.

Mr. Chester T. Hoag was nominated as representative of the Convention on the Board of the Hospital of the Good Samaritan; and, on motion, the Secretary cast the ballot of the Convention for his election.

The Judge of Elections reported the result of the second ballot; and, from time to time, that of the succeeding ballots.

STANDING COMMITTEE

These were four ballots. After the first ballot the Rev. Dr. Learned withdrew his name. The first ballot was void because of excess of ballots in the clerical vote.

The following gentlemen were elected by concurrent vote: The Rev. J. A. Evans, R. L. Windsor, R. B. Gooden, D.D.; Dr. J. E. Cowles, Mr. C. D. Adams, W. F. Knight, H. E. Brett, in the second ballot; the Rev. George Davidson, D.D., in the fourth ballot.

The Bishop appointed as members of the Executive Council—to represent, severally, in the order named, the Board of Missions, the Board of Christian Education, the Social Service Commission, the Executive Committee of the County and City Mission Society, and the Finance Committee—the Rev. Dr. Davidson, Rev. C. T. Murphy, Rev. E. S. Lane, Mr. Wilfred Smith, Mr. C. M. Gair.

On motion of the Rev. Dr. Davidson, nomination for the Board of Missions was reopened; and Mr. A. W. Morgan was nominated after the third ballot.

BOARD OF MISSIONS

There were four ballots. The following were elected by concurrent vote: The Very Rev. Dr. MacCormack, the Rev. Dr. Davidson, Dr. Learned, P. A. Easley; Mr. W. C. Mushet, Colin M. Gair in the first ballot. The second and third ballots were void because of an excess of ballots in the lay vote. Mr. A. W. Morgan was elected in the fourth ballot. On motion of Dr. Davidson—with unanimous consent—the Secretary cast the ballot of the Convention for Mr. W. N. Howard who of the remaining lay members nominated had received the highest number of votes; and he was declared elected. The Rev. W. C. Shaw had withdrawn his name before the balloting.

Mr. W. C. Mushet presented the report of the Treasurer of the Diocese. Received. (Appendix 20.)

Mr. W. C. Mushet presented the report of the Finance Committee; with a recommendation that the budget of the Diocesan Missionary Assessment for this year be $20,000 to meet the requirements of the Board of Missions. Received. (Appendix 21.)

On motion of the Rev. Dr. Davidson the recommendation was adopted.

Dr. Davidson offered the following resolution:

Resolved, That the Finance Committee submit a General Church Program (N. W. C.) budget and table of apportionments on the Parishes and Missions to the Diocesan Convention for its approval. Adopted.

The Rev. Dr. Learned read the budget presented by the Executive Council, copies of which have been distributed to the Parishes—and moved that the Convention ratify this as the General Church Program (N. W. C.) budget of apportionments laid on the Parishes and Missions.

The item relating to the appropriation for the salary of a Secretary of the Board of Christian Education was debated.

The Rev. W. E. Maison moved, in amendment, that the office of Educational Secretary of the Board of Christian Education be suspended until further action, and that the salary hitherto appropriated for the incumbent of that office be transferred to the Board of Diocesan Missions to be used to supply two General Missionaries or as the Bishop may direct in the interest of missions.

On motion of the Rev. C. T. Murphy, the amendment was laid on the table.

Mr. F. C. Valentine moved the “previous question” and called for a vote on the adoption of the budget as presented by the Executive Council.

The vote was taken and the budget was adopted.

The report of the Auditing Committee was presented by Mr. H. E. Brett. Received. (Appendix 22.)

The report of the Commission on Philanthropy and Social Service was presented by the Rev. C. R. Barnes. Received. (Appendix 23.)

The Rev. C. R. Barnes asked for unanimous consent in moving a reference to the Committee on Canons with a request that the title of the Commission on Philanthropy and Social Service in the Canons be changed to “The Social Service Commission.” Adopted and so referred.

The Rev. Dr. Learned submitted a second report of the Committee on Canons of matters referred to it by unanimous consent—to be reported on at this Convention:

1. The Committee recommends the adoption of two new Canons, as follows, to be entitled, respectively, “The Harvard School” and “The Bishop’s School for Girls” and that they be inserted after the Canon, “The Hospital of the Good Samaritan.” Adopted.

CANON

HARVARD SCHOOL

Harvard School for Boys upon the Emery foundation is an Institution of the Church, officially connected with this Diocese, and is conducted under its auspices.

1. The School shall be under the direction of a Corporation or Board of Trustees, of which the Bishop of Diocese is, ex officio, a member; and the Bishop shall be President of the Board.

The Articles of Incorporation of the School provide that the Corporation or Board of Trustees shall consist of twenty-one members, “of which twelve shall always be members of the Protestant Episcopal Church and registered communicants of some Parish in union with the Convention of such Church in the Diocese of Los Angeles; or Clergymen canonically with the said Diocese.”

2. The Principal, or Headmaster, of the School shall be appointed by the President.

3. The Standing Committees of the Corporation, as provided by its By-Laws, shall be appointed by the President.

4. The property of the School shall be vested in the Corporation of Harvard School upon the Emery Foundation.

5. The Corporation of the School shall, through the Principal or Headmaster, present to the Convention of the Diocese, at its Annual Meeting, a report of the progress of the School—the number of its faculty or teaching staff, the number of the scholars attending, its efficiency in scholarship; and such other matters as may be deemed appropriate in furnishing information regarding the condition of the School.

CANON

THE BISHOP'S SCHOOL FOR GIRLS

The Bishop's School for Girls upon the Scripps' foundation is an Institution of the Church, officially connected with this Diocese, and is conducted under its auspices.

1. The School shall be under the direction of a Board of Trustees, of which the Bishop of the Diocese is, ex officio, a member; and the Bishop shall be President of the Board.

The Articles of Incorporation of the School provide that "the President of the Board of Trustees shall be the Bishop of the Protestant Episcopal Church in Los Angeles in his capacity as ex officio Trustee."

2. The office of Principal of the School shall be filled by appointment of the Bishop.

The internal management of the School shall be under the direction of the Principal.

3. A Chaplain shall be appointed by the President, who shall hold his office by the terms and subject to the conditions imposed by the President at the time of his appointment.

4. The property of the School shall be vested in the Corporation of the Bishop's School upon the Scripps' Foundation.

5. The Board of Trustees shall, through the Principal or Chaplain, present to the Convention of the Diocese, at its Annual Meeting, a report of the progress of the School—the number of its faculty or teaching staff, the number of the scholars attending, its efficiency in scholarship; and such other matters as may be deemed appropriate in furnishing information regarding the condition of the School.

2. The Committee recommends that the title of Canon XXVII, "Commission on Philanthropy and Social Service" be changed to the "Social Service Commission"; and that a corresponding change be made wherever the title appears in the Canon. Adopted.

3. The Committee recommends that the new Canon, "The Hospital of the Good Samaritan" adopted at this Convention, be changed—so as to conform to the Articles of Incorporation of the Hospital—by the omission of (1) and (2), and by insertion of the following instead thereof:

"1. The Hospital shall be under the direction of a Board of Directors consisting of twenty-one members; one of which shall be the Bishop of the Diocese, one shall be the Rector of St. Paul's Episcopal Church in Los Angeles, one shall be elected annually at the Annual Convention of the Diocese, and the eighteen shall be elected by the Corporation; twelve of the eighteen must be qualified voters of a Parish or Mission in the Diocese of Los Angeles. The Bishop of the Diocese of Los Angeles shall be the President of the Corporation, Chairman of the Board of Directors and Chairman of the Executive Committee by virtue of his office."

Also, that in (3) of the same Canon, after the word "nominated" be inserted the words, "by a Nominating Committee annually appointed." Adopted.

4. The Committee recommends to amend Canon VII by striking out Section 50, "A Committee on Christian Education." Adopted.
5. The Committee recommends that the ballots for voting in elections be printed on one sheet of paper instead of on separate sheets. Adopted.
6. The Committee recommends that the Wednesday evening session of the Convention be a joint session with the Woman's Auxiliary. Adopted.

On motion the report of the Committee on Canons was adopted as a whole.

The Rev. P. G. M. Austin offered the following:

Resolved, That there shall be a fixed order of seating for all delegations to the next and succeeding Conventions.

On motion referred to the Committee on Dispatch of Business.

The Jerusalem and East Mission Fund was presented by Rev. Dr. Gooden on behalf of the Rev. Dr. Dotten, the representative of that fund.

The report, on motion, was received, and the Bishop spoke of the excellent and well-sustained standard which the fund had reached under Dr. Dotten's direction and reappointed him as Representative of the Fund.

REPORT OF OFFERINGS FOR THE JERUSALEM AND THE EAST MISSION DURING THE PAST CONVENTION YEAR, PASSING THROUGH THE HANDS OF THE SECRETARY-TREASURER

The Financial Report coming from the English Bishop in Jerusalem, closing the year ending March 31st, 1923, is gratifying to us of Los Angeles because it shows our Diocese as second on the list of largest givers to the missionary work in the Holy Land.

New York stands first with contributions amounting to $1000. Los Angeles comes next with $916.50 to its credit. And it is pleasant to note that the third on the list is our Mother Diocese of California with $777 donated.

Our gifts for that year, amounting to $916, do not all appear in my previous reports to the Convention. Beyond what monies passed through my hands, I can only learn of the additional credits to us from the Financial Report of the Bishop of Jerusalem. But I take it as part of my office to note these credits as an approach to exactness in reporting to the Convention what our Diocese is doing in this particular work.

Thus in the amount reported above are included not only contributions handled by me, but, also contributions sent to Jerusalem by our people through the Foreign and Domestic Missionary Society and in other ways.

Where gifts for the Near East Relief have been sent we may be confident of the wise distribution of them through Bishop MacInnes.

The list of the offerings during the Convention year just closed is subjoined.

For brevity's sake, I shall refer to only a few of them, though the entire list makes a happy showing. Only yesterday I was gladdened by an offering from one of our youngest Missions, that of St. Mark's, Downey.

I want to mention the generosity of St. John's Mission, Sawtelle; Trinity, Escondido; the Church of the Messiah, Santa Ana; All Saints, Pasadena, with its offering of $101, and above all, All Saints', Montecito, with its gift of $192.

The offerings total $764.50, an excellent showing in this period of our unusual activity in church building.

As we think upon the Jerusalem work I wish we might repeat the Nunc Dimittis:

Lord, now lettest Thou Thy servant depart in peace;
According to Thy Word.
For mine eyes have seen Thy salvation,
Which Thou hast prepared before the face of all people.
A light to lighten the Gentiles,
And the Glory of Thy People Israel.

To us has come the enlightenment; Israel was chosen of God for the Glory of giving to the world the Man Jesus Christ, our blessed Lord and Saviour.

In all Palestine there are 700,000 inhabitants, of whom only 77,000 are Christians.

Let us delight in helping Israel to know the glory granted them of God and of which they have yet so limited vision.

The report of the Church Extension Society was presented by the Rev. J. D. H. Browne. Received. (Appendix 24.)

The Rev. Mr. Browne moved that the following gentlemen be appointed Directors of the Society for the ensuing year: The Bishop, the Very Rev. Dr. MacCormack, the Rev. J. D. H. Browne, Dr. Dotten, Alfred Fletcher, Mr. H. E. Brett, L. S. Porter, C. M. Gair, M. A. Albee. Adopted.

The report of the County and City Mission Society was presented by the Rev. V. D. Ruggles. Received. (Appendix 25.)

The report of the Directors of the Corporation was presented by Mr. M. A. Albee. Received. (Appendix 26.)

The Bishop nominated the Rev. J. Arthur Evans to serve on the Board of Examining Chaplains for a term of four years. On motion the appointment was confirmed.

Mr. A. W. Morgan moved, seconded by Dean Barnes, that a cordial vote of thanks be extended to the Rector, the Vestry, and the Woman's Guild of St. John's Parish for their generous hospitality accorded to the Convention, and for the use of their Church and buildings. Adopted.

The Rev. F. U. Bugbee moved that the Secretary be requested to write a letter to the Rev. George W. Dunlap, expressing the sympathy of the members of the Convention with him in his illness and their hope and prayer that he may be speedily restored to health.

The Bishop Coadjutor expressed the gratitude and thanks of the Bishops to the Rector and Parish of St. John's Church for their cordial entertainment of the Convention.

The Rev. Dr. Davidson extended an invitation to the Convention to meet at St. John's next year—heartily but provisionally, in the event of St. Paul's Cathedral not being yet ready for occupancy.

The Rev. R. L. Windsor moved that the reading of this day's minutes be dispensed with, and that they be certified by the Chair. Adopted.

On motion, Convention adjourned—subject to the call of the Bishop—the Gloria in Excelsis being sung, and the Bishop Coadjutor pronouncing the blessing.

Attest:

ALFRED FLETCHER, Secretary.

JOSEPH H. JOHNSON,
President of the Convention.

On Thursday evening the Convention dinner was held at Harvard School, there being a large number of the clergy and lay members of the Church in attendance. It was an open meeting of the Diocesan Men's Club, given as a reception to Bishop and Mrs. Johnson, and to the Bishop Coadjutor and Mrs. Stevens.

Mr. William J. Currer, President of the Club, deferred to Bishop Johnson, who introduced the speakers.

Inspiring addresses were given by Dean MacCormack, Dean Barnes, the Rev. Benjamin T. Kemerer, Rector of St. Clement's Church, El Paso, Texas, and by Bishop Stevens.

APPENDIX 1

THE BISHOP'S ADDRESS

Dear Brethren of the Clergy and Laity:

I presume that it has been assumed by some of you who are present here to-day that I shall speak somewhat at length concerning some of the questions now attracting attention in many parts of our Church, both at home and abroad. I cannot do so, for I feel that this pulpit at such a time and on such an occasion does not lend itself gracefully to controversial purposes. What could I say more than that consistency demands a reiteration at definite places in public and private worship of the Church's phraseology until such time as the Church may herself change the time-honored definition of the traditional faith. We are here to-day in a corporate way to manifest the Church's truth, and as a body we must emphasize every angle of the faith concerning which we are at one. On the other hand, there are differences of views with reference to many aspects of the faith concerning which the Church has always accorded its members, assuming Divine guidance, the right to think at will. I cannot feel that this Convention of Church people could be edified by a discourse that seemed to be unmindful of the Church's generous spirit. The policy of the Church should be to perpetuate its own method which implies a desire to include within the fold, rather than to exclude from the fold, every man who loves God with his mind as well as with his heart and soul; provided, always, loyalty to the Church's accepted standards is given proper recognition. I have, I believe, in the few moments at my command, higher things to speak of to-day than those which an acrimonious, controversial spirit would suggest as possible topics for this address.

The year that lies behind us has had its sad and awful experiences. Those experiences constantly thrust themselves into our memories with a force that cannot be averted. Those days in the late summer when the sorrows of our sister nation, Japan, were always before us are awful ones to recall; and yet, perhaps out of that experience has come as much, if not more, to make us realize the common Fatherhood of the Great Jehovah and the Universal Brotherhood of Man than any other of the forces that have ever been effective in moulding humanity into a race.

However, when all this has been recognized and appreciated, the decade, which began in 1914 and through which we are passing, may be passing without leaving its imprint upon the conscious mind of this generation as it should. God forbid that such should be the case but, if it be a fact, let us face it with courage. The disruption, if not the actual destruction, of so many things that men have deemed always permanent is in such mighty and over-powering evidence during these days that it would seem that men everywhere would be forced to acknowledge that, unseen and back of all human life, there is a supreme power at work in whose hands lie all of the final destinies of man's past and present and future. It would seem that that conclusion could not be escaped. That is the lesson that our reformers,—social, economic and civic, should learn by the picture back to which we look through these last ten years; and that should be the continuous message of the Church to the World at large. Men are apprehensive for the future, and well they may be. The smug, self-satisfied and apparently moribund age that preceded our own handed down to us in the present generation a vast number of unsolved problems which, for several generations, had been crying for solution in evils horribly manifested in daily life. Whatever we may think of the justice of their inferences from the abuses to which they turned men's eyes, still, it was a fact that Dickens and Thackeray and Zola and Balzac and dozens of other novelists could and did touch hundreds of festering sores in current life. The race, however, had become acquiescent. It had arrived at the conclusion that things were bad, but that they could not be helped, and that to offer to help them was as a policy chimerical. Such a situation was passed on to us to face. Now, just here, let me draw your attention to the solution that our immediate fore-fathers attempted to use that they might remedy existent evils. So far as they went, their policies were splendid, but they lacked one thing. The story of the human mind's clever attempt to abate evils, and to set free nature's hidden forces, is the story of the most wonderful period in the career of man of which we have any record. It is commonplace to speak of steam and electricity, and of the instruments through which these forces first functioned and literally jumped into marvelous activity. But, because of this, just here the world was beguiled. Through the activities of these only recently appreciated forces were the problems which our ancestors passed on to us to be solved. They imagined that the world was to become a different world by making it a more comfortable, pleasant and agreeable place to live in. Men were to labor fewer hours and all leisure so secured was to be divested of struggle. This life-modifying philosophy of our Fathers, however, had wholly to do with physical and material conditions, and therein lay its mistake. To be sure, by it life would be shorn of much of its discomforts. Indeed, all life would take on a new charm by changing its environment, but such a method as the one they contemplated would have been little short of tinkering with great evils without even making an attempt to eradicate them from human experience. That, however, would have been but a partial treatment of serious evils. It did not touch the heart of things. These men did not fully grasp that idea. These men did not see that if the new Jerusalem is to be built up, either here or elsewhere, it cannot be made up out of sinners still unredeemed and unchanged; and that, I affirm, is the lesson which this generation must learn. World Courts and Alliances are splendid and important agencies looking to the end to be achieved, but the message of Christ to the World is, that perfect society can only be built up upon a foundation of perfected humanity. My brethren, this is what God, through His prophets and teachers, has always been saying to the world. This decade has shown us that the God who has thus spoken has power in His hand to command. Hitherto He has come to us in the still, small voice of love; now He has come to us in a voice equally loving but, what is more important, it is instinct with power, and the generation will ignore this message at its peril.

The World cannot realize an ideal that is in accord with God's purpose or worth-while to create by elaborate reforming theories concerning perfection. Nations may be more comfortable whose labor-saving machinery is more perfect than such machines have been in the past years. Her furnaces and reapers and binders, her vacuum cleaners and laundry equipment; her governmental policies as to suffrage and taxation may give her comfort; but they cannot give her peace. In the conflicts which are disrupting society, we must go deeper than these external changes in surface evils for a remedy for the real ills of life that will bring us permanent satisfaction. The gift of joy either now or hereafter will come only to a world that is transformed by the regenerating grace of God. We need to go back to the fact that peace is only promised to those who believe that God is and is a rewarder of all who faithfully call upon Him.

My brethren of the Clergy, give that message to your people throughout this year when, to meet existing evils, our political leaders may forget the pregnant lesson of the decade. Strive to make men believe that to believe in Christ is to believe in an ever-present, all-powerful God whose Word is law and who, in the affairs of men, must be obeyed; that a nation is under a curse which forgets God, and that no nation will ever achieve success that does not in all consistency recognize that the Lord God Omnipotent reigneth, and that joy only comes to the individual or the people who keep this fact in mind.

There is also another thought which I desire to emphasize.

It may be a very commonplace affirmation, but still it is a fact that must be reaffirmed,—that the value of whatever we may think, or say, or do, finds its final test in the effect that our thoughts, words and deeds have upon our current and present life.

I have but little concern for a hypothetical Heaven, provided for those who have passed beyond this phase of the present life, if it minimizes the civilization which we are commanded to build up here on Earth. If, in order to enhance the lure of a future Heaven, a tendency is given and emphasized to make our civilization here upon this Earth of less importance than any phase of life that must follow our present period of existence, then a great menace has been offered to the cause—for the promotion of which the Church has been commissioned to bear its witness.

I have repeatedly alluded to this fact, since I feel that its value cannot be overestimated. Whatever is assured to us, in the nature of joy in the future, is assured to us upon the condition that life, before the event we call death takes place, should have prepared the way for the appreciative enjoyment of the Heaven that lies beyond. We shall be admitted into the land where there are many Mansions upon the one condition that we shall have endeavored to throw all the forces of this, our present life, into the effort to make this life, with its civilization, a forerunner of the life that is to come.

I think I may say that I have had some such thought as that in my mind as, through all these years, I have been planning for the building up of the Church here in Southern California. I have assiduously avoided the temptation to do the things that arouse the wonder of the great masses who, in the nature of things, are disposed to be moved by the size of an effort rather than by the truth upon which it is based. I have always felt strongly that premature struggles to build up or beautify structures, whose actual need and value were not apparent, were unwise. I have been aware of a latent criticism of the Church's life here in Southern California. There has been at times extant a feeling that our Church buildings should be bigger and more distinguished than they were, and it may be true that many of our Church buildings have been unimportant in appearance; but, notwithstanding this criticism, I have invariably urged caution, feeling that in God's own time the need for the creation of material instruments, helpful toward the advancement of the great work we have to do, such as Churches, Guild Halls, and ecclesiastical equipment, would become apparent; and in God's own way they would take adequate shape and form. What has especially concerned me has been that our people should be brought to rally to the support of the great principles of the Church and the Gospel for which the Church stands, and that the effort should be made by our Clergy to mould and to shape into compacted life the congregations which have been built up and founded in so many places. It might easily have happened that our Church people would have been scattered to the winds and so lost to the Church as vital, spiritual forces. I wish I could say that this had not often been the case, but I must admit it to be a fact that, in this looser sort of life which we are living here in this new Country, the old attachments are forgotten and new ones are formed; and so, much to our loss, the Church frequently faces defections to aggregations of men which have gone after new and strange gods—of those who in their earlier years have been trained in our ways. However large and perplexing the task may have been, still I think it will be admitted that we have been able to keep in loyal attachment to the Church a sufficient number of Church people to place the Diocese far in the lead of most of the Dioceses of our Church west of the Alleghany Mountains, and that we may congratulate ourselves over the record which has made this possible. It is useless to spend much time in the manipulation of figures. The fact that we are in this day giving evidences of the interest of our people in the Church's life, which will stand the test established by our Lord Himself in the words "by their fruits ye shall know them", is about all that is necessary for us to do at the present time; and I know of no better illustration of this fact than that, in the past, as soon as we have been able to do so, the Church has begun to erect, and has erected, structures commensurate with its dignity, and that now, to-day, in the present time there are Churches, fine and splendid ones, too, being built upon four different sites either in or within a short distance of this City; and that in addition to this work the building of several other structures of a similar character is contemplated in the near future. Plans have already been made for these Churches, and there is every assurance that, before many months shall have passed, these contemplated buildings will be well under way.

Our Hospital is also extending the scope of its work in several directions. We shall soon require a much larger building than the one which we now occupy and, having that fact in mind, we are creating conditions that will enable us to care for any number of patients for whose welfare we shall be asked to provide. We have purchased land adequate to our needs, and within six months a Nurses' Home of splendid proportions, already well on the way of construction, is likely to be finished and occupied. In it, single rooms with the assurance of privacy with every comfort of a hotel, will afford housing for about one hundred nurses. The responsibility for the care and training of our nurses is a primary one, and I believe that we have planned wisely for all that the immediate future will demand of us.

The Schools of the Diocese were never in a more wholesome condition than they are in to-day. The Homes for the young and the aged are meeting splendidly the obligations resting upon them, and all this is being done without what might seem to be excessive demands upon our people. For all of which let us give thanks to Almighty God.

Let us, as I close my address, call to mind, and in God's presence, those whom God has called from their active ministry on Earth:

April 17, 1923; Daniel Sylvester Tuttle, D. D., LL. D., D. C. L., Presiding Bishop of the American Church.

February 14, 1923; Charles David Williams, D. D., Fourth Bishop of Michigan.

April 14, 1923; G. Mott Williams, D. D., Bishop in charge of the American Church in Europe.

April 30, 1923; Alfred Harding, D. D., Second Bishop of Washington.

In November, 1923, Granville Hudson Sherwood, D. D., Bishop of Springfield, Illinois.

In December, 1923, Edward Arthur Temple, D.D., Bishop of North Texas.

These our Fathers in God each and all have left to their several flocks a beautiful legacy of work wisely conceived and carefully executed. God grant to them eternal life and peace and let light perpetual shine upon them.

APPENDIX 2

THE BISHOP COADJUTOR'S ADDRESS

1924

Every thoughtful Christian has moments of heart-searching as to the position of the Church in human society. Great programs of political, commercial and ethical effort are projected and in some measure carried through without the cooperation of Christian forces being given, or even asked for. There are two things to be said in this connection.

First: The influence of Christianity is not limited to official action. Says the Bishop of Pretoria: "The Church as the organ of the Kingdom is within the body of secular life. True, it has no pattern to impose on the secular arts and sciences; no patent remedy for statesmen or business men to swallow; no short cut to Utopia to proffer; yet it is within the secular process leavening the whole dough, transfusing new life into the cells and arteries of the body politic, penetrating and transforming everything. This it does by the characters of individual who, as members, are (the unofficial) representatives of itself. They find themselves relieved of no fraction of the normal task of mastering the secular arts of life. . . . But Christians who are brought, by due qualification, right inside the secular sphere, transform it from within by the vehement virus of lives dominated by a motive other than self. They themselves make all the difference by the judgment that they bring to bear on every question. They re-direct life's energies; alter its values; consolidate it by honor and trust-worthiness; sweeten it by comradeship and kindness; enhearten it by faith and hopefulness; cleanse it by humor; glorify it by sacrificial public spirit. Thus they apply Christianity to life. Thus the Kingdom of God is extended. Thus Heaven invades the Earth."

Second: The Church has its own program, the carrying out of which is infinitely more important than cooperation with innumerable secular schemes and plans, however attractive their veneer of idealism may make them. Locally and nationally Christian forces tend to be more sensitive to a lack of Christian influence in secular projects than to a lack of virility in its own mission. We are so eager to have the Church play its part in outside interests that we allow ourselves to be patronized and exploited by forces alien to the spirit of Jesus Christ. A pat on the back from some one of prominence in the philosophical or scientific world means more to some of us than that "vehement virus" of Christian discipleship of which Bishop Talbot speaks. You may recall Harnack's story of the man who expressed the wish that a certain inconvenient theologian would go over to the philosophical faculty; for then, he said, "instead of an unbelieving theologian we should have a believing philosopher." Many of us are worse than that; we are willing to sell out everything for the detached approval of the outside world.

The Christian program is the thing of consequence, and with the task of world conquest before us we must not be fooled into believing otherwise.

There are many questions of concern before the citizens of Southern California,—political, educational and commercial. It is right for Christian men and women to be interested in them. We ought to be more interested than we are. The doubt that looms large in my own mind, however, is as to the importance to Christian people of many of these things as compared with the Church's task of preaching the whole Gospel to the whole world. In any case, let us keep our minds clear as to the fact that if the Church's program is worth anything, it is worth everything. Like the Gospel itself it is of supreme consequence or it is nothing. How do we regard it? The answer may be found in some degree in the response of the Parishes and Missions of the Diocese to the Church's call.

THE GENERAL CHURCH PROGRAM

The year 1923 has shown a marked advance in the Diocesan offerings for the program. You have all shared in the desire of the Bishops to reach the budget part of our apportionment. The apportionment, as you know, is laid upon us in two divisions,—the first covering our share of those items which the National Council is obligated for and the other representing our part of those projects which the Church ought to undertake. At the present time the prospects are that we will pay within $4,000 of our budget quota. It would be a highly desirable thing if we could adopt some policy that would enable us to meet the whole amount. Our present need is more education as to what the Campaign is. We must not assume that the rank and file of the laity know all about it. A protest made to me in a certain Mission not long ago against "sending money to the heathen" indicates how great the need of education is,—education extending throughout the year. What we have been doing along this line shows results. The returns from the last recent canvass indicate that 64 Parishes and Missions have pledged $78,150 with a promise of $3,800 as against $73,451 from the same group last year. That means that, if the rest of the Diocese does as well in proportion, we may meet our budget quota for 1924.

Church Extension in the Diocese is absolutely dependent upon our support of the Program. Something will be accomplished by the individual appeals of our various institutions, but proper attention to our opportunities can be given only when each Parish and Mission meets its quota.

IMPROVEMENTS IN CHURCH FABRICS

The three large Church buildings, begun about a year ago,—St. Paul's Cathedral, St. John's, Los Angeles, and All Saints', Pasadena, are nearing completion, and before another Convention, will be in use. It is not necessary to say in this company that they will be a great credit to the Diocese. The foundations of the new St. Stephen's Church, Hollywood, have been completed and work will soon begin on the superstructure. St. Luke's Mission, Calexico, has completed a new combined Church and Parish House. Emmanuel Mission, El Monte, has purchased a building from the Presbyterians and has remodeled it for the services of the Church. St. Mark's Church, Glendale, has been remodeled and changed to its great advantage. St. Andrew's Church, Los Angeles, has secured a new lot and, using some of its old buildings as a nucleus, has completed what is one of the finest small churches in the entire Diocese; St. Clement's, Huntington Park, has done much the same thing in addition to becoming a Parish; St. Mark's Mission, Van Nuys, has built an attractive combination Church and Parish House. St. John's, Wilmington, has added a Parish House to its equipment, as well as a comfortable rectory. A new Church building has been erected for the congregation of St. Andrew's, Fullerton; Holy Trinity Church, Covina, has built a new Rectory. A number of Churches and Missions have purchased new lots and are contemplating new projects of one sort or another.

I confess to occasional moments of discouragement that we are not able to do more to meet the tremendous demands of our rapidly-growing Diocese. But when I recall what we have done I am cheered. During the last three years we have built or begun fifteen new Churches and twelve new Parish Houses. I doubt if any Diocese in the country can equal this record. It is no true indication of spiritual progress to build Churches, Rectories and Parish Houses, but it does provide a certain measure of our zeal to make the Church we love a force in the life of Southern California. I cannot refrain from re-emphasizing this year the need of securing strategic locations for Church buildings. My appeal of last year has borne some fruit. A layman has given unusually good lots for the Mission at Torrance. A devoted woman has given a check for a first payment on a lot and asked that she be allowed to care for future payments. Other gifts have been promised or considered. May this spirit of helpfulness and vision increase!

Though not in the line of parochial development I wish to say a word about two of our diocesan institutions in which the Bishop of the Diocese has asked me to show a special interest. The Girls' Friendly Lodge now has a magnificent piece of property worth fifty or sixty thousand dollars. Their equity in the property is not large, but their share is a very valuable asset and the building on the property has proved to be remarkably well-adapted to Lodge purposes. A second building is now being remodeled and within a few weeks the Lodge will house thirty-five or more girls.

The Seamen's Church Institute has amply justified the interest and attention that have been shown it. New buildings are being secured which will make the Institute the third largest in the country, New York and Philadelphia alone exceeding it in size. I ask the Convention's attention to the reports of these two institutions which seem destined to be as effective and well-organized as the splendid older institutions of the Diocese.

HONOR MISSIONS

It is our hope that each year will show a larger number of Missions assuming a greater share of the Vicar's stipend. There are thus far three Missions on this year's honor roll. St. John the Baptist's Church, Corona; Christ Church, Redondo (which will assume the entire salary of its Missionary); and St. Clement's Church, Huntington Park, which is relinquishing all Diocesan aid, and is applying for admission as a Parish into union with this Convention. I trust there will be more during the year. It would be beneficial, I believe, if every Mission could have a Parish meeting before its budget is prepared for the Every Member Canvass just for the purpose of considering its responsibility towards the Diocese and the possibility of assuming a larger share of the Mission's support.

CHURCH ARCHITECTURE

The present program of Church building in the Diocese requires renewed attention to the whole subject of Church architecture. The next decade will determine the character of our ecclesiastical edifices for the next two or three generations. We must make no mistakes and, in order that we may not, I am asking that the Clergy and Vestries of the Diocese take advantage of our Canon on architecture which provides that the officers of Missions must lay all plans for building or alteration before the Commission on Church Architecture, and recommends that officers of Parishes shall confer with the said Commission. The object obviously is to prevent mistakes and to create a standard of taste. The Commission is not concerned with styles or periods necessarily. It is possible to follow the traditions of Anglican Christianity on the one hand, or the traditions and culture of our environment on the other. The important thing is to make every building good of its kind, whether it be Gothic, Southern European or Mission. Nor is the Commission concerned with the expense of a building. Obviously, a temporary structure costing a thousand or two dollars cannot be elaborated as to style, but it can be so constructed that it is not ugly. Such a building as Mr. Winslow has constructed for Beaumont is an illustration of what can be done to provide a combination Parish House and Church for a very little money. If the Commission on Church Architecture is to function, it must be consulted before plans are ready for the contractor. It is not fair to the members of the Commission to expect them to give a mere formal approval after the drawings have been made and accepted when rejection or alteration would mean delay or miscarriage in the project. The ultimate solution may be the provision of satisfactory plans, allowing for varying needs and financial resources. The Editor of the "California Southland" has interested herself in such a program and, with the cooperation of a Los Angeles architect, is experimenting along this line. The Diocese of Colorado has issued a booklet of plans for the use of any congregations that may care to use them. The latter plans are not altogether adapted to our needs and it is my hope that we may issue something of the same sort that will meet the requirements of Southern California.

In the great edifices now being built in Los Angeles and Pasadena, we are setting a high standard. Let us maintain it throughout the entire Diocese.

CLERICAL CHANGES

During the year there have been, I believe, fewer changes in the personnel of our Clergy than in any year since I assumed office.

The Rev. Perry G. M. Austin has assumed charge of St. Luke's Church, Long Beach; the Rev. M. K. Crawford has resigned the work in the Imperial Valley and is in charge of the Mission of the Advent, Los Angeles; the Rev. F. B. Cannon is now in charge of the Imperial Valley Missions; the Rev. W. A. A. Shipway has assumed the rectorship of Holy Trinity Church, Covina; the Rev. G. C. Rafter is now Curate of St. James and St. Barnabas' Church, Los Angeles; and the Rev. G. R. Messias is assisting the Rector of All Saint's Church, Montecito, by officiating at Carpinteria. The Rev. M. D. Kneeland has resigned his curacy of Trinity Church, Los Angeles; the Rev. Cyril Boddington the assistantship of St. Paul's Cathedral; and the Rev. Benjamin J. Darneille the curacy of St. John's Church, Los Angeles. After a long incumbency the Rev. Harry Thompson has resigned the cure of the Church of the Angels, Los Angeles, and has become Vicar Emeritus. The Rev. Dr. George Wallace who for some time conducted services at Ocean Beach has relinquished the duty, which has been assumed by the Rev. A. C. Dodd of Oceanside. The Rev. H. E. Clowes, while not technically Rector of St. Matthew's Church, National City, has carried on its services for a long period at great sacrifice and with no remuneration. His strength is no longer equal to the work, and National City will have a Priest who will divide his time with Bostonia.

Our Secretary of Christian Education and Social Service has resigned to accept a similar position in North Carolina. We have suffered a distinct loss in his departure. When I came to the Diocese, in 1920, the Bishop assigned me the task of filling the position which had been created by the Convention. It took a long time to secure the right type of man. Mr. Scovil seemed to possess the qualifications and his work amply justified that impression.

CLERICAL QUALIFICATIONS

The character and qualifications of clergy coming into the Diocese deserve consideration. There is no lack of candidates for positions. The problem is to find the men who possess the peculiar qualities that fit them for this field.

We need men who can teach. The teaching function of the ministry is important always. It is particularly so in these days of controversy. Personally, I am quite willing that the arena of theological conflict shall remain on the Atlantic Coast. Our job here is too big to be interrupted. At the same time the laity are asking questions. They want instruction and are demanding ministers of conviction who will teach the people committed to their care and charge with diligence.

We need men who have the spirit of Christian love. The clergy sometimes forget that in their ordination vows they promise to maintain and set forward, as much as lieth in them, quietness, peace and love among all Christian people, and especially among them that are or shall be committed to their charge. Many a good teacher of the Word fails because he cannot speak in love. The Episcopal Church is inclusive. It allows many varieties of Churchmanship. The Diocese of Los Angeles has always pursued a tolerant, comprehensive policy. One type of Churchman we do not want, however; that is, the Hard Churchman. The conditions under which we are working require unusual patience, sympathy and tact.

We need men of diligence. There is a common impression in certain parts of the country that clergy who have done their bit in the Middle West and East can find here clerical opportunities offering a maximum of enjoyment and a minimum of effort. That impression must be corrected. We who are here know how false it is. Every man has a right to enjoy the blessings of Southern California and to bask in its sunshine, but it is not fair to the Diocese to expect to enjoy the privilege at its expense. We want workers who will remember their vow to see that they never cease their labor, their care and their diligence until they have done all that lieth in them to bring all such as are or shall be committed to their charge into agreement in the faith and knowledge of God and to ripeness and perfectness of age in Christ.

There are many other qualifications which I could suggest and many which we can take for granted. These seem of especial importance for our generation and our field of effort. Every Diocese creates its own atmosphere. This Diocese has had in Bishop Johnson a leader who has been a teacher of diligence and Christian love. He has created a spirit here that we cannot afford to lose. May that spirit be maintained by us who, through him, entered into a such a goodly heritage.

I have only a few words to say in conclusion concerning the recent controversies. Controversy in itself is not an evil. Its manifestations may be unpleasant and even unchristian, but behind it may be a real interest in and devotion to the cause of Religion which are absent in quieter days. The danger lies in a neglect of the Holy Spirit. So much of the recent discussion has been marked on both sides by a curious combination of smugness and panic, and suggests at once a lack of a sense of sin and of an adequate faith. The true conservative has no fear for truth any more than the true liberal, for both are conscious of living in a spirit-filled world, and both are moved by a sense of sin and the need for repentance, above and beyond all the externals of religious life. Said M. Sabatier,—“That which alienates our young democracies from the Churches is not their faith, but incredulity. It is not the height of their ideal but the mechanical and too easily realizable element in that ideal.” The fundamental problem of Religion is Sin which, to the Christian, is whatsoever does not proceed from faith.

It would be foolish to say that there ought not to be discussion among us on theological questions. I hope there will be. But let it be in a spirit of love with a jealous care for first things, and a determination that nothing shall interfere with our task of helping men to increase their fitness to enter fully into the life of the City of God, and let it be in the spirit of humility.

“And captains that we thought were dead,
And dreamers that we thought were dumb,
And voices that we thought were fled,
Arise and call us and we come:
And, “Search in thine own soul,” they cry;
“For there, too, lurks thine enemy.”
Search for the foe in thine own soul.
The sloth, the intellectual pride,
The trivial jest that veils the goal
For which our Fathers lived and died:
The lawless dreams, the cynic’s art,
That rend thy noble self apart.

APPENDIX 3

REPORT OF THE STANDING COMMITTEE

The first meeting was held February 12, 1923. The Rev. Dr. M. C. Dotten was elected president and the Rev. Dr. R. B. Gooden secretary for the ensuing year. Consent was given to St. Matthias' Church, Whittier, to mortgage the property for $8,000 in order to build a new church and parish house. Mr. William J. Curren, a postulant for Holy Orders, was recommended to the Bishop to be received as a candidate for Holy Orders.

The second meeting was held April 5, 1923. Consent was given to St. Mark's Church, Pasadena, to mortgage their property, exclusive of the church lot, for a sum not to exceed $3,000, in order to build a new parish house.

The third meeting was held April 26, 1923. A vote of sympathy was given to Dr. Dotten because of his illness. Mr. Albert K. Mathews, Chaplain (Captain) in the U. S. Army, a postulant for Holy Orders, was recommended to the Bishop to be received as a candidate for Holy Orders. The time of Mr. Mathews' candidatuship was shortened to six months.

The fourth meeting was held on May 29, 1923. Mr. S. M. Pargellis, a postulant for Holy Orders, was recommended to the Bishop to be received as a candidate for Holy Orders. Mr. Arthur C. Dodge, a candidate for Holy Orders, was recommended to the Bishop for ordination to the diaconate. Mr. Dodge's candidacy was shortened to six months. The secretary was instructed to send a note of sympathy to Dr. Dotten because of his illness.

The fifth meeting was held June 18, 1923. The time of the candidatuship of Mr. Arthur Cotter was shortened to six months, and he was recommended to the Bishop for ordination to the diaconate. Consent was given to the election of a Bishop Coadjutor for the Diocese of New Jersey. The Rev. J. Arthur Evans was requested to act as president of the Standing Committee during the illness of Dr. Dotten.

The sixth meeting was held July 17, 1923. In a letter, the Rev. Dr. Dotten expressed his thanks and appreciation for the sympathy shown to him during his illness. He offered his resignation from the Standing Committee which was unanimously declined. The secretary was instructed to write to Dr. Dotten and renew the expressions of sympathy and esteem. Consent was given to St. Stephen's Church, Hollywood, to mortgage their property for $50,000 in order to build a new church.

The seventh meeting was held on September 18, 1923. A letter was received from Dr. Dotten, saying that his health was improving and expressing his appreciation to the Standing Committee for declining to accept his resignation. Consent was given to the election and consecration of the Rev. Robert E. L. Strider to be Bishop Coadjutor of West Virginia.

The eighth meeting was held on October 2, 1923. Consent was given to the election and consecration of the Rev. Frank William Sterritt to be Bishop Coadjutor of Bethlehem. A special committee with power to act was appointed to look into the matter of the request made by St. John's Mission, Sawtelle, to sell the present church property on Santa Monica Boulevard in order to purchase other property for church purposes.

The ninth meeting was held October 25, 1923. Consent was given to St. Clement's Mission, Huntington Park, to organize as a parish with bounds as stated in the petition. Consent was given to the election and translation of the Rt. Rev. Herman Page, D.D., Bishop of Spokane, to the Bishop of Michigan. Consent was given to St. James' Church, South Pasadena, to mortgage their property for $10,000 in order to make building improvements.

The tenth meeting was held December 17, 1923. Consent was given to the election of a Bishop Coadjutor for the Diocese of Montana. Consent was given to the election and consecration of the Rev. Dr. Reifsnider to be a Suffragan Bishop in the diocese of Tokyo, Japan, and to the election and consecration of the Rev. Edward M. Frost to be the Missionary Bishop of Spokane, and to the election of the Rt. Rev. Manuel Ferrando to be a Suffragan Bishop in the Missionary District of Porto Rico. A letter from the secretary of the San Diego Convocation, relative to the readjustment of the parish bounds of the city of San Diego, was referred to the Committee on Canons. A committee with power to act was appointed to look into the matter of the petition from the rector, wardens, and vestrymen of Trinity Church, Los Angeles, to sell part of the church property.

The eleventh meeting was held on January 21, 1924. Permission was given to St. Stephen's Church, Hollywood, to mortgage the church property for a sum not to exceed $75,000 for the purpose of building and completing a new church. Mr. Edric Amory Weld, a postulant for Holy Orders, was recommended to the Bishop to be received as a candidate for Holy Orders. The secretary was instructed to prepare a report of the proceedings of the Standing Committee during the past year to present to the twenty-ninth Annual Convention.

Respectfully submitted,

ROBERT B. GOODEN, Secretary.

APPENDIX 4

REPORT OF THE HOSPITAL OF THE GOOD SAMARITAN

During the year, 1923, 3,565 patients were admitted to the Hospital, 2,250 operations were performed, 493 babies were born, 98 patients (including babies) died.

The daily average number of patients was 128.2 (not including babies). The average length of stay in the hospital was 9.7 days. The last item is an index to the character of the work which the hospital undertakes to do.

So great is the demand in this city for hospital beds, that the hospital is obliged to limit its work to the care of short term acute medical and surgical cases and obstetrical cases.

The care of convalescent, chronic and long term incurable cases lies outside the scope of this hospital with its present equipment. No greater service could be rendered to the community than the establishment of an institution for convalescent and chronic patients and such an institution could well be made part of the work of this hospital.

Some of the problems which a modern hospital must face are suggested in the following selections from the annual report of the Superintendent:

"Hospitals are not what they were 10 years ago for they have incorporated many new departments to keep themselves abreast with the latest developments in Medicine so as to render to the sick everything that is known to science for their recovery.

"The Hospital is assuming its place as a public utility and as such is under continued observation by Government, State, American College of Surgeons and the American Medical Association. Inspecting as they do all departments, each department must function properly and keep up to date.

"The development of the Out-Patient Department as a preventive, as well as corrective agency, must be quickened in view of the ever-increasing emphasis placed on preventive work.

"The obligations of the hospital do not cease when the patient leaves the institution but should follow him into the home and supply the necessary instruction for after care. In many hospitals intensive training in food value and preparation is given for three days before the patient is ready to leave the hospital.

"Social Service, then, falls logically into the duties of the hospital and this department should have a definite place in hospital organization. Through it a Church Institution like our own can maintain a close relationship with all its constituency.

"In connection with Social Service the organization of Discharge Rounds and Follow-up work may be of very great service to patients and also to the Institution in the compilation of hospital statistics.

"An efficient Medical Department in any hospital which is keeping abreast of the rapid development in nutritional medicine cannot operate to maximum efficiency without an equally well-balanced dietetic department. It has been prophesied that the next ten years will see more rapid strides in this field of Medicine than any other, and it is conceded by scientific men that by advancing our knowledge along nutritional lines there is great hope for the building up of a physically more perfect race with bodies more capable of resisting disease."

The number of pupils in the School of Nursing is forty-seven, in addition to which number twenty-two graduate nurses are employed on general duty; the administrative staff numbers 12; the total nursing staff numbers, therefore, eighty-one.

A fine dormitory is being built adjoining the nurses' residence on Lucas street which will provide every comfort for the nurses and no doubt will have the effect of increasing the number of applicants for admission to the School of Nursing.

In three ways the Hospital is rendering public service of a kind that could not be rendered by a secular institution however adequately financed. Thus its existence as a Church institution and its claim for the support of the people of the Church are, we believe, abundantly justified.

(1) The Hospital affords to young women the opportunity of a training in nursing that is theoretically and technically thorough and, at the same time, recognizes as necessary to the complete equipment of a nurse a sympathetic spirit, integrity of character, and the religious motive. There is abundant reason to think that the surrounding of the nurses in their training with an atmosphere in which religion, while not obtruded, is constantly suggested, does have a definite result in imparting to their work that certain quality which is easily recognized, and for which no wages can pay. Since its founding the Hospital has graduated 314 nurses.

(2) The Hospital provides religious ministrations for such of the patients as desire them. The Holy Communion is celebrated on Friday mornings throughout the year and many patients in their rooms every week receive the Holy Communion. The changed mental attitude towards religion which is characteristic of the present day is very apparent in hospital work. Less and less is religion looked upon as a preparation for dissolution. More and more is it regarded as a resource for daily living and a factor in physical healing. The Hospital offers a great opportunity for the application of religion as a therapeutic agency in cooperation with the scientific work of the medical profession.

(3) The Hospital of the Good Samaritan as an institution of the Church is a strictly charitable institution. A certain amount of service is rendered each month either without cost or at reduced cost to patients admitted by special arrangement. This free or partially free work is carried on confidentially; there are no special beds for rooms labeled as "charity." A patient may be receiving free services and neither the nurses nor the patients in the next beds know anything about it. A large amount of free work is done.

A large amount of free work is done in the X-Ray and the Laboratory departments. Besides this all ward and two-bed room patients are carried at an actual loss. The value of free services in 1923 may be estimated therefore as follows:

Free hospital service.....	$ 8,140.56

APPENDIX 5
REPORT OF THE CHURCH HOME FOR CHILDREN
TEN YEARS OF BLESSINGS!

The history of which will be an account of the literal fulfillment of the promise, "Open thy mouth wide and I will fill it."

Recalled to this, my home Diocese, on account of a family bereavement in January, 1913, many cases were brought to my notice of children who needed to be sheltered in an institution. Failing to have any such, several of our Deaconesses and Church workers had been obliged to take a large number to Roman Catholic institutions. As the Roman Catholics shelter over seven hundred children in Los Angeles alone, this seemed an undue burden for them, and a distinct loss to our own Church. But there was nothing in prospect with which to undertake such a work.

However, there came a definite, insistent call which would not be put off. "Feed my lambs," was very clearly commanded. An appointment was made with the Bishop when he said that "If under the providence of God a home for children could be established in this Diocese," he, for his part, would be very thankful; for that very morning a mother had brought in a ten-year-old boy to him, and he had no place for him. My answer was that while I knew there was no money, land or house for such an undertaking—nothing but "five hens" which a friend had promised me—yet, if he felt that way about it, we would start the Home.

Our ideal has been to get as far away from the "institution" as possible, and approach as nearly as we could a normal home life.

The children come to us through the four ominous "d's"—divorce, desertion, death, disease. And we take these little units and try to weld them into one large family group. Our children are not available for adoption, as most of them have a living father or mother working for their support. We are constantly turning applicants away for lack of room. While we have a standard rate of board, the full amount is seldom received; the relatives pay as much as they can (and no child has ever been turned away for financial reasons). As we take no State, City or County money, over $400 a month is our "faith item," being met by voluntary contributions of church people. Several Scholarships have been established, and for these we are most thankful.

Throughout these ten years we have made it a practice to take all the children to the beach for a portion of the summer. Two different summers were spent in a "gypsy camp" at Santa Monica. But for six years, through the great kindness of Bishop Johnson and the school authorities, we have been able to spend a number of delightful weeks at the Bishop's School, La Jolla.

These summers by the sea are deeply appreciated, not only because they are so pleasurable, but because they are educational and health-giving.

As little people at home "have to have parties,"—so each individual birthday is remembered with presents, "cake and candies." When, this fall, we could count "ten" on the birthday of the C. H. C., we decided to have a "Birthday Cake" (but on paper) for the Home. This cake has 500 slices and interested friends have been taking these at $10 "a slice." There are yet 200 to be "spoken for" (the Bishop wishes No. 500). This $5,000 added to a promised memorial gift of $5,000, with another "in sight," will enable us to add the next unit to our South Wing and thus be able to accommodate more children.

The "Ingathering Day" offerings, given by the Church Schools the Sunday before Thanksgiving, are a tremendous help; as are those from the few individuals and Sunday Schools on the Twelve Times a Year Circle, the varied gifts from the different friends who make up the Inasmuch List each month, and those who remember the Home at the special seasons of Easter and Christmas.

Through the efforts of our efficient "Grounds Committee" our garden is beginning to present a pleasing appearance, and through the gifts of Mr. Lloyd Macy and Mr. Richard Muirhead, we now have a substantial driveway.

Twice since the tragic death of Conway Campbell-Johnston, the Board of Directors of the C. H. C. have been called upon to place on record their sense of loss in the summons of friends to that "sweet and blessed country." Very early in the morning of the day before "All Angels' Day," 1920, our Director, Augustine Campbell-Johnston, left us. He was a friend, steadfast and faithful; one who took pride in the children's every achievement, and we will carry in our hearts a lasting love and remembrance of the life gone from us. And in November, 1921, we were called upon to mourn the loss of our beloved "Fairy Godmother"—known to you as Mrs. C. S. Byington—she who made the opening of the Home possible and whose humility forbade us to mention her constant gifts, and whose love and interest in the little ones were unailing.

We feel that our greatest blessing is the number of our actively interested friends (including the members of our Board of Directors and our faithful little "Doctor"). The list is a goodly one and too long to mention here, but to each of them we send our loving thanks for what they have enabled to be accomplished in this Diocese for His "Little Ones."

EVELYN WILE, Deaconess.

REPORT OF HARVARD SCHOOL

The Harvard School on the Emery Foundation opened for the twenty-fourth year on September 18, 1923, with a full enrollment. There are at present 159 boarders and 137 day scholars enrolled in the school—a total of 296. Two hundred and twenty-one are in high school department and the others in the sixth, seventh and eighth grades. The student body is drawn from 14 states and countries and is a very representative student body. Religiously they are divided as follows:—Episcopal 108, Christian Science 48, Presbyterian 40, Methodist 30, Roman Catholic 25, Baptist 8, Congregational 7, Christian 4, Jewish 3, Lutheran 2, Brethren 1, Greek 1, Unitarian 1, Community 1, New Thought 1, Church of the Open Door 2, no church affiliation 14. Several parishes in the Diocese have students in the school and other Dioceses look to our Church school constantly as the one school in the West where they wish to send boys.

The faculty consists of twenty-five teachers, graduates of the following colleges: Trinity, Grove City, Princeton, University of Illinois, Harvard, University of Michigan, University of So. Calif., Northwestern University, University of California, Cornell, Lafayette College, University of Pittsburg, Cornell College, and Pomona College. Our teaching force is undoubtedly a strong one by comparison with any school, and from time to time other schools make offers to our teachers to get them away from us, but they seldom succeed.

We are making gradual efforts to raise our scholastic standards. It is our purpose to make Harvard School second to none in the entire country with respect to scholarship. The scholarship committee of the faculty, the honor society of the school, the pressure put upon the students, and the student body opinion tend constantly to place sound scholarship in the high place it should be. Last June we graduated forty boys, who later entered the following colleges: Temple University, Pittsburg College, California Institute of Technology, Stanford, University of Southern California, University of Colorado, Williams, Occidental College, University of Oregon, University of Nevada, Pomona College, Dartmouth, College of the Pacific, University of Pennsylvania, and Swarthmore College—while some entered the business world immediately.

The R. O. T. C. work of the school, carried on under the supervision of Colonel Easton, is admirable done. Military drill properly done, and not used merely as a means of discipline, develops valuable traits and habits, as well as an outward carriage that can be developed in no other way except with difficulty. In addition, our gymnasium work is far above the average, and is in charge of a former Olympic champion. I question whether his superior in this particular department could be found anywhere. In athletics Harvard holds its own with schools of similar and somewhat larger size. Our best have been champions, and our average is good. The chief value of our athletics lies in our particular organization, which reaches every boy in school. Last year there were only nine boys in the whole school who were not in some branch of outdoor sport. Our object is not to train a few super-boys but to interest every boy in doing something in clean outdoor sports.

I think it is fair to say that no school in Los Angeles has such a splendid site for school purposes. There is ample ground for all needs on our campus of nearly eleven acres. Some of our buildings are beautiful and entirely adequate. Some need to be replaced, and will be replaced as soon as it is wise from the business point of view. We hope in the immediate future to see a beautiful dormitory erected, which would be a credit to any institution anywhere.

The influence of the Church and the due recognition of spiritual values are the most important factors in the school, especially in the boarding department. There is a daily service in the chapel, which I venture to say is unique on the whole coast in heartiness and real response. No people are as truly responsive to the religious appeal as boys are, if the appeal is made in a proper manner; if it is made to their sense of the natural, normal and to-be-expected. There is a weekly Eucharist which is quite well attended, and a Sunday morning service with a sermon. In addition, two large Bible classes are conducted, and no boarding school pupil goes through the school without at least one full year of Bible study, though they generally have more. After all, the real thing is the spirit. The school is conducted under the shadow of the Church. Our lovely chapel with its cross is in plain sight all the time. The great recognition is made of the God and Father of us all in the Christian sense. The teachers are all Christian men. While nothing is perfect, the net influence for Christianity in general, and the Church in particular, is enormous. Our Church school is a missionary agency in a very real sense.

Respectfully submitted,

ROBERT G. GOODEN, Headmaster.

APPENDIX 8

REPORT OF THE NEIGHBORHOOD SETTLEMENT

This past year The Neighborhood Settlement has been dominated by two main ideas: First, to bring all of its work into coordination and cooperation with all lines of social work undertaken by the public and other associations having for their purpose the upbuilding of individual character and the development of the highest class of American citizenship. Second, the looking forward to the time when the changing character of the neighborhood from a largely residential community to an almost purely commercial district will deprive us of our neighbors and so make our presence there unnecessary.

In furthering the first idea of cooperation the Settlement offers the use of its many facilities,—its hall, its chapel, its library, its playground, its classes and lectures not only to its individual neighbors, but to the clubs, schools and various community activities of the neighborhood. In its hall an official public night school has been established; clinics connected with various branches of the Public Health Department are given accommodation and the use of the Settlement equipment.

The Bishop sent to us a Russian group to arrange for the use of the chapel in order that the scattered Russians of the city might have services in their own tongue. This was followed by a request for a room for the priest and his wife who was in San Francisco waiting for the day when they could be reunited. Finally, with many fears and misgivings, for the foreigner's ways are not our ways and Americanization at close range can be trying for both parties, the offer was made; the Russian priest came to the Settlement to live, was soon joined by his wife and shortly afterwards by his son. Another educated Russian refugee asked for room for his family that was waiting in China for an opportunity to get to America. This family has since been reunited at the Settlement. The Intellectuals among the refugees drift here to their Church and to their priest, and on Sundays there is a veritable crowd of them talking in groups on the playground. Recently, a group of musicians has arrived; there is no room for them to live at the Settlement, but they are making with their own hands in our workshop the necessary musical instruments to form a Russian orchestra, and before long this will be launched from The Neighborhood House. It is a great joy to be able to assist these gentle and refined people in any way great or small.

The looking-forward idea in our work has been developed in two directions. First, in the summer camp at Redondo Beach, where for several years the Settlement has largely transferred its summer activities. This year that camp has been made a permanent part of our work by the purchase of the ground upon which the camp is located, the use of which for years was donated by one of our volunteer workers, who is a most untiring friend. This year has seen there the erection of another large new building. From a few tents, the camp has grown so that now we have five buildings.

In considering that the time may come when the Settlement must change the location of its plant, it was thought advisable to have a home to which work and workers could be temporarily transferred while the Association could consider carefully a new location for their main work. For this temporary home a large house on Boyle Avenue, next to the Deaconess House, was purchased. This will be furnished and its rooms rented so that it will meet its own expenses until it is needed for our own people.

This has been a busy year, full of work, crowned by the blessing that service brings to all those who labor in His name.

DEACONESS MARY.

APPENDIX 9

REPORT OF THE BISHOP'S GUILD

During the year, 1923, the Bishop's Guild has continued its work along the same line as in past years. Its members are representative Churchwomen from nearly every city Parish, and many suburban parishes, and hold monthly business meetings presided over by Bishop Johnson or Bishop Stevens. The main achievement of the year has been to erect a new building to house the Episcopal Clothing Bureau, on the grounds of the Neighborhood Settlement, after occupying rented quarters across the street for eight years.

The building cost about $1,700, financed by Bishop Johnson, and all but $500 has been repaid him. There are three salaried employees, the manager, her assistant and the solicitor.

The total value of articles donated is $7,060.60; number of packages received, 3,145. Christmas distribution included thirty-nine baskets of provisions and 619 packages of clothing, all new garments, many of them contributed by the Needlework Guild. The cutting and sewing room, manned by volunteer workers, has sent out many hundreds of packages containing ready-cut garments, to be made by different Guilds and Auxiliaries.

The May Exhibit of Children's Clothing was held in St. Luke's Parish Hall, that of November in St. Thomas' Parish Hall, both having a good attendance and a fine showing of garments. The hospitality extended by the Guilds of both Churches made these occasions very delightful. The Hospital Chapter of the Bishop's Guild has continued its splendid work, visiting the General Hospital, the County Farm and Olive View Sanitarium, bringing good cheer, kind words and little gifts to the sick and needy.

At Christmas time, several hundred patients in the General Hospital were made happy.

The Bishop's Guild has taken especial interest in a crippled boy whose mother carried him to the Clothing Bureau about a year ago, and who now, after continuous treatment at the Orthopaedic Hospital, is so improved that he soon will be able to stand on his feet, and walk for the first time in his nine years of life. Appeals for help for this child have brought generous response from many sources.

The Bishop's Guild has helped in the following Social Service work: City and County Mission Society (for our Hospital Chapter), $205.00; Church Home for Children, $145.00; Girls' Friendly Society Lodge, $125.00; Milk for the kindergarten of the Seventh Street School, $120.00; elderly widow under the Bishop's care, $120.00; Thanksgiving, Christmas and Easter cheer, $139.79; three small gifts, $16.73; Bishop Johnson for his charities, $500.00—a total of $1,431.52.

The Treasurer's annual report shows a balance on hand, January 1, 1923, $1,028.52; Receipts, $7,314.85—total, $8,343.37. Expenditures, $8,199.60, of which $2,466.17 was for truckage, with a balance of $143.77 on January 1, 1924.

A member of the Bishop's Guild writes "Let us have a Church pride in making this a wonderful work, realizing that it does not interfere with anything or anybody; that through it the Bishop's hand reaches out, regardless of creed, race or color, to help humanity; that faithfully sending everything you do not want to the Episcopal Clothing Bureau, 2160 East Ninth St., and directing others to do likewise, is contributing to a very worthy cause which costs you only your loyalty and a telephone call."

APPENDIX 10

REPORT OF GIRLS' FRIENDLY SOCIETY

The past year has been filled with all sorts of problems—some bringing great joy in the fulfillment of long wished-for dreams; some of work advancing; some of work lagging behind. All have been of intense interest, all have been faced with courage and faith in the ultimate results, all have been worked out through earnest prayer and with much consecrated work.

I can give the highest praise to all officers, Heads of Departments and Branch Presidents.

Especially good work has been done this year by the Departments for Missions and Social Service, by the Board of Managers of the Lodge, by our wonderful Housemother at the Lodge and by the following Branches:—St. Mark's, Glendale; St. Athanasius', St. John's, St. Paul's and St. Matthias', Los Angeles; and the Church Home for children.

St. Mark's, Glendale and St. Paul's, Los Angeles, have added Candidate classes to their Branch work.

A few figures will be of interest to you.

Total gifts to Missions for 1923.....	$ 686.66
Total gifts to Social Service for 1923.....	562.54
Total gifts to the Lodge from Branches.....	1,014.55
Total number of Branches.....	12
Total membership of the G. F. S. in Diocese.....	312

Of course the focus of greatest activity and interest this year has been the Lodge.

First, the raising of the $12,000—which added to about $4,000 already in the bank, made it possible to purchase the Witmer property located at 1422 West 3rd St., Los Angeles. Then the remodeling of this house to adapt it to our needs and to the requirements of the Housing Commission and the Fire Department.

Next, the furnishing of that building and the securing of a Housemother.

The formal opening took place on June 9th in the form of a birthday reception to Bishop Johnson. From the moment of the opening the Lodge has been full, and has turned away many and many a girl, who wanted to find a home within its beautiful rooms. For they are beautiful, sunny and airy, with lovely views of trees and mountains and furnished in comfort and good taste.

The Lodge is open to all girls, who are over sixteen years of age and under thirty-five, irrespective of church affiliation. The girls, who have so far stayed at the Lodge, have been members of all the various churches, have been employed in all kinds of work and come from many different states, and even foreign countries.

The Lodge has been able to carry its own running expenses, with the income received from the $9.00 per week paid by each girl, but the expense of re-modeling, of taxes, of insurance, of interest on the mortgage and later on the payments on the principal, have had to be met by other means. In this year $20,000 has been given to the Lodge, not including gifts of furniture, and nearly all this has come from this Diocese.

Several months ago the Lodge Board decided to re-model the old garage, which is now just nearing completion, having been made into sixteen single and four double rooms. This brings our capacity up to 34 girls.

The present problems before the Board are the furnishing of these new rooms, the securing of an Assistant Housemother and the working out of a sound financial program for the future of the Lodge.

I am glad to report that all but seven of the rooms have been promised for furnishings. These are all single rooms and will cost $125 a piece.

We do need large or small money gifts, particularly to cover the cost of the re-modeling of the garage for which some money has had to be borrowed, and for the erection of a laundry, the cost of which will be about $400.

The Lodge has been indorsed the Social Service Commission of the City.

To those who have given toward the Lodge in money gifts, in interest and in prayers, we thank you, and extend to you our deepest appreciation, and we beg that you will feel that the Lodge is yours, open to you all at any time. Please visit it that your knowledge may be first hand, and that you may come to love it as do we, who have had the privilege of seeing its birth and infancy. We are looking forward to the not far distant day, when it will become strong enough to stand alone, and will need no more supporting hands and when it will become full-grown and be ministering to hundreds of girls rather than a score.

Respectfully submitted,

VIOLET B. STEVENS,

Diocesan President G. F. S. and Chairman Lodge Board.

APPENDIX 11

REPORT OF THE REGISTRAR

The Diocesan Files have been kept complete. Within a few weeks, the Journals and the Diocesan Library will be open for reference in the new quarters being prepared in the Cathedral House, 615 South Figueroa St.

Prayer Books and Hymnals have been distributed to the Missions as authorized.

Lay Readers' Licenses have been issued as applications have been made, and the renewals are complete.

Confirmations recorded: Male, 328; Female, 521; Total, 849; comprising 66 classes.

Respectfully submitted,

ROBERT L. WINDSOR, Registrar

APPENDIX 12

REPORT OF THE HISTORIOGRAPHER

It is commonly reported and believed that throughout the English-speaking portion of the world there has been a slump in spiritual force and service during the five years since the close of the great war.

Whether it be a mere coincidence, or whether there is a direct relation, there has been during these same five years a falling off, a notable decrease, in the number of Missions applying for admission to this Convention as Parishes.

At present there are 42 Parishes in union with the Convention, 29 of which have been admitted since the organization of the Diocese, in 1895, '28 years ago, and only one since the close of the great war, five years ago, on St. Martin's Day, November 11th, 1918.

Prior to the entry of the United States into the war, April 1917, 25 Parishes were admitted into union with the Convention, 3 were admitted during the two following years of war, and one only in the last five years of peace.

Has the reaction from the high idealism of the war period affected the enthusiasm of the Missions?

From the date of the organization of the Diocese there was a steadily-increasing zeal on the part of the Missions to become Parishes.

The four periods of five years each, 1895-1900, 1901-05, 1906-10, and 1911-15 are marked by the advancing number of admissions, 1, 4, 10 and 8 Parishes respectively, 25 admissions in the 20 years and one only in the last five, as against 18 in the previous ten years, 1906-1915.

Is this slump the effect of the war?

It is possible that the difficulty of maintaining a vigorous Parish life has acted as a restraint upon the Missions; while the growth of the cities of Los Angeles and San Diego attracts many communicants from the rural sections of the Diocese, as well as newcomers from the East, and this contribution to the advancement of the two cities hinders the development of the rural Missions. But this condition prevailed in the decade, 1906-15, when 18 Parishes were admitted, and the City of Los Angeles advanced from 102,000 inhabitants to half a million.

Whatever the cause of the slump, the condition is certainly suggestive.

On December 15th the Rector of Christ Church, Ontario, celebrated the 25th Anniversary of his Ordination to the priesthood. The occasion was graced by the presence of both bishops, a number of the clergy, and preceded by a retreat for priests.

Father Gushee now enjoys the distinction of being the Senior Priest of the Diocese in continuous service in one Parish.

Respectfully submitted,

P. H. HICKMAN, Historiographer.

APPENDIX 13

REPORT OF THE BOARD OF EXAMINING CHAPLAINS

The Board of Examining Chaplains for 1923 met on February 6th, and organized by the election of the Rev. Robert L. Windsor as chairman and the Rev. C. Rankin Barnes as secretary. The Board conferred with Mr. William J. Currer, Postulant, in regard to his application to Bishop Johnson for a permanent dispensation from Latin and Greek, and voted to recommend to the Bishop the granting of such request.

The second meeting was held on May 31st and June 1st, 1923. Messrs. Arthur C. Dodge, Arthur P. Stembridge and Arthur Cotter, Candidates, were given the examination for Deacon's Orders. It was voted that the college records of Messrs. William J. Currer and S. M. Pargellis were satisfactory for their admission as Candidates for Holy Orders without further literary examination.

The third meeting was held on October 26th, 1923. Chaplain Albert K. Mathews, U. S. A., a minister of the Disciples' Church, and a Candidate for Holy Orders, was given the examination for Deacon's Orders as provided for in such cases. The Board considered the application of the Rev. Arthur Cotter, Deacon, to Bishop Johnson for dispensation from examination in the Greek of the New Testament, and voted to recommend to the Bishop the granting of such request.

The Board is gradually developing a complete lending library for the use of Candidates for Holy Orders.

Respectfully submitted,

C. RANKIN BARNES, Secretary

APPENDIX 14

REPORT OF THE CHURCH PENSION FUND COMMITTEE

In past years it has been the custom of the Church Pension Fund in New York, previous to the meeting of our Diocesan Convention, to advise us as to the special topics upon which they desired particular emphasis to be placed. This year no such letter has been received. The conclusion to which your Committee has arrived is that the absence of such instructions indicates that the machinery of the Pension Fund is running smoothly. The condition which exists throughout the Church is reproduced here in the Diocese of Los Angeles. There has been an increasing and gratifying conformity to the system which is reflected in the fact that in 1923 the receipts were $11,064.44, which is an increase of $463.23 over the receipts for 1922.

Your Committee desires to call to the attention of the Clergy the advisability of checking up each year upon their financial status in relation to the Church Pension Fund system. It is the practice of the headquarters in New York to issue at the beginning of each year a statement indicating that the person whose name it bears is paid up to date. If you have not received such statement your Committee, in view of the great importance of this receipt, advises you immediately to find out why you have failed to receive it. The Diocesan Committee will be glad to make the necessary inquiries upon any request made to them in writing.

The importance of keeping fully paid up and in good standing on the books of the Pension Fund was illustrated this last year. A clergyman who was working here in Los Angeles, under dispensation from the Bishops, died very suddenly. Upon investigation it was discovered that he had been delinquent in some of his payments to the Church Pension Fund. As a consequence his widow and family were in danger of being penalized in the amount of money which they were entitled to receive by way of pension. Fortunately it was possible to have the back payments made, and so the family of our brother did not suffer. We believe that this is a dangerous chance to take in view of the fact that this arrangement may not be possible and, therefore, the dependents of a clergyman will pay the price of his folly.

During the past year the matter of adjustment with the one remaining parish in the Diocese that has not come into active relationship with the Pension Fund has been given the very earnest attention of your Committee. We have received the promise of the Vestry that they will pay the premiums on the salary of their Rector. They have even gone so far as to indicate when payment will begin; however, up to the present time, their check has not been forthcoming. We have every reason to suppose that it is their intention to live up to their promise, and so we are confidently expecting that very soon this one parish, that has remained outside the Fund, will be in active relationship with it.

In the meantime we must make provision to care for any emergency that may arise during the current year, and so we offer the following resolution:

Resolved:—That power be given to the Church Pension Fund Committee, in conjunction with the Executive Council, to secure such funds as may be necessary, to meet any emergency arising between January 29th, 1924, and the meeting of the next Diocesan Convention.

Respectfully submitted,

WILLIAM MACCORMACK, Chairman.

APPENDIX 15

REPORT OF THE EXECUTIVE COUNCIL

The Executive Council organized for the year, 1923, with the following membership; Bishop Johnson and Bishop Stevens; Deans C. L. Barnes, Evans, Kirchhoffer and Weld; Rev. Messrs. Learned and C. R. Barnes, Messrs. Knight and Valentine, elected by Convention; Rev. Messrs. Davidson and Murphy, Messrs. Burton, Gair and Smith appointed by the Bishop; the Treasurer of the Diocese, ex officio. During the year the Council received with great regret the resignation of Mr. Burton, owing to absence from the Diocese. Mr. Burton has served the Diocese of Los Angeles faithfully and well, and was the Chairman of the Nation-Wide Campaign Committee. In his place the Bishop appointed the Rev. E. S. Lane, who had been acting as Secretary.

Eleven meetings have been held with excellent attendance.

During the year the Council has had the following for its work:

1. The conduct of the Nation-Wide Campaign, now known as the General Church Program. Though the actual details of its working out have been in the hands of the Nation-Wide Campaign Committee and of the Rev. F. U. Bugbee, who has acted as Executive Secretary, the Council has taken a more definite and sustained relationship to the campaign. The Committee has been reorganized along Convocational lines and is now known as the Field Department, following the nomenclature adopted by the National Council. The Council depends for its funds upon the results of the Every-Member Canvass on the red side of the envelope so that the assistance given by the diocese to the parishes and missions in making this Canvass is of primary importance. The Council is greatly appreciative of the gains registered this year as indicative of increasing interest in the forward movement of the Church.

2. The amount necessary to pay the premiums for the insurance of all the missionaries of the Diocese according to the provisions of the State Employers Liability Law was appropriated.

3. The sum of $250 was given to the mission of the Holy Spirit at Wilmar to assist in the building of a new church edifice.

4. The church building at Brawley having been destroyed by a severe windstorm the Council appropriated $500 towards the erection of a new structure.

5. The relationship of the Budget and Priorities was considered by a special committee which made the following recommendation, to which the attention of the Diocese is called:

a. That remittances for Budget purposes shall be considered of first importance.

b. That all monies received in the red side of the envelope shall be applied to the meeting of Budget Quotas, either General or Diocesan.

c. Only Budget Quotas shall be printed in the diocesan paper, the Churchman and Church Messenger.

6. A Budget and Quotas for the year 1924 was prepared and given general distribution.

7. The Executive Council has for its regular duty the appropriation of funds for the following diocesan objects and institutions. As in nearly all cases the grants run into the thousands this may be considered one of the main functions of the Council. Inasmuch as all of these report to the Convention, mention only need be made.

a. For the expenses of carrying on the work of the Field Department and for the expenses of the N. W. C. Treasurer.

b. For providing additional salaries under the direction of the Board of Missions not provided for by the Diocesan Missionary Assessment.

c. For the salary of the Executive Secretary for Christian Education and Social Service, and for the expenses of these two Boards. On the first of October last the Secretary, the Rev. C. B. Scovil, resigned to accept a similar position in the Diocese of North Carolina.

d. For the County and City Mission Society.

e. For the Seamen's Church Institute.

f. In addition, there are a number of diocesan institutions which have been placed on a priority list. These are: The Diocesan Extension Fund, The Church Home for Children, the Home of the Aged, the Neighborhood Settlement, the Girls' Friendly Lodge, and the County and City Mission Society.

9. A detailed financial report is submitted under separate cover by the Treasurers of the Diocese and the Nation-Wide Campaign.

Respectfully submitted,

EDWIN S. LANE, Secretary.

APPENDIX 16

REPORT OF THE EXECUTIVE SECRETARY OF THE GENERAL CHURCH PROGRAM ("N.W.C.") 1923-1924

Ninety-one Parishes and Missions will be considered the 100% record of the Diocese. The following nine (9) Churches listed in the 1923 Journal have been omitted in the count: Hermosa, Ephphatha, Torrance, El Monte, El Sereno, Lynwood, Murrieta, Barstow-Ludlow, Holtville.

Of this number (91), 65 Parishes and Missions of the Diocese have sent in reports, or 71%.

In 1923 there were but 55 reporting.

In 1922 there were but 52 reporting.

However, eight (8) of the 65 Churches reporting can hardly be said to have made returns: El Toro, Wilmington, San Bernardino, Carlsbad, East San Diego, Escondido, Fallbrook, San Luis Rey. Twenty-six (26) Churches in the Diocese have failed to send in reports. Of these, 9 are Parishes, (6 of them in the Convocation of Los Angeles), and 17 Missions, eleven or twelve of them small, and perhaps not to be expected to conduct an every-member Canvass.

Convocation of Los Angeles—Covina, Inglewood, Long Beach, (Long Beach is to make a Canvass later); Los Angeles—St. John's, Good Shepherd, Grace, Angels', St. Philip's, St. Mary's Japanese; Pasadena—St. Mark's, Santa Ana, Burbank, Glendora, Downey (Downey made a Canvass. Report not received), Van Nuys, Watts.

Convocation of San Diego—Coronado, Bostonia, Brawley, Calexico, El Centro.

Following seven (7) Churches have been delinquent in "G. C. P." reports for the past two years:—Burbank, Covina, Downey, Los Angeles—Good Shepherd; Santa Ana, Upland, Coronado.

Following six (6) Churches have been delinquent in "G. C. P." reports for the past three years:—Inglewood, Los Angeles—St John's, Grace, St. Philip's; Elsinore, San Jacinto.

Following nine (9) Churches have been delinquent in "G. C. P." reports for the past four years:—El Toro, Glendora, Van Nuys, Needles, Bostonia, Brawley, El Centro, Calexico, Ventura.

Following five (5) Churches are delinquent for the first time this year:—Long Beach (Long Beach is to make a Canvass later), Los Angeles—Angels', St. Mary's Japanese; Pasadena—St. Mark's, Watts.

Following five (5) Churches make their first "G. C. P." report this year:—Culver City, Los Angeles—Advent, St. Thomas'; Tujunga, La Mesa.

APPENDIX 18

REPORT OF THE BOARD OF CHRISTIAN EDUCATION

The Board of Christian Education has held nine well-attended meetings during the past year. Organizing in February, the Board elected the Rev. Edwin T. Lewis as Chairman, and under his wise guidance much progress has been made. At the March meeting the Chairman presented a comprehensive plan for the work of the Board, suggesting three main heads for work, namely: 1. Church School Efficiency; 2. Religion in the Home; 3. Young People's Work.

1. Church School Efficiency. Ever since the advent of the Executive Secretary the standardization and efficiency of the Schools in the Diocese have been increasing. The eight-point standard of efficiency adopted last year, while it has not been pushed aggressively this year, has nevertheless succeeded in developing the aims and ideals of many schools, giving them an objective for which to work, and helping to coordinate the work of various schools.

The chief efforts of this department have been along the line of teacher training. The Board feels that the day is not far distant when the State law will be so amended that school children will be excused on school time to receive religious instruction from the Church of their choice, provided that Church can give instruction of a sort equal to the public school standards. With this in mind, and also to develop better teaching in our present Sunday Schools, the Board has concentrated especially on Training Schools. Such schools have been organized and successfully conducted in Los Angeles, Pasadena, San Diego, Santa Ana and Redlands during the past year. The results have been seen in better trained teachers, in a renewed interest resulting from the stimulus given teachers from meeting together and in talking over common problems, and in larger and better trained teaching staffs in many of our schools, especially those where good teachers were hard to obtain.

Of particular note is the very successful Summer School held in July. Using again the Harvard School, and offering what is known as the "double track" plan of lectures, the school became for perhaps the first time a school in reality. The attendance was the largest yet recorded, but of more importance was the high standard of the courses offered, and the serious interest displayed in them by the majority of those in attendance. We were unusually fortunate in having such lecturers as Bishop Moulton, Archdeacon Severance, and Father Burton, nevertheless we discovered that our own clergy, so ably led by Bishop Stevens, was fully up to the standard of the imported lecturers, and we will do well in the future to use more of our own men.

2. Religion in the Home. The work of this department has progressed less rapidly, as it is a new field for your Board. We feel, however, that it is a most important field, and that much of the future development of the Church rests upon a proper development of religion in the home. The Board has attempted to encourage daily Bible reading by aiding in the distribution of the Calendars of the National Council. Also the Board has officially endorsed and adopted as a part of its program the fine work of the Every Layman's Study League. By means of this it is hoped to promote more interest in religious reading as well as devotional exercises in the home.

3. Young People's Work. Of outstanding interest is the rapid and successful growth of the Young People's Fellowship. The presence of the Young People at the Summer School made all realize how anxious the young folks of today are to take part, and an intelligent part, in the activities of the Church. In many Parishes it is working out that the Young People are taking more and more interest in the conduct of parochial affairs. It must constantly be borne in mind that the Fellowship is not primarily a social organization, but that its program includes first, Worship, Study, Fellowship and Service, with Social activities as only an incidental. Mr. Scovil proved to be a genius at this particular form of organization, and while his leaving has made a gap, nevertheless the Fellowship is growing in all parts of the Diocese.

Included in our program for Young People is the department of Training for Life Work. Our Chairman, Dr. Gooden, has made a most admirable analysis of this need, and his report has been ordered printed by the Board. Of especial interest was the Boys' Conference on the Ministry, held at the Harvard School last summer. Forty-four boys were in attendance, and while it will never be possible to determine the results numerically, it is certain that all of them had a new vision of the Ministry as a life work, and that many will undoubtedly feel the pressure of the call to the Ministry.

The Annual Church School Rally was held in St. John's Church, Los Angeles, April 22nd, with Bishop Stevens as the preacher.

The Church was crowded to capacity. The Bishop's Banner for the best attendance was awarded to All Saint's Church School, Brawley. The offering of the Schools this year was over $5,700.00.

In closing the Board wishes to express its great appreciation of the very fine work done by the Rev. Charles B. Scovil during the two years that he was its Executive Secretary. Also to place on record its great regret and keen sense of loss at his leaving the Diocese. New importance has been given to the cause of Religious Education throughout the Diocese as a result of his work, especially in some of the smaller Parishes, and more scattered missions. It is with impatience that the Board awaits the finding of a new Executive Secretary, feeling that the aggressive prosecution of its work demands a trained leader.

Respectfully submitted for the Board,

STEPHEN C. CLARK, Secretary.

APPENDIX 19

REPORT OF THE BOARD OF MISSIONS THROUGH THE DEANS OF CONVOCATIONS

LOS ANGELES CONVOCATION REPORT

At the last meeting of Convocation Bishop Stevens reminded us that we are losing opportunities all the time for placing Churches in strategic locations. So rapidly is property increasing in value that, unless we now secure sites for Churches in this City and County, in five years from now it will be impossible to get a foothold for the Church without paying fabulous prices. And you all know that this is true, for the Chamber of Commerce reminds us that people are coming to Los Angeles at the rate of 480 a day. Of these it is estimated that 4 per cent belong to our Church and settle somewhere in the Diocese but chiefly in Los Angeles County.

Now the problem that confronts us is: How are we to get in touch with these people and see that they are provided with the ministrations of the Church?

And so we are striving to secure land for building purposes wherever and whenever it is possible for us to do so. We have lately secured a fine corner lot at El Monte, and another at Lancaster, the county seat of the Antelope Valley, and a rapidly growing community. At El Monte we were fortunately able to buy a building that had been a Presbyterian Church at a great bargain, only $500. We moved it on our lot and at a cost of $1,250 all told, for concrete foundation, plumbing, adding chancel, fixing up the interior, etc. We have a Church that is quite presentable, and well provided for our purposes, with a present value of $5,000.

St. Paul's Mission, Lancaster, is our latest venture. A lot 60x160 has been secured, on which we hope to erect our Church early in the coming year.

Bishop Stevens held his first Confirmation on November 28, when five received that apostolic rite. The hall in which services are held has been made quite churchly, and the work already shows signs of real progress. Land is rapidly advancing, and the place is destined to become very important. La Crescenta is another place where work was started on December 18, and where an acre of land fronting a boulevard has been given us as a gift by a devoted Churchwoman, and also a gift of money. We have already $1,200 towards the building fund. The place is visited by invalids from the East, who here find returning health, and so the Mission has been named after the beloved physician, St. Luke. A guild of 20 members has been formed, and is enthusiastically working for the proposed Church. This will be eventually one of the most attractive rural Parishes in the Convocation.

Owensmouth is one of our baby Missions, started by the Rev. Mr. Dexter about the same time that he started work in Antelope Valley. This place will some day be an important Mission Center, lying halfway between San Fernando and Van Nuys.

Wilmar is another illustration of the value of the policy of concentration, and of what a faithful layman with a loyal few back of him can do. Under the leadership of Mr. DeGroff, backed up in all his efforts by a wonderful Guild, a Church has been erected by the people themselves. The Mission gives abundant promise of a growing and successful future, with the Layman in charge so full of courage and optimism, and it will not be so very long before a settled Pastor will be required for the work.

El Sereno, which was one of our smaller Missions, has taken on new life, and is, we believe, in the beginning of a new period of better things. We have been worshiping, until two or three months ago, in a private residence, and then we secured a convenient hall, where the services could be better rendered, with a corresponding increase in attendance. And now we are in treaty for a Church which the Presbyterians are about to vacate and, if we can get it, we shall enter upon an era of fuller Church life, and a future of stability and progress.

Eagle Rock, one of the earliest of our suburban Missions, is fast developing into a very important Church center. It has grown in the last few years from a small village of 500 to a stirring community of 8,000. We put up a small frame building on a cheap lot, and we have been using the building ever since. About three years ago we moved from the old site to a more central location, occupying a fine corner lot 100x150, now worth $3,000. On the inner portion of the lot our people erected a Parish House and Parsonage, all in one. It is a fine building, possessing every accommodation for Church meetings, Sunday School classes, etc. Its cost was over $8,000, of which $6,000 has been already paid. The pledges of the people are taking care of the rest. It is our intention to erect a more suitable Church on the corner, which we hope will be ready for use on Easter Day.

A lot has been recently purchased for the Mission at Beverly Hills: Lot 3, Block 1605, North-east corner of Santa Monica Blvd. and Camden Drive in the very center of the town—110 by 230 and is, therefore, large enough for a Parish Church, Parish House and Rectory. The price of the lot is $6,000.

$1,500 has already been paid and we have pledges in hand sufficient to cover the balance.

Since our last meeting the Mission at Huntington Park has become a self-supporting Parish and will be admitted into union with the Convention at this session of the Convention.

Culver City which started five years ago as a parochial Mission of St. Augustine's, Santa Monica, is now a well-established Mission with its own building, Church School, and needs a resident Priest.

At the meeting of the Convocation held in St. Mark's Church, Pasadena, on November 7, 1923, Mr. Renison and Mr. Clarkson both made appeals for money to enable them to seize opportunities to enter upon new work in their respective fields.

The taking of pledges was enlivened by a protest from the floor against the practise.

While the business-like brethren were discussing this question, the other brethren were taking up pledges and remained on the job until the required sum had been received.

J. ARTHUR EVANS, Rural Dean.

Following is the report for Convention of the Missions of the Rev. Percy W. Clarkson at Orange and other points.

ORANGE

We have made steady progress in this Mission during the year—presenting about 10 candidates for confirmation. The services have been well maintained and regularly attended.

The fabric of the Church has been considerably improved and all the organizations are in a healthy condition—with only 51 families and our biggest subscriber $1.50 per week to Parish Funds; and realizing the people are doing all they can—it is not advisable to attempt just yet to make this a Parish. We met all financial obligations excepting N. W. C. upon which we could only pay $50. If the N. W. C. assessment could be reduced to a reasonably possible sum we would make every effort to be 100% this year and hereafter. Now, it is over $12.00 a family exclusive of Diocesan assessments, and some of my families do not and are not able to give $12.00 as a total yearly offering to the Church in Orange altogether.

FULLERTON

During the year we have bought a site nearly forty feet, close to center of the city and built a Church and Parish House, kitchen and rest room, with beautiful appointments and furnishings for the Church and Hall. It is a complete property and very generous gifts have been bestowed. The Church has been dedicated and every Sunday at 9 a. m., Church service is held with an excellent congregation. Holy Communion celebration 8 a. m. first Sunday. I began this movement with five, and we now have over 30 communicants. Next year we hope to ask the Mission Board for a resident Priest. The people have raised over $5,000 this year for building. No help was able to be given from the Mission Board towards same. We have a little over $5,000 debt. A little help towards running expenses monthly and a grant towards debt reduction is earnestly asked from the Board. We have a Sunday School of over thirty.

LAGUNA BEACH

Services have been held every Sunday at 5 p. m. and regularly attended. We hope the Diocese can give us help to build a Church this year.

EL TORO

Monthly services are held here; there is only one regular Church family, but others come and the children are instructed when they come.

SANTA BARBARA CONVOCATION REPORT

During the year, 1923, the services of the Church were maintained regularly at Carpinteria by the Reverend G. R. Messias; at Oxnard, Somis and Santa Rosa by the Reverend Allan L. Burleson; at Santa Maria, Lompoc and Arroyo Grande by the Reverend Mortimer Chester; at Santa Paula by the Reverend William E. Patrick who also conducts services at Ojai during part of the year.

In 1923 there were no new missionary work begun, no new churches, rectories, nor parish halls built. It is not possible to report a large increase in the number of communicants. Balancing the gains in certain missions with losses due to the removals outside of other fields, due almost exclusively to financial reasons, the net gain over 1922 is satisfactory and encouraging, but not startling.

One reason for this is that the Convocation of Santa Barbara has, as yet, not felt the influence of any real estate boom. Most of the land is owned by persons who seem to want to hold it. There are no subdivision flags fluttering along its roads. You can leave the Convocation for thirty days and when you return still be able to find your way around without a guide.

But it is developing fast enough to keep the missions in the larger places hard at work paying yearly installments on streets assessments that amount to several thousand dollars. Besides these installments, which were paid as they came due, Santa Maria has purchased a lot for a new church, and Santa Paula has spent $500 on repairs and improvements to its mission property. The missions are meeting these charges from their own resources. If you ever doubt whether missionaries are good business men I can help you remove your doubts by telling you about three missionaries who are.

I know the Diocese likes to hear reports which tell of increased membership, larger congregations, and more money in the treasuries of the Missions. If that were all the Church was planted in the mission field to do the statistics of the communicants, attendances at services and offerings show that during the past year the Church in this Convocation has done its full duty. There has been along all these lines the expected increase. It is the least we have the right to expect from the ministrations of the priests who have these details of the work in charge. We can point with pride to another year of satisfying progress.

But if that is all we are looking for we will lose sight of another aspect of the Church's work which is of equal, if not more, importance. There is the work the Church is doing through the spiritual influence it is having upon the entire community. And there are no statistics which can record the measure of this work. There is no way to accurately measure what the Church has been doing as an essential factor in the development of the Christian atmosphere without which no town or city can progress successfully.

I have good reason to believe that in Santa Maria and Lompoc, in Santa Paula, in Oxnard, and throughout this Convocation wherever the Church has established itself by regular ministrations, the people in those communities have learned to look upon the Churches as a spiritual force they greatly welcome. I question if in any previous year the Church, through the fine personality and the devoted work of its missionaries, has entered as deeply into the several mission fields as it has done this year. This is a fact to which we can, with gratitude to God, point with pride.

But such results as this report presents to you don't come of themselves. They mean work. We hear much these days of the "laboring class," as one deserving our sympathy. By the "laboring class" is meant those persons who work for wages during eight hours of the day. It is a rare day when a missionary works less than 12-14 hours at his task of keeping the Church in close touch with the spiritual needs of his people. The amount of time our missionaries spend in their work and the work accomplished in that time would astonish the average layman. The distance that Mr. Chester, Mr. Patrick and Mr. Burleson have to go each week in order to get their work done is hard to appreciate by anyone who has not followed them day by day over their mission fields.

There is one matter I wish I could omit from this report, as it means great loss to this Convocation and to the Diocese. The Rev. Mortimer Chester has announced his intention of removing from the Convocation on March first to assume charge of a larger field in the Diocese of Sacramento.

Mr. Chester took the Santa Maria-Lompoc Mission at a time when there seemed slight prospects for any rapid development. By his energy, devotion, real sacrifice and ability he has built up a work which is full of promise. He should carry with him to his new field the appreciation of his success which he amply deserves.

SAN BERNARDINO CONVOCATION REPORT

In the eight established centers of Mission work in the Convocation of San Bernardino, ministered to by five Missionaries, the work has more than held its own.

Our Missionaries in this Convocation are as follows:

Corona—the Rev. Harlan Bailey

Colton—the Rev. Thomas R. Yates

Beaumont—the Rev. Francis M. Wilson.

Hemet-Elsinore-Murrieta—the Rev. Frederick C. Miller

Needles—the Ven. Percival S. Smithe, Archdeacon of Nevada.

While there have been no startling increases in point of numbers, nevertheless in several instances the work has been strengthened. In Colton—Rev. Thomas R. Yates, Missionary-in-charge—the Church building has been greatly improved, having been raised and had new foundations put in, and also new walks and steps. This has been done entirely by the people themselves.

St. John's, Needles, is ministered to by the Archdeacon of Nevada, who goes there twice a month, once on a Sunday and once on a week day. They have held together valiantly, and this year have spent over $1,300.00 in the improvement of the Church property, of which all but four hundred dollars has been paid. The money thus spent has made their property income property, making it possible to rent the house on the rear of their lot for $25.00 per month. Their full quota to the Nation-Wide Campaign has been met.

In the Elsinore-Murrieta field the work at Murrieta has picked up considerably during the last year, and the Mission has again been reorganized independently of St. Andrew's, Elsinore.

In Hemet plans are under way for the erection of a parish house.

Another field that is opening up again is Victorville. For the past three years no services have been held there, owing to lack of numbers. Now, however, a group of Church people have gathered again, and the Rev. Charles E. Maimann, rector of St. John's Church, San Bernardino, has held services occasionally for them. By the Rev. Mr. Lane of Redlands taking the Evening Service at San Bernardino, Mr. Maimann is now giving two Evening Services a month to Victorville, and it is hoped that shortly more definite and more permanent arrangements can be made.

The two regulation meetings of Convocation were held during the past year. The Spring meeting was held in Colton, and the Fall meeting in St. John's, San Bernardino.

Two things which we did as a Convocation might be mentioned. First, at the meeting held in Colton we undertook to raise funds within the Convocation for the purchase of an automobile for the Rev. Mr. Miller in his large field. This undertaking was carried out during the summer and Mr. Miller is now driving his Chevrolet.

The second thing was our second successful Teachers's Training Institute under the Church School Union of the Convocation, of which the Rev. Mr. Lane of Redlands is the President. An eight weeks' session was held in the fall at Trinity Church, Redlands, and its success was due largely to the hearty cooperation of the people of Trinity Parish.

The Rural Dean has attended all but one, he believes, of the meetings of the Board of Missions. He does not know how many miles he has traveled, but he has visited or held services in all of the Missions within the Convocation.

R. A. KIRCHHOFFER, Rural Dean.

SAN DIEGO CONVOCATION REPORT

All the Mission stations of the San Diego Convocation have been faithfully and efficiently cared for by our Missionaries without interruption during the past year.

It is a matter of deep regret that the Reverend Mr. Dunlap of Escondido, whose labors have been marked with such uniform success, has been obliged by reason of illness to resign his post. We shall miss him greatly, and his place will we trust soon be occupied by an equally faithful missionary. New work has been undertaken at two points of vantage. At La Mesa, owing to the faithful and energetic labors of the Reverend Mr. Taylor, ground for a new church was broken on last Sunday. Mr. Taylor also plans a parish house for the growing work of East San Diego. Under Mr. Wreford's wise guidance it is hoped that work will be begun immediately on a church for the new and interesting field of Chula Vista. Ocean Beach will also doubtless build a chapel in the near future. The Reverend Mr. Dodd is much respected by the congregation there and the work is growing in a steady and satisfactory manner. The Reverend Mr. Hickman is closely watching a new field of prospective settlement at the great Santa Fe Rancho. Expressions of appreciation of the earnest work of the Reverend Mr. Cannon, missionary in the Imperial Valley section, are frequently heard. This field is a difficult and arduous one and marked by isolation, and demands a consecrated spirit on the part of the missionary.

All the Missionaries of the Convocation are to be commended for their faithful and conscientious labors, which will be crowned by the inevitable results of their devotion in the years to come.

REPORT OF THE AUDITING COMMITTEE

Your Auditing Committee respectfully reports:

Complying with the provisions of the Canons relating to the auditing of the accounts of the Treasurers of various funds belonging to the Diocese, this Committee has employed Messrs. Simmers, Mill and Adsit, Certified Public Accountants, to examine the several accounts.

The report of the said Accountants, dated January 21st, 1924, accompanies and is made part of this report.

The Committee, jointly with the Accountants, examined the bonds and other securities of the Diocese at the safe deposit vaults of the First National Bank, and found them as listed in the report.

The bond of the Treasurer of the Diocese, Mr. W. C. Mushet, is on file.

HENRY E. BRETT, Chairman.
ROBERT H. LINDSAY.

January 28, 1924.

*The Auditing Committee of the Diocese of Los Angeles,
Los Angeles, California.*

Dear Sirs:

We have examined the books and accounts for the year beginning January 15, 1923, and ending January 21, 1924, of the following:

1. The Treasurer of the Diocese of Los Angeles.
2. The Corporation of the Diocese of Los Angeles.
3. The Nation Wide Campaign—Mr. W. F. Knight, Treasurer.
4. The Church Pension Fund—Mr. Colin M. Gair, Treasurer.

In each of the above cases, we found the receipts and disbursements fully vouched and the accounts and securities in order.

Herewith we send you the following exhibits:

Exhibit 1. Summary of the investments of the Corporation.

Exhibit 2. Statement of receipts and disbursements of the Nation Wide Campaign.

Exhibit 3. Statement of receipts and disbursements of the Church Pension Fund.

We do not send exhibits of the accounts of the Corporation of the Diocese nor of the Treasurer of the Diocese, but instead we have attached our certificate of audit to the statements thereof prepared by Mr. Mushet, the Treasurer, which will be printed in the Convention Journal.

Yours very truly,

SIMMERS, MILLS & ADSIT.

APPENDIX 23

REPORT OF COMMISSION ON PHILANTHROPY AND SOCIAL SERVICE

The Commission on Philanthropy and Social Service begs to report that during 1923 it continued its endeavor to fulfil those duties laid upon it by the Canons of the diocese. The responsibilities there given to the Commission relate to two major subjects—Church Philanthropy and Social Service.

In regard to Church Philanthropy, the Commission desires to remind the diocese that the greater portion of its institutional work is of a philanthropic and social nature. In whole or in part social work in the name of Christ is the object of the following institutions and agencies:

The Hospital of the Good Samaritan,
The Neighborhood Settlement,
The Church Home for Children,
The County and City Mission Society,
The Bishop's Guild,
The Seamen's Church Institute,
The Home for the Aged,
The Girls' Friendly Lodge.

The Commission is equally interested in all of these. The enthusiastic backers of each institution describe it as if it were the only worth-while social work of the diocese! But the Commission can play no favorites; it must represent the diocese and not merely some one appealing aspect of social welfare.

Surveying then the entire social work of the Diocese of Los Angeles, your Commission desires to register the hope that the diocese as a whole shall increasingly look upon the General Church Program as sort of a Diocesan Community Chest. This is far from being the present situation. So far most of the diocesan priorities are only touched, and because they have not been underwritten in full every rector is bombarded with requests from each institution to appoint "a small committee of interested persons just to meet this special case."

Devout Church people of various recent decades worked hard to bring into being such institutions as the Neighborhood Settlement or the Church Home for Children. They presented them, as it were, to the diocese, and ever since the diocese has been saying to the various Boards of Directors, "Thanks for the Institution! Now get busy and find the money to support it!" And today, except for the self-sustaining Hospital of the Good Samaritan, most of the effort of the executive of these institutions has to be expended in the collection of funds for modest salaries and daily bread and ordinary repairs. This is not as it should be. The diocese as a whole should get back of these institutions, in which it expresses such constant pride, and as a diocese underwrite their normal expenses through the diocesan portion of the General Church Program. Only thus can the energies of the executives be released for adequate supervision and intensive development.

In the field of Social Service, the Commission finds itself unable to get away from the local jail situation of Southern California. The eight counties within the diocese have very different records in regard to the present situation of their county jails. Some are dark, filthy, and incapable of permitting proper segregation of prisoners; others are well lighted, clean, and more or less adequate to obey both the laws of the State and the dictates of humanity. However, the consciences of Christian citizens seem to be at a pitifully low ebb when the Chief of Police of the See City of our diocese, the metropolis of the West, is compelled to state; "Los Angeles city jails are iniquitous. They are a blot on the good name of the people of the city. The Lincoln Heights stockade and the Central jail are hardly fit to keep hogs in. They are an obstacle to law-enforcement rather than an aid. They help to make criminals rather than to make law-abiding citizens of those who come in contact with them." We commend the wisdom of the Department of Christian Social Service of the National Council in continuing to urge upon diocesan commissions and local parish committees the study of their local jails during 1924.

The Commission desires to give publicity to the present situation in regard to Child Labor. In May, 1922, the United States Supreme Court declared the second Federal Child Labor Act unconstitutional. The purport of this law was modest enough. It prohibited the employment of children under 14 in mills, factories and canneries; of those under 16 in mines and quarries. It prohibited child night work and provided an eight-hour day for children under 16 in mills, factories and canneries. It is true that the Federal Child Labor Act reached only fifteen per cent of the nation's child laborers, but it did aid those who were most exploited. Now, however, the annulling of that act leaves the children of the United States far behind those of such minor nations as Bulgaria, Czechoslovakia, Greece and Roumania. We have no national standard. Twenty-eight states are below the former federal standard in one or more respects. The states which permit the employment of children under 14 put America in a class with India and China. There is only one remedy—a Constitutional Amendment permitting Congress to legislate in this field. Over a million children gainfully employed call for the intelligent and devoted interest of Christian America. We must decide whether legal technicalities or human rights shall be allowed to dominate the child life of our nation.

The Commission hopes that our people will not overlook, under the stress of other considerations, the strong resolution on international peace which was adopted by the House of Bishops at their recent meeting at Dallas. The resolution, passed with unanimity and great enthusiasm, is as follows: "That this House of Bishops is profoundly impressed with the serious and sinister condition of the nations in their relations to each other. That the Church can not permit war to remain the only method for the ultimate settlement of disputes between nations. We are therefore of the conviction that it is the immediate and imperative duty of the United States Government either to join the existing League of Nations, or to proceed immediately to organize some other effective Association or Council of Nations, for the purpose of settling amicably international disputes and thus save us from the great danger of another world war. Resolved: That the Chairman and Secretary of this House be instructed to send a copy of this declaration to the President, Secretary of State, the Chairman of the Committee on Foreign Affairs of the United States Senate, and also convey it to the public press. This Commission feels that the abolition of war is the greatest possible question of Christian Social Service today, and that it deserves the conscientious and intelligent attention of every Churchman. In this connection we would urge that the clergy and laity call all possible attention to the winning plan of the Bok Peace Prize Award. Without making any recommendations as to how individuals should vote thereon, this Commission desires to emphasize the importance of Churchmen studying this plan enough to vote intelligently upon it.

Last June the Commission sent as its representative to the Third Annual Conference of the Social Service Workers of the Episcopal Church, held at Washington, D. C., its then executive secretary, the Rev. Charles B. Scovil. He brought back an extended report with valuable suggestions. At that Conference the Rev. C. Rankin Barnes, Chairman of this Commission, was reappointed by Dean Lathrop to his Council of Advice, representing the Province of the Pacific.

The work of your Commission has suffered a great loss in the resignation of its executive secretary, the Rev. Charles B. Scovil, on October 1st. Up to that time he had been engaged in making frequent addresses throughout the diocese on the social service program of the Church. The Commission used him constantly on matters which needed research or investigation. He was the frequent representative of the diocese to other social agencies. We miss him greatly and trust that a successor may be appointed at the very earliest moment that a suitable choice can be made. The Social Service Commission of the greatest diocese in the West cannot adequately fulfil the opportunities which lie before it without at least the half time of a paid executive.

In conclusion your Commission would once more point out that its greatest task is the development of a conscience. This immediately differentiates it in its goal and in its methods from the other departments of the Church's work. If Missions is the extension of the Kingdom of God, then Religious Education is the telling of the King and Social Service is primarily the deepening of the consciences of those people already in the Kingdom to a recognition of their Christian responsibility to establish the Kingdom of God in the community where they live. It must be our constant endeavor to hold before rapidly-growing Southern California the vision of the Kingdom of God as the only possible Christian ideal for a civilized community.

THE REPORT OF THE CHURCH EXTENSION SOCIETY

The Directors of the Church Extension Society, in their Annual Report to the Convention from year to year, have been obliged to express regret at the smallness of their assets, in the face of the many urgent demands upon their funds.

They are glad this year to be able to report that, by a recent sale of property at Inglewood, the capital of the Society has been increased by more than two thousand dollars (to be exact, $2,296.20), with the corresponding ability on the part of the Society to respond in the future to more of the urgent calls that are constantly being made upon it from new Missions for help to purchase land, or to erect buildings.

As the fund now stands, all monies in hand may be loaned at any time to new Missions, at a low rate of interest, and for a period of three years; so that, the Directors like it understood, as the capital increases—which it is hoped it may by gifts from friends—the value of the Society's work will become more and more in evidence in advancing the first stages—and they so very important—in the Missionary work of the Church in the Diocese of Los Angeles.

The Report of the Treasurer will be found appended; also, the Treasurer's Statement of the monies of the Keating Fund now in the hands of the Society.

All of which is respectfully submitted.

FOR THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS,
JOHN D. H. BROWNE, President.

APPENDIX 25

THE REPORT OF THE COUNTY AND CITY MISSION
SOCIETY

As I make my Convention report year after year it might seem as though the activities of the County and City Mission Society were those of tiresome monotony. But this impression is not the true one. The scope of our tremendously-growing work presents a variety of opportunity unknown in any parish. Here we have young and old and middle-aged, Christian and pagan, saint and sinner and the making of saints, high churchman, low churchman and no churchman, the poor but honest, the poor and dishonest; and, with it all, every possible phase and degree of disposition, temperament and character. Well may we pray, we followers of the crucified, the words of the little-used but heart-searching hymn: (279), “Lord, lead the way the Saviour went,

By lane and cell obscure,
And let love’s treasures still be spent,
Like His, upon the poor.
Like Him, through scenes of deep distress,
Who bore the world’s sad weight;
We, in their crowded loneliness,
Would seek the desolate.
For Thou hast placed us side by side,
In this wide world of ill;
And, that Thy followers may be tried,
The poor are with us still.”

And again (Hymn 278);

“O God of mercy! hearken now:
Before Thy throne we humbly bow;
With heart and voice to Thee we cry
For all on earth who suff’ring lie.
We seek Thee where Thou dwell’st on high,
Beyond the glittering, starry sky:
We find Thee where Thou dwell’st below
Beside the beds of want and woe.
Where poverty in pain must lie,
Where little suffering children cry,
Bid us haste forth as called by Thee,
And in Thy poor Thyself to see.

I shall not trouble you with many of the details of the work. It may suffice to tell you of the numbers in our institutions, the continual and insistent calls for follow-up work in the homes and elsewhere, the endless demands for relief, the necessity of adding to our equipment and of entering new fields. Truly the field is white unto harvest but the laborers are few. And with added workers we need a more nearly adequate income to meet the needs of the most Christ-like of all Christian work, in which we minister to those who can make no material return and invite them to the Feast of Love. Brethren of the clergy and laity! Are we Christian enough to do God’s work in Christ’s way and follow the example of Him Who said, “I came not to be ministered unto, but to minister”?

The General Hospital—the aristocratic successor of the County Hospital—has 1,300 patients, 30 to 40 of whom are at least nominal Churchmen. A splendid building for communicable diseases has just been opened and we may expect an increase during the year of several hundred patients.

The Farm is growing by leaps and bounds. The chronics from the hospital are being removed to infirmary wards at the Farm; making a population at the latter institution as large as that at the hospital. Most of these chronics we have known for years; so, to meet the situation, we have added two days a month to our Farm visits, and services in each of two wards twice a month—in addition to the Chapel services and instructions. The growth here will be continuous, as new buildings are being added as fast as labor and material can be procured. It would take all the time of a chaplain to properly minister to these dear people who are so appreciative of the fact that the Episcopal Church follows them in their poverty. I wish you could all witness the never-to-be forgotten scene when the old folks hobble to the Altar to receive the Bread of Life.

Olive View Tubercular Sanatorium has 100 patients. Ten new buildings are ready for occupancy and 27 more are projected. Thus, within a year or two, Olive View will have 500 patients and 300 employees, a parish in itself of no mean proportions. The response is encouraging, the attendance at services is increasing and the patients welcome us as their friends. This is not the work of a day, for it requires years to establish a point of contact and a feeling of confidence, without which the best work cannot be accomplished.

Los Feliz (venereal) Hospital has from 22 to 50 patients. Our monthly Eucharist has gradually resulted in an atmosphere of devotion which at first was largely lacking and has brought some of the girls to confession and communion and the desire to lead a new life. Ours is the only Catholic service in the institution.

At the Eastside (Lincoln Heights' Jail) where the work is carried on largely by devoted laymen, there are sometimes over 800 inmates. When the new sky-scraper prison is opened with its chapel it will demand the entire time of a chaplain.

In addition to the more specific work which calls for thousands of visits every year on the part of the chaplain and the consecrated and self-sacrificing workers, traveling a thousand miles a month, there are hundreds of follow-up visits in homes, hundreds of acts of personal service, hundreds of garments collected and distributed, many addresses telling of our needs, and a large volume of correspondence.

Our work is first of all a spiritual work, "seeking first the Kingdom of God and His Righteousness." Yesterday morning, from six-thirty to seven, I had ten private communions in the wards, by the light of two flickering candles and in the shadow of the cross with the figure of the Crucified. The appreciation could not fail to warm the heart of a priest. One English woman said she had lain awake half the night thinking about it and preparing for it, and tears were in her eyes. Two receiving were outside our fold, but ardently they expressed their desire for this Christian privilege, and most devoutly and humbly they received it.

As this report will shortly be consigned to the obscurity of the Convention Journal, and the oblivion of the Convention waste paper basket by being placed "on file," will you listen to the voice of God in the 522nd hymn?

“The voice of God is calling
Its summons unto men;
As once He spoke in Zion,
So now He speaks again.
Whom shall I send to succor
My people in their need?
Whom shall I send to loosen
The bonds of lust and greed?

I hear my people crying
In cot and mine and slum;
No field of man is silent,
No city street is dumb.
I see my people falling
In darkness and despair,
Whom shall I send to shatter
The fetters which they bear?

And then will you make the response?

We heed, O Lord, Thy summons,
And answer, here we are.
Send us upon Thine errand,
Let us Thy servants be.
Our strength is dust and ashes,
Our years a passing hour—
But Thou canst use our weakness,
To magnify Thy power.

From ease and pleasure save us,
From pride of place absolve;
Purge us of low desire,
Lift us to high resolve.
Take us, and make us holy,
Teach us Thy will and way,
Speak, and behold, we answer,
Command and we obey.

And then we may in all humility take to ourselves the words of the 525th hymn:

“O praise our God today,
His constant mercy bless,
Whose love hath helped us on our way,
And granted us success.

His arm the strength imparts
Our daily toil to bear;
His grace alone inspires our hearts
Each other's load to share.

O happiest work below,
Earnest of joy above,
To sweeten many a cup of woe
By deeds of holy love.

Lord, may it be our choice
 This blessed rule to keep,
 "Rejoice with them that do rejoice,
 And weep with them that weep."

CLERICAL REPORTS

7807 Herschel Avenue,
La Jolla, California.

The Rt. Rev. Joseph H. Johnson, D.D.,

Bishop of Los Angeles.

My Dear Bishop:

I desire to report that, during the past Convention year, I have been engaged in Sunday School work and that I have celebrated Holy Communion, conducted Morning Prayer and Evening Prayer and preached at services of the Church as opportunity afforded.

My work in tutoring has still kept me very busy outside of the Church engagements, but I have not neglected to assist as often as possible in the labors of a minister of the Gospel of Christ.

Very respectfully yours,

JAMES I. H. CAMERON.

Oceanside, California,
January 18th, 1924.

The Rt. Rev. Joseph H. Johnson, D.D.,

Bishop of Los Angeles.

Rt. Rev. and Dear Sir:

I beg to report that, during the Canonical year past, I assisted the Rev. C. L. Barnes in the Easter services at St. Paul's Church, San Diego. In Oceanside I officiated at four burial services. Since May 20th have been holding services each Sunday in Ocean Beach, San Diego, at Trinity Mission, celebrating Holy Communion the first Sunday of each month.

Respectfully submitted,

ARTHUR C. DODD.

414 North Monterey Street,
Alhambra, California, January 11, 1924.

Dear Bishop Johnson:

During the year 1923, I have celebrated the Holy Communion once at Holy Trinity Church, Alhambra, and twice at the Home for the Aged in Alhambra.

Officiated at two burials, reported for Holy Trinity Register.

Taught Bible Class 45 Sundays; and attended 51 Morning Services at Holy Trinity, Alhambra.

Sincerely yours,

ISAAC HOLGATE.

Van Nuys, California,
January 25, 1924.

To the Right Reverend Joseph H. Johnson, D. D.,

Bishop of Los Angeles.

Dear Sir:

I beg leave to submit the following report of my work for the year ending December 31, 1923.

My duties have been almost entirely confined to rendering priestly service at St. Simon's Mission, San Fernando, and at St. Mark's Mission, Van Nuys. Below particulars are submitted:

St. Simon's, San Fernando—
Holy Eucharist, Public.....	19
Private.....	1
St. Mark's, Van Nuys, Public.....	10
St. Stephen's, Los Angeles, Public.....	1

Very respectfully,

W. F. HUBBARD,
Chaplain U. S. A., Retired.

The Terrace, San Rafael Heights, Pasadena,
January 29, 1924.

My Dear Bishop:

I am thankful to report the continuance of my residence in your great Diocese, with the privilege of assisting in the services at the Church of the Angels, on nearly every Sunday of the year. During the past year, I have administered the Holy Communion, in private to a sick person in Los Angeles several times. I have baptized two children.

Respectfully yours,
C. W. LEFFINGWELL.

1304 Curson Avenue, Hollywood, Calif.,
January 19, 1924.

The Rt. Rev. Joseph H. Johnson, D.D.,
Los Angeles, California.

My Dear Bishop:

Making my annual report for the Convention year ending December 31, 1923, I beg leave to submit the following services:

The Holy Communion celebrated, 39 times; Morning Prayer said, 9 times; sermons preached, 46; baptisms, 4; marriages, 4; burials, 10.

These services were rendered at Burbank, Eagle Rock, Wilmar, Redondo, Hollywood, St. Athanasius' Church; Church of the Redeemer and Good Samaritan Hospital, Los Angeles.

Respectfully yours,
DUNCAN F. MACKENZIE.

2838 North Griffin Avenue,
Los Angeles, Calif., January 1, 1924.

The Right Reverend Joseph H. Johnson, D.D.,
Bishop of Los Angeles.

615 South Figueroa Street, Los Angeles, Calif.

My Dear Bishop:

During 1923 I officiated at:

St. John's Church, Sawtelle; Christ's Church, Redondo Beach; Holy Cross Church, Hermosa Beach; St. Augustine-by-the Sea, Santa Monica; Christ's Church, Ontario; St. Mary of the Angels', Los Angeles; St. Athanasius', Los Angeles; St. Paul's, Ventura; Grace Church, Glendora; St. Mary's Church, Culver City.

I have also baptized one adult.

Yours respectfully,
TIMON E. OWENS.

135 Bellefontaine Street, Pasadena.
January 25, 1924.

The Right Rev. Joseph H. Johnson, S. T. D.,
Bishop of Los Angeles.

I beg to report that from January 1st to October 31st, 1923, I officiated at 71 Sunday Services, celebrated Holy Communion on Sundays 43 times, on Holy Days, 9 times; held six private celebrations. This from my private record; also officiated at 14 week day services.

Baptisms, confirmations, marriages and burials for that period are duly recorded in the Parish Register, to which I have no access.

Obediently yours,

HARRY THOMPSON.

Epiphany Rectory, Los Angeles, Calif.,
January, 1924.

The Right Rev., The Bishop of Los Angeles:

Dear Bishop:

I desire to report that during the past Convention year I served as locum tenens The Epiphany, Los Angeles, from February 1st to April 8th; St. John's, Oakland, from July 1st-31st; All Saints', San Diego, from August 5-31. I officiated or assisted every Sunday at The Church of the Angels', Los Angeles, from November 4-December 30. Officiated also at Burbank, Glendora, Ontario, Riverside, The Advent, San Francisco; and St. Barnabas', San Francisco.

I performed three marriage ceremonies at St. John's, Oakland, and one at the Advent, San Francisco; two burials at the Epiphany, Los Angeles; took requiem and burial office at St. John's, San Bernardino, for the late Rev. W. H. Mills, M. A., a retired priest of the Church of England, and a contemporary of mine at Cambridge University, England.

I am at present in temporary charge of Epiphany Parish, Los Angeles.

Very faithfully yours,

ERASMUS J. H. VAN DEERLIN.

SUGGESTIONS AS TO GIFTS, BEQUESTS OR DEVISES TO DIOCESAN INSTITUTIONS AND CHARITABLE AND
RELIGIOUS PURPOSES UNDER THE AUSPICES
OF THE CHURCH

The Diocesan Corporation, known in law as "The Protestant Episcopal Church in the Diocese of Los Angeles," is the Trustee under the Canons of all the permanent invested funds of the Diocese, that is:

The Episcopate Endowment Fund;

The Diocesan Missionary Endowment Fund.

The Diocesan Corporation is also the Trustee to which should be conveyed all property for the benefit and use of the organized Missions of the Diocese under the trusts provided in the Canons.

The Bishop of the Diocese is incorporated as a corporation sole under the name of "The Bishop of the Protestant Episcopal Church in Los Angeles, present incumbent, Joseph Horsfall Johnson," and is authorized to receive and administer the respective funds and property, for the use and benefit of the Church in the Diocese, which may be intrusted to him, including all religious, benevolent or educational objects connected therewith. All gifts, bequests or devises for the establishment of the Cathedral, or of schools under the auspices of the Church, will be received and held by the Bishop, as corporation sole, until the incorporation of the several and appropriate corporations authorized to receive and administer the respective funds and property.

"The Hospital of the Good Samaritan" is the corporate title of the hospital organization, which is organized and conducted under the auspices of Church people, and is officially connected with the Diocese.

Free beds in perpetuity may be endowed in the hospital upon the payment of $15,000, or gifts, bequests or devises for the benefit of the hospital may be made to the Corporation.

"The Church Extension Society of the Diocese of Los Angeles."

The Bishop's School for Girls (upon Scripps foundation), La Jolla.

The Harvard School for Boys (upon Emery foundation), Los Angeles.

The Church Home for Children, Los Angeles.

The Neighborhood Settlement, Los Angeles.

The Home for the Aged, Los Angeles.

The County and City Missionary Society, Los Angeles.

The Seamen's Church Institute, San Pedro.

The Girls' Friendly Society, Los Angeles.

(1) The Secretary, under the direction of the Chair, shall announce that he has received attendance slips from one-third of the Clergy entitled to seats and votes in the Convention; and, if he shall have received less than one-third of such slips, then and in that case he shall call over the names of the Clergy entitled to seats and votes.

(2) The Secretary shall announce that he has received attendance slips from one-third of the Parishes and Missions entitled to representation; and, if he shall have received less than one-third of such attendance slips, he shall then call over the Parishes and Missions entitled to representation, and shall submit the certificates of the Lay-Delegates-elect from such Parishes and Missions to the Committee on Credentials; and all irregular and defective certificates, together with all certificates and documents relating to contested seats, shall be reported by name or title only, and laid aside until the appointed place in the Order of Business.

(3) A quorum being present, the presiding officer shall declare the Convention organized for business.

(4) In the case of a vacancy, the election of a presiding officer as provided by the Constitutions of this Diocese.

- (3) Miscellaneous Business.

Before the rising of the Convention, the minutes of the last day's meeting shall be read and approved, and the presiding officer shall then bid the Convention to such closing devotions as he shall deem appropriate.

NOTE:—When it is desired that an evening meeting of the Convention shall be held, a resolution to that effect must be adopted before 5:00 o'clock in the afternoon of that day.

RULES OF ORDER OF THE CONVENTION OF THE DIOCESE OF LOS ANGELES

RULE 1

MOTIONS

No motion shall be considered as before the Convention until seconded and stated to the Convention by the presiding officer. If not presented in writing, the President, or any member of the Convention, may require the motion to be reduced to writing before being presented to the Convention. After a motion is in possession of the Convention the mover cannot modify or withdraw it without the consent of the Convention.

RULE 2

ORDER OF MOTIONS

When a question is before the Convention, no motion shall be received but to lay it upon the table, to take a vote thereon at a certain time, to postpone to a certain time, to postpone indefinitely, to commit or to amend; which motions shall have precedence in the order named. The motion to take a vote at a certain time shall be decided without debate.

RULE 3

AMEND- MENTS

When a motion is under consideration, a motion to amend, a motion to amend that amendment, and a motion for a substitute for both amendments shall be in order. These motions shall be considered and voted upon in the reverse order in which they are received.

RULE 4

NON- DEBATABLE MOTIONS

The following motions shall not be debatable: to adjourn (which shall always be in order when no member is speaking), to lay on the table, to take from the table, to close debate, to extend the limits of debate, an objection to the consideration of a question, a call for the order of the day, to reconsider an undebatable question, to fix the time of adjournment, to postpone to a certain time, to permit the withdrawal of a motion, and to suspend the rules. If a motion to lay an amendment on the table be carried, the matter before the Convention shall be proceeded with as if no amendment had been offered.

RULE 5

DIVISION OF QUESTIONS

If a question under consideration contains several distinct propositions, the same may be divided on the request of any member, subject to the decision of the presiding officer that the division proposed can be made. If objection is made to such division, a motion to divide may be put before the Convention. When a motion for a division is made, the mover must specify the manner in which he desires the question to be divided. A motion to strike out and insert shall be indivisible.

RULE 6

PEAKING

No member may speak more than once on the same question, nor longer than fifteen minutes. By consent of three-fourths of the members, the Convention may grant leave to a member to speak a second time on the same question, but no longer than ten minutes. A Chairman of a Committee, or the mover of a resolution, presenting a report, shall be permitted an opening and a closing speech on every question submitted for action, but not to exceed ten minutes for each speech, unless special leave be given by the Convention to extend the time.

A member may speak for not longer than two minutes, when nominating a candidate for election to any office.

A member desiring to make a nomination shall rise and receive the recognition of the Chair before naming his candidate.

RULE 7

Every member present shall vote, whenever a question is put, unless excused by the Convention on account of his being personally interested in the result, or for other cause.

RULE 8

The vote shall be taken by ayes and noes, or by orders when called for by five members, and shall, in such case, be entered on the minutes.

RULE 9

In taking the vote by orders it shall be the right of any member of the delegation who may dissent from the vote of the majority of the delegation, to have the fact of his dissent recorded in the minutes.

RULE 10

In all questions decided numerically, a motion to reconsider must be made by one member, and seconded by another, who voted in the majority. In all questions decided by a vote by orders, a motion to reconsider, if made by a Clergyman voting in the majority, must be seconded by a Lay-Delegate voting in the majority; and if made by a Lay-Delegate, it must be seconded by a Clergyman voting in the majority. A motion to reconsider must be made within twenty-four hours after the vote was taken. When a motion to reconsider a vote prevails, the question is again before the Convention as if no vote had been taken upon it. No question shall be reconsidered more than once.

RULE 11

All Special Committees shall be appointed by the President, unless otherwise ordered.

RULE 12

The reports of all Committees shall be in writing. If a report is received by the Convention when presented, it may at once be acted on, or laid on the table for future consideration. The reception of a report by the Convention does not adopt it or its recommendations. If it is desired that a report, or its recommendations, shall become the action of the Convention, a resolution or resolutions to that effect must accompany it. When the report of a Special Committee is acted upon by the Convention, the Committee ceases to exist.

RULE 13

When a member is called to order by the President, or by another member rising to a point of order, he shall immediately take his seat unless permitted to explain. All questions of order shall be determined by the President; but any member may appeal from the decision of the Chair, and on such appeal no member may speak more than once without leave of the Convention.

RULE 14

The prescribed Order of Business shall not be departed from, nor shall any Rule of Order be suspended or changed, unless by a vote of two-thirds of the members present. Nor shall any Rule of Order, or Order of Business, be changed without one day's previous notice to that effect, except by unanimous consent, provided that a motion to suspend the Rule of Order, in order to direct the Secretary to cast the ballot of the Convention, shall require the unanimous consent of the Convention.

RULE 15

QUORUM
TO ELECT The majority of a quorum shall always be required to elect an officer.

RULE 16

COMMITTEE ON RULES OF
ORDER The President of the Convention may appoint a Standing Committee on Rules of Order. All proposed changes in the Rules of Order shall be referred to such Committee, if appointed, for consideration and report. When questions of order are raised, which are not provided for by these rules, the President, if he so desires, may refer such questions to the Committee on Rules for their opinion. "Roberts' Rules of Order" shall be the parliamentary guide in all cases not provided for in the foregoing rules.

RULE 17

SECTION
ON CONCURREN-
T VOTES In all elections required to be made by concurrent votes of both orders, the ballots of the Clerical Order shall first be counted and the list of the person or persons elected by said order shall be declared; the ballots of the Lay Order shall next be counted and the list of the person or persons elected by said order shall be declared. Any person or persons whose name or names shall appear on both of the said lists of persons elected shall be declared elected by the Convention, and no person shall be declared elected by the Convention unless he shall have been so elected by the vote of each order considered separate and apart from the other order.

RULE 18

APPROPRIATIONS All resolutions carrying appropriations shall be presented during the first half hour of the afternoon session of the First Day.

RULE 19

PRINTED REPORTS
DISTRIBUTED All printed reports shall be delivered to the Secretary for distribution at the opening of the afternoon session on the First Day, and five minutes only shall be allotted for hearing a summary of each printed report when called up. This provision is not to apply to the Report of the Committee on Canons, or the Report of the Finance Committee.

RULE 20

RESOLUTIONS
TO BE
FILED Contemplated resolutions likely to invoke debate shall be filed with the Committee on the Dispatch of Business before the opening of any session so that provision may be made in the Calendar for their consideration.

CANONS AMENDED—CONVENTION, 1924

1. An Evening Session on Wednesday, at 8 p. m., being a joint session with the Woman's Auxiliary, was placed on the Calendar as a regular session of the Convention; the Order of Business being Reports of Diocesan Institutions.

2. Canon XXXIX was amended by the addition at the end—of Section (h): "(h) At least thirty days before the convening of the Annual Convention the Secretary shall mail to every Clergyman one copy and to the Clerk of every Parish and Mission six copies of any proposed amendments to the Constitutions and Canons as may have been committed to any special committees or referred to the Committee on Canons by the preceding Convention, together with such other proposed amendments as may have been received by the Secretary during the year."

The word "twenty" in the last line but one in Section (b) of the same Canon was changed to "thirty-five."

Also, in Section (g) of the same Canon, the last clause after the words "Parish and Mission" was struck out.

3. A new Canon, "The Hospital of the Good Samaritan" was adopted, to be inserted after Canon XXIV:

The Hospital of the Good Samaritan, Los Angeles, is an Institution of the Church officially connected with this Diocese, and is conducted under its auspices.

The object of the Hospital is to provide, at reasonable charges, ministrations for the sick, irrespective of creed, and so far as its funds will warrant, to provide free beds for such worthy persons as may be nominated by the Bishop. A gift or bequest of fifteen thousand dollars ($15,000.00) is considered sufficient to endow a bed in perpetuity. Thirty thousand dollars ($30,000.00) will endow a room in perpetuity.

"1. The Hospital shall be under the direction of a Board of Directors consisting of twenty-one members; one of which shall be the Bishop of the Diocese, one shall be the Rector of St. Paul's Episcopal Church in Los Angeles, one shall be elected annually at the Annual Convention of the Diocese, and the eighteen shall be elected by the Corporation; twelve of the eighteen must be qualified voters of a Parish or Mission in the Diocese of Los Angeles. The Bishop of the Diocese of Los Angeles shall be the President of the Corporation, Chairman of the Board of Directors and Chairman of the Executive Committee by virtue of his office."

2. Other members of the Board of Directors, as vacancies may occur, shall be nominated by a Nominating Committee annually appointed by the Bishop, and shall be elected by the members of the Board.

3. The property of the Hospital shall be vested in the Corporation of the Hospital of the Good Samaritan.

4. The Board of Directors shall, through their secretary, present to the Convention, at its Annual Meeting, a report of the work of the Hospital, the number of patients received, operations, the number of physicians and nurses in attendance, during the year; also a financial statement of the value of the property and of the annual receipts and disbursements.

4. Canon XXVI, Section 153, was amended so that the Section shall read: "There shall be a Commission of the Diocese to be known as the Commission on Church Architecture, which shall consist of the Bishop and Bishop Coadjutor, together with two Clergymen and four Laymen, to be appointed annually by the Ecclesiastical Authority."

5. Two new Canons, entitled, respectively, "Harvard School" and "The Bishop's School for Girls", were adopted, to be inserted after the Canon, "The Hospital of the Good Samaritan":

HARVARD SCHOOL

Harvard School for Boys upon the Emery foundation is an Institution of the Church, officially connected with this Diocese, and is conducted under its auspices.

1. The School shall be under the direction of a Corporation or Board of Trustees, of which the Bishop of the Diocese is, ex officio, a member; and the Bishop shall be President of the Board.

The Articles of Incorporation of the School provide that the Corporation or Board of Trustees shall consist of twenty-one members, "of which twelve shall always be members of the Protestant Episcopal Church and registered communicants of some Parish in union with the Convention of such Church in the Diocese of Los Angeles; or Clergymen canonically with the said Diocese."

2. The Principal, or Headmaster, of the School shall be appointed by the President.

3. The Standing Committees of the Corporation, as provided by its By-Laws, shall be appointed by the President.

4. The property of the School shall be vested in the Corporation of Harvard School upon the Emery Foundation.

5. The Corporation of the School shall, through the Principal or Headmaster, present to the Convention of the Diocese, at its Annual Meeting, a report of the progress of the School—the number of its faculty or teaching staff, the number of the scholars attending, its efficiency in scholarship; and such other matters as may be deemed appropriate in furnishing information regarding the condition of the School.

THE BISHOP'S SCHOOL FOR GIRLS

The Bishop's School for Girls upon the Scripps' foundation is an Institution of the Church, officially connected with this Diocese, and is conducted under its auspices.

1. The School shall be under the direction of a Board of Trustees, of which the Bishop of the Diocese is, ex officio, a member; and the Bishop shall be President of the Board.

The Articles of Incorporation of the School provide that "the President of the Board of Trustees shall be the Bishop of the Protestant Episcopal Church in Los Angeles in his capacity as ex officio Trustee."

2. The office of Principal of the School shall be filled by appointment of the Bishop.

The internal management of the School shall be under the direction of the Principal.

3. A Chaplain shall be appointed by the President, who shall hold his office by the terms and subject to the conditions imposed by the President at the time of his appointment.

4. The property of the School shall be vested in the Corporation of the Bishop's School upon the Scripps' Foundation.

5. The Board of Trustees shall, through the Principal or Chaplain, present to the Convention of the Diocese, at its Annual Meeting, a report of the progress of the School—the number of its faculty or teaching staff, the number of scholars attending, its efficiency in scholarship; and such other matters as may be deemed appropriate in furnishing information regarding the condition of the School.

6. The title of Canon XXVII was changed to be, "The Social Service Commission"; with a corresponding change wherever the title appears in the Canon.

7. Canon VII was amended by striking out Section 50, "A Committee on Christian Education."

8. The Convention directed that the ballots for voting in elections shall be printed on one sheet of paper instead of on separate sheets.

9. The amendments made in Article V, Sections 13 and 14, and Article XX, Section 52 of the Constitutions, (Convention, 1922); substituting the words, "Special Meeting of the Convention" for the words, "Special Convention," were approved and adopted.

PROPOSED AMENDMENT TO THE CANONS

Canon V, Sections 20 and 22—Proposed by the Rev. P. H. Hickman, to omit the words, "or Special."

JOURNAL OF THE PROCEEDINGS OF THE CONVENTION

St. Paul's Cathedral,
Los Angeles, January 28, 1925.

The Thirtieth Annual Convention of the Church in the Diocese of Los Angeles opened with the Celebration of the Holy Communion in the Cathedral, Los Angeles, at 10 a. m., on that day.

The Celebrant was the Bishop, the Right Rev. Joseph H. Johnson, D. D. He was assisted by the Rev. Dean Barnes, as Epistoler, and the Rev. Dean Evans as Gospeller, and in the administration of the Sacred Elements by the Bishop Coadjutor and by Dr. Gooden and the Rev. A. G. H. Bode.

At the close of the service the Convention was called to order for business, the Right Reverend, the Bishop, taking the chair.

The Secretary announced that more than one-third of the Clergy had deposited attendance slips and more than one-third of the Parishes and Missions had signified that they were represented by the attendance slips of their Lay-Delegates.

A constitutional quorum of both orders being present, the Chairman declared the Convention ready for business.

On motion of the Rev. R. L. Windsor, the Rev. Alfred Fletcher was nominated as Secretary.

There being no further nominations, on motion, the Assistant Secretary cast the ballot of the Convention and the Rev. Alfred Fletcher was declared elected.

The Secretary appointed the Rev. R. L. Windsor as Assistant Secretary.

The Bishop delivered his annual address. (Appendix 1.)

The Bishop Coadjutor then delivered his annual address to the Convention. (Appendix 2.)

The Chairman of the Committee on Dispatch of Business moved a suspension of the Order of Business to give precedence to an important resolution. Adopted.

The Rev. Philip A. Easley offered the following resolution:

WHEREAS, the administrative work of the Diocese has increased and continues to increase steadily and rapidly;

Be it Resolved: That a special committee of five be appointed by the Chair to consider increased support of the Episcopate and possible administrative assistance for the Bishops; and

Be It Further Resolved, That the report of this committee be the order of the day at 2:00 o'clock to-day. Adopted.

The Chair appointed as such committee: The Rev. P. A. Easley, the Rev. Dr. Weld and C. Rankin Barnes, Mr. C. M. Gair, Mr. Wm. F. Knight.

On motion, the reading of the regular committees appointed by the chair was postponed.

The Rev. P. H. Hickman moved, as follows:

WHEREAS, the Attorney General of the State has given his official opinion that the Lord's Prayer is a sectarian symbol and therefore may not be used in the Public Schools of California; therefore

Be It Resolved, That the Convention of the Diocese of Los Angeles hereby expresses its profound regret that the Prayer given to the Apostles at their especial request and constantly and universally used throughout the nineteen centuries since the Incarnation—whereby the Gospel of Christ has been preached—should be declared a sectarian symbol; and the children of the State be in consequence deprived of the use of this guide and stimulus to their spiritual growth and their intelligence. Adopted.

The Rev. Dr. Davidson moved that the matter of the feasibility of the appointment of a Diocesan Executive Secretary be referred to the Committee on increased support of the Episcopate appointed by the chair. Adopted.

On motion the Convention adjourned to meet at 2 o'clock.

Convention reassembled in the Parish Hall of the Cathedral House at the hour named, the Bishop in the chair.

The Rev. E. T. Lewis presented the report of the Committee on the Incorporation and Admission of Parishes and Missions into Union with the Convention.

1. Your committee begs to report that St. Andrew's Mission, Los Angeles, has made application for admission to the Convention as a Parish.

We find that all necessary requirements have been fulfilled. A copy of the Constitution and By-laws as adopted must, however, be furnished for permanent record to the Secretary of Convention.

We recommend that the application be accepted and the parish admitted into union with this Convention.

2. Your committee respectfully reports, further, that applications have been received from St. Mark's Mission, Van Nuys; the Mission of the Advent, Los Angeles; and St. Matthew's Mission, Watts, to be admitted as Missions into union with the Convention of this Diocese.

The applications are in correct canonical form and bear the certificate of the Bishop Coadjutor attesting their proper organization. We, therefore, recommend that these missions be admitted into union with this Convention.

Respectfully submitted:

Committee: Edwin T. Lewis, C. E. C. Hodgson, David E. Spangler.

On motion of the Rev. P. H. Hickman, the report of the committee was adopted, and the parish and missions named were admitted into union with the Convention.

The Rev. P. A. Easley, as chairman of the Special Committee on the Increased Support of the Episcopate, offered the following resolutions:

Resolved, That Convention place at the disposal of the Bishop of the Diocese, the sum of $2,000 per annum, effective as of January 1st, 1925, to be used at his discretion.

Resolved, That the Convention increase the salary of the Bishop Coadjutor by the sum of $2,000 per annum, to take effect as of January 1, 1925.

Resolved, That the Bishop be requested to appoint a Commission to study and define the duties of a Diocesan Executive Secretary and to report the same to the next Convention with the expectation that at that time the Diocese would be in a position to pay such a Secretary a salary sufficient to secure the services of an exceptionally able man.

On motion these resolutions were severally and unanimously adopted.

The Bishop appointed as such committee: The Rev. P. A. Easley, George F. Weld, D.D.; C. Rankin Barnes, L. E. Learned, D.D.; Mr. C. M. Gair, Wm. F. Knight.

The Rev. Mr. Easley stated that it had been the unanimous desire of the committee to increase the salary of the Bishop by the addition of $2,000, but Bishop Johnson had positively refused to consider any addition to his salary. The committee, therefore, proposed that the additional support of the work of the Bishop be in the form of a discretionary fund.

The treasurer reported the list of delinquent Missions—being those at Bostonia, Carlsbad, Colton, El Centro, El Toro, Needles, San Luis Rey.

The following appropriations were presented and referred to the Finance Committee:

Registrar, Office Expenses.....	$ 50.00
Registrar, for Moving and Shelving Diocesan Library.....	200.00
Hospitality Committee.....	200.00
Committee on Arrangements.....	60.00
Pension Fund Committee.....	150.00
Historiographer, Office Expenses.....	15.00
Secretary, Office Expenses.....	50.00
Secretary, Printing Journal.....	800.00
Secretary, Extra Printing Required by Convention.....	200.00
Pension Fund Special.....	325.00

Owing to the noise made by building operations in an adjacent building, Dr. J. E. Cowles, seconded by the Rev. Dr. Davidson, offered St. John's Church for the use of the Convention and moved that the sessions be held there to-morrow.

The Rev. Alfred Fletcher moved, as a substitute motion, that the Convention meet to-morrow in the Cathedral.

A division being called for, the substitute motion was adopted in a vote of 88 to 60.

Mr. A. R. Evans reported for the Committee on Credentials that seventy-two Parishes and Missions had sent regular certificates of Lay-Delegates, and that all such were entitled to representation, provided the Diocesan assessment had been paid. Received.

This was, subsequently, enlarged to seventy-nine—of which forty-two were Parishes and thirty-seven were Missions.

Seventy-nine of the canonical clergy registered as present, and one hundred and seventy Lay-Delegates registered as representing the thirty-nine Parishes and twenty-three Missions sending delegates.

The Rev. Dr. Learned presented the report of the Committee on Canons:

TO THE THIRTIETH CONVENTION OF THE DIOCESE OF LOS ANGELES:

The Committee on Canons begs to submit the following report:

1. Canon V, Sections 20 and 22—Proposed by the Rev. P. H. Hickman; amend by omitting the words "or special."

Approved by your committee and recommended for adoption.

2. Canon XXXIX, Section 235(h)—This section was amended in the last Convention by changing the word "twenty" to "thirty-five."

Your committee begs to state that it has by experiment found this earlier date, during the Christmas season, to be impracticable; and recommends that the former period of "twenty" days be substituted for "thirty-five."

3. Canon XXII, Section 145—The Board of Christian Education submitted to the Committee a proposal to change this section, so that it should read after the word "President"—"four clergymen and four lay persons elected by the Convention, and seven other persons appointed by the Bishop."

The reason assigned was that the Board finds it difficult to secure the services of four laymen willing and able to work with the Board, and desires to have the co-operation of women on the Board.

Your Committee, while recognizing the difficulty—and being in full sympathy with the desire expressed, would call attention to the fact that the possible appointment of women on the Board, where desired, has already been provided for in the Canon—under the terms “and seven other persons appointed by the Bishop.”

Your Committee deems this provision to be sufficient, and recommends that no action be taken.

4. Two proposed amendments were submitted by the Committee on the Church Pension Fund:

(1) Amend Canon XXXIV, Section 197(c) by adding, after the word “thereof,” “such premiums shall be an assessment subject to the provisions of Canon IV, Section 15, and in no case shall such assessment exceed 7½ per cent of the stipend of the clergy whose premium it is.”

(2) Amend Canon VIII, Section 62, by adding, after the word “Missionary,” “and its agreement to pay the Pension Premium upon such pledge, provided such premium shall in no case exceed 7½ per cent of the amount pledged for the support of a Missionary.”

Your Committee approved these proposed amendments and recommends their adoption by the Convention.

5. Canon VII, Section 47—Proposed by the Rev. R. L. Windsor—Amend by the addition of section, “The total amount of assessments levied by the Convention for all purposes shall not exceed 20 per cent of the total current expenses of the parishes and missions in the Diocese for the preceding year.

Approved and recommended by your Committee for adoption.

Respectfully submitted,

LESLIE E. LEARNED, Chairman.

On motion of the Rev. Dr. Learned, No. 1 of the report was adopted.

On motion of the Rev. Dr. Davidson, No. 2 was amended by changing the word “twenty” to “twenty-five,” and was adopted.

Number 3, no action taken; No. 4 (1) and (2), were, on motion, adopted; No. 5, on motion of Dr. Davidson, was laid on the table.

On motion of Dr. Learned, the report, as amended, was adopted as a whole.

The report of the Standing Committee was presented by the Rev. Dr. Gooden. Received. (Appendix 3.)

The Very Rev. Dr. MacCormack, with consent of the Convention, moved that $325.00 be added to the budget to reimburse Mrs. Roudenbush in the amount withheld by the directors of the Church Pension Fund of the $1000 benefit sent to widows of deceased clergymen.

Adopted, and referred to the Committee on Finance.

The report of the Executive Council was presented by the Rev. Edwin S. Lane. Received. (Appendix 4.)

A resolution was appended to this report approving, and requesting the Convention to approve, the appointment of a Diocesan Executive Secretary; but was not pressed because of previous action taken by the Convention regarding this matter.

The report of the Board of Missions was presented by the rural deans of the several convocations: Dean Barnes presenting the report of the Convocation of San Diego; Dean Evans that of the Convocation of Los Angeles; Dean Kirchhoffer that of the Convocation of San Bernardino and Dean Weld the report of the Convocation of Santa Barbara. Received. (Appendix 5.)

Dean Evans closed his report with a request that Dr. Davidson of St. John's Parish, Los Angeles, be given the privilege of the floor to make a report as to Grace Mission and the Mission of the Good Shepherd.

Dr. Davidson made the following report:

I am happy to report that beginning with January, 1925, Grace Mission and the Mission of the Good Shepherd are to become independent missions and that St. John's Parish is to relinquish certain boundary lines for their development. It may be of interest to the members of this Convention to know that St. John's Parish has for twelve years been responsible for the ministrations and for the support of Grace Mission and the Mission of the Good Shepherd, both of which are in the south section of Los Angeles. They have been parochial missions during these twelve years. St. John's Parish has been responsible for the services in both missions and it has maintained a priest for both and during later years has been responsible for the salaries of a priest in each mission. In addition to this, during the past twelve years St. John's Parish has paid off a mortgage, on the property of Grace Mission, to the extent of $850.00, and has given $1,000 toward the purchase of a lot for Good Shepherd Mission—together with additional sums from time to time to assist in the development of the work. We have looked after the taxes on both properties and we have seen to it that the pension premiums for the clergy have been paid.

We took hold of these two discouraging missions when they had practically nothing. We are now turning them over to the Diocese as two prosperous missions, each with a clergyman, together with properties valued at about $15,000. In addition to this we are giving the old St. John's Church, with all of its furnishings, to Grace Mission; and the senior warden of our Parish, Dr. Josiah Evans Cowles, has donated two lots upon which the old church is to be moved.

St. John's Church undertook the responsibility of caring for these two missions in order to relieve the Board of Missions from certain expenses which at that time the Board was unable to meet. For twelve years St. John's Parish has practically done the work of the Board of Missions for Grace Mission and for the Mission of the Good Shepherd.

We are happy to report to-day that we can turn over to the Diocese of Los Angeles these two properties as centers of Church life. They will doubtless become self-supporting parishes in the very near future.

The report of the Board of Christian Education was presented by the Rev. Stephen C. Clark. Received. (Appendix 6.)

The report of the Executive Secretary of the Board of Christian Education and the Social Service Commission was presented by the Rev. David R. Covell. Received. (Appendix 7.)

The Bishop Coadjutor entering the Convention Hall at this time, the Bishop requested the Rev. Mr. Easley to communicate to Bishop Stevens the action regarding him which the Convention had taken on the report of the Special Committee on the Increased Support of the Episcopate. The Rev. Mr. Easley did so; and the Bishop Coadjutor was the subject of a hearty ovation on the part of the Convention.

The report of the Social Service Commission was presented by the Rev. C. Rankin Barnes. Received. (Appendix 8.)

The Rev. R. L. Windsor.

BOARD OF DIRECTORS OF HOSPITAL OF THE GOOD SAMARITAN
Mr. Chester T. Hoag.

The report of the County and City Mission Society was presented by the Rev. V. D. Ruggles. Received. (Appendix 9.)

The report of the Church Pension Fund Committee was presented by the Very Rev. Dr. MacCormack. Received. (Appendix 10.)

The report of the Board of Examining Chaplains was presented by the Rev. C. Rankin Barnes. Received. (Appendix 11.)

The nomination of the Rev. R. L. Windsor, by the Bishop, to be a member of this Board for a four-year term was, on motion, confirmed.

The report of the Registrar was presented by the Rev. R. L. Windsor. Received. (Appendix 12.)

The report of the Historiographer was presented by the Rev. P. H. Hickman. Received. (Appendix 13.)

The Secretary moved that the committee on the Form of Parochial Report be re-appointed with power to co-operate with the Bishop Coadjutor in making some slight changes in the present form, or to adopt the general Form of Parochial Report as would be deemed advisable. Adopted.

The committee consists of the following: The Rev. L. E. Learned, D.D.; the Secretary, Assistant Secretary, Treasurer of the Diocese, Rev. F. U. Bugbee.

On motion the Convention adjourned to reassemble at 8 p. m. for the evening session.

Convention reconvened at 8 p. m., Bishop Johnson presiding; the order of business being the reports of the Church Institutions.

By resolution of the Committee on Dispatch of Business, these were given in the following order

1. Church Home for Children: Deaconess Wile gave a practical report of the Home in a dramatic representation, by a number of the children, of a morning's routine of duties of the Home. The printed report of the Church Home for Children appears, in part, in Appendix 14.

2. Neighborhood Settlement: Report read by the Assistant Secretary. Received. (Appendix 15.)

3. Hospital of the Good Samaritan: After two realistic scenes of first aid in a case of illness; and of operation performed by some intern nurses of the hospital, the Rev. T. C. Marshall read the tabulated report of the notable services of the hospital during the year. Received. (Appendix 16.)

4. Bishop's Guild: Report read by the Assistant Secretary. Received. (Appendix 17.)

5. Seamen's Church Institute: With the assistance of a very versatile and accomplished sailor, the Rev. H. H. Kelley, secretary and superintendent, gave a practical demonstration of the methods of the Institute in ministering to the needs of the many thousands of sailors who visit our port each month.

The Rev. William T. Weston, General Secretary of the Seaman's Church Institute of America, addressed the Convention on the great needs and opportunities which attended the work of the Institute on the Pacific Coast.

REPORT FOR 1924

The Seamen's Church Institute of Los Angeles is now enlarged and almost full-rigged. It was only in 1922 that it was launched, a small craft atop a hill, but it made good because of its homelikeness.

Grading of our property, after many delays, was completed early in 1924, and now we are down on the level, with over 10,000 feet of floor space. An abandoned naval welfare building which had been given to us, 40 feet by 200 feet, was moved to our lots, remodeling proceeded rapidly, and at Christmas, 1924, we opened part of the building to seamen. Then the old building was moved down from hilltop, joined and remodeled.

The new Institute centers in a practical and attractive main Assembly Hall seating 400. Forward, a roomy stage; starboard of this a neat little sanctuary, "St. Andrew's Chapel"; starboard also, 'midships, a huge brick and granite "marine fireplace" topped by lighthouses, a special gift and the seamen's delight. Aft are the magazine-work-room, the baggage room, etc.

Next the main hall are the lavatories, a seven-bed dormitory and six bedrooms. Beyond is a large pavilion to be cut into dormitories and bedrooms as soon as funds are given.

On the other side of the Assembly Hall the dear old original Institute provides a home-like front. The seaman entering finds here a quiet reading-room, the letter-writing room with built-in desk and bench, and, opening its full width into the Hall, a room containing the pool table. At a long counter he gets his mail, deposits his wages, checks his baggage, gets supplies from the "Slop-Chest," etc. From here too the radio is tuned in. The second floor remains the home of the House Manager.

All of the staff have had years of experience in work with seamen at other ports as well as that of Los Angeles, and we gladly give our lives in service and friendship to these homeless but lovable wanderers of the seas.

Thus we have used old buildings, stretched to the utmost the barely $7,000.00 thus far given for expansion, trusting that more will come, and shouldering a debt of over $30,000.00. Maintenance is provided by the Los Angeles Community Chest, by a few private subscriptions, and from the dormitory and other departments in the building. Funds are seriously needed to complete the dormitory and to clear the debt on land and building.

In the first two months of 1925 we have handled over 31,000 seamen, almost as many as in all of 1924, proving the wisdom of relocation and enlargement. Watch 1925 and help us!

The following statistics indicate service rendered:

Attendance, Seamen	38,633
Pieces of dunnage checked	1,132
Pieces of mail received	6,633
Number of services held	30
Number of entertainments given	34
Money deposited for safe keeping	$6,726
Number of men given shore jobs	20
Number of visits to hospitals by Chaplains	6
Number of ships visited by Chaplains	47
Number of packages of literature and books distributed (approximately)	400

Since July 1, 1924, frequent visits have been made to the U. S. Immigration Station where many foreign seamen have been detained. Concerts were given, writing material, reading matter, games, a phonograph and an organ were supplied.

HAROLD H. KELLEY, Superintendent and Chaplain.

6. Home for the Aged: Report was presented by Mr. George Coupland, President of the Board of Directors, which showed the remarkable development and sound financial standing of this most admirable institution. Received. (Appendix 18.)

7. Girl's Friendly Society: Mrs. W. Bertrand Stevens gave, first, an account of the Girl's Friendly Lodge which, in two years, has been enlarged from a housing capacity of twelve girls to its present capacity of accommodating thirty-two girls, with two house mothers and attendant maids; secondly, a report of the Girls' Friendly Society proper; membership in fifteen branches, 402; number admitted to membership in 1924, 74; three new branches established. Received. (Appendix 19.)

8. Woman's Auxiliary: Report was read by Mrs. Stevens for Miss Helen G. Magill, President, and was a resume of the splendid work done by the Auxiliary during the year. Number of Branches, 60; total receipts, including last year's balance, $12,938.00. Received. (Appendix 20.)

On motion of the Rev. R. L. Windsor, the reports of the schools were postponed until to-morrow morning.

Convention adjourned to meet at 9:30 a. m. to-morrow.

After Morning Prayer, Convention opened at 9:30 a. m., in the Cathedral; Bishop Johnson in the chair.

Dr. J. E. Cowles moved that, in view of the fact that the objectionable noise of building operations in an adjacent building had been largely modified, the Convention reconsider its action of yesterday, which had been taken on his motion, and resume its sessions in the Parish Hall. Adopted.

The Convention forthwith repaired to the Parish Hall, Bishop Stevens taking the chair.

ELECTIONS

The Chair appointed Mr. Nichols Milbank as Judge of Elections; the Rev. Allan L. Bursleson and Hon. John J. Hawkins as tellers for the clerical vote; the Rev. Philip K. Kemp and Mr. Ralph Isham as tellers for the lay vote; as assistant tellers, the Rev. F. U. Bugbee and Mr. C. T. Hovey; the Rev. E. T. Lewis and Mr. J. P. Mee.

On motion ballots were prepared and taken immediately on assembling before reading the minutes of yesterday's proceedings.

The Rev. Dr. Learned moved that the secretary cast the ballot of the Convention for the four clerical and the four lay members nominated for the Standing Committee. Adopted.

The ballot was so cast, and the Rev. J. A. Evans, Dr. Gooden, Dr. Davidson, R. L. Windsor, Mr. H. E. Brett, C. D. Adams, Dr. J. E. Cowles, Wm. F. Knight were elected.

The Rev. Dr. Learned moved that the secretary cast the ballot of the Convention for the election of the seven persons nominated as Directors of the Corporation of the Diocese. Adopted.

The ballot was so cast, and the Right Rev. J. H. Johnson, D. D.; the Right Rev. W. Bertrand Stevens, D. D.; Mr. A. W. Morgan, H. Ivor Thomas, J. E. Jardine, W. C. Mushet, M. A. Albee were elected.

On motion of Dr. Learned, adopted, the secretary cast the ballot of the Convention for the four layman nominated as Delegates to the Synod of the Province of the Pacific and Mr. Wilfred Smith, W. C. Mushet, C. E. C. Hodgson, Stanley W. Williams were elected; for the four laymen nominated as Alternate Delegates to the Synod of the Province of the Pacific, and Mr. Ralph Isham, J. H. Logie, W. N. Howard, C. N. Burton were elected.

The Rev. C. Rankin Barnes withdrew his name from nomination as a member of the Executive Council; and, on motion, the ballot of the Convention was cast for the election of the remaining nominees, and the Rev. Dr. Learned and the Rev. Ray O. Miller were elected.

On motion of the Rev. P. A. Easley, the ballot of the Convention was cast for Mr. Chester T. Hoag as representative of the Church on the Board of Directors of the Hospital of the Good Samaritan; and, on motion of the Rev. J. A. Evans, similar action was taken for the Rev. R. L. Windsor as Registrar; and these gentlemen were elected.

The secretaries of the various Boards presented nominations for the several Provincial Boards; and the secretary of the Board of Christian Education nominations for the Board of Christian Education; and, on motion, the ballot of the Convention was cast for the persons severally nominated and they were elected, as follows: Provincial Board of Social Service, the Rev. C. Rankin Barnes; Provincial Board of Missions, Rev. George F. Weld, D. D.; Provincial Board of Religious Education, Rev. David R. Covell; Board of Christian Education, Rev. E. T. Lewis, C. T. Murphy, S. C. Clark, P. K. Kemp; Mr. Roland Diggle, Randolph Miller, George G. Entz, Dr. Perry B. Wright.

The Bishop appointed as members of the Board of Christian Education: the Rev. R. B. Gooden, D. D.; the Rev. Irving Spencer, Byron Holley, W. N. Pierson, Miss Rebekah Hibbard, Miss Mary Floyd, Mrs. Ethel M. Clizbe.

The Bishop took the chair.

The minutes of yesterday's proceedings were read and approved.

The Bishop's School for Young Children:

Mr. D. S. Downes, Principal of the Glendora Foothill School, the Bishop's School for Young Children, which is now directly associated with the Church, gave a report of the progress of the school; and, in a highly appreciated address, set forth the true principles of Christian Education. Received. (Appendix 21.)

The Rev. Dr. Learned moved that Mr. Downes be requested to reproduce his admirable address in order that it may be printed and disseminated throughout the Diocese. Adopted.

The Bishop's School for Girls: The Rev. Nassau S. Stephens, on request, gave a report of the Bishop's School at La Jolla; and, from the practical view-point of a father of one of its pupils, expressed his conviction regarding its efficiency as an institution of education, and its high character in the formation of Christian character.

Harvard School: The Rev. Dr. Gooden, Headmaster, in reporting for the Harvard School for Boys, gave a most encouraging report of the progress of the School during the year. Received. (Appendix 22.)

The Rev. Dr. Weld offered the following resolution:

WHEREAS, Richard Ainslie Kirchhoffer, a priest of this Diocese, and Rural Dean of the Convocation of San Bernardino and for five years a member of this Convention, is about to remove from this Diocese; and

WHEREAS, by his devotion to his work for the Church he has won the affection and trust of all with whom he has come in contact as priest, as pastor, and as loyal friend; therefore be it

Resolved: That we, the clerical and lay members of this Thirtieth Annual Convention of the Diocese of Los Angeles, do hereby express our regret at his departure from among us, and wish him Godspeed and success in the work he has undertaken.

Adopted.

The report of the General Church Program was presented by Mr. Wm. F. Knight, treasurer of receipts. Received. (Appendix 23.)

The grand total of receipts for 1924 amounted to $76,639.35; with the entire budget quota to the General Church Program—amounting to $43,248.31, paid in full; $33,390.84 being retained in the Diocese.

Mr. W. C. Mushet, treasurer of disbursements of the Executive Council, gave a report of the amounts expended within the Diocese—approximating $20,000.

He stated that, since closing his books and printing the report, he had received from the treasurer of receipts $5100 which represented the balance now on hand.

He moved that a gift of $500 be made to the Mission of The Advent, Los Angeles, together with a loan of $2000 payable, without interest, at the end of the year.

The Rev. Dr. Learned, moved, in amendment, that at the first meeting of the Executive Council—at the request of Convention—a gift of this amount ($500.) be made to the Mission of the Advent, together with a loan of $2000 payable, without interest, at the end of the year. Adopted.

Mr. W. C. Mushet's motion, as amended, was then adopted.

Dr. Learned stated, further, that assistance would be given by the Executive Council to the group of Missions in Orange County under the Rev. Percy W. Clarkson.

The Rev. C. T. Murphy made a statement regarding the progress of St. Luke's Mission, San Diego, a parochial mission of All Saints' Church, which is being supported by that Parish, to the effect that it had acquired the former church building of All Saints' Parish and had refitted it commodiously for services and for Sunday school use.

The Rev. F. U. Bugbee presented the Secretary's report of the General Church Program (N. W. C.)

Received. (Appendix 24).

The Rev. W. J. Loaring Clark, D.D., General Missioner of the Field Department of the National Council was presented to the Convention, and made an illuminating address on the progress and work of the General Church Program.

He congratulated the Diocese on having met in full its quota to the General Church Program and on its manifestly sound financial basis, as was apparent not only from the excellent reports which he had just heard, but from the general interest of the laity in this Convention and by the splendid church buildings which are being erected in various parishes of the Diocese.

The Rev. A. G. H. Bode presented the following resolution:

Resolved, That we, the members of the Convention of the Episcopal Church in meeting assembled, send cordial greetings to the members of the Salvation Army, meeting in Los Angeles, and assure them of our prayers for God's blessings upon their deliberations, and upon their work for the Saviour of us all. Adopted.

The Secretary communicated this resolution to the Salvation Army which, in response, sent a most appreciative acknowledgment.

Mr. W. C. Mushet, Treasurer of the Diocese, presented the Treasurer's report. Received. (Appendix 25.)

On motion Convention adjourned to meet at 2 p. m.

Convention reassembled at the hour named, Bishop Stevens in the chair.

The Bishop introduced Mr. C. H. Emmons, Director of the Near East Relief, to the Convention, who spoke of the continued need of the support of this great emergency relief work. He stated that 40,000 orphaned children in the orphanages supported by the Near East Relief, were entirely dependent on this fund for their maintenance in the Near East, and 10,000 in Greece and Syria. $5.00 a month, or $60.00 a year was found to be sufficient for the support of a child.

On motion the following resolution was unanimously adopted.

Resolved, That the Thirtieth Annual Convention of the Diocese of Los Angeles expresses its approval of the great work carried on by the Near East Relief, and its admiration for the heroic and efficient manner in which the unforeseen emergencies have been met. It urges upon the Parishes and Missions of the Diocese their continued support of this great agency of Christian mercy until such time as the forlorn and destitute Christian peoples of the Near East shall be able to care for themselves, and until this multitude of orphaned children have arrived at the years and the condition of self-support. This both in fulfillment of our Christian duty and in recognition of our American responsibility in the comity of nations. We commend the special service which Near East Relief is organizing on behalf of ten thousand of the neediest orphans in the refuge camps of Greece and Syria.

The Judge of Elections reported the result of the first ballot.

DEPUTIES TO GENERAL CONVENTION

The regular and special committees appointed by the Bishop were declared to be those printed in last year's Journal with these exceptions: Committee on Credentials: Mr. A. R. Evans in the place of Mr. Hoogendyk, and the name of the Rev. R. L. Windsor removed from the Social Service Commission at his request. (Pages 6 and 7.)

The Rev. Dr. Weld moved that the Secretary be requested to communicate to the several members of the Committee on Judiciary of the Senate the following resolution:

Resolved, That the clerical and lay delegates to the Thirtieth Annual Convention of the Diocese of Los Angeles respectfully ask the members of the Senate Committee on judiciary to give Senate Bill 508 their favorable consideration to the end that this bill may be reported back to the Senate and action taken thereon at this session of the Legislature. Adopted.

The Rev. P. H. Hickman moved that the minutes of yesterday's proceedings which had been approved be reconsidered. Adopted.

The Rev. Mr. Hickman moved that the matter which, on his motion, related to an addition to the report of the Church Pension Fund Committee, and all associated matter, be expunged from the minutes. Adopted.

He then moved that the minutes, as reconsidered, be approved. Adopted.

The Rev. C. Rankin Barnes offered the following resolution:

Resolved, That, in view of the approaching World Conference on Faith and Order, Convention ask the Bishop to appoint a committee, consisting of three presbyters and three laymen, to cooperate on behalf of this Diocese with the World Conference on Faith and Order. Adopted.

The Bishop appointed the following as such committee: The Rev. C. Rankin Barnes, Rev. John R. Atwill, Rev. George Davidson, D.D.; Gen. Charles H. Whipple, Mr. John B. Johnson, Mr. Carroll Searles.

The Rev. V. D. Ruggles offered the following:

Resolved: That this Convention desires to express its appreciation of the patient, sterling work of Dean J. Arthur Evans in the mission at Beverly Hills, where, after over four years of steadfast perseverance and practically without financial remuneration, he has been instrumental in erecting a Mission Church on a magnificent lot and gathered together an interested congregation. Such a work expresses the finest missionary spirit of the Church in its patient persistence to accomplish a great end for the Kingdom of God. Adopted.

The Rev. S. C. Clark presented the following resolution, passed by the Church School Institute in St. Paul's Cathedral House, Monday, January 25, 1925.

Realizing the importance of the bill now before the State Legislature advocating week-day religious education, this Institute respectfully requests the Thirtieth Annual Convention of the Diocese of Los Angeles to place itself on record as favoring the passage of this bill, and to request the Bishops to write to the Education Committee of the Legislature urging the favorable recommendation of the same. Adopted.

The Very Rev. Dr. MacCormack moved that the Deputies to the General Convention be authorized to invite the General Convention to hold its next session, in 1928, in the City of Los Angeles. Adopted.

The Rev. Canon Browne presented the report of the Church Extension Society. Received. (Appendix 26.)

The Rev. Canon Browne moved that the following gentlemen be appointed Directors of the Society for the ensuing year: The Bishop, the Very Rev. Dr. MacCormack, the Rev. J. D. H. Browne, Dr. Dotten, Alfred Fletcher, Mr. H. E. Brett, L. S. Porter, C. M. Gair, M. A. Albee. Adopted.

The Rev. Dr. Davidson moved the following resolution:

Resolved: That the Secretary be requested to transmit to the Rev. W. C. Shaw, a priest of this Diocese, an expression of our sincere sympathy with him in his illness and our great regret at his absence from this Convention; and, further, our earnest hope that he may soon recover his health and take his usual place among us. Adopted.

Mr. W. C. Mushet presented the report of the Finance Committee, with a recommendation that the assessment, this year, for Diocesan Missions be $20,000.

On motion, the report was received and the recommendation adopted. (Appendix 27.)

Bishop Johnson, resuming the chair, re-appointed the Hon. F. C. Valentine as Chancellor of the Diocese; and, in doing so, gave expression to the great sense of obligation he was under to the Chancellor for his continued services which are of great value to himself and to the Diocese. The Bishop hoped that—notwithstanding the additional duties which had been laid upon him, which was a source of great gratification to himself and to the members of the Convention—Judge Valentine would be able to continue his valued services to the Church in the advisory capacity of Chancellor of the Diocese. Judge Valentine graciously accepted the appointment.

The report of the Corporation of the Diocese was presented by Mr. Merton A. Albee. Received. (Appendix 28.)

The report of the Jerusalem and East Mission Fund was presented by the Secretary on behalf of the Rev. Dr. Dotten, the representative of that fund. The Secretary stated that Dr. Dotten, because of the inhibition of his physician, requested that his name be not considered for reappointment.

On motion of the Rev. P. H. Hickman the report was received; who offered a resolution of sympathy with Dr. Dotten in his illness, and regret for his inability to continue in charge of the fund; together with the earnest hope that he may soon be restored to health. Adopted.

The Bishop spoke of the faithful labors of the Rev. Dr. Dotten under long-continued ill health and of his highly-valuable services to the Diocese, which had brought the fund to an unusual standard of efficiency.

Subsequently, the Bishop appointed the Rev. A. F. Randall as Representative of the Jerusalem and East Mission.

The report of the Auditing Committee was presented by Mr. H. E. Brett. Received. (Appendix 29.)

The Rev. W. E. Maison offered the following resolution:

Resolved: That this Convention expresses its thanks to the National Council for sending The Rev. Middleton S. Barnwell to present the work of the Church to this Diocese. It begs to state its sense of deep indebtedness to the Rev. Mr. Barnwell for the deep and lasting inspiration due to his words and work. Adopted.

Suitable Memorial pages are dedicated in the Journal to the memory of our deceased brethren of the Clergy who, during the year, have passed to their reward: The Rev. Sydney H. Woodford, the Rev. Frank Roudenbush, the Rev. George W. Dunlap, the Rev. William Bamford Burrows.

The Rev. R. L. Windsor moved that the reading of this day's minutes be dispensed with, and that they be certified by the chair.

On motion, Convention adjourned—subject to the call of the Bishop—the Bishop pronouncing the blessing.

Attest:

ALFRED FLETCHER, Secretary.

JOSEPH H. JOHNSON,
President of the Convention.

On Thursday evening the Convention dinner was held in the Parish House of the beautiful new St. John's Church, there being a large body of the clergy and lay members of the Church in attendance—to the number of 325, the most largely-attended Convention Dinner, it was said, in the history of the Diocese. It was an open meeting of the Diocesan Men's Club, given as a reception to Bishop and Mrs. Johnson, and to the Bishop Coadjutor and Mrs. Stevens. Mr. George M. Wiley, in the absence of Mr. William J. Currer, the president of the Club, presided, and deferred to Bishop Stevens.

Bishop Stevens called upon the Very Rev. Wm. MacCormack, D.D., who presented to Bishop Johnson a testimonial letter, signed by the clergy of the Convention, felicitating him upon his twenty-nine years of long and happy, faithful service—during which the Diocese had developed, under God's blessing and his efforts, to a very remarkable degree of efficiency; so that now it has its place among the strong Dioceses of the American Church; and praying that God may add many years to his Episcopate that the Church of God may be further served by him and that his clergy may be permitted to rejoice in the continued blessing of his fatherly guidance and direction.

Bishop Johnson replied in felicitous terms, and expressed his great gratification in the confidence and love of his clergy, and in the blessing which God has given to their combined efforts for His glory in the extension of the Church of His incarnate Son.

Bishop Johnson then called upon the following speakers who gave inspiring addresses: Dr. H. H. Powell, Dean of the Church Divinity School of the Pacific, Dr. Miriam Van Waters, of the City Juvenile Court, Dr. W. J. Loaring Clark, General Missioner of the National Council, and Dr. George Davidson, rector of St. John's Church.

APPENDIX I

THE BISHOP'S ADDRESS

Dear Brethren of the Clergy and Laity:

Four priests of the Diocese have been called to their rest during the past year. Sidney H. Woodford came to Los Angeles from Detroit in the early years of my Episcopate. I had known him throughout my rectorship of Christ Church in the latter city and, during the acquaintanceship of those years, I learned to admire him for the superior excellence of his scholarship, for the keenness of his spiritual ideals and for the genuine sweetness of his purpose. His death took place in this city on the 16th of last March.

On July 31 the Rev. George W. Dunlap, after a long illness, died in his own home at Escondido. Mr. Dunlap was a man of extended experience, indomitable energy and of recognized talent as a preacher. In his last illness his suffering was severe and continuous; yet, strengthened by the Divine Presence, he bore himself with great fortitude, and at the close entered with patience into the joy of his Lord.

On August 1st of this last year, the Rev. William B. Burrows passed to his rest at Pascoag, in the State of Rhode Island. Owing to serious deafness Mr. Burrows had been unable to exercise his ministry effectively for quite a quarter of a century. For the greater portion of this time, Mr. Burrows, with Mrs. Burrows, lived in the far East. During his ministry in Santa Ana and Orange County he won for himself much love and affection and, even now, though those years lie far back in the past, many beautiful memories recall Mr. Burrows, once a devoted pastor and an attached friend.

The latest loss is so near that fresh tears are moistening many an eye as I speak the name of Frank Roudenbush to-day. Gifted as he was with a rare facility of approach to his fellow men, with an alert mind, with a warm, generous nature, he quickly drew about him, since he came to California, a host of acquaintances who soon became in the truest sense his friends. He responded more sympathetically to the human touch than almost any man I have known in the ministry to do. He did what it is hard to do,—he made men understand that he believed in them because he thought that they ought to want to be understood. Having that thought in mind, he quickly drew men unto him. I wish that I could make the necessity for such an outlook upon life, by every priest of the Church, imperious and real. I venture to say that not one of any four men whom I have ever known have seemed, in certain respects, more different from the others than were Woodford, Dunlap, Burrows and Roudenbush. The one, Woodford, was a philosopher and mystic. The second, Dunlap, was a practical evangelist of the old school. The third, Burrows, was made by tradition and circumstance, not a worldly man but a man of the world. The last, Roudenbush, whose heart overflowed with love, so craved love that he constantly created opportunities where men and women and children could give expression to it.

But that was not a strange quartette. God everywhere is making men after different patterns. A, who sits near you in Church, and whom you cannot understand, is A. He is not, nor can he ever be B or C. Let us cultivate the habit of thanking God that this is so, and let us ask God to give us the vision that will enable us to see the man and neighbor, A, in all of his real perfection and beauty and power; and, as we think of these four strong, beautiful characters, whose lives we commemorate, let us pray God to grant to them, as time goes on, joy and peace.

Let Light perpetual shine upon them.

As, practically, we enter upon the activities of another year to-day, it is but natural that we should take a rapid glance over the months that have passed. The Church never exhausts its resources. Never as individuals or as an organism are we living up to our limits. That, we ought always to take for granted; and I regard that generation as ungrateful that does not, at its very outset, recognize that God is always making good His promise to guide and lead life up to better things than it has ever known or done before. Whatever may have been our own failing as men, God has never failed us as God, and we owe it to Him to discover by introspection where His light and guidance, which have led to great success, have been exercised. Now do not mistake me. In one sense there is no such thing as failure in life. Our real successes may have been the very factors in this year that unintelligently we have called failures. Our Lord, for instance, to many seemed to be a failure at the moment of His crucifixion which was the moment of His supreme success. Thus, during the last year, many of our failures, so called, if properly valued, may have been glorious achievements. They really may have been our life successes. We have gone to bed humiliated by what we have called failures to find, upon awakening in the morning, that in our fancied failure we have another real success written to our credit. All these things, out of loyalty to God, must be fairly valued; the real question for us to ask at the close of each day is not—what does the world think but—what does God think of our work. Now, let us stop for a moment to take account in this way of the debit and credit side of our stock in the past year's work.

First, let me remind you that we have been making a very creditable amount of history in California during the last thirty years. The Living Church Annual has recently offered us in this Diocese some comforting statistics in its compendium just published. The number of Baptisms, of Confirmations, of Communicants, has steadily increased until our Diocese, numerically considered, is quite one of the most important Dioceses of the entire country. Of course, this should be our record, as the development of California's population and of California's commercial interests has been far greater than the population and commercial interests of the country elsewhere. I merely mention the fact to assure you that I am aware that we, in California, have been carrying heavy burdens, which is indicated by very genuine results. We have been securing results that give evidence that our people have appreciated the obligations that rest upon them, and that we, your Bishops, are appreciative of your cooperation that gives the Diocese its remarkable place in the great family of the Church of the Nation.

I always hesitate to allude to financial statistics. Such statements are apt to be provincial and easily become vulgar. In a great country like our own, the circumstances that give success or failure are rarely the same everywhere; and figures, therefore, never justify a boasting spirit. At times crops and activities have almost capriciously thrown great fortunes here into our laps, or, almost as capriciously, have prosperous conditions been diverted elsewhere. For this reason, figures offer most unreliable data, and I am not likely to be beguiled by them; but, still for all that, I think that California,—but a fragment to be sure of the entire country known as the United States—is really unique; and that, because of the law of general averages, growth in population and cultivated resources are likely to increase and so development and growth may be taken for granted. The general average of climatic conditions creates a situation which usually justifies many of our assumptions as to the future. Of course, every cautious and wise man, who has lived here in the South for a certain number of years, must learn to take for granted the possibility of uncertain winters and uncertain summers. That is part of our life, and we must reckon with it when we are planning for the future. I do not, however, believe that I am unduly optimistic when I say that, keeping the law of averages in mind, for many generations great hosts will continue to come to California to make their homes, and that, take it all in all, the lure to its fruitful fields will not for many years be withstood. All of which means that, for a long time to come, a population will come to us from the East and the West, the North and the South with which the Church must be prepared to deal; and that, furthermore, a population which, tested by the past, will be sturdy, strong, self-supporting and always ready to meet any and every demand which the State and the Church may make upon it. As a fact, all the elements that combine to build up a splendid society of men and women have been operative here in Southern California for a half century, and the opportunity to mould and shape that society into a splendid form has never been larger than it is to-day.

Second: We have also under God, as a Diocese, been creating a wonderful situation here in Southern California. We have been gathering into a compact mass the vast numbers of Church people who started coming to this Western Coast about fifty years ago. I do not recall such an organized trekking of a people as has gradually been taking place on this side of the continent since the year forty-nine, and, practically now, it might seem that we had reached the limit. The building up of a Nation, however, is a large matter. The community has to be built up; municipal and state government have had to be coordinated and the mutual relations between these several elements of civic life have had to be established; but what the State has had to do for itself the Church has had to do for itself as well. It has had to organize in order to function. It has needed Institutions; it has needed churches in which to worship. Until the present time she has had no great buildings with which to symbolize her faith and, consequently, she has worked at a great disadvantage. Again and again your Bishop has been asked, “where are the buildings and institutions of the Episcopal Church in and near to the City of Los Angeles?” A strange question for a Bishop to hear and answer, was it not? But the time has come when the Bishop is no longer embarrassed by such an inquiry. During the last ten years we have been able to point out in process of construction, and reaching completion, a number of really very fine ecclesiastical structures, of which we need not be ashamed. I need but speak of our Schools, our Hospital, our Homes for the young and the aged. Each year we have added to the list and, now, the Deaconesses’ Home, another institution, has its own new splendid place of residence. And still another agency, in connection with the Girls’ Friendly Society, has recently come into existence. In recalling these organizations, let me say that I would especially like you to give an opportunity to the Girls' Friendly Society to present its cause at this session of the Convention. The opportunity to do this will be asked; I trust it will be accorded. The President of the Diocesan Branch, Mrs. Stevens, will, I am sure, get an appeal before you. I beg you grant her your sympathetic response. This record is a very creditable one; and we, one and all, may be gratified by it. It is, to be sure, only the record of moderate achievement; but it is, in its modest way, the result of an honest desire to place the Church before this community as a messenger of the peace and love of the Gospel of the Lord Jesus Christ.

Let us turn our thoughts now for a moment to what we may properly call our Church Building Era. I feel that a church building era has begun in such a real way that little need be said upon that subject now. Before the present time we had neither money nor the time with which to build churches. Within the last decade, however, more than fifty structures;—church buildings and church houses, etc., have sprung up into existence; and, if these buildings are exquisite in design and substantial in structure, we need not be surprised, for we have learned much during the last twenty-five years of the architecture suited to our work. We have at least learned to study design and to build substantially. As an illustration, let me point out St. Barnabas' Church, Eagle Rock, a very remarkable structure just finished; the Chapel of the Advent on West Adams St., Los Angeles; the beautiful Church of the Redeemer on Boyle Heights, and St. Luke's in the Mountains, now rising to graceful proportions at La Crescenta. These are types; and, like most of our other churches, models in design and construction.

In November I consecrated this Cathedral building which is a fitting house of worship for the Church engaged in corporate acts of devotion and of service. Surely this building cannot be mistaken for any other than a House of God. The spacious nave in itself is a call to all of God's people to come in and rest awhile. The altar, with its noble adjuncts, so entirely catches and holds the eye that one immediately feels the call to sacrificial worship, and, as one enters yonder porch, one does feel that one is within God's Temple and that the World's call must be stilled—as evidently we are within the Divine Presence.

St. John's Church, the second church to be finished this year in this city, is a very remarkable structure, and undoubtedly it will be accorded great distinction in this wonderful building era. I think it will be conceded that the proportions of that structure are almost incomparable in the churches of the country. The style, "decorated Italian," has been built with courage. The decoration of the nave and of the walls are like a delicate bit of platinum jewelry, and the coloring of the apse and triptych are so carefully done that one feels the touch of the artist with every movement of the eye. St. John's is so fine and delicate in its construction that one's attention is constantly arrested and held. It is the sort of building that the artists crave to see again and again. The variety of the carving and coloring is inexhaustible. One goes and one returns and then returns again, lest some cutting of the chisel may have been left unseen, or if seen then too quickly forgotten and to memory lost.

Equally fine in its conception and execution stands All Saints' Church, Pasadena. It is constantly said to be akin to the conventional architecture in which the Anglo-Saxon race seemed always to delight. While it is traditional; i. e., built in the form that suggests something past and gone, yet it has a present grandeur and glory which is wholly its own. There have been no experiments in its design or construction. It is the sort of church which we have seen duplicated and reduplicated many times as we have motored through English towns and villages, or Northern Europe. It suggests a vigorous, stately and well-tried past; a past in which men have been born and married and buried with always the symbols of the Incarnation universally lifted into the light to appeal to the heart and mind. In this sort of church, you and I immediately have a home. The architecture, the decoration, completely represent the ideals into which we were born when we came into life. It is more than that, however. It is an ideal realized in a form so glorious that all coming generations will rejoice in it.

My friends, before I close, let me say this:- In the future I shall call the generation brave which undertakes to build a church in California. In this Diocese now we really have some beautiful illustrations of what a church should be. With elevations of at least fifteen churches, which I could name, to study, no vestry or rector would venture, I am sure, to stand for a church that is not carefully designed. These accessible models have established a standard in the Diocese so that we do not need to cross either the continent or the water for the architectural inspiration upon which we must build in the future.

With the closed year we may rejoice in much work accomplished, but the Church's vision reaches down through the centuries. May the centuries bring a splendid perfection to all the work that in each year the Church undertakes to do for God!

APPENDIX 2

THE BISHOP COADJUTOR'S ADDRESS

1925

At this annual gathering of our Diocesan forces, it seems well to consider whether or not we cannot deepen the sense of fellowship in the life of the Church in Southern California. In that little collection of essays by various writers, "Religion and Life," Fr. Frere of the Mirfield Community asks, "Is Christianity a fellowship; and, if so, will it have the power to accomplish these great tasks which cry for fellowship at the present time? . . . An anxious demand for fellowship comes from those who show most zeal in carrying out the great constructive reforms of which fellowship is the necessary basis. They show strong dissatisfaction with Christian people, and even Christianity itself. 'Your Churches, what use are they? They don't help us.' From how many points does this come! The men who are interested in social reform are constantly flinging in your face the very principles of Christianity itself, the very example of our Master, in scorn. 'These are His principles and these are your principles,' they say; 'if you only acted up to them you would be on our side, we should be working together; but you stand for the preservation of all we are against, and for the repression of everything of which we are in favor.'"

One suspects, indeed, one knows, that Fr. Frere is right. The need of Christian fellowship in the individual congregation, in the community and among Christians in general, is so great that the progress of the Kingdom is being retarded. The matter is of great concern to us in Southern California. Our natural development is extensive in character rather than intensive. With the pressing problems of Church extension confronting us we are likely to neglect the important task of binding our people together in the bonds of Christ Jesus. Our communities are filled with religious floaters, members of Christian congregations in other parts of the country, who have been active and interested in the work of the Church at home, but who have never anchored themselves in California. It would be conservative to say that we have as many members of the Episcopal Church here, wholly unattached, as we have active communicants. This is a problem that has been of great concern to you all and I am not presenting it as a new discovery. But I am led to ask the question, "Why?" It is commonly attributed to the delights of the California climate or to a sense of freedom and independence inspired by a new civilization. Probably both reasons have some validity, but may it not be well to consider whether or not it may be partly due to a lack of fellowship in the group? I do not mean that clergy and laity do not try to make newcomers feel at home but, rather, that we often seem to lack an infectious consciousness of unity in Christ. No sense of unity in social or intellectual affinities will do. "Ye, being many, are only one body in Christ." From the sociological point of view it is interesting to attempt to discover the several factors that cause people from the East and Middle West to forget their Church in California. But from the Christian point of view it is more important to ask ourselves why it is that there is not in the Church sufficient drawing power to counterbalance social influences of every sort.

This is my fifth Convention in the Diocese of Los Angeles and I am proud to say that my experience makes me believe that we have as fine a fraternal spirit as exists in any Diocese in the Church. It may be possible, however, for us to develop something unique,—a cohesive oneness that will be more effective than any amount of material prosperity or physical equipment. The strength of the Diocese is the strength of the individual parish. For one of my Episcopal duties I have neither taste nor ability. That is for acting as arbiter in parish disagreements. I accept the task willingly, but always with the question in my mind as to the underlying reason for its necessity. There have been comparatively few serious disagreements, and the noteworthy thing is that there usually seems to be so little reason for their existence. It is not, apparently, the fault of the rector or missionary, nor is it the fault of the congregation. It is the result, usually, of some lack of the spirit of fellowship. The parish is a family. Family relationships demand forbearance, love, patience, and the willingness to overlook small things. So does the parish relationship; and nothing is surer than that the newcomer into a given community will be repelled by a lack of these virtues in the Christian congregation.

The parish which lacks unity is at a serious disadvantage from every point of view. The eloquence of the rector, the efficiency of the vestry and the industry of the guild can in no wise compensate for the absence of brotherly harmony. "Be perfect" said the great Apostle; "Be of good comfort, be of one mind, live in peace; and the God of love and peace shall be with you."

Fellowship means more than parochial peace, however. There is a larger fellowship which must be expressed by the congregation in the community. The responsibility I have in mind has to do with Christians of other races and view-points in our respective parish boundaries. Japanese Churchmen, for example, are in Southern California, I am told, in rather large numbers. A missionary from Japan who recently made an informal canvass of the situation found a good many intelligent Japanese who are members of the Nippon Sei Kokwai but have never made themselves known to the local Church, because of an impression that they are not welcome. In the City of Los Angeles our splendid Japanese Mission is able to attract and care for such Christians, but in other communities, where there is no Japanese congregation, it is probably true that they drop all formal relationship with the Church. In one community (not in this Diocese) a group of Japanese Churchmen get together every Sunday morning just to read Morning Prayer, but they would not think of attending the parish church. The question is this: Is Christian fellowship to yield to local customs and prejudices? This concerns not merely racial but social and intellectual differences. Is the Christian Church a club or a democracy?

The present time offers an unusual opportunity for demonstrating a Christian fraternal spirit to Christians of other races. Oriental groups of various National Churches look to us for help and guidance. Converts of our own Missionary staff in foreign lands are settling in our midst. It is of paramount importance that our attitude be Christian.—not polite indifference, but an eager extending of the hand of fellowship. We cannot have one code of social ethics for the Mission Field and another for the United States. The success of any work in the foreign field depends on the practice of Christian virtues at home. Money given to the General Church Program cannot compensate for disloyalty to Christ's teaching on social relations.

THE GENERAL CHURCH PROGRAM

Nothing could have been more gratifying to the Bishops of the Diocese than the splendid way in which some of you made it possible to pay our budget quota for 1923. It was a magnificent achievement, which placed us in an enviable position among the Dioceses of the Church. In the minds of many there was the natural query as to what would result this year. Would we be obliged to make up a deficit by some artificial method? It seemed possible, especially in view of the fact that our 1924 budget quota was somewhat larger. It will not be necessary. What news could be more inspiring than that we have paid our budget quota of the General Church Program. That means that another year there will doubtless be something for advance work because the results of our last canvass seem to promise a much larger amount for missions than ever before. The work of the Rev. Middleton S. Barnwell, Field Secretary for the National Council, was invaluable. He was able to stimulate new interest in the Program in a number of parishes and missions. It is impossible to estimate the value of a man's work in dollars and cents; but, if it were, I am convinced that the 1925 contributions will show a great increase as a result of his work. Mr. Bugbee has done uniformly faithful work for the Program, as have Mr. Lane, Mr. Covell, Dean Kirchhoffer and many others. It has been frequently said that we must make the Program a normal part of the Church's life. That is an ideal that is now largely realized. Whatever our failures may be, there is, I believe, no parish or mission in the Diocese where it is not accepted as a natural responsibility, if not a high privilege.

All of us realize that practical results in service and giving are richest when the appeal is on the highest possible level. For some time it will probably be necessary to ask frankly and openly for money but, this year, we are to make an effort to give to the Program that spiritual emphasis which it has sometimes lacked.

A DIOCESAN MISSION

Beginning next Sunday we are to have a Diocesan Mission in the Cathedral Church to last for ten days. Through the kind cooperation of the National Council we are to have as Missioner the Rev. W. J. Loaring Clark, a master in the art of conducting mission services. In connection with the mission there are to be clinical features. On Tuesday and Wednesday there are to be instructions for the clergy. We desire all the clergy to be present on those days. Announcements of the Mission will be made from time to time during the Convention and you are earnestly requested to inform the people of the congregation of which you are a member. The Mission too is an experiment in fellowship. Its success depends upon the cooperation of every local group. It offers an opportunity to further the work of the whole Church in the Diocese.

CLERICAL CHANGES

During the year 1924, the following resignations have been received: The Rev. Harlan Bailey from St. John's Church, Corona; the Rev. Robert Tuftt from Christ Church, Coronado; the Rev. Frederick C. Miller from the Church of the Good Shepherd, Hemet, and adjacent Missions; the Rev. G. C. Rafter from SS. James and Barnabas' Church, Los Angeles; Archdeacon Smithe from the care of St. John's Church, The Needles; and the Rev. A. F. Randall from Trinity Church, Los Angeles.

New clergy have been called to the following work, and have been transferred or are officiating by license: The Rev. Byron Holley to Burbank, the Rev. W. St. J. Blackshear to Escondido, in succession to the Rev. Mr. Dunlap who died during the summer after a long illness and a noble effort to carry on his work during his time of disability; the Rev. G. M. Macdougall to Hemet, the Rev. E. M. Bruce to the Bishop's School for Girls at La Jolla; the Rev. W. T. Holt to All Saints' Chapel, Long Beach; the Rev. William Cowans to the Cathedral; the Rev. C. E. Maltas to the Church of the Epiphany, Los Angeles; the Rev. H. R. Sanborn and the Rev. Benjamin T. Trego to the parochial missions of St. John's Church, Los Angeles; the Rev. J. M. Niblo and the Rev. W. G. Moffat to St. Matthias' Church, Los Angeles; the Rev. H. V. Harris (formerly of Orange) to Trinity Church, Los Angeles; the Rev. F. J. Bate to National City; the Rev. H. H. Gillies of Kingman, Arizona, to The Needles; the Rev. H. C. Parke to Garvanza; the Rev. Frederick C. Miller to Santa Maria and adjacent fields; the Rev. A. P. Stenbridge to Watts and the Rev. A. H. Wurtele to St. Thomas' Church, Hollywood.

The death of the Rev. Frank Roudenbush has left a serious gap in our forces. His work at St. Thomas' Church was of a very high order. It is not often that one finds so united a parish or one in which the spirit of fellowship is so strong and the future of the parish is so assured by the loyalty of innumerable young people.

The coming of the Rev. David R. Covell as Secretary of Christian Education and Social Service has quickened the life of the Diocese along many lines. He has entered upon his duties with fine enthusiasm and purpose and with a background of rich experience in the field of endeavor which he represents.

The resignation of the Rev. R. A. Kirchhoffer is greatly regretted. His work at Riverside and as Dean of the Convocation of San Bernardino has made a large place for him in this Diocese. Our good wishes go with him.

HONOR MISSIONS FOR 1925

It has been our hope that each year there would be a number of additions to our self-supporting congregations and some voluntary reduction of diocesan appropriations.

I am glad to announce that St. Andrew's Church, Los Angeles, has relinquished all missionary aid and has applied for admission as a parish. With its fine new group of buildings and its strategic location, its future is unusually bright. The Mission of the Good Shepherd, Los Angeles, which has been given independence by St. John's Church, will go immediately on a self-supporting basis with no outside aid of any kind. The Mission of St. Mary of the Angels has voluntarily reduced its missionary appropriation one half. St. Jude's Church, Burbank, has willingly accepted a reduction, and in addition has over-pledged its General Church Program quota by 300 per cent. The congregation of St. Philip's, Los Angeles, has accepted a reduction of fifteen dollars monthly. Nothing could be more inspiring, by the way, than the services of St. Philip's congregation. The building is always crowded, the confirmation classes are among the largest in the Diocese and the spirit is splendid. The Mission at Ocean Beach will this year pledge a definite amount to the Board of Missions.

NEW BUILDINGS

This year has seen the completion of the Cathedral; St. John's Church, Los Angeles; All Saints Church, Pasadena; the Church of the Redeemer, Los Angeles; St. Barnabas' Church, Eagle Rock. All of these buildings are a great addition to our growing list of worthy churches. St. James' Church, South Pasadena, has been enlarged by the addition of a transept and fine tower with memorial chimes. All Saints' Church, San Diego, has a new parish house with a beautiful new tower on the Church. St. Bartholemew's congregation, El Sereno, and Christ Mission, Torrance, have erected combination churches and parish houses. All Saints' Church, San Diego, has given to its mission, St. Luke's, San Diego, its old church building and has reconstructed it with very satisfactory results. In process of erection, and in some cases, nearly completed, are All Saints' Church, Beverly Hills; St. Luke's in the Mountains, La Crescenta; St. John's Church, Chula Vista; St. Francis' Church, Laguna Beach; Church of the Advent, Los Angeles; St. Augustine's parish house, Santa Monica. St. Mark's Church, East San Diego, has acquired a building for parish house purposes. It may be an indication of our material prosperity to note that the major building operations of 1924 represent an investment of more than a million and a half dollars.

In this connection may I venture to suggest renewed attention to the question of titles to church property. The matter has come up in a number of connections and has, I think, been the subject of occasional discussion in the Council and the Diocesan Convention. There still seems to be confusion, however, and I recommend to the rectors and vestrymen of the various parishes an investigation into the titles of their property in cases where there is any shadow of doubt.

THE SEAMEN'S CHURCH INSTITUTE

The Seamen's Church Institute is a great venture in fellowship. It is a demonstration to merchant seamen that Christians believe in fraternity. The new equipment at Los Angeles Harbor makes it possible for us to work in a big way. The fact has doubtless been called to your attention that we are now the third largest Institute in the country, exceeded only by New York and Philadelphia. With comparatively little money and a remarkable use of material on hand, the Rev. Mr. Kelly has evolved a magnificent plant, and no praise is too high for the quiet self-effacing work he has done. A great assembly hall, dormitories, private rooms, and innumerable conveniences for seamen are features of the group of buildings that stand in such a strategic position at San Pedro.

May I close with a personal word? Before another Convention I shall have completed five years of service as Bishop Coadjutor of this Diocese. They have been busy and happy years; made busy by the great opportunities and obligations that confront us, and happy by the warmth and cordiality of everyone in the Diocese. I dare to make fellowship the key note of this address,—partly because I have learned a good deal about it here among you. No one could be more conscious of my inadequacy for the work to be done than I myself, but I am increasingly conscious that it is not so difficult to do things when one can work under and with so statesmanlike a leader as the Bishop of the Diocese, whose whole life and work are based on a conviction of the need of fellowship; and it ever grows easier when one is working among people who believe as wholeheartedly as do you in the practice of Christian love.

May the years ahead be marked by a growing spirit of fellowship, a perfect unity in the Diocese, a perfect sympathy among the clergy and a perfect expression in the congregation of the fact that we are One Body in Christ!

Respectfully submitted,

ROBERT B. GOODEN, Secretary.

APPENDIX 4

REPORT OF THE EXECUTIVE COUNCIL

The Executive Council organized for the year, 1924, with the same membership as the previous year and during the past year there have been no changes. Eight meetings have been held with an excellent attendance.

Its work during the year has been as follows:

1. The Council has provided the funds to carry on the intensive Fall Campaign for the General Church Program. This is a most important aspect of diocesan life since upon the success or failure of the Campaign depends the advance work of the Diocese. For the past two years the Council has been unable to undertake little new work, having perforce to reconcile itself to carrying on its activities already established; but it is hoped that the total pledges for the General Church Program will this year be sufficiently increased to enable the Council to meet the many requests made upon it for a forward program.

2. It has given to the Board of Missions money to provide additional salaries for missionaries not provided for by the Diocesan Missionary Assessment.

3. The Council continued its appropriation for the office of an Executive Secretary for Religious Education and Social Service, and in May, 1924, the Rev. David R. Covell entered upon this office. The Rev. Mr. Covell has made regular reports to the Council, and already there are many splendid evidences of the excellent quality of the work which he is doing.

4. The usual appropriations for the County and City Mission Society and the Seamen's Institute have been made. Inasmuch as both of these institutions will report to the Convention no mention of their activities need be made here. Other institutions which have received appropriations or priority gifts are: The Church Home for Children, The Home for the Aged, The Neighborhood Settlement, The Girls' Friendly Society.

A detailed financial report of the money received and expended by the Council for these and other objects will be found in the reports of the Treasurer of the Diocese and the General Church Program Treasurer.

5. The Council congratulates the Church Schools of the Diocese on their splendid Easter Offering of $7,526.16, an increase of $1,266.89 over last year. At the February meeting, Bishop Stevens was requested to write a letter to the schools suggesting that the offering amount to $8,000.00. It will be seen how immediate was the response to the Bishop's appeal.

6. The Council has been in communication with one of the parishes of the Diocese, which has not kept up the premium for the Church Pension Fund. Owing to a Ruling of the Fund, the $1000.00 immediate payment to the widow of a clergyman dying in active service is not paid in full whenever any parish in a diocese is either not a member of the Fund or is delinquent in meeting its pension premium.

7. The budget for 1925 was adopted at the October meeting and ordered printed and was distributed to the parishes in time for the Annual Canvass.

8. The presence of the Rev. M. S. Barnwell, as the representative of the Field Department in the Diocese during the month of November for the Annual Canvass was of tremendous value. Thanks are expressed to the National Council and it is hoped that a similar program will be carried out next year.

9. The Council understands that the Rev. R. A. Kirchhoffer, Dean of the Convocation of San Bernardino, is leaving the Diocese in February, to accept a charge in Alabama. Dean Kirchhoffer has given untiringly of his services, in every way, to foster the aims of the Council and the Diocese is under a heavy debt of gratitude to him for his efforts in behalf of the General Church Program. Much of the success that has been attained has been due to his labors.

10. The Council, at its December meeting, had submitted to it a request from the General Church Program Committee, for the appointment of an Executive Secretary for this Diocese. This matter was referred to a special committee, and, after consideration at the January meeting of the Council, it was decided to propose a resolution on the subject to the Convention.

The Executive Council therefore submits the following resolution and asks for its adoption:

Resolved, That this Convention approves the appointment, by the Bishops, of an Executive Secretary for the Diocese.

Respectfully submitted,

EDWIN S. LANE, Secretary.

REPORT OF THE BOARD OF MISSIONS THROUGH THE DEANS OF CONVOCATION

REPORT OF THE CONVOCATION OF LOS ANGELES

Since our last meeting we have erected seven churches in this convocation:

	Cost	Debt
Immanuel, El Monte.....	$ 3,000
St. Bartholomew, El Sereno.....	2,500
St. Luke's, La Crescenta.....	10,000	$3,000
St. Barnabas', Eagle Rock.....	10,000	5,000
Redeemer, Hollenbeck Heights.....	14,000	4,500
All Saints', Beverly Hills, (will be completed in about thirty days)
Advent, Cor. W. Adams & Longwood, (to date)...	2,600

The Church will be completed as the money comes in.

Places where we could plant the Church if we had the money and the men:

Population: Compton, 6,000; Norwalk and Santa Fe Springs, 3,500; Girard, 500; Mt. Washington,; Rimpau Heights (end of Washington street car line 8,000; El Segundo,; a populous district between Venice and Del Rey, 7,000; Glassell Park, 20,000; a place between Valley Junction and Ramona Park, 6,000; Sherman, 5,000; Walnut Square between Culver City and Venice, 2,000.

The Haas Realty Company has given the Bishop a lot with the understanding that we are to erect a building upon it at the earliest possible date.

The Rector of Trinity Church, Covina, has recently established a Mission at Baldwin Park, which for the present is meeting in a public hall. A Woman's Guild has been duly organized. A Sunday School has been established and next Sunday the afternoon services will be replaced by a morning service, under the care of Canon Renison and a Lay-Reader.

ORANGE COUNTY

ORANGE

Has maintained its organization throughout the year, despite adverse citrus conditions.

FULLERTON

Every Sunday a good congregation has awaited the Rector; six candidates were presented for confirmation; the choir is being panelled with oak; the Sunday School is increasing and the choir is all vested; the Woman's Guild has done a remarkable work and a branch of the G. F. S. has formed with 25 members.

LAGUNA BEACH

Last Sunday, Bishop Stevens laid the foundation stone of a new Church, on a magnificent site overlooking the city and the sea, which will, it is hoped, be ready for service on Easter Day.

The buildings are designed by the Rector, and the Chancel is given as a memorial by Mrs. Rankin Barnes.

A. G. F. S. Lodge and a clergy house of rest will form part of the plant.

J. ARTHUR EVANS, Rural Dean.

Note: At the request of Dean Evans this report was supplemented by a statement from the Rev. Dr. Davidson, Rector of St. John's Church, Los Angeles, regarding the changed status of the Mission of the Good Shepherd and Grace Mission, formerly parochial missions of that parish (see Proceedings, page 45).

REPORT OF THE CONVOCATION OF SANTA BARBARA

The ministrations of the sacraments of the Church, and regular Sunday worship have been maintained at Carpinteria by Rev. G. R. Messias; at Oxnard, Somis and Santa Rosa by Rev. Allan L. Burleson; at Santa Maria, Lompoc, Arroyo Grande by Rev. Mortimer Chester for the first part of the year and by Rev. F. C. Miller for the latter part of the year. Mr. Miller has also had occasional services in other places. Santa Paula has been in charge of the Rev. Wm. E. Patrick who during the cool weather holds services in the Ojai Valley.

There has been no marked change in either the material or financial condition of these missions, except at Santa Maria where the members of that mission have completed the purchase of a lot for a new church building. The record of this Convocation on the quota for the General Church Program is very gratifying.

The Convocation suffered a loss when in March the Rev. Mr. Chester left the Santa Maria field to take up larger work in the Northern Diocese. It was fortunate when Bishop Stevens transferred the Rev. Mr. Miller from the Hemet field to fill the vacancy made by Mr. Chester's removal.

The greatest need of this Convocation is the services of at least one more missionary in the Santa Barbara County field. This field consists of the growing cities of Santa Maria and Lompoc and ten smaller towns and villages. It is much too extended for one man. It is impossible to do more than keep the Church alive with one man. This district consists of two parallel river valleys. Each valley has its own principal city with its church building. The missionary has to drive his car over 100 miles every Sunday to keep his appointments, and he must pay all his traveling expenses. Until this prosperous and rapidly-settling district is divided so that one missionary can work from Santa Maria as a center and another missionary take charge of Lompoc and the Santa Ynez Valley there can be no progress or growth in the Church's work.

GEORGE F. WELD, Rural Dean.

REPORT OF THE CONVOCATION OF SAN BERNARDINO

During the past year several changes have taken place in the personnel of the missionary workers in the Convocation. In the spring the Rev. Frederick C. Miller, resigned from the Hemet field to accept an appointment in the Convocation of Santa Barbara at Santa Maria and Lompoc. In September, at the appointment of the Bishop, the Rev. G. M. Macdougall took over the Hemet field and has been doing faithful and constructive work ever since that time. It is especially encouraging to note that his work with the young people and the Church School has been most fruitful.

In December the Rev. Harlan Bailey, who has served at St. John the Baptist Mission, Corona, for the past three years, resigned and accepted work in the Missionary District of New Mexico under Bishop Howden at St. Alban's, El Paso. Since Mr. Bailey's resignation the work at Corona has been temporarily combined with the work at Colton under the Rev. Thomas R. Yates. The Convocation automobile, which had been in use by the Rev. Mr. Miller, will shortly be turned over to the Rev. Mr. Yates to assist him in this work.

Plans have been matured for the erection of the Parish Hall in Hemet and it is expected that ground will soon be broken for this project.

Some steps were taken, during the early part of the year, to establish a mission at Victorville. The Rev. Charles E. Maimann, of San Bernardino for approximately six months held services each month in Victorville and organized a Sunday School. Owing to several removals on the part of Church people during the summer, it was found inadvisable to continue this work further and it has been temporarily discontinued.

In October the Ven. Percival S. Smithe, Archdeacon of Nevada, who had been holding services at Needles, found it necessary to give up this work in the Diocese of Los Angeles. However, the work at Needles has been continued by an arrangement between the Diocese of Los Angeles and the Missionary District of Arizona, whereby the Rev. H. H. Gillies, of Kingman, has combined his work with that of Needles and gives two services a month at St. John's, Needles.

Thus services have been held regularly at all the mission stations throughout the Convocation during the year 1924.

Respectfully submitted,

R. A. KIRCHHOFFER, Rural Dean.

REPORT OF THE CONVOCATION OF SAN DIEGO

There has been a marked and substantial advance in the work of the Church in several directions during the year in the San Diego Convocation. At Escondido, owing to the energetic labors of the missionary-in-charge there has been a genuine spiritual awakening among the people of that interesting mission as evidenced by greatly-increased attendance at the services of the Church and progress both materially and spiritually in many directions. The mission at Fallbrook has also taken on new life; the church has been renovated and a congregation of people gathered together. In this section the work has never given more definite promise than at the present time.

The church at Chula Vista is now being erected and services will soon be held in that growing community. This is our southernmost mission and should eventually draw the scattered peoples residing to the south toward the Mexican border.

Bostonia has also taken on a new lease of life and is responding more sympathetically than for many years past. The problem here is a unique and peculiar one owing to the location of the church in the midst of vineyards and orange groves and with no surrounding population.

The mission at Ocean Beach contemplates the erection of a combined church and parish house in the immediate future, and has almost all the necessary funds in hand with which to build.

The most promising mission in the Imperial Valley group is now that of Calexico where our church interests are forging ahead and giving promise of a strong mission in that inviting field.

The City of San Diego is growing rapidly, especially to the north, and mission churches should be established in several unoccupied districts where no present provision for the needs of our people has been made.

The Rural Dean feels that there is one matter of vital importance to the future growth and expansion of the Church which should receive immediate attention. As the City of Los Angeles has extended its growth to the beach towns along the coast a similar but proportionately smaller growth of the country bordering the sea and contiguous to the City of San Diego is already well under way. It would seem that no wiser provision for the future needs of the Church in this convocation could be made than to procure, in the first stages of the growth of population, sites for church building, in the surrounding districts already rapidly developing. Every indication points to the speedy settlement of a number of these smaller seaside communities, and the prices of real estate are already rapidly advancing. Before the choice becomes restricted and the prices prohibitive locations should be secured in anticipation of this almost certain need.

The several missionaries of the convocation have been faithful in their labors during the year and deserve commendation for their steadfastness in the discharge of their tasks.

CHARLES L. BARNES, Rural Dean.

REPORT OF THE BOARD OF CHRISTIAN EDUCATION

The Board of Christian Education has completed a busy year, during which the customary activities of the Board have been accomplished, and in many instances plans laid for the future. Handicapped by the lack of a Field Secretary for a part of the year, and also in not having a down-town meeting place, the Bishop's School for Church Teachers in Los Angeles was omitted, but all other work went on as usual.

Nine regular meetings have been held during the year, under the leadership of our Chairman, the Rev. E. T. Lewis: May 11th, the Annual Church School Rally was held at St. John's Church, with our beloved Bishop Johnson as Preacher. The offering far exceeded that of any previous year, passing the $7000.00 mark.

The Summer School was held at the Harvard School from July 9th to 15th, and was a signal success. While the growth numerically was not so marked, the principal advance was in the spirit of earnest work, and the desire for serious learning. All felt that we were at last approaching the standard of a school rather than that of a summer holiday.

During October and November the third annual Teacher Training Institute of the Convocation of San Bernardino was held at Riverside. This was the only school held during the year, and it was characterized by the high standard of the courses and the good attendance. The three successful years of this School effectively disprove the argument that Teacher Training Schools cannot be held in rural centers.

The Committee on Religion in the Home made efforts last year to circulate the Bible Readings of the National Council. It is impossible to ascertain results in such a field, but the Board feels that this department is most important.

The Young People's Fellowship is now beyond the experimental stage. Parishes are looking upon this organization as an important department of their life, and the chief problem is not so much the stimulation of it as the wisest and best direction. In the past this work has been handicapped in our Diocese by lack of efficient leadership, but Mr. Covell has shown himself to be admirably equipped for this work, and the progress is becoming more and more marked.

In conclusion the Board wishes to express its appreciation of the fine manner in which the new Field Secretary, the Rev. David R. Covell, has taken hold of things in the seven and a half months he has been with us. His personal report of work accomplished will be given elsewhere, but it shows his indefatigable efforts, and tremendous energy in each and every one of the many-sided tasks assigned to him. The care of a mission in addition to his Field Work makes heavy demands upon his time and with the development of both the Mission and Field Work, the time is near when a man's full time should be devoted to each. We trust that adequate provision may be made in the near future, so that the Field Secretary can devote his full time and energies to the Field Work, of the two important departments of our Church's life, that of education, and that of Christian Brotherhood or Social Service.

Respectfully submitted for the Board,

STEPHEN C. CLARK, JR. Secretary.

APPENDIX 8

REPORT OF THE SOCIAL SERVICE COMMISSION

The Social Service Commission desires to begin its annual report to the Diocese by expressing its appreciation of the work of its new executive secretary, the Rev. David R. Covell. Since assuming this position last May he has worked tirelessly and effectively toward the bringing about of the Kingdom of God. He brought to his task a balanced combination of fine spirit, trained technique, and a thorough understanding of social problems and methods. He is proving a tremendous help to the Commission in its program of education and action.

The membership of the Commission has been divided into committees of one man each, and better results have been secured by this method.

1. CASE WORK, including charity relief and unemployment. Chairman, the Rev. Thomas C. Marshall. It is well to remember that social case work is the secular synonym for the pastoral touch of the priest or the fellowship of the layman as shown toward cases of distress of individuals or families. Whereas the emphasis in family case work used to be the indiscriminate giving of alms, which was followed by a period of stern investigations of the detective order, the present emphasis is upon an approach to human needs which is both scientific and sympathetic. The Church within the City of Los Angeles might do well to place in the field a social case worker to aid those cases of Churchmen in distress which are not touched either by our parishes or through the County and City Mission Society in the institutions.

2. ADULT AND JUVENILE DELINQUENCY. Chairman, the Rev. Harold H. Kelley. The Department of Christian Social Service of the National Council is continuing to make the local jail one of the main points of emphasis in its program. So far as the City and County of Los Angeles are concerned, the officials in both cases admit the terrible conditions in their jails. The situation of overcrowding and of incomplete segregation of prisoners will be remedied as soon as the present jail building program can be completed. An immediate need faces the Commission in the form of a request from the Juvenile Court of Los Angeles County to provide a case worker to care for those Episcopal children who are brought before that court. "Save the child and you save society."

3. PARISH SOCIAL SERVICE COMMITTEES AND SOCIAL SERVICE LITERATURE. Chairman, the Rev. Edwin S. Lane. Every parish should have its own committee whose function it is to act as a living link between the parish and the social problems of its own community, as well as between the parish and the social institutions of the diocese. To such committees already in existence we would commend the season of Lent as an admirable time for social service study classes, particularly upon the jail situation. The Commission is gradually building up a library of social service books which are of fundamental importance to the clergy and to the chairmen of parish committees.

4. CONTACTS WITH OTHER SOCIAL SERVICE ORGANIZATIONS. Chairman, Mr. Otto J. Zahn. All too often social workers have come to feel that the interest of the Church in social betterment is too closely confined to its own institutions. They feel, and rightly, that labor for the uplift of humanity is Christ's work whether cared for under the auspices of the Church or not. It should also be obvious that, because the Church in its own social work needs the best scientific knowledge, it ought to make as many contacts as possible with worthy secular social agencies. Acting in this spirit, the Commission has maintained contacts with the Los Angeles City Nursing Commission, the Mental Hygiene Society, the Alliance of Social Agencies of Los Angeles, the Council of Social Agencies of Pasadena, and the National Child Labor Committee.

5. CONTACTS WITH CHURCH TRAINED WORKERS. Chairman, the Rev. Robert L. Windsor. In this connection, the Commission has secured the names of 131 Churchmen in the City of Los Angeles alone who are earning their living in social work. These could gain much from each other by being brought together under Church auspices. We have found that many of these have been friends without realizing a common spiritual background. Last May the Commission arranged for a Corporate Communion of Church social workers attending the California Conference of Social Work at Long Beach. This service was held in St. Luke's Church and was warmly welcomed. A supper for social workers who are Churchmen was held in the Cathedral House in September, and was so successful that the event will be made an annual one. The Commission would again ask the co-operation of the clergy at the time of the annual Corporate Communion of social workers in their respective parishes.

6. INSTITUTIONS. Chairman, the Rev. A. G. H. Bode. The Church is charged by the Canons of the Diocese with keeping in touch with the social institutions of the diocese and making recommendations for their extension and betterment. We feel that it is not enough for a Church social institution to be moderately well operated. It must not only be above reproach in its management and methods, but second to no secular institution occupying the same field. Above all, the Church social institutions must be run for the welfare of their inmates, and not for the glorification of the institution itself. The Commission is contemplating a survey of the social institutions of the diocese from the standpoint of standards.

Probably the one diocesan institution which has seen the greatest material development this last year is the Seamen's Church Institute, at San Pedro. The Port of Los Angeles does not affect San Pedro alone, but every bit of territory within our diocese. The entire southwest, for instance, saves $9.00 per thousand feet of lumber because of that harbor. People are only too happy to accept this saving, but they fail to see the human side of the harbor. Approximately 20,000 merchant seamen make the Port of Los Angeles every month. Now that its new plant is practically complete, the Seamen's Church Institute is ministering in the name of Christ to from 500 to 700 seamen every day.

7. THE DELINQUENT GIRL. Chairman, the Rev. David R. Covell. It might be thought that this question is one which, in large numbers, would affect only the City of Los Angeles. Owing, however, to the nearness of San Diego to the resort of Tia Juana, and the fact that many girls flock into Hollywood and Culver City, inadequately financed but vainly expecting at once to secure employment in moving pictures, the problem is peculiarly acute. The Commission is hoping to add to its membership a qualified woman to guide it toward a piece of constructive help on this problem.

8. MEETINGS AND RALLIES. Chairman, the Rev. C. Rankin Barnes. At the 1924 meeting of the California Conference of Social Work, held at Long Beach, the Commission maintained an interesting photographic exhibit, entitled "Some Social Work of the Episcopal Church in California." At the present time, on the nomination of the Commission, the Rev. Thomas C. Marshall is conducting a course, entitled "The Christian in the Community" in the Bishop's School for Church Workers. On January 15th, the first meeting of a social service forum was held in the Cathedral House, being addressed by Mrs. Elizabeth Skeelee Bybee, Executive Secretary of the Juvenile Protective Association. Dr. Abram Rosanoff, of the Mental Hygiene Society, and Dr. Miriam Van Waters, Referee of the Juvenile Court of Los Angeles, will be speakers at subsequent meetings.

9. VOLUNTEERS AND SUMMER SCHOOLS. Chairman, the Rev. Anthony H. Dexter. Last summer the Commission secured the Very Rev. G. B. E. Macdonald, of Fresno, to give the social service course at the Diocesan Summer School. This was entitled "The Churchman in his Community." At the 1925 school, Dr. Miriam Van Waters will present a course entitled "What Social Service Is and Some Applications to Concrete Problems." For the benefit of members of that school, a social service excursion will be arranged to give a better understanding of Japanese life in our see city.

10. LEGISLATION. Chairman, Mr. H. H. Duryee. At the time of the November election, the Commission published its biennial recommendations on those social matters which appeared upon the ballot. It regrets that the extension of prize fighting was sanctioned by the people of the state. The Commission added its voice to the many recommendations to the State Legislature to ratify the National Child Labor Amendment, and would record its satisfaction in the clear and decided vote by which the question was approved by the Legislature.

In conclusion, the Commission begs to call to the attention of the Diocese the Fifth National Conference of Social Workers of the Episcopal Church, to be held at Cliff House, Manitou, Colorado, from June 6th to 10th. This will be just prior to the meeting of the National Conference of Social Work in Denver. Not for many years has the National Conference met so close to the Pacific Coast, and it is hoped that the Diocese may have a real delegation to join with their fellow Churchmen at the Manitou Conference, and remain over for the great National Conference of Social Work.

Respectfully submitted,

C. RANKIN BARNES, Chairman.

APPENDIX 9

REPORT OF THE COUNTY AND CITY MISSION SOCIETY IN THE DIOCESE OF LOS ANGELES, (Inc.)

Our prayers have been abundantly answered and the past year has seen important developments which promise to have tremendous influence on the future growth of our work.

First and foremost in the establishment of St. Barnabas' House at 534 South Boyle Avenue, which provides a City Mission Center, Convalescent Home, Placement Bureau, Nurses' Club (in connection with the Guild of St. Barnabas for Nurses), Clothing Bureau, Reading Room and small Chapel. The rent is being donated by a generous Churchman and the balance by the Community Chest.

The growth of the work has made imperative the securing of an additional priest. Here again the Lord has raised up friends for us and a few kind folk are providing the salary for an assistant chaplain in the person of Father Adams.

The "Christmas Cheer" work passed off with unusual smoothness and efficiency, about 1,000 people being remembered at the General Hospital, County Farm, Olive View Sanatorium, Los Feliz Hospital and the Eastside Jail.

The populations at the Farm and Olive View are increasing with alarming rapidity and a gigantic addition is being planned for the General Hospital. The Farm now numbers nearly 1,400 and the chapel is already far too small to accommodate those who wish to attend our services. Even the aisles are choked with wheel-chairs. We also have a service and address in each of six wards of the infirmary on alternate Fridays.

The pastoral demands could easily tax the time and energy of twice our present staff in the different institutions and in the increasing follow-up work.

It would be impossible to make this report of our work without paying a tribute to the consecrated and unselfish activities of Deaconess Steiger, George Webb, and our forty volunteer workers who, day by day, year in and year out, go about doing good in His name. Whom we are humbly trying to serve in the persons of His needy children. The most of their Christ-like service will not be known until the great day of account, but it is good to know that they are receiving a rich recompense in the smile on the face of the Master reflected in the happy and appreciative countenances of those to whom they minister.

We also gratefully acknowledge the growing interest on the part of parishes and their various organizations, Sunday Schools, Auxiliaries, Guilds and Young People's Fellowships, showing concretely in personal service and in gifts.

Finally we rejoice that Church people of means are being shown the way to greater adventure for God by the example of two generous Church people who are using us and our needy people as a means by which they may exercise their Christian charity. "God has blessed us with money," one of them said, "and I want you to help us spend it." May their kind increase.

Surely we may thank God and take courage.

V. D. RUGGLES, Chaplain.

APPENDIX 10

REPORT OF THE CHURCH PENSION FUND COMMITTEE

The Pension Fund Committee, of the Diocese of Los Angeles, believe that the members of this Convention will be interested to know that during 1924 the sum of $14,556.00 was paid to the beneficiaries of the Church Pension System in Southern California. An analysis of the report of the National Treasurer reveals the interesting fact that 42 clergymen and widows of clergymen are at the present time participating in the benefits of the Fund. Of this number 20 are clergymen, 21 are widows of clergymen, and there is only one minor orphan.

During 1924 we have sent from this Diocese, to New York, as premiums on the salaries of the clergy, the sum of $11,740.48. If you balance what we have given, namely $11,740.48, against what we have received in benefits, namely $14,556.00, there remains a very substantial difference on the right side of the ledger.

The following paragraphs have been taken from a recent letter of Mr. Bradford B. Locke, the Secretary of the Fund:

"The Pension Assessment payments, for the year 1924, again exceeded those of the previous year. It is gratifying to the Trustees to know that the Church continues to give its universal support to the fund. Seven years have elapsed since the Church Pension Fund came into existence and our records show that the office has received over 98½ per cent of all the Pension Assessments which should have been paid.

The total annual grants which the Church Pension Fund was carrying, on December 31st, 1924, amounted to a grand total of $512,157.00 per annum. This is at the rate of only slightly less than $1500.00 for each day in the year. It is an increase of $25,443.00 over the total annual grants in force at the end of the year 1923.

During the year 1924 certificates were again issued to all clergymen whose assessments were complete through December 31, 1923. It is a pleasure to record that a substantially larger number of certificates were issued during 1924 than during 1923, due to our continued effort to collect overdue pension assessments. During the year 1924 each clergyman whose pension assessment record was incomplete was again formally notified so that he might be fully aware of his standing.

The Trustees, at their meeting on December 16, 1924, renewed for the year 1925 the provisions of their resolutions of December 20, 1921, authorizing the immediate additional benefit of $1000 for the widows of clergymen dying in active service whose assessments have been wholly paid. The original resolutions were amended so as to extend their provisions to include widows of clergymen who die within six months after relinquishing their last cure, provided they are not already beneficiaries of the fund."

In his sixth annual report of the Fund, the Rt. Rev. William Lawrence, D.D., the distinguished president of the Church Pension System, to whom the clergy of this Church owe a debt of gratitude that they can never hope to repay, calls attention to this interesting piece of news: "It is gratifying, he says, to record that the Presbyterian and Methodist Churches have decided this very year that the way chosen by the Episcopal Church is the only effective method of putting their pension houses in order. The Church of England, also, has invited the active executive of our fund to advise it."

Bishop Lawrence reminds us that the pension system has been in operation seven years; he reviews the progress of these years, taking advantage of this strategic moment to emphasize certain features and principles of the system which seem to him of vital importance. He dwells upon the fact, over and over again, that our Church Pension Fund is a group system.

"A Group Pension Fund, he says, is based on the adhesion of all the units of the group. A group in this instance is all the parishes and other salary-paying organizations in the Episcopal Church. As long as the group is maintained the pension system stands. If the group is measurably broken by more than a very few parishes neglecting the tax, the group and with it the system of the Church Pension Fund collapses. Therefore the fund cannot consider any suggestion of a parish, for any reason, withdrawing from the Pension System. Should a parish do so, something which has not occurred in these seven years, it takes the serious responsibility of disrupting the carefully built up provisions of the Church for the pensioning of all the clergy."

The members of the Diocesan Committee call particular attention to this statement of the Bishop, because last summer a situation arose in this Diocese which gave them considerable concern. Quite suddenly the Rev. Frank Roudenbush, rector of St. Thomas' Church, Hollywood, was removed from us by the hand of death. Owing to the fact that during 1923 one parish and one mission, of this Diocese, had not paid the tax on the salary of their rectors, the widow of our departed brother was penalized. Instead of receiving the thousand dollars, as she would have done, if every parish and mission had paid in full, she received only $675.00.

It was the unanimous opinion of your Committee that Mrs. Roudenbush ought not to be made to suffer because of the failure of the Diocese to do its full duty. In order to maintain our own self-respect in this matter and relieve the widow of our brother from any financial loss we have ventured to suggest to the Finance Committee that the sum of $325.00 be added to the budget for the present year in order to make up the $1000 which she was entitled to receive. This brings home to us very vividly what your committee over and over again have prophesied might happen in any delinquency of this sort.

This is only one aspect of the problem. There is another and an equally important one in the reminder of the Bishop of Massachusetts that the Church Pension Fund is a group system. It depends for its safety and continuance upon the cooperation of every parish. What we have paid in already can be safeguarded only as the entire Church stands behind the organization and meets the assessments laid upon the salaries of their rectors. The present generous treatment accorded to the ministry and their dependents can be continued only to the degree that we support the system. Therefore, your committee deemed the matter of such supreme importance that, following the precedent of a number of other dioceses in this American Church, they ventured to suggest for your consideration the legislation presented by the chairman of the Committee on Canons.

This report would be incomplete without a word of appreciation of the indefatigable labors of the Treasurer of the Committee, Mr. Colin M. Gair. If the Diocesan machinery has worked smoothly and harmoniously, this Diocese is indebted to his suave and able management of the finances of the Fund. In the name of the Committee and the Churches of the Diocese we beg to extend to him our grateful appreciation.

WILLIAM MACCORMACK, Chairman.

REPORT OF THE BOARD OF EXAMINING CHAPLAINS

The Board of Examining Chaplains for 1924 met on February 6, and organized by the election of the Rev. Robert L. Windsor as Chairman and the Rev. C. Rankin Barnes as Secretary. It was voted that the college record of Mr. Richard Langdon, Postulant, was satisfactory for his admission as a Candidate for Holy Orders without further literary examination.

The second meeting was held on February 29, 1924. The Rev. Arthur Cotter, Deacon, was given the remainder of the examination for Priest's Orders.

The fourth meeting was held on June 2 and 3, 1924. The Rev.

Arthur P. Stembridge, Deacon, was given a portion of the examination for Priest's Orders.

The fifth meeting was held on September 25 and 26, 1924. The Rev. Anthony H. Dexter, Deacon, was given a portion of the examination for Priest's Orders. The Board conferred with Mr. Richard Langdon, Postulant, in regard to his examination for Deacon's Orders. The Board examined the literary credentials of Mr. Kenneth W. Purkiss, Postulant, and made certain recommendations in regard to further studies which would be necessary on his part before becoming a Candidate for Holy Orders.

The sixth meeting was held on December 11 and 12, 1924. The Board conferred with Mr. John Bate, Postulant, and examined his literary credentials. It was voted that he be recommended for admission as a Candidate for Holy Orders without further literary examination. The Rev. Anthony H. Dexter, Deacon, was given additional portions of the examination for Priest's Orders. The Rev. William S. Blackshear, Deacon, was given a portion of the examination for Priest's Orders. Chaplain Tipton L. Wood, U. S. N., a minister of the Cumberland Presbyterian Church, and a Candidate for Holy Orders, was given a portion of the examination for Deacon's Orders, as provided for in such cases.

The Diocesan Conventions of 1923 and 1924 each voted an appropriation of $100 to the Board for the purchase of books for a lending library, to be used by Candidates for Holy Orders. The following account is therefore submitted:

APPENDIX 12

REPORT OF THE REGISTRAR

We are delighted to report that the new Registrar's office in the Cathedral House proves adequate for the placing of our Diocesan Files and Journals. The Journals are now arranged conveniently for consultation and are complete. The Diocesan Library is now safely stored in cases in the Diocesan Book Shelves, but the space is inadequate; so that we can only say that the books are safely stored, they cannot be arranged as yet for use. We hope to secure more shelving space, and then make the Diocesan Library available.

The usual files have been kept complete and Prayer-Books and Hymnals distributed under the Bishop's authorization.

Confirmations reported totaled 959; Male 391; Female 568.

The Diocese has been indebted to the Harvard School for its permission to use storage room for the Diocesan Documents, Books and Journals while there was no Cathedral House. We wish to thank Dr. Gooden for willingly bearing the inconvenience this occasioned.

ROBERT L. WINDSOR, Registrar.

APPENDIX 13

REPORT OF THE HISTORIOGRAPHER

The year 1924 has been notable for the completion and consecration of the large, handsome and well-appointed building of St. Paul's New Cathedral. And the congratulations of the Diocese are due to the Rt. Rev. the Bishops and the Very Rev. the Dean for this notable work, and to the Vestry of the Cathedral.

The year has been further notable for the erection of the commanding structures of St. John's and St. Stephen's, Los Angeles, and of All Saints', Pasadena; and congratulations are due the Rev. Dr. Davidson and the Vestry of St. John's on the impending consecration of their very handsome building.

For the first time in the history of the Diocese the metropolis possesses buildings for worship worthy the growth and magnitude of the city.

In this the Eighth Province of the American Church, the Diocese of Los Angeles is now the foremost in the number of its Communicants. It numbers seventeen thousand, five thousand in advance of the mother Diocese of California, and more than double any other within the Province. Moreover, in the increase of Communicants the Diocese is surpassed in the entire area of the American Church only by one Diocese, the Diocese of Newark, in the second Province.

The Eighth Province comprises the area of the American Church included between the Rocky Mountains and the Pacific. Eastward in the region between the Rocky Mountains and the Mississippi lie the Sixth and Seventh Provinces. In the whole three provinces, the Diocese of Los Angeles, having now overpassed the Diocese of Minnesota, stands the first.

What is true of the Diocese in the matter of Communicants, is also true as to the number of its clergy and in the amount of its contributions.

As of necessity we look to the future, it is most satisfactory to note that in the number of pupils in the Church Schools, the Diocese is also first, in the three Provinces this side the Mississippi, by more than a thousand pupils.

A prominent statistician of the Church has recently died in Portland, Oregon. In a table of the per capita contributions of the Communicants of the American Church, including all the Dioceses and Missionary Districts, Mr. Richard Thornton, shortly before his recent death, catalogued the Diocese of Los Angeles in the fourth place—fourth, that is, in the total number of 91 Dioceses and Districts.

The concurrence of all these happy circumstances marks a very auspicious opening for the thirtieth year of the Diocese.

Respectfully submitted,

P. H. HICKMAN, Historiographer.

APPENDIX 14

REPORT OF THE CHURCH HOME FOR CHILDREN

In a survey of the past twelve months, the first event of importance which we note is the bequest of $5,000 from our friend, the late Mr. Lloyd Macy. The fact that he "thought" about the children is deeply appreciated. With this gift in sight, the Executive Committee are now planning to complete the Administration building (and not simply add the central unit as we were planning to do.) This building is estimated at $28,000; $22,000 is already "in sight," so that now only $6,000 is lacking to do this.

For two years we have wanted to have a meeting of the forty-odd Church Home Committees (C. H. Coms.) in the various Parishes and Missions of the Diocese, for the purpose of having them become welded into an organization. We feel that one of the "biggest things" the Home has ever "put over" was when, through the help of Miss Anne Patton and Mrs. Quintin, of San Gabriel, this was accomplished and the first Annual Meeting was held at the Home on Easter Monday, April 21. When the Roll Call was taken the result showed representations from the following places: Hermosa Beach, Venice, Monrovia, Huntington Park, Alhambra, San Bernardino, Pasadena (All Saints'), Highland Park, Glendale, San Gabriel, Pomona, Hollywood (St. Stephen's), Long Beach, Covina, Beverly Hills, Garvanza, and from Los Angeles: Epiphany, St. Athanasius, St. Matthias', St. Andrew's, St. Paul's, St. John's, SS. James' and Barnabas'. Altogether there were over 81 women present.

Mrs. Foss, of New York, in a talk on Industrial Schools of the East, stressed the importance of training the boy and the girl to be self-supporting, and to recognize "the special gift of the individual." She stated that for several years she had been trying to make California see this need for her children—so far unsuccessfully—as, in all this great state, there is no "Industrial School" for a normal, good, white girl, where she can learn something by which to make her living with her hands. (We feel this need most keenly in our own work here at the Church Home.)

It was decided that the Annual Meeting should be held on each Easter Monday at the Home. Mrs. J. E. Cowles was unanimously elected Presiding Officer, with Mrs. Scott Quintin, Secretary, and Miss Claribel Teller, Treasurer.

It was the sense of the meeting that each Com. do as much as possible during the coming year towards making the new building materialize; if possible, each Com. to bring a gift of $100 next Easter Monday.

We are looking forward to "a great meeting," from the encouragement of the past few months—when a spirit of eagerness to serve has been manifested. We feel we cannot stress too much the importance of this organization to the C.H.C.

On Tuesday, September 9, we celebrated the Home's Eleventh Birthday! If we ever get discouraged, or doubt, or think "how slow things are moving," just let us stop and "count our blessings," and what a different aspect comes over everything! We had hoped, on this Birthday, to be laying the cornerstone for the central portion of the Administration Building, and now God seems to be pointing the way to the completion of the building, instead! So let us hope on, work and pray and "expect great things from God!"

It is one of our dearest desires to instill into these children the vital fact that "we all are brothers." With this aim in mind, we endeavor to have them catch a "world vision" and give to those who need our help in various parts of the earth. So on Saturday afternoon, June 21, under the direction of Deaconess Gadsden, the children presented Mrs. Hobart's Pageant on the Prayer-Book, "The Little Pilgrims and the Book Beloved," in our canyon, under the live oaks. The silver offering was for the benefit of Fudlo, the little Near East orphan boy, whom the children are supporting in Sidon, Syria. In addition to this "love-work" they have, during the past year, with great joy, earned and given to the little destitute children of Japan, to our "burnt-out friends" at Fort Yukon, to St. Luke's, Phoenix, to several projects in this Diocese, and to the Near East Relief.

Our gathering this year was very generous; we depend upon the staple articles of food brought in then to last us up to our summer pilgrimage.

Perhaps the following facts may not be clearly understood through the Diocese:

1. Endowment of the C.H.C.—one fifty-dollar Liberty Bond.
2. Board paid for children average about $400 per month, consequently over $400 per month, our "faith item."
3. A few weeks ago, 11 out of the 38 children were entirely free.

The gifts of food at Thanksgiving and Christmas help us to do this free work. One aspect of the work I have been asked to emphasize,—namely, that in caring for the children as we do, in a number of cases—we are saving them to their parents,—that is, keeping them from the necessity of having them adopted; which, from lack of money, they might otherwise have to do. The gift of $1,500. for groceries from All Saints, Pasadena, has been of untold help throughout the year.

There are now 38 children in the Home,—11 boys and 27 girls, and we must turn down at least a dozen applications a month. Therefore in our List of Needs, we would place as "First," the completion of the Administration Building. Our Church Home should be doing for more than just a mere handful! As we have taken children into the bedrooms of the South Wing to sleep, it is crowding the dining-rooms of the other cottages,—this should be relieved. Then this year, we do want to do more than we ever have before in the way of manual training for both boys and girls and we need a comfortable room for sewing and weaving, and, also, adequate store-rooms! (A few of the reasons "Why" we need the new building!)

Secondly, let me call your attention to the need of an adequate Endowment Fund.

With the importance of these two Funds so evident,—here, at the beginning of this new year, we call upon our friends to show your love and loyalty to this work of the Master in such an "outward and visible" way that, before the year closes, these "needs" may have been met!

EVELYN WILE, Deaconess.

REPORT OF THE NEIGHBORHOOD SETTLEMENT

VARIED WORK. The Neighborhood Settlement presents a most varied and variable work. Varied in its scope, first in the things it does and also in the wide range of people it helps. Variable in that, as the times change, we must change with them. The outlook that meets the worker in this neighborhood to-day is as unlike that of fifteen years ago as it could possibly be if the Settlement had been taken up and set down in another country.

NATIONALITY. Three times the prevailing language spoken by those about us has changed, not to mention a period when the color changed largely as well, and the dialect of the South was the most familiar sound that reached our ears. In 1910 and for several years the language was strongly Italian. Then came the influx of Mexicans with many of the children as well as the parents speaking only Spanish. Now for nearly two years, Russian holds first place. While some of every group remain it will be readily seen that with the coming of each nationality the work must be adapted to meet the new needs.

INDUSTRIAL CONDITION OF NEIGHBORHOOD

When the Salt Lake Railroad commenced buying up the property around Ninth and Wilson streets in 1924, it was foreseen that sooner or later the Settlement would be crowded out. However, with their operations held up by the war and by legal proceedings we have stayed on to do the best ten years' work in our history. That the industrial situation is becoming more acute is evident. A new manufacturing plant springs up over night, a new one built this summer almost on our border lines. However, the field still affords wonderful opportunities.

ACTIVITIES. The Clinic under the City Health Department treated over 300 children every month during the summer for malnutrition and prevention of diseases, 717 cases were treated in the month of December alone. The Playground serves as a waiting room.

The School for Americanization under the Board of Education held under our roof has an attendance of over 60 every evening, and a sewing school in the morning for mothers where they are also taught to speak English.

BOY'S WORK. The evening work for boys is in many ways one of the most important activities. Statistics show that the greatest delinquency among boys is found in industrial districts where the boy is not provided with wholesome entertainment to engage his energies.

Through the Library, Game-room and Sterioptican pictures over 300 boys were entertained in December. A club of 20 boys meets once a week. The shower-baths are always open for the boys, and they are occasionally given refreshments.

THE SUMMER CAMP

The Summer work at the Camp was the most satisfactory. We found that giving the early summer months to special children and their mothers met an actual need. What we were able to do for older people brought us many expressions of gratitude from those who were helped back to health, or over a hard place when out of work.

August and a part of September brought the usual groups of children delighted and, we are sure, benefited by their vacation at the beach. We were glad to discover that it was not our "family pride" but the general opinion of the workers new to the Camp that the children showed the training of other years by being unusually obedient and well-behaved, and very responsive to Christian influence and teaching, which is a definite part of the Camp life. The improvement made in the buildings during the year has added much to their usefulness, and it is hoped by spring to have them opened and occupied all the year round.

CHRISTMAS FESTIVITIES

There was a fine Christmas tree and beautiful Christmas decorations in the Hall when the children came for their parties and gifts. The largest group entertained was 300 children on the 20th, each receiving a gift and candy and fruit. Seventy boys were given their own special entertainment in two groups. In all of the Christmas parties the stereopticon pictures and story of the Christ Child were the principal feature of the entertainment.

On the afternoon of the 23rd, ten children were taken for an automobile ride (by Miss Corks.) The same afternoon Deaconess Elizabeth gave the girls a Chinese afternoon, telling them of the Chinese girls, showing the clothing they wear and the curious and beautiful articles she brought from that country.

About forty mothers were given a special afternoon.

There were two Russian entertainments each attended by about 200, although their real Christmas came a week later with its beautiful symbolic service.

Altogether it was a very happy Christmas for our Neighborhood.

RUSSIAN WORK

The Russian work began with the Bishop giving the Russian Priest the use of the Chapel for their own Russian Orthodox Service, and has gone on until we seem to have fitted into every emergency of their lives. There are those of us who feel that helping this people to become established is the most valuable and far-reaching work the Settlement has ever had the privilege of doing. The story is well known. Driven from homes and positions of prosperity by the on-rush of war and revolution, glad to escape with their lives—delicate women walking miles through snow or shoved into crowded trains carrying not only the living but the dead and the sick. Men crossing forests and forests and marshes to reach some port, days without food. It is one thing to read of these things and quite another to find oneself living side by side with a people who have learned to suffer without complaint and whose efforts at self-help are heroic.

HELP GIVEN. Our part has been helping men send for and make ready for their families, and housing of the new arrivals from Manchuria or Siberia until proper homes could be found for them. Sometimes finding positions for them, but more often taxing our friends to the utmost to create the job of house-cleaning, painting and cleaning up yards for such men as lawyers and civil engineers with several diplomas from the European Universities. Lending money (and it is to their credit to say that we have never lost a penny by doing so) to tide over individuals and families absolutely without food or work. Lending the workshop for months to the Russian Orchestra to make their instruments, and providing a room in the Hall for their practice. Scholarships and Laboratory fees for students have been secured. We now have four students on our list. These are some of the things that have been accomplished.

A TRAGEDY. The situation seemed beyond us when in deep distress a Social Worker from another Organization came for help to get an ex-army officer out of jail. He had crossed the border from Mexico to get to friends and escape starvation, had a guilty conscience and trying to make it right was arrested and held for bail to the tune of $500. A member of the Board came to the rescue, put up the bond, and the man was given his freedom. Every effort has been made to prevent his deportation to Russia, which means execution by the Soviets.

SEQUEL. Ample inducements were offered him to disappear, however he proved himself to be an honest man by facing deportation to Japan in November when the money for the bond was refunded. He was not allowed to land in Japan for even half-an-hour, but was given his choice between being deported to Russia at the expense of the United States Government, or going on with the boat. Needless to say he stayed with the boat and is now in China, making every effort to get a passport to Canada or Australia, with little prospect of success, his friends fear, as he has not the money required for entrance to either country.

We close our report recognizing that this has been a year of many opportunities and of corresponding blessings.

DEACONESS MARY.

APPENDIX 16

REPORT OF THE HOSPITAL OF THE GOOD SAMARITAN

During the year 1924, 3370 patients were admitted to the hospital in addition to 295 registered as out-patients and also to 618 babies born in the hospital.

The daily average number of patients was 130.6 not including babies, 155.7 including babies. The average length of term in the hospital was 11.1 days; the total number of surgical operations was 2,382. The average cost per patient per day was $5.57.

The value of free service rendered was.....	$ 9,944.45
The loss in the operation of wards was.....	35,491.78
The value of free work given in the laboratory was.....	4,550.00
The value of free work in the X-ray Dept.....	5,562.75
The total value of gratuitous services rendered through the Hospital was thus.....	55,548.98

There is a great and growing interest at the present time in the healing ministry of the Church. Appreciating fully as we do the special ministry of the Church to the sick through faith and prayer, it is right also that we should take account of the vast work of healing carried on through scientific means under the favorable conditions afforded in an institution conducted in the spirit of the Church and in an atmosphere of religion.

Analysis of the "discharge" statistics for the year enables us to estimate the curative, constructive value of the work of this institution.

Three thousand three hundred and sixty-five (3,365) patients were recorded as discharged. Of these 638 were maternity patients. Of the remaining 2727 patients 805 were discharged as completely cured and 1577 as definitely improved while only 52 were reported as unimproved. There were 83 deaths during the year of which 38 occurred within 48 hours of admission to the Hospital, presumably cases for which there was very little prospect of help, leaving only 45 to be reported as what are known as institutional deaths. These figures, which are not in any sense exceptional, illustrate the general effectiveness of treatment in an institution such as the Hospital of the Good Samaritan and furnish the rational ground for the cheerfulness and optimism that, strangely as it may sometimes seem, are characteristic of this and similar institutions.

During the past year the number of applicants for the School of Nursing has greatly increased due in part no doubt to the fact that the beautiful new residence has been completed and has been in use since September, giving us now one of the finest and most modern nurses' residences in the country. The standard of work of the school has also been very satisfactory.

The census of the School January 1, 1925 was as follows:

Administrative Staff, 8; Graduate Nurses on General Duty, 19; Student Nurses Class 1924, 1; Student Nurses Class 1925, 14; Student Nurses Class 1926, 21; Student Nurses Class 1927, 26; Total, 89.

An important factor in the work of the modern hospital is the coordination and standardization of service through the agency of the General Medical Staff. The retiring Chairman of the General Staff reports of the year's work as follows:

"Meetings have been held at more frequent intervals during the year, the interest in case reports has been keener and the discussions more varied.

The histories have been more elaborate. The three years of standardization have been of infinite value to the staff as well as the hospital.

Meetings of special sections have been held throughout the year as usual, with great benefit to the men. Standardized technique along certain lines has grown out of these section meetings.

Each year sees the staff progressing and improving in every way."

It must be apparent to anyone that the patient's assurance of conscientious and competent treatment is vastly greater in an institution of this kind, standardized according to the requirements of the American College of Surgeons, than in an institution of the old type which was practically merely a medical hotel where the patient was taken by his physician and for whom only the physician immediately in charge of the case was responsible.

The financial report of the Hospital for 1924 is as follows:

Free Hospital Service.....	$ 9,944.45
Loss in Caring for Ward Patients.....	35,491.78

Total Free Work.....	$ 45,436.23
Complimentary X-Ray Work.....	5,562.75

APPENDIX 17

REPORT OF THE BISHOP'S GUILD

A number of changes have taken place in the personnel of the Bishop's Guild during the year, 1924. At the request of Bishop Johnson, who has been our leader since the organization of the Guild many years ago, Bishop Stevens has become the President. Miss Weston succeeded Mrs. Nye as Treasurer; Mrs. Christianson, Recording Secretary, resigned a few months ago and Miss Rowland assumed her duties; Mrs. Lynch was obliged to give up her work at the store on account of ill health, and passed to her rest a few months ago. We wish to register our sadness at her death. Several of our devoted members have moved away, and many new members have filled our ranks.

The relief work has gone on much the same as in past years, the new building erected last year has proved adequate for all needs. The usual routine of the Clothing Bureau was broken by a fire which was communicated from an adjoining building and did a considerable amount of damage. The loss, however, was fully covered by insurance. We also had a visit from burglars one night, who carried off little of value, but left the store in inextricable confusion. Poor and needy families in the neighborhood have continued to find the store of the greatest benefit; the supply of serviceable clothing and shoes rarely meeting the demand. In spite of the very small prices asked, and the fact that many articles are given away when the applicant has no money, all expenses have been paid, and a surplus given to the Bishop for his charities.

At the sewing and cutting room in the Hellman building, a loyal band of volunteers meet each week to prepare garments for distribution to organizations—Guilds, Auxiliaries and Daughters of the King, who do the sewing and send the completed garments to the Clothing Bureau. One exhibit of children's clothing has been held this last year, a noticeable feature being the large number of garments from Guilds who have supplied their own material, and the fine quality and good taste in the whole display was most gratifying.

The Needlework Guild contributed 288 garments and 144 pairs of stockings, which were given away at Christmas-tide with the Christmas baskets. At the same time several hundred children received gifts of candy, and a beautiful party was given by the girls of the Collegiate School, in which sixteen children from the Clothing Bureau participated. For the past two years, a crippled child, rescued from a life of helplessness by Mrs. Huntley, has been the special care of the Bishop's Guild. He is still under treatment at the Orthopaedic Hospital and there is every hope of complete restoration. He is now being cared for through the Community Chest financially.

Our Hospital Chapter has worked in cooperation with the County and City Mission Society, and has been instrumental in bringing comfort and help to many persons in the General Hospital and at the County Farm. We have received many gifts of money and new clothing for our relief work in these institutions.

The sum of $127.40, noted by our Treasurer as "Gifts and Charities," comprises $20.00 toward the support of an aged widow; $25.00 to the Girls' Friendly Lodge; $15.00 for County and City Mission Society; $10.00 for the Home for the Aged; $21.00 for a nurse during the serious illness of a valued employee; $6.40 for Christmas candy; $5.00 for flowers for a funeral; $3.00 for Thanksgiving provisions, and $2.00 for Joe Blanco, the crippled boy.

The Bishop's Guild cordially invites everyone to visit the Episcopal Clothing Bureau at 2160 E. Ninth street, to take part in its relief work by giving to the store all serviceable salvage—clothing and household goods; and the sewing room will be very grateful for material for children's garments. Even small pieces can be used; nothing is wasted. The Guild is your Guild and deserves your support.

APPENDIX 19

REPORT OF GIRLS' FRIENDLY SOCIETY

Property at 1422 West 3rd street was purchased for the Lodge just two years ago and, after the necessary alterations were made, was opened in June, 1923. That first building accommodated only the house mother and twelve girls.

As with so small a number the Lodge could not possibly become self-supporting, it was decided in the fall of that year to proceed with the alterations necessary to transform the old two-story stable into sleeping quarters. With the careful planning of Mr. Arthur B. Benton and the careful building of Mr. Hovey, this was accomplished and in February of last year the Annex was opened. This now brought our housing capacity up to 32 girls, the house mother and an assistant house mother, a cook, a maid and the services of a gardener twice a week.

Ever since the opening the Lodge has kept full with rates $9.00 per week for room and board (being two meals per day, three on Sunday and Holidays.) The Lodge succeeded in clearing over and above the actual housekeeping expenses, $3,400.00, last year. This was used to pay off indebtedness incurred in the construction work, to pay taxes and insurance and 7 per cent interest on the mortgage of $30,000. On January 19 last the mortgage was reduced by $5,000.00.

Many beautiful gifts have been received for the Lodge, for all of which the Girls' Friendly extends most grateful thanks. Money gifts too have been very generous, so much so that it has given the G.F.S. courage to try a new scheme of financing the Lodge. With its yearly earning capacity assured, we feel it a safe and wise policy to issue a series of coupon notes to bear interest at 6 per cent January and July; the denomination of the notes is $1000. They are in process of being printed and will be dated as of January 1st, 1925, to run for twenty years. We guarantee to pay the interest and to retire at least one note a year. As soon as the thirty-six notes are sold, it will enable us to pay off the mortgage which is our next objective. Application for the notes may be made through the Treasurer, Mrs. C. A. Jenks, 1662 Westmoreland Boulevard, Los Angeles; or to any of the Board of Directors or Board of Managers. Eleven of these notes have already been taken.

At first, with the desire to keep the Lodge full we made the age limit very elastic and took young women from the ages of nineteen to forty, but now finding that both houses can be kept full, the age limit has been reduced to from sixteen to thirty, and the wage limit to ninety dollars. Transients may be taken if there are accommodations but must move on if the room is needed by a permanent guest. In the past year 103 different people have been housed at the Lodge.

One very interesting fact is that the Lodge has never advertised but twice, and yet girls keep constantly applying for admission. They hear of the Lodge through the other Homes for Girls in the city, through the Travelers' Aid of the Y. W. C. A., through the Girls' Corner and other Clubs. Early in the summer Mr. Fitch and the boys of St. Paul's Choir gave a Radio Concert, Bishop Stevens making an address.

Last fall an intensive campaign of publicity was put on, and the Assistant House Mother spent much time in making contacts with the Ministerial Union and the Churches of all denominations, with the large Department Stores, etc. The Board sent speakers wherever asked who told of the work of the Girls' Friendly and about the Lodge. A series of Teas was also started which have been held ever since July, every Thursday afternoon at the Lodge. On these occasions several ladies have been asked to act as Hostesses, the following Parishes have been represented:

St. Paul's, St. Matthias', Advent Mission, St. John's, Grace Mission, St. Stephen's, St. Athanasius', Good Shepherd, Church of the Redeemer, (all of L. A.); St. Mark's, Glendale; St. James', South Pasadena, and St. Matthias', Whittier.

The Deaconesses took one Tea and for the dates before Lent the following will be Hostesses: On January 29th, the Diocesan Officers, G. F. S., will receive: February 5th, Mrs. Covell, of St. Mary's, Culver City and Palms, and several ladies from St. James' and St. Barnabas'. February 12th, ladies from St. Luke's, and February 19th, several hostesses from the Church of the Angels. To all who have given of their time so graciously we extend our heartiest thanks.

One very lovely dance was given by the girls of the Lodge, their guests being their special men friends and members of the Y. P. F.

Our ideals for the Lodge are a financially sound institution, a real home in every sense of that beautiful word and the hope that no girl shall in the future be a member of that family for even the shortest stay without realizing in all her relationships there that she is in a Christian Home where dwells the Spirit and the Love of Christ, and where courtesy and consideration, gentleness and helpfulness are the rule.

STATISTICAL AND FINANCIAL REPORT

Membership in 15 Branches equals 402; associates 118; girls 284; girls under 16 years old, 113; girls between 16 and 18, 21; Girl Scouts, 42; number confirmed, 11. Number admitted to membership in 1924 equals 74. Three new branches in 1924—St. Michael's, Anaheim; St. James', South Pasadena; St. Andrew's, Fullerton.

GIFTS

Parish, $326.45; Social Service, $438.43; Missions, $512.33; Missionary pennies to St. Luke's, Phoenix, Arizona, $123.92; Day Nursery Japan, $80.00.

The real report of our work cannot be estimated by a financial or statistical report, for it is written on the hearts and in the lives of our girls. If in this year's work the G. F. S. ideals of friendship, of service, of humility, of purity, in thought, word and deed, of a deepened spiritual life have been incorporated into the lives of our associates and girls, then indeed our year's work has not been in vain.

Respectfully submitted,

VIOLET B. STEVENS, Diocesan President.

The accounts of the Girls' Friendly Society and of the Lodge have been audited by the firm of Thomas & Moore, Certified Public Accountants, who state in their report, the following: "The records of the Diocesan Treasurer were found to be in good condition"; and "the accounts of the Lodge have been well kept and they show a flourishing condition."

APPENDIX 20

REPORT OF WOMAN'S AUXILIARY

Number of Branches, 60.

Supply Department sent to Alaska: 67 packages of clothing and household supplies, one box of medicine, two boxes of candy, one box of overalls, four bales of hospital supplies and clothing.

Knitted goods—total value $5,772.75.

Seventeen Missionaries in our own Diocese received boxes. Two outside the Diocese, total number personal boxes, 19. Educational Secretary reports that there were held during the year 32 discussion groups, eleven program meetings, eight reading circles, one course of lectures, one Bible Class.

Altar Department has been able to do an unusually large work this year. Owing to the building and alterations of so many churches in the Diocese, many furnishings have passed through its hands.

Fourteen Missions have been helped; four were given altars. The Department purchased one portable altar for the General Missionary, and two others were given: one as a memorial to Mrs. Florence Lowe, this was given to Father Ruggles; and the other was sent to the southern part of the Diocese. The value of the gifts received and distributed was $1,633.30, and money received from pledges, $799.45; total value year's work, $2,232.75.

Most of the Diocesan Institutions have received some help from the Auxiliary.

Money given for special objects, $1,630; Paid through N. W. C. Treasurer, $1,013.52; In United Thank Offering Fund, $10,273.03; Total receipts, including last year's balance, $12,938.00.

Respectfully submitted,

HELEN G. MAGILL, President.

APPENDIX 21

REPORT OF BISHOP'S SCHOOL FOR YOUNG CHILDREN

I am very grateful for this opportunity to announce here in Convention the arrival of a new member of the Bishop's educational family, namely, The Glendora Foothills School, The Bishop's School for Young Children. As the Harvard School is the Bishop's school for the older boys, and as the La Jolla School is the Bishop's school for the older girls; so this new member of the group is the Bishop's school for the young children, both girls and boys.

The Glendora Foothills School is not, as many of you doubtless know, a new institution. Nevertheless, the former management has been completely superseded by an entirely new management; and the school is to be at once turned over to a non-profit corporation consisting of a board of trustees to be appointed by the Bishop of Los Angeles. It is, therefore, essentially under the jurisdiction of our Church.

This boarding school for young children, affording a homelike atmosphere in the country, does occupy, I think, a niche not otherwise filled in Southern California. Aside from this fact, however, it is rather on the ground of the aims and ideals of the new management than the present status of the school that it has a reason for existence and merits your attention here.

It is really very interesting to cast an unprejudiced glance over the field of education in this country in the year of our Lord 1925. The situation is extraordinary. A friend of mine recently took his three little daughters to Italy to be educated. I asked him why he did so, and he replied: "I am determined that my girls shall grow up in an atmosphere of reverence for holy things and where there is a vital sense of God's presence." He added, "Hygiene will not take its place." I think that is an excellent commentary on latter-day education, in general. It is the unconscionable product of our civilization, itself the result of the essential failure of Protestantism. At the base, so to speak, of this failure lies, in my opinion, materialism. Protestantism has swung round this curious circle: beginning with an emphasis on the individual conscience, round through self-development and outward success (the ability to "do things"), to the present—where, confusing a means for the end, it holds up as an ideal in our so-called civilization material efficiency. Deny this as you may, the fact remains that under the pragmatic school of education now in the saddle our institutions are, as a rule, sending out children equipped with a considerable amount of material efficiency into a meaningless universe.

It all reminds me of the old story of the man who went into the New England country to spend the night. Perhaps you know the New England farmhouse. When he returned to the city he said to his friend, "Now I know why the country air is so good." His friend asked him why, and he replied, "Because nobody ever uses any of it." Mr. Gould and I are enormously presumptuous. We believe that we have a perfectly good religion, only waiting to be used. And we want to use it. We have a firm conviction that the child, once we have won his confidence and respect, will tend to do—not what we tell him to do, but—what he thinks that we are actually doing ourselves; and that he will tend to have faith in—not what we tell him to believe, but—in what he thinks that we ourselves actually believe, and very acute he is in seeing through shams and frauds. Our polite bows to God do not really interest him. Now our presumptuousness lies in our hoping to create in this little school a faculty so permeated with,—not deism, nor ethics, not even with religion in general,—but so permeated with CHRISTIANITY that it will eventually reach the children and actually touch their lives in a vital way. We hope thus to start them on their journey between life and death equipped not only with material efficiency but also with the precious heritage of the ages, which is rightfully theirs. This Christianity we conceive to be the religion of the Cross, of Jesus Christ, the Son of God, the Light of the World. This light has come into the world. And this is the condemnation: that men preferred darkness because of their sins.

If I read your minds correctly, I quite agree with you that an ill-considered enthusiasm which cannot bear the heat and burden of the day ends by retarding the cause it seeks to further. If our enthusiasm is of that kidney, the sooner it evaporates the better for all concerned. As I look about this assembly, of keen critical power and long experience with men and with life, I feel very deeply that, however our ideals may soar toward high heaven, we must keep our feet firmly planted on the good earth. Yes, decidedly. Still, bearing this in mind,—if firmly conceived and patiently executed,—is not this plan worth trying? And, if we can stick to it long enough, will not time,—time, as the Greeks said, the wisest of all things, for he is the unfailing discoverer,—will not time itself fight for us; for the very fundamental constitution of things is against the present system? I may be a crank. I do not know. But it seems to me the cause is good; so good as to be worth venturing greatly in.

D. S. DOWNES, Principal.

REPORT OF HARVARD SCHOOL

Since making the last report the school had its twenty-fourth Commencement, graduating a class of thirty-four boys. Most of these young men are continuing their studies at various institutions of learning, including the University of California, Dartmouth, Stanford, California Institute of Technology, University of Southern California, Pomona, University of Hawaii, University of Arizona, Hobart, University of Oregon, University of Redlands, Franklin and Marshall, and the U. S. Naval Academy. It is interesting to note the wide range of colleges to which the school sends the different members of a single class.

School opened in September for the twenty-fifth year with a full enrollment. The faculty remains practically the same as the year before. The student body is fully up to the standard of any previous year. The spirit is excellent, the scholarship good, and the interest in wholesome, physical recreation is the best. The prospects for the entire year were never better. The graduating class numbers thirty-eight. The Chapel services are hearty and enjoyable. The early services are well attended. On Ash Wednesday almost the entire student body came to Chapel voluntarily at six o'clock in the morning. There were twelve confirmations last year, and several baptisms.

Respectfully submitted,

ROBERT B. GOODEN, Head Master.

In order to meet our 1923 Budget the Executive Council, upon vote of the Convention, appropriated $2,500.00 from the Diocesan funds. Additional sums amounting to $1,628.05 were received after the 1923 books were closed, all of which were used to make up the deficit, for which credit is now given, raising the grand total for 1924 to $76,639.35.

APPENDIX 24

REPORT OF THE GENERAL CHURCH PROGRAM SECRETARY
(N. W. C.)

Fifty-eight (58) Churches, reporting a total quota of $113,199.00, have pledged the amount of $95,462.00, or 84 per cent of their quotas.

Adding to this the amount expected in addition from among these Churches, there is the sum of $102,771.00, or 90 per cent of their quotas.

Two (2) churches formally reported they would make the Canvass later—San Gabriel and Montecito.

Seven (7) Churches, although formally answering requests for a report, apparently have made no Campaign—El Toro, Murrieta, Coronado, Escondido, Fallbrook, San Luis Rey, Santa Maria.

The following forty-one (41) Churches have made no formal report of a Campaign or Canvass—Covina, Inglewood, Los Angeles: Epiphany, Good Shepherd, St. Matthias', St. Andrew's, St. Mary-of-the-Angels', St. Philip's, St. Mary's Japanese; Long Beach, Santa Monica, Glendora, Wilmington, San Fernando, Hermosa, Torrance, Van Nuys, El Monte, El Sereno, La Crescenta, Lancaster, Owensmouth, Wilmar, Elsinore, Needles, San Bernardino, San Jacinto, Upland, Bostonia, Brawley, Calexico, Holtville, El Centro, Chula Vista, East San Diego, La Mesa, National City, Ocean Beach, San Diego, St. James'; Lompoc, Ventura.

Thirteen (13) of these forty-one Churches are Missions "not yet in Union with Convention," or Mission Stations. It is quite certain that several of these Churches above noted are making a Canvass and may report later.

Twenty-three (23) Churches pledged 100 per cent or over of their quotas: Downey, 2975; Eagle Rock, 544; Burbank, 479; Tujunga, 350; Culver City, 248; Huntington Park, 160; Pasadena, All Saints', 141; Los Angeles, Redeemer, 131; Santa Barbara, 119; Los Angeles, Angels, 118; Glendale, 115; Redondo, 111; Whittier, 110; San Diego, St. Paul's, 106; Los Angeles, Trinity, 104; Los Angeles, St. Stephen's, 102; South Pasadena, 101; and the following 100 per cent: Los Angeles, St. John's; Los Angeles, Grace; Beaumont; Riverside; and including Watts and Los Angeles, Advent, which were not given any quotas. St. John's, Sawtelle, was almost 100 per cent.

The following ten (10) Churches have pledged over 70 per cent of their quotas: Sawtelle, 91; Anaheim, 77; Los Angeles, St. Peter's, 76; Los Angeles, All Saints', 75; Los Angeles, St. Paul's, 74; Monrovia, 73; Pasadena, St. Mark's, 72; San Diego, All Saints', 71; Los Angeles, St. Thomas', 70; Redlands, 70.

The following eight (8) Churches have pledged over 50 per cent of their quotas: Hemet, 64; Los Angeles, SS. James' and Barnabas', 63; Ontario, 62; Oxnard, 56; Alhambra, 55; Pomona, 51; Santa Paula, 50; La Jolla, 50.

Twenty-seven (27) Churches reported increases in amount pledged over highest previous amount, and but eight (8) decreases from highest previous amount.

SOME SUMMARIES AND COMPARISONS

Parishes reporting: 1921, 65; 1922, 52; 1923, 55; 1924, 65; 1925, 58.

Amounts pledged by Diocese:

1921—$75,371.00; adding additional amounts expected—$80,142.00
1922—$80,986.00; adding additional amounts expected—$84,904.00

1923—$75,356.00; adding additional amounts expected—$79,825.00
1924—$78,876.00; adding additional amounts expected—$82,746.00
1925—$95,462.00; adding additional amounts expected—$102,771.00

One hundred per cent (100%) Churches: 1921, 7; 1922, 4; 1923, 18; 1924, 15; 1925, 23.

Fifty per cent (50%) Churches: 1921, 13; 1922, 19; 1923, 15; 1924, 20; 1925, 18; (but in 1925 there were 23 100% Churches in addition!)

W. CRESSWELL MUSHET, Treasurer.

Los Angeles, January 10, 1925.

We have audited the books of the Treasurer of the Diocese of Los Angeles and of the Corporation of the Diocese of Los Angeles for the period beginning January 17, 1924, and ending January 19, 1925, of which the foregoing statements are a summary. In each of the above examinations, we found the receipts and disbursements sufficiently vouched and the accounts and securities in order. The balances in bank have been verified by certificate of the depository.

APPENDIX 26

REPORT OF THE CHURCH EXTENSION SOCIETY

The Directors of the Church Extension Society, in the thirty-seventh year of the Society's existence, in presenting its Annual Report to Convention, refer with great satisfaction to the considerable extent of its operations over previous years, made possible by the sale of its Inglewood property.

The following loans have been made during the year, 1924.

To Immanuel Mission, El Monte.....	$ 500.00
To St. Bartholomew's Mission, El Sereno.....	300.00
To Seamen's Church Institute, San Pedro.....	1,000.00
To St. Barnabas' Mission, Eagle Rock.....	1,000.00
To Mission of the Advent, Los Angeles.....	500.00
To St. Luke's Mission, Calexico.....	400.00
A total of.....	$3,700.00

It will be seen by the Treasurer's Report that there remains a considerable balance in the treasury, this, however, is soon to be exhausted in grants already applied for but not yet completed.

The Directors are very anxious to increase the Society's capital, and so its yearly income, in order that it may be able to meet the growing demands, made upon it by the Bishops, for help towards securing grounds and buildings for the Missions which must be established in the new places so rapidly springing up all over Southern California; if the Episcopal Church is to provide her services and ministrations for the members of her faith among the incoming tide of new citizens.

The Treasurer's Report will be found appended.

All of which is respectfully submitted, for the Directors.

JOHN D. H. BROWNE, President.

APPENDIX 29

REPORT OF THE AUDITING COMMITTEE

To the Thirtieth Annual Convention, Diocese of Los Angeles.

Your Auditing Committee respectfully reports:

That, under its direction, the accounts for the past year of the Treasurers of the various funds of the Diocese have been audited by Messrs. Simmers, Mills and Adsit, Certified Public Accountants.

The report of the said Accountants, dated January 27th, 1925, accompanies and is made a part of this report.

The Committee, jointly with the Accountants, examined the bonds and other securities of the Diocese at the Safe Deposit Vaults of the First National Bank and found them as listed in the report.

THE AUDITING COMMITTEE,

HENRY E. BRETT, Chairman

ROBT. H. LINSAY.

January 27th, 1925.

*The Auditing Committee of the Diocese of Los Angeles,
Los Angeles, California.*

Dear Sirs:

We have examined the following books and accounts for the period beginning January 17, 1924 and ending January 19, 1925, viz., those of:

1. The Treasurer of the Diocese of Los Angeles
2. The Corporation of the Diocese of Los Angeles
3. The Nation Wide Campaign—Mr. W. F. Knight, Treasurer
4. The Church Pension Fund—Mr. Colin M. Gair, Treasurer.

In each of the above examinations, we found the receipts and disbursements sufficiently vouched and the accounts and securities in order.

Herewith we send you the following exhibits:

Exhibit 1—Summary of the investments of the Corporation of the Diocese of Los Angeles.

Exhibit 2—Statement of the receipts and disbursements of the Nation Wide Campaign.

Exhibit 3—Statement of the receipts and disbursements of the Church Pension Fund.

Regarding the exhibit of the Nation Wide Campaign, it should be noted that the Treasurer of the Nation Wide Campaign has taken credit for a remittance of $5,166.44 to the Treasurer of the Diocese, which does not appear in the accounts of the Treasurer of the Diocese, due to the fact that the books of the Treasurer of the Diocese were closed before the remittance was received by him. The amount will appear in the accounts of the Treasurer of the Diocese for the year beginning January 20th, 1925.

We do not send exhibits of the accounts of the Treasurer nor of the Corporation (apart from Exhibit 1), as Mr. Mushet has prepared and has had printed for circulation at the Convention exhibits similar to those exhibits which we would have prepared. We have examined the printed proofs and have found same correct in gross and apparently correct in detail.

Herewith we send you the certificate which we wish to be attached to Mr. Mushet's exhibits in the Convention Journal.

Yours very truly,

SIMMERS, MILLS AND ADSIT.

CLERICAL REPORTS

La Jolla, California,
January 15th, 1925.

*The Rt. Rev. Joseph H. Johnson, D.D.,
Bishop of Los Angeles.*

My dear Bishop:

From January to June (1924) the undersigned was privileged to serve as Chaplain to "The Bishop's School for Girls," La Jolla. A Vesper Service was held daily (Saturday excepted) and the Holy Eucharist on two Sundays in each month. Two were baptized and ten confirmed. Services were held also on the opening and closing days of each term.

Very faithfully yours,

WM. BEDFORD A. JONES,
Rector St. James'-by-the-Sea,

Oceanside, California,
January 30th, 1925.

*The Rt. Rev. Joseph H. Johnson, D.D.,
Los Angeles.*

My dear Bishop:

From January the first, 1924, to November the first, 1924, inclusive, I was in charge of Trinity Mission, Ocean Beach. Services were held each Sunday with celebration of Holy Communion the first Sunday of each month. During the year I officiated at three burial services; two in Oceanside and one in San Diego.

Respectfully submitted,

ARTHUR C. DODD.

414 North Monterey St., Alhambra, Calif.,
January 24, 1925.

Dear Bishop Johnson:

Was able to teach Bible Class every Sunday (except one), when we had Church School at Holy Trinity, Alhambra, in 1924.

Also attended at least one Sunday morning service (except one) held there during the year.

Walked to St. James' Church, South Pasadena, for one Sunday morning service.

Sincerely yours,

ISAAC HOLGATE.
Van Nuys, Calif., January 23, 1925.

*The Rt. Rev. Joseph H. Johnson, D.D.,
Bishop of Los Angeles.*

Dear Sir:

I beg leave to submit to you the following report of services rendered by me during the Convention year ending December 31, 1924. St. Mark's Mission, Van Nuys: Holy Eucharist, 22; Other public services, 7; Marriages, 2.

St. Simon's Church, San Fernando: Holy Eucharist, 19.

Private: Infant Baptism, 1.

Very respectfully,

W. F. HUBBARD,
Chaplain U. S. A., Retired.

2818 Orchard Ave., Los Angeles, California,
January 8, 1925.

*The Rt. Rev. Joseph H. Johnson, D.D.,
Los Angeles, California.*

Dear Bishop:

From March to December 31st, 1924, I celebrated the Holy Communion thirty-seven times in the Chapel at the House for Deaconesses, corner Boyle Avenue and 6th Street, Los Angeles, by the request of Deaconess Anna; and had one Litany Service and preached five times—in all 38 services—which, perhaps, should be reported to you, as these services are not included in any other report. The other 112 services in which I assisted or which I conducted during 1924 are included in the respective parochial reports.

Faithfully yours,

C. B. HUDGINS, Priest.

Diocesan Home for the Aged,
1428 S. Marengo Avenue, Alhambra, Los Angeles.

In this pleasant and beautiful Home there are now resident fifteen aged persons, six men and nine ladies, besides the matron, Miss Winter, and a nurse, a cook and houseman as helps, and the acting Chaplain.

Two of the above are blind, one lady and one gentleman.

Since I came to the Home, November 19, Holy Communion has been celebrated every Sunday at 7:00 A. M., and on Christmas Day; and a short service held at 4:00 P. M. with address. During the week we have short Evensong at 4:45, before the evening meal. The services are valued; and it is a privilege to minister, both in Chapel and otherwise, to these good and estimable Christian souls in their declining years, and to gain their friendship. If all their life histories could be told what a wonderful and inspiring volume it would make.

There was a Christmas tree in the hall on Christmas morning and everyone received some kind present, besides candies.

JOSEPH ARTHUR HULL.
January 7, 1925.

1304 Curson Avenue, Hollywood, Calif.,
January 15, 1925.

*The Rt. Rev. Joseph H. Johnson, D.D.,
Los Angeles, California.*

My dear Bishop:

Of my work during the year ending December 31, 1924, I beg leave to submit the following report:

Celebrations of the Holy Eucharist, 41; celebrations assisted, 1; week day celebrations, 4; Morning Prayer, 9; Morning Prayer, assisted, 1; sermons preached, 40.

Official acts: Baptisms, 4; marriages, 6; burials, 5; assisted, 1. These services were rendered at the various Missions in the jurisdiction of the General Missionary of the Diocese.

Also at the following places: St. Thomas' Church, Hollywood; St. Stephen's Church, Hollywood; Church of the Redeemer, Los Angeles; St. Athanasius' Church, Los Angeles; Good Samaritan Hospital, Los Angeles.

Very sincerely yours,

DUNCAN F. MACKENZIE.

2838 North Griffin Ave.,
Los Angeles, Cal.,
January 1, 1925.

*The Right Rev. Joseph H. Johnson, D.D.,
Bishop of Los Angeles,
Los Angeles, California.*

My dear Bishop:

During 1924 I officiated twenty-two times on sixteen different Sundays at the following churches: Epiphany, St. Andrew's and St. Luke's, Los Angeles; St. Mary's, Culver City; Christ Church, Ontario; St. Augustine by the Sea, Santa Monica; and Christ Church, Redondo Beach. I also baptized one infant at St. Mary's Culver City.

Respectfully yours,

TIMON E. OWENS.

135 Bellefontaine Street, Pasadena, Calif.,
January, 1925.

Right Rev. and dear Bishop:

I have to report that I have spent the past year quietly resting at my home in Pasadena, and find myself greatly benefited by the rest.

Dutifully yours,

HARRY THOMPSON.
Ventura, California,
January 11, 1925.

The Rt. Rev. The Bishop of Los Angeles.

Dear Bishop:

I desire to report that during the past Convention year I served as locum tenens: The Epiphany, Los Angeles, from January first to June first; St. John's, San Bernardino, from August first to September first; St. Mary of the Angels', Los Angeles, from October 5th to November 20th. I also officiated at the Church of the Advent, San Francisco; Redwood City; Santa Clara; St. Peter's, Oakland (all in the Diocese of California); Ventura, Redlands, Watts and St. Thomas', Hollywood. I am at present in temporary charge of St. Paul's Parish, Ventura.

I celebrated 87 Eucharists; baptized 2 adults and 9 infants (one being my great grand-child); married, 10; buried, 5; presented for confirmation, 14.

Very faithfully yours,

ERASMUS J. H. VAN DEERLIN.

SUGGESTIONS AS TO GIFTS, BEQUESTS OR DEVISES TO DIOCESAN INSTITUTIONS AND CHARITABLE AND
RELIGIOUS PURPOSES UNDER THE AUSPICES OF THE CHURCH

The Diocesan Corporation, known in law as "The Protestant Episcopal Church in the Diocese of Los Angeles," is the Trustee under the Canons of all the permanent invested funds of the Diocese, that is:

The Episcopate Endowment Fund;

The Diocesan Missionary Endowment Fund.

The Diocesan Corporation is also the Trustee to which should be conveyed all property for the benefit and use of the organized Missions of the Diocese under the trusts provided in the Canons.

The Bishop of the Diocese is incorporated as a corporation sole under the name of "The Bishop of the Protestant Episcopal Church in Los Angeles, present incumbent, Joseph Horsfall Johnson," and is authorized to receive and administer the respective funds and property, for the use and benefit of the Church in the Diocese, which may be entrusted to him, including all religious, benevolent or educational objects connected therewith. All gifts, bequests or devises for the establishment of the Cathedral, or of schools under the auspices of the Church, will be received and held by the Bishop, as corporation sole, until the incorporation of the several and appropriate corporations authorized to receive and administer the respective funds and property.

"The Hospital of the Good Samaritan" is the corporate title of the hospital organization, which is organized and conducted under the auspices of Church people, and is officially connected with the Diocese.

Free beds in perpetuity may be endowed in the hospital upon the payment of $15,000, or gifts, bequests or devises for the benefit of the hospital may be made to the Corporation.

Before the rising of the Convention, the minutes of the last day's meeting shall be read and approved, and the presiding officer shall then bid the Convention to such closing devotions as he shall deem appropriate.

NOTE:—When it is desired that an evening meeting of the Convention shall be held, a resolution to that effect must be adopted before 5:00 o'clock in the afternoon of that day.

RULES OF ORDER OF THE CONVENTION OF THE DIOCESE OF LOS ANGELES

TIONS

No motion shall be considered as before the Convention until seconded and stated to the Convention by the presiding officer. If not presented in writing, the President, or any member of the Convention, may require the motion to be reduced to writing before being presented to the Convention. After a motion is in possession of the Convention the mover cannot modify or withdraw it without the consent of the Convention.

RULE 2

DER OF
TIONS

When a question is before the Convention, no motion shall be received but to lay it upon the table, to take a vote thereon at a certain time, to postpone to a certain time, to postpone indefinitely, to commit or to amend; which motions shall have precedence in the order named. The motion to take a vote at a certain time shall be decided without debate.

RULE 3

END-
NTS

When a motion is under consideration, a motion to amend, a motion to amend that amendment, and a motion for a substitute for both amendments shall be in order. These motions shall be considered and voted upon in the reverse order in which they are received.

RULE 4

N-
BATABL
TIONS

The following motions shall not be debatable: to adjourn (which shall always be in order when no member is speaking), to lay on the table, to take from the table, to close debate, to extend the limits of debate, an objection to the consideration of a question, a call for the order of the day, to reconsider an undebatable question, to fix the time of adjournment, to postpone to a certain time, to permit the withdrawal of a motion, and to suspend the rules. If a motion to lay an amendment on the table be carried, the matter before the Convention shall be proceeded with as if no amendment had been offered.

RULE 5

ISION
ESTION

If a question under consideration contains several distinct propositions, the same may be divided on the request of any member, subject to the decision of the presiding officer that the division proposed can be made. If objection is made to such division, a motion to divide may be put before the Convention. When a motion for a division is made, the mover must specify the manner in which he desires the question to be divided. A motion to strike out and insert shall be indivisible.

RULE 6

AKING

No member may speak more than once on the same question, nor longer than fifteen minutes. By consent of three-fourths of the members, the Convention may grant leave to a member to speak a second time on the same question, but no longer than ten minutes. A Chairman of a Committee, or the mover of a resolution, presenting a report, shall be permitted an opening and a closing speech on every question submitted for action, but not to exceed ten minutes for each speech, unless special leave be given by the Convention to extend the time.

A member may speak for not longer than two minutes, when nominating a candidate for election to any office.

A member desiring to make a nomination shall rise and receive the recognition of the Chair before naming his candidate.

MEMBERS
UST
OTE

RULE 7

Every member present shall vote, whenever a question is put, unless excused by the Convention on account of his being personally interested in the result, or for other cause.

RULE 8

ANNER OF OTING

The vote shall be taken by ayes and noes, or by orders when called for by five members, and shall, in such case, be entered on the minutes.

RULE 9

INDIVIDUAL
ECORDED
PON EQUEST

In taking the vote by orders it shall be the right of any member of the delegation who may dissent from the vote of the majority of the delegation, to have the fact of his dissent recorded in the minutes.

RULE 10

ECONSID-
RATION

In all questions decided numerically, a motion to reconsider must be made by one member, and seconded by another, who voted in the majority. In all questions decided by a vote by orders, a motion to reconsider, if made by a Clergyman voting in the majority, must be seconded by a Lay-Delegate voting in the majority; and if made by a Lay-Delegate, it must be seconded by a Clergyman voting in the majority. A motion to reconsider must be made within twenty-four hours after the vote was taken. When a motion to reconsider a vote prevails, the question is again before the Convention as if no vote had been taken upon it. No question shall be reconsidered more than once.

RULE 11

SPECIAL
OMMIT-
EES

All Special Committees shall be appointed by the President, unless otherwise ordered.

RULE 12

REPORTS OF OMMIT-
EES

The reports of all Committees shall be in writing. If a report is received by the Convention when presented, it may at once be acted on, or laid on the table for future consideration. The reception of a report by the Convention does not adopt it or its recommendations. If it is desired that a report, or its recommendations, shall become the action of the Convention, a resolution or resolutions to that effect must accompany it. When the report of a Special Committee is acted upon by the Convention, the Committee ceases to exist.

RULE 13

POINTS OF ORDER

When a member is called to order by the President, or by another member rising to a point of order, he shall immediately take his seat unless permitted to explain. All questions of order shall be determined by the President; but any member may appeal from the decision of the Chair, and on such appeal no member may speak more than once without leave of the Convention.

HANGING
ULES

The prescribed Order of Business shall not be departed from, nor shall any Rule of Order be suspended or changed, unless by a vote of two-thirds of the members present. Nor shall any Rule of Order, or

Order of Business, be changed without one day's previous notice to that effect, except by unanimous consent, provided that a motion to suspend the Rule of Order, in order to direct the Secretary to cast the ballot of the Convention, shall require the unanimous consent of the Convention.

RULE 15

QUORUM
TO ELECT

The majority of a quorum shall always be required to elect an officer.

RULE 16

COMMITTEE ON RULES OF ORDER

The President of the Convention may appoint a Standing Committee on Rules of Order. All proposed changes in the Rules of Order shall be referred to such Committee, if appointed, for consideration and report. When questions of order are raised, which are not provided for by these rules, the President, if he so desires, may refer such questions to the Committee on Rules for their opinion. "Roberts' Rules of Order" shall be the parliamentary guide in all cases not provided for in the foregoing rules.

ELECTION
BY CONCURRENT
VOTE

In all elections required to be made by concurrent votes of both orders, the ballots of the Clerical Order shall first be counted and the list of the person or persons elected by said order shall be declared; the ballots of the Lay Order shall next be counted and the list of the person or persons elected by said order shall be declared. Any person or persons whose name or names shall appear on both of the said lists of persons elected shall be declared elected by the Convention, and no person shall be declared elected by the Convention unless he shall have been so elected by the vote of each order considered separate and apart from the other order.

RULE 18

APPROPRIATIONS

All resolutions carrying appropriations shall be presented during the first half hour of the afternoon session of the First Day.

PRINTED
DISTRIBUTED

All printed reports shall be delivered to the Secretary for distribution at the opening of the afternoon session on the First Day, and five minutes only shall be allotted for hearing a summary of each printed report when called up. This provision is not to apply to the Report of the Committee on Canons, or the Report of the Finance Committee.

RULE 20

RESOLUTIONS
TO BE FILED

Contemplated resolutions likely to invoke debate shall be filed with the Committee on the Dispatch of Business before the opening of any session so that provision may be made in the Calendar for their consideration.

CANONS AMENDED—CONVENTION, 1925

1. Canon V, Sections 20 and 22, were amended by omitting the words, "or special."
2. Canon XXXIX, Section 235(b) was amended by changing the word, "thirty-five" (Convention, 1924) to "twenty-five."
3. Canon XXXIV, Section 197(c), was amended by adding, after the word "thereof," "such premiums shall be an assessment subject to the provisions of Canon IV, Section 15, and in no case shall such assessment exceed $7\frac{1}{2}$ per cent of the stipend of the clergy whose premium it is."
4. Canon VIII, Section 62, was amended by adding, after the word "Missionary," "and its agreement to pay the Pension Premium upon such pledge, provided such premium shall in no case exceed $7\frac{1}{2}$ per cent of the amount pledged for the support of a Missionary."

In Memoriam

SIDNEY H. WOODFORD

GEORGE W. DUNLAP

Priests

The death of the Rev. Sidney H. Woodford, the oldest in Orders of all our Clergy, occurred at the Good Samaritan Hospital, on the Second Sunday in Lent. Mr. Woodford came to Los Angeles from Tucson, Arizona, in 1903, and served the Church with great zeal at several places in the Los Angeles Diocese, among them, a number of years as Missionary at Oceanside, his last charge being at Trinity Church, Orange, which he resigned in 1914. He was a graduate of Nashotah, and took Orders in Wisconsin in 1865, and at the time of his death had been 53 years in the Ministry.

Mr. Woodford had an unusually keen and analytical mind and, to the close of his life, was an advanced student in all lines of ecclesiastical and philosophical thought.

Funeral services were held on Wednesday, March 18, from St. John's Church, Bishop Johnson and Dr. Davidson taking the service. Burial was in Hollywood Cemetery.

The Rev. George W. Dunlap died after a lingering illness on July 31st at his home at Escondido, California. The burial service was held in Trinity Church, Escondido, on August 4th. The Rt. Rev. Joseph H. Johnson, D.D., officiated, assisted by the Rt. Rev. W. Bertrand Stevens, D.D., and the Rev. William S. Blacksheer, deacon-in-charge of Trinity Mission.

Mr. Dunlap was graduated from Kentucky University in 1870, and from its law school in 1878. He practised law till 1902, when he became a Presbyterian evangelist.

In 1910, he was ordained deacon and priest by Bishop Olmsted, of Colorado. For a number of years he did valuable missionary work in the mining camps of Colorado and Utah. Removing to Southern California in 1917, he was appointed priest-in-charge of Trinity Mission, Escondido. He occupied that post until ill health necessitated his retirement last spring. On April 29th, the occasion of his seventy-fifth birthday, he was tendered a community reception by the people of Escondido, by whom he was held in the highest esteem.

WILLIAM B. BURROWS
FRANK ROUDENBUSH
Priests

On August 1st of this last year, the Rev. William B. Burrows, a canonical priest of this Diocese, long non-resident, passed to his rest at Pascoag, in the State of Rhode Island. Owing to serious deafness Mr. Burrows had been unable to exercise his ministry effectively for quite a quarter of a century. For the greater portion of this time, Mr. Burrows lived in the far East. During his ministry in Santa Ana and Orange County he won for himself much love and affection and, even now, though those years lie far back in the past, many beautiful memories recall Mr. Burrows, once a devoted pastor and an attached friend.

The Rev. Frank Roudenbush, rector of St. Thomas' Church, Hollywood, died suddenly on Sunday, September 14th, while walking from Church. Death was occasioned by a heart attack.

Mr. Roudenbush had celebrated the Holy Eucharist at the early hour, going thence to the home of a sick parishioner to administer the Sacrament. He then returned to the Church and addressed the members of the Church School. Soon after this he mentioned to the senior warden that he was suffering with pain near his heart. On the advice of his warden, the Rev. Mr. Roudenbush asked his lay-reader to conduct the service, while he himself sat in the nave with Mrs. Roudenbush. Following the service he greeted members of the congregation at the church door and then started toward his home. He had walked only a block when he collapsed and died instantly.

Mr. Roudenbush was graduated from Albion College in 1898, and then saw service in the Spanish American war. At its conclusion he took his theological course at Bexley Hall. He was ordained deacon in 1902, and priest in 1903, both by Bishop Leonard, of Ohio. After serving several years at St. Paul's Church, Fremont, Ohio, he became rector of St. Luke's Church, Kalamazoo, Mich. Removing to the Diocese of Los Angeles in 1915, he became curate at St. John's Church, Los Angeles, resigning this post to become civilian chaplain at Camp Kearny, near San Diego, where he served for eighteen months. Upon the organization of St. Thomas' Church in West Hollywood, in the spring of 1920, he was elected its first rector.

In this parish, by his strong and winning personality, he organized a large and devotedly-loyal congregation, whose high appreciation of their late rector best testifies to his abundant and fruitful labors.

The funeral was attended by a congregation that overflowed the Church and school room; the Bishops and Dr. Davidson conducting the service.

*"Grant them, O Lord, eternal rest,
And let light perpetual shine upon them."*
